nant is the Covenant of the Goſpel, which is a living Covenant, a ſpiritual Covenant, an inward Covenant, and the Law or Rule of it cannot be written outwardly. Read the tenour of the new Coveant, Heb. 8. 10. I will put my Laws into their Minds, and write them in their hearts. If God himſelf ſhould take the ſame Laws, and write them outwardly; yet, ſo written, they are not the new Covenant: at moſt they would be but an outward draught of Laws written in the new Covenant. And mark, this is one difference given between the new Covenant and the old, the Laws of the one were written outwardly, in Tables of Stone, the Laws of the other were to be written in the Heart. That is the Book wherein the Laws of the new Covenant were promiſed to be written, and there they are to be read. So that he that will read and obey the Laws of the Covenant of life, muſt look for them in that Book, wherein God hath promiſed to write them: for though in other books he may read ſome outward deſcriptions of the thing, yet here alone can he read the thing it ſelf. Chriſt is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. What is a Chriſtians rule? Is not the way of God his rule? Is not Gods truth his rule? and Is not the truth in Jeſus where it is taught and to be heard, and to be received even as it is in Jeſus? Epheſ. 4. 21. Is not he the King, the Prieſt, the Prophet, the Sacrifice, the Way to God, the truth of God, the life it ſelf, the living path out of Death, yea all in all to the believer, whoſe eye is opened to behold him? The Scriptures teſtifie of Chriſt, but they are not Chriſt; they alſo teſtifie of truth, and are a true Teſtimony, but the truth it ſelf is in Jeſus, who by his living Spirit writes it in the heart which he hath made living. And ſo a Chriſtian's life is in the Spirit: If we live in the Spirit, let us alſo walk in the Spirit, Gal. 5. 25. The whole life and courſe of a Chriſtian is in the volumn of that Book, as the Lord opens the leaves of it in him. The gift of God, the meaſure of Faith, given him by God, that's his rule; that's his rule of knowledge, of propheſying, of obedience, Heb. 12. Rom. 1. 4. and 12. 6. If he keep there, if he walk according to the proportion of it, he errs not: but out of the Faith, in the error, in all he knows, in all he believes, in all he does The new Creature, that which God hath new created in the heart, in which life breaths, and nothing but life breaths, which is taught by God, and true to God from its very infancy, that's his rule whereby he is to walk, the Apoſtle expreſly calls it ſo, Gal. 6. 15, 16. That which is begotten by God is a Son; and the Son, as he is begotten by the breath of the Spirit, ſo he is preſerued and led by the ſame breath; and ſuch as are ſo led are Sons, and none elſe; for it is not reading of Scriptures, and gathering rules out thence that makes a Son, but the receiving of the Spirit, and the being led by the Spirit, Rom. 8. 14, 15 And being the whole Worſhip of the Goſpel is in the Spirit, there is a neceſſity of receiving that in the firſt place; and then in it the Soul learns to know and wait for its breathings and movings, and follows on towards the Lord in them. The Spirit cannot be with-held from breathing on that which he hath begotten, and that breath is a guide; a rule, a way, to that which it breatheth upon. Now this is moſt manifeſt even from the Scriptures themſelves, they expreſly calling Chriſt the Way, the Truth, &c. the new Creature, the Rule, the Faith, Grace, or gift given to be the rule, teſtifying the heart to be that which God hath choſen to write his Laws in; but where do they call themſelves a perfect rule of Faith and Obedience? They are they (ſaith Chriſt) which teſtifie of me, and ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. John 5, 39 40. Life cannot be received from the Scriptures, but only from Chriſt the Fountain thereof: no more can the Scriptures give the rule, but point to the Fountain of the ſame life, where alone the rule of life, as the life it ſelf, can be received. The Scriptures cannot ingraft into Chriſt, nor give a living rule to him that is ingrafted: but he that hath heard the Teſtimony of the Scriptures concerning Chriſt, and hath come to him, muſt abide in him, and wait on him for the writing of the Law of the Spirit of life in his heart, and this will be his rule from the Law of Sin and Death, even unto the Land of life. Now if men have miſtaken in the night of darkneſs, and put the Scriptures out of their place, (even in the place of the Spirit) and ſo have become Miniſters, not of the Spirit, but of the letter, whereas the Apoſtles were made able Miniſters of the New Teſtament, not of the Letter, but of the Spirit, 2 Cor. 3. 6. Let them not be offended at the Spirit of God for teaching us otherwiſe, nor at us for learning as the Spirit of God hath taught us, the Scriptures alſo teſtifying that this is the rule, but no where ſetting up themſelves for the rule. And it is the ſame Spirit, which would now fix men in the Scriptures, to keep men from

from Christ the living rule and only way to life eternal, as formerly kept men by Traditions from the Scriptures, though it is hard for them who are intangled in this deceit, to see it.

Now for the proof of these things thus barely here charged, the Reader is referred to Mr. Norton's (as they stile him) Tractate against the Quakers. Concerning the validity whereof, I refer the Reader to Francis Howgils Answer thereto, wishing him to read both in the fear and dread of the Almighty, waiting for his counsel to guide him in the true discerning, which of them savours of mans wisdom, and which of them writes from acquaintance with the Truth it self. In which Answer of his he recites such errors of that Norton, as would make a great sound against the Quakers, if any such could justly be charged upon them. I shall mention only two or three of them, viz. That God is a distinct Subsistence from the Son and Spirit; and that the Son is a distinct Subsistence from the Father and the Spirit: and because it is said, the Father shall give you another Comforter, this another he saith is intelligible of the Essence. (Are there then three distinct infinite Essences or Beings) That the Spirit of God without the Letter is no Spirit. (He was before the Letter, he was never limited to the Letter, he will be after the Letter, and he is what he is without the Letter.) That Christs words John. 17. 21. give an uncertain sound, (where have any of the Quakers cast such a blemish upon any portion of Scripture?) Surely this man had more need to seek to have his own Vessel cleansed, than to accuse others of Errors or Blasphemy. And if he have no other way to overthrow them, than by maintaining such kind of things as these against them, he will never get Victory over them any other ways than by the outward Sword: but by the Bloud of the Lamb, and by the word of his Testimony, and not loving their lives unto the Death, they will easily overcome all such kind of Champions.

4. The fourth and last instance which they give of the destructiveness of their Doctrine to the fundamental Truths of Religion, is, That Opinion of theirs of being perfectly pure and without Sin, which (say they) tends to overthrow the whole Gospel, and the very vitals of Christianity: for they that have no Sin have no need of Christ, or of his satisfaction, or bloud to cleanse them, nor of Faith, Repentance, &c.

Answ. That the Lord God is able perfectly to redeem from Sin in this life; that he can cast out the strong man, cleanse the House, and make it fit for himself to dwell in; that he can finish transgression and sin in the heart, and bring in everlasting righteousness; that he can tread down Satan under the feet of his Saints, and make them more than Conquerors over him; this they confess they steadily believe. But that every one that is turned to the light of the Spirit of Christ in his heart, is presently advanced to this state, they never held forth: but that the way is long, the travel hard, the enemies and difficulties many, and that there is need of much Faith, Hope, Patience, Repentance, Watchfulness against Temptations, &c. before the life in them arrive at such a Pitch. Yet for all this, saith Christ to his Disciples, Be ye perfect, directing them to aim at such a thing, and the Apostle saith, Let us go on unto perfection, and Christ gave a Ministry for the perfecting of the Saints: and they do not doubt but that he that begins the work, can perfect it even in this life, and so deliver them out of the hands of Sin, Satan, and all their spiritual enemies, as that they may serve God without fear of them any more, in holiness and righteousness before him all the days of their lives.

Now how is this Doctrine, or how is this People because of their believing and holding forth this Doctrine, guilty of all this great and heavy charge that is laid upon them here, as that they have no need of Christ, his Satisfaction, his Blood, nor of Faith, Repentance, growing in Grace, Gods Word and Ordinances, nor of Watchfulness and Prayer, &c. Let us consider the thing a little further.

First, The Doctrine of Perfection, if it should be granted to deny all this, yet cannot be supposed to deny the need thereof, until the state of Perfection be attained. Nay, they that truly believe that such a state is attainable, cannot deny the use of those things which are proper to lead to that state, but will conscientiously apply themselves thereto, and press all others thereto, who desire to attain that state. And they that have either heard them speak, or read their Writings with any equality of mind, may abundantly testifie for them against the unrighteousness and injury of this charge. Their life lies in Christ, their peace in his satisfaction for them, and in a sensible feeling of his bloud sprinkled in their Consciences to cleanse them from Sin; and by that Faith which is Gods gift, they feel, and wait further to feel the righteousness of Christ imputed to them for Justification. And as for being perfectly just in themselves, it is a very unrighteous charge upon them: for their Justice and righteousness is in Christ for ever, and not of themselves; but in the denyal and crucifying of self are they made partakers of it, which is bestowed by the free grace, mercy and power of him who hath mercy on them, and not by any willing or running of theirs. And as for Repentance, they feel the need of it, and find a godly sorrow wrought in them, and a bitter mourning over him whom they once pierced, and still pierce, so far as they hearken to the Tempter, and follow the motions and lusts of the Transgressing nature. And they do both Watch and Pray against Sin, and feel what a bitter thing it is to have the Watch so slackned, whereby the Temptation prevails, which would lead to sin. And as for purifying themselves daily, and putting off the old man, and putting on the new; it is that which their hearts delight to be continually exercised about: and all this with an hope that it may be effected, that the Vessel may be made holy to the Lord, a fit spiritual Temple for him to dwell in, that he may display his Life, Glory, Power, and pure presence in them But if the belief that this may be attained, in the way wherein God leadeth them towards it, and an hope to attain it, with an acknowledgment of it so far as it is attained; I say, if this make them guilty of so great a charge, then they are indeed guilty: for they cannot but believe it, wait for it, hope for it, and acknowledge it, so far as they feel it wrought in them. But how can this possibly make them guilty of denying these things, seeing the exercise of these things not only standeth with, but is increased by such a belief and hope?

is

Secondly, The state of Perfection it self doth not exclude these things, in such a way as this charge seems to intimate. For in the state of perfection, the bloud is not laid aside as useless, but remains to keep pure for ever. It is the Blood of the everlasting Covenant, (Heb: 13. 20) both the Covenant and the Blood last for ever, and are useful even to them that are perfect. And there is need and use of the Faith in the Bloud, to believe the preservation. As the Covenant it self lasts; so that which lets into, and keeps in the Covenant lasts also. That which unites, and ties the Soul to Christ the life, abides in the Soul for ever, even as the union it self abides. And there is a growing in the life, even where the heart is purified from Sin, even as Christ did grow and wax strong in Spirit: for a state of perfection doth not exclude degrees. And so there is also a need of watching against Temptations in a perfect state; for Adam was perfect, and yet he needed a watch: and Christ was perfectly pure and without sin, and yet he did both Watch and Pray. So that if any were brought to the perfect state of a man, even unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ, which the Ministry was given to bring all the Saints unto, Ephes. 4. 11, 12, 13. if any were taught and enabled so to walk in the light, as to be cleansed by the Blood from all Sin, and to have such fellowship with the Father, and the Son, as might make their Joy full, 1 John 1. 3, 4, 7. If any were brought to that state of Glory, as to be chast Virgins, 2 Cor. 11. 2. without spot or wrinkle of the flesh, but holy and without blemish, Ephes. 5. 27. If any should be made perfect in every good work to do his will, which was a thing the Apostle prayed for, Heb. 13. 21. If any should have so put of the old man, and have put on the Wedding Garment, as to be made ready and fit to be marryed to the Lamb, Rev. 19. 7. Yet this would not exclude faith in the blood, or Prayer, or Watchfulness to keep the Garment pure, &c. nor growth in the life. And this we are not ashamed to profess, that we are pressing after, and some have already attained very far, even to be made perfect as pertaining to the Conscience, being so ingrafted into Christ the power of God, so planted into the likeness of his Death and Resurrection, so encompassed with the Walls and Bulwarks of Salvation, as that they feel no condemnation for sin, but a continual justification of the life, being taught, led, and inabled to walk, not after the flesh but after the Spirit, Rom. 8. 1.

From what they have said concerning this opinion of perfection (as they call it) they draw an Argument against their other Doctrines in these words. Such fundamentals of Christianity are overthrown by this one Opinion of theirs, and how more by all their other Doctrines?

Answ. To which I shall say this, if their Grounds and Proofs against any other Doctrines of the Quakers, be no more weighty and demonstrative, then those they have here brought forth againſt the Doctrine of perfection, they may ſpare entertaining prejudices againſt them and condemning them, and in the firſt place weigh them in a more equal Ballance than they have done this. And I dare appeal to any naked and unbyaſſed Spirit, who ſhall fairly conſider what is above-written, whether the Doctrine of perfection be ſuch an hideous error as they have repreſented it? Nay whether it be not a precious truth of the Goſpel of Chriſt, and a great incouragement to him who ſhall follow the command of Chriſt, who ſaith, be ye perfect, to believe that (in the way of Faith and Obedience) he may be wrought up to ſuch an eſtate by the Free-grace, Mercy, Love, and Power of God? Yea, let me add this Word more, he that feeleth the everlaſting Arm working one ſin out of his heart, cannot but believe that the ſame Arm can work out all, and pluck up every Plant which the heavenly Father hath not planted, which hope and belief cauſeth him with joy to follow this Arm through the Regeneration. But if I did believe there were no perfecting the work of Redemption in this life, but I muſt ſtill in part be a Slave to Satan, ſtill crying out of the Body of ſin and death, and never have my part purified for the holy One to inhabit in, but remain in part unconverted, unchanged, unregenerated, unſanctified, Oh how heavily ſhould I go on, I am ſure it would be as a weight upon my Spirit in reſiſting of Sin and Satan: This is not the glad Tidings of the everlaſting Goſpel, but ſad news from the borders of death, which would keep the creature not only in the bonds of death but without hope of deliverance in this life, and refer the hope to that day wherein there is no more working out of Redemption, but the eternal judgment of the Tree as it falls.

Now, having after this manner proved that the Doctrines of the Quakers are deſtructive to the fundamental truths of Religion, they lay down their argument whereupon they conclude that it is lawful for them, nay their duty to put them to death, in theſe Words. Now the commandment of God is plain, that he that preſumes to ſpeak lies in the name of the Lord, and turns people out of the way which the Lord hath commanded to walk in, ſuch an one muſt not live but be put to death, Zech. 13. 3. Deut. 13. 6. and 18, 20, Anſw. 1. By what hath been ſaid againſt them, it is not manifeſt that they have ſpoken lies in the name of the Lord. Nay, if they themſelves who thus charge them, could but ſoberly and mildly, with a Chriſtian Spirit, weigh the thing, would it not rather appear. that they in thus falſly charging them, and managing ſuch untrue and unrighteous arguments againſt them, have ſpoken lies, both concerning them, and againſt the Lord and his Truth? And as for turning men out of the way, that cannot be juſtly charged on them, who turn men to Chriſt the living Way, and deliver the ſame meſſage the Apoſtles did, that God is light, and in him is no darkneſs at all, and who point them to that place, where God hath ſaid, this light is to be found, which is the heart, where God writes the new Covenant, and the Laws thereof, Heb. 8. where the Word of Faith is nigh, Rom. 10. Surely they that direct hither, do not turn men out of the way. But they that point men to gueſs at the meanings of Scriptures, and to gather knowledge, and form rules to themſelves out of it by their own natural Wit and Underſtanding, which can never reach the myſteries of the Kingdom of God, and which God hides the true knowledge of the Scriptures from, theſe are thoſe that turn men out of the way. For they that rightly underſtand the Scriptures, muſt firſt receive a meaſure of the Spirit to underſtand it with; even as they that wrote any part thereof, did firſt receive a meaſure of the Spirit to write it by.

2. It is not manifeſt by theſe places quoted, that the Governours of New-England have received authority from the Lord to put the Quakers to death, if their Doctrines were ſuch as they accuſe them to be. That of Deut. 13. 6. is a manifeſt caſe concerning one that ſhould tempt to the following of other Gods, of the Gods of the people round about, nigh or far off, in ſuch a caſe the offender was to be ſtoned to death, v. 10: but is this appliable to caſes of Doctrine? That of Deut. 18. 20. gives a clear note how the Prophet may be known that ſpeaks a lie in the name of the Lord, and what kind of lie it is, for which he is to be put to death, ver. 22. but it doth not ſay that every man in the Commonwealth of Iſrael, that holdeth any Doctrine contrary to what ſome of them might call the fundamental Doctrines of the Law, ſhould be put to death That of Zech. 13. 3. is a Propheſie, not a Command, and is not to be underſtood in mans Wiſdom, Wiſdom, nor to be fulfilled in mans Will. It were better to wait for the true openings of Propheſies in the Spirit, than to let the carnal part looſe to gather ſomewhat out of them for the ſatisfying of the fleſh, and making its thirſt after the bloud of God's Lambs appear more plauſible. I would but put this queſtion to your conſciences in the ſight of God, whether in a conſcientious ſubmiſſion to the Will of God in this Scripture, ye put them to death, or whether from this Scripture ye ſeek a ſhelter and Cover for the thing, having already done it, or fully purpoſed to do it?

So that the caſe is not here the ſame with any of the caſes mentioned in thoſe Scriptures: for if ſome of their Doctrines were lies (which ye have been very far from proving) yet it was not for ſuch kind of lies that death was appointed in the Common-Wealth of Iſrael. And yet there is a large difference between what was lawful to be done in the Kingdom or Commonwealth of Iſrael, and what is now lawful to be done. The Kingdom or Commonwealth of Iſrael was a ſtate outwardly repreſentative, of what was inwardly to be done in the ſtate of the Goſpel by Chriſt the King thereof. He is the King and Law-giver to his people, and he is their Judge concerning their receiving or rejecting them, concerning their obeying or diſobeying them, concerning their holding the Faith, or their letting go the Faith; and maintaining things contrary thereto. And he doth judge his people here in this life, ſo far as he thinks fit, Heb. 10. 30, 31. reſerving alſo what he thinks fit for another time of judgment, Acts 17. 31. And who is he that ſhall take his office out of his hand, and judge one of his ſervants in the things of his Kingdom? Rom. 14. 4. Is not this an intruding into Chriſt's Kingly office? He gave authority to, and command for the doing of ſuch things outwardly before his coming, as might repreſent what he would do inwardly after his coming: but where hath he given authority ſince his coming to do ſuch things any more? Doth not the typical King, with his typical Government ceaſe, after that King with his Government which it figured out, is come?

O Governours of New-England, to take away the life of a man is a weighty thing, and the Lord will not hold him guiltleſs, who either doth it in a violent manner, or who maketh an unjuſt Law to do it by. But how precious in the ſight of the Lord, is the death of his Saints! O how will ye be able to bear the weight of their bloud, when the Lord maketh inquiſition for it. Ye had need have a very clear warrant in this caſe. O how will ye anſwer this thing at the judgment Seat of Chriſt! Alaſs, ſuch arguments as theſe will ſtand you in little ſtead: But ye have done it, and now muſt maintain it: and it is exceeeing hard for you (being thus deeply ingaged in the ſight of the Nations) to come to a ſober and ſerious conſideration of the ſtate of the caſe, as it ſtands before the Lord.

2. The ſecond Ground or Conſideration which they hold forth to their clear Law of baniſhment and death againſt the Quakers, to be warrantable and juſt, is this. Becauſe they are far from giving that honour and reverence to Magiſtrates which the Lord requireth, and good men have given to them: but on the contrary, ſhew contempt againſt them in their very outward geſture and behaviours, and ſome of them at leaſt ſpare not to belch railing and curſing Speeches, &c.

Anſw. That we do not give that honour and reverence to Magiſtrates which the Lord requireth, deſerves a weighty proof. For what we do, or forbear in this kind, we do as in the ſight of the Lord, as perſons who are not only liable to ſuffer from men, but alſo to give an account to him at the laſt day. Now towards Magiſtrates our carriage is thus, as in the preſence of the Lord.

1. We obſerve their commands in all things that are according to God. We ſubmit our ſelves to the Government that is Supreme, and to the Governours under the Supreme, for the Lord's ſake, who in their ſeveral places ought to be for the puniſhment of evil doers, and for the praiſe of them that do well, according to 1 Pet. 2. 13, 14: This is God's Ordinance, and here Magiſtracy is in its right place, namely, in puniſhing the evil-doer for his evil-deeds, but not make a man an offender for a word, or for a geſture, which is neither good nor evil in it ſelf, but as it is done. He that pulleth off his Hat or boweth in flattery, or to pleaſe man, in him it is evil: He that forbeareth to do it in obedience to God, and in the fear of his name, in him it is is good.

2. When any Magiſtrates puniſh us for well-doing, for our obedience to the Lord's Spirit, though we know God never gave power to any Magiſtracy, to puniſh therefore, yet we patiently ſuffer under them, referring our cauſe to him that judgeth righteouſly, and waiting on him for ſtrength to carry us through our ſufferings for his Names ſake.

3. When we appear before them, we appear as in the Lord's preſence, deſiring his guidance, that we may give due honour and reſpect to all that is of him in them, and may be kept from honouring or pleaſing that which is not of him, and which he would not have us honour. This is the temper of our Spirits, and accordingly is our carriage as in the ſight of the Lord, what ever men deem of us.

But the great matter is, becauſe we do not pull off our Hats, and bow to them, or that we uſe plain Language to them, (as thou and thee to a particular perſon) which ſome of them will needs interpret to be contempt, though others of them, who are more ſober and conſiderate, can clearly diſcern that it is not at all in contempt either to their Authority, or their Perſons, but in a meer ſingle-hearted obedience to God. Now to drive this a little towards a fair trial, conſider in meekneſs, and in God's fear.

1. What kind of honour this is, which is thus much ſtood upon? Is it the honour which is from above, or the honour which is from below? What part ſprings it from in man? From the New-birth, or from the earthly nature? And what doth it pleaſe in man? Doth it pleaſe that which is begotten of God? Doth it pleaſe the Meekneſs, the Humility, the Lowlineſs the new Nature? Or doth it pleaſe and help to keep up the old nature, the lofty Spirit, even that part which is prone in every man to be exalted out of the fear of God? For this I may freely ſay, that whatſoever is of the earth hath an aptneſs in it to feed the earthly part: and particularly, this of outward bowing to the Creature, is apt to hurt him that receiveth it. In mans giving and receiving honour, God hath been forgotten. They have forgotten God, who have been giving honour to one another; and they have forgotten God, who have been receiving honour from one another. And what if the Lord, who hath made us ſenſible of the evil herein, hath laid a reſtraint upon us? Can any forbid the Lord from laying ſuch a thing upon us? Or is it lawful for any to go about to hinder us from obeying the Lord therein? Thou who art thus eager in contending for honour, Art thou ſure it is not the evil part in thee, which doth deſire it? If it be the good part in thee, thou wilt deſire it in meekneſs and gentleneſs, yea and wilt be able to bear the want of it with joy, where it is denyed thee upon ſuch an account, that it may run more purely towards the Lord,

Now if it be earthly honour, it is of a periſhing nature, it is not always to laſt, but is one of the faſhions of this World which is to paſs away (how long a time ſoever it hath had) and God may call his people from it at his pleaſure: and if he call from it, they muſt leave it off though the earthly nature and power be never ſo angry thereat. The Lord hath let men have a long day, wherein man hath been lifted up, and appeared great by receiving that honour which is of the earth, not of the Faith: but at length the Lord will bring forth his day, wherein he will be great, and have every Knee bow to him, and every Tongue confeſs to him: and then man ſhall be little, and his honour fall, and the Lord alone be exalted, Iſa. 2. 17.

2. Doth not the Image of God grow up into the likeneſs of God? Doth God reſpect mens perſons? Did Chriſt regard any mans perſon? Did not James ſay, If ye have reſpect to perſons, ye commit ſin, and are convinced of the Law, as tranſgreſſors, James 2. 9. Of what Law? Of the Law of Faith, which exalteth the New-birth, and layeth flat the creature in its tranſgreſſing nature, eſtate, and honour. For ſaith Chriſt, who received not honour from men, nor gave honour to men, How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another? John 5. 44. That which receiveth earthly honour, is of the earth, and cannot believe: and that which giveth earthly honour, is of the Earth, and ſo not of the Faith. The Faith is a denying of the earth, a taking up of the Croſs to the earthly honour, which is as a block in the way of Faith. How can ye believe, when ye cheriſh that part in you which is againſt the Faith? The immortal Seed of life, in the day of the Goſpel, grows up out of the earth, leaving it with its cuſtoms faſhions, honours, and its nature and worſhip too behind it?

So

So that look into the ground of the thing, with the eye which seeth over the transgressing state, and over all things which have sprung up from the transgressing part, and which please that part which is out of the Faith, out of the life and power drawn from God into the earth, and it will be manifest that earthly honour hath its root, foundation and service there; but falleth off like a shackle from mans Spirit, as the life riseth in him and as he is redeemed out of the earth.

Now as for Abraham's and Jacob's Bowings, &c. Those things had their season under the Law (which made nothing perfect) as other things had, but now God calleth every man to bow to the Son, and will not permit so much as bowing to an Angel, who is far more honourable than any Magistrate. And the Son calleth to honour the Father, and to seek the honour which cometh from God only: and he that will be his Disciple, must take up his Cross to the earthly part, and follow him, who neither gave earthly honour, nor received earthly honour, but condemned it; John 5. 44. Therefore let men consider the ground of the thing, and the different state between Jews under the Law, and Christians under the Gospel, and not think the bringing of instances from them of old time, can dispence with us in following Christ according to the Law of Faith, who gave us this pattern of not receiving or giving honour to mens persons, and let not the weight of our plea (it having so great impression on our hearts) be despised by any that pretend relation to our Lord and Master, which I shall briefly thus recite:

1. It is the single and sincere desire of our Hearts to give all the Honour and Obedience to Magistates, which is due unto them according to the Scriptures.

2. It is manifest that we are careful of observing all just Laws; and patient in suffering through unjust Laws, or where the Magistrate doth persecute us without or against Law.

3. This kind of honour of pulling off the hat, and bowing to the person, we do not find commanded in Scripture, but we find Christ's command against it, who saith follow me; who both denyed to receive it, and did not give it; but condemned it. And we find its rise to be from the earthly part, and to the earthly part it is given, which it pleaseth, being given to it, or is offended at being denyed it: And this part we are taught by the Lord to crucifie in our selves, and not to cherish in others.

4. The bowing of persons under the Law (which was an earthly state, wherein many things were permitted, which are not permitted under the Gospel) doth not bind Christians under the Gospel, nor doth not limit the Spirit of God from taking of any one or more, or all of his people, from giving that which the earthly part calleth honour, to that which is of the earth.

5. We do appeal to the Lord our God (who is our judge and Law-giver) that he hath laid this upon our Spirits, and hath smitten several of us, when there hath arisen so much as a desire in us to please men in this particular: and in the fear of his name, and in obedience to him we do forbear it, and not either in contempt of authority, or of the persons in authority.

6. We find by much experience, that the forbearing of this is a service to our Lord and Master, and an hurt to his enemy. It offendeth the passionate, it offendeth the rough, it offendeth the proud and lofty, that Spirit is soon touched and stirred by it: but that which is low, that which is meek, that which is humble, that which is gentle, that is easily drawn from valuing and minding of it, and findeth an advantage therein. And of a truth the earthly Spirit knows, and feels that God is taking the honour from it, and giving it to the meek and humble, which makes it muster up its forces and arguments to hold it as long as it can.

Now what moderate man (much more any Christian) could not forgo the puting off of an hat, or bowing of the knee upon so solemn and weighty an account as this. If this were thine own case, Wouldst thou be forced, imprisoned, fined, or have this made an argument against thee to banish thee or put thee to death? Thou dost not know how the Lord may visit thee by his Spirit, and what he may require of thee. He may call thee also to give forth thy Testimony (and to fight under the Banner of his Spirit) against all the fashions, customs, honours, yea and worships of this World. That which is born of God, is not of this World: and as it groweth up in any earthen veſſel, ſo it draweth the veſſel alſo more and more out of this World. Ye are not of the World (but called out of the World) therefore the World hates you. That which can pleaſe the World, that which can bow to it and honour it, that the World loves; but the immortal Seed which cannot bow, but teſtifies againſt the Worlds honours, that they are not of the Father, but of the World, this ſeed the World hates, and the Veſſels in whom it bubbles up, and through whom it giveth forth its Teſtimony againſt the World.

Vessel

Object: But in the New Teſtament Luke ſtiles Theophilus moſt excellent, and Paul ſpeaking to Feſtus ſaid, moſt noble Feſtus, which are terms or expreſſions of Honour and Reverence.

Anſw. Chriſt did promiſe his Diſciples and Miniſters that he would be with them, and give them what to ſay. Now if nobility and true excellency did appear in any perſons, and he led them by his Spirit to acknowledge it, this is no ſufficient warrant for men to do the like in their own wills, or to give ſuch Titles to perſons being in Authority, whether they be ſuch perſons or no. Luke knew Theophilus to be excellent, and he was led by the Spirit of God to ſtile him excellent: for by the Spirit of God he wrote that Scripture, Luke 1.3. wherein he ſo ſtiles him. And for Feſtus, he that ſhall ſtrictly obſerve his carriage, will find it to be very noble, in that he would not be won by the importunity and informations of the High Prieſt and chief of the Jews, and of the multitude alſo againſt Paul, but applyed himſelf to an upright conſideration of the cauſe, Acts 25.2,24. to the end. The ſame Spirit which ſhewed the unworthy carriage and ignobleneſs of the High Prieſt, and zealous profeſſing Jews, might move Paul to ſet this mark of honour upon Feſtus. The Lord loveth truth in the heart, and truth in words, and the following of the guidance of his Spirit into truth: but to give a man high Titles, meerly becauſe he is great and high in the out ward, without diſcerning that he is ſuch, and without the leading of Gods Spirit ſo to do, this is of the fleſh, according to the will of the fleſh, out of the faith, and not according to truth and righteouſneſs: and in the fear of the Lord there is a watch ſet over our ſpirits in theſe things, leſt we ſhould eſteem and honour men according to the will of the fleſh, and not in the Lord. Titles of Office, or of Relations, as Maſter, Father, &c. we find freedom to give, but Titles which tend towards flattery, or exalting man out of his place, and the lifting up of his heart above his Brethren, we have not freedom in the Lord to uſe; and Elihu alſo found a reſtraint upon him in this reſpect, Job 32.21,22.

Object. It is noted as a brand and reproach of falſe Teachers, that they deſpiſe Dominion and ſpeak evil of Dignities, 2 Pet. 2.10. and Jude 8. Now it is well known that the practiſe of the Quakers, is but too like thoſe falſe Teachers, &c.

Anſw. It were worth a narrow ſearch and enquiry what the Dominion and Dignities (or Glories) are, which the falſe Teachers ſpeak evil of, or Blaſpheme, &c. Search the Scriptures, where do ye find the falſe Teachers ſpeaking evil of the earthly Authorities? nay they ſtill cling cloſe to them, exalt them, get them of their ſide and cry them up, and will be ſure enough never to fail in pleaſing the Magiſtrate with cringing and bowing, or any thing of that nature. But there is the Dominion of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt in the heart, there is the rule of his ſpirit over the fleſhly part, there is the truth in the inner man, there are ſpiritual Dignities (or Glories) theſe the falſe Teachers in all ages did deſpiſe, and were not afraid to ſpeak evil of, though they ſhould have feared to ſpeak evil of the movings, and guidings, and loweſt appearings of the ſpirit of God (which excel in nature and worth the greateſt earthly Dignities) yet they have not, but have blaſphemed the holy life and appearances of God in his people, nay, they have not ſpared his more eminent breakings forth in his very Prophets, Holy Apoſtles, or Chriſt himſelf. Mark what they ſpake evil of, they ſpake evil of the things they knew not, verſ. 10. What were the things they knew not? The inward movings and vertue of his ſpirit, the inward power, life, glory, and dominion of truth in the heart they knew not: it was againſt Chriſt in his people their evil deeds and hard ſpeeches were, verſe 15. But as for the high and great ones, the dominions and dignities of the earth, they knew them well enough, and did not ſpeak evil of them, but had their perſons in admiration, becauſe of the aduantage they had by them, verſ. 16. They have always had a double advantage from theſe, both of gain to themſelves, and of overbearing the Lambs of Chriſt by their great ſwelling words. The Lord hath ſtill ſo ordered it in his wiſdom both before the coming of Christ, at his coming, and since, that the false Prophets and Teachers should still have the advantage of the outward Authorities, and his people be a poor, afflicted, despised, persecuted Remnant, whose glory is inward, and cannot be discerned by the outward eye, no not of Gods Israel. See the dignities particularly expressed, Revel. 13 6. The name of God, his holy power in his people, the Tabernacle which is sanctified and made honourable for him by his Spirit, them that dwell in Heaven, who are redeemed out of the earth, and have their conversation above, these are dignities which the earthly authorities, nay the false Teachers themselves never knew the worth of, and so they are not afraid to blaspheme them. The first Beast, on which the false Church rode, with the second Beast, which are of the very race of these false Teachers, making an Image to the first Beast because of advantage, all join together in blaspheming these dignities Rev. 13. and chap. 17.

both

To open this a little further, John said in his days, that it was then the last time: For there were many Antichrists then come, 1 John 2. 18. From whence came they? They went out from us, saith he, but they were not of us, ver. 19. They were sensual, they had not the spirit, and so could not abide the presence, life, judgement, and power of the spirit, but seperated themselves, Jude 19. But whether went they, when they went out from the true Church? why, they went out into the World, 1 John 4. 2. They got the form of Godliness, which would stand well enough with the lusts and ease of the flesh, and went and preached up that in the World. And now speaking the things of God in the worldly spirit, the World could hear them, ver. 5. Thus having got a great party into the form of truth, now they blaspheme the power, now they mock at the movings of the spirit, the leadings of the spirit, the living name, the true Tabernacle, the true Inhabitants of Heaven, who have their conversation above in the Heavenly nature, in the Heavenly principle, in the pure Spirit of life (for as they are begotten by the Spirit, so they live in the Spirit and walk in the Spirit:) This the false Teachers (who have got the form of Doctrine and the form of Discipline, holding it in the fleshly wisdom, where they may hold their lusts too) mock at and blaspheme, Jude 18. And this hath been the great way of deceit since the Apostacy, God gathered a seperated people from the World, the false Teachers get the form of Godliness from them and set it up in the World, and then turn against the power, and deny it, speaking evil of, or Blaspheming the Spirit which is the Dominion, and his ministrations (in the spirits of his people) which are the Dignities or Glories of the New Testament, which excel all earthly Dignities, and also the ministration of the first Covenant, 2 Cor. 3. 7, 8.

So likewise for rayling Speeches. The false Prophets can speak smooth words; speaking in the fleshly wisdom, they can please the fleshly part in their very reproofs: but he that speaks from God, must speak his words, how harsh soever they seem to the fleshly part: And he that speaks in his Name, Spirit, Majesty and Authority is exalted high above the consideration of the person to whom he speaks. What is a Prince, a Magistrate, a Ruler before the Lord, but clay or dust and ashes? If the Lord bid any of his Servants call that which was once the faithful City, Harlot, and say concerning her Princes that they are rebellious, and companions of Thieves, Isa. 1. 21. and 23. What is the poor earthen Vessel, that it should go to change or mollifie this Speech? And so for the false Prophets and Teachers: If the Spirit of the Lord (in the meaneſt of his Servants) call them Idol-Shepherds, Hirelings, Thieves, Robbers, Dogs, dumb Dogs, greedy dumb Dogs that cannot bark, (though they can speak smooth, pleasing words enough to fleshly Israel and the earthly great ones) generation of Vipers, Hypocrites, whited Sepulchers, Graves that appear not, &c. who may reprove him for it, or find fault with the Instrument he chuses? Now man judging by the fleshly wisdom, may venture to call this rayling, and the Prophets of the Lord have been accounted rude, and mad, and troublers of Israel; and so it is at this day: but the Lord being angry with the Transgressor, may send a rough rebuke to him, by what messenger he pleaseth; and what is the poor Creature that he should gainsay his maker, and desire the Message might be smoother? But now these false Teachers who can speak smoothly to the fleshly part, flatter the great ones, and the Professors that fall in with their form of Doctrine and Discipline, they deny the power, blaspheme the movings and goings forth of the spirit of God in his people, and if any be drawn by the Spirit to separate from their formal way, and to seek after the life and presence of the power, him they cryed out of as a Sectary, a blaſphemer, an heretick, and ſo bring railing accuſations againſt that Life and Spirit by which he is drawn, and of him for following the drawings of it: and thus they become guilty of ſpeaking evil of what they know not, Jude 10. They that are drawn out of the Worlds worſhips, know from what they were drawn: but they that remain ſtill in them, do not know the power which drew out of them, nor into what it drew, but looking on it with a carnal eye, it appears mean to them, and ſo they readily diſdain it, and think they may ſafely ſpeak evil of it, though in truth they know it not.

And as for curſings; Theſe are children of the curſe, as well as of the bleſſing: and the Spirit of the Lord may pronounce his curſe againſt any children of the curſe by whom he pleaſes, Curſe ye Meroz, curſe ye bitterly, the inhabitants thereof, Judges 5. 23. And yet Meroz did not perſecute, but only not come to the help of the Lord againſt the mighty. So the profeſſing Jews with their Rulers and Teachers were curſed by the Spirit of the Lord, Pſalm 69 22. &c. So Judas was curſed, Pſalm 109. 6. &c. For Peter applieth it to him, Acts 1. 20. Now if the curſe be cauſeleſs, it ſhall not come, Prov. 26 2. And well will it be with him whom men cauſleſly curſe, (Mat. 5. 11.) although they were the higheſt, devouteſt and moſt zealous profeſſing Jews, with their Prieſts and Rulers in thoſe days; and although they ſhould be the higheſt, moſt zealous, and devout formal Chriſtians, with their Rulers and Teachers in theſe days, who may have got this form, as well as they got that form, and yet hold the truth in the unrighteouſneſs, and deny the power, as falſe teachers formerly did, who held the form, 2 Tim. 3. 5. But the caſe of Shimei is not at all proper to the thing in hand, becauſe he did not pretend to curſe in the Lord's name and authority, but manifeſtly out of the fear of God, curſed the Lord's anointed in his low ſtate. Neither were theſe two Quakers put to death for curſing. So that if Humphry Norton were never ſo blamable, yet that reacheth not to them, but is to be reckoned to him that did it, who is to ſtand or fall to his own maſter therein. Yet this I may ſay, becauſe it is ſo extraordinary a caſe (we having not known the like) that if he had not the Lords clear warrant for what he did, ſurely the Lord will ſeverely judge him, for ſpeaking ſo peremptorily and preſumtuouſly in his name, if not required by him.

And ſo as touching contemptuous carriages. When there is not contempt in the heart, it is not eaſie to ſhew contemptuous carriages: but the fleſhly part miſſing of the honour which is pleaſing to it, and being offended thereby, is ready to apprehend that to be ſpoken and done in contempt, which is ſpoken and done in the humility and fear of the Lord.

3. A third Ground or Conſideration to juſtifie their Law of baniſhment and death of the Quakers, is drawn from Solomon's confining of Shimei, and of putting him to death for breach of his confinement, whereupon they argue, that If execution of death be lawful upon breach of confinement, may not the ſame be ſaid for breach of baniſhment, baniſhment being not ſo ſtrait, but giving more liberty than confinement?

Anſw. The queſtion is not whether the Magiſtrate upon no occaſion may baniſh upon pain of death, but whether the baniſhment of the Quakers upon pain of death was juſt or no? If it were never ſo manifeſt that a Magiſtrate might baniſh, and put to death in caſe of not obſerving his Law of baniſhment, yet that doth not prove that every Law of baniſhment is juſt, and that the death of ſuch as do not obey their Law, is juſt alſo; he may make a Law in his own ſelf-will, pride, paſſion, reſolvedneſs and ſtiffneſs of Spirit, and ſo draw the ſufferings of perſons under that Law (either of baniſhment or death) upon his own head. Now the Quakers coming in the name of the Lord, by his Commiſſion, and upon his Work (whom all the Magiſtrates of the earth are to reverence and bow before) if Magiſtrates will preſume to make a Law to baniſh them upon pain of death, yet if the Lord require them either to ſtay or return, they know whom to fear and obey, which delivers them from the fear of them who can only torture and kill the body: and they had rather die in obedience to the Lord, than feel the weight of his hand upon their Souls for their diſobedience. It is not in this caſe as it is in ordinary baniſhment upon civil accounts, where it is in mens will and power to abſtain from the place from which they are baniſhed; but they muſt fulfil the will of their Lord, not at all regarding what befalls them therein.

4. The fourth Ground or Conſideration to juſtifie their Law of baniſhment and death againſt againſt the Quakers, is drawn from the right and propriety which every man hath in his own Houſe and Land, and from the unreaſonableneſs and injurioufneſs of anothers intruding and entring into it, having no authority thereto, yea and when the owner doth expreſly prohibit and forbid the ſame. And that if any preſume to enter thus without legal authority, he might juſtly be impleaded as a Thief or Uſurper; and if in caſe of violent aſſault he ſhould be killed, his bloud would be upon his own head. Whereupon it is argued thus, that If private perſons may in ſuch a caſe ſhed the bloud of ſuch intruderr, may not the like be granted to them that are the publick Keepers and Gaurdians of the Commonwealth? Have not they as much power to take away the lives of ſuch, as contrary to prohibition ſhall invade or intrude into their publick Poſſeſſions or Territories? And that the Quakers do thus invade and intrude without authority, they urge thus. For who can believe that Quakers are Conſtables to intrude themſelves, invade, and enter, whether the Colony will or no, yea contrary to their expreſs prohibition? If in ſuch violent and bold attempts, they loſe their lives, they may thank themſelves, as the blamable cauſe and authors of their own death.

Anſw. It is no invaſion nor intruſion, for any Meſſengers and Servants of the Lord to enter into any part of his earth at his command, upon his errand, and about his Work. And if any ſhould be ſo ſent to the houſe of a particular perſon, to deliver a meſſage from the Lord, and the owner of the houſe inſtead of hearing and conſidering his Meſſage in meekneſs and fear, whether it were of God or no, ſhould be rough and violent with him, and command him off before he had delivered his meſſage, and either upon his not immediate going off, or his return with another meſſage, (for the Lord if he pleaſe may ſend him again) ſhould fall upon him and kill him; upon whoſe head would this mans bloud light?

2. If men will needs have it go for an invaſion, it is an invaſion of a ſpiritual nature, and the defence from it cannot be by carnal Weapons. Killing of mens perſons, is not the way to ſuppreſs either truth or error. How have the Papiſts been able to defend their Kingdom, or ſuppreſs the truth by their bloudy Weapons? They may prevail in their Teritories againſt mens perſons for a ſeaſon, but the truth will have a time of dominion, and will in the mean time be getting ground in mens minds and conſciences by the ſufferings of the witneſſes to it. Nay, my friends, if ye will defend your ſelves from this invaſion, ye muſt get better Weapons.

3. Is this your rule concerning any that ſhall come in the name of the Lord, that if they be not Conſtables, or other earthly Officers, ye will baniſh them and put them to death? Is the Lord of Heaven and Earth limited to ſend none but Conſtables among you? Well, ye may judge by your Law while your day laſts; but the Lord in his day will clear his Servants and Meſſengers, though they have not been Conſtables, and lay it upon the head of them who have unrighteouſly ſhed it.

5. The fifth Ground or Conſideration whereby they juſtifie their Law of Baniſhment and Death againſt the Quakers, is this. Corruption of mind and judgment is a great infection and defilement, and it is the Lords command that ſuch corrupt perſons be not received into the houſe, which plainly enough implies that the houſholder hath power enough to keep them out, and that it was not in their power to come. if they pleaſed, whether the houſholder would or no. And if the Father of the Family muſt keep them out of his Houſe, the Father of the Commonwealth muſt keep them out of his Juriſdiction (they being nurſing Fathers, and nurſing Mothers by the account of God.) So that what an houſholder may do againſt perſons that are infected with the Plague or Peſtilence, (who may kill them if otherwiſe he cannot keep them out of his houſe) a Magiſtrate may do the like for his Subjects. And if Sheep and Lambs cannot be preſerved from the danger of Wolves, but the Wolves will break in amongſt them, it is eaſie to ſee what the Shepheard or Keeper of the Sheep may lawfully do in ſuch a caſe.

Anſw. It is granted, that Corruption of mind and judgment is defiling and infectious, and therefore every heart that knows the preciouſneſs of truth is to wait on the Lord in his fear, in the uſe of theſe means which he hath appointed for preſervation from it; but that killing the perſons is one of the means God hath appointed, this is ſtill the thing in controverſie, and is ſtill denyed to be either proper in it ſelf, or ſanctified by God to this end. The Apoſtles ſays, there muſt be Hereticks, that they which are approved may be made manifeſt, 1 Cor. 11. 19. but he doth not ſay, hereafter when there are Christians Magistrates, they must banish or cut off the Hereticks, as fast as they spring up: but God hath use of these things, for the exercising of the Spirits of his people, and the truth gains by overcoming them in the Faith and Power of the Spirit. And so, as touching Wolves, the Apostle Paul called the Elders of the Church of Ephesus, and told them, that after his departure, grievous Wolves should enter in among them, not sparing the Flock, Acts 20. 28, 29, 31. The Lord hath put into the hands of his Shepherd a Sword, which will pierce to the heart of the Wolf, he standing faithful in the power of God, in the life of righteousness, need not fear any Wolf, but by the power of the Spirit and presence of the Truth, shall be able to preserve the consciences of his Flock pure to God. What kind of Shepherd is he, that cannot defend his Flock without the Magistrates Sword? But take away that, the Wolf breaks in, and preys upon his Sheep. Surely the true Shepherd, who knows the vertue of the sword God hath put into his hand, will never call to the Magistrate for his sword of another nature, which cannot touch the Wolf, the Heretick, the Seducer, but only flesh and bloud, with which the Ministers of Christ never wrestled nor fought. And this is not the way to preserve the hearts and consciences of the Flock (it may perhaps strike terror into the fleshly nature) but their consciences are so much the more apt to be wrought upon by the Doctrines, Patience, and Suffering of those who are thus dealt with. The Magistrates sword being thus used, doth not at all preserve that which is tender, but hurts it, disingages it, stirs up a Witness in it against those that thus go about to defend that which they call truth, that built up their Jerusalem with bloud, and govern their flock with force, affrighting them from that which they call errors, and affrighting them into that which they call truth with an outward sword; whereas the true Temple is built in peace, governed in peace, maintained in peace, defended by peace, and Errorr and Hereticks dispelled by the power of the Spirit, manifesting the deceit to the conscience, and not by the sword of the Magistrate, dealing with them as with worldly Malefactors. Now this I say as before the Lord, The true Shepherd, who hath received the sword of the Spirit, and hath tried the vertue of it, cannot distrust it, cannot desire the Magistrates help by outward force against Errors or heresies: he that looketh upon it as insufficient, and calleth to the Magistrate for his sword, plainly discovers that he hath not received, or knoweth not the vertue of the true one, and dishonoureth both his Masters Work and Weapon.

For that place of 2 John 10. It is one thing for a man not to receive a man into his house, and another thing for him to kill that person who offers to come against his Will: Do ye believe in your hearts, that the Apostles intent was to direct the Christians to whom he wrote, to keep them out by violence, and to kill them if they could not otherwise keep them out? Though the parallel is not proper, for God hath often sent his Servants into Countries, Cities, and places of resort, against the Will of the Rulers, Priests, and false Prophets, but never to break violently into any mans House.

The Magistrate keeping in his place, cannot but be a nursing Father to the Church; for let him draw out his sword against that wickedness which is proper for him to cut down, it will exceedingly help to nurse up the Church: but where hath the Magistrate Commission to meddle with any of the spiritual Shepherds Work? Nay, his sword was never appointed to cut down Errors, or Heresies, or Hereticks, but the sword of the Spirit, in the hand of the spiritual Shepherd. God hath set up an hedg between these two powers, which he that breaketh down layeth both waste as to their true use, vertue, and order: and this Antichrist hath long done in many appearances. The bringing of these two to rights, setting each in its proper place, will give such a Wound to his Kingdom, as he will not be able to recover: And mark this by the way, Antichrist hath all along made use of the Magistrates sword to slay the Lambs, under the name of Hereticks, Sectaries, Wolves, Blasphemers: but Christ comes with the Spirit of his mouth to slay Antichrist, 2 Thes. 2. 8. That's the sword all the Hereticks, Seducers, and false Prophets were slain with in the Apostles days before the Apostacy, and that's the sword that Antichrist (who hath made use of the other sword against Christ all along the Apostacy) shall be slain with after the Apostacy. When Christ comes to fight against Antichrist (who hath cruelly torn, rent, and butchered his people under the name of of Wolves) he will take his own sword which is the Words of his mouth: That did the work at firſt, that muſt do the work again. But in the midſt, between theſe two ſeaſons; there hath been bad work made with the Magiſtrates Swords, the Witneſſes upon every appearance and breaking forth of Gods truth in them, having been liable to feel the ſmart of it.

Work

6. Their ſixt and laſt ground and conſideration, whereby they juſtifie their Law of Baniſhment and Death againſt the Quakers, is this. It was the Commandment of the Lord Jeſus unto his Diſciples, that when they were perſecuted in one City, They ſhould flee unto another, and according it was his own practiſe and the practiſe of the Saints, who when they have been perſecuted, have fled away for their own ſafety:

This (they ſay) reaſon requires, that when men have liberty unto it they ſhould not refuſe ſo to do, becauſe otherwiſe they will be guilty of tempting God, and of incurring their own hurt, as having a fair way open for the avoiding thereof, but they needleſly expoſe themſelves thereto. Whereupon they argue thus.

If therefore that which is done againſt the Quakers, were indeed Perſecution, what Spirit may they be thought to be acted and led by, who are in their actings ſo contrary to the Commandment and example of Chriſt and of his Saints in the caſe of Perſecution, which theſe men ſuppoſe to be their caſe? Plain enough it is, that if their caſe were the ſame, their actings are not the ſame, but quite contrary. So that Chriſt and his Saints were led by one Spirit, and theſe people by another: for rather than they would not ſhew their contempt of Authority, and make diſturbance amongſt his people, they chuſe to go contrary to the expreſs direction of Jeſus Chriſt, and the approved Example of his Saints, to the hazard and peril of their own lives.

Anſw. Afflictions, Tribulations, Tryals, Perſecutions are not to be fled from, but to be born and paſſed through to the Kingdom, into which the entrance is through many of theſe, Acts 14. 22. and Chriſt ſaith, he that will be his Diſciple, muſt take up his Croſs daily and follow him, Luke 9. 23. Now Perſecution for Chriſt is part of the Croſs, which the Diſciple muſt not run away from, but take up and follow Chriſt with. Yea the Apoſtle is very expreſs, 2 Tim. 3. 12. Yea, and all that will live Godly in Chriſt Jeſus, ſhall ſuffer Perſecution. It is the portion of all, and all muſt bear it. The World hateth and perſecuteth (in ſome degree or other) all that are not of the World; and all muſt be content with their daily portion thereof, waiting on God for ſtrength to bear the Croſs, not flying it: and the Apoſtle commends the Hebrews for enduring the great fight of afflictions, Heb. 10. 32, 33, 34. The Jews were zealous for the Law and Ordinance of Moſes, and grievous Perſecutors of the Chriſtians (eſpecially of ſuch as had been of them before) now the Chriſtians are commended for ſtanding the ſhock, for bearing the brunt, for not fearing the loſs of name, goods, life or any thing, but eying the heavenly Treaſure. So Chriſt warning of Perſecution, bids the Church to fear none of thoſe things which ſhe ſhould ſuffer, but be faithful unto the Death: and he that thus overcometh, ſhould not be hurt of the ſecond death, Revel. 2. 10, 11. and the Apoſtle Peter ſays, if ye ſuffer for righteouſneſs ſake happy are ye, and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled, 1 Pet. 3. 14. and the Apoſtle Paul bids the Philippians, ſtand faſt in one Spirit, with one mind ſtriving together for the faith of the Goſpel, and in nothing terrified by your Adverſaries, which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of Salvation, and that of God. And the ſame Apoſtle who commended the Hebrews, as having done well in bearing the great fight of afflictions, encourages them to go on ſtill, and not be weary or faint in their minds, but reſiſt even to blood, eying Chriſt, who endured the contradiction of ſinners to the very laſt, Heb. 12. 3, 4. And he practiſed as he taught, for he was not terrified with bonds or afflictions, nor accounted his life dear unto him, but that which was dear unto him was the ſerving of his Lord and Maſter, in Preaching and Witneſſing to his Truths, as his Spirit led him, Acts 20. 23, 24. truſting on the Lord to uphold him in enduring of them, or to deliver him out of them, as he pleaſed, 2 Tim. 3. 11. but that which he, and the reſt of the Apoſtles and Saints of Chriſt applyed themſelves to in caſe of Perſecution, was to ſuffer, 1 Cor. 4. 12. And whoever they are that will be Chriſts faithful Diſciples now, muſt look to meet with the ſame Croſs as they did, not only from the Prophane World, but from the Worldly Profeſſors alſo: for there were not only zealous Wordly Profeſſors in that Age, but the ſame Spirit hath remained in every Age ſince, which ſtill gets into the beſt form it can (when need requires) to oppoſe the power thereby. And they that are in the Spirit and in the Power, muſt expect to be Perſecuted by ſuch: and they are to bear it, and not to flie from it, unleſs by a particular call and diſpenſation from the Lord for a particular Service, which is not the rule (as it is here made) but rather an exception from the Rule. So Chriſt ſending his Diſciples in haſt to Preach the Goſpel, bids them not ſalute in the way, Luke 10. 4. nor be ſtopped by Perſecution, but haſten to publiſh the ſound of Chriſts coming in the Cities of Iſrael, For the Harveſt was great, but the Labourers few, Mat. 9. 37. and yet notwithſtanding all the haſt they could make, they ſhould not have gone over the Cities of Iſrael, before the Son of man come Mat. 10. 23. There is a time to ſuffer Perſecution, and a time to flee from Perſecution; and both theſe are to be known in the Lord, and to be obeyed in the leadings of his Spirit: but to lay it down as a general rule for Chriſtians to obſerve, that when they are perſecuted, they ſhould flee, this is expreſly contrary to the Scriptures afore mentioned, which ſhew that Chriſtians are not generally to flee, but to ſtand in the Service and Work to which they are called, bearing Witneſs not only by believing and publiſhing, but alſo by ſuffering for the Teſtimony of the Truth. They are Chriſts Souldiers, and their duty is to ſtand in the Battel, and bear all the Shot and Perſecutions of the Enemy: if God call them off to any other Service, that is a ſufficient Warrant for them, but flying upon other terms may prove a great diſhonour to their Maſter, and to his cauſe, and truth, and may be the occaſion of a great loſs to their Spirits, who are ſo tempted to flee. Neither is this bearing the brunt of Perſecutions, and ſtanding in Gods Work and Service (notwithſtanding them all, even unto Death) any tempting of God, but an obedient taking up of the Croſs according to his Will and Command. And whereas you plead that reaſon requires it; what kind of reaſon is it which bids avoid the Croſs of Chriſt, and flee for ſafety? And what kind of Spirit is that, which Preacheth this Doctrine, laying it down as a general Rule, for Chriſtians to flee when they are Perſecuted? Is it not that Spirit which would fain be at eaſe in the fleſh, inſomuch as it ſelf will rather perſecute, than be diſturbed of its fleſhly liberty, though its very unwilling to bear the reproach of being accounted a Perſecutor? Ah how did the Jews cry out againſt their Fathers for killing the Prophets, and verily thought if they had lived in their days, they ſhould by no means have done it: and yet the ſame ſpirit was in them, though they ſaw it not, but thought themſelves far from it. That which blinded them was a wrong knowledge of the Scriptures, and a great Zeal and Devotion about their Temple, Worſhip and Ordinances, without a ſenſible feeling of the guidance of Gods Spirit. The ſame Spirit that deceived them, layeth the ſame Snare in theſe days, and men ſwallow it as greedily, and with as great confidence as they did, the zealous Profeſſors of Religion for the generality, ſtill becoming Perſecutors of the preſent appearance of Truth, not knowing what they do.

Thus in the fear of the Lord God, and in love to your Souls with a meek and gentle ſpirit (not being offended at what ye have done, but looking over it to the Lord, who bringeth Glory to his name, and advantage to his Truth by the Sufferings and Death of his Saints) have I anſwered your grounds and conſiderations, and in the ſame fear, love and meekneſs, have I ſome things further to propoſe to your conſiderations, which are of great concernment to you, and deſerve to be weighed by an equal hand in the equal ballance, without prejudice or partiality.

1. Conſider meekly and humbly, whether the Scriptures be the Rule of the Children of the new Covenant? for if the Scripture was not intended by God for the Rule, and ye take it to be the Rule, then ye may eaſily miſtake the way to eternal life, and alſo err in your underſtanding and uſe of the Scriptures; making ſuch an uſe of them as they were never intended for, and ſo miſſing of the true uſe and intent of them.

Now that the Scripture was not intended, nor given forth by God to be the rule of the Children of the New Covenant, beſides our faithful Teſtimony from the ſight of the thing in the true eternal light, weigh our Arguments from the Scripture, many are mentioned in our Writings, conſider at preſent of theſe three.

1. The Scripture is an outward Rule or Law, but the Scripture ſaith, the Law of the New Covenant ſhall be an inward Law. It is written in the Prophets, that all the Children of the New Covenant, or new Jeruſalem, ſhall be taught of the Lord (Iſa. 54. 13.) who teacheth them inwardly by his Spirit, and writeth his Law in their hearts, Jer. 31. 33, 34. and after this manner did the Lord take his People into Covenant with himſelf, and teach them in the Apostles days, 1 John 2. 27. The Covenant is inward, the Teacher inward, the Writing inward, the Law inward: and there it is to be read, learned and known, where the Spirit Teacheth and Writeth it.

and

2. Scripture (or the writings of Moses and the Prophets) was not the Law of the Children of the New Covenant (as such) not in the time of the old Covenant. The Law of Moses was the rule of their outward state, it was the rule of the outward Israel, but the rule of the inward Israel, no not then in those days.

In Deut. 29. 1. Moses makes a Covenant with Israel by express command from God, besides the former Covenant which he made with them in Horeb. And he saith the Commandement of this Covenant is not to be looked for where the other was written, but in another place, in a place nearer to them, even in their mouth and in their heart, there they were to read, hear, and receive the commandment of this Covenant. For this Commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off, Deut. 30. 11. it is not in Heaven, ver. 12. neither is it beyond the Sea, ver. 13. but the Word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayst do it, ver. 14. and this was the way of life then, ver. 15. See (saith Moses) I have set before thee this day life and good, and Death and Evil. Here thy eternal happiness depends: obey this word and live, disobey it and die. And if they had kept to this word, they would also have walked in obedience to the Law: but neglecting this, they could never keep the Law; but still came under the curse of it and missed of the Blessings. They thought to please God with Sacrifices, and Oyl, and Incense, and observing New Moons and Sabbaths, wherein the Lord still rejected them, for want of their obedience to this word: and the Prophets still guide them to this word, bidding them Circumcise their Hearts, which alone can be done by this water. Yea after much contest between the Lord and them, when they seemed very desirous to please the Lord with what he should require, whether Burnt Offerings, Calves, Rams, or Oyl in great plenty, the Prophet laies by all that, and points them to the obedience of this word, as the way to please God, and as the only thing that he required of them: He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good, and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? Micah 6. 8. All this is written in thy heart man, read there, obey that word, that is the thing that God requires. So Davids Law was the word written in his heart; he saw through Sacrifices and burnt Offerings to the inward writing, and this made him wiser than all his Teachers, who were busied about the outward. The outward Law was but a shadow of good things to come; it made nothing perfect: but David knew a perfect Law, The Law of the Lord is perfect, converting the Soul, Psal. 19. 7.

3. The Scriptures of the New Testament never call themselves the rule, but they call another thing the rule: they call the writings of Gods Spirit in the hearts of his people the Laws of the new Covenant, Heb. 8. 10. They call Christ the Way, the Truth, the Life, John 14. 6. (The Way is the rule, the Truth is the rule, the Life is the rule) they call the new Creature the rule, walking according to which, the peace and mercy is received and injoyed, Gal. 6. 16. They refer to the Comforter as the guide unto all truth, John 16. 13. Yea, as the compass of all truth, wherein the believer is to have his whole life and course, Gal. 5. 25. Live in the Spirit, walk in the Spirit, follow the Spirit, keep within that compass and ye cannot err. A man may err in understanding and interpreting of Scriptures: but he that hath received the Spirit, knoweth the Spirit, followeth the Spirit, keepeth to the Spirit, so far as he doth so, cannot possibly err, So saith John, writing concerning Seducers, warning against them, 1 John 2. 26. Ye have received an anointing, which teacheth you of all things, keep to the teachings of that in every thing, and ye are safe. But may we not be deceived? Nay, the anointing keeps from all the deceit in the heart. and from all the deceits of Seducers? It is truth, and no lie, ver. 27. and it leads into all truth, and out of every lie: And this will teach you to abide in him. In whom? In the Word which was from the beginning, which is ingrafted into the heart of every believer, and into which the heart of every believer is ingrafted; and so he truly is in the Vine, and the sap of the Vine runs up into him, which makes him fruitful to God, he abiding in the Word which he hath heard from the beginning, and the Word which was from the beginning abiding in him, ver. 24. And the Apostle Paul saith expresly, that the righteousness of Faith cometh by the hearing of this Word, making the same Word the rule to the children of the new Covenant now, as Moſes ſaid was the commandment of God to them, quoting this place of Moſes for it, Rom. 10. 6, &c. So that Paul indeed taught nothing but Moſes and the Prophets, pointing to the very ſame Word and Commandment of eternal Life, as Moſes had done. That is the Word of Faith which we Preach, that Word which Moſes taught, which he ſaid was nigh in the Heart and in the Mouth (no man need aſcend up to Heaven, or go down to the deep, or ſeek any where elſe for it) that's the very thing we point you to, that's the Word of Faith, that's the Commandment of Life. And with what zeal would Paul (were he now alive in the body) declare againſt ſuch, who ſhould over-look or deny this Word, and ſet up his writing, with the writings of the reſt of the Apoſtles, for a rule inſtead thereof? Yea I could ſhew yet further, how the Spirit of Propheſie, or Teſtimony of Jeſus, or living appearance of God in the heart, hath been a rule to the Witneſſes againſt Antichriſts deceit, all along the night of Apoſtacy (Rev. 11. 3. and 19. 10.) though they themſelves, being in the night, diſtinctly knew not what was their rule, but by a ſecret breath of life were quickened, guided, preſerved, and in it accepted: but theſe things will open of themſelves, as the miſt is expelled, and the Vail rent which hath over-ſpread all Nations, and covered profeſſors generally in this night of Antichriſtian darkneſs, and univerſal Apoſtacy from the living power.

now

2. Conſider whether the Scripture be your rule or no? That is whether in ſinglenes of heart ye wait on the Lord, to open the Scriptures by his Spirit, and to keep out your carnal reaſon from thence (which cannot underſtand them, but will be wreſting them, and making them ſpeak as it would have them) or whether ye take ſcope to ſearch into them with that part, which ever was ſhut out from the right knowledge of them. The natural man underſtandeth not the things of the Spirit of God. The Spirit of the Lord alone underſtandeth the meaning of his own Words, and he alone gives the underſtand- of them, which he gives not to the wiſe Searcher and Diſputer (nor to the prudent profeſſor, Mat. 11. 25.) but to the Babe which he begets, to which he gives the Kingdom, and opens the words which the Scripture ſpeaks concerning the Kingdom. The Wiſdom of the Fleſh is enmity againſt God, and if that ſearch into the Scriptures, it will gather only a knowledge ſuitable to its enmity. Thus the Jews were great enemies, and ſtrong enemies, by the knowledge which they had gathered out of the Scriptures written to them: and the ſame Spirit hath alſo wound it ſelf into the Scriptures written ſince: and as then that Spirit fought againſt Chriſt and his Apoſtles, with thoſe very Scriptures which the Spirit of Chriſt had formerly written: ſo the ſame Spirit fights now againſt the Lambs and Chriſt, with the Scriptures, which were written ſince. Yea the great ſtrong Hold of Antichriſt at this day, is Scripture interpreted by the fleſhly Wiſdom: For Antichriſt comes not in a direct denial of Chriſt or Scriptures (he is too cunning to be found there) but bends them aſide by the fleſhly Wiſdom to ſerve the fleſhly will and thus undermines the Spirit and exalts the fleſh by a fleſhly underſtanding and interpretation of thoſe very Scriptures, which were written by the Spirit againſt the Fleſh. And through this miſtake it is, that ſome innocently cry up things practiſed at the firſt ſpringing up of truth, not ſeeing of what nature they were, and upon what account they were done and what of them were caſt of by the ſame Spirit, which before had led to the uſe of them, though Scripture expreſly teſtifieth thereof. For Rev. 11. 1, 2. there was the meaſuring of the building which Gods own Spirit had built, part whereof was reſerved for God, part given to the Gentiles, or uncircumciſed in heart, who are now the Gentiles, ſince the breaking down of the former diſtinction betwixt Jew and Gentile. That which God reſerved for himſelf was, The Alter, the Temple, the Worſhippers therein, all theſe are inward The outward court was given to the Gentiles, to thoſe who would be Worſhippers under the Goſpel, and yet had not the circumciſion of the Goſpel, to them the Court which is without the Temple is given; and this they get and cry up, and then tread under foot the holy City, trampling upon the inward, and undervaluing it: Chriſt within, the Spirit within, the Law within, the power within becomes a reproach: and this they have power to do, even to keep down the inward and cry up the outward all the time of the forty two months, and to perſecute and ſlay the Witneſſes whom God raiſed up to teſtifie for the inward, and againſt the outward (as it is now in the Gentiles hands, and made uſe of by them to keep down the inward) and ſo the building being thus taken down, the Church flies out of it in to the Wilderneſs where ſhe had a place prepared of God for her, Rev. 12. 6. Mark, ſhe is is not where ſhe was before, that building was meaſured, taken down and diſpoſed of by God: but ſhe hath been, and is all the time of the 42 months or 1260 days in another place, prepared by the ſpirit of God for her, whether ſhe fled, and where ſhe was nouriſhed from the face of the Serpent, who was ſeeking after her, and making War with the Remnant of her Seed, ver. 14. &c. And they that ſeek for her now in her former building, will miſs of her, and may meet with another woman, (which in ſeveral appearances, and diſguiſes, and practiſing of Ordinances appertaining to the outward Court) blaſphemes the Holy City, the true Temple, Altar, and Worſhippers. Happy is he that can read this, for it is the myſtery of this Book, Sealed from all the Gentiles and Worſhippers in the outward Court.

ſhe

Many ſorts cry up the Scriptures for their rule, but which of them is taught by the ſpirit to keep the carnal part out of the Scriptures? Which of them keeps out their own will and underſtanding, receiving their knowledge of Scriptures from that Spirit which wrote them? Do not men rather gather a knowledge in the fleſh, and then grow ſtrong; and wiſe, and able to diſpute, and confident in their own way, and become fierce deſpiſers of thoſe who cannot own their interpretation of theſe Scriptures? and thus the mind of God, the true meaning of the Scriptures is not their rule, but an image which they have formed out of it, a meaning which their Wit hath ſtrongly imagined and fenced with Arguments, and the real mind and intent of the ſpirit is hid from them. So by this means many both deceive their own Souls, and help to deceive the Souls of others, miſſing of the plainneſs and ſimplicity of the Spirit, and gathering ſenſes in the wit and ſubtilty of the fleſhly part, where the Serpentine wiſdom lodgeth and twines about the tree of knowledge. Now what do theſe men do? whom do they ſerve? and whether do they run themſelves, and lead many other poor Souls, whom they pretend to be helpful to ſave?

3. Conſider whether ye did not flee from the Croſs, in your tranſplanting into New England, and ſo let up that part in you there, which ſhould have been kept down by the Croſs here, and gave advantage to that ſpirit to get ground in you, which ye outwardly fled from? The ſafety is in ſtanding in Gods Counſel, in bearing the Croſs, in ſuffering for the teſtimony of his Truth: but if at any time there be a fleeing of the Croſs: (whether the inward or the outward) without Gods direction, the evil Spirit is thereby let in, his part ſtrengthned, and the life weakned. That Spirit which would ſave it ſelf from the Croſs, is the ſame with that which would perſecute that which will not ſave it ſelf. Mark how ſharply Chriſt ſpeaks to Peter upon this account, when he would have tempted him to avoid the Croſs, get thee behind me Satan, thou art an offence unto me, for thou ſavoureſt not the things of God, &c. Mat. 16. 23. The ſeed offers up all to God in his ſervice, will ſuffer any thing for his names ſake, even the loſs of liberty, goods yea life it ſelf for the Teſtimony to the leaſt truth: now that which ſays to the ſeed, when ſufferings come for the Teſtimony of Truth, avoid it, ſave thy ſelf, let not this be unto thee, or the like, that's Satan: and if Satan be not caſt behind, but that counſel hearkned unto which leadeth from the Croſs, Satan is followed. And if ye fled your proper croſs, in your removal from hence unto New England, though ye meet with many others there, yet hereby ye loſt your proper advantage of ſerving and honouring God in your Generation: yea ye loſt that, which would have kept your Spirits tender, and open to the voyce of Gods Spirit, and then no marvel if afterwards ye grew hard and fit to perſecute, who firſt had ſhewed your ſelves unfit and unworthy to ſuffer. Ye might meet with many croſſes afterwards, which might neither be able to humble you, nor keep you tender, having once loſt that Croſs which was appointed of God to do it: for all croſſes do not break, humble or keep the heart low, and meek, but ſuch as are ſent, and ſanctified by God thereunto.

4. Conſider, when ye came to New England, whether tenderneſs grew up in you, and was abundantly exerciſed towards ſuch as might differ from you, or whether ye were as eager for the way that ye thought to be the right, as the Conformiſts you fled from, were for the way they thought to be right? When Iſrael came out of Ægypt into their own Land, they were to be tender even towards an Egyptian, much more toward their own brethren. Now, when ye were out of danger of being perſecuted your ſelves, did ye lay a Foundation of tender uſage towards all that ſhould differ from you, or did you lay a Foundation of perſecuting ſuch as differ, and would ſuffer none dif-differing from you, but perſecute them, juſt as the Biſhops perſecuted you? Did ye flee the having of your ſelves perſecuted, or did ye flee the perſecuting Spirit? For if ye did flee only your own perſecutions, and not the perſecuting Spirit in your ſelves, no marvel though it fell a perſecuting, ſo ſoon as the fear of your own perſecution was over. In this fleſhly part there is a perſecuting Spirit, which, if it be not kept down by the power of God, though it loves not to be perſecuted, yet will ſoon be perſecuting.

5. Did you feel your ſelves to grow in the inward life, upon coming into New-England, or did that begin to flag and wither, and your growth chiefly conſiſt in form and outward Order, in which ye might eaſily be miſtaken too? For many who have given a true Teſtimony, and have been faithful in helping to pull down, yet have erred when they came to build up. That Spirit which is kept low by perſecution, and gives forth its Teſtimony againſt things in fear and trembling, is many times exalted when it is out of perſecution, and can weigh, debate, conſider, and reſolve things in that part which cannot build for God. Ephraim under the rod ſpake trembling, but the rod being off, he could exalt his own Wiſdom, and offend in Baal. That Worſhip and way of Government and Order, which a man takes up in the fleſhly reaſon, and which falls in with the Worldly intereſt, he ſerves not the true God in, but Baal. This is that deſtroys and eats out the life of Religion in many, namely, the mixing of it with their Worldly intereſt, for then the offence of the croſs ceaſes to them, and they begin to be offended at others on whom the Croſs is ſtill laid by God, thinking that they may comply with them in joyning their Religion and worldly intereſt together, and ſo avoid the Croſs as well as they. Nay, he that will follow Chriſt, muſt take up the daily Croſs, even that Croſs which God daily lays upon him, who will ſtill be requiring ſomewhat which is contrary to his own fleſhly part, and contrary to the fleſhly part of thoſe with whom he converſes. And as this Croſs is taken up, the worldly part is offended, and the life grows, cutting down worldly intereſts and ways of Religion daily; but as worldly intereſts are followed and kept up, the fleſhly part thrives, and the life decays and ſuffers, even till at length it come under death, and then death hath the dominion.

6. Conſider whether your chief ſtrength of ſetting up your Church-Government and Order at firſt, and of bringing perſons into it, and of preſerving them in it, lie in the Spirit and ſpiritual Weapons, or in the Fleſh and carnal Weapons? If in the Spirit and Spiritual weapons, then ye will be able in God to perſwade mens conſciences to it, and to preſerve them by the ſame virtue and ſtrength which perſwaded them, and this ye will ſtill have the main recourſe to: but if in carnal, then ye will have recourſe to the carnal, and there will be your main confidence of keeping up your Church. For if it was built by that power, it muſt be upheld by that power: ſo that take that away it falls. This is Antichriſt's ſtrength, ? he ſets up a form in the Wiſdom, and maintains it by the outward Sword. Take him of from this, and put him to gaining ground by the demonſtration of the Spirit to mens conſciences as in the ſight of God, or to preſerving his ground ſo, here he is at a loſs, and his Kingdom daily falls, even in the moſt refined parts of it. Let every Church and people that nameth the name of Chriſt depart from the ways of Antichriſt, and make the Spirit of Chriſt their ſtrength: for that is indeed the only ſtrength of the true Religion, both of the inward and outward part thereof, In that it begins, by that it is preſerved, and there alſo it grows, and is perfected.

7, Conſider (for it lies upon me to preſs it yet further, and lay it more home to you for your good) whether the perſecuting Spirit did not take its advantage of aſſaulting you, upon your getting from under the Croſs here into New-England, and whether it did not ſoon find a place in you there, and grow up in you, and bring you from ſtep to ſtep to that degree of hardneſs, that ye could at length even drink the bloud of the Saints?

That it was then the proper time of the Perſecuting Spirit to ſeek to get an entrance into you; that is very manifeſt; but whether it did get entrance or no, that belongs to you narrowly to ſearch and examine. When ye were under the Hatches, while ye your ſelves were perſecuted, then there was little room for that Spirit in you, then was not a proper time for your entertaining of it: but when ye were at liberty to chuſe a Way and Form of worſhip, then was a proper time for this temptation to prevail with you, of ſetting up your own way, as the chief or only way, and under a pretence of zeal for God, to perſecute the breakings forth of his light in others: For it could not be expected that that Spirit ſhould directly tempt you (who had ſuffered ſo much by perſecution) ſuddenly to become perſecutors of others, but to hide its bait under a cover, and under a pretence of zeal for God, his truths and way of Worſhip, to blind your eyes, and draw you aſide into that, which is indeed perſecution of it. Sin is very deceitful, and ſeeks covers, and of all ſins perſecution has moſt need of covers, it is of ſo contrary a nature to the tender Spirit of the Goſpel: Now when ſin hath got its cover, then by degrees it hardens the heart, both from and againſt the Truth. Take heed &c. ſaith the Apoſtle leſt any of you be hardened through the deceitfulneſs of Sin, Heb. 3. 12, 13 And perſecution moſt hardens of any ſin. How cruel, how bloudy doth it make! It even unmans men. Priſons, Whips, Cutting off of ears, Baniſhment, Death, all is little enough, if not too little. And what reviling doth it fill mens Pens and Tongues with, making them ſo hot and paſſionate, that they cannot equally conſider the cauſe, but miſunderſtand it, miſrepreſent it, and ſtrive to make it appear another thing, both to themſelves and others, than indeed in plain truth it is. Look over your writings, conſider the cauſe again in a more meek and upright ſpirit, and ye your ſelves will eaſily ſee, how in your heat ye have miſtaken, and dealt more injuriouſly with others, than ye your ſelves were ever dealt with.

pre-

There is a time of righteous judgment, wherein the moſt inward covers ſhall be ripped off, and the ſinner appear what he is; and then the perſecutor ſhall bear that ſhame, that burthen, that miſery, which is the portion of that Spirit. It is but a ſmall advantage to it, to cover its iniquity for a little moment. If ye could make all the World believe that ye are not perſecutors; what would this profit you, if in the day of the Lord ye ſhould be found ſuch? But having proceeded thus far, it is hard for you to conſider and retreat. That Spirit hath great advantage over you, to make you accept of any cover, it can now offer you to hide your ſelves under, Oh that ye could ſee how ye have wreſted Scriptures, and what ſtrange kind of arguments he have formed, to make that which ye have done paſs with your own hearts, and to make it appear ſomewhat plauſible to others. Yet all this will not do, the eye of the Lord ſees through you; and that light which ye reproach, makes you manifeſt to be at preſent in ſubjection under the bloudy dark power, who will hold you as long as he can, and furniſh you with ſuch Weapons as he has, againſt the Lamb and his followers. But ye come forth to the Battel in a bad day, for the light is ariſen to conquer, and is not now to be overcome with the darkneſs. And though ye meet the Woman and her Seed, with a Floud of reproaches and perſecutions, yet that will not ſtop her from coming forth out of the Wilderneſs, to ſhew her beauty and innocency again in the earth. Conſider theſe things, and come out of this hard Spirit into tenderneſs (if it be poſſible) that the ſtill, meek, gentle Spirit of life, may be your leader from under all falſe covers into the truth it ſelf; where there is a gentle lying down with all that is of God, and not ſo much as an offence becauſe of any difference (much leſs heart-burnings and perſecutions) but a ſweet waiting on the Lord, for every ones growth, in their ſeveral Ranks and Stations.

Since my waiting on the Lord for the preſence and guidance of his Spirit, in the examining the foregoing Grounds and Conſiderations, there came forth an Appendix to John Norton's Book, wherein are laid down ſome further Grounds by way of juſtifying of their proceedings, which for their ſakes, and likewiſe on the behalf of the truth and people of God, I may alſo ſay ſomewhat to.

1. FIRST, they inſinuate an argument concerning the not ſuffering of evil, which (they ſay) is common to all that fear God, with themſelves.

Answ. Evil is to be resisted, but in Gods way, according to Gods Will, and not according to the Will of the Flesh. Spiritual evils are to be resisted (by, and in the Faith) with spiritual Weapons. which God hath appointed and sanctified thereto. Earthly evils, outward evils, transgressions of the just Law of the Magistrate, are to be resisted by the sword of the Magistrate. Here are the bounds which God hath set, which he that transgresseth, sinneth against the Lord and his own Soul. But the believer is not to step out of Gods way to resist the Magistrates evil, nor the Magistrate to step out of Gods way, to resist Spiritual evil, but both are to wait on the Lord, for his blessing on the means he hath appointed, and it is better for each of them not to resist evil, but let it grow upon them, till the Lord please to appear against it, than to overcome it by an unrighteous Weapon. Wo to them that go down to Ægypt for help, and stay on Horses, and trust in Chariots, Isa. 31. 1.

2. A second argument is taken from the sole cause of their transplanting, which they say was to enjoy liberty, to walk peaceably in the Faith of the Gospel, according to the order of the Gospel.

Answ. That there was an honest intent in many of them, in transplanting into New-England, I do not doubt; though whether they had a sufficient warrant from God to transplant, was doubted and objected against them, by many of their conscientious fellow-sufferers here in old England, who testified to them that they did believe it to be their duty not to fly, but stay and bear their Testimony for God and his truth by suffering: and this had been a better way of resisting that which was manifestly evil, than of resisting by the sword that for evil, which in due time they themselves may see and acknowledge not to have been so. But if they did truly desire liberty, did not the enemy tempt them to be selfish, to seek it so far as might comprise themselves, excluding such as might differ from them, upon as just grounds as they themselves differed from others? Did not they set bounds to the truth, and bounds to the Spirit of God, that thus far it should appear, and no further? Whereas God hath degrees of discovering and leading out of the Antichristian darkness: and he that opposeth the next discovery of truth, the next step out of Babylon is as real an enemy and persecutor, as he that opposed the foregoing. In that they testified against the Bishops, they did well: but if they will now set up a stand, either to themselves or others, and not follow the leadings of the Lamb, their life may be withered, and they may perish in the Wilderness, while others are following the guide which they left (when they set up their stand) towards Canaan.

And as for walking peaceably: That they might be free from the fear of outward Powers, having liberty to try whatever pretends to be of God; and if it appear error, be out of danger of having their consciences forced, this is a great mercy. But if they would live so peaceably, as that no discovery of God further, should ever start up among them, nor the Lord himself be suffered to send any of his Servants with any further discovery of light unto them, this is not a peace which God allows to any man, nor which his people desire, but only the carnal part which loves to be at ease, and not to be at the pains of tryal in the fear of the Lord, of what comes forth in his name. And who walk thus, walk not in the Faith, nor in the order of the Gospel, which doth not suddenly reject any thing, but first throughly tries both Doctrines and Spirits, whether they be of God or no. He that rejects that which is of God, cannot thrive, or prosper in his Spirit; and he that tries in the hastiness of the Flesh, and not in the Patience and Meekness of the Spirit, is in great danger of rejecting whatever of God appears.

But can they not enjoy their own liberty, and walk in the Gospel, and mannage the sword of the Spirit against errors and spiritual enemies (according to the order of the Gospel) which is mighty through God to cut down the Flesh, unless they get the Magistrates sword to cut down every appearance of truth (and every person holding forth any truth) but what they themselves shall own? Cannot the Spirit of God lead into further truth, then they were led into when they went into New-England? And may not the Lord take his own time to discover it to them, and to lead them into it? So that when first it appears, it may be hid from them: and will nothing serve them but the Magistrates sword to cut it down so soon as ever it appears? Did not the Bishops of England think theirs to be the Gospel-order, and cryed against the Non-conformists that they they could not live peaceably for them, but they diſturbed the order of the Church, and drew mens minds from matters of Faith and Edification? Surely the deſire of ſuch a kind of peace (as may ſtop the breaking forth of light to the people of God, for their further leading out of Babylon) is not good. This is rather a fleſhly eaſe, than true peace, which the Lord hath not allotted to his people, but they are to wait for the powring down of his ſpirit, and the opening of the deep myſteries of his life in the latter days, and to try what comes forth in his name, whether it be of him or no, that they may not loſe the good as it breaks forth, nor be deceived with the evil, as it gets into and appears in the ſhape and likeneſs of the good.

Now the drift of the Argument lies in this, that this liberty they cannot enjoy, without a non-tolleration of others. Tolleration of any but themſelves and their own way diſturbs their peace, their Faith, their order.

Anſw. The true liberty, the true faith, the true order of the Goſpel was enjoyed formerly, without this power of ſuppreſſing others by carnal weapons, and violent Laws. Yea this power of ſuppreſſing others, and of compelling to a way of Religion and Worſhip, came up with Antichriſt, and that power which came up with Antichriſt, is not of Chriſt. The Dragon gave his power to the Beaſt, Rev. 13.4. and another Beaſt riſeth up with Horns like a Lamb, ver. 11. and this Beaſt compelleth, ver. 12. Mark the Beaſt which appeared with Horns like a Lamb, as if it had Chriſts power, and maketh fire to come down from Heaven on the earth in the ſight of men (and who can deny theſe to be of God, that can do ſuch things) this very Beaſt compelleth or cauſeth to worſhip, as ver. 12. So this Beaſt which appears like a Lamb, joyns with the firſt Beaſt whom it had ſet up under another appearance, and both compel to the worſhipping of an Image of the Truth (of ſuch an Image of the truth as they think good to advance) and ſo from the Truth it ſelf. And he that will not be deceived with their image, with their likeneſs, with that which they call the truth and way of God, or order of the Goſpel, and ſo ſhall refuſe to bow thereto, he ſhall not be permitted either to buy or ſell, ver. 16, 17. There is no living as men within their bounds, unleſs they will bow to their image. But the true Lamb doth not compel, but calls to wait on the Fathers drawings, till the Father by his Spirit make willing. And though by the Lamb Kings Reign, and Princes Decree Juſtice, (Prov. 8.15.) yet they never had any commiſſion from him to force men to that way of Religion and Worſhip, to which the Spirit of the Lord alone can make them willing, nor to fall upon them becauſe they were unwilling. This is from the Dragon, wherever it is found.

This then is the great matter of controverſie, you account it your liberty not to tollerate, and here ſtands your peace and Religion (which was a liberty the true Chriſtians never had) and you cannot with patience hear any to teſtifie againſt you: and ſo ye now fall upon any that come to witneſs againſt you, even as ye your ſelves once ſuffered when ye were Witneſſes. But how can ye manifeſt that God ſhall reveal no truth, but what he reveals to you? or if he do, that ye have liberty not to tollerate it, or the perſons that hold it forth? Wherefore conſider ſeriouſly, whether this be a right liberty ye have aimed at: for if your aim hath been at a liberty which is not granted of God, at ſuch a liberty as will not ſtand with the liberty of his ſpirit in his people, no marvail though ye have run into indirect means to attain it: and ſo from ſtep to ſtep have been led to the utmoſt degree of violence and perſecution; and being engaged in it, are now forced to ſeek for Arguments to maintain it. This Argument is further enforced, by propoſing the inconſiderableneſs of the Quakers ſuffering of a non-tolleration, compared with a manifeſt and greateſt hazard of tolleration unto the Country: Their abſence from hence is no detriment to them, their preſence here threatens no leſs than the ruine of all, to us, &c.

Anſw. As for outward detriment, the Quakers do not conſider that in caſes of this nature: but that in them which is born of God, hearing and receiving his command, preſently obeys, waiting for his preſence and power to carry through, and doth not at all mind the hardſhips to be met with. But the inward detriment, ariſing from diſobedience to God is very great, even the loſs of his ſweet preſence, life and power at preſent, beſides the utter hazard of the Soul: for that which draweth back from obedience to the Spirit of the Lord, the Lord hath no pleaſure in: and they have known the terrors of the Lord to the diſobedient, therefore they may not pleaſe men in forbearing to go where he ſends them, nor (ſtanding in his counſel and power) do they fear them which can kill the body, but they exceedingly dread the death and loſs of their Souls, and him who hath the power thereof.

And as for their preſence threatning the ruin of all to you, that's but a miſapprehenſion. It may indeed be ruine to that part in you, which is wiſe and ſtrong without the preſence of the life of God, but the elect, which is built upon the rock cannot be ruined by any appearance of God, nay nor by any appearance of the powers of darkneſs againſt God, for the Gates of Hell cannot prevail againſt the true Church. And there is great advantage of Errors and Hereſies to the true Church, for the life grows and gets ground by a fair Tryal and overcoming of them, and the approved are thereby made manifeſt, 1 Cor. 11. 19. Now what kind of Church is yours, which is in ſuch danger of being ruined by that whereby the true Church was advantaged? So that to plead that either you muſt ſuffer your Religion, your Souls, your Liberties to be made a prey of, or take this courſe to defend them, is very inconſequent, and a ſtrong argument againſt you that yours is not the truth, which needs ſuch a defence as the truth hath not been uſed to have, but hath grown up, been preſerved and thriven not only without it, but againſt the ſtrength and force of it. So likewiſe thoſe conſiderations of the Shepherds defending the Flock from Wolves, and of the Keeper of the Vinyards maintaining the Hedg againſt Wild Beaſts, &c. are not proper to the thing in hand: for the Spiritual Sheep, the Soul, the liberty of the Church, the true Religion, the true Vinyard are not outward, nor to be defended after an outward manner; but the defence is according to the nature of the thing which is to be defended. To truſt, or look after an outward power for defending theſe, is to betray the Faith which is the Shield. Therefore let them conſider, whether in looking out too much at theſe, they have not loſt the true Weapon, and the ſight of the true thing which is to be defended, which the Arm of the Lord alone gathers, and the Arm of the Lord alone preſerves.

This Argument is yet further preſſed from the preſent ſtate of your own people, too many of them being perilouſly diſpoſed (as ye ſay) to receive their Doctrine, being already too much diſaffected, if not enemies to order, &c.

Anſw. Alas, alas, have you had your order, your Church Government ſo long up, and are the multitude among you yet ſo ready to be ſhaken? Behold what a weak unſtable ſettlement ye have attained to all this time, by your outward force! But ſearch honeſtly, and ſee who they are that are ſo ready to be ſhaken. Are they the diſcontented and unconſcionable multitude (as ye ſpeak) or are they the moſt ſimple hearted, moſt conſcientious, and zealous towards God amongſt you? (for it is experienced here in Old England: that the ground they gain, is not upon the unconſcionable but the conſcientious.) If it be theſe that are ſomewhat touched with the ſence of their Doctrine, it may make you fear that there is more of God therein, than you are aware of. Therefore do not proceed to argue thus violently againſt a thing, before ye have tryed it: but come to a deep, ſerious, inward conſideration of the thing between God and your own Souls, not in the pride, loftineſs and ſelf willedneſs, but in the honeſty, humility and meekneſs of your Spirits: and then perhaps ye may ſee beauty, and the life of your Souls in that, which ye now ſo revile and perſecute. And though ye matter not how ye imagine, and ſpeak all manner of evil falſely againſt us, yet do not alſo wrong the beſt among your ſelves, by terming them diſcontented and unconſcionable, becauſe their Spirits are not hardened by your form, but yet retain ſome tenderneſs towards God, his Truths and People.

But why do ye charge following the light within ſo deeply as to be a giving up of mens ſelves to their own inclinations, and that it immediately canonizeth them for Saints, diſchargeth them from ſubjection both Civil and Sacred, and from the Scriptures as the rule of life, and by vertue of this their Sainſhip, intitles to the Eſtates and Dignities of all who are not of their minds, &c.

Anſw. Surely if ye were guided by the Light within, ye would be preſerved from ſuch kind of injuriouſneſs both to Perſons and Principles. Are your Tongues and Pens your own, at liberty to ſpeak and write any thing that will make for your advantage, how manifeſtly falſe ſoever? If it were but a natural light, yet being of God, it would not deſerve this deep blame. Have ye ever tryed it, as we have done? if not, why do yet ſpeak ſo againſt it, before ye have tryed it? We can upon much experience teſtifie, that it is againſt our inclinations, that it diſcovers them, calls from them, and is a daily crosse to them; upon following whereof we feel the bitter dying of the earthly part, and the inclinations thereof pining away. And from true subjection, to that which truly is of God. it never discharges; but leads to obedience to what is lawfully commanded by Authority, and to patient suffering under what is unlawfully inflicted. And as for the Scriptures, it opens them in the life which gave them forth, it fulfils them in us, it makes them our own, it makes us able to set our seal to the truth of them in the sight of God; and to receive that for the rule, which the Scriptures say is the rule, the living word, Christ the living way, the word in the mouth and in the heart, Rom. 10. the Law in the mind, the Law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus, which is the word ingrafted into their hearts, who are created a new in Christ. And this is the honour which we give to the Scriptures, namely to receive that which they testifie of, to live and walk in that spirit, which they call to us to live and walk in; to take heed of painting the old nature, and letting the old spirit live upon its imaginations, which it gathers out of the Scriptures, reading them in the oldness of the Letter, and not in the newness of the Spirit. And we professe nakedly, that we believe the truth of God, not meerly because the Scripture hath said it (for that which is out of the truth may thus believe) but also because in coming to the thing, and receiving the truth as it is in Jesus, we have found it to be just as the Scriptures speak of it. But what do ye speak, as if following the Light did intitle men to the Estates and Dignities of all who are not of their mind? Nay, the light teacheth, not to Covet, not to desire earthly Dignities or Estates. Let it be looked at over Old England: which of us so much as mind these things? Nay the Lord knows, that the love of these things is daily rooted out of our hearts more and more, and we are a people whom the World cannot charge with Covetousness or love of the World, wherewith all sorts of Professors hitherto have been too justly chargeable. O Rulers of New England, why do ye thus overturn the cause of the Innocent? if we were a bad people, yet to lay things so notoriously false to our charge, and to charge that principle in us with it, which powerfully leads us from, this is not right nor justifiable in the sight of God. Ah take heed of reviling, persecuting, and speaking all manner of evil against us falsely, for his name sake whom we are called to serve, and whom we do serve in following and obeying the light of his Spirit in us, which hath led us to the true knowledge of God, and to life and peace with him.

ly

About the close of this Argument, for the further strengthening of it, it is said Duty is not opposite to duty, passiveness for the truth and activeness against the enemies of the Truth, are both duties in their season.

Answ. Every kind of activeness against the enemies of the Truth, is not duty, for some kind is sinful. There is a lawful fighting, and an unlawful fighting. Such a kind of fighting against an enemy as may hurt a friend. and cannot hurt the enemy, is unlawful. Now the Magistrates Sword may hurt a friend, may affright the tender Conscience from its duty towards Christ. but it cannot reach the falshood which lodgeth in the heart, nor draw the party from that, but rather hardeneth him in it: So that it is not a duty to have the Magistrates Sword drawn out against that, for which it is not proper, where it may do hurt and not good. The Housholder would not permit his own Servants to gather up the Tares, lest they should root up the Wheat with them, Mat. 13. 29. Did Christ deny his Disciples that liberty, and doth he grant it to the Magistrates? Is the Magistrate out of danger of hurting the Wheat, while he is smiting at the Tares: nay is he not in danger of smiting and rooting up the Wheat instead of the Tares? Surely this is the Magistrates Duty, to keep in his place, and not to extend his Sword beyond his Commission, and beyond what it is proper for. And let me put this to all the Magistrates of the earth, who have been drawing out their Sword against Tares (as they might think) are ye sure that ye never touched any green thing? Revel. 9. 4.) did ye never pluck up any Wheat? ye must give an account of this to Christ one day. Here in Old England, in the Bishops days, they were liable to be excommunicated and weeded out of the Church, and also to be struck at by the Magistrate: how it hath been in New-England, I leave it to it to your Consciences to consider of, do not slubber it over, but make up a just Accompt.

What Moses did Levit. 24. in case of Blasphemy, he did by immediate direction from God vers. 13. and he was a Type of Christ, who inwardly and spiritually fulfils all his outward shadows. And Christ doth not say that every Blasphemer under the Gospel shall be put to Death, but all blasphemy or speaking against the Son of Man shall be for-forgiven, but there is a kind of blaſphemy which he will not forgive. And the Church by his Spirit, are to try and deal with blaſphemers, even to the cutting of them off, by the ſword of the Spirit, that they may repent and learn not to blaſpheme, 1. Tim. 1. 20. but the Magiſtrate is not now appointed to cut them off in their blaſphemy, and ſo to take away that time of repentance from them, which Chriſt hath allowed them. Chriſts Ordinances and Inſtitutions do not claſh one with another, he doth not bid the Church cut off a Perſon from the Unity with the Sword of the Spirit, that he might feel the loſs of life, and be made ſenſible of what a condition his blaſphemies have brought him to, and ſo come to mourn and repent. I ſay Chriſt doth not do this on the one hand, and on the other hand bid the Magiſtrate baniſh him or cut him off with the Sword, and ſo take away his time of repentance from him. Nay this device ſprang from the falſe Church to make her excommunication outwardly terrible and dreadful, which hath no inward vertue, or cauſe of terror and dread at all in it.

So as touching Nehemiah, he was both extraordinarily ſtirred up by God, and his time was under the Law, ſo that the argument from his example is not valid to them, who have not ſuch a Warrant as he had (for he ſaith himſelf, that God had put in his heart what he had to do at Jeruſalem, Nehem. 2. 12.) and where the ſtate and miniſtration is changed. The Prieſts did that under the Law, which is not now to be done, but typified what Chriſt the unchangable Prieſt was to do: So likewiſe Kings, Judges, and Governours of that People, did that under the Law towards them, which is not now to be done outwardly towards any by any King, Ruler, or Magiſtrate, but typified what Chriſt was inwardly to do in the Spirits of his People, and how he would gather, preſerve, and defend his Church, and Wound and Subdue his enemies, even by his Rod and Scepter, which is the Sword of his Spirit, the Word of his Mouth.

And as for Epheſus, and Thyatira's not ſuffering falſe Apoſtles and the Woman Jezabel; We do not ſay that any errors, or erronious perſons, are to be ſuffered by the Church, but to be dealt in Chriſts power and authority. But the delivering up of theſe to the ſecular power, we know to have been an invention of Antichriſt's, and a great diſhonour to Chriſt (as if his Rod and Scepter were not ſufficient to defend his Subjects and Kingdom, and to beat down his enemies) and alſo a ground of much affliction, perſecution, and bloud-ſhed of the Saints, yea and of ſuppreſſiug the truth of God for a ſeaſon. For the perſecutor having once gotten this cover, then he can do that openly and boldly, which otherwiſe he would bluſh and be aſhamed of. To perſecute Chriſt, to put his people to death, and that for profeſſing and publiſhing his Truths, God forbid ſaith the Antichriſtian Spirit (in every form and way of Religion) that we ſhould do this: but in every age calls the Witneſſes to the Truth (of that age) Blaſphemers, Wicked perſons, perſons that by their Tenets overthrow the fundamental truths of the Goſpel, and their Doctrines deſtructive, &c. And now what zealous People or Miniſter, or what Chriſtian Magiſtrate can ſuffer ſuch as theſe? By this artifice the ſufferings of the Saints come to abound in every age, and their bloud is made havock of: and what is thus done, eaſily paſſeth as an Act of Juſtice againſt offenders, and not as indeed itis, perſecution of the truths and people of God. The after-age can ſee what it is, and cry out againſt it: but ſtill it is the ſubtilty of the perſecuting Spirit, to hide the perſecutions of the preſent age, under an appearance of zeal for God, and of juſtice againſt offenders.

3. In the next place it is ſaid, on the Quakers behalf, that they are the Lambs of Chriſt, Indeed this is a conſiderable thing, for if they be Chriſt's Lambs then they are innocent, and cannot be the cauſers of their own ſufferings, but that will reſt upon the perſecutors, though they uſe never ſo much art to make the Lambs appear guilty. and themſelves guiltleſs, Their Spirit, Nature, manner of fighting (which is with Lamb-like Weapons, which hurt not Fleſh and Bloud) their whole courſe and converſation, and manner of ſuffering, &c. manifeſts them to be Lambs; this is of much more force, than a bare ſaying they are Lambs. None of this is mentioned on their behalf, but only that they ſay they are Lambs. But let us ſee how fairly that is overthrown.

Againſt this, that place, John 5.31. is alledged, If I bear witneſs of my ſelf, my witneſs is not true: whereupon it is said thus, Had not Christ been God, the reason of the Jews had been good against him.

is

Answ. Doth not the Spirit of God dwell in the Sons of God? And doth not the Spirit of God bear witness in them that they are his Children? And is not this witness true? John saith, We know that we are of God, 1 John 5. 19. Was not this witness true in John, because John was not God? Was not the Prophets Testimony true (that they were his Prophets, and that God had sent them, and that it was his Message which they brought) because they were not God? Shall the Spirit of God work Wonders in the heart? and shall he not testifie concerning his own Work at his pleasure? Ah friends, how do ye understand Scriptures, and raise inferrences from it, thus to condemn the generation of the righteous? Search the Scriptures, Do not the Prophets still testifie that the Lord sent them, and that it was his Word which they spake, though they themselves were not God, but persons moved by the Spirit of God, who stirred in his Servants under the Law, but dwelleth, resteth, and abideth in his people under the Gospel, and what he testifieth is true, though Fleshly-wise Israel (who seem to themselves very skilful in the Law and Letter of the Scriptures) could not receive his Testimony either then or now. Ah Friends, ye had need take heed and consider, lest the bastardly birth in you hath taken up an habitation in the Letter, without knowing the mind of the Spirit, whose presence killeth the carnal part, and shutteth out the Wisdom of the flesh from meddling with the Scriptures.

And whereas you seem to refer all to the tryal of the Scripture, both Station, Doctrine, and Practice: Surely if ye had done so in truth, ye would have more patiently heard their Testimony according to the Scriptures. Every man pretendeth Scripture, but none truly honour it, but they who are guided by that Spirit which it testifieth of: And they who are not guided by that Spirit, walk not according to the Scriptures, but according to reasonings of the fleshly part, which windeth it self into the letter of the Scriptures, that by some kind of conformity thereto, it may avoid the dint of the Spirit. And this is the way of Antichrists prevailing, by getting the form, crying up that, winding his own fleshly Spirit into that, and sheltering it self under that. Thus the Jews cryed up the Temple of the Lord, the Sabbath, the Law of Moses and writings of the Prophets; and under this cover, with great zeal persecuted Christ, he was looked upon as a blasphemer, as one against Gods Temple, his Sabbath, his Ordinances &c. And since the days of Christ, the Antichristian Spirit speaks great Words of Christ, his Death, Resurrection, Ascention, Intercession, &c. and of Church-order, and Discipline, that under this cover it may fight against the Comforter, the spirit of truth; who alone can lead into truth, and which is the proper way of Gods Ministration since Christs ascention. And this hath been the Way of opposing truth ever since, and still is: And here is the Antichrist, he that holds these in the wrong part, and by these Fights against the true Spirit.

But if there be any truth in this, that ye are willing to be tryed by the Scriptures, let it yet come to a fair tryal this way, and let them have free liberty to manifest among you, what they have to say from the Scriptures, why your Church, your Ministry, your Order and Government, your whole way of teaching and worship is not of God, nor according to the Scriptures, but an invention and imitation, set up in the way of resemblance of what once was truly so If this cannot be made good against you, ye will have much advantage of shaming them, and of settling your people much firmer than by prisons, whips, cutting off of ears, banishment, and death, which no mans heart (seriously considering it in true soberness) can possibly believe to be the proper engines of settling or preserving the Gospel of peace.

But that the Scripture is the rule of tryal under the Gospel, I read not in Scripture, but that the things of the Spirit are to be known in and by the Spirit, 1 Cor. 2. 12. The Apostle John speaking of Antichrists, Seducers, and Erring Spirits, which were to be tryed, doth not bid them try them by the Words which he wrote, or by the other Apostles Words, or by the Prophets Words, but by the anointing, which keeping close to, they need fear no Seducers, 1 John 2. 26, 27. The Word which was in the beginning being received, abode in, and kept close to, tries all Words and Spirits. That which begets to God is the Spirit; the great gift (which is given to him which is begotten) is the Spirit; and this (being given) is to become the Fountain of life to the Believer,

John

John 7. 38: And in this ſpring of life he is to live, and receive milk and knowledge, and here he is to walk, and here he is to try all other Waters, even by this Water. And this is more to a believer, and more enableth him to try, than all the Words of truth that ever were written: though he that hath this cannot deſpiſe or undervalue any thing that the Spirit ever wrought: but yet the Spirit it ſelf is more to him, and more certain than any Words concerning the Spirit. Men may make falſe gloſſes, and mudd, and make void the Scriptures, by their reaſonings, and interpretation, and traditional apprehenſions: But this Water ever runs freſh and clear, and no foul Spirit can defile it. Moſes gave the Law, which directed to, and ended in Chriſt: Chriſt in the fleſh finiſhed the Work which the Father gave him to do, and directed to the Comforter to be the leader into all truth, yea the ſpring of life to the believer, and here the believer is ſafe: but the Antichriſtian ſpirit ravening from this, cries up the letter in the ſtead of this, and doth not ſee how the letter points to, and centers in this. God hath made us able Miniſters of the New Teſtament, (ſaith the Apoſtle) not of the Letter but of the Spirit, 2 Cor. 3. 6. He overlooked the letter, that was not the thing he was chiefly to Miniſter, but the Spirit, the Power, to turn men from darkneſs to light, that they might feel him that is true, and have the life eternal abiding in the heart: But now in the Antichriſtian darkneſs, the Spirit being loſt which is the Goſpel-adminiſtration, now they ſeemingly advance and cry up the letter, putting it into the place of the Spirit: Yet in truth it is not the Scripture neither, in its naked ſimplicity, which is thus cryed up, but mans wiſe reaſonings about it. The fleſhly Will, the fleſhly Underſtanding, the fleſhly Strength getting a Seat there, having formed a building out of it, and reared Strong Holds in that part which can be wiſe and live without the Spirit; now its life, its intereſt, lies in the Scriptures thus believed, thus underſtood, thus practiſed: thus therefore it cries it up, not as it came at firſt out of the hands of the Spirit, nor as the truth of it is now ſeen in the ſimplicity and nakedneſs of the Spirit, but as the Wiſdom from below hath formed meanings and apprehenſions concerning it. And here every ſort of men are Wiſe in their own eyes, and ſtrong and prudent in their own conceivings and reaſonings, but know not the bringing to naught of that underſtanding, which precedeth the opening of the eye of the Babe, which hath that ſight of the things of God given, which is out of the reach of all the Wiſe and Strong ones.

It is true, under the Law, they were to try by the Law and Teſtimony, Iſa. 8. 10: But yet not in an uncertain way, according to their own gueſſings, imaginations, and reaſonings, but according to a certain interpretation and knowledge thereof: and in caſes of difficulty the Judge was to have recourſe to the Prieſt, Deut. 17. 8, &c. And the Prieſts in caſes of doubt had an ordinary way of enquiring by Urim (Numb. 27. Beſides the way of enquiring by Prophets, which was very common with them alſo, 1 Sam. 9. 9. and chap. 28. 6. But now the Jews having forfeited theſe, and filling their minds with a gathered knowledge from the Law and Prophets, trying Chriſt and his truths by this, judged amiſs both of him and them. Now the Law was a ſhaddow of good things to come, not a ſhaddow of another outward Law or rule, but a ſhaddow of the inward rule, of the Law of the New Covenant written in the heart, of the Spirit put within, Heb. 8. And by this Law is the true believer fully as able to try, as they were by the former: but without this, a Chriſtians tryal of things, is not ſo certain as theirs was under the Law.

The force of the fourth argument is to this effect, That the dictate of conſcience is not a ſufficient Plea in caſe of meer and ſingle ignorance, much leſs in wilful and affected ignorance.

Anſw. The dictate of conſcience is not made a plea by us, but the anſwering and obeying the light of Chriſt in our conſciences, is that which keepeth them void of offence, both towards God and towards Men. Now it is one thing for a man to act evil, and plead it is his conſcience, and it is another thing for a man to be guided by the infallible light of the Spirit, or if he be not come ſo far, yet to be made tender in his heart towards Chriſt concerning his practices in Religion. In this laſt caſe we ſay, that in things whoſe good or evil chiefly depends upon the knowledge and perſwaſion of the mind, which Chriſt alone can do, here Chriſt is the ſole Lord and Judge of the conſcience, Rom. 14. 4. And not either Miniſter, Church, or Magiſtrate. Chriſt giveth knowledge, Chriſt increaſeth knowledge, and Chriſt requireth obedience according to the know-knowledge given or increaſed: That is many times required to be left, upon a farther degree of knowledge given, which was not required to be left before: and ſo alſo upon the ſame terms may things be required to be performed, which were not required to be done before. And this indeed is the very ſum of the true Religion (ſince the Death of Chriſt, and his finiſhing of his work here) either to worſhip in the Spirit, or to wait for the Spirit. He who hath not received the Spirit, he is to wait for the Spirit. He who hath received the Spirit, he is to wait in the Spirit for the movings and outgoings thereof, and to be obedient thereto. And Chriſtians are to take heed, not only of a wrong Spirit, but alſo of quenching the movings of the true Spirit in themſelves or others. If the erring mind hath miſtaken about Worſhip, and through its miſtake ſet up a wrong way, the Spirit in the tender Plants will be moving againſt it, which the wiſe reaſoning fleſhly part will be knocking down, and ſo the Birth which is after the fleſh will be getting advantage of Perſecuting and keeping under the Immortal Seed. Now ſuppreſs evil to the utmoſt, but take heed of quenching the good in any; take heed how ye ſtop that in its courſe of diſcovering evil (in your Worſhips, or otherwiſe) which eaſily paſſeth for good, until the Spirit begin to make it manifeſt. Ah friends, if the carnal wiſdom had been Crucified in you, and the Spirit of God had had more ſcope in manifeſting evil among you, what might ye have grown to ere this day? but if the Magiſtrate upon every doubt, or difference, or ſtartling of the tender Conſcience, ſtep in with his Sword, how is the way of the breaking forth of truth ſtopped up? and that which is truly of God, and moſt tender towards him, is moſt liable to ſuffer this way. And this is that which makes the Quakers ſuch a ſuffering people, becauſe they have found the benefit of keeping the Conſcience tender towards God, and ſo prize it above all things: and this mercy have they received from the Lord, ſenſibly to diſtinguiſh (in this tenderneſs towards God, and in the fear of his name) between the dictates of Conſcience, and the voice of his Spirit there. Now it is not at all pleaded by us, that under a pretence of Conſcience, ye ſhould ſuffer all manner or any manner of evil: but firſt, Puniſh not good for evil: do not puniſh the good in others, to defend the evil in your ſelves: Secondly, That which is manifeſtly evil, puniſh it by ſuch hands and means as God hath appointed, the Spiritual by Spiritual, the Temporal by Temporal, and do not make puniſhing of evil a pretence of perſecuting good in others, and of upholding the evil in your ſelves.

But as touching your diſtinction of meer and ſingle ignorance, or wilful and affected, we can bleſs the Lord who hath delivered us from them both, by the day-ſpring which he hath cauſed to ariſe in our hearts; and we can with a farther meaſure of the ſame Spirit bear this from you, with a meaſure whereof ſome of the Non-conformiſts bore this from the Conformiſts, who would caſts this upon them, that their ignorance was affected, they were refractory, but might have been better informed, if they would. And we wiſh with all our hearts, that there were not too juſt cauſe of retorting both parts of this diſtinction back upon you: for if ye had not been very groſly ignorant, ye could never have thus put darkneſs for light, and light for darkneſs, caſting ſuch odious reproaches upon the truth, to make it appear what it was not: had ye not been ignorant of the Scriptures, ye would have known the movings of the life and ſpirit of it in others; but through ignorance of the eternal power, and from your dark reaſonings and conceivings about the Letter, ye are ready to call Chriſt Beelzebub, not knowing the anointing in the members, no more than the Scribes and Phariſees did in the head. And had not your ignorance alſo been too much affected, ye would have took more pains about the Tryal, and not have run into ſuch miſtakes all along, both about them and their Doctrines, as ye have done.

That Chriſt referred himſelf either to Pilates, or the Jews tryal of him by Scriptures, is a groſs miſtake at beſt. The Jews did try him by Scriptures, and according to their underſtanding thereof, found him a Sabbath breaker, againſt Moſes Law, and that he could not be the Meſſiah (John 7. 27. and 52. and chap. 12 34) but by their Law ought to die, John 19 7. There is no trying of the things of God by conſidering of Scriptures in the carnal mind, in the wiſe reaſoning part: but in the Spirit which wrote the Scriptures, in the underſtanding which God gives, (1 John 5. 20.) in the wiſdome which is beſtowed on the Babe (who lives in the ſimplicity and pure innocency that is in Chriſt) there the truth it ſelf, and alſo the Scriptures (which teſtifie of it) are clear. Now Chriſt did not refer himſelf to them be tryed by the Scriptures) for he knew what was in man, and he knew after what manner they would try him thereby:) but he bid them ſearch the Scriptures, which teſtified of him, that ſo they might come to know and receive him, John 5. 39, 40. and none knew him, but thoſe to whom the Father revealed him.

So the caſe of Paul's appealing to Cæſar, doth not prove that Cæſar was a proper Judge in caſes of conſcience: but he was at that time a proper defence againſt the malice of the Jews, who moſt unconſcionably perſecuted Paul, under a pretence of zeal for God, and defence of their Church and Ordinances. And were ye not in power, but an equal Heathen Magiſtrate over us both, the Quakers durſt refer their cauſe to tryal, that they have done you injury, no more than Paul did the Jews. Indeed Paul preached that, which was the end of the Law, and the overturning of the Jewiſh ſtate: And if their Prieſts and Rulers had had him to judge, they would have made him as great an Offender, as ye now make the Quakers. Now if your Religion ſtand upon ſuch a bottom as theirs did, and not upon the Rock, in the Faith, and by the Spirit, ye may well fear us, it is not without a cauſe, for this we certainly know, that all profeſſions of God and of Chriſt, imitations and practices from the letter, which ſtand in mans Will and Wiſdom, will not be able to abide the breath of this ſuffering Seed, who love the Teſtimony of Jeſus and ſervice to his name above their lives.

And as for an erring conſcience, there lies the diſpute, whoſe conſcience errs, yours or theirs? Ye ſay they have erred from the Letter, the Order, and Ordinances of the Goſpel: they ſay ye have erred from the Spirit, and therefore muſt needs have erred from the Letter alſo, (and this they are ready to prove according to the Scriptures, if ye dare ſtand to a fair tryal) And alſo that ye are in a Knowledge, Faith, Worſhip, Wiſdom, &c. which ſtands in the Will and Carnal part, and keeps the Carnal part alive. This deſerves a meek and ſerious conſideration in the fear of him who can deſtroy the Soul, and not ſuch a bloudy and fiery tryal, as your proceedings and writings too much ſavour of.

5. That a regular defence of the truth by the Godly Orthodox Magiſtrate and others reſpectively, is not perſecution.

Anſw. To bring the ſword of the Magiſtrate into the Work of Chriſts Spirit and Power, this is ir-regular; and it doth execution ir-regularly, cutting down the perſon, and not the ſin; whereas the Sword of the Spirit cuts down the ſin, that the perſon may be ſaved. Chriſt came not to deſtroy mens lives, but to ſave: and if any man receive him not, or ſpeak againſt him, he calls not for Fire from Heaven, or for a Magiſtrates Sword, but waits to be gracious, and by the power of his Spirit (having once convinced and gathered) doth he defend his truths and people. Let but the Magiſtrates ſtand ſtill with his Sword, the Spirit of Chriſt will ſoon get the Victory over error, and a ſweeter and better Victory than the Magiſtrates Sword can effect. Truth ſprang up without the Magiſtrates Sword, yea, againſt it? ſo it grew, ſo it conquered. The Magiſtrates Sword here (though never ſo favourable to truth) doth more hurt than good, putting the true Sword out of its place, and keeping down that tenderneſs of Spirit, wherein the the truth alone can ſpring,

That coertion was inſtituted for reſtraining of evil, we grant, (this is the ſame with the firſt Argument) but he that appointed two kinds of coertion, ſet each their limits, which they are not to tranſgreſs. See Anſwer to the firſt argument.

But whereas ye ſay that Tares and ill Weeds need no more than being let alone to over-run and ſpoil the Corn: That is directly contrary to Chriſt, who ſaid expreſly, Let both grow together until the Harveſt, Mat. 13. 30. Sure he would not have his Wheat in danger of being deſtroyed all the time till Harveſt: but he judged, that plucking up the Tares would more endanger the Wheat, than letting them alone, verſ. 29. Man may eaſily miſtake, and pluck up an Ear of Wheat, inſtead of a Tare: and better it were to let many Tares alone, than pluck up one Ear of Wheat: Ye have long been buſied in New-England, about plucking up of Tares, Are ye ſure ye never plucked up any Wheat? Nay, have ye not weeded out the Wheat, and left the Tares ſtanding? Undertaking a Work ſo directly contrary to Chriſt's direction (and ſo without the guidance of his Spirit) ye might eaſily thus err. Now what the Tares are, is afterwards expounded, they are such persons which grow among the Wheat, but are not Wheat, but are to be gathered from the Wheat with Christ's Sickle, and bound up in bundles for the burning in the day of his Harvest.

ſuch

Your comparisons of a Gangreen and the like, I wish ye knew how to apply. The power of Gods truth in the Spirits of his people is no Gangreen: but the form without the power is a Gangreen, and like Pharaoh's lean Cattle soon eats up the fat. And he who hath lost his own tenderness and freshness, soon turns persecutor of such as remain tender, and seek to preserve their freshness.

In the days of the Apostles there was a King in Israel, then the Church was well Governed, in the meekness and sweet authority and power of Christs Spirit, which hurts not creatures, but strikes at Christs enemy in creatures. Since that time the Papists have had a long day of doing what was right in their eyes, the Episcopalians a day after them of doing what was right in their eyes, and so the Presbyterians and Independants, &c. But it were better for them all to lament after the right King, than to set up an usurp'd Authority in his absence. Carnal reason, the Wisdom of the Flesh hath got his Seat, giving forth its meaning of Scripture, and so (under a colour of them) ruling over his Flock with Force and cruelty, and not with the meek, gentle, righteous Scepter of his Spirit, which alone is appointed of Christ to govern them.

So then the Magistrates punishing of the Quakers is not regular by any institution of Christ, but only by a Law of their own making, as it is further explained, p. 95. of this Appendix, the grounds whereof hath been already examined, and found insufficient to warrant them therein, which I leave to themselves and to every mans Conscience to consider of, in the dread of God, the Judge of all.

Upon the result of all, it may not be amiss to state the case between the Governours of New-England and the Quakers, which is briefly thus.

If the Governours of New-England had just cause to make such a Law against the Quakers, and had a true rightly derived power so to do from God (who is the spring of all just power:) And if the Quakers had liberty from the Lord to chuse or refuse obedience to it, then their suffering death is justly to be imputed to themselves.

But if the Governour of New-England had not a just case of making this Law, nor Authority and Power from God so to do: and that the Quakers, had not liberty to chuse or refuse coming thither, but had an indispensible command from Christ their Lord; then their sufferings and bloud will rest on the heads of the Governours of New-England, and will stick closer to them, than to be wiped off by such kind of arguments and reasonings.

All depends upon your first step of proceeding. If that was without due ground, not in the fear of the Lord, without Christ's allowance and direction, without having duly weighed the thing in the true unerring Ballance, but rather in the hastiness and stiff resolvedness of the flesh? Then all your proceedings since have been but aggravations of your sin, and God might justly let you go on thus far, to shame you even in the sight of the very heathen, among whom the sense and abhorence of this cruel and bloudy Spirit, cannot but make your profession of the Gospel of peace become a reproach.

The Quakers came to you in the name of the Lord, to discover from him to you the evil of your ways, to convince you by his light, of your departing from that which was persecuted in you in the times of your sufferings in Old England: but ye would not meekly hear and consider of what they had to say to you from the Lord, but presently imprisoned and sent them away, and so proceeded further and further against them, till at length ye came to drink their bloud. So that in truth their Testimony is the cause of their death, and judge in your own hearts, whether this be not a persecution of a deep dy: It were better for you to charge it upon your own hearts, than to have the Lord charge it upon you, when ye come to stand before him to be eternally judged.

There remains yet another Paper (printed here in England) called, A True Relation of the Proceedings againſt certain QUAKERS, at the general Court of the Maſſathuſets, holden at BOSTON in NEVV-ENGLAND, October 18. 1659.

THE Arguments therein, whereupon they would have their proceedings paſs for juſt, and not be accounted perſecution, are theſe, The authority of this Court, the Laws of the Country, the Law of God, and their gardnal proceedings.

Anſw. Perſecutors are very ſeldom (if at any time) without theſe Pleas for themſelves. Had not the Biſhops as fair a right to this Plea, to cover their perſecutions of the Non-conformiſts with? Could not they in their day have alledged the Authority of their Court,s the Laws of their Country (perhaps ſome not made directly to intrap neither, as yours were) and had not they as confident a pretence to the Law of God as theſe? And did they not alſo proceed gradually? He that doubteth, let him read Hooker's Eccleſiaſtical Policy, and other Writings of the Conformiſts, and ſee whether their Spirit was not more mild and and Chriſtian-like, and their arguments more weighty by far, than thoſe which theſe have uſed againſt the Quakers. Nay have the very Papiſts themſelves been without theſe arguments? Did they not proceed gradually in Queen Marie's days againſt the Martyrs? Yea, what pains did they take to convince them of their Hereſies, and to bring them into the unity of the true Church, as they accounted it? But theſe arguments did not juſtifie the Papiſts or Conformiſts in the ſight of God (though they might juſtifie their proceedings in the eyes of their own party) nor will they juſtifie them who have gone one ſtep beyond the Conformiſts. But as the Spirit of Perſecution, entring into the Biſhops and Conformiſts was the ſame Spirit, as well when it was in them, as in the Papiſts; So the ſame Spirit entring into the Non-Conformiſts, is the ſame Spirit ſtill in them, as it was in the Biſhops and Conformiſts. And the Plea of the Authority of their Court, the Laws of the Country, with ſuch a kind of pretence to the Law of God, and their gradual proceeding is no more in truth and reality a ſhelter for them, then it was for the other; though they in their day look upon it as a good and ſufficient cover, even as the Biſhops did in their day, and the Papiſts in their day. Had they wanted this cover, the nakedneſs of their zeal and profeſſion would have appeared to every eye: yea their own Conſciences could not but have flown in their Faces, had they put them to deat ſo ſoon as ever they had come over, without any fore-going proceedings: but this is the nature of the perſecuting Spirit, firſt it ſeeks a cover to ſtop the mouth of irs own Conſcience, and to hide its Bloud-thirſty actions from the eye of the World, and then its feet are ſwift to ſhed the bloud of the innocent. But the ſame Lord God of truth and righteouſneſs who hath unmask'd the Papiſts, and unmask'd the Biſhops, will unmask theſe alſo, and their nakedneſs ſhall more appear than the others, who would hide themſelves and their own cruelty with that covering, which they themſelves have judged in others, It is not therefore any of theſe, but the grounds of their proceedings muſt manifeſt them to be juſt, or elſe notwithſtanding the pretence to juſtice, their whole courſe of proceedings will prove in truth (and according to righteous judgment) but Perſecution.

Now the Grounds of their Proceedings they mention to be theſe.

1. Their having received intelligence from good hands from Barbadoes and England of the pernicious opinions and practiſes of the Quakers.

2. Their profeſſed Tenets (how well ye have acquitted your ſelves herein, let all that fear God judge.)

3. Their turbulent and contemptuous behaviour to Authority.

4. Their deſigns to undermine and ruine the Order and Peace here eſtabliſhed.

Anſw.

Answ. He that is willing to receive, shall never want intelligence against the Truths and People of God, even from such hands as he will be ready to call good (it is a remnant only that receive truth, the generality of professors in all ages are still ready both to send and receive intelligence against all the living appearances of it and of Gods witnesses to it.) Nor can he who hath already entertained prejudices, ever want matter against their Tenets, behaviour, or to charge them with designs. Have not these reproaches always been cast upon every appearance of God? Are not the Vessels he chuses to hold forth his truths by, still represented as persons of pernicious opinions and practices, and their Tenets charged to be Wicked, and they looked upon as turbulent and contemptuous, &c. Were not the Non-conformists themselves looked upon as persons that would undermine and ruine the Order and Peace of the Church, who for such trivial things would make such great rents and breaches, marring the beauty, and disturbing the Unity, Order, and Peace of the Church of England? (Sure they cannot yet forget this, besides that common charge against them of contumacy against authority. These are but the old Weapons of the old Serpent (only a little new furbish'd by you for your own use) even the Weapons which the Bishops wrested out of the hands of the Papists, and which ye have wrested out of the hands of the Bishops, and they are no better in your hands, than they were in theirs. They were good in their hands, so long as they had authority to make them forcible; and they have no more vertue in your hands, than what outward authority and power adds to them. England was once overflown with this Floud of reproaches, but now at length (this afflicted People waiting in patience on the Lords Will) they have much vanished (the earth helping the Woman.) and persons generally (who are any whit sober, and come to consider things in fear and meekness) find no such matter against them, no such opinions, or practises, or tenets, but the truths of God received and held forth in his fear, their carriage and behaviour meek and humble, void of turbulency and contempt towards any, and they freer from designs against authority and orderly government, than any sort else whatsoever. This is well known in England, and it cannot be denyed by authoritiess and powers thereof, how we have still been like Lambs suffering from all, not contriving or so much as desiring the hurt of any. The Lord knows the desire of our Souls to be after truth and righteousness, and our expectations for the establishing thereof to be fixed on him alone, and not on any persons whatsoever, but as he pleaseth to appear in them, and work by them: and whatsoever happens in the mean time, is received as from his hand, who ruleth on high over all: So that our Spirits do not so much as rise against any authority or instruments that persecute us, but we wait on the Lord our God to advantage his truth, and bring about good to us thereby; and we pity and pray for all who know not what they do, blessing the Lord our God, who accounteth us worthy to suffer for his names sake, in bearing Testimony at his command to any, though it should be but the least of his truths. Therefore take heed of going on in the hardness of your hearts, but know what a people (in the just judgment of God upon you) your lot hath been to persecute, whose bloud will stick the closer to you, and lie so much the heavier upon you, by how much the dearer they are to God.

And though ye plead the safety of the People as being the sovereign Law, yet the Lord God knows whether ye have aimed at the safety of the People among you in uprightness of heart, or whether ye bring this in also as a further cover. There is a double safety the People may justly challenge from you. First, The safety of their Consciences in a tender searching after truth, and further removing out of Babylon. Secondly, the safety of their Estates, Persons, and Liberties in this search. They did not fly from England to be persecuted by the prevailing part among themselves, but to enjoy Freedom of Conscience in enquiring after the Lord, his truth and way of Worship, and not to be tyed and bound up in a form, exalted and established according to the opinions and result of the reasonings of the Major part. Now whether ye have preserved these liberties for them, and really sought their safety, or whether ye have persecuted or made a prey of them for their Conscience sake (beyond whatever was done to you here in England, or beyond whatever they had been like to suffer, had they staid here in England) the Lord in his day will righteously judg. Ye have judged between Cattle and Cattle, the Lord also will judge between Cattle and Cattle: and in that day ye will see, that as his choice have been your out-casts, so your choice is rejected by him; and that as his Spirit is the abomination of your eyes, ſo your formal way of Worſhip is the loathing of his Soul. O that ye had eyes to ſee it, that your hearts might not be utterly hardned againſt the Lord, his Truths and People, even to your utter and eternal Deſtruction. Little do ye ſee, poor deceived hearts, what a narrow ſtep there is between you and the Pit.

abo-

The Authority and Government which Chriſt excluded out of his Church, &c.

Mat. 20. Verſ. 25. to 29:

But Jeſus called them unto him and ſaid, ye know that the Princes of the Gentiles exerciſe Dominion over them, and they that are great, exerciſe Authority upon them. But it ſhall not be ſo among you; but whoſoever will be great among you; let him be your Miniſter: And whoſoever will be chief among you, let him be your Servant. Even as the Son of man came not to be Miniſtred unto, but to Miniſter, and to give his life a ranſom for many.

HERE Chriſt cuts off that Power and Authority, which grows up in the corrupt nature of man, which was ever and anon ſpringing up even in the Diſciples, here he wholly excludes it out of his Church, and ſays expreſly he would have no ſuch thing among them, no ſuch kind of greatneſs, no ſuch kind of authority. Among the Gentiles there are great ones, there are Princes: and theſe great ones, theſe Princes, they Lord it over the inferiour ones, exerciſing Authority and Dominion over them, but it ſhall not be ſo among you.

The Gentile-ſtate was a ſhadow, even as the Jews ſtate was a ſhadow. The one of Death, the other of Life; the one of darkneſs, the other of light. The one was the Image of Satan the Prince of Wickedneſs, the other of Chriſt the Prince of Righteouſneſs and Peace. They were both Vails, under which the two Kingdoms were hid.

Now in this Gentile-ſtate there were Nations, Princes, Laws, Governments, Dominions, Authorities, &c. but all in the fall, all in the darkneſs, all in the Tranſgreſſion from the life. The whole ſtate was corrupt, and there muſt be no imitation from hence, no likeneſs of any ſuch thing in the Kingdom of Chriſt, no ſuch kind of Law, no ſuch kind of Government, no ſuch kind of Authority, no ſuch kind of Anger with perſons that tranſgreſs, no ſuch kind of dealing with any, no ſuch kind of detriment or hurt to any. There is nothing to hurt in the Mountain of Gods Holineſs; but there is a righteous Scepter, a ſweet Scepter, a ſpiritual Scepter, which reacheth the Spirit in the power of life, but toucheth not the outward man.

Two things are here excluded by Chriſt, from whence all the miſchief ariſeth in the Church (all the Tyranny and Oppreſſion of mens Conſciences, and of their perſons, eſtates, and liberties for Conſcience ſake) firſt, Greatneſs; ſecondly, the exerciſing Dominion and Authority by thoſe that would be great therein.

Such a kind of greatneſs as is in the World, its the Deſtruction of the life of Chriſt; and ſuch a kind of Dominion and Authority as is among the Nations, is the direct overturning of the Kingdom of Chriſt. It ſets up another power than Chriſts, another greatneſs than Chriſts, another kind of authority than Chriſts; and ſo it eats out the vertue and life of his Kingdom, and makes it juſt like one of the Kingdoms of this World.

It ſhall not be ſo among you. This Spirit muſt be kept out from among you; This aſpiring Spirit, this lofty ruling Spirit, which loves to be great, which loves to have Dominion, which would exalt it ſelf, becauſe of the Gifts it hath received, and would bring others into ſubjection, this Spirit muſt be ſubdued, amongſt Chriſts Diſciples, or it will ruin all. The Lord gives grace and knowledge for another end, than for men to take upon them to be great, and rule over others becauſe of it. And he that becauſe of this, thinks himſelf fit to rule over other mens Conſciences, and to make them bow to what he knows or takes to be truth, he loſeth his own life hereby; and ſo far as he prevails upon others he doth but deſtroy their life too: For it is not ſo much ſpeaking true things that doth good, as ſpeaking them from the pure, and conveying them to the pure: for the life runs along from the Veſſel of life in one, into the Veſſel of life in another; and the words words (though never ſo true) cannot convey life to another, but as the living Veſſel opens in the one, and is opened in the other.

Queſt. But how ſhall this Spirit be kept out, or kept down, that it may not hurt the Diſciple in whom it ariſeth: or if it do, that the hurt may remain to himſelf, and may not prejudice the Church?

Anſw. When this ſpirit begins to ariſe up in any, ſo ſoon as ever he perceives it, in that that diſcovers it he is to fight againſt it: laying himſelf ſo much the lower, by how much he finds this evil ſpirit raiſing him up. He is to hearken to that which preſents the Croſs to it, and ſo to come down and ſubject himſelf in ſerving and miniſtring to thoſe who are little in his eyes. Inſtead of reigning over them, let him lye beneath them: Let him watch and know the life even in the meaneſt, and ſerve it; for that is his place. That which would rule is to ſerve; that which would be great is to be little; and the little one is to become a Nation. That which is low, is to riſe; and thou art not fit to riſe with it, further than thou canſt ſerve it, both in thy ſelf and others. Therefore if ever thou beeſt aſpiring, if ever thou have a mind to rule, if ever thou think thy ſelf fit to teach, becauſe of what thou haſt received: ſink down, lye low, take up the Croſs to that proud Spirit, make it bend and ſerve, let the life in every one riſe over it, and trample upon it: and afterwards that in thee may ariſe which is fit to teach, yea and to rule in the Lord: and ſo long as that hath the Dominion, thou maiſt be ſerviceable to the Lord and to his truth and people: but if ever the other get up again, thou muſt preſently come down again, or the wrong Spirit will get dominion over thee, which with force and cruelty will rule over the life both in thy ſelf and others. Thus if a man be faithful to Chriſt, this evil aſpiring ſpirit at its firſt appearance may be dealt with, and kept down: but if it be cheriſhed, given way to, and once let up, it will be hard bringing of it down afterwards. Therefore the Diſciples, or the Church of Chriſt, they are to watch over every ſuch ſpirit, to beat it down, to teſtifie againſt it, to turn from it, to lay it flat, to put it in its proper place, that is beneath all, to miniſter to all, and ſo not ſuffer it to riſe, ſee ver. 26. Let him be your Miniſter. This is his place, this is his work, by the Authority of Chriſt. He that would be great, he that would rule, let him miniſter. Own him there; if he will lye low there, if he will be faithful there, ye may have unity with him. But in that his aſpiring temper, in his ruling, in his teaching by what he hath gained, or what hath been given to him formerly (if out of the preſent life) he is to be denyed and turned from.

If this rule of Chriſts had been kept to, Antichriſts power could never have got up: nor the poor innocent Lambs ſo often have been worried by the Wolves. Ah poor hearts, how ſimply do they come thither, where they once taſted refreſhment to find wholeſome advice, not ſuſpecting what is got up there ſince, but give the dominion to a wrong thing, and ſo take directions from a wrong Spirit, and betray their own ſimplicity.

Chriſt urgeth this upon his Diſciples from his own pattern, even as the Son of man came not to be miniſtred unto, but &c. ver. 28. If any had right to be great, ſurely Chriſt; if any had right to exerciſe Authority, ſurely Chriſt. If any was to be advanced becauſe of any Gift received, or becauſe of any preſence of the ſpirit with him, ſurely Chriſt. Yet Chriſt took not upon him this kind of greatneſs, nor did exerciſe this kind of Authority. But he was a Servant, he made uſe of the gift of the Spirit, of the power of life wherewith the Father filled him, to miniſter and ſerve with. He did never Lord it over the Conſciences of any of his Diſciples, but did bear with them; and pity them in their infirmities (what can ye not watch with me one hour? The Spirit (ſaid he) is willing, but the fleſh is weak) He did not hold forth to them whatever he knew to be truth, requiring them to believe it: but was content with them in their ſtate, and waited till their capacities were enlarged, being ſtill ſatisfied with the honeſty and integrity of their hearts in their preſent ſtate of weakneſs. Nor did he ſtrive to reign over the World, or call for fire from Heaven, when they would not receive him, or expreſs indignation when they deſired him to depart out of their Coaſts, or pray for twelve Legions of Angels when they came to betray him, and moſt unrighteouſly ſought his life: but the life he had received of his Father, he gave up as a ranſome for his Diſciples, yea and for his enemies. Mark, he did not make uſe of what was given to him, to raiſe himſelf up above others, to make his word to ſtand for a Law and be received, but he waited till that was opened in his Diſciples and in people which was able to receive his Teſtimony; and he made uſe of his power of life, and the fulneſs of the ſpirit to inable him the more abundantly to ſerve, and to wait in patience for the fulfilling of the will of the Father. And though Iſrael was not gathered by him, yet was he meek, and patient, and at reſt in the will of him that ſent him, and inſtead of reigning over all, could ſerve all, and give that Life (whoſe due it was to Reign) a ranſom for many, ver. 28.

his

His Kingdom was not of this World, nor did he ſeek any greatneſs or authority according to this World, neither over the Jews, nor over the Gentiles, nor over his own Diſciples; but he ſerved all, he ſought the good of all: the life in him which was to reign over all, yet here ſerved all, ſuffered for all, and from all, and that was his way to his Crown, who having finiſhed his courſe, fulfilled his Service, perfected his ſufferings, is ſit down on the right hand of the Majeſty on high, where now he reigns over all, and is made a King by God in righteouſneſs. And this is the pattern, which all his Diſciples are to walk by. The more life they receive, the more they are to miniſter, the more they are to ſerve. They muſt not lift up themſelves by their Gifts, they muſt not hereupon Lord it over others, or hold forth their knowledge or doctrines, and think to make others bow thereto; but wait in their ſervice, till the Lord make way into mens hearts, and plant his truth there: and upon him alſo muſt they wait for the watering and growth of it.

Queſt: But is there to be no greatneſs, no authority among the Diſciples of Jeſus, or in the Church of Chriſt? Is every one to do what he will, to be ſubject to his own Fancies and Imaginations, to the inventions of his own corrupt heart? what a confuſed building will this be? Sure this will not long remain a Zion, but ſoon become a Babylon, even an heap of diſorder and confuſion.

Anſw. There is to be no ſuch kind of greatneſs, no ſuch kind of Authority: Yet there is both a greatneſs and authority ſuitable to the ſtate of Diſciples, ſuitable to that kind of Kingdom whereof they are. There are Laws, there are Governments, there are Governours, there is ruling, and there is ſubjection, but all in the ſpirit, all ſuitable to that which is to be governed: but no government of or according to the fleſh. As Chriſts Kingdom is not of this World, ſo the government of his Church and People is not according to this World, but as that which gathers is his ſpirit, and that which is gathered is ſpiritual: ſo that which is governed is the ſpirits of his people, and they are to be governed by his ſpirit and ſpiritually, and not after a fleſhly manner.

Thus Chriſt himſelf, though he miniſtred to his Diſciples, yet he alſo was their Lord and Maſter, and in the ſpirit and life of the Father ruled over them; and thus the Apoſtles and other Miniſters of Chriſt had likewiſe in the Spirit, the care of the Churches, and Authority in the Lord, by his ſpirit to govern the ſpirits of his people: not to govern after a fleſhly manner, by their own wills, not to preſcribe them in a Lordly way either what they ſhould believe or practiſe, but in the light and in the power of the ſpirit to make their way into every ones Conſcience in the ſight of God, miniſtring to every one in the ſpirit according to their capacity and growth, and waiting patiently for God to convey the food and nouriſhment, and to build their ſpirits up in the Faith thereby.

The Spirit of the Prophets is Subject to the Prophets. Here is the Government, here is the Law of rule and ſubjection in the life. Every one feeling a meaſure of the Spirit in himſelf, is thereby taught to own and ſubject to a greater meaſure of the ſame Spirit in another. He that hath no meaſure of the Spirit of God, he is not of God, he is none of Chriſts: and he that hath received a meaſure of the Spirit, in the ſame Spirit feeleth anothers meaſure, and owneth it in its place and ſervice, and knoweth its moving, and cannot quench it, but giveth way to it with joy and delight. When the Spirit moves in any one to ſpeak, the ſame ſpirit moves in the other to be ſubject and give way: and ſo every one keeping to his own meaſure in the ſpirit, here can be no diſorder, but true ſubjection of every ſpirit; and where this is wanting, it cannot be ſupplyed by any outward rule, or order ſet up in the Church by common conſent: for that is fleſhly, and lets in the fleſh, and deſtroys the true order, rule, and ſubjection.

The Apoſtles and Miniſters of Chriſt, come from Chriſt with a meſſage of Life and Salvation, with a Teſtimony concerning the good will of God and his love to mankind, pointing out the way from Death to Life, from Bondage to Liberty, from Wrath and Deſtruction to Peace and Salvation. What they have ſeen, what they have felt, what they have taſted, what they have handled, what they have found redeem and deliver them, that they declare abroad to others, as they are moved, as they are ſent, as they are guided and aſſiſted.

they

Now that which they preach to, is mens Conſciences in the ſight of God. They open the truth which they know, they give their Teſtimony in the moving, leading, and power of the ſpirit, and they leave it to the ſame Spirit, to demonſtrate it to mens Conſciences, as it pleaſeth. They are nothing, they can do nothing, they cannot convert any man to God; but the power that ſpeaketh by them, the ſame power worketh in other mens Conſciences at its pleaſure. And here is the beginning of the Government of Chriſt in the heart, when his Truth carries conviction with it to the Conſcience, and the Conſcience is drawn to yield it ſelf up to him, then he lays his Yoak upon it, and takes upon him the guiding of it: he cheriſheth it, he cleanſeth it, he comforteth it, he ordereth it at his pleaſure: and he alone preſerveth it pure, chaſt, gentle, meek, and plyable to the impreſſions of his Spirit. And as the Conſcience is kept ſingle and tender to Chriſt, ſo his Government increaſes therein: but as it becomes hard, or ſubject to mens Wills, ſo another ſpirit gets dominion over it.

Therefore the great work of the Miniſter of Chriſt, is to keep the Conſcience open to Chriſt, and to preſerve men from receiving any truths of Chriſt as from them, further than the ſpirit opens, or to imitate any of their practiſes, further than the ſpirit leads, guides, and perſwades them. For perſons are exceeding prone to receive things as truths, from thoſe whom they have an high opinion of, and to imitate their practiſes; and ſo hurt their own growth, and indanger their Souls. For if I receive a Truth, before the Lord by his ſpirit make it manifeſt to me, I loſe my guide, and follow but the counſel of the fleſh, which is exceeding greedy of receiving Truths, and running into Religious practiſes without the ſpirit. Therefore the main thing in Religion, is to keep the Conſcience pure to the Lord, to know the guide, to follow the guide, to receive from him that light whereby I am to walk; and not to take things for truths, becauſe others ſee them to be truths, but to wait till the ſpirit make them manifeſt to me: nor to run into worſhips, duties, performances, or practiſes, becauſe others are led thither, but to wait till the ſpirit lead me thither. He that makes haſt to be rich (even in Religion, running into knowledge, and into worſhips and performances, before he feel a true and clear guidance) ſhall not be innocent: nor the Lord will not hold him guiltleſs, when he comes to viſit for ſpiritual adultery and idolatry. The Apoſtles were exceeding tender in this point, for though they certainly and infallibly knew what was to be believed, yet they were not Lords over mens faith, but waited till he who is Lord of the Faith, would open the way into mens Conſciences. They did not take upon them to be able to turn the Key, to let in truth and conviction into mens ſpirits (as men in theſe days have been too apt to undertake) but directed them to him who had the Key, there to wait for the conviction and illumination of their minds, and ſo to receive in, as they found him give forth to them.

Let every man, ſaith the Apoſtle, be fully perſwaded in his own mind; take heed of receiving things too ſoon, take heed of running into practiſes too ſoon, take heed of doing what ye ſee others do, but wait for your own particular guidance, and for a full perſwaſion from God what is his will concerning you. Though I know this to be a truth, yet do not ye receive it, till God make it manifeſt to you; receive truth from his hand, ſtay till he give it you. Indeed the main matter in Religion is to keep out the wrong part, the forward part, the baſtardly birth from running into duties, catching of openings, and laying hold of promiſes, and to feel the heir born of the immortal Seed, to whom all belongs, and that the other birth never afterwards get up above him, but be ſubdued and brought into ſubjection.

Again, ſaith the Apoſtle, take heed of doing any thing doubtingly, be not forward, be not haſty, wait for the leading, wait for the manifeſtation of the Spirit. Be ſure thou receive what thou receives in the Faith, and practiſe what thou practiſes in the faith: for whatſoever is not of Faith is Sin, being an error from the Principle of Life, which is to guide: and thereby thou looſeſt ground, and diſhonoureſt Chriſt, and comeſt under Condemnation.

And ſo the Apoſtle warns Believers, to take heed of drawing one another on too faſt, or of judging one another in ſuch things as ſome of them might have Light in, others not. He that eateth, not to judge him that did not eat: and he that did not eat, not to judge him that did eat. Yea, in matters of Worſhip, he that obſerved a day, and kept a Sabbath, not to judge him that obſerved not a day, or kept not a Sabbath, for the Jews which were truly converted, yet were hard to be drawn off from the obſervation of their Sabbath, and could hardly bear with the believing Gentiles, who were never taught to keep their Sabbath with them, but were taught to eſteem every day and ſanctifie it to the Lord, Rom. 14. 5. And theſe who eſteemed every day, and dedicated it to the Lord (ceaſing from ſin, and reſting to him: for under the Goſpel we are not to ſet up a new type, but to enter by Faith into the true reſt, which is the ſubſtance of what the other ſignified) could hardly bear with them who obſerved a day. Even in the Apoſtles days, Chriſtians were too apt to ſtrive after a wrong unity, and uniformity in outward practices and obſervations, and to judge one another unrighteouſly in theſe things. And mark, it is not the different practice from one another, that breaks the Peace and the Unity, but the judging of one another becauſe of different practiſes. He that keeps not a day, may unite in the ſame Spirit, in the ſame Life, in the ſame Love with him that keeps a day, and he who keeps a day, may unite in Heart and Soul, with the ſame Spirit and Life in him who keeps not a day; but he that judgeth the other becauſe of either of theſe, errs from the Spirit, from the Love, from the Life, and ſo breaks the bond of Unity. And he that draws another to any practice, before the life in his own particular lead him, doth, as much as in him lies, deſtroy the Soul of that perſon, verſe 15. This was the Apoſtles rule, for every one to perform ſingly to the Lord what he did, and not for one to meddle with the Light or Conſcience of another, (undervaluing his brother, or judging him becauſe his light and practiſes differed from his, verſ. 10. of that 14. chap.) but every one to keep cloſe to their own meaſure of light, even to that proportion of Faith and Knowledge, which God of his mercy hath beſtowed on them. And here is the true unity in the Spirit, in the inward life, and not in an outward uniformity. That was not neceſſary in the Apoſtles days, nor is it neceſſary now: and that eye which ſo dotes upon it, overlooks the one thing which is neceſſary. Men keeping cloſe to God, the Lord will lead them on faſt enough, and give them light faſt enough, for he taketh care of ſuch and knoweth what light, and what practices are moſt proper for them:) but for men to walk on faſter than the Lord holds forth his light to them, this overturns them, raiſing up a wrong thing in them, and the true birth hereby comes to ſuffer, to ſhrink, and be driven back. And O how ſweet and pleaſant is it to the truly ſpiritual Eye, to ſee ſeveral ſorts of believers, ſeveral forms of Chriſtians in the School of Chriſt, every one learning their own Leſſon, performing their own peculiar ſervice, and knowing, owning, and loving one another in their ſeveral places, and different performances to their Maſter, to whom they are to give an account, and not to quarrel with one another about their different practices! Rom 14 4. For this is the true ground of love and unity not that ſuch a man walks and does juſt as I do, but becauſe I feel the ſame Spirit and life in him, and in that he walks in his rank, in his own order, in his proper way and place of ſubjection to that. And this is far more pleaſing to me, than if he walked juſt in that track wherein I walk: nay, (ſo far as I am ſpiritual I cannot ſo much as deſire that he ſhould do ſo, until he be particularly led thereto, by the ſame Spirit which led me. And he that knows what it is to receive any truths from the Spirit, and to be led into practices by the Spirit, and how prone the fleſhly part is to make haſt, and how dangerous that haſte is, will not be forward to preſs his knowledge or practices upon others, but rather wait patiently till the Lord fit them for the receiving thereof, for fear leſt they ſhould receive and practice too ſoon, even in that part which cannot ſerve the Lord. And this I can truly ſay concerning my ſelf, I never found my Spirit forward to draw any, either to any thing I believed to be true, or to any practice or way of Worſhip I obſerued or walked in, but deſired that the power and leadings of life might go before them, and was afraid leſt men ſhould receive things from my hand, and not from the Lords. Yea, and this I very well remember, that when I walked in the way of Independency (as it hath been commonly called) I had more unity with, and more love towards ſuch as were ſingle hearted in other ways and practices of Worſhip (whoſe Spirits I had ſome feeling of in the true ſimplicity, and in the life) than with divers of ſuch, who were very knowing and zealous in that way of Independency, in whom whom a wrong thing in the mean time had got up, which had cauſed them to ſwerve from the life and from the ſimplicity.

So that the true Church-Government being in the Spirit, and over the Conſcience as in the ſight of God, the great care muſt be to keep it within its bounds, that nothing elſe govern but the Spirit, and that the Government be extended only unto that which is to be governed, Firſt, care muſt be had that nothing govern in the Church of Chriſt, but the Spirit of Chriſt: that nothing elſe teach, nothing elſe exhort, nothing elſe admoniſh and reprove, nothing elſe cut off and caſt out. Every Miniſter in the Church is to watch over his own Spirit, that it intrude not into the Work of God, that it take not upon it to be the Teacher, the Exhorter, the Reprover, &c. And every member is to wait in that meaſure of the Spirit which he hath received, to feel the goings forth of the Spirit in him who teacheth and governeth; and ſo to ſubject not to man, but to the Lord; to receive from the Lord, to obey the Lord. Not to know any Miniſter according to the Fleſh, but to receive, and ſubmit to what comes from the Spirit, in the Spirit. Not to know Paul, or Apollo, or Cæphas, but the Spirit miniſtring in them. Paul may err, Apollo may err, Peter may err (and did err, when he compelled the Gentiles to live as the Jews, Gal. 2. 14. for which Paul withſtood him to the Face, v. 11.) and Barnabas alſo did err, verſe 13: But the Spirit cannot err: and he that keeps to the meaſure of the Spirit in himſelf, cannot let in any of their errors, if they ſhould err, but is preſerved. For the leaſt meaſure of the Spirit is true, and gives true judgment: but he that receiveth never ſo great a meaſure of the Spirit, yet if he keep not low therein, but lifteth up himſelf becauſe thereof above his brethren, may eaſily err himſelf, and draw aſide others into his error.

Secondly, care muſt be had that the Conſcience be kept tender, that nothing be received but according to the light in the Conſcience. The Conſcience is the Seat of Faith; and if it be not kept cloſe to the light which God lighteth there, Faith is ſoon made Shipwrack of. Chriſtianity is begun in the Spirit, which keepeth out the fleſhly part, with all its fleſhly Wiſdom and Reaſonings about Spiritual things: and as the beginning is in the anointing, ſo muſt the progreſs be. As the Spirit begins in the Conſcience by convincing that, by perſwading that, be ſetting up his light there, and leading the Soul by that light: ſo that light muſt ſtill be eyed, and according to its growth and manifeſtation in the Conſcience ſo muſt the Soul ſtand ſtill, or go on.

The great error of the ages of the Apoſtacy hath been, to ſet up an outward Order and Uniformity, and to make mens Conſciences bend thereto, either by arguments of Wiſdom, or by force; but the property of the true Church-government is, to leave the Conſcience to its full liberty in the Lord, to preſerve it ſingle and entire for the Lord to exerciſe, and to ſeek unity in the Light and in the Spirit, walking ſweetly and harmoniouſly together in the midſt of different practices. Yea, and he that hath Faith, and can ſee beyond another, yet can haue it to himſelf, and not diſturb his brother with it, but can deſcend and walk with him according to his meaſure: and if his brother have any heavy burthen upon him, he can lend him his ſhoulder, and bear part of his burthen with him. O how ſweet and lovely is it to ſee brethren dwell together in unity, to ſee the true Image of God raiſed in Perſons, and they knowing and loving one another in that Image, and bearing with one another through Love, and helping one another under their temptations and diſtreſſes of Spirit, which every one muſt expect to meet with.

If thou art a Chriſtian in Deed and in Truth, preſerve thy Conſcience pure and tender towards God, do not defile it with ſuch religious Practices, Duties, Ordinances, &c. as thou doſt not feel the Spirit leading thee into: for all ſuch are Idols, and exceedingly pollute thee. And be tender alſo of thy brothers Conſcience, and be not an inſtrument to draw him unto any thing which the Lord leads him not into, but rejoyce if thou find him in ſimplicity of heart ſtartling at any thing: for if he abid here faithful, his guide will in due ſeaſon appear to him, and clear up his way, before him, but if he be too haſty, he may follow a wrong guide. and that guide will never lead him aright towards the Kingdom, but intangle him further and fnrther from it.

O how many have run a Whoring from the Lord! How many have firſt loſt the guidance of his Spirit, and then drowned their life in Religious performances! How many have drunk of the Cup of Fornication from the life, at the hands of the fleshly Wisdom! How many have filled their Spirit with New-Testament-Idols and Images! How many have even hardened their Hearts and Consciences, by following the Doctrines of men, their imaginary meanings of Scriptures, and the Imaginations and Dreams of their own hearts! Is it not time for men at length to turn back towards the Lord, to wait for the visitation and light of his Spirit, from whom they have gone a Whoring, and whom in all these things they have grieved? And if ever any feel and enjoy the guidance of Gods Spirit their Conscience must be kept tender to it, and ready to hear and follow his voice, who speaks in Spirit to that which is born of him, which infallibly knows his voice, and (being kept clear) cannot doubt concerning it. My Sheep hear my voice, saith Christ, they know it, and the voice of the strange Spirit they know not so as to follow it, but turn from it, both in themselves and others. But that which is not the Sheep, but hath only got the Sheeps cloathing, cries out, how shall we know the voice of the Spirit? We may be deceived. Nay that which is born of God, that which is the elect of God, cannot be deceived. Wait therefore for the birth of the Spirit, to which the Spirit is given for a guide, who infallibly guides it out of deceit. All deceivers are out of this Birth, out of this Spirit, perhaps in some birth or other framed from the Letter, and living in the imitation of some Practices and Ordinances from the Letter (under which cover they lie in wait to deceive) but strangers to the life and power, and to that Wisdom which begets and bears to God. Thus the Jews erred, and deceived their Proselytes before the coming of Christ: Thus the Christians (in name) have generally erred all along the Apostacy, and indeed (for the generality) have not been true Christians, but only a persecuted remnant amongst them; whose life hath been nourished and preserved, not by Doctrines and Observations which they have been taught by the precepts of men, nor by the knowledge which they themselves have gathered, but by a little Bread dayly handed to them from the Father of Mercies out of the Wilderness: that was the thing which nourished, their Souls up to God, though many of them knew not distinctly what it was that nourished them, nor how they came by it:

Obj. But is not Uniformity lovely, and doth not the Apostle exhort Christians to be of one mind, and were it not a swett thing if we were all of one heart and one way?

Answ. Yea, Uniformity is very lovely: and to be desired and waited for, as the Spirit of the Lord which is one, leads and draws into one. But for the fleshly part (the wise reasoning part of man) by fleshly ways and means to strive ato bring about fleshly Uniformity, which ensnares and overbears the tender Conscience, this is not lovely, nor spiritual, nor Christian. And the Apostle who exhorts Christians to one mind, yet doth not bid them force one another into one mind, but walk together sweetly so far as they had attained, and wherein they were otherwise minded, God in his due time would reveal more to them, Philip. 3. 15, 16. He that hath, to him shall be given. And the intent and work of the Ministry (with the several ministrations of it) is to bring into the unity (Ephes. 4. 13, as persons are able to follow, and not to force all men into one practice or way; That's the way to destroy the Faith, and the true unity, and at best can introduce but a fleshly appearance of unity in such a form of Worship and Godliness, as eats out the power. And for being of one heart and one way, blessed be the Lord, this is in measure known and witnessed. The way is one, Christ the truth of God, and he that is in the Faith, and in the Obedience to that light which shines from his Spirit into the heart of every believer, hath a taste of the one heart, and of the one way; and knoweth that no variety of practices (which is of God) can make a breach in the true unity. This is the one way, for every one to be subject to that light of Christs Spirit, which he hath received from Christ, and every one keeping here, there is also one heart, kept in the midst of all the variety, and diversity of Practices. And the unity being thus kept, all will come into one outwardly also at length, as the light grows in every one, and as every one grows into the light: but this must be patiently waited for from the hand of God (who hath the right way of effecting it, and who alone can do it) and not harshly and cruelly attempted by the rough hand of man.

SOME

Some Conſiderations concerning the State of Things, relating to what hath been, now is, and ſhortly is to come to paſs, warning all People to look about them, and to wait on the LORD for the unerring Light of his Spirit, that they may know the times and ſeaſons, and the Work which GOD is now about in the World, which is Great and Wonderful, and ſo may not be found Fighters againſt GOD, his Truths, and the Witneſſes of this Age and Generation, more particularly Lamenting over and Exhorting ENGLAND. With a Faithful Teſtimony concerning the QUAKERS.

1. THat the Spouſe of Chriſt, the true Church which God built in the Apoſtles days by his Spirit, the Church againſt which the Gates of Hell could not prevail, the Church which was the Temple of the Living God, the pillar and ground of truth, the Woman which was cloathed with the Sun, who had the Moon under her feet, and was Crowned with a Crown of twelve Stars, &c. This Church at the cloſe of the Fight between Michael with his Angels, and the Dragon with his Angels) fled into the Wilderneſs, into the place prepared of God for her, Rev. 12. 6. Having two Wings of a great Eagle given her that ſhe might fly thither to her place, where ſhe was to abide, and be hid from the face of the Serpent, and tsbe fed with the living nouriſhment from the hand of the Father all the time of Antichriſt, reign. which is ſaid to be a time, times, and half a time, verſe 14. Or one Thouſand, two Hundred, and Sixty days, as verſe 6. Or Forty two Months, as Chap. 11. 2. And ſhe was accordingly gone out of ſight, inſomuch as the Serpent could find her no more but went to make War with the remnant of her Seed, which kept the Commandments of God, and have the Teſtimony of Jeſus Chriſt, Revel 11. 17.

2. That the true Church cannot come out of the Wilderneſs, till the time of her abode there (the ſet time appointed by God) be ended, nor then neither, but by the out-ſtretched Arm of the Lord, Pſalm 102. 13. She may mourn over her deſolate Wilderneſs-ſtate, but ſhe cannot fly out of it, without the help of the Wings of the ſame Eagle, which were given her to fly into it. The Lord muſt pity the duſt of Sion, and (by his everlaſting Strength and Compaſſion) raiſe up the Tabernacle of David, which is fallen down, or it can be reſtored no more, verſe 16. Revel. 21. 3.

3. That the State of the People of God, all this time of the true Churches abſence, hath been a State of Captivity. The Seed hath been in Bondage in Ægypt the dark Land, in Babylon the Land of Confuſion (for ſuch all the Church Buildings, Order, and Government have been in compare with the true Order and Government of the Church by the Spirit, which was known and enjoyed by the People of God, before this her flight) where they have been mourning under the Chains of darkneſs, and lamenting over their Mother: For Zion hath been laid waſte, and Jeruſalem (the holy City) hath been troden under foot by the Gentiles, to whom the outward Court was given, when God took down his building, and ſecur'd his temple, alter, and the worſhippers therein, Rev. 11. 2. And in this ſtate God finds his People, when he comes to overthrow her (to bring Death, and Mourning, and Famine, and Fire upon her, Rev. 18. 8.) and to redeem them: for then the Voice goes forth from the Spirit of the Lord, to the Spirits of his People, Come out of her my People, that ye be not partakers of her Sins, &c. verſe 4. Why, were the people of God in her till now? Yea, till the very hour of her judgment, and are many of them in great danger of ſtaying there, even till they feel her Plagues. They that ſit down in any Church-building, taking it for Sion, before Gods ſeaſon of Building his Sion, ſit down but in Babylon, it is no other, though they who have drunk of the falſe Womans Cup, (new mixed for them, and ſo are inchanted afreſh into ſome new Fine-painted Bed of her Fornication) cannot believe it to be ſo.

4. That

4. That when God redeems his people out of Babylon, he brings them not immediately unto Sion (not immediately into a built City) but into the Wilderneſs where the the Church lies unbuilt, where they are prepared and fitted for the holy Land, and circumciſed in Spirit before their entrance. There is a long travel from Babylon to Sion, wherein the haſty Spirit, the rough Spirit, the exalted Spirit, the murmuring Spirit, the Self-will, Self-worſhipſelf-Wiſdom, Knowledge, and Righteouſneſs, (all which are of great price in Babylon) is cut down, and the Spirit broken, emptyed, made poor, deeply humbled, and ſo prepared for Gods holy Hill. When a Babyloniſh Building or way of Worſhip is diſcovered, man would feign have another ready, to put in the place of it ſo ſoon as it is pulled down. Thus mans Wiſdom would order it, but the Lord will not have it ſo, but there muſt be a ſeaſon of deſolation, of ſtripping, of nakedneſs, of being uncloathed of all the Purple and Scarlet dye of Babylon, Rev. 17. 4. A pulling off the Ornaments of all the Knowledge, Worſhip, Ordinances, Duties, Experiences, &c. which are held and practiced out of the pure Life. And in this ſtate of Miſery and ſore Diſtreſs, the Lord lays the Foundation of the new Heavens, and of the new Earth, in the Spirits of his People, which, when it is finiſhed, then at length he ſaith to Sion, Thou art my people, Iſa. 51, 16.

Obſerve therefore the error of the Reformations ſince the Apoſtacy. They have been ſtill building too faſt, and not waiting on God to be hewn and ſquared, and fitted for his building. The reformed Churches have ſtill been built of Stones, before they were made ready for the building. They have not waited their time of preparation in the Wilderneſs, nor have they waited for Gods building them up into a Temple, nor for the time and ſeaſon wherein it is Gods pleaſure to build. So that though they did well in ſeperating from that which was corrupt and manifeſtly evil, yet they did not well in making haſt into another way of their own forming, but ſhould have waited for Gods manifeſtation of the good, and for his leading of them by his ſpirit into it. And by this means it hath come to paſs, that though there hath been a pure thing often ſtirring towards Reformation, yet by an over forward haſtning to build, the good hath been quenched, and the evil hath again (under a new cover or form of Worſhip) overgrown it, and then hath been ready to revile and perſecute the good in others: but this the eye which is overtaken with the appearing beauty of its Building (having concluded it to be according to the Will of God revealed in the Scriptures) cannot diſcern.

5. That when Zion is rebuilt, when the Church its Heaven is again ſtretched forth (wherein ſhe was ſeated before ſhe fled into the Wilderneſs, Rev. 12. 1. thoſe that are Gods faithful Witneſſes (into whom his ſpirit of life hath entred, and whom he hath cauſed to ſtand upon their feet) ſhall aſcend up to Heaven in a Cloud, which their very enemies ſhall behold, Rev. 11. 12. And this was done in the time of a great Earthquake, wherein the tenth part of the City fell, ver. 13. The ſhaking at this time is very great in this Nation, let men mark what will be the iſſue, and obſerve whether (notwithſtanding all the ſeeming contrarieties) the Lord God do not ſo order it, as to bring a conſiderable part of Babylon down, and of the powers that uphold her.

The people of God, all this time of Antichriſts Reign, have been a ſuffering people. The tender-hearted every where (whoſe Souls could only bow to the Lord, who could not receive Doctrines from men, or fall into Worſhips and Practices at the Will of man) have lain open to Church-cenſures (as they call them) and to the Magiſtrates indignation under the names of Hereticks, Blaſphemers, Seducers, and diſturbers of the Peace both of Church and State: and indeed ſo far as any have taſted of the true light and power of Chriſt, and have been called forth by him to be his Witneſſes, they could not but be diſturbers of the carnal peace and ſecurity of the Antichriſtian Congregations, againſt whom they witneſſed. When the true Church fled into the Wilderneſs, the Serpent caſt a Flood after her: ſhe was reproached and blaſphemed for an Harlot, a Strumpet, one that was not the Lambs Wife, as ſhe pretended, Rev. 12. 15. For the Dragon which perſecuted her (having now gained her ground) had ſet up another Woman for the true Church, and had decked her richly, Rev. 17. 4. inſomuch as ſhe was admired for her Beauty by all the Kings and inhabiters of the earth, ver. 2. but ſhe which was indeed the true Woman was trampled upon and deſpiſed even by all the outward Worſhippers in the outward Court all over the World, Rev. 11. 2. And if thoſe of the Synagogue of Satan, could contend to be the true Jews and the true Church, even while the true Church was ſtanding, Rev. 3. 9. no marvel though they carry it clear in their ſeveral forms and diſguiſes in the time of her flight and abſence, eſpecially they appearing both in the place where ſhe once was, and in her very dreſs: and here is the eye of Gods Spirit, and of the Wiſdom he gives to his Babes tryed, even to diſcern and flie from her there. Let her paint never ſo often, change her dreſſes in every hour of Reformation, come nearer and nearer into the likeneſs of the true Church: yet that which is born of the truth eſpyeth her, and the young man whoſe ear is kept open to the Voice of Wiſdom, which uttereth it ſelf in the Immortal Seed) eſcapeth her Bed, and is not defiled with the great Whore, nor with any of her Women or Daughters, who are born of her after her ſpirit, though they deny her, and ſeem much to differ from her according to the fleſh, Rev. 14. 4. Enter into the myſtery of life (from out of the reach of the ſpirit of Witchcraft) and read me here, that in the true eternal Light of all the living, thou maiſt perceive the miſtery of deceit, and eſcape as a Bird from the Snare, and live. Now the true Church being thus fled, what becomes of her Seed? they muſt needs be ſcattered, they can no more be found in a body as before, there is now but a remnant left which keep the Comandments of God, and have the Teſtimony of Jeſus Chriſt, and theſe the Dragon applies himſelf ſtill to manage the War againſt, Rev. 12. 17. And the Beaſt (to whom the Dragon gave his power, Rev. 13. 2. and upon whom the falſe Church was found ſitting even to the very laſt, Rev. 17. 3.) did not only make War with the Saints, but alſo overcome them: and this power was given him over all Kindreds, and Tongues and Nations, ver. 7. of chap 13. So that the Holy City was to be kept down and trampled under foot by the falſe Worſhippers, under one form or appearance of Church Worſhip or other, all the time of the Beaſts Reign, Rev. 11. 2. And as the Beaſt did kill them: ſo the Woman that ſat upon the Beaſt drunk their Blood, Rev. 17. 6. For mark, the Dragon, the firſt Beaſt, the ſecond Beaſt with the falſe Church are all in unity together, and drive on their War and Deſign under diſguiſes and appearances of truths and Church-Worſhip and Diſcipline againſt the Lamb and his Followers, againſt every appearance of Chriſt in his Truth and People. And every where, where he can get into any form without the power, there he manageth his War by the form againſt the Power. Thus in Popery by crying up Holy Church, he knocks down all the ſpringings up of truth there, ſo in Epiſcopacy, by crying up that form, how did he knock down the buildings up of the true life and dower there alſo. And if he be driven out there, then he ſtands ready to enter into the next form, either of Presbitery or Independency, that he may not want the advantage of a cover to keep his War on foot ſtill againſt the Saints and the truths of Chriſt: and here lies his ſtrength; and the liker his form is to that which once was true, the better it ſerves to cover him, and he has better advantage of fighting under it againſt Chriſt, his Truths and People, than under another which is not ſo like. But Antichriſts Reign, (who hath taken the Name upon him without the Nature, and ſo perſecuted the true Nature, being covered with the Name) is to have an end, yea (bleſſed be the Lord) it is in part ended, and the Lambs day is already begun, the outſtretched Arm of the Lords everlaſting power is revealed, and revealing more and more: yea Babylon is already diſcovered, her waters are dryed up, her nakedneſs under all her covering is ſeen, her very life and ſpirit is ſtruck at, her Kingdom totters daily; the ſtakes alſo of Zions Tabernacle are ſtrengthning daily, and the Lord is ſtretching out her Curtains, and inlarging her Territories; and the Wrath iſſues out more and more from the Throne, and dreadful Woes and Plagues are prepared for them, who are either upholding any old likeneſſes of what once was true, or ſetting up any new ones in this day of Gods power, wherein he is redeeming and bringing forth the life it ſelf.

of

Is it not plain, that the Beaſt (or Antichriſt who ſate in the Temple of God, ruling there as a Beaſt by outward Force, without the inward Life and Power, 2 Theſ. 2. 4.) had power given him to continue his War againſt the Saints, till the very expiration of the forty two Months? Rev. 13. 5. And was not this power given him over all Kindreds, and Tongues, and Nations? ver. 7. Did not the falſe Church or falſe Woman, till the very end of this time (in one appearance or other, under ſome form of Worſhip or other; ſometimes in a groſſer and more loathſome, ſometimes in a finer and more taking dreſs) ſtill go for the true Church, being upheld by the Kings and Inhabitants of the Earth, who all drank of her Cup of Fornication? Rev. 17. 2, 4. Was not the holy City

City (or true Church) trod under foot all this while in every Kindred, Nation, &c. by the heatheniſh Spirit of the Antichriſtian-Chriſtians therein, who made a great ſhew of Zeal and Worſhip in the outward Court? Rev. 11. 2. For while the holy City is to remain unbuilt, he that will worſhip in it, muſt ſink into its ruins, and lie deſolate with it, but he that will be buiding before Gods time, rejects the Corner-Stone, which lies hid in the ruins of this City, and ſo builds up a Babylon, to which though he gives the name of Sion, yet it is not ſo in truth; but Sion lies underneath, in the duſt, trampled upon and ſet at nought by him and his building. Now, ſhall the forty two Months never have an end? And ſhall the Holy City never riſe again from under the feet of the Antichriſtian Profeſſors and Worſhippers of the outward Court? Shall the Walls of Sion neuer be built more? Or is it to be expected, when the Lord begins to build her up and bring her forth, that ever any of the falſe Churches ſhould own her? O fear therefore before the Lord, every one entring into that in his own heart, which (being hearkened unto) teacheth the Fear, and breaketh the Pride, Loftineſs, and Conceitedneſs of the high-imagining mind, which firſt builds up with apprehenſions about Church, Religion, and Worſhip without the Spirit, and then is offended with that which cannot bow to thoſe Images. But be it known unto you, O Nations and Powers of the Earth, that the Lord hath raiſed up a people, whoſe Knees can alone bow at the name of Jeſus, and whoſe Tongues can alone confeſs to him. And if Nebuchadnezzar's Spirit ſhould heat a Furnace of affliction, ſeven times hotter than it hath yet been heated, all this day of the cruel ſufferings of Gods dear people, and threaten all with it, that will not bow to the Image or Form of Worſhip which he ſets up, yet this we know aſſuredly, that the Lord hath begotten a Seed which he can deliver, and which we do not doubt but he will deliver, let Antichriſt's Sea and Waves roar never ſo loud againſt them. But however, bow to any Image they cannot: for they have taſted of the living truth it ſelf, which hath made them free from ſuch Images and Idols wherein they were before intangled; and the Spirit of the Lord calleth aloud to them to ſtand faſt in the liberty wherewith Chriſt hath ſet them free, and not receive any more the yoak of Bondage upon their necks, but to draw under the ſweet, gentle Yoak of his Spirit.

O England, England, how ſad is thy ſtate! How great and mighty things hath the Lord done in thee, but thou ſtill overlookeſt his hand, and art offended with the Work of his Spirit, becauſe it ſuits not with thy fleſhly deſires and intereſts! O England, England, what will become of thee! The Lord hath kindled his Fire, and thou addeſt Fewel daily. The Lord is ariſen to make inquiſition for the ſufferings and bloud of his people, and thou inſtead of repenting of what thou haſt done, art greedy of more. Thou haſt deeply drunk of the Whores Cup of Fornication, and that makes thee thus thirſty after the Saints bloud. Thou cryeſt out againſt thoſe that put the Martyrs to death, as the profeſſing Jews did againſt thoſe that put the Prophets to death; and yet perſecuteſt their Spirit where ever it appears in further proſecution of the Work of reformation at this day, even as the Jews did perſecute the Spirit of the Prophets in Chriſts and his Apoſtles. O mourn to the Lord to open thine eyes, that thou maiſt not thus ſtand any longer in his way. Let him bring forth his Church, let him ſet up his Truth, let him advance his People, and do not thou go about to limit the Spirit of the holy one in them. There's none of theſe will harm thee, but bring bleſſings upon thee. Let thy Governours keep within their bounds, and be a defence upou all people in their juſt rights and liberties, and ſee if from that day he do not bleſs thee. But if there be one thing in the Lords heart concerning his people, and another thing in thine; if he reſolve to bring them forth to his praiſe, and to give them their liberty in their obedience to his Spirit, and thou reſolve they ſhall come under thy Yoaks and Bonds, how can ye agree? Your Wrath by this means muſt needs be kindled againſt each other, and he that hath moſt ſtrength will carry it. For as the day of your Wrath is come, to ſee the people of God ſo encreaſe, and grow bold in his Truth and Power: ſo the day of his Wrath is come, to ſee his people ſo reproached, hated, hunted, and perſecuted, for his names ſake, Revel. 11. 18. And take heed, leſt upon that Spirit, which in this Generation ſtill continues perſecuting the ſufferings, perſecutions, and bloud of all the Saints and Martyrs (ſhed all the time of Antichriſt's Reign) be not required. The bloud of all the Prophets from Abel to Zacharias, was required of that great profeſſing ſing Generation of the Jews, who ſpake ſuch great Words of Moſes and the Prophets, but perſecuted Chriſt and his Apoſtles, Mat. 23. 35. And the bloud of all the Souls that lie under the Alter, crying, How long O Lord, Holy and True, doſt thou not judge and avenge our bloud on them that dwell upon the earth? They were bid to reſt a little ſeaſon, and then the bloud of all that ever was ſlain ſince the Apoſtles days, is to be required on that Generation of Profeſſors, which are found even to the very laſt in the perſecuting Spirit, Revel. 6. 10, 11.

I do not write this to reproach any ſort of Profeſſors, but in true Love and Bowels of compaſſion, that ſuch among them as ever had any taſt of God, and of his ſweet meek Spirit, but are now grown hard, and found ſmiting their fellow Servants, may (if it be poſſible) hear the Lords Voice, which yet tenderly calls after them, that they may not be cut in pieces, and receive their Portion of Wrath with Babylon, Mat 24. 49, 50, 51. Revel. 18. 4. As for me, I am poor and weak (a Worm, and no man.) one who hath been a mourner and wanderer in a ſtrange Land all my days, yea, I have been that fool, who though I have often been very near, yet ſtill knew not the way to the City of my God, Eccleſ. 10. 15. And at preſent, I am very unworthy and unfit to be an Inſtrument in the Lords hand, for the reclaiming of any man from his wanderings. Yet this I can in Truth and Uprightneſs ſay concerning the Lords gracious dealings with me, that in the Bowels of his mercy he hath viſited me, and turned my face toward his Sion: and his Life and Spirit (as he pleaſeth to keep me freſh and open) I know both my way and my leader, and alſo that which is mine enemy, which continually endeavoureth to betray and devour me. And, I ſpeak the truth in Chriſt, I lie not, I know alſo what I have felt wrath and miſery upon, and that what the Lord hath ſo long and ſo ſeverely ſmitten in me, he will not ſpare in others. O that men could hear, and avoid my Bed of Torment, where I ſuffered a moſt dreadful and terrible Hell, for many years (bear with me, for I canot call it leſs) though without either guilt upon my Spirit, or fear of Wrath, being juſtified before God in my own Conſcience (till afterwards under long continuance of miſery and thick darkneſs, ſome guilt was contracted) and having a ſecret Root of hope concerning good from God, if once I might appear in his preſence to plead my cauſe there. Who can poſſibly believe the miſery I endured (if it were related) and yet it had not the leaſt mixture of either of theſe in it for a long time. But after this, through the ignorance and thick darkneſs, wherewith I had been long overwhelmed, not knowing what had been and ſtill was preſent with me, the tempter by his ſubtilty got in, and led out my mind from what had viſited and ſought after me all my days, to wait and hope for ſome great appearance to ſet me to rights: and here my loſs was very great, my Soul being hereby removed far away from the preſent feeling of the ſpring of my life, and drawn to neglect the little dawnings of that light, which ſhineth more and more to the perfect day, having concluded in my ſelf that no leſs would ſuffice to heal me, than its breaking forth in its full ſtrength, even as at noon upon me. Thus I deſpiſed the day of ſmall things, and was ſeduced into a gaping after, and waiting for that, which is never ſo to be received: but the little ſeed of Light being received, and finding good and honeſt earth, groweth up therein even to perfection, and then knoweth and receiveth the light of the day in its full ſtrength. And although there was ſuch a ſavour of God left in me, that upon the firſt converſe with this People called Quakers, I could own the Voice of God in them, and ſet to my Seal, (as in the preſence of God) that it was the true life and power of the moſt High whereof they were born, yet I could not but deſpiſe it as a weak and low appearance thereof, yea, and ſtarted back from it, as being ſuch a kind of diſpenſation of life and power as was to paſs away, and the paſſing away whereof from me, had made me ſo miſerable. And now I am as one born out of due time, and come lagging behind, feeling my ſelf altogether unworthy to be numbred amongſt them, or to bear a Teſtimony to that truth and power of life wherein they flouriſh, and by which they are redeemed and bought out of the earth, with the price of the living immortal bloud of Jeſus, by which (together with the word of his Teſtimony) they cannot but overcome all the Powers of darkneſs (with all the Powers of the Earth, which ſtand in the darkneſs, and fight under the darkneſs) being taught thereby not to love their lives unto the death. But the ſcoffing conceited Profeſſor will be ready to ſay, What, are thoſe the only People? Others beſides them, are as dear to God as they. There are many in forms equal to them, and many out of forms, far beyond them. Whereto I anſwer thus, Yea, there are ſo in the ſcale of mans judgment, but not ſo in the meaſure of the Sanctuary. The ſe are the only redeemed People that my Soul knows of. There is a Seed beſides them, not yet gathered, but in Babylon, whom the Lord (in his due ſeaſon) will gather into the ſame light, life, and power: but there is no other Saviour, but that light eternal which hath given them life, and dwells in them; who is riſen in them, come to them, and hath taken them into himſelf, in whom they are, even in him that is true, who is the Son of God, the true God, and the Life eternal, (1 John 5. 20.) who hath poured forth his Spirit upon them, in which they Miniſter, and gather up to God thoſe who have an ear to hear the voice of his Spirit. Beware therefore, O ye Nations and Powers of the earth, what ye do againſt this People: For ye cannot prevail by any Inchantment, againſt theſe whom the Lord hath bleſſed: but the more ye ſtrive to vilifie and ſuppreſs them, the more will the Lord will magnifie and exalt them. And the life which God hath raiſed up in them muſt reign, do what ye can againſt it: O abaſe your ſelves, and kiſs the Son, O Profeſſors and Powers of the earth, that ye be not cut off; for the Lords hand is lifted up, and in his jealouſie, he will ſmite home for the ſake of Zion, for his Ear hath heard the cry of the poor and needy, whom no man regardeth, Iſa. 33. 10, 11.

A

Warning of LOVE,

FROM THE

BOWELS of LIFE,

TO THE

Several Generations of Profeſſors of this AGE;

that they may Awaken and Turn towards the life, to be truly Cleanſed and Saved by its Powerful Liying Vertue, before the Storm of Wrath break forth, and the overflowing Scourge overtake them, which will ſweed away the Strongeſt and moſt Well-bnilt Refuge of Lies, and ſink thoſe Souls (even into the Pit of Miſery) which are there found, when the Storm comes.

Held forth in four Propoſitions, Aſſertions, or Conſiderations, concerning Man in his Loſt ſtate, and his Recovery out of it.

Propoſ. 1. That Man is fallen from God.

THERE is an everlaſting, Infinite, Pure Fountain and Well-ſpring of Life from whence all Creatures came, from whence their Life, being, Motion, Vertue, and Reſt flows, in which they all have a place and ſtanding according to their Nature, Eſtate, Temperature, and courſe of Operation in his eternal Counſel, who made all, diſpoſeth of all, ruleth in and over all eternally: Whoſe everlaſting Kingdom and Dominion (which was before all, and will be after all)

all) cannot be excluded by any power or dominion which ariſeth after it? but only ſo far as it ſelf hath pleaſed it hath given way to that power of darkneſs, which is contrary to it: which how it ſprang up, what it hath to do, and how it is to vaniſh, is not for mans comprehenſion to fathom.

In this Spring of life, man had an eſpecial place and ſtanding. The Lord had created and placed him Supreme, under himſelf, over the works of his hands, gave him his Kingdom here on earth under him, gave him his Image to rule in, even a ſufficient meaſure of that eternal Wiſdom in which he formed him, to which he was to be ſubject himſelf, and by which he was to reign over and order all with delight, joy and comfort in himſelf, to the praiſe and glory of him who formed all, and had given him the Dominion over all. Here was the ſweet eſtate, the ſweet peace, the ſweet liberty, the ſweet unity of all, all being kept and preſerved in that Life, Vertue, Wiſdom, Goodneſs, Power and Love wherein they were made, the Creatures naturally becoming ſubject to, ſerving and obeying man (man uſing them and ruling over them not in the Tyranny, not in the Luſt, not in the Vanity, not in the exceſs; but in the Righteouſneſs, in the Love, in the Meekneſs, in the Moderation, in the Divine Wiſdom, in the pure power and virtue of the Life) man likewiſe naturally vailing to his Maker, walking in his Light, living in his Life, ſhining in his Beauty, conquering and triumphing (over all that might aſſault) in his ſtrength, and continuing perfect and ſtreight before him in purity and cleanneſs of heart, in that ſweet, pretious, preſerving fear, which naturally ſprings up in the heart of the Creature (not degenerated) towards his Creator and Preſerver. Now, what could man want, having the Spring of Life ſo near him? What could he deſire in the Purity, in the Life, which the Father of Life could have with-held from him? Had he asked the Spirit, could the Father have denyed him? and had he ſtood ſtill a while in the Life, out of the Luſt, could he have forborn asking in the ſpirit? Had he not ſo ſuddenly been tempted to the Tree of Knowledge, ſurely he had eaten of the Tree of Life, and had lived for ever.

But man being in Honour, lodged not one Night, (HE FELL THE FIRST NIGHT, read me who can) but became like the Beaſts that periſh. He loſt the Divine Image, and then had at beſt but the natural: but that, depending upon the Divine, the Beauty thereof was loſt too. He loſt the Eternal Wiſdom, he loſt the Spring, he loſt the Godhead, he loſt that which was to Reign over the Creatures, and then he became but as the Creatures, nay worſe than the Creatures. What he henceforth knows of God (as he ſtands in the Degeneration) he knows naturally, like bruit Beaſts (even by the natural exerciſe of his mind, with the faculties thereof, even as the Beaſts learn and know by their nature, after their kind) and in what he thus knows, he corrupts himſelf worſe than the Beaſts. Let the Lord try him never ſo much, never ſo often, drop down of the Dew of Heaven upon him, ſend him Line upon Line, and Precept upon Precept, now a little and then a little, yet he ſtill remains bruitiſh, both in his underſtanding, receiving, and in his making uſe of it all. Still he forgets the Truth, and loſes himſelf in the Image, gets a notion, an imagination, a comprehenſion of ſomewhat into his natural part (which changes him not inwardly, but ſtill he is the ſame in his root, ground and nature) but the Life, the Eternal vertue he is ſtill eſtranged from, and ſo is bruitiſh in all his knowledge and apprehenſions of God and his Truths, bruitiſh in his Worſhipping of him, bruitiſh in his belief and hopes, and his Immortal Soul periſhes under all: Outward Iſrael was a true and full reſemblance of him, who had many Teachings, a pure Law of Worſhip, and Sacrificing, many Prophets to reduce and reſtore them to the right Path of Holineſs and Obedience, but ſtill they were erring in their hearts from the Lord and his pure Law of Life, not knowing their Owner or their Maſters Crib, ſo well as the Ox or Aſs did theirs, Iſa. 1. 3.

Propoſ. 2. That Man, by all the imaginations that can enter into his Heart, and by all the means he can uſe or courſes he can run, cannot return back to God again, or ſo much as deſire it.

The Fall of Man from God is ſuch, that it hath benummed all his ſenſes, yea ſo bereft him of them, that he cannot feel his own eſtate. He is dead, ſpiritually dead, and can no more feel his death, his ſpiritual death, then a man naturally dead can his natural death. He is bewitched into a Fools Paradice, where he hath a new Life, a new Virtue, a new Wiſdom, a new Kingdom, a new Dominion (which is indeed but Death) with which he is ſo Tranſported, that he forgetteth the old; and in this new ſpirit and eſtate, cannot ſo much as deſire after it. Men ſpeak of the Reliques of the Image, which the firſt man had: Ah poor deceived hearts! What Reliques of life are there in a dead man? What Reliques of purity in a man wholly degenerated and corrupted? Nay, nay, The Spiritual Image, the Divine Image, the Eternal life, the pure Power and Vertue is wholly loſt, and there is nothing left, but what is captivated and deſtroyed through the degenerating power. There is nothing at all of the Eternal Kingdom, of the Spiritual Image, of the Divine Life to be found in fallen Man, but a little Seed; and that Seed not ſo much as ſown in his earth, as he ſtands in the degeneration; for the ſowing of it is the beginning of the work anew. And now, who can read this Riddle? The Kingdom is within every man, and yet not ſo much as ſown in any man, till the ſpringing up of the eternal vertue according to the Eternal pleaſure; nay the earth is not ſo much as prepared to receive the Seed, until the Lord ſend his Plough into the Heart. So that it is impoſſible for fallen Man to attain to ſo much as one true breathing, or deſire after God again; this muſt ariſe from the Grace, from the Mercy, from a new begetting (by the free Gift) towards life, towards the Divine Image again, which was ſlain in Man (and the impreſſion of it on him wholly loſt) ever ſince the Foundation of the World in his heart, which God hath ſet there, ever ſince he choſe it. And indeed fallen Man, degenerated Man (would the Spirit of the Lord let him alone, and not diſquiet him) likes his own eſtate well enough. The World being written in his heart, his thoughts and deſires are entred there, and of themſelves reach no further. Might he but have the enjoyment of the Creatures without, and the enjoyment of ſuch a kind of earthly knowledge and wiſdom within, as he now aſpires after, he would ſit down in Egypt and Babylon, reſting fully ſatisfied with Egyptian knowledge and wiſdom, and with the Babyloniſh Treaſures (might he have enough of them) and never think of Sion, and the pure Holy Land of Life any more.

But when the Eternal ſtirs in him, when the pure Light opens at any time, then he has ſome little Glimmerings of his Eſtate, then he has ſome ſence of his fallen condition, and ſome deſire to remedy it; What doth he then? Then he beſtirs himſelf to get ſomewhat to cover him, then he gathers Stones and makes Mortar to build up a Wall and raiſe a Tower, that he may not lye open to the Deluge of Wrath; for, by this ſtirring of the life, he hath ſome little taſte and ſight, that he is not one with the life, but departed from it: The Soul being awakened by the opening of its own ſpring in it, begins to feel the want of its ſpring: It wants the true Vertue, the true Peace, the true Joy, the true Comfort and Refreſhment, the true Reſt, the true Liberty, the true Life, the true Light; and for want of this, its eſtate is miſerable: And in the ſtirring of the Spring, it feels this miſery; and in this feeling it groans, it mourns, it pants, it cryes out, and the creatural earthly ſpirit can have no reſt becauſe of it. What therefore doth the Creature do to ſtill this cry? Why, it joyneth, as it were, with the Soul, it uſeth all the means it can to attain that, which the Soul ſees the want of: It inquireth after God, hearkneth out after thoſe that know him, ſtudieth the Law, obſerveth the Statutes and Ordinances, performeth the Duties, Believeth, Prayeth, Hopeth, Waiteth: nay, what is it, which the Creature will not ſet upon in this diſtreſs (eſpecially if the Convictions of the Eternal Light purſue and follow him cloſe) to ſtill the cry of the Soul, and to attain the price of the Eternal Inheritance, which is ſet before the Soul, which the Soul can never be at reſt or ſatisfied without ſome aſſurance of, and progreſs towards? But all this will not do. Man in all his own obedience, as well as in his diſobedience is ſhut out. There is a flaming Sword which turns every way, to keep the way of the Tree of Life; inſomuch as man can by no means come at the way to the true life, nor enter into the ſtrait and narrow path that leads thereto, but as he is cut to the heart, his life let out, and as he dyes, and comes into unity with that which ſlays him, and keeps the way from him. So that man, in his running to God is thruſt by, as well as in his running from him: in his willing and deſiring after him he is rejected, as well as in his willing againſt him. It is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that ſheweth Mercy. Mark, There is a Birth of Bloods, a Birth of the will of the fleſh, a Birth of the will of Man, Joh. 1. 13. all theſe will, all theſe run (ſome of them very hard) but they are all thruſt by, and diſ-regarded by the Lord, both in their willing and in their running. There are many found running the Race, but one obtains the Prize, which one is he that is born of God, to whom when God gives the prize, he will ſay to all the other Births (notwithſtanding all their Willing and Running, their Believing, Hoping, Praying, &c.) Depart from me, I know you not, ye are the fruit of a ſtrange Womb, not of my Spouſe, and ſo muſt not inherit my Kingdom. And as all theſe will be cut ſhort of the Inheritance at laſt; ſo all that they do at preſent, is loathſome to the Lords Soul. The Sacrifice of the wicked is Abomination; how much more when he bringeth it with a wicked mind, Prov. 21. 27. His Sacrifice, his Worſhipping of God, his Praying, his reading of Scriptures, his Meditating thereon, and of God, and his Works, his Believing, Hoping, Waiting, fearing of Threatnings and applying of Promiſes, &c. all is Abomination. The wicked man, he whoſe Heart is not Circumciſed by the Lords Eternal Spirit, whatſoever he can, or doth Sacrifice to God, the Lord loaths, and it cannot profit his Soul.

the

Object. Yea, when he does them in Hypocriſy, ſo they are.

Anſw. Nay, more then ſo. When he doth them with an evil heart, they are much more abominable, how much more when he bringeth it with a Wicked mind? but let him bring it with a good mind with that which he calls the good heart (for the circumciſed heart, the heart of the true new Birth is only the good heart (not that heart which every falſe Birth is apt to call good(let him bring it with that heart, which he takes to be the upright heart, with an honeſt intention, ſo far as he knows, take his Sacrifices at the very beſt, at the very pureſt he can attain to, yet then they are Abomination.

And the reaſon hereof is plain and manifeſt. The Fountain is unclean, the Root in him is corrupt; And who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? Make the Tree good, and his Fruit will be good: But while the Tree is bad, the Fruit cannot be good. Now can the holy God be pleaſed with that Sacrifice which comes from the unclean Spring? Can God own or approve that knowledge of himſelf, that Faith, that Love, that Obedience, that Integrity, or Uprightneſs, that Induſtry or Diligence, thoſe Prayers or Breathings, which man pumps up out of the old Ciſtern? Nay all theſe muſt into the Pit, with the common Filthineſs and Pollutions of the earth: And when the Lord takes this aſide from the ſeveral ſorts of Profeſſors, what will be left in them? Oh how many have builded up a Wall, dawbing it with untempered Mortar, which will not ſtand in the day of Trial, nor ſhelter them from the Eternal Flames? Oh what yelling and roaring will there ſhortly be in ſuch, as by no means will be warned, but would be juſtifying of themſelves in their falſe knowledge and practiſes, and reſerving their Fabricks of Religion to the trial of the day! and the day will try them indeed, even to the bitter perplexity and anguiſh of their hearts, when they come to ſee that there is now no way of eſcape, but they muſt lye down in the Bed of Eternal Sorrow, Miſery, and Torment, and in utter Separation from that, wherein they thought they had a large and unqueſtionable ſhare.

Propoſ. 3. That all Profeſſions of God and of Chriſt upon the Earth, all knowledge and beliefs whatſoever, with all practiſes of Duties and Ordinances of Worſhip, ſave only ſuch as proceed from, and are held in the pure life, are but as ſo many Fig-leaves, or deceitful Plaiſters, which may skin over the Wound, but cannot truly heal it.

The Wound of man is deep by the Fall: He hath really loſt God, is ſhut out of his Commonwealth, yea, (in that Eſtate) is altogether without hope (for the Hope ſprings from God's Viſitation of him with his Light, and from the Living Promiſe.)

That which recovers man, is the Eternal Vertue, the Endleſs Power, the Life Immortal, the Chriſt of God.

Now, what ever knowledge man gathers (whether from the Book of the Creatures, or from the Scriptures, or any other ways) or what ever man profeſſes, or what ever man practices out of this, it is but a cover of his own, but a formed thing, but his own Image of Truth, of Knowledge, of Faith, of Love, of Obedience, of Worſhip; it is not the Living Truth, the Living Knowledge, the Living Faith, the Living Love, the Living Obedience, the Living Worſhip: And ſo it is but Mortal, but Fleſhly; and when it coms before the Eternal Flames, it will not abide them, but vaniſh. All Fleſh is Graſs: All the Knowledge, the Faith, the Love, the Worſhip, the Obedience, the Righteouſneſs, &c. which man (who is ignorant of the leadings and power of the life) can come at, is but Graſs: yea the Flower of it, the ſeeming Beauty and Godlineſs of it, the very choiceſt of it in any ſort of Profeſſors, is but as the Flower of the Field: it may

may make a fair ſhew there, but when the Lord cutteth it down with his Sickle, and when his Sun riſeth upon it with its burning heat, it will ſoon wither, and his Fire will ſoon devour it, ſo that its very place ſhall be found no more. What will become of all the Fruit that Fleſh hath born, when God maketh bare, and cutteth down the Root? What will become of all Mortal Knowledge of the Scriptures, Mortal Worſhip, the Faith and Obedience which hath its root, growth, and ſpreading in the Mortal part, when the Lord heweth at it with his immortal Ax? Do not deceive your ſelves, There is nothing will ſtand but what is Immortal, and that which is gathered into it, and ſo one with it: No Knowledge, no Faith, no Love, no Obedience, no Worſhip, no Hopes, but what ſpring from the Seed, are gathered into the Seed, and live in the Seed. This will abide, when all that ſprings from man, and hath its place and reſidence in the mortal part (and not in the true Treaſury) will come to an end, and diſappoint all who have their hopes of the inheritance there, Propoſ. 4. That the living Seed of Eternal Life, which God hath hid in Man underneath his earth, hath in it the Living Vertue, which alone can heal Man, and reſtore him to God.

That which heals of the Death, is the Tree of Life, whoſe Rind or Bark, whoſe Leaves, whoſe Bloſſoms, whoſe Fruit, whoſe Boughs and Branches, whoſe Bulk or Body, with the whole Sap thereof, is all healing, and there is nothing elſe can heal. Let man catch all the Knowledge that ever ſprang from the Life; If he could believe (I mean in the mans part) all that ever the Life ſpake, if it were ſo that he could perform all that ever the life called for, yet this would not heal him at all: Whereas the leaſt Vertue from the Life, ſpringing up into, and livingly retained in the lifes Veſſel, truly refreſhes and heals. The Seed in all its ſpringings up, and ſhootings forth in the heart, lets out of its healing Vertue. Let but in a Reproof, a Conviction, a Judgment, a Condemnation, which wounds that part which hath erred from the life, yet even in that there is a ſecret hidden healing of ſomewhat elſe. The ſmitings of the righteous Principle are as Balm, and its reproofs as an excellent Oyl. Thy Rod and thy Staff comfort me. Light is ſown for the Righteous, and Joy for the Upright in heart; in all the tearings, ſmitings, and rendings of the earthly part (with which the Seed alſo ſuffers) and the Faith, in which theſe are received, is the preſent ſubſtance of the healing, from the eternal Vertue hoped for.

Now, who will be Wiſe? Let him become a Fool in the fleſh. Who will be ſtrong? Let him become weak in the mans part. Who will be ſaved by the Eternal Power? Let him ceaſe from the man in himſelf. Who ever would be able, in the Life, to do all things, let him ſink into that in himſelf which is not, that it may bring to nought all things in him that are, that ſo it alone may be; and he, by it being brought to nothing, will eaſily become all in it. This the true way of Reſtoration of Redemption; firſt to be loſt, to be overcome, to be drowned, to be made nothing by that which is not, that that may come to BE in him, and he be quickened, raiſed up, and perfected in that, and ſo become Profeſſor of the fulneſs: The Race is not to the Swift, nor the Battel to the Strong; but he that daily loſeth his ſtrength, and his ability to know, or ſo much as to will or deſire (even till at length he become nothing at all) in him is the Corrupt at laſt deſtroyed, and the Mortal ſwallowed up of the Life. He that feels the pure Seed ſpringing up; and by the growth of that, is daily begotten, Quickned, Raiſed, Juſtified, Sanctified, Circumciſed, Baptiſed, Fed in one part, and Starved in another. When the Work of Begetting, Quickning, Raiſing, Regenerating, Juſtifying, Sanctifying, Circumciſing, Baptiſing is finiſhed in him, and he is throughly begotten into the Life, quickned by the Life, raiſed in the Life, Regenerated, Juſtified, Sanctified, Circumciſed, and Baptiſed through the Life; he ſhall have the Kingdom, wear the Crown, enter into the Joy of his Lord, weilding the Scepter of Righteouſneſs with his Lord in his Kingdom for ever. Now this work is to be done in the heart, on this ſide the Grave; for after Death comes Judgment for the things done in the Body; and the Tree is to be diſpoſed of, according as it is found at its fall, either to the Fire, or to grow and flouriſh in the Land of Life. Therefore be not ſlothful, but watch unto the movings of the living Seed, that its Work may be perfected: that it may arrive at its ſtature, and come to its full growth, and may finiſh its Service and Teſtimony, that ſo it may enter into its Habitation, and receive you with it into its Everlaſting Manſion, where every Servant and conſtant Sufferer with the Seed, ſhall be welcomed of its Father, and remain Partaker of their Joy and Fulneſs for ever.

with

ISAAC PENINGTON the Younger.

Where is the Wiſe? Where is the Scribe? Where is the Diſputer of this World? Hath not God made Fooliſh the Wiſdom of this World? 1 Cor. 1. 20.

THESE have always been the Enemies and Oppoſers of Truth, and Setters up of falſe Images thereof in all ages, The Wiſe, the Learned, the great Diſputants. To theſe Truth hath ſtill been mean and contemptible, their Eye hath ſtill overlooked it, and their Imaginations have ſtill out run it, finding out ſomewhat elſe in the ſtead thereof, for which they have been ſtill able and vigorous to contend, and againſt the Truth it ſelf. And indeed, how can the wiſe eye ſee that, how can the learned Eye acknowledge that, which comes quite out of the way of its Knowledge and Learning, even in a path that it is not all acquainted with? Wiſdom is juſtified of her Children. Thoſe that are Wiſe to Salvation, thoſe that are learned in the Spirit, thoſe that can diſpute in the power of the Life, and demonſtration of the Spirit, theſe know her habitation, and her out-goings, and can own her in every Age, and in every diſpenſation and coming forth: but the Wiſe and Learned of this World are ſhut out of this Wiſdom, aud in all their ſearches after Truth, cannot find her; and if at any time they do find and taſte ſomewhat of her, yet they cannot keep her, but the Wiſdom and Learning, and Strength of the earthly part in them, ſoon betrays and makes a prey of the ſimplicity that is in Chriſt, and of his pure Goſpel, which caunot be comprehended nor will take up a dwelling place with this Wiſdom, but brings it to nothing, tramples upon it, and keeps it down for ever, where it abides.

Three ſorts of Enemies of the Wiſe, the Learned, the great Diſptants, Truth hath hath always had. Firſt, Of ſuch as have denyed the true form of Knowledge and Worſhip. Secondly, Of ſuch as have owned the form, but withſtood the power. Thirdly, Of ſuch as have had a taſte of the power, but afterwards erred from it, and ſo held that, which once they had a rrue taſte of, in the unrighteous part, and likewiſe added to it by their own imaginations.

When Iſrael was in Ægypt (that poor illiterate Company of Brick-makers) in Bondage under that Wiſe people; the Ægyptians with all their Wiſdom, could not own their God, or their Worſhip, but their God was an unknown being to all that wiſdom (Ex. 5. 2: aud his Worſhip and Sacrifice the abomination of their eyes. Exod 8. 26. And Jannes and Jambres, with other wiſe Magicians, withſtood the appearance of God, and Pharoah and his People with their wiſdom thought to have kept God's Iſrael from multiplying, Exod. 1. 10. And to have held Iſrael ſtill under their ſervitude, after the Lord was riſen to ſtretch out his Arm for their deliverence, Exod. 5. 8, 9. And how did all the wiſe Nations ſtill watch to make a prey of God's Jeruſalem! How did they count the Towers! How often did they think to divide the ſpoyl! Judg. 5. 28. Iſa. 33. 18. How did Senacherib and Rabſheka make her their own! And when the Lord did at any time give Jacob for a Spoil, and Iſrael to the Robers, how did they think to keep her under for ever! The wiſe Aſſyrian, the Moabite, the Ammonite, the Edomite, the Philiſtim, the Amalekite, the wiſe Babylonian or Chaldean thought to keep her under, as Pharoah had done, even till their Wiſdom and Knowledge perverted them alſo, Iſa. 47. 10, and the Prince of Tyre, who was a Wiſer then Daniel, Ezek. 28. 3. He alſo could inſult over Jeruſalem, and rejoyce at her Downfal and Captivity, chap. 26. 2.

But to come cloſer; Come to Iſrael it ſelf. That people, by all the Wiſdom it could gathe-gather from the Law, by all the experiences it had had of God's power, by all the Faith that was wrought in them upon deliverances, yet had not eyes to ſee, nor ears to hear, nor hearts to perceive, but were a people that did always err in their hearts, and did not underſtand the way of Truth and Peace. The Prophets among them were ſtill Fools, yea, the Spiritual man mad, Hoſ. 9.7. The Prieſts were generally ignorant of the Lord (for though they had the Ark of his Preſence, his Tabernacle, his Temple, Altar, Sacrifices, Worſhip, &c. yet they did not know where he was, nor did inquire after him, but contented themſelves with a form of knowledge and worſhip.) And they that handled the Law knew not him who gave the Law, and was the ſole true interpreter of the Law, but the Paſtors tranſgreſſed againſt him, and the Prophets prophecied by another Spirit, Jer. 2. 8. They were wiſe, and did abound in their own meanings, gueſſings, and gathered knowledge, but they knew not the Truth, no not of the Letter according to the Law, and according to that Light, which God ſometimes cauſed to ſhine among them from his Prophets. Hence it was that people, with their Rulers, their Teachers, their Prieſts, their Prophets, were generally enemies to the Prophets whom God raiſed up, hating, perſecuting, impriſoning, ſtoning them, &c. The Prophets of God (that ſpake his Truth in his Wiſdom, in his Life, in Power, in the Demonſtration of his Spirit) they could not away with: theſe were Fools with them, theſe were mad-men with them, (2 Kings 9. 11. Jer. 29 26.) theſe were poor illiterate Herdſmen and Plowmen: they had learned men, that were brought up at the Schools of the Prophets, that could Prophecy Divine things, ſweet things, that could open the Law learnedly; theſe Prophets, and theſe Prieſts the Rulers cheriſhed, and the people loved, Jer. 5.31. and 23.26,27. Ezek. 13. 3, &c.

Yea among that people, ſuch as had a taſt of the Truth, as Corah, Dathan and Abiram might have (for ſurely it was not a ſmall matter that could ſo lift them up, to oppoſe Moſes and Aaron in that manner, and to ſtand out the conteſt with them even in the Lords preſence, Numb. 16.18. but an apprehenſion of Gods being on their ſide, from ſome appearance of his to them) and as Balaam had, whoſe eyes were opened to ſee the beauty of the Tents of Jacob; yet theſe, through the prevalency of the fleſhly Luſts and Wiſdom become enemies, and try all ways to prevail over Iſrael, even over the Truth and over the Power. The Apoſtle Jude compares ſuch to the Angels that kept not their firſt Eſtate. The Angels that fell, had a place and ſtanding once in truth, but they kept it not (they abode not in the truth) but fell from it, and ſo became Devils, Enemies to the Truth from which they fell: So thoſe that fall from the truth, from the power, from the living vertue whereof they once taſted, from the true wiſdom, which once appeared to them and began to ſeaſon and ſavour them, in their fallen wiſdome they become the greateſt enemies, the greateſt accuſers, the greateſt oppoſers, and the ſtiffeſt maintainers of a falſe Image of that Truth which they once had ſome knowledge of, and ſome unity with. Thus it was in the Jewiſh ſtate; Now come to the Apoſtles days.

Firſt, They had all the Wiſe men of that Age againſt them, all the Wiſe Greeks, all the Wiſe Jews; the Learned men, the able Diſputants of all ſorts. The Greeks could not find Wiſdom in that knowledge of Chriſt which they held forth, nor the Jews could not find power in it, 1 Cor. 1.22. and ſo the one accounted it fooliſhneſs, the other ſtumbled at it, ver. 23. There were many ſorts and Sects of Wiſemen among the Jews, but not one ſort could own the Truth, though they were looking for it, ſearching the Scriptures about it, and diſputing concerning it. The very thing then in agitation and inquiry among them was, when the Kingdom of God ſhould come. The King himſelf directs them where it was, that they might know where to expect and wait for it, Luke 17.21. and in many Parables opens it to them, but it was ſtill hid from the eye of that wiſdom, wherewith they did ſtrive to ſee, underſtand and comprehend it. So that all the ſeveral ſorts of Wiſe-men of that age, even thoſe who were Admirers of the Law and the Prophets, yet were Strangers and Enemies to the Truth, becauſe they joyned to that Wiſdom, and to that Learning and comprehenſion of the Scriptures, out of the ſight whereof it came.

Secondly, For ſuch as did own Chriſt after the fleſh, ſuch as were convinced by his Miracles, (as Nicodemus and many of the honeſter ſort of the Jews were) yet Chriſt did not commit himſelf to them, John 2. 24. He knew this Faith and this owning of him, which was founded upon the Wiſdom and Ingenuity of the Creature would fail; and ſo hewould not own it in Nicodemus, but bids him look after the New birth (Joh. 3. 2, 3.) nor in ſuch as followed him up and down, upon this or any other fleſhly account, but ſometimes withdrew and hid himſelf from them Luke 5. 16. John 6 14, 15) and ſometimes Preached Doctrines which ſtumbled them, and made them withdraw from him, John 6. 66 And ſo in the Apoſtles days, there were many could get the Form, and gain advantage thereby to the fleſhly Wiſdom, to withſtand the power, 2 Tim. 3. 5. 2 Cor. 11. 13.

he

Thirdly, There were ſuch as had taſted of the heavenly Gift, and of the Powers of the World to come, and yet fell away, Heb. 6. 4, 5, 6. There were ſuch as denyed the Lord that bought them, 2 Pet. 2. 1. Such as fell from the love of the Truth, to the love of their Vomit, and of the mire of the World again, v. 22. 2 Tim. 4. 10. Such as had a ſtanding in the Churches Heaven (like the Angels which fell) but kept not their habitation, but were ſwept down from thence to the earth by the Dragons Tail, Rev. 12. 4. Theſe are the notableſt Champions (in the earthly Wiſdom, and for a corrupted Eſtate and falſe Image) of all the reſt.

Now as the Prophets of God among the Jews had theſe Enemies, and as the Apoſtles alſo had theſe Enemies: ſo all along the Apoſtacy theſe Enemies have been rife. The witneſſes have had a wiſe ſort of direct oppoſers among the Papiſts, a wiſe ſort of ſecret underminers among the Proteſtants, and alſo another wiſe ſort of ſuch among themſelves, as had ſome taſte of the Truth, but departed from the Power of it into the earthly Wiſdom, into the earthly Underſtanding: and this laſt ſort fight more furiouſly and more vehemently againſt the Truth, and are more ſubtle to aſſault it and grapple with it, then the other two: Oh there is no ſuch bitter deady Enemy to Chriſt and his Truth, as he who once had ſome taſte of the vertue of it, and is now turned from it into the Earth, into the Wiſdom and Love of the World, and yet ſtill holds ſome of the notion of that Truth (whereof he once left the Power) in the earthly part.

To come yet cloſer. There is in every man (not throughly ſanctified) that Wiſdom which is not of God, that Wiſdom from which God hides his precious Truths, which Wiſdom lies ready to catch every diſcovery and revelation of Truth to him, that it might improve it, grow rich and wiſe by it. Now this wiſdom cannot attain to the knowledge of any of the things of God, neither can this wiſdom keep the true knowledge, but whatever this wiſdom catcheth, it preſently corrupts. The true wiſdom, the true light, the true knowledge of Chriſt is like the Manna in the wilderneſs, it daily comes down from Heaven, and muſt daily be gathered freſh. The true light ſprings from the life, and it muſt be held in the life, in the Veſſel which the life forms, in the new Bottle, in the new Underſtanding; not in the Fleſhly part, nay not in the Natural part: for as the natural man cannot receive the things of the Spirit, 1 Cor. 2. 14. So neither can he retain them. The old Store-houſe, into which earthly things were gathered, muſt be burnt up, and not made a Treaſure for the things of God, but the new underſtanding, which is given by him that is true (1 John 5. 20.) which new-forms and preſerves, and is all in the natural. Sink out of the earthly part, and read me, that thou maiſt be able to ſay within thy ſelf, and concerning thy ſelf, where is the wiſe? where is the Scribe? where is the Diſputer?

The Wiſe part, the knowing part, the reaching part in every man will be putting forth its hand to gather of the Tree of Life: but what hath it ever been able to gather? I know men may gather notions of any kind, of any Sect, of any ſort of Profeſſion, of any appearance or diſpenſation: but who is able to come near the life, to touch the Power, the Truth, the everlaſting Spring, or any ſtream or drop of water that iſſues from it? And he who hath a true touch or taſte thereof given him, can his Wiſdom add to it? nay can he ſo much as retain it? (David had a true ſence and experience of this, who cryed out, O continue thy loving kindneſs to them that know thee, and thy righteouſneſs to the upright in heart.) Indeed if he like not to retain the thing it ſelf in his knowledge, he may improve the notion, and bend that to the temperature and diſpoſition of the earthly part in himſelf and others; but this is not truth, but a dead image or a dead remembrance of what once was truly living. Oh how doth the Soul that is begotten of the Divine breath, that is born of the living Power and Vertue, depend upon God for his continual breathings! There is nothing hath ſo much from God, and yet nothing is ſo litttle able to live without him. If he withdraw from it, it preſently hangs down its head: nay if he do but so much as hide his face, it is troubled; and all the fulness, which it immediately before had from God, is not able to keep up its Life one moment, but it pants, and fails, and flags, and withers, until a new supply of refreshment be administred to it. And he that knows this in any measure, will not wonder at, the distress and misery of such for want of Gods presence, and at their cryings out after the Spring of their Life (even as the Hart brayeth after the Water Brooks) though they should have fulness of all outward things, yea and also fulness of knowledge in things of Religion, even concerning all Conditions and Estates. The thing that I wanted in my great misery, it was not outward knowledge, it was not experience of Gods mercy and goodness: but this I wanted, the issuings forth of his fresh life, and livingly to know where to wait for it, and livingly to know it when it appeared: for it was still near me all the time of my darkness, and did preserve me and appear unto me, but I livingly knew it not, but thought I would be wiser than others: For I saw many deceived, and so I would not own it in such a way as it then appeared in me, least I also should be deceived like others, but waited for such an appearance as could not be questioned by the fleshly Wisdom. And he that waits for that, and so despises the day of small things, cannot but refuse the little seed, and so, it being not received into his earth, it can never grow up in him into a great Tree, whereby the Glory of the Kingdom will be hid from him, and he shut out of it, when others enter into and sit down in it. Therefore, he that will be Wise, let him become a Fool that he may be Wise; Let him receive that for his Light, his King, his Guide, which mans wisdom never did nor never will own. He that ever looks to injoy the Comforter, let him receive the Reprover, the Convincer of Sin, and wait for his Law of judging him throughout the whole course of his sinful State and Nature, passing along with him through the whole condemnation, until he arrive with him at the justification of the Life, which the fleshly wisdom, nor any of his knowledge of the things of God, (as they are held in the fleshly part) must ever arrive with him at.

Hath not God made foolish the Wisdom of this World?

The Wisdom of this World is precious in the Eye of the World, and the Wisdom of God in his poor, weak, despised earthen Vessels is still foolishness with them: but the Lord so orders it, as he still justifies his despised Wisdom in his despised Vessels, and makes the Wisdom of the World appear foolish to all the single and upright hearted, who thirst after and wait for the revelation of his Truth. Now two ways especially the Lord makes the folly of this Worlds Wisdom appear.

First, In that by all their Wisdom they cannot find out the true knowledge of God, v. 21. The World by Wisdom knew not God, though there be an exceeding desire kindled in them to know God, though they take all the ways that heart can imagine to attain their desires, though they study and meditate never so hard, though they get never so many Arts and Languages, nay though they read the very Scriptures never so diligently, though they Labour in the very Fire, yet what they get, what they gather, what they understand, what they comprehend by this Wisdom, it is all but very Vanity, Hab. 2. 13. it reaches not the immortal, it nourishes not the Immortal, it satisfies not the Soul, it refreshes not the Seed, but only feeds and pleases the earthly part, the earthly understanding, the earthly mind, the earthly desires and affections, even the mans Part, the mans Spirit, the mans Nature, which though elevated and raised never so high, is still but earth.

Secondly, In that all their Wisdom cannot teach them to come down to, to submit to, to come into Gods way of having their Wisdom Crucified, and that raised up in them which might receive the Truth. This they can never learn in the fleshly Wisdom. They may indeed come thus far, even to see that there is no way of entrance but by death, and so seek death (that they may enter into the life) but they cannot find it. The Seed of Jacob in his seeking misses not, but this seeker never finds, to this asker it is never given, and to this knocker it is never opened: and that is it which makes this Wisdom in every appearance, in every sort of Profession and Sect of Professors, so rage at the Seed of Jacob, even because it finds it self still shut out of the Life, into which an entrance is administred to the Seed. And how can that which would feign have the Kingdom, but rage against that which takes the inheritance from it? How can every sort of Professors but strive to slay the Heir, that the Inheritance may be theirs? Were it not for the living Seed, Seed, and the living Power and Vertue, which breaks forth in them and among them the Religion and Worſhip of the firſt Birth might paſs for currant but this is it which darkens the Glory of all Profeſſions and Profeſſors upon the Earth, even that living thing which God hath begotten in his people, and his living preſence with it, and bleſſing upon it: at this, all the Zealous Sacrificers, Teachers, and Profeſſors out of the Life, rage and are mad, and would break the Cords and Bands wherewith this ſtrives to bind them unto God's Altar.

Now look over all Ages, Could the Wiſe Heathens ſtoop to God's diſpenſation to the Jews? Was it not fooliſhneſs and abomination to them? Or could the Wiſe Jews ſtoop to the Law within, to the Word in the Heart (although directed thereto by Moſes, Deut. 30 14.) to learn there to do juſtly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with their God? Mic. 6. 8. Could they wait there to have their hearts Circumciſed by that Word of Power, and ſo to be waſhed and made clean? Nay were they not drowned in their outward Sacrifices, Temple, Incence, New-Moons, and Sabbaths, and ſuch kind of obſervations, and could not hear the Truth of the Lord as it was delivered by Moſes, nor as it was opened by the Prophets (Iſa. 1. 11.) So that this people, ſeeking to know the Lord from the Letter by his Wiſdom, could never come to the knowledge of him, but the place of his Light and Wiſdom was hid from them.

Again, when Chriſt came, and the Kingdom was Preached, and the everlaſting way of Redemption and Salvation made manifeſt, Could the wiſe Eye in the Greeks, or the wiſe Eye in the Jews ſee it? Did not the Greeks ſhut themſelves out by a Wiſdom above the Letter (as they thought) and the Jews by a Knowledge and Wiſdom which they had gathered out of the Letter? How Wiſe were they from the Letter, to reaſon againſt the King of Life? This man cannot be of God, for he is a breaker of his Sabbath. He is a Nazarite, and can any good thing come out of Nazareth? He ſaith the Son of Man muſt be lifted up, but we read that Chriſt abideth for ever, he is againſt Gods Temple, againſt Gods Day of Worſhip, gives his Diſciples ſuch ſcope and liberty, as neither the Phariſees nor John gave their Diſciples, but reviles our ſtrict and godly Teachers and Expounders of the Law, calling them Hypocrites, Blind-guides, &c. And mark with what a rough ſevere Spirit he reproves them, whereas they call him Maſter, and ſpeak mildly and gently to him. O what Jew in that Nature, in that Wiſdom, in that Spirit could but find matter and occaſion of ſtumbling at Chriſt, even from the Law and the Prophets.

And as they ſtumbled at the true Chriſt, ſo have all the Generations of Wiſe men ſince the Apoſtacy, all the Learned men generally (their Councils, Synods, Convocations, and Aſſemblies) ſtumbled at the true Church, looking for ſome ſuch like building as had been in the Apoſtles days, and not underſtanding and obſerving how the Lord took down that building (as it had been ſet up in the World) and how he prepared a place in the Wilderneſs for his true Church, unto which he gave her wings to fly, Rev. 12. And how afterwards the falſe Woman, or falſe Church got up in her ſtead, who with a Golden Cup of Fornication bewitched the Kings and Inhabiters of the Earth, Revel. 17. 2. (even Peoples, Multitudes, Nations, and Tongues, ver. 15.) So that they miſtook her for the true Church, and went into her Bed of Whoredoms? Which of all the Learned men, which of all the Councils of the Papiſts have ſeen this? Nay, which of the Proteſtant Councils, or Convocations, or Aſſemblies have beheld the ſtate of the True Church? Nay, have not every Sort and Sect of the Proteſtants endeavoured to build up ſome Image or Likeneſs of the True Church, not ſo much as ſuſpecting that ſhe was fled into, and was to abide in the Wilderneſs, for a time, times, and half a time? O what darkneſs hath covered the earth!! O how hath God befooled the Wiſe men of every ſort, the Wiſe men of every Age! The Wiſe Proteſtants, as well as the Wiſe Papiſts; the Wiſe Independants and Baptiſts, as well as the Wiſe Epiſcopalians and Presbyterians! And how blind and ſottiſh are Nations, and Peoples, that ſtill they think to find out the Truth by having a Synod, Aſſembly, or Convocation of the Wiſe men gathered together! Indeed they are fitteſt to rear upon an Image to pleaſe the earthly part of man, and the earthly Powers and Intereſts with, but truth never came in by that way, but the Wiſe and Learned have ſtill been ſhut out from it, and have proved Enemies to it. And whoſoever comes out of the Apoſtacy, from the Spirit and from the Truth, to the Spirit and Truth again, ſhall find nothing ſo great an Enemy, as the Wiſdom in himſelf and directions from the Wiſdom in others: for that which God leads, is a ſimple, a weak Babe, a Child to the Wiſdom of this World; and he leads it in a Path, which is wholly out of the line of this Worlds Wiſdom and Knowledge of the Scriptures, as the Path God choſe in Chriſts and the Apoſtles days, was out of the line of the Jews knowledge of the Scriptures. Such is the recovery out of the Apoſtacy: it is hid from all the Fleſhly-wiſe-men of this Age, even as the entrance into the Truths of the Kingdom was hid from all the Fleſhly-wiſe-men of that age. Happy is he who ceaſeth from ſtriving after the knowledge and comprehending of the things of God in this Worlds Spirit and Wiſdom, and waiteth in the humility and fear of the Lord, firſt to be made a Fool, that afterwards he may be made Wiſe unto everlaſting Life.

I. P.

An Epiſtle to all ſuch as obſerve the Seventh Day of the Week for the Sabbath of the Lord.

FRIENDS,

IN true love to your Souls, and in the fear of the Lord, I have a few things to lay before you, that the ſimplicity in you may not be deceived, and ye err from the way of Life, while ye may be eagerly ſeeking and preſſing towards it: For notwithſtanding that, if with the wrong eye ye be ſearching into Scripture, ye muſt needs miſ-read, miſ-underſtand, and miſ-practice; and ſo thereby will ſtill be running further and further from God, even while ye think ye are drawing nigher towards him. Be perſwaded therefore ſeriouſly to conſider (out of the Wiſdom from which God hides, in the Babiſh ſimplicity of his begetting, where the true life ſprings) theſe few things following.

1. That the whole Law of Moſes (the ten Words, as well as the Inſtitutions about Sacrifices and Worſhip, was added becauſe of Tranſgreſſion, Gal. 3. 19.

2. That the whole Law (the ten Words, as well as the Sacrifices) were repreſentations, figures, or ſhaddows of ſomewhat relating to Chriſt the Seed, ſubſervient to the Promiſe not making perfect, but pointing to, and making way for the bringing in of the better hope, Gal. 3. 21. Heb. 7. 19. The Law of the Commandments, or the ten Words did no more make perfect, than the other ſhaddows or Sacrifices did, but with them made way for the better hope, towards which they were to lead their Schollar, or Diſciple as a School-maſter.

3. That the whole diſpenſation of the Law was given to the Jews, and not to the Gentiles, Rom. 9. 4. And ſo not any thing there written bindeth the Gentiles (as there written) but only the Jews. God had another way of making his mind known to the Gentiles, Rom. 1: 19. and 2. 15. According to which he would judge them, v. 12. And not by the Law written, which was given to the Jews, which ſpake not to the Gentiles, but to the Jews who were under it, Rom. 3: 19.

4. That the duration of this diſpenſation of Moſes's Law in the Letter, was till Chriſt, the Seed ſhould come and fulfil it, Gal. 3. 19. and ver. 24, 25. Moſes his Family with all the Laws thereof, were to prepare for Chriſt the Seed, and to give way to him when he came: For when that diſpenſation which was figured out, is come; then that diſpenſation which did figure it out, is at an end, Heb. 3. 5, 6. Chriſt came to do the will, to keep and fulfil the whole Law, and ſo to put an end to that diſpenſation of it, Pſal. 40. Rom. 10. 4. And ſo he taketh away the firſt Adminiſtration of the Law, which was in the Letter, that he might eſtabliſh the ſecond, which is in the Spirit, Heb. 10. 9. 2 Cor. 3. 7, 11.

This then is the Truth, as it is in Jeſus concerning this thing, That Chriſt coming in the Fleſh, and fulfilling all the righteouſneſs (as well of the ten Commandments, as of the Sacrifices) puts an end to that diſpenſation wholly: So that henceforth both Jews and Gentiles are to come to him, to hear his Voice, This is my Beloved Son, hear him. And Moſes foretold, that when that Prophet came, he was to be heard in all things; whoſe whole Miniſtration was but to figure out what the Son was afterwards to fulfil in Spirit, Heb 3. 5. Who would be faithful to give forth the entire Law and Subſtance of life to his Houſe or Family of Believers, as Moſes was faithful to give the entire ſhadow to his Houſe or Family, of that Nation of the Jews, ver. 6. So that here, in the Goſpel Chriſt being come, the New Covenant and Law in the Spirit takes place, and not the Old Covenant or Law in the Letter. And this Law is more inward, more full, more cloſe, more ſpiritual and more laſting, than the Miniſtration of Moſes Law to them of old time was, Gal. 3. 25. &c, And it is the Miniſtration of this Law of the Spirit which is not to paſs away from the Diſciples of Chriſt, until all be fulfilled; but is to remain a Sword againſt every Luſt and deſire of the fleſh in them, until they all with the very root of them be thereby cut down, Mat. 3. 12. Heb. 4 12. Mat. 5. 17, 18.

of

Queſt. But what were the ten Commandments a figure or ſhaddow of?

Anſw. The Tables of Stone were a repreſentation or figure of the fleſhly Tables of the heart, wherein the new Law of the Covenant of life is written.

The writing of the Law of Commandments in the Tables of Stone, was a figure of the writing of this new Law by the Finger of God's Spirit in the heart. The outward writing in the outward Tables, was a figure of the inward writing in the inward Tables.

The Law it ſelf of Commandments, which was written in thoſe Tables, was a figure of the Law of life which is to be written in theſe Tables.

And this Law thus received, thus written, is eaſily fulfilled, whereas the Law in the letter, becauſe of the weakneſs of the Fleſh was very hard to be fulfilled, and generally proved an hand-writing of Ordinances againſt the Jews: For he that was guilty of one, was guilty of all, and ſo upon every tranſgreſſion had the force and ſtrength of the whole Law againſt him. And whoſoever now runs back to the Law in the letter, to take up any command as held forth in it, and ſo making himſelf a Debtor thereto, will be found a breaker thereof in Spirit, even one that hath more Gods than the Lord, a maker of Images, or likneſſes of things in Heaven, or things in Earth, if not of both, a taker of the Name in Vain, a Prophaner of the Sabbath, &c. For he that hath not received the Law of the Spirit of life in Chriſt Jeſus, knoweth not the Lord of life to be the only true God, but maketh Images in his mind, and taketh his Name in vain, not feeling the living power thereof, nor can keep his Sabbath (ceaſing from Sin, forbearing his own Works, his own Willing and Running, and entring into the reſt of the Goſpel) for there is but one day of reſt holy to the Lord; all the Sabbaths of the Laws were but ſigns of it, having but a ſignificative or repreſentative holineſs; but the day of redemption which the Lord hath made, Pſal. 118. 24. (in which his redeemed rejoyce, and reſt to him) that hath the true holineſs. This was it which came by Chriſt, the other came by Moſes, John 1. 17. Moſes his Family or Children were to keep that day, (that was the day for the Servants, who were to be exerciſed under the ſhaddows) but the believers are to keep this day in the Spirit, to enter into this Reſt by the Faith, Heb. 4 and to worſhip the Father in it, in the Spirit and in the Truth, on the Mountain of his holineſs, John 4. 23. whereof the other Mountain, Temple, Worſhip and day was but a ſhadow.

Now the ſum or ſubſtance of this Law of the Spirit, may outwardly be ſignified in divers ſhort Words, as Love that comprehends the whole of it, ſo doth Fear; there is the whole wiſdom and courſe of the life comprehended alſo, or thus, Thou ſhalt not luſt, (thus it was adminiſtred to Paul, Rom. 7.) or thou ſhalt keep the Sabbath, or believe in the Light, follow the Light. The obſerving of any one of theſe in the Spirit, is the keeping of the Law; for every breach of the Law is out of the love, out of the Fear, a luſt of the fleſhly Spirit, a tranſgreſſion of the Sabbath, or ſpiritual reſt to God, out of the Light, and out of the Faith. But if ye will read this in the Spirit, and come to the true Righteouſneſs of the Faith, which is received in the obedience of Faith, to the Law of the Spirit, ye muſt come to the Word of Faith, to which Paul directs, Rom. 10 6. By the hearing whereof is the juſtification, and not by a bare believing that Chriſt's bloud was ſhed: for it is the vertue of the bloud which ſaves, which vertue is in the living Word, and is felt and received in hearing, believing, and obeying that Word, thereby bringing into unity and conformity with him, both in his death, and in his reſurrection and life. This is the only way to life, be not deceived: there is not, nor ever was any other. O wait on the Lord in his fear, that it may be opened to you, and that ſlain in you which cannot bear the ſtreightneſs thereof, and with which there is no erring.

From a Friend to your Eternal Peace, Iſaac Penington the Younger.

THE

THE

New Covenant of the Gospel

Distinguished from the Old Covenant of the Law,

AND

The Rest or Sabbath of Believers, from the Rest or Sabbath of the Jews; which differ as much from each other, as the Sign and Shadow doth from the thing signified and shadowed out.

In Answer to some Queries of W. Salters, tending to enforce upon Christians the Observation of the Jewish Sabbath, which was given under the Law to the Jews for a sign.

As also to some other Queries sent in Writing upon an occasion of an Epistle directed to all such as observe the seventh day of the Week for a Sabbath now under the Gospel. As likewise some Letters to the same purpose.

With a brief Explication of the Mystery of the six days Labour, and seventh days Sabbath.

Whereto are added some Considerations propounded to the Jews, tending towards their Conversion to that which is the Life and Spirit of the Law.

By Isaac Penington the Younger.

We which have believed, do enter into rest, Heb: 4. 3.

Let no man therefore judge you in meat or in drink, or in respect of an holy day, or of the New Moon, or Sabbaths, which are a shadow of things to come, but the Body is Christ, Col. 2: 16, 17.

The PREFACE.

THE Apostle Paul saith, That God had made them able Ministers of the New Testament, not of the Letter, but of the Spirit, 2 Cor. 3. 6.

After the dispensation of the Law, which was a shadow of good things to come; and after the dispensation of the Prophets who foretold of better days, and of a better state to come, than the days and state under the Law was; it pleased first God to send the fore runner John the Baptist, in the spirit and power of Elias, to prepare the way for the King and his Kingdom; and then to send the King himself in the fulness of his Spirit, to gather Disciples to him, and to furnish them them with a competent measure of the same Spirit, to raise up a Spiritual Seed to him, in whom he would set up his Kingdom, Dwelling, Walking and Reigning there, causing his Light to shine from thence round about the earth, as from his holy City founded upon his holy Hill of Sion.

Now those Disciples or Ministers whom he chose to raise up this Holy Seed unto him, he made fit and able to Minister his New Covenant. by which it was to be raised: yea he furnished them with such a power of his Spirit, that they were able through him to minister, not in the Letter as the old Covenant was ministred, which left the people still dead; nay, because of the transgressing nature, made the offence abound, and so encreased Death upon them) but in the quickning spirit, which raiseth from Death, and bringeth into the light of the Living, to walk with the Living God towards the Land of Eternal rest and peace. So that that which they ministred was spirit, and that which they ministred to was spiritual. By the power of the spirit, in Preaching the living word of Faith, they reached through the Vail to that which lay in Death, they stirred up a living Principle, and ministred life to it through the spirit, Gal. 3. 5. and such as were born of this living Principle, they taught to live in the spirit, to walk in the spirit, to be made perfect by the spirit, and not to run back to the Ministration of the Letter (as was proper for the Jews in their day) after the manner of the former dispensation, but to keep in the living Principle, to grow up in the Seed, into the eternal life and immortality of the Gospel.

Mark well, (O ye Christians, who desire eternal life) the different way of Ministration between the Law and Gospel, The Law was a Ministration of the Letter, in which they were to wait for assistance from the Spirit, by which they might be kept in the Faith of, and be made obedient to the Law, Nehem. 9. 20. The Gospel is a Ministration of the Spirit, wherein they are to begin with the spirit, and to go on with the Spirit; not to gather outward Rules out of the Letter, from what is written or spoken, but to keep to the living Principle, and feel refreshment to that, in reading or hearing what is written or spoken by the Spirit. And thus the Scriptures being read, or any one speaking from God being heard, it is mingled with Faith, and becomes profitable, feeding and refreshing the young tender Plant, the living Principle, and causing it to grow up into God: whereas whatever is understood, or received, or held out of this, feeds but the earthly, and doth but thicken the Vail over the living Seed, to which the Kingdom belongs, and to which the Gospel is sent to be Preached to raise it, that it might live, and thrive, and grow up into its stature, that so it might inherit.

The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand, said John the Baptist; Mat. 3. 2. It is come unto you, said Christ, Mat. 12, 18. that Power of Life which was made manifest in him, was it: and this Kingdom is also within you, saith Christ to the Pharisees, Luke 17. 21. The Pharisees demanded of him when the Kingdom of God should come? It cometh not, saith he, with outward shew or observation, it cometh not that way you look for it, to wit, by the manifestation of an outward glorious King, to Reign outwardly in the Common-wealth of the outward Israel: but the Kingdom is within you. How was it within them? Christ explains to them in another place, it was in them like a Grain of Mustard Seed; it was the least of all the Seeds in their hearts. There were many great seeds of darkness there, but yet there was also one little Seed of Light. It was there as well as the rest (though less than them all) and did sometimes cast some glimmerings of Light, and of its shining in the darkness, though the darkness could not comprehend it. This Seed was also likened to Leaven, which being received by Faith into the lump, would Leaven the whole lump, and bring it into the savour and Dominion of the Kingdom. Now the Ministry niſtry of the Apoſtles was to turn men from Satans Kingdom to this Kingdom, from his large compaſs of Dominion in the heart, to this narrow Seed; from his great Territories of darkneſs, to this little Principle of Light; from his great power of Death, to this little weak Thing of God, wherein the Eternal Power and Godhead is made manifeſt, as this comes to be opened and encreaſed by the Spirit. Here Light is ſown for the Righteous, and Joy for the Upright in Heart; where it is to grow up, and from whence it is to be reaped after its growth to perfection.

Oh how long have Chriſtians (ſo called) wanted the Spirit! How have they wearyed themſelves, in running to and fro about the Letter, to find out the mind of God, and are ſtill unſatisfied concerning it, and even drowned in fleſhly imaginations and contentions about it! They ſeek to have that ſatisfied which is not to be ſatisfied: They ſeek to have that know which is not to know: they offer to God the Service, Faith and Obedience of that, which he will not accept; and keep that from him which he calls for. They ſeek for the Spirit in the Letter, according to the manner of the Law; but wait not to feel it in the Seed, quickning the Seed, raiſing up the Seed, and dwelling in the Seed, whither Chriſt and his Apoſtles directed to wait for it. They look for that Knowledge, that Faith, that Life, that Spirit from words written, which the Apoſtle preached was to be waited for from the word in the heart. And by this means they raiſe up ſeveral buildings, and get various kinds of knowledge, each according to his underſtanding and apprehenſions of the Letter, every ſort being very confident concerning their own apprehenſions that they are the right: And thus they wander from the City of the Living God, and from the Living knowledge, building up Images, ſome outwardly, ſome in their minds, ſome more groſs, ſome more refined; but all more or leſs who are not acquainted with the living knowledge and Truths of God, but have gathered apprehenſions with the wrong Tool from the Letter, have ſet up ſomewhat elſe inſtead of the true Life and Power, (The knowledge of the true God, which is Life Eternal) the knowledge of the true Chriſt (whom no man can indeed call Lord, but by the Spirit) the knowledge of the everlaſting Goſpel (which alone is read in the Spirit) the knowledge of the ſpirit (which alone is read in the Seed) theſe are ſtrange things to the ſeveral Generations of the Chriſtians of this Age, who commonly know no more of them, than according to the apprehenſions they have taken in concerning them, even from that wiſdom and underſtanding which hath not a capacity in it to receive them, but muſt be deſtroyed before theſe things can be underſtood aright, 1 Cor. 1. 19. O that ye could read in the eternal light of life! O Chriſtians, Chriſtians, O that ye could ſee how your underſtandings, and knowledge from the Letter ſtand as much in your way, as ever the Jews did in theirs, and muſt be broken down as flat as ever theirs was, before the Foundation of the Kingdom can be laid, and the building of Eternal life reared up in your Hearts. Be not offended at my Zeal for the Lord my God, and for your Souls. It hath coſt me very dear, what I teſtifie to you in the ſimplicity and integrity of my heart; and this I know to be moſt certainly true, that that ſpirit of man which without the leadings of the eternal light, hath neſtled it ſelf in the Letter, got a ſeat of wiſdom and knowledge there, raiſed up a building from thence, either of inward or outward Worſhip, will be diſſettled and driven thence, even by that very ſpirit which gave forth the Letter. And when this is done, and Gods ſpirit again openeth the Letter, O how ſweet, how profitable, how clear, how refreſhing will it be, being read in the Light of the Spirit, and in the Faith which is in Chriſt Jeſus, which is begotten in the heart by the word of Faith, which is nigh there. From that Light, from that Spring (as the Lord pleaſed to open, enlarge and fill the Veſſel) all the words of the holy men of God came; and in that alone they have their ſweetneſs, freſhneſs, freſhneſs, vertue and fulneſs: but how to read the words outwardly written keeping to that, and underſtanding them in that (and how to keep out the natural man with his natural underſtanding, which knoweth not the things of the Spirit, nor can know or receive them, 1 Cor. 2. 14.) is a myſtery to them who have not been turned inwards to this word, nor have known or heard his Voice. The Lord is recovering the myſtery of Life: and as that appears, the Myſtery of Death under all its paint (under all its painted Faith, painted Love, painted Knowledge, painted Obedience, painted Duties, Ordinances and Worſhip) will be made maniſeſt. Happy is he, whoſe inward Building will ſtand, whoſe Gold will abide the fire and Everlaſting Burnings of the Jealous God, whoſe Eye ſalve was bought of the true Spirit, whoſe Raiment is right ſpun: but exceeding hard will it go with that man, whom the Lord (when he cometh to ſearch him) ſhall not find a right inward Jew, as he took himſelf to be, nor truly Circumciſed by the Lords eternal Spirit with the light thereof; but only by ſuch a Circumciſing Knife as he himſelf had formed out of the Letter of the Scriptures. This is the great miſery of Chriſtians, the Vail lies over their hearts, even the ſame Vail which covered the Letter of Moſes from the Jews; and they are groping after the mind of God in the Letter, but the life is hid from them, even as it was from the Jews: and becauſe they alſo ſay they ſee. and that they have the life and the ſpirit, therefore the Vail remains, and the Caul of Iniquity ſurrounds them, ſo that they cannot ſee into that which makes free from it, but remain yet in Captivity and Bondage to the Enemy.

Some Queries of W. Salters, tending to inforce upon Chriſtians the Obſervation of the Jewiſh Sabbath, Anſwered.

Query I.

WHether the Fourth Commandement expreſt, Exod. 20. be not moral and perpetual, as well as the other nine be, yea or no?

Anſwer. That Covenant, which God made with the Jews at Mount Horeb, when they came out of the Land of Egypt, was not to be perpetual, but to make way for that Covenant, Prieſthood, Law-giver and Law which was to be perpetual. That Law, ſo given forth, made nothing perfect, but was a continual hand-writing of Ordinances againſt the Jews, and the very Salvation of the Jews was by another Covenant and by the Laws thereof, Deut. 30. 11: By which Covenant and by which Law they might be made perfect, aud come to the better hope. Which other Covenant is the Covenant of Grace, or the Law of the Spirit of Life in Chriſt Jeſus, or the Word which is nigh in the mouth and in the heart, and ſpeaks Life to them that can hear and believe the joyful ſound of it.

Now that this former Covenant was not to abide, but to give place to the other, ſee Heb. 8. Which treateth of the New Covenant. For God's ſpeaking of a New Covenant, importeth that he himſelf hath made the firſt Old, ver. 13. It had had a long continuance among that people of the Jews; but now againſt the coming of Chriſt, who was to be Mediator of a better Covenant, v. 6. even of a New Covenant, v. 8. as it had been long decaying and waxing Old, So now it was ready to vaniſh away, as v. 13.

And indeed it was neceſſary it ſhould paſs away, for it was not faultleſs. How, not faultleſs? was there any ſin in the Holy Law and Miniſtration of God by Moſes? can there any juſt blame be found in any thing that proceeded from the Lord? Nay, ſurely the miniſtration of Moſes was holy and without blame: but it was weak through the fleſh, (Rom. 8. 3.) and therefore God would lay that aside, so far as it was weak, and suited to the weakness of a fleshly people, and bring instead thereof a ministration of the Law in the Spirit, which should be lively, and powerful, and effectual in the Spirits of his People.

That which God aimed at in a Covenant, was to keep him and his people together: Now this Covenant was weak on the peoples part, they continued not in it, and so, according to that Covenant, God dis-regarded them, v. 9. Now God finding this Covenant not able to effect his purpose of Love towards his people, he finds fault with it, bringing forth another or second, which this gives place to, v. 7. And this other Covenant, or New Covenant is not according to that. How not according to that? Why thus: It was not written outwardly, as that was· Not according to that which I made with their Fathers, when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the Land of Egypt, ver. 9. For I will put my Laws in their mind, and write them in their Hearts, ver. 10. And here they shall learn the knowledge of God every one from the least to the greatest, v. 11. So that all the Children of this Covenant shall be taught of the Lord, and learn the Law from his mouth; not as it was given at Mount Sinai (which Ministration was to the Children of the Old Covenant) but as it goes forth out of Sion, and from the Jerusalem which is above, which is the Mother of all the Children of this Covenant, and nourisheth them not with the Law of Moses, but with the Milk of her own Breasts.

Now if any think to restrain this to the Types and Shadows of the Law, they therein err: for the main Covenant was the Law of Commandements, which they still broke, worshipping other Gods, making Images and likenesses, taking his Name in vain, prophaning his Sabbaths, and so of the rest. It is true, The first Covenant had a Worldly Sanctuary, a Tabernacle wherein was the Candlestick, &c. But the chief matter of the Covenant was the ten Words, therefore the Tables wherein it was written were called the Tables of the Covenant, or the Tables wherein the Covenant was contained, Heb. 9. 4. Yea the ten words are expresly called the Covenant it self, Deut. 4. 13. Observe therefore diligently these few things following iu the fear of the Lord.

First, The Ten Commandments, given by Moses from Mount Horeb, was the Covenant which God made with the Jews, when he took them by the hand to lead them out of the Land of Egypt.

Secondly, That Covenant God found fault with, because it was not able (through the weakness of the flesh in their parts) to keep them to God.

Thirdly, Against Christ's coming God provideth a New Covenant, a better Covenant for him to be Mediator of, which Covenant was not outward like the former, but inward, put in the mind, writ in the heart. As the people was inward, the Sanctuary inward, the Ark inward, the Tables of the Covenant inward, so the Covenant it self and the writing of it was inward also. And this Covenant, as it is only written in the Spirit, and in that which is Spiritual; So it cannot be read in the Letter.

Fourthly, That wherever this New Covenant cometh, the other waxeth old, whether to a Person or People. Where ever the Law of the Spirit of Life is made manifest, the Law of the Letter is swallowed up in it, and is known no more, but as it is comprehended, and is brought forth in it. And he that is in the Spirit, and hath received the Law of Life from the Spirit, knoweth not Christ after the flesh, how much less Moses? but taking the whole Ministration of Moses in the Spirit, not only the Ten Commandements, but all the Sacrifices and other Types also, here they are owned and received, even in Christ the substance: but the Ten Commandements, so far as they were a shadow, pass away before the Son of Righteousness, as well as the other Types and Shadows of the Law.

Objection. But was there any thing of the Ten Words a Shadow? Do they not all command abiding things?

Answ. Moses his whole Ministration (as it stood in the Letter without) was but a shadow of the fulness and perfection of that Ministry of the Spirit which was to come, and to be set up by the Son in his House, Heb. 3. 5, 6. Moses his people, but a shadow of the spiritual people, Moses his Priests and Sacrifices, but a shadow of the spiritual Priests and Sacrifices. Moses his Law in the letter ministred from Mount Sinai, but a shadow of Christs Law in the spirit to be ministred from Mount Sion, (2 Cor. 3. 10, 11.) The Law it self which was given by him, but a shadow of the Grace and Truth which came by

Jesus

Jesus Christ, John 1. 17. Of whose fulness every Believer receives a portion of the same Grace, even Grace for Grace, v. 16. which Grace is to be his Teacher, both of what he should deny, and turn from, and how he should live and carry himself, both towards God and Man, Titus 2. 11, 12. Look particularly on the Commandments, and see if there will not appear something of a shaddow in them.

The first Commandment to that people, That they should have none other Gods (like the Heathen) but him only whose powerful Arm had brought them out of Ægypt. This is a shadow of the Subjection of the spiritual Israel singly in Spirit, to the Lord of Spirits, who by his mighty Arm redeemeth them out of spiritual Ægypt. Now must they bow to other Lords no more, (Isa. 26. 13.) as they did bow in the Land of Ægypt, (Oh who can read this!) but bow alone at the Name of Jesus, and be subject to the Arm of his power in their Spirits alone for ever.

The second Commandment, That they should not make any Images or Likenesses of things in Heaven or Earth, or bow down to them, is a shadow of what God requires of what spiritual Israel in the inward, where all Likenesses, Inventions, Imitations, Resemblances of what they have seen in the spirit above, or beneath in the earthly nature, they must not make themselves, nor bow to such as any others make.

And they must not Take the Name (of the Lord their Redeemer) in vain, pretending to the living power, when it manifests not it self in them, pretending to meet in the living Name, and to Worship in the Spirit, when they are gone a whoring from it, and become strangers to it. What should I mention any more? It is easie to observe, how the other Commandments were shadows of the inward Innocency and Purity, which the Believer receives inwardly into his heart, from the powerful operation of the Law of the Spirit of life in him.

Objection. But may any of these Laws be broken? If they may not be broken, then they are perpetual.

Answ. The reason why they may not be broken, is not because that the dispensation of them is still in force, but because the dispensation of the Law of the Spirit, comprehends all the Righteousness of Moses's Law: and the end of Christ's dissolving that Covenant, was not that any man might have liberty to do any thing which is there manifested to be unrighteous; but that the righteousness of it might be fulfilled in them who receive his Law in the Spirit, which never could be fulfilled by receiving of Moses his Law in the letter, Rom. 8. 4. And mark this diligently, ye that have been exercised in Spirit towards God, the Law of sin is nearer to us, than any Law of the letter can come; the Covenant of Death and Hell (with the Laws thereof) are written within by the finger of Satan; and that which blots them out must be as near, even an inward Covenant, an inward writing from the Eternal Word in the heart, by the Law of his Eternal Spirit of Life.

This then is my Answer. Moses his Law in substance remains, as it is taken in by Christ, and administred by him in Spirit; but not as it was given in the letter to the Jews; for so it was a shadow, making nothing perfect, but making way for the better hope, for the Covenant established upon better promises, for the inward Law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus; which effects that in the Spirits of his people, which Moses his Law could by no means do.

Quest. But what is the substance of the Law which abides?

Answ. The substance of the Law is Love: To love God above all (above all without, above all within) and to love ones Neighbour as ones self. To receive this love from God, and to bring it forth in his Spirit; this is the substance of the Law, this is the thing which the Law drove at in a shadow. The Law is fulfilled in this one Word Love: but that love must be received from God which fulfils the Law. A man may strive to love abundantly, and strive to obey in love, and yet fall short of the Covenant; but the Lord must circumcise the heart before that love can spring up, which fulfils the Law, Deut. 30. 6.

Objection. But doth not the Apostle Paul say, That by the Law is the knowledge of sin, and that he had not known Lust, except the Law had said, Thou shalt not Covet; Plainly referring to the tenth Commandment, which saith, Thou shalt not Covet.

Answ. By the Law outwardly was the Knowledge of sin outwardly to the people of the Jews; by the Law inwardly is the knowledge of sin inwardly to the Spirits of Disciples. Now a little consider and wait on the Lord, to know what administration of the Law it was that Paul knew sin by: Whether it was by Moses his administration of the Law in the letter, or by Christs Ministration of his Law to him in the Spirit? It is rendred in our last Translation, Thou shalt not Covet: but it might more properly be rendred, Thou shalt not Lust: For if ἐπιθυμία be properly rendred Lust, then οὐκ ἐπιθυμήσεις may as properly be rendred, Thou shalt not Lust. And he that hath received the administration of the Law in the Spirit, knoweth it thus to issue forth from the Word of life, into his Spirit. It discovers the Lusts and Affections of the Flesh, which draw from the yoak and subjection to the Spirit; and then by a command from the living Spirit, it hedgeth up the way after the other lovers, saying, Thou shalt not Lust. And as the Law of the flesh ariseth, kindling desires after Vanity, and after fleshly Ease and Delight: so the Law of the Spirit arises in the inner man, forbidding, pricking, stopping, and limiting that which would be at liberty out of the life and purity of the holy Law. And here begin the bitter Fights, and terrible Battels and Conflicts, between the two Seeds, wherein all the powers of Heaven, Earth, and Hell are engaged.

Now because this interpretation of Paul's Words may seem strange and uncouth, to persons who have drunk in another apprehension, and have taken it for granted, that Paul there refers to the tenth Commandment; consider the place yet further, and perhaps the Lord may please to open it to you from the very letter, even as he hath opened it to others immediately by his Spirit, by causing them to feel the thing which Paul felt, and to receive the Law as he received it.

Paul (in that seventh of the Romans) speaks of three States which he had known.

First, a state of life before the Law; I was alive without the Law once, v. 9.

Secondly, a state of death after the Commandment came; Then sin revived, and he dyed. When the Word of Life came with its living Commandment, to set upon sin indeed, then sin would dally no longer, it would no longer lie as dead, and let Paul live in his Zeal and Worship as he had done before; but it slew him, it shewed its power in him, sometimes deceiving him, and sometimes forcing him from that which was holy, Spiritual, Just, and Good, and to that which was unholy, insomuch as he did do what he hated, and could not do what he loved; and found himself a wretched man, and in miserable captivity, because of the Body of death, and the Law of sin in his Members, v. 23, 24.

3*dly.* A state of life, after the Commandment had done its Work, in throughly slaying of him. When that was removed, which the Law came against then, then he was marryed to another Husband, then he could bring forth Fruit unto God, Rom. 7. 4, then he could walk freely with God, not after the Flesh, but after the Spirit, c. 8. 4. and rejoyce in the life, and the peace, instead of roaring out because of the death, which came from the carnal mind, v. 5.

Now, When was the time when Paul was alive without the Law? Was it not when he was righteous, when he was whole? then he had no need of the Physician, then he had not received the Wound, even the terrible Wound which Christ then gives the Soul when he calleth to it by his Spirit, and giveth forth the Commandment, Thou shalt not Lust. When he had Confidence in the Flesh, being circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the Tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews, as touching the Law a Pharisee, concerning Zeal persecuting the Church; touching the righteousness which is in the Law blameless, Phil. 3. 4, 5, 6. Here was a living man: and his exact receiving the ministration of the Law in the letter, was part of his life: yea but he had not received the commandment yet that slew him. Paul was alive yet, and could flourish in the freshness his life, zeal, and abundant knowledge under this administration of the Law. But when God, who caused the light to shine out of darkness, shined in his heart, when God began the Work of the new Creation in him by his living light when the Commandment came fresh from the Spirit (the Commandment which was ordained to life, Rom. 7. 10. which the ministration of the Law in the letter was not, no not to the Jews, but another, Deut. 30. 14, 15.) then Paul began to feel the Sting of death, death, and the Power of sin, which now arose up in its strength to retain one of its subjects, and to keep the stronger man than he, from dispossessing him, if he could. And now, how was poor Paul rent and torn, and harrased by the Enemy, and made to see and feel his miserable Captivity, until he had passed through the death, and was redeemed from under sin, and consequently from under this bitter Ministration of the Spirit, by his holy, pure, and severe Law against sin! For the man being dead, the Law hath no force against the Seed, nor against that which is one with, and lives in the Seed: And this is it he speaks to the Romans concerning, who also were acquainted with this Ministration of the Law, as verse 1. of this seventh chap. Now is it not very manifest, that Paul knew not sin spiritually by the Ministration of the Law in the Letter, but was alive without it, until he felt the Ministry of it from Christ in the Spirit? And that soon struck at his life, and by degrees slew it, killing the Body of sin in him, with its Members, and so preparing him for the Marriage to another Husband.

Object. But by this then, a man is not only freed from the Law of the Letter, but also from the Law of the Spirit: for if this Law be ministred to him till death pass upon him, and till he be married to Christ; then after death is passed upon him, and he is Baptised into Death and risen with Christ and married to him, then this Law passeth away likewise.

Answ. There is a double ministration of the Law of the Spirit: a sharp ministration against sin, and a sweet ministration in the renewed Spirit. The ministration against sin passeth away, as the sin is wrought out: but then the sweet Spiritual current and law of its holy and pure life in the renewed Spirit, is more vigorous and full. So that the law of the Spirit remaineth for ever, but its convictions, its reproofs, its chastisements towards the Worldly part, diminish and pass away, as the worldly part is wasted: and its sweet comforting presence, pure peace, fresh joy and life increase, as the new man grows and flourishes.

Quer. 2. Whether the scope and drift of that fourth Precept, be not to perswade us to lay by the works of our calling one day in seven, that we may on that day wholly give up our selves to wait on the Lord, in the performance of duties of Piety and Mercy, for our attaining of, and growing in Sanctification and Holiness.

Answ. The scope and drift of the fourth Commandement was to injoyn the Jews to keep the Sabbath strictly as a sign, by forbearing all works, and sanctifying it as a day of rest to the Lord according to the law, Ezek. 20. 12. But the substance being come (Christ, who is the body, Col. 2. 17.) the day and rest of the Spirit being known, the sign is at an end, and the thing signifyed taketh place. So that the rest is now in Christ, through the Faith, by his Spirit, where the Worship is. And this in the Gospel comprehends the time of Worship, the place of Worship, and the Worship it self (which are spiritual) where in substance all is known, enjoyed and solemnized, which was figured out in shadows under the law. The sanctification being come, the rest being come, the Lord of the Sabbath being come, shall not the sign of the sanctification, the sign of the rest, which rest the Lord of the Sabbath was to give, and lead the Spirits of his people into) pass away? Exod. 31. 13.

Quer. 3 Whether the fourth Precept, do not as strictly bind us to keep Holy the seventh day, of or from the Creation, as it bindeth us to the observation of a seventh Day?

Answ. The fourth Commandment did not require the observation of a seventh day in general, but of the seventh day in particular, of those of whom it required it: for what the Law required, it required of those who were under the Law, and not of others, Rom. 3. 19.

Quer. 4. If the seventh days Sabbath, be not moral and perpetual, then how comes it to pass that it was instituted or appointed from the first Creation, when man by guilt stood in no need of a Saviour, nor yet of such a Ceremony, Gen. 2. 3.

Answ. That it was instituted or appointed from the first Creation, or that God intended to require of man the Observation of it had he abided in innocency, is not manifest in the Scriptures: but that God did then bless and sanctifie it (in relation to the service he had for it) that is expressed in Scripture; Gen. 2. 2 3. And that this was one end for which he did sanctifie it, namely that it might be for a sign unto that people of the Jews, (which was the people he chose to set up his signs and figures of the invisible things among) the Scripture also testifies, Exod. 20, 11. But what further meaning there is in it, and what relation it hath to all the redeemed of the Lord, in whom, God brings about the New Creation, with the reſt thereof, (as he did the old) it is better to wait to know and feel in the Spirit, than to be prying into with the curious, ſearching, fleſhly underſtanding.

and

Quer. 5. If the ſeventh days Sabbath be not moral, and belonging both to Jews and Gentiles: then how comes it to paſs that it was given to all men in Adam, when there was no difference between Jew and Gentile? and was obſerved by command from the beginning, as appears by comparing together Gen. 2. 3. and Exod. 16. 18, to 31.

Anſw. That it was given to Adam in innocency, or to all men in Adam, I do not find, nor do theſe places quoted make it manifeſt. But its being practiſed before the giving of the Law, doth not prove its perpetuity, or that it was not given for a ſign: for Circumciſion was inſtituted and obſerved long before the giving of the Law, (Gen. 17.) and Sacrificing long before that, (Gen. 4.) both which were ſigns of the inward, and not perpetual, as to the outward obſervation of them.

Quer. 6 If when our Lord Jeſus ſaith, Mat. 5. 18. that till Heaven and Earth paſs, one jot or tittle ſhould in no wiſe paſs from the Law. If he there meant not the Law of the Ten Commandements, expreſſed in Exod. 20. then what Law did he mean?

Anſw. By the Law is meant the whole Miniſtration of Moſes, as by the Prophets, ver. 17. the whole miniſtration of the Prophets: and that it is not to be reſtrained to the ten Commandments, is manifeſt by the inſtances which Chriſt gives, more of which relate to other parts of the Law, then to the Commandements; for there are but two inſtances out of the ten Commandments, but there are four inſtances out of other parts of the Law, as may be ſeen, ver. 31, 33, 38. and 43. of that Chapter. So that Chriſt doth not only take in the Ten Commandments, but he takes in the reſt of Moſes his Miniſtry in the Spirit, not one jot or tittle whereof is to paſs, till it be all fulfilled; but was to ſtand in the letter to the Jews its full ſeaſon, and then in the Spirit till all be finiſhed there alſo.

The Law and the Prophets were untill John, from that time the Kingdom of God began to be Preached, Luke 16. 16. and both the Law, Prophets, and John himſelf were to decreaſe and Chriſt and his Kingdom to increaſe. Chriſt in this 5 of Matth. had been Preaching the Kingdom, declaring to whom it appertained, and the bleſſedneſs of ſuch: Now this his manner of Preaching might ſeem to derogate from the Law of Moſes, and from the Prophets, whoſe Doctrine and diſpenſation hereby he might ſeem to deſtroy. But Chriſt taketh away the occaſion of ſuch a miſ-apprehenſion, bidding them not think he came to deſtroy the Law or the Prophets, for he was not come for that end, but to fulfil. Wherein he doth theſe two things.

Firſt, he eſtabliſheth that miniſtration of the Law and Prophets for its ſeaſon, till it ſhould be fulfilled by him the ſubſtance, who was to fulfil all the righteouſneſs of it. It ſhould laſt out its whole day, and ſhould not fail in the leaſt Tittle of it (as he himſelf explaineth it, Luke 16. 17.) till the Heaven and earth of the Jews paſſed away, Heb. 12 27, 28.

Secondly, He taketh in the ſubſtance of it into his own miniſtration, and layeth it more inwardly, and cloſely, and largely upon the Spirits of his Diſciples, than Moſes had done in the Letter upon his Diſciples. But he doth not give it out in full, but only giveth a taſte to his Diſciples how ſtraitly he would miniſter it to them by his Spirit, as they came under his Yoke, Math. 11. 29. which Yoke is his Spirit or the Law thereof, as Moſes's Yoke was the Law of the Letter.

Now mark yet further, Chriſt doth not give out the Letter for his Law, as it was delivered by Moſes: but requireth ſomewhat of his Diſciples, which comprehends the Letter. As now when he adminiſters the Law againſt Revenge, from whence Murther proceeds, he doth not ſay, Thou ſhalt not kill, as Moſes had ſaid to them of old time, but ſaith, thou ſhalt not be angry without a cauſe, nor give thy Brother any provoking language, ver. 22. Nor does he ſay, Thou ſhalt not commit Adultery, but thou ſhalt not let out a luſtful look, nor let in a luſtful thought, v. 28. And had he ſpoken here about the Sabbath, would he have adminiſtred it in the letter, or would he have commanded the obſervation of the true Sabbath, where no Work is done, no Fire kindled (nor ſo much as any ſticks gathered to make a fire with) nor no Burthen born; but the Man-ſervant, the Maid-ſervant, the Oxe, the Aſs, and every Creature reſts in the the Seed. The Son of man is Lord of the Sabbath. It is true he subjected himself under the Law, but yet he was still Lord: and he maketh all his, Kings and Priests to God, who being once baptised into his Death, know also his Resurrection and Reign.

Object. But all the other Commandements are to be kept according to the Letter; for although it should prove so, that Believers are not bound to observe them by vertue of Moses's ministration in the Letter, but by vertue of the ministration of the Spirit, yet the Commandments themselves are kept: but take away the outward observation of the Sabbath, and this Commandment hath no fulfilling at all according to the Letter.

Answ. This ariseth from the different nature of the thing: for the other Commandments require or forbid that which is either good or evil in its own nature; but this is but good or evil by institution or command. To keep a day, or not to keep a day, is not good or evil in it self, but as it is commanded, or forbidden, or left at liberty in the Lord, and according as it is done or forborn by him, who received the command or prohibition, or is let into the liberty of the Gospel, Rom. 14.6. So that if the Nature of the thing required in this Commandment, had been alike with the nature of the things required or forbidden in the other Commandments, it would have been as durable after the dissolution of that Covenant, as the other things therein contained were, which vanish not in themselves upon the dissolution of that Covenant, but only pass into an higher way of dispensation, where they retain their full vertue and strength, even according to the letter, though not by vertue of the administration of the letter, another higher and fuller administration of a better Covenant challenging and taking its own place.

Qu. 7. If the Seventh Days Sabbath be not Moral, but and Abrogated Ceremony, now since Death of Christ; Then wherefore should our Saviour instruct his Beloved Apostles, that must instruct Christian Churches to Pray, (Mat. 24. 20.) that they might not fly on the Sabbath, knowing that their flight would fall out more then thirty years after his death?

Answ. Great was the hardship the Jews under-went in the siege of Jerusalem, by that apprehension of theirs that they ought not to do any work (not so much as of defending themselves) on the Sabbath, which hardship such Disciples of Christs among the Jews, as could not easily be drawn off from the Law and Jewish Observations, but still were for circumcision and keeping of an outward Sabbath, might be liable to: Now Christ and the Apostles after him, were not hasty to draw them from such things, but for a time bore with them therein, insomuch that Paul circumcised Timothy, and became to the Jews as a Jew, and to them that were under the Law, as under the Law himself also. But the strength of the Query seems to lie in this, That it should bear the name of Sabbath from Christ's own mouth, in relation to somewhat which should happen on it more than thirty years after it should cease to be Sabbath. To which my Answer is plain, that that may as well bear the name of Sabbath, as Jerusalem or the Temple bear the name of the holy Place, ver. 15. of the same chap. For Jerusalem and the Temple did as much cease to be the holy place above thirty years after those Words were spoken, as the Jewish Sabbath could cease to be the Sabbath.

Now for the sakes of such as have been truly exercised in their Spirits by the Spirit of the Lord (and have felt the powerful work of his Grace, and a building raised up by him) and may yet be further exercised, I shall add this. Jerusalem was a type of an inward building in the Spirits of Gods people, both in its rearing up, in its scituation, in its standing, in God's dealing with it all the time of its standing, and lastly in its downfal and utter desolation. There is an appearance and building of God in the Spirits of his People, which is to give way to, and be swallewed up in a fuller and higher appearance. But the fleshly Spirit, getting into this building, will not give way to the further and more inward and spiritual appearance of the Spirit, but will have the first building stand as the building, and will entertain no further appearance of God, then as it can comprehend it, subject it, and afford it a place in the first building. Hereupon God distresseth Ariel, even the City which David built (saying within his heart, surely that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted will I pluck up, even this whole Land, So he causeth the overflowing scourge to pass, even over Thy whole Land, O Immanuel) Now when the enemy enters within the holy City, and within the holy Temple, it is time to fly, and exceeding great distress will befal that

Disciple

Diſciple, whoſe flight is either on the Winter or on the Sabbath day. Do not imagine at this, but if the Lord open it not at preſent, wait his ſeaſon: for the thing is true and ſealed, both by the openings of the Light eternal, and by ſenſible exerciſes and experiences from that Light.

Thus I have anſwered ſuch of the Queries as concern the ſeventh days Sabbath. Such as ſeem to argue the unwarrantableneſs of obſerving the firſt day of the week for a Sabbath, I leave to thoſe to whom they are tendred (and of whom an Anſwer ſeems ſo conſcienciouſly and zealouſly deſired, as I do not ſee how it can be reaſonably neglected or denied) that by weighty evidence of Scripture he may be reduced, if he hath erred: but if not, but it be truth which he hath therein held forth, the Lord may be honoured in mens bowing and ſubjecting to every truth of his, by what Inſtruments ſoever it pleaſeth him to make it manifeſt.

Some Queries ſent in Writing (upon occaſion of an Epiſtle directed to all ſuch as obſerve the Seventh Day of the Week for a Sabbath) Anſwered.

Query 1.

IF the whole Law of Moſes, the Law of the Ten Commandments, as well as the Law of Sacrifices, were both added upon one and the ſame account for Tranſgreſſions; Then why doth the Holy Spirit in the Scriptures lay forth ſuch an antiphitical uſe of them (I ſuppoſe he means anti-tipical) the one that ſin might abound, Rom. 5. 20. the other ſacrificing for Sin? Heb. 9. 7, 8, 9.

Anſw. That the Law of Moſes was added becauſe of Tranſgreſſion, is manifeſt from that Scripture quoted by me in my Epiſtle, as well as from other Scriptures: and one end, why it was added in relation to tranſgreſſion was, that the offence might abound, which would make the Sacrifice or propitiation for ſin appear more neceſſary and more acceptable. And the Sacrifices alſo relate to the Sinner, ſome referring to the Sin committed, others to the thankfulneſs and acknowledgement due for the peace, mercy and bleſſings of God towards his poor, ſinful, erring Creatures; both which were to laſt till the time of Reformation from the ſin, Heb. 9. 10. and Gal. 3. 19. (But that they were both added upon one and the ſame account, that I did not affirm, that is wrongfully put upon me.)

Now though both theſe were added becauſe of Tranſgreſſion, yet they had not both the ſame uſe and ſervice in relation to Tranſgreſſion, but the one was added to diſcover ſin, and to make it appear exceeding ſinful, Rom. 5. 20. the other to blot it out, to take it away, to make atonement for it, which the Sacrifices did, making the ſinner upright and perfect as relating to that outward ſtate and capacity, though they could not as pertaining to the Conſcience, Heb. 9. 9.

Quer. 2. If the whole Law, the ten Commandments as well as the Sacrifices, were repreſentations, figures, or ſhadows of ſomewhat relating to Chriſt the Seed: Then what did they in general, or either of them in particular repreſent, figure, or ſhadow forth, before they were written in Tables of Stone, or ſince they were written in Tables of Stone, more of Chriſt then, then now.

Anſw. That the ten Words were ſome of the Precepts of Moſes, and appertaining to the firſt Teſtament or Covenant, all which Precepts were ſprinkled with blood, cannot be denied: And the Apoſtle diſtinguiſheth the Precepts of Moſes under the Law, which were ſprinkled with the blood of the Sacrifices under the Law, Heb. 7. 19. from the Precepts of Chriſt which he writes in other Tables, ch. 10. 16. which alſo are ſprinkled with Blood, but not with the Blood of Bulls and Goats, but with his own blood: and he that receives any of theſe Precepts out of the blood of Chriſt, cannot truly and ſpiritually obey them, though he may ſtrive much to form his ſpirit into the obedience thereof. Now the time and ſeaſon of their ſignification, was the time which God alotted them under the Law, wherein was the uſe of ſigns: but the Goſpel is a ſtate of ſubſtance, of bringing the life and immortality iuto the heart, and into the poſſeſſion of believers, which the ſtate of the Law ſhadowed. So that they are not ſigns ſince the Goſpel, ſince Chriſt put an end to the Law-ſigns, ſhadows and figures, nor yet before the Law to Believers, ſo far as they were in the New Covenant: (For as the thing ſignified cometh, ſo that which ſignifieth it palleth away) though that was a mixed ſtate, wherein God gave a taſte of both Covenants, before his perfect diſpenſing or bringing forth of either.

of

Que. 3. If the whole diſpenſation of the Law was given to the Jews, and not to the Gentiles, and ſo the Gentiles not bound to that Law, but another way for them to know the mind of God: Then whether that Law cited Rom. 2. 15. which the Gentiles ſhewed (the work of in their hearts) be another Law contrary to that Law that was given to the Jews, even the ten Commandments.

Anſw. The Law which is the ſubſtance, is not contrary to the Law which is the ſhadow, but is the comprehending and fulfilling of it. The Law in the Spirit (written by Gods power and preſence in the heart and mind) is not contrary to the Law in the letter, but is an higher and more glorious miniſtration of it. The one Commandment which God gave by Moſes to the Jews, Deut. 30. 11. which was the commandment of life and death, as relating to their inward and eternal ſtate, ver. 15. was not contrary to the Ten Commandments, which God had commanded them before by another Covenant, which he had made with them as an outward people, and which was to be their Rule as to their outward ſtate: for they were choſen by God to be an holy People outwardly, and ſo an outward Rule of Holineſs and Obedience was preſcribed them: but by all their obedience thereto, they could not be juſtified, but only by hearing, believing and obeying Chriſt the Word nigh in the heart, and by feeling in the ſpirit the blood of that one offering.

Que. 4. If the Gentiles were not bound (under that Law that the Jews were) which carryed the Curſe with it: then which way have the Gentiles Redemption by Jeſus Chriſt: ſeeing all that are redeemed, are redeemed from the Law and the Curſe thereof, Gal. 4. 5. and 3. 13.

Anſ. As they were under the Curſe outwardly by tranſgreſſing that outward Law or Covenant, and ſo miſſed of the outward happineſs of the Holy Land, and ſtill met with Wrath and Judgements, and at laſt utter cutting off, as to their outward ſtate, and as to all their hope from that Covenant: ſo he that comes to receive the Miniſtration of the Law of the Spirit, will find the Curſe as abundantly inwardly, even till that be cut down by the Sword of the Spirit, which the Curſe is to, and that brought into Dominion, to which is the promiſe and bleſſing. So that the Gentiles find as great need to be redeemed from the Curſe inwardly, which the inward Law brings upon the Tranſgreſſor, as the Jews did outwardly; yea, and find a more heavy burthen and load than ever the Jews did outwardly. Paul when he was alive in the outward Adminiſtration of the Law, not being acquainted with the inward, he knew little of the Curſe, he was according to it blameleſs, Phil. 3. 6. but when he came to receive the living light of the ſpiritual Adminiſtration of it into his ſpirit, then he felt the burthen, and weight, and miſery of ſin, and the Curſe indeed, and cryed out, O Wretched Man, who ſhall Deliver!

Qu. 5. If the duration of the diſpenſation of Moſes Law in the Letter was till Chriſt the Seed ſhould come and fulfil it, and the diſpenſation of Moſes Law (ſo ſtated without diſtinction) between that that was perpetual, and that that was Ceremonially vaniſhing, and ſo in the fulfilling of it beſides: Then what Law or Commandments that or they were, which while Moſes diſpenſation was in full force, is ſaid to be perpetually ſure to ſtand faſt for ever and for ever, as Pſal. 10. 11, 7, 8. and when Chriſt the Seed was come, and had fulfilled all that the Father had appointed him to do, was eſtabliſhed, Rom. 3. 31. and not one jot or tittle of it to paſs ſo long as Heaven and Earth remain? Mat. 5. 18. and Luke 16. 17.

Anſ. That diſtinction between ſomething in Moſes Law being perpetual, and ſomething Ceremonial, is not ſound and proper in this place: For all that was under Moſes Law was but a ſhadow, as in that diſpenſation, and that Teſtament was dedicated with Blood (with the Blood which was a ſhadow) which related to every Precept, Heb. 9. 18, 19. and it was all ſubſtantial and perpetual in what it ſignified and related to; The Sacrifices were ſubſtantial in that Sacrifice which they ſignified, as well as the law and precepts were ſubſtantial in the law and precepts which they ſignified. And as the first Covenant pointed at a second Covenant, so the Laws of the first Covenant pointed at the Law of the second Covenant, the Ministration whereof is from the Mediator of that Covenant, and they come into the heart sprinkled with his Blood. Now the Law or Commandement, which even under that dispensation was to be perpetual and last for ever, was the Word in the heart, and the laws thereof, Deut. 30. 14. which Moses by especial order from God, and according to the tenor of another Covenant directed the Jews to v. 4. For the Law, as administred by Moses in the Letter is not perpetual or eternal; but as it comes from the Spirit, and is administred in the Spirit, so it is spiritual and eternal. That administration was fitted to that people: and (we know) the Lord, if he had pleased, could have given a fuller administration of his law in the letter than that was, as Christ plainly intimates divers times, Mat. 5. But if it had been never so full, yet the administration of it in the letter, is to give place to the administration of it in the Spirit; so that the administration of it in the letter is not perpetual, but for the time which God alotted it; but the administration of it in the Spirit is eternal and perpetual, and there it remains an eternal light, witness, and Sword against sin and the transgressor. And thus it is established in the hands of the Spirit, after the season of that ministration of it in the letter was ended; and thus not one jot or tittle of it was to pass away, after the other ministration with every jot and tittle of it was ended.

Que. 6. If the coming of Christ in the flesh: and his fulfilling all the righteousness of the Law; and being foretold by Moses to be that Prophet, that was to be heard in all things which is not denyed by us; but if by these he put an end to the Law of the Ten Commandments and gave forth another Law to his House or Family; Then what Law that is, and whether it be contrary to that Law that he with the Father gave forth as Deut. 33. 2. with Psal. 80. 17. which now is in Gospel ministration holy, just good as Rom. 7. 12. and Spiritual ver: 14.

Ans. It is the law of the Spirit, or the light of the Spirit in the heart, which discovers sin (not only in the outward acts, but in its principle, rise, first motions and inward nature) giving forth his living commands against it. This is the law now, in which the believer is to begin, Gal. 3. 3. and according to which he is to go on to perfection. For as the believer is begotten of the Spirit, and born of the Spirit, so he is to receive the ministration of his law from the Spirit, and in the Spirit, He receives a gift of Faith, a measure of Faith from the eternal spring of life, and that's his lavv. His lavv is the Law of Faith. The light of life, vvhich he receives in the Faith, opens the mind and vvill of Christ to him in the spirit, shevving him both sin and also the things of God more fully then the Law of Moses could, though opened by the Spirit; for it is a fuller, a deeper kind of ministration, and so opens the things which it ministers, more fully than a ministration of an inferiour nature can. Yet it is not contrary to Moses Law, but comprehends all the substance, all the righteousness and equity of it, (as I said before) which it as a shadow represented, and commanded to that outward or shadowie people the Jews. But the Law which Paul spake of, Rom. 7. was the Law of the Spirit, or such a ministration of the Law as Paul knew not, all the while he was under the ministration of Moses's Law blameless; but this Law found out sufficient blame in him, ver. 14 &c.

Que. 7. If Jesus Christ as he is the Son gave forth another Law to his House or Family: and that Law contrary to that that the Father gave forth; then whether there is not two Law givers, when the Scriptures say there is but one, Jam. 4. 12.

Ans. The substance, when it is shadowed out, or when it is nakedly dispensed, is one and the same thing; so that when ever it comes, it cannot be another thing, than what the shadow represented it to be. Moses his Dispensations and Christs are one in Spirit: and when he cometh in Spirit, he doth not destroy either Moses or the Prophets, but comprehends them: So that the Law is but one, although the dispensations of it have been various: but the proper dispensation of the Law now to Christians is Christs dispensation, not Moses his dispensation; and Christians are now to look for Light and Knowledge of it, in the Tables where Christ writes it, according to his Covenant. So that there have not been two Laws given out, but the one Law of God hath been variously dispensed: in and according to the letter by Moses to the Jews, in and according to the Spirit by Christ to his Disciples.

Que.

Query 8. If the Tables of Stone, the Writing of the Law of the ten Commandments in the Tables: and the Law of the ten Commandments it self which was written (were figures or representations) Then whether the Finger of God's Spirit doth write the Law of God (two ways in the inward Tables) So called, namely, in the heart of Christ's Family: In one way whilst Moses dispensation was on foot, Psal. 37. 31. For the Psalmist speaks in the present tense (which was under that dispensation:) Now is it another way in this latter dispensation expressed, 2 Cor. 3. 3.

Query 9th. If two ways, then how doth the Finger of Gods Spirit write them those ways.

Ans. The eternal Covenant was the same under the Law, as under the Gospel; and its Tables were the heart then, as well as now, and its way of writing the same then as now, even by the finger of God's Power or eternal Spirit: and thither the Jews were even then referred for the inward writing of the Law, Deut. 30. 14. So that they that truly hearkened, even to Moses, were to wait on this Word, which was nigh in the heart, for the Writing of his Laws there. And they that hearkened to this Law which endureth for ever, knew the Writings thereof in their hearts; whereas the Jews, who were very diligent to get the Law into their hearts from the letter, could never thereby attain the Writing of it there, but were still found breakers of it, and under that curse which belonged to the breach. Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, David and the Prophets knew the inward Jew, who becomes so by the inward Covenant, and by the inward dispensation of the Law in that Covenant and the Law which was after the promise, could not disannul the promise which was before it, but it stood good and firm to the Children, even to all the spiritual Seed, the whole time of that outward dispensation of the Law,

Que. 10. If not, then how doth the writing of the Law in Tables of Stone: represent the writing of the Law in the Tables of the heart: seeing the Tables of the heart were writ upon by the Finger of God's Spirit whilst the Tables of Stone were in full force and the dispensation had not ceased.

Ans. Though the Tables of Stone, or Law thereof was in force to that outward people of God the Jews, yet this did not destroy his inward people, nor his inward Tables in their hearts, nor hinder him from writing his inward Law there; but the inward and eternal Covenant ran underneath to them inwardly (even all the time of that outward dispensation) whereby they were made inwardly righteous and obedient to God. And as God had particularly directed by Moses, to the Word and Commandment of that Covenant: So he would not fail to write it thereby in the hearts of such, as turned to that Word and Commandment. So So that this was the Law, which God wrote in the heart even then, and was always the invvard substance, vvhile as Moses his dispensation vvas but an outvvard sign thereof.

Que. 11. If the Law of the ten Commandments it self: which enjoyed Love and Duty to God: and Love and Duty to Man, as, Matth. 22. 37, 38, 39, 40. Was, or is a Figure of another: Then what Law that is, that's the anti-type of this Law, which in succeeding of it, enjoyns not Love and Duty to God: And not Love and Duty to Man.

Ans. This Query ariseth from a great mistake, as if the Lavv in the Letter and the Lavv in the Spirit could not require the same thing, vvhereas they do require the very same thing in substance, but several vvays, according to the difference of each administration, to vvit, the one litterally of a litteral or outvvard people, the other spiritually of a spiritual or invvard people. The one requires love according to the tenour of the letter, the other according to the Spirit.

Que. 12. If the owning of the ten Commandments as they are plainly laid down in the Letter, be a breaking of them in the Spirit, and especially, those contained in the first Table: Then how doth the Truth of God written, which is Life and Truth, Acts 7. 38. and Eccl. 12. 10. And the Spirit which is given forth meet together, seeing the Spirit leads and guides into all Truth.

Ans. I do not know any, who hath said, That the owning of the ten Commandments as they are plainly laid down in the Letter, is a breaking of them in the Spirit, but he that hath the Spirit, owneth the dispensation of the letter in its place and season: but the Spirit doth not teach him to run from his own dispensation (where it is livingly admi-niſtred to ſuch as wait on the eternal Word in his Covenant of Life for it) to that diſpenſation which was appointed for, and given forth to others. But that the truth, as it is written, (outwardly) is Life, I do not read, but otherwiſe, 2 Cor. 3. 6. Where Paul ſaith, The Letter killeth, (ſpeaking of the Letter of the New Teſtament.) The Spirit indeed guides into all truth, but it is the living Soul whom he ſo guides, and it is the living Truth into which he guides in the New Covenant, though it was he alſo, who gave forth, required, and was able to lead into the letter of the Old Covenant.

Que. 13. Whether when Jehovah gave forth the ten Commandments plainly as a Law in the Letter, he did intend by the obſervation according to the Letter: the breach of them by the Spirit.

Anſ. The Spirit doth not teach to break the Commands in the Letter, but ſuch as are under the Miniſtration of the Letter, to obſerve them according to the Letter; and ſuch as are under the miniſtration of the Spirit, to fulfil the righteouſneſs of them in the Spirit. (Yet the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath: and if he bid a man Take up his Bed and walk, which was bearing a Burthen and doing of Work on the Sabbath day, it is no breach of the Sabbath.) Now this is moſt righteous, that as the Son's reſt ſhould be entred into under the Goſpel, ſo his day of reſt ſhould be kept by his Diſciples and Family.

Que. 14. Whether to ſay, the keeping the Law of God according to the Letter, is a breaking of it in the Spirit: be not a charging of God, that gave it forth to be kept, and the holy Spirit that incites (us ſo to do now in this adminiſtration, James 2. 8. and ſays they do well that do ſo) and yet thou ſaiſt they break it in Spirit: but tell us by any one Scripture, how a man aſſiſted by the Spirit to own Jehovah alone to be his God according to the letter of the firſt Commandment doth break the Command in the Spirit. Or ſo the like of any other of them.

Anſ. This Query is altogether from a miſtake, for it was not ſaid by me, That the keeping the Law of God according to the Letter, is a breaking of it in the Spirit; but that he that runs back to the Law in the Letter, to take up any Command as held forth in it, will be found a breaker thereof in Spirit. And for this, the Jews in general, and Paul in particular, may be my inſtances, who was exceeding ſtrict according to the Letter of the Law, but yet was a grievous breaker of it in Spirit, and did not love his Neighbour as himſelf, but in a blind zeal was a bitter Perſecutor: And if the Jews had taken that direction of Moſes, Deut. 30. 14. The obſervation of the Law in the Letter might have been more eaſie to them. So that the turning towards, and receiving the Word in the heart, from whence the Letter came, is the only way to fulfil the Letter; and the Law is not ſo much as to be known, much leſs fulfilled, by running to the letter of it in the firſt place. And this I certainly know, that there is no coming to the Lord of life, nor no keeping chaſt to him, but in the New-Covenant, and in the light of the Lord, as it is there diſpenſed: and till then, the mind cannot forbear making of Images and falſe Repreſentations of him to it ſelf, though being from the light of this Covenant, it cannot diſcern that it doth ſo, no more than Paul, by the Letter of the Law could diſcern how he was a breaker, thereof, in his Violent Perſecutions.

Que. 15. Whether the Prophets, Jeſus Chriſt, or the Apoſtles, their keeping the Law according to the Letter, that they did do ſo, is evident, did break the Law in the Spirit.

Anſ. The Prophets were under the Law as to their outward ſtate, though inwardly not without feeling the vertue of the New-Covenant. Chriſt alſo was made under the Law, and took upon him the fulfilling of that diſpenſation of Moſes, that he might bring the believing Jews from under it, into the liberty of the Spirit, that they might receive the adoption of Sons, and the free Miniſtration which was appointed for the Sons, and might not be held under that Miniſtration of Bondage, which was appointed for the Servants. And the Apoſtle bids Believers to ſtand faſt in the liberty wherewith Chriſt had made them free, not making themſelves debtors to the Law, Gal. 5. 1. For they were Children of the Promiſe, Children of New Jeruſalem, the Free-Woman, Children of the New-Covenant, and not Children of Mount Sinai, the Old-Covenant the Law in the Letter, c. 4. 15, 16.

Que,

Qu. 16. If there be but one day of rest holy to the Lord and all the Sabbaths of the Law were but signs of it, that is said to be the day of redemption that the Lord hath made. Then whether that day be a day natural, one of the seven Days of the Week, which either respect the Day on which our Redeemer suffered, or that on which he rose again from the dead, or any other?

Ans. As the Gospel is not natural, but spiritual: so its day of rest is not natural, but spiritual likewise. Yea, I may add this also, the six days Work in the new Creation are not natural neither.

Qu. 17. If not so, but that it should be intended applicable to the day or time of the Gospel Administration from the time that Christ suffered in the Flesh, unto the end of the World. Then whether this day that is intended as a Sabbath, is one with that day that the Scriptures intend and call a Sabbath, which Christ himself gave his Disciples charge to have respect unto in their flight, Mat. 24. 20.

Ans. The supposition here put, demonstrateth that those that put it, have no acquaintance with the Gospel-Sabbath, but propose another outward time for it, even the time from Christ's suffering in the Flesh, to the end of the World. Now if any should so affirm, it were as justly to be excepted against, as pressing the observation of the Jews Sabbath is. That which signifieth is outward or natural, and signifieth to that part which is without: that which is signified, is inward and spiritual, and is known, entred into, kept, and injoyed in the Spirit. It is a Spiritual Sabbath, not a natural, which God hath instituted for his spiritual People, after he hath led them out of spiritual Ægypt, into the spiritual Wilderness, where he administreth to them the Law in the Spirit, and teacheth them to worship him in Spirit and Truth.

Que. 18. If they intend one and the same Sabbath day, then how impossible was it for the Disciples of Christ to escape flying on that Sabbath day, though never so fervent in Prayer, in regard that this Sabbath spoken of began when Christ had suffered and put an end to the dispensation of Moses's Law: and the flight spoken of by Christ, which respects the Lord's Sabbath was not until many years after sufferings. Supposed Sabbath being before denied, the Foundation of this Query fails.

Ans. Christ's Sabbath is not an outward time or day in the Flesh, but a day in the Spirit, even a day of rest from all the labours of the fleshly part: But this was spoken to before, in the Answer to the last of W. Salter's Queries, whereto I may add this: Christ spake to his Disciples of things, as they were able to bear them. Now as they understood not his death, so then they understood not the abolishing of those things, which were to pass away after his death: so that Christ might very well call Jerusalem the holy place, and the seventh day the Sabbath, speaking to them in that state.

Que. 19. If they intend not one and the same Sabbath day, then which are the Disciples of Christ to have respect unto, whether that that Jesus Christ enjoyned his Disciples to have respect unto, or that that Isaac Penington would injoyn the Disciples to have respect unto.

Ans. This Query hath very little in it, save to shew the unsavourinesse of the Spirits of them that put it, and their want of acquaintance with the Ministration of the Spirit. They that know the Gospel-Sabbath (which is the substance of the Law-Sabbath) can tell who injoin'd it them, and can also tell, that he hath not required of them the observation of the Jews Sabbath. But they that are born after the Letter, have been always subject to revile and reproach the truths of the Spirit, and those that testifie thereto.

Que. 20. If the Lords holy Sabbath be that day which we may suppose is intended by this Paper sent unto us: to be the day that contains the time of Gospel-administration: then whether that Sabbath doth prohibit outward Labour as well as abstaining from Sin, if not, then which way must this Sabbath be kept. Seeing, that they that did and doth observe the weekly Sabbath, did and doth it in the Spirit, And rest by Faith in Christ, Worshipping the Father in Spirit and in Truth.

Ans. The Gospel-Sabbath begins not in the observation of outward time: but as it is spiritual, so it hath a spiritual beginning, increase, and perfecting, wherein there is a rest to the Spirit from Sin, and from the creaturely Works, and a Worshipping in the Spirit, even as on the outward Sabbath there was a bodily ceasing from labours, and an outward worshipping. And he that heareth the joyful sound of deliverance from sin and Self-working, and entreth into the Faith (beginning to cease from his own Works and Working, and to wait in the Spirit on the Power for its working in him) hath a taste of the Gospel-Sabbath, and beginneth to see that day, which the type pointed to, and ends in.

Que. 21. If that that was ministred to Paul, Rom. 7. Thou shalt keep the Sabbath, or belive in the Light, follow the Light, and the observing of either of these in the Spirit, to be a keeping the whole Law. Then how are the Scriptures observed if the keeping of one Commandment be a keeping the whole Law when the holy Spirit in Scriptures says that he that offends in one point is guilty of all, James 2. 10.

Ans. I did not say, that the keeping of one Commandment is the keeping of the whole Law; but that the observing in Spirit of any one of those there mentioned by me, is the keeping of the Law: which was not barely said, but demonstrated, because no part of the Law can be broken, but every one of these must be broken. He that commit any sin, breaks the Gospel-Sabbath, which is a resting from all sin and Self-works, errs from the Law of love received in the Spirit, which shuts out all enmity and transgression both against God and Man; departs from the fear, which keeps from departing from God by any iniquity; and enters into the Lust, which is the Womb of sin, out of the compass of which Womb sin cannot be conceived, much less committed. So that Paul, in that Law received from the Spirit. Thou shalt not Lust, saw the whole Body of sin struck at, whereas before, under the Ministration of Moses in the Letter (according to which he said he was blameless) there was not so much as the life of one sin struck at, but for all his exact answering of the Law according to that ministration, he was alive still. To decide this Controversie, let it be put to tryal, let any one singly wait on the Lord for the administration of his Law in the Spirit, and if the Lord give forth that Command to him, Thou shalt not Lust, in the clearness of the light of his eternal Spirit let him try, if continuing in obedience and subjection thereto, he can commit any one sin whatsoever. I do not say, that a mans proposing to himself that he will not lust, or his striving of himself to love and fear the Lord, or his applying himself to keep the Sabbath or rest from sin to the Lord will do this. (Nay this is but an administration in the letter, and will prove Weak against the inward Strength of the Enemy) but receiving the Law in its pure living administration in the Spirit, and from the Spirit, here comes strength against the Enemy, which is too hard for him, while it is abode in. And this the Apostle Paul taught the Galatians, who were running backward towards the Law, and not forwards in the Spirit: He bids them Walk in the Spirit, Gal. 5. 25. And so doing as they should not be under the Law, v. 18. So neither should they be breakers of the Law: For within those bounds sin enters not, but is kept out, not so much as a Lust against the Law being there known, much less any open Transgression against it: and against such as thus keep within the bounds of the Spirit there is no Law, ver: 22, 23. But against all that make themselves debtors to the Law of the Letter, there stands in force both the Law of the letter and and of the Spirit also; and they cannot in tha state be free from the condemnation and curse thereof, whatsoever they may imagine concerning themselves, and their own state, from a mis-understanding and mis-application of the Scriptures.

The first Letter Answered.

THERE is a double Ministration of the Law: a Ministration in the letter, and a ministration in the Spirit. The Ministration of the letter was by Moses, from Mount Sinai, in Tables of Stone, to that outward people the Jews: The Ministration of the Spirit is by Christ from Mount Sion in Tables of Flesh, to Believers or his Disciples. Now this is it which the Lord hath made manifest to me, that the Disciples of Christ, or Believers, are to have recourse to their administration for the receiving of the Law from the Spirit, and not to run back to that Ministration which was litteral and outward, and fitted to a litteral and outward people. This was more fully set down in my Epistle in several particulars. Now in opposition to this, it is said, First

First, That all written in that Epistle, makes no more at all against a Gospel spiritual observing in love the seventh day Sabbath to the Lord, then they make against a Gospel Spiritual observing of the other nine Commandments.

Ans. My Epistle striketh not at a Gospel Spiritual Observation of any thing; but he that will obey Spiritually, must receive his command from the Spirit in that way which the Spirit hath chosen to dispense it to him in. Now the same Spirit, which wrote his Law in the letter under the old Covenant, writeth his Law in the hearts of believers under the New Covenant, Heb. 8. 10. which is a better Covenant, and of which Covenant Christ is the Mediator, ver. 6. and Christ is as faithful to give forth the Laws of his Spirit in the hearts of his people, as their condition requires them, as Moses was to give the Law written in the Tables of Stone to his House, Heb. 3. 5. 6. And as Moses pointed his Disciples to Christ coming in the Flesh, so Christ pointed believers or his Disciples to the Comforter, the Spirit of truth, first to wait for him, and then to receive light or his law of life from him: And this is Gospel or New Covenant, even that which the Spirit speaks or writes in the heart, and this hath power in it and saveth, whereas the Letter killeth. Now consider seriously, whether should a believer go for these Laws? to which Covenant? to Moses's Covenant, or to Christs Covenant.

Secondly, That all these Commands being holy and good, are to be loved, and in love to be observed, &c.

Ans. All the Statutes, and Judgements and Ordinances, and Precepts of the Lord are holy and good, and are to be loved: but each is to be obedient to that which God requires of him, and to have recourse to that ministration for the Law of God to him, under which God hath set him. He that believes, he that hath received the Spirit, is to have recourse to the law of Faith, and to the Spirit for his light or law: he who was under the law of Moses, was to have recourse to the law of Moses: for the law of Moses spake to them who were under it in his Family, giving forth the Precepts, or the Commandments of that dispensation to them who are under his Testament, Heb. 9 20. And Christ speaks to his family by his Spirit, whom his Disciples are to hearken unto, and not to grieve him or quench his motions, or despise his Prophesyings, but give diligent heed thereto, until the day dawn, and the day-Star arise in their hearts.

Now to obey in love, doth not make the distinction of the ministrations: for love belongeth to each ministration. The Jews in their day were to obey the Law in love, and to have it in their hearts, Deut. 6. 5, 6. But this makes the difference, the Jews were to seek to the letter for it, the Disciple is to receive it from the Spirit; for he is to begin in the Spirit, Gal. 3. 3. Whereas the Jews beginning was in the letter. And this is obedience in the newness of the Spirit, when the law is received fresh from the Spirit, who both writes new things and brings to remembrance old things livingly and powerfully: but to go to Moses ministration and learn it there, and get it into the heart from thence, thats according to the old ministration or Covenant, which was given in the letter to the Jews; as may appear in that place last cited, Deut. 6. 5 6.

Thirdly, That in the same spirit and love, that we have the Lord for our God, &c. in the same we are to remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

Ans. The Lord teacheth believers to know him to be the only true God, &c. by the Law of the Covenant of life in Christ Jesus, which he ministers to their Spirits in the Spirit; whereby he teacheth them so clearly and effectually, that they need not run back to the Tables of Moses his Covenant, from thence to teach one another to know the Lord, but they shall all know him from this teaching from the least to the greatest: yea, and I may add this, This Covenant by its ministration teacheth more clearly, then the ministration of Moses his Law in the letter could teach, Heb. 8. 10 11. They that have been with Moses, and have learned the Law of him, under the ministration of his Covenant, have yet need of coming to Christ; but they that have been with Christ, and have learned the Law of his Spirit, by the teachings of the New Covenant in their hearts have not need of being sent back to Moses. Moses pointeth forward to Christ, but Christ (even in the flesh) sendeth not his Disciples from his own dispensation back to Moses, (though he also established the dispensation of Moses for its season) but pointeth them forward to the Comforter, or to his appearance in the spirit. And this is the mark of a Christian, which it is the intent of the Letter to direct him to, and not for him to fix in the Letter, as men have done since the Apostacy from the spirit.

This

This Argument is further inforced thus, becauſe he that ſaid the other, ſaid this, in the ſame Law and Spirit.

Anſ. It is true, he that ſaid the otherby Moſes to the Jews, ſaid this alſo to them, and they were ſtrictly bound thereto; but that which binds the Diſciple is the miniſtration of the new Covenant, where Chriſt writes this Law in the minds and ſpirits of his people, by which they are bound, and ſuch as are out of that the Lord when he cometh to examine them concerning their Faith and Obedience, will ſay to them, Who hath required this at your hands? Were ye Children of the New Covenant? Did ye receive the Spirit? had ye a meaſure of Faith given you? were ye new Creatures? Why did ye not keep to your Rule? Why did ye not wait on the Spirit, and receive the Law from the New Jeruſalem, from whence it iſſues forth to the Family of Believers? The Jews were to be taught by Precepts and Judgments from Moſes, but all thy Children ſhall be taught of the Lord.

It is ſaid yet further, So that if thou keepeſt the other, and not this, thou art a Tranſgreſſor of the ROYAL LAW of LIBERTY.

Anſ. What is the Royal Law? what is the law of Liberty? Was the law as it was adminiſtred by Moſes, the Royal law? or is it the Royal law as it is adminiſtred by the Son, who is the King of Saints, and writes his law in their hearts as their King? Again, was the law, which Moſes adminiſtred to the Jews, a law of liberty, or a law of bondage? did not the miniſtration on mount Sinai gender to bondage, Gal. 4. 24. but in the miniſtration of the law by the Spirit is life and liberty, ver. 26. and 2 Cor. 3. 17. And this very law, Thou ſhalt love thy Neighbour as thy ſelf is Royal, and a law of pure liberty, and there is no bondage in it thus adminiſtred: but let any man now read it in the letter, and ſtrive to obey it to the utmoſt he can, he ſhall find it weak through the fleſh, accuſing and inbondaging him. And this is the reaſon that Chriſtians ſo mourn in their prayers, even as perſons in bonds, becauſe they know not the Royal law of liberty, becauſe they feel not the love which the Spirit begets, but ſtrive to get the letter into their hearts, and to anſwer the Commands in the letter with what love and obedience they can come at; and this (through not ſeeing into the true Covenant and miniſtry of Chriſt) they call obeying in the Spirit. The teſtimony of Jeſus, Rev. 12. 17. is the Spirit of Prophecy, chap. 19. 10. and his Commandments come freſh from that Spirit of Prophecy, which are to be taken heed to, till the day dawn, and the day-ſtar ariſe, and then a fuller miniſtration is witneſſed then that of Prophecy, even the ſhining and appearing of that which was propheſied of, which every believer is to wait for in the Propheſies of the ſpirit, and in obedience to thoſe Commands, which come livingly into his heart from the ſpirit of Propheſie.

Fourthly. That the fourth Command is to be in love kept by all believers.

Anſ. All the Commands of Chriſts Covenant are to be kept by believers, according as he pleaſeth to diſpence them, under his adminiſtration in the New Covenant: but the Laws of the Old Covenant are not the Laws of the New Covenant, as ſo diſpenced, but only as they are comprehended in the righteouſneſs, which is taught and required by the ſpirit, which is fuller, ſtricter and exacter, then that which the Law of Moſes required.

Nor do I hereby go about to teach any to break the leaſt of Chriſts Commands, but the way to fulfil them, which is, by keeping to the certain knowledge and obedience of them, in that miniſtration, where Chriſt hath promiſed to diſpenſe and make them known to believers, which is, under the miniſtry of his own Covenant, writing them in their hearts and minds by his Spirit. And here the keeping of all Chriſts Commands is poſſible, yea this is the only way to have the righteouſneſs of the Law fulfilled in us; for he that keeps the eye which the ſpirit hath opened in him, cloſe to the Spirit, ſhall not be able to break any law of righteouſneſs, but the righteouſneſs even of Moſes his Law ſhall be fulfilled in him.

Chriſt is the reſt of the Goſpel (as he is alſo the holy land) believing is the entring into this reſt, here's his Sabbath, and the keeping of it. Keep in the Faith, the Goſpel reſt is kept. Parting with every Luſt that he makes manifeſt, obſerving every thing that this King calls for by his Spirit, and waiting for the further manifeſtation or ſhining of the light of his ſpirit in the heart, here's the obedience of the Faith, and the holy and ſpiritual life and ſubjection of the living Soul to its living King. Here's the beginning of a true Chriſtian, his growth, his perfection, but as for times, places, perſons, &c. theſe are of another nature, to another part, even to that part in man which is to be done away, as he comes into the Faith, and into the Reſt. Let that which is inviſible, whoſe Habitation is out of the reaſoning part, feel and read me in that which is inviſible: For I do not make void the Law by Faith, or through publiſhing the Miniſtry of the Spirit, but eſtabliſh it in its Miniſtration in the Spirit to the Diſciples of Chriſt; who keeping to the Spirit, cannot tranſgreſs the righteouſneſs of it, though they may there learn not to eſteem one day above another, but to eſteem every day, no days having ever had any real holineſs in them one above another, but only a figurative or repreſentative, which the Subſtance, Chriſt and his Goſpel ſwallow up: for as his day dawns, thoſe things which were the ſhaddow of it fly away.

are

The ſecond Letter Anſwered.

OBject. 1. It is ſaid to be dangerous, ſo to hold forth the ſpiritual Sabbatiſm, as to deny the weekly Sabbath, wherein our Lord Jeſus Chriſt reſted, &c, And which he bleſſed and ſanctified to Adam and his Poſterity, &c.

Anſ. The Goſpel is a ſtate of ſubſtance, of fulfilling the Types and Shaddows of the Law, by bringing believers into the Poſſeſſion of that which they ſignified of, Canaan was a type of Chriſt, who is the Land of the living, in whom every believer hath an Habitation at preſent, according to the proportion of his Faith: and the Sabbath is the day of reſt, which every believer ir to celebrate to Chriſt in this holy Land, which he doth by believing and obeying his Spirit in the Faith, which keepeth him out of the ſin, the unbelief, the unreſt. But that the Sabbath of the Law, the Reſt thereof, which pointed to the Faith, is ſtill to be held up in the times of the Goſpel, I know no Scripture which ſo teacheth, and I know ſomewhat which teacheth me otherwiſe. The day is dawned, bleſſed be the Lord God Almighty, the everlaſting day is dawned and the ſhaddows of the Law are flown away.

Objection 2. It is ſaid, that Heb. 4. Speaks of three Reſts, The Seventh Day or Sabbath Reſt, Iſraels Reſt in Canaan, and a remaining Reſt, whereof David ſpeaks, Pſalm 95.

Anſ. I grant it, There were two Reſts nnder the Law, which were ſigns of the one reſt under the Goſpel. The two under the Law were outward and natural, the one under the Goſpel inward and ſpiritnal, anſwerable to the ſtate of the Goſpel. David was not only acquainted with the Law-ſtate, but with the Free-ſpirit, (Pſalm 51.) and the eternal Law thereof. He knew the new Creation, the creating of a new Spirit, (with its travel through the Law) and alſo the new reſt. He knew the circumciſion of the heart, the ſpiritual Sacrifices of a broken heart and of praiſe, he could take the Cup of Salvation, and ſing the Song of praiſe to the Lord, which none can do in the ſtrange Land, nor on any other day but the day of reſt. And he incites Iſrael to this reſt, that they might not harden their hearts againſt it, but in the day of their viſitation enter into it, by hearkening to the Word which was nigh them, which gives the entrance through the Faith. To day if ye will hear his Voice, harden not your Hearts, &c. There is a Reſt ye are now called to enter into, as your Fathers were called to enter into the Land of Canaan: harden not your hearts as they did, but hear the Voice, hear the Word which calls to this reſt, believe and enter. This reſt remains ſays the Apoſtle, the others were types of it under the Law-ſtate, which was to paſs away.

Objection 3. It is ſaid, Ceremonial Signs are done away, but the ten Commands under the Mercy-Seat are of another nature: and that there are Signs which are not yet abolished (as the Rain bow, Sun, Moon, and Stars) but ſtill remain for us to make good uſe of.

Anſ. The Mercy-Seat under the Law is done away, and the ſubſtance thereof is come and Will ye not give him leave to write his Law in the Tables which he ſhall chooſe, where his Diſciples may read it with the eye which he gives? Is his Law now to be read in the ſhadow, or with the outward eye, or to be looked for under the old Mercy-Seat of the outward Tabernacle? Or is it to be read with the eye of the new Creature, with the eye of Faith, with the eye of the Spirit, in the everlaſting Goſpel, where the life it ſelf is read, and in other Books or Writings without, but tidings or relations of the life? Here Christ, here the Spirit, here the Eternal life, here the love, the joy, the peace, the rest, the purity, which is eternal, is seen, is felt, is handled, is injoyed: for the true Faith is indeed the substance of the things hoped for, giving Victory over the enemies which disturb, and a quiet Habitation in him who is the rest.

And as touching Signs, I do not say that signs are so done away, as that there is now no good use to be made of them; but in reading the law and shadows thereof, the Lord may please by his Spirit, to enlighten the Spirit of him who reads in his fear, to see through them: but this I do not find, that so much as any one Sign or shadow under the Law, was to be continuted in that way of service under the Gospel (for indeed to what end should it? When that is come, which it signified, is not its Work at an end?) and that that Sabbath was given for a sign (as well as any other Sabbaths of the Law) I find expresly, Exod. 31. 13. to 18.

Object. 4. It is said, That though Christ's Law be a new Law, yet it is also old, given of old to the Jews.

Ans. Yea, it is older then so: For it was Written in Abel's and the other holy mens hearts, long before this Covenant of the Law in Writing was made with the Jews. And consider well which is now to stand in the times of the Gospel, the writing of the Law by the Spirit in the hearts of Believers, as it was Written by vertue of the Promise before the Law was given, or the outward and visible Writing under the Law, which was done for the sake of, and as a suitable dispensation for that outward People. It was not thus from the beginning, but after a long time: for when God chose an outward People, he chose also this way of Writing to signifie somewhat by, which signification is concerning another state; in which state, that which was signified is to be set up and advanced, and not the shadows which were significant of it.

It is further said, That the Lord writes these things new in his Peoples hearts, to know the Lord, as their God, and as the God and Father of Jesus Christ, and as their Father in him: and to love their Brethren as Christ loved them. And he Writes this Law also in their hearts, Thou shalt have no other Gods but me, make no Image, exalt my Name, keep holy the Sabbath, &c.

Ans. If God write these things in the heart, are they not to be read there? If God write them in the New Covenant, and in the New Tables, shall not I read them there? And if I can read there in this living Book, what God writes in it by his Spirit, is not this nearer to me and clearer, and read by a more certain eye, then what I can read with my outward eye in Tables of Stone? Oh! Do not turn the Believer out of his way: do not hinder him from reading in the Book, which is clear and infallible the clear and infallible things of God. Will God write in my heart, and will he not give me an eye to read? Shall he give me an eye to read, and shall I not read therewith? Thou hast here confessed this to be the new Writing, and the new writing belongs to the new Covenant, both which are proper to the Gospel state, and to Christs Mediation, who is Mediatour of the new Covenant, Heb. 8. 6. And in that he saith, a new, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to vanish away, ver. 13:

Object. 5. It is said, that love being the sum and substance of the Law of the Spirit, makes no more against the fourth Commandment, than against the rest.

Ans. Love is the substance of them all, and they are all fulfilled in it: but they are not after this manner fulfilled, to wit, that a man should strive particularly to keep them in his eye, and so labour to fulfil them in love; but rather thus, in waiting on the Lord, to receive love from him, aud to be kept by him in the love, in this love received they are all fulfilled, and cannot be broken, and this is an easie Yoak. This is the new Birth, and the Path thereof, the other is but the old Creature, with its striving after the Path and Inheritance of life. And as this Love is the fulfilling of the Law, so the heart are the Tables of this Love, wherein God Writeth both the whole and all the parts of his Law. Now I am not against any man, who in singleness of heart applies himself to the Letter; but it is but the old Way, and a conversing with Christ after the manner of Moses's dispensation: but I must confess that I am for the new Covenant, and for the Ministry of the Spirit, which is far beyond the Letter, and though I have known Christ, and the Laws of his life after the Flesh, yet henceforth my desire is not after knowing him so any more, but to know him in the eternal life of his Spirit, and to drink of the Fruit of the Vine, new with him in his Fathers Kingdom.

A brief Explication of the myſtery of the Six Days Labour, and Seventh days Sabbath, for ſuch to behold, the Eye of whoſe Spirit is opened by the pure anointing, and who are not ſo drowned in their Conceivings and Reaſonings about the ſence of the Letter, as moſt of the Profeſſors of this Age are.

MAT. 11. 28, 29, 30.

Come unto me all ye that Labour, and are heavy Laden, and I will give you Reſt. Take my Yoak upon you, and learn of me, for I am Meek and Lowly in heart, and ye ſhall find reſt unto your Souls. For my Yoak is eaſie, and my Burden is light.

HE that hears the joyful ſound of the ever-living power, calling him by the Voice of his eternal light out of the darkneſs, out of the death, out of the miſery, out of the Dominions, Territories, and deep Slavery of Satan unto himſelf, and cometh unto him in the vertue and power of that life which calleth, he hath a taſt given him of the eternal reſt, and a promiſe of entring into it.

But the entrance into the fulneſs thereof is not preſently, but he hath a long journey to take from Ægypt the dark Land, from Sodom the filthy Land, from Babylon, where all the Veſſels and holy Things of God have been defiled, through the Wilderneſs, unto Canaan; And many Battels are to be fought with Enemies by the way, and alſo with the Enemies which poſſeſs the holy Land, and many hardſhips to be undergone in following the Captain, who alſo leadeth his Iſrael by a Pillar of Cloud by day, and by a Pillar of Fire by night; and there muſt be a Circumciſion and Baptiſm in the Cloud and in the Sea, and the falling of all thoſe Carcaſſes in the Wilderneſs, which are not to enter, nor ſo much as ſee the good Land, before the entrance be miniſtred to the Seed, and to that which paſſeth through the Water and through the Fire with the Seed: In plain terms, there muſt be a taking up of the Yoak, and a learning of Chriſt under the Yoak, till the Proud, the Stiff, the Stubborn, the Wiſe, the Wilful, the Selfiſh Spirit, the hard ſtony Heart be waſted and worn out by the Croſs, and nothing left but what becomes one with the Seed, and ſo is fit to be married to it, and to enter with it into the everlaſting Kingdom.

Now this bearing the Yoak, this taking up of the Croſs, this following of Chriſt in the Wilderneſs, through the Corrections of the Father, through the Buffettings and Temptations of the Enemy, in the midſt of all the Weakneſſes and Frailties of the Fleſh, going when he bids go, ſtanding ſtill where he ſtops, fighting when he prepares to the Warfare, bearing the repulſe, when he ſuffers the Enemy to prevail, and hoping, even beyond hope, for his Relief and Victory in due ſeaſon; here's the Labour, here'r the Travel, here's the Working under the Life, with the meaſure of Grace and Power received from the Life. So that firſt the Day-ſpring from on high viſits, from that viſitation there is Light entred into the heart: by cloſing with that Light there is Grace received: with this Grace received there is Work to be done for God, his Talent is to be improved all the ſix days, by all that will reſt with him on the ſeventh, and that deſire to ceaſe from their labours in the Fruition of the Faith, the Life, the Power; the Power living, becoming and performing all in them. And he that doth not improve the Talent, he that doth not follow on in the pure light, but either ſits down by the way, or is deceived with an Image of what once was true in him, he can never arrive at the Land of reſt, (though perhaps he may arrive at that which he may call ſo) but, when the eternal Witneſs awakes in him, he will find the want of it, and bitterly bewail his grievous miſtake.

Now in this hard Travel, and grievous labour under the cloſe Laws and ſpiritual Commandments of the life (hard I mean, yea, very hard to the renewed part, though eaſie and natural to that part which is renewed and born of God) it pleaſeth the Lord now and then to give a day of refreſhment, cauſing his life ſo powerfully to ſpring up, that it even ſenſibly is, and doth all in the heart. This is a Sabbath, wherein the Soul reſts in the powerful movings and operations of the life, and doth not find any ſtreſs of trouble or hardſhip, or labour upon it, but ſits ſtill in the power, is at eaſe in the life, in the eternal vertue, which lives and moves, and is all in it; and no pain, no trouble, no grievouſneſs of any Command is felt; but to it all is eaſie, all is natural, all is purely pleaſant, the life (to which all its own Laws, Statutes, Ordinances, Judgments, Ways and Paths are eaſie) performing all it calls for, even as faſt as it calls for it. And here not only a Sabbath of Days, but alſo a Sabbath of Weeks, yea ſometimes a Sabbath of Years (beſides the everlaſting Jubilee or Year of perfect Redemption it ſelf) are known and witneſſed by ſuch as have waited on the Lord, in ſingleneſs of heart under the Yoke of his Spirit, for the bringing down of the rough and untoward nature, and for the raiſing up of the meek and lowly heart.

But here it is exceeding eaſie, running out and ſtaring aſide; it is eaſie running out from under the Yoke to avoid the bitterneſs of the hardſhip to the earthly part; it is much eaſier running out on the day of reſt, and ſo loſing the truth in a joy and rejoicing, even ſuch an one as might have a true ground. Oh who can but think the bitterneſs of death is paſt, when all enemies are vaniſhed, and there is nothing left but the Lord and the Soul imbracing each other? and who can but be unwilling to come back again to his labour, and to the reſidue of his hard Travel afterwards! and yet it is far better to return to the work in the Vinyard, and to ſuffer again with the Seed, then to keep up the reſt in a notion, and ſo to loſe the life and pure preſence and vertue of the ſeed, when it returns unto, and calls back to the labour. Oh how many have periſhed here, ſuffering a divorce from that which led them into the reſt, not being willing to go back again with it to fill up the reſidue of its ſufferings, which were yet behind, and ſo have kept up a falſe, dead, notional reſt, after the true Sabbath was ended.

Now there is no way for ſuch, but to wait to feel the living breath, the quickning vertue, the day-ſpring from on high, which by the brightneſs of its riſing can diſcover this falſe reſt, this dead reſt, this notional reſt, this eaſe in the earthly, in the fleſhly, in the underſtanding part, which they uphold by things they have formerly gathered from the Scriptures, or from their own (perhaps once living) experiences; but now hold, out of the feeling and poſſeſſion of the life in the dead part. But that it is thus with them, they can never ſee, until the light, from which they have erred, ſpring up and diſcover it to them: and when the light doth ariſe and diſcover it, they will find the way of return and the path of Redemption much more difficult to them, then it was at firſt. Yet it is better to part with the eaſe of the fleſh, and to undergo the pangs of a new Birth, than to miſs of the Inheritance in the good land.

There are three ſteps or degrees of the bleſſed eſtate; Firſt, There are deſires, thirſtings and breathings begotten after the life. Secondly, There is a labouring in the ſervice (under the yoke) by the vertue which ſprings from the life. Thirdly, There is a Reſt, or ſitting down at eaſe in the life. By the ſtirring of life in the Soul, deſires after life are kindled, he in whom the deſires are kindled and who feeleth the eternal virtue, cannot but be running the Race; he whom the ſpirit of the Lord findeth faithful in running the race, it pleaſeth the Lord ever and anon to be giving him a taſte of the reſt. Thus the ſpring ſtirring, the Soul cannot but move towards its Center; and as it entreth into, and fixeth in its Center, it partaketh of the reſt. Now to know the leadings of the Spirit forward and backward into theſe, into deſires, when he pleaſeth, into the labour and ſervice of the life, when he pleaſeth; into the ſweet reſt and perfect repoſe in the life, when he pleaſeth;) here is the ſafety and ſweet progreſs of the renewed ſpirit. That man who is born of the ſpirit, is to wait for the movings, breathings and kindlings of the ſpirit in him; and when the Sun ariſeth, he is to go forth to his labour in the light thereof, and in the night and withdrawing of the Sun to retire; And when his ſeventh day of reſt comes, he is to receive it from, and enjoy it in the Spirit; and afterward to be willing to begin his week again, even till his whole race and the full courſe of his Pilgrimage be finiſhed. Yet if it were poſſible for man after he is come to Chriſt, to abide perfectly with him, to ceaſe from Luſt, to keep within the Faith, to draw naturally in the Yoke, to bow in the Spirit continually to the Father of Spirits, there would be a continual Sabbath kept in the paſſage, even before the great, full and perfect Sabbath in the end. The hardneſs and uneaſe of the labour, is becauſe of a part contrary to the life, which when it is worn out, there will be no more labour, but the yoke will become the reſt, and all the motions and operations of life will flow forth naturally in the reſt. And here is the Patience and Faith of the Saints, to wait under the yoke, under the daily croſs to that part which is to be brought and kept under, till all the bonds of Captivity be broke through by the life, and the Vail of fleſh rent from the top to the bottom (the remaining of which, is that which ſtops the free current of life) and then ſhall the Soul enter into the Holy of Holyes, obtaining the full poſſeſſion of the everlaſting inheritance and of the eternal redemption, and know Sorrow, Tears, Bonds, Sickneſs, Death, Captivity (no not ſo much as grapling with them, or travelling out of them) no more, but the enjoyment of the plenty and fulneſs of the life reaping all the pleaſant fruits of life in the rich land of life for evermore.

in

Some Conſiderations Propounded to the JEWS,

That they may hear and conſider, and their Hearts at length may be turned towards that which alone is able to Convert them to God, that they may once more become his People, and enter into an Everlaſting Covenant with him that may not be broken, that ſo they may abide in his Love and Covenant of Life, and remain his People for ever.

Conſideration I.

WHAT great Love, Mercy and Kindneſs God ſhewed to that People, above all Nations and Peoples under Heaven. Of his own free love he ſet his heart upon them, chuſing them to be a People to himſelf. He brought them out of Egypt by a mighty hand and outſtretched Arm; he mightily preſerved them in, and led them through the Wilderneſs. He entred into a Covenant with them to become their God, and betrothed them unto himſelf for his own Lot and Inheritance. He gave them righteous Laws, Judgements, Statutes and Ordinances, both of Worſhip towards him, and of an upright Demeanour and Converſation among themſelves and towards all men. He drove out the Heathen from before them, and gave them a pleaſant Land to poſſeſs, even the Glory of all Lands, a Land flowing with Milk and Honey. He built an habitation for himſelf among them, firſt a moving Sanctuary or Tabernacle, afterwards a more ſetled abiding place or Temple (which Solomon built) wherein was the Ark of his preſence, where he was to be ſought unto and enquired of by them, and towards which their Prayers were to be directed, and there was a Mercy-ſeat, whereof they had large experience, and he ever and anon ſent Prophets among them, to reprove their errors and backſlidings, and to ſet them to rights again. He raiſed up Judges likewiſe to defend them; and although they were weary of his Government, deſiring a King after the manner of the Nations ſo vehemently, that they even forced a King from him, yet he took him away from them, and after him choſe a man after his own heart, to feed Jacob his People and Iſrael his Inheritance, who fed them according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skilfulneſs of his hands. What ſhould I ſay more? what was wanting of Love, of Care, of Goodneſs, of Kindneſs, of Mercy, of Gentleneſs, of any thing that a People could deſire of their God? I ſay, what was wanting of all this on Gods part? What could he have done more for his Vineyard than he did do? Nay he emptyed upon them all the Goodneſs, all the Mercy, Love, Favour, &c. that that Covenant would hold to the full, yea and more too; for he bare with them more than that Covenant required him to bear, and redeemed them ofter than that Covenant engaged him, yea many time turned he his anger away, and did not ſtir up all his Wrath, as he might often have done according to the tenour of that Covenant. Yea, in all their Afflictions he was afflicted, and the Angel of his preſence ſaved them: And he was ſtill ready to ſay in his heart, Surely they are my People, Children that will not Lye, at length they will ſee their error, repent, and be true to me; inſomuch as he was never weary of ſaving them, of trying them again and again, of ſtirring up his Bowels of Love and Pity to redeem them, of ſending his Servants and Prophets among them to warn and reclaim them, even till at laſt it was manifeſt that there was no remedy but he muſt caſt them off, and provoke them to Jealouſie by a fooliſh Nation (Deut. 32 20, 21.) drawing them nigh to him, who had been Worſhipping Stocks and Stones, making them become a People, who had long been no people, and caſting theſe out of his ſight, making them become no People, who had ſo long been his choſen peculiar People, in Covenant with him, and nigh unto him above all the Families of the Earth.

was

Conſid. 2. What conſtant Rebellion and ſtiffneſs of Spirit that People all along expreſſed towards the Lord. What wild ſower Grapes they ſtill brought forth to him, ſower Love, ſower Obedience, ſower Worſhip and Sacrifices. ſuch as the pure Pallate of the Lord could find no Reliſh nor Savour in: But as Moſes had told them, that it was not for their Righteouſneſs God choſe them to give them the good Land to poſſeſs, for they were a Rebellious and Stiff-necked People, Deut. 9. 6, 7. So it was not for their Goodneſs that God continued his Love to them, for they were all along provoking him, Jer. 44. 4. When God came to ſhew that great Mery to them of Redeeming them out of Ægypt, and bid them caſt away their Idols, they would not caſt away their Idols, Ezek. 20. 7, 8. Neither did they regard that Mercy of Redemption from the houſe of Bondage, and from the Iron Furnace, but ſaid to Moſes it was better for them to ſtay in Ægypt, and to ſerve the Egyptians, Exod. 14. 12. Again in the Wilderneſs, how did they provoke him all that forty years of Mercy, how did they err in their hearts from his pure fear, and from Love to him, and from Faith and Confidence in him! how did they murmur againſt him, and againſt Moſes and Aaron their Leaders! How did they forget his Works and his Wonders continually! When they came near the Land, and ſhould have gone into poſſeſs it, then they would not, but repined and rebelled becauſe of the tallneſs and ſtrength of the enemy, and of their Cities: and when they were forbid to go, then they would go and fight with them. What ſhould I mention the time of the Judges and of the Kings, how often the Lord made them ſmart by their Enemies in their own Land, how often he gave them up to Captivity out of their Land, even till at length that great Captivity of Babylon befel them, and ſince that a greater Captiuity and Deſolation than that of Babylon?

Conſid. 3. Whether God, having tryed this People even to the utmoſt, by that Covenant which he made with them by Moſes in Mount Sinai, may ever pleaſe to try them ſo any more: Or if there yet remain any Mercy or Love from God towards them, whether it is not to be expected another Way, and upon another account? This is very neceſſary and profitable for them to conſider, that they may not be looking that Way for Mercy and Favour from God, in which it is never to come, and ſo have their Eyes and Hearts diverted from that way according to which is to come: For this muſt needs put them back exceedingly. if their eyes be looking out one way, and the love of God hath choſen another Channel to run towards them in. This may make them refuſe the very Mercy, Love, and Redemption, when it comes, ſuſpecting it not to be it, becauſe it comes not in the Way and after the Manner that they look for it. Now God hath expreſly ſaid, that when he ſhall be pacified them, and ſhall look again upon them with an eye of Favour, to do them good, it ſhall not be by their Covenant (which could never laſt, but was ſtill broken on their parts) but by his own everlaſting Covenant, which he would eſtabliſh to them, Ezek. 16. 60. &c. It would therefore diligently be enquired by them, What Covenant it is which is called their Covenant, ver. 61. And what Covenant it is which is called God's Covenant, ver. 62. That they may withdraw their eyes and hopes from the one, from whence their Redemption, Recovery, and Mercy cannot come, towards the other from whence it is to come? To which Query, for their ſakes, it is in my heart to return this Anſwer.

Anſw. Their Covenant is that which they entred into with God, the Covenant that their hearts choſe to unite with God by: and that was to this effect, That if God would ſhew them his Will, they would obey it, Go thou near (ſaid they to Moſes) and hear all that the Lord our God ſhall ſay, and ſpeak thou unto us all that the Lord our God ſhall ſpeak unto thee thee, and we will hear it and do it, Deut. 5. 27. Thus they thought, but the Lord knew otherwiſe, for O ſaith the Lord that there were ſuch a Heart in them, &c. verſ. 29. and Moſes knew otherwiſe, he knew that they would corrupt themſelves, and that evil would befal them in the latter days, Deut. 31. 29. But Gods Covenant was the free Covenant he made with Abraham, Iſaac and Jacob, the Covenant of his Grace, the Covenant of his free Love, whereby he was able to reach them in Egypt, upon the cry of the Seed in them (in the midſt of their Idolatries, and to bring them out and do them good notwithſtanding their ſtubbornneſs and ſtiff-neckedneſs) even before the other Covenant was made: This Covenant of Love was Gods Covenant. This is the Covenant God remembred to them in the days of their Youth, while they were young and tender, and not yet grown up to be a people under the other Covenant; and this is the Covenant which laſts for ever, which is not founded upon their Obedience, but on Gods free Love to them for his own Name ſake, and for their Fathers ſake with whom he freely made it.

Queſt. What doth this Covenant contain?

Anſw. Putting his fear in the Heart, writing his Laws in the mind, pouring of pure clear Water upon them to waſh away the pollutions of their inward parts, circumciſing the filth of the heart, healing the backſliding nature by creating of a right Spirit within, and keeping of the created Spirit right by the preſence of that Spirit which created it; ſee Jer. 31. 31, 32. Ezek. 36. 25, &c. Hoſea 14. 4. This is Gods Covenant, this is the new Covenant, which is to be made with the Houſe of Iſrael and Judah when God redeems them; and they can never be redeemed but by this Covenant, but are to remain deſolate, until the Spirit be poured out from on high upon them, Iſai 32. 15. until their Hearts be circumciſed to love the Lord their God, until his fear be placed there, and they thereby cauſed to walk in his ways. As therefore they receive the Spirit are brought into the fear, have the Law written in their minds and become ſubject thereto, ſo will they taſt of this Covenant, be brought into Redemption by it, and become a Glory inwardly, and outwardly alſo upon the Earth.

Queſt. What is the way for them to have the fear of God put in their Hearts, to have their Hearts Circumciſed, to receive the Spirit and his Laws into their minds, and ſo to come into this Covenant?

Anſw. There is no other way but that to which Moſes himſelf directed them, after God had made the other Covenant with them, and tryed them long by it, together with many Temptations, Signs and Wonders both before and after it; and ſeeing by all theſe they had not had an Heart to perceive, nor Eyes to ſee, nor Ears to hear, Moſes at length directs them to another Covenant, the Word whereof would give them Eyes to ſee, and Ears to hear, and an Heart to underſtand. Which Covenant was a Covenant beſides the former, Deut. 29. 1. And was indeed the Covenant concerning Life or Death eternal, chap. 30. 15. (the other being but a Covenant of their outward ſtate, made with them after their coming out of Egypt, upon their deliverance therefrom, and according to their choiſe to become a People to God according to it) This Word, Moſes tells them, was near them (nearer than that which was ſpoken by God on the Mount, and afterwards written in Tables of Stone.) The voice of this Word and the Commandment thereof was nearer, that they need not ſeek any where abroad for it, but only liſten at home to hear its ſpeech, obey it in the faith and live for ever, Deut. 30. 11, &c. This is the way for them and all Men to come into this Covenant, and there is no other; There is a Light ſhining in the darkneſs of mans heart, which ſprings up in him, and caſts forth its Rayes to diſcover and draw him out of the Darkneſs: Now as this Light is felt, loved, underſtood in Spirit, hearkned and cleaved to in the pure Faith, which it begets; that which cleaves to it, is drawn out of the darkneſs by it, into the Covenant of the pure eternal Light where God is, and whither all they are tranſlated, who are drawn to to him in and by this Covenant, as they are kept, preſerved, and continue in the Faith, Love, and Obedience of it. Now I would yet put theſe few things more to them.

Firſt, Whether that People of the Jews, as they ſtood related to God in that Covenant (given by Moſes at Mount Horeb) with the Covenant it ſelf and all things appertaing thereto, were not a ſhadow of ſome inward and Spiritual thing afterwards to appear and be made manifeſt in its ſeaſon. Whether they themſelves were not a ſhadow of more inward and ſpiritual People, to be gathered to God by the inward and ſpiritu-al Covenant; and whether their outward Covenant was not a ſhadow or viſible repreſentation of that Covenant, and the Laws of it a ſhadow or repreſentation of the inward Laws, which were to be written in the hearts of that ſpiritual People? Was not their Tabernacle, or Temple, a Shadow of the true Tabernacle, or Temple, ſeeing God dwelleth not in Temples made with hands, but in a poor, humble, contrite Spirit, and in the heart that trembles at his Word, Iſa. 57 15. and chap. 66. 1, 2. So was not their circumciſion a ſhadow of the circumciſion which is to paſs upon the Hearts of Gods choſen? Were not their Sacrifices Types or Repreſentations of the Sacrifices of praiſe and of a broken heart? Pſal 51. 17. and Pſal. 50. 14. Was not their Canaan, or Holy Land, a Type of the true holy ſpiritual Reſt, which the Faith gives entrance into? Their City Jeruſalem a Type of the Jehovah-ſhamma? Their Prieſts and Levites Types of the ſpiritual Prieſthood, which was to offer the pure Offering and ſpiritual Sacrifices among the Gentiles? Malac. 1. 11. Mark that place, if it did not plainly fore-tell the caſting off of the Jews, with the rejecting of their Offerings, Prieſts, and Levites, and God's raiſing up a Seed among the Gentiles, where he would have a more acceptable People and Worſhip, even a pure ſpiritual Peop'e, and a pure ſpiritual Offering.

al

Secondly. If they were Types, Repreſentations, or Shaddows of ſomwhat Spiritual to come, then were they not to give place to that which is ſpiritual when it came, and ſo to be ſwallowed up in it? Is not the ſpiritual Glory the Glory? The inward Jew, the Jew indeed? The Circumciſion of the Heart, the choice Circumciſion? The offering up of Praiſe and of a broken Heart, the acceptable Sacrifice? The Land of Life and Righteouſneſs, the true Land of Reſt to the living by Faith? Is not the ſpiritual City, Houſe, or Temple which God builds, the Jeruſalem or Temple of the New Covenant? Is not this the choice Houſe to God? And is not this Spiritual Glory to be expected in the days of the Meſſiah, and all the Types and Shadows of Moſes, which pointed at him, to end in him, when once he comes to ſet up his true, inward, inviſible, ſubſtantial Glory among his inward and ſpiritual People? When the day of Meſſiah, dawns, ſhall not Moſes his ſhadows fly away? O that your Eyes were opened to behold the inward Glory of Life, the good things of the New Covenant, the great Treaſure and Riches which are revealed and poſſeſſed in the Spirit; by the Spirits that are redeemed unto God, that ye might partake thereof; and then your Eye would not be ſo much on that which is outward, which if ye had even to the utmoſt of your deſirer, are not comparable to the inward.

Laſtly, Search the Prophets, ſee if the Meſſiah is not firſt to come in a deſpiſeable way, as a man of ſorrows, Iſa. 53. 2, 3. Whoſe Viſage in that appearance was to be more marred than any mans, Iſa 52. 14. And conſider whether he was not to be cut off, though not for himſelf, Dan 9. 26. And then to ſit at the right Hand of God, until his Enemies be made his Footſtool, Pſal 110 1. Before he come in that Glory wherein ye expect him. So that if he be not thus come already, then that coming of his is yet to be expected, and his Hands and Feet are yet to be pierced by you, and then afterwards ye may look upon him whom you have pierced, Zach. 12. 10. And all the Families of Iſrael mourn bitterly apart for it, ver, 12.

When Moſes gave the Law, the Vail was over his Face, your Fathers were not able to bear the Light wherein the Law was given, nor the Light wherein the Prophecies of the Prophets were given, and ſo they ſtill erred from the Law, were offended at the Prophets while they were alive, and miſ-underſtood their Words after their death. Now do not ye ſearch into Moſes and the Prophets, in the ſame Spirit of error as your Fathers did, being ſhut out from the Light of them, even as they were? If it be thus, if the Vail be over your hearts, if ye be ignoraut of the true Light, of the true eternal Power wherein the Scriptures were given forth, ye muſt needs miſunderſtand them, miſunderſtand Moſes, miſunderſtand the Prophets, miſunderſtand the things ſpoken concerning the Meſſiah, and ſo not be able to ſee unto the end of thoſe things miniſtred by Moſes, and of that miniſtration which was to paſs away, nor into the beginning of the miniſtration of the Meſſiah, which was to ſucceed it. O turn within to the Word nigh in the Heart, that the true Jew may be begotten and formed in you, and his Light may ariſe and overſpread you, that in that Light ye may ſee the Light of Moſes, and the Light of the Prophets, and not gather falſe meanings from their Words, but underſtand them aright in the ſame holy Spirit, and injoy the bleſſedneſs they ſpake of and directed to, which lies in the inward raising up of an inward Seed, and not in an outward Conformity of of the outward man, while the heart and mind remains unchanged and unrenewed, which can never be made new by any Ministry of the Letter without the Spirit, but alone by the Ministry of the Spirit, whether with or without the Letter, as he pleaseth.

lies

I. P.

Some few Queries and Considerations proposed to the CAVALIERS, Being of weighty importance to them.

Query I.

WHether all those Sufferings, which have befallen that Party for these many years, were just as relating to God or no? that is, whether they so sinned against him, forgetting his Name and Fear, dealing hardly with such as truly desired to fear him, (and who in his true fear did differ from their way of Worship) exalting man in an hard and arbitrary Government, both over the Consciences of the upright-hearted towards God, and over the Rights, Liberties, and Persons of the Nation, which, with many other things, as the Vanity and Excess of the Court, the loosness and prophaneness of the Gentry, swearing, drinking of Healths, and following the vain Pomps and Vanities of the World (which by their very Baptism they stand ingaged to deny) might fill up their Ephah, sway down their Ballance, and sink their Prosperity: I say, whether these and such like things, might not justly provoke the Lord to turn his hand upon them, to overturn their Church-Government, smite the King who was their strength, and bring them under the feet of those, whom before they had trampled upon and oppressed? Now though they may cry out against men, and in the day of their power fly out upon the Rod wherewith the Lord chastised them, yet this is more proper and safe, for them now, to consider what hand the Lord had in all these things, and whether he was just therein or no.

Que. 2. Whether in these their sufferings they have humbled themselves before the Lord, submitting to his hand, mourning over their sins and transgressions against him, and have more desired his gracious Mercy and Power, to pardon and deliver them from their sins, then to be freed of their sufferings; so that if ever it should please please him to take his hand from off them, and bring them again into place and power, they might not so provoke him any more, either against themselves or their King, but in true humility and in his fear (and in love to his Name, Truths, and People, and the People of this Nation) might walk Righteously, Meekly, and Faithfully in the exercising of authority for the good and peace of all, and not for the hurt of any?

Que. 3. Whether the cause (which they now may easily trample upon and despise) in those people who are engaged against them, was not just on their behalf also in its first rise, and at the beginning of the controversie; and whether their Spirits might not be stirred up by God thereunto? Wherein, if they had continued faithful, going on singly in the work of the Lord, and not seeking themselves, nor the hurt of any, but the just rights, liberties and good of all according to their engagements, this overturn might never have befallen them. But they letting God's Cause fall day after day, time after time, one opportunity after another, no marvel though the Lord hath suffered them to fall also: For it was not the intent of the Lord to set up their persons (as was often testified to them while they stood) but to set up Truth and Righteousness in these Nations, and to give his people full liberty of fearing and obeying him without fear of men. This the Lord began to effect by them, wherein their service was very precious and acceptable to him, which if they had gone on faithfully in, they had never seen this day.

Que. 4. Whether they consider the hand of the Lord in turning things thus about, or whether their eye be on inſtruments: on ſuch as were againſt them on the one hand, and on ſuch as were for them on the other hand? For is it not very wonderful to conſider, how many Plots and Contrivances they have had one after another to bring this about (ſome whereof were very likely to take, and hard to be diſappointed) and yet all have ſtill failed: and now at length unlooked for, it hath as it were dropped into their mouths in ſuch a way, and after ſuch a manner, and in ſo full a meaſure, as they could hardly have expected. O that they could eye the Lord herein, and fear before him, earneſtly deſiring and waiting for his grace to guide them. that at length one Generation on whom he ſhews mercy, might ſhew themſelves worthy of his Mercy, and not provoke him againſt them by abuſing it, and ſo on a ſudden forfeit and hazard the loſs again, of what they have been ſo long deſiring and aiming at!

Quer. V. Whether they conſider how eaſie it is for the Lord to turn things about again, in as unexpected a way to them, as this was to thoſe who are now overturn'd. Indeed they are ſetled as to the eye of man; what can withſtand them? what can riſe up againſt them? but alas, what is the ſtrength of a Nation to the Lord? The whole Nation are men, and not God; and their whole ſtrength fleſh and not ſpirit; and if the Lord riſe up againſt them, what are they before him? O that they could fear the Lord for his goodneſs, and that thoſe that are fallen under them might fear him for his ſeverity, and that we might all give over upbraiding and fighting againſt one another, and every man fight againſt the Luſts of his own heart; againſt pride, paſſion, envy, covetouſneſs, hard heartedneſs, oppreſſion of mens conſciences, doing to others what we would not receive from others, &c. for the hand of God is ſwift againſt the unrighteous Spirit, and he overturns apace. And if this preſent ſettlement do not pleaſe him, but if this generation after all their afflictions prove unworthy of this mercy, not letting fall what the hand of the Lord hath gone forth againſt, but thinking again to ſettle upon firmer foundations what God hath all this while been ſhaking, the Lord will laugh at their Counſels and at all their Strength, and overturn them in a moment. This hath been it hath undone the foregoing Powers, they have been eyeing men, and ſtrengthning themſelves againſt men, and if they could but be ſtrong againſt the viſible powers, they thought they were ſafe and ſecure enough, and ſo have overlooked the inviſible hand, which was the ſtrength that went forth againſt them. Therefore O Cavaliers conſider in this your day, how ſtrong are ye againſt the inviſible Arm of the Lord? If ye are not able to deal therewith, fear before it, and make peace with it, leaſt it prove that the Lord hath raiſed you up to make his power known upon you, and to get himſelf a name by your overthrow. This is a warning of love to you, even from that which ſaw this your day before it came.

Quer. VI. Whether an evil Spirit, a looſe Spirit, a Spirit which is out of the fear of God (and againſt them that fear God) hath not riſen up in the Nation, and been too much encouraged ſince your coming into power? The end of Government is to bring men into, and encourage and preſerve them in the fear of God, which is the ſpring of all goodneſs, righteouſneſs and equity (not to bring men into a formal way of Worſhip, that the Lord always loathed; but to incourage in the true fear, which teacheth that Worſhip of him in Heart and Spirit which his Soul ever loved.) Now conſider ſeriouſly is not iniquity broke looſe? is not the Chain as it were taking off from the Wicked, and preparing to be laid on the Righteous? What Vanity, what Exceſs, abuſe of the Creatures, Swearing, Drinking, Scoffing, &c. is already broke forth? yea, and how are thoſe that in truth of heart fear the Lord, and apply themſelves to meet in his fear to Worſhip him, already derided, diſturbed, and threatned as if this ſhould not be lawful for them much longer? Alas, alas; If ye do not take heed, your ruine will be writ, on the very entrance into your proſperity! O Nation of England, why do ye thus provoke the Lord againſt your ſelves, againſt your King, againſt your Parliament, againſt that part of the Nation who have been ſo long ſufferers? will ye throw away the Lords mercy as ſoon as it is beſtowed on you? will ye haſten to ſtir up his anger and jealouſie againſt you? O how ſhort will your day be, if ye proceed after this manner! O remember God, and be troubled and deeply humbled for theſe things; and rejoyce with trembling, and do not ſhew vain expreſſions of joy out of his fear, but let your joy be in his fear, and then we alſo ſhall rejoyce with you, and hope that the Wrath of the Lord may be diverted from this Nation, which theſe things help to kindle and encreaſe.

Quer.

Quer. VII. Have ye conſidered, or do ye yet ſeriouſly apply your ſelves duly to conſider, what the Lords controverſie with this Nation and the powers thereof all this while hath been, and how it may be ended, that there may be no more ſtriving againſt him, neither by the powers nor people of the Nation? for what are men, that they ſhould contend with God? how can they proſper therein? had they never ſo great advantage of gaining or carrying a Cauſe againſt him, yet how certainly would they fall before him! Now look back honeſtly, ſingly, faithfully, in the ſimplicity of your hearts, ſearch and conſider, what God hath contended with the Powers of the Nation, for theſe many years: and if the Lord pleaſe (to ſuch as thus ſearch after it) to diſcover what it hath been for, let the Lord have his pleaſure; for aſſuredly he will not fail of recovering and advancing his cauſe, how much fallen ſoever it ſeemeth to men, and how impoſſible ſoever it ſeem to be recovered. Let me in the uprightneſs of my heart propoſe ſome few things to you.

Firſt, is not this a likely thing, that the Lord would have the Reformation from Popery perfected? If the Proteſtants did well to leave Popery, then ſurely the more they leave it and come out of it, cannot but be acceptable to God: and the ſame Spirit which drew out of Popery, will be drawing out of all the relicks of it, and ſtill bringing into a purer and more inward and ſpiritual Worſhip? Now conſider ſeriouſly of this matter, will ye give God leave to draw his people out of whatever is left of Popery in this Nation? Will ye forbear forcing of them to ſuch things as they verily believe in their hearts to be a denyal of Chriſt their Lord and Maſter? If ye ſuppoſe ſuch, or ſuch a Miniſtry and way of Worſhip to be good, can ye not enjoy it your ſelves without forcing others (who cannot but from their hearts diſown it in the ſight of God) to ſubmit to it, and to help to maintain it? how can they do this thing, and ſin againſt the Lord? O do not ſtrive, like Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, to make Gods Iſrael to ſin! The Lord God conſiders the Sufferings of his People for his Names-ſake. O England, take heed of this thing, and do not hinder any in reforming either their Lives or their Worſhips, but at length amend this thing, which hath been ſo long amiſs in the Government of this Nation. The Government of this Nation hath been gentle to the looſe Spirit, to the Prophane Spirit; but hard to the ſtrict Spirit, even to that which fears to offend the Lord, let it now at length, after thus much deſolation and diſtreſs, become gentle to that which fears the Lord, and more ſevere to that which is looſe and Prophane. Surely he that governs under God, it becomes him to cheriſh that which is tender to God. And let the Laws in this kind be conſidered of, and ſet ſtrait for the encouragement of the good, and for the curbing of the unrighteous, looſe and prophane Spirit, that it may no longer thus ſwim on top, and abound in the Nation, but be brought under.

2. Is not this alſo likely and a fitting thing, that the Lord God ſhould have the leading and guidance of thoſe whom he begets by his ſpirit, and who are born thereof? Shall not the everlaſting Father have the ordering and diſpoſe of his own Children, to whom he gives his ſpirit to that very end, that they may be led by it, Rom. 8, 14. The Wind bloweth where it liſteth, and thou hearest the ſound thereof, but canſt not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: ſo is every one that is born of the ſpirit, John 3. 8. Now he that is begotten and brought forth by a free breath of the ſpirit, ſhall not the ſame Spirit guide and lead him out of the World to the Father, out of the love of it, out of the cuſtoms, faſhions, worſhips, and whole courſe of it? They are not of the World ſaith Chriſt, even as I am not of the World, John 17. 16. They walk not as men, or according to men, 1 Cor. 3. 3. Indeed he that is Chriſts is Crucified with him, the mans part is ſlain, and he can walk no more as a man, but as one redeemed out of the earthly nature and ſpirit; therefore the World hates him, John 17. 14. and is ready to cruſh and oppreſs him, Gal. 4. 29. but this is not righteous before God, that his Children and People ſhould be hated, hunted and perſecuted, becauſe of their likeneſs to God by partaking of his Image, and becauſe of their obedience to his Spirit, which draweth them out of all the unrighteouſneſs of the World, yea and out of its righteouſneſs too, that they may be found in the righteouſneſs, faith, and obedience of Cods Spirit in every thing.

3. Is it not fitting, that the Lord ſhould have and enjoy the Worſhip of ſuch, as he teaches and ſeeks to Worſhip him in Spirit and in Truth? The Worſhip in Spirit and in Truth is the Fathers Worſhip, that is the Worſhip which he hath appointed and choſen; and which he teacheth his Children, and ſuch Worſhippers the Father ſeeks to Worſhip him, John 4. 23. men ſeek ſuch Worſhippers as will own their form and way of Worſhip; but God ſeeks ſuch as are born of his ſpirit, and are willing to learn of him to Worſhip him in Spirit and in Truth. God is a Spirit, and ſuch as Worſhip him, muſt Worſhp in his Spirit, John 4. 24. and ſuch as live to him, muſt live in his Spirit, and ſuch as walk with him muſt walk in his ſpirit, Gal. 5: 25. this is the true Goſpel Religion, firſt to wait for the promiſe of the Spirit, and then to Worſhip and Walk with God in the Spirit. Now will ye not ſuffer God to enjoy the Worſhip of his own people, into whoſe ſpirits he breaths life, and whom he forms and begets into his own likeneſs? Conſider how provoking this muſt needs be to God, of what dangerous conſequence this hath been to the foregoing Powers, and how dangerous it may prove to you.

4. Conſider whether it be in your hearts to bring us back to Egypt, and whether ye be able indeed ſo to do. It was an heavy yoak which we lay under by the former Government, and our ſpirits cryed and groaned to the Lord, and he did deliver us, and hath brought us from under it. Now a power is riſen up which hath not felt nor known the Burthen of our ſpirits, nor been acquainted with our ſecret breathings and mournings to the Lord; nor ſeen his mighty hand in what he hath done for us, and ſo ye may eaſily be tempted to attempt either to bring us back into our old Bondage, or to fall upon us and cruſh us: But if this be your aim and intent, it will ſoon prove your ruin: for the Lord who hath given you a day (and in whoſe hand your breath is, and before whom all your power is nothing) if he ſee you thus make uſe of it can ſoon put an end to it. What is all your viſible ſtrength before the inviſible arm and power? Therefore be not high minded becauſe ye are outwardly ſo ſtrong and invincible, but fear before him who is ſtronger, whoſe eyes run to and fro through the earth to behold the carriage of things, that he may be ready to ſtretch forth his arm for the ſaving of his people, when there is none left to help them.

5. Conſider ſeriouſly and pray earneſtly, that ye may know what God hath put this opportunity into your hands for; and do not ſeek the regaining of the earthly glory and greatneſs (which we know to be falling, that the Lord alone may be exalted, as the Scripture alſo hath teſtified, Iſa. 2: 17.) but be ſober and moderate as to that, and ſeek the glory of the immortal God, who is to riſe in the Kingdom of the earth over all (Rev: 11. 15.) and ſeek righteouſneſs, meekneſs, the peace, good and welfare of all, neither doing nor ſuffering to be done to any ſort of perſons, what ye would not be willing to have done to you by them, if ye were in their caſe, ſtate and condition; and in any thing wherein ye have been injured in the time of your ſufferings and ſore viſitation by Gods hand, though ye may now blame, and ſeek to right your ſelves on the Inſtruments which God pleaſed to make uſe of to afflict you, yet it will be ſafer and better for you, if ye can forgive.

Theſe things belong to your peace, and by this means the Lords favour may turn towards you, who cannot but diſlike your beginnings; but if in a fleſhly confidence becauſe of your outward ſtrength, ye ſhall ſet your ſelves againſt the Work of the Lord, his Cauſe and People, we can ſay to you in the dread of our God, Who art thou O great Mountain? We do not doubt but before the Fanner of Babel, to ſee thee made a Plain, and are prepared in our Spirits to ſtand ſtill to ſee the Salvation of our God, whoſe arm is not ſhortned that it cannot ſave, even when the enemies ſtrength, reſolution and advantage is greateſt.

This from one who hath mourned for the oppreſſed, and becauſe of the Oppreſſions which have long abounded, praying to and waiting on the Lord for the good and proſperity of the Nation in general, and for the bringing forth of that righteouſneſs, fear of the Lord and true Peace, which alone can make it happy.

Iſaac Penington, the Younger.

Some

Some QUERIES concerning the WORK of GOD in the WORLD, which is to be expected in the latter Ages thereof; With a few plain Words to thee Nation of England, tending towards ſtopping the future breakings forth of Gods Wrath, both upon the People and Powers thereof; With an Advertiſement relating to the preſent State of Things.

Query 1.

WHether the Kingdoms of the Earth ſhall not one day become the Kingdoms of the Lord, and of his Chriſt, wherein the Lord God Omnipotent ſhall Reign, and Mans glory and greatneſs fall, that God alone may be exalted in that day? Rev. 11. 15, 17. Iſa. 2. 11, 12, 17, 22.

Que, 2. When ſhall this be? Whether this is not to be expected upon the recovery out of the Antichriſtian Apoſtacy? Whether the Man-child is not then to be expected to be ſo born and brought forth as to rule all Nations with a Rod of Iron? Rev. 19. 6. and chap 12. 5.

Que. 3. When the Son of Man comes to take the Government to himſelf, to give forth the Law out of Zion, and the Word of the Lord from Jeruſalem (Iſa. 2. 3.) whether he ſhall find Faith on the earth? Whether he ſhall find the Kings and Powers of the Earth ready to receive him, and the Profeſſors willing to ſubmit themſelves unto him? Or whether they ſhall generally combine againſt him, and he be fain to overcome them, before he can Reign over them? Luke 18. 8. Revlations 17. 12, 13, 14. Pſalm 2. 2, 3.

Que. 4. Why theſe things may not be expected in this our day, and be already begun in this our Nation, ſeeing ſo many ſtrange things have happened among us, as have not in many foregoing Ages, God having ſo ſtrangely raiſed up a Generation to do ſervice for him, and ſo ſtrangely again brought them down, when they had ſo long, and ſo often ſhewed themſelves unworthy of, and unfit for ſo great a ſervice, by ſtill ſeeking themſelves and forgetting the Lord that raiſed them?

Que. 5. How the Kingdoms of the Earth are to become the Kingdoms of the Lord and of his Chriſt? Whether it be not by taking his yoak upon them, by ſubmitting to his Laws, his Cords, and Bands? by giving up whatſoever is unjuſt, unrighteous, harſh, and oppreſſive, and coming under the Bands of Righteouſneſs, Meekneſs, and Equity? Pſal. 2. 10, 11. Mat. 11. 29.

Que. 6. Whether the Lord be ariſen to ſhake terribly or no (as was long ago propheſied he ſhould? Iſa. 2. 19.) For the Lord will once more ſhake both Heaven and Earth, Heb. 12. 26, There hath been a ſore ſhaking in this Nation, the Foundations of Government, yea the very Foundations of Religion have been ſhaken, that that which cannot ſtand might be removed out of the way, and give place to that which cannot be ſhaken, verſ 27. Conſider therefore whether theſe be the beginnings of the great and terrible day of the Lord God Almighty, or only ſome ſuch ordinary ſhakings as uſe to happen according to the courſe of Kingdoms and States, which are ſubject to changes alterations and diſſettlements?

Que. 7. When God beginneth to ſhake the the Heaven and Earth in Nations (accor- to that great ſhaking which is to be after the Antichriſtian Apoſtacy, Rev. 6. and chap. 6.) Whether there ever can be any firm ſettlement again upon the old Foundations? There may appear ſome hopes and probability of a Settlement again, which man may be tempted to faſten upon; but this will but provoke God to ſhake more effectually: for when God once ariſeth to ſhake, he will not give over till he hath made that fall, which he began to ſhake, Rev. 11. 13. O England take heed.

Que. 8. How the Kings, Powers, and Nations of the Earth may ſecure their ſtanding in that day, whether there be any way for them ſo to do, and what is that way? Whether there be any other way but kiſſing the Son, ſubmitting to his bands, being willing to be bound with the Chains of Righteouſneſs, Love, and Meekneſs, from all unrighteouſneſs and oppreſſion, both relating to their fellow Creatures and to his People? Pſal 2. 12. and 149. 8.

Com

Come O Nation of England, be bound: O Powers of this Nation, take the Lords yoak upon you, ſeek Righteouſneſs, ſeek Meekneſs, ſeek the good of all, not in Words and Pretences, but in truth and uprightneſs. Seek out that which is of God in every one of your hearts, and let that Govern for God. Do not ſmite any for obedience to the living God, but come ye alſo under his yoak, that what is not of God in your ſelves, but an enemy to your Souls, may be yoaked down: and let all Laws be formed, directed, and managed, to reach the unrighteous, that the Rod of the wicked may not always lie upon the Lot of the Righteous (Pſal. 125. 3.) nor oppreſſion and Self-will ſit in the Seat of Judgment, and paſs (becauſe of its power and authority) for righteouſneſs, Eccleſ. 3. 16 and 4. 1. O ye powers of England, ſave your ſelves and this Nation from the terrible ſtroak of God, which is very near. And let not this following advice be diſdained by you, but conſider ſeriouſly of it.

Take heed how you call any to account for what they have done againſt you. There was an extraordinary hand of God in theſe things: and in falling foul upon Inſtruments, ye may claſh againſt him before ye are aware. For their iniquity the Lord hath laid them aſide, and raiſed you up again, giving you another day of tryal: let that ſuffice, and look now to your own ſtanding, that ye alſo do not fall by following their example of iniquity and unrighteouſneſs. But if you will call them to account for any thing, let it be for being unfaithful to God and the People of this Nation, to whom they made large promiſes, but performed little. And that which God required of them (and the Nation had reaſon to expect from them) do ye now perform. Give all men the Liberty of their Conſciences towards God, let them follow him out of the Faſhions, Cuſtoms, and Worſhips of the World without interruption: And let there alſo be narrow ſearch after what is unjuſt, unrighteous, and oppreſſive in any kind; and as faſt as it is diſcovered let it be removed, that the Nation may grow out of vanity, out of unrighteouſneſs, into ſolidity and righteouſneſs, and that the fear of offending man may not affright any from from fearing, obeying, and worſhipping of God in Spirit and Truth, as he requireth, and then God will bleſs ths Nation and the Powers of it. For the Lord God taketh not pleaſure in overturning of Nations, or breaking in pieces the Powers thereof: Yet if they will by no means hearken, but harden their hearts and ſtand in the way of his Counſel and Deſign, he cannot ſpare them, Iſa. 27. 4. Therefore ſtand not in Battel againſt him, but bow before him, O ye great ones of the Earth, become low and little, that his wrath may paſs by you, let go your own ſtrength and greatneſs, and take hold of his ſtrength, that ye may make Peace with him, ver. 5. and do not go about to limit the Spirit of God in his People, that will moſt certainly ruine you. The Lord God hath begun to beſtow upon his Spirit, upon his Sons and Daughters, as in days of old, even as before the great Apoſtacy and Erring from it, and he requireth their obedience to it, and who may ſafely forbid or puniſh them therefore. Much lies upon this Land in this reſpect, O do not add more, leſt ye ſink the Nation and your ſelves. Now a little to help the Nation and Powers thereof the better to digeſt the Work of God that they may not run on headily againſt him, to their own ruine and deſtruction, let theſe two things following be conſidered.

1. Whether the People of God in the days of the Apoſtles were not a ſeparated People, a People gathered out of Nations, Kindreds, Tongues and Languages, (gathered out of the Jewiſh worſhip, gathered out of the Heatheniſh worſhip) and ſeparated to God.

2. Whether after the Antichriſtian Apoſtacy, there are not a People to be gathered again, and ſeparated again, from all Antichriſtian ways of Worſhip, even after the manner as they were before the Apoſtacy from the Heatheniſh and Jewiſh Worſhip? And ſo the ſame Goſpel which gathered at firſt, is after the Apoſtacy to be Preached to gather men again, Rev. 14. 6, 7.

Conſider well of theſe things, that ye may not ſet your ſelves againſt the Lord to croſs him in his Work in this Nation. Ye cannot hinder him from gathering his People now out of this Apoſtatized State, no more than the Jews or Heathens could hinder him from gathering his Elect then out of their corrupt ſtates. The Reformation out of Popery was very weak and imperfect, the Lord waited long for the perfecting of it; but inſtead thereof, there was rather a running backwards towards it again. The Lord hath now at length begun the Work himſelf, letting forth his Spirit upon his People, and gathering many into it, and is preparing the Stones of his Temple for his Building, and he will will aſſuredly build up his Church again, ye cannot poſſibly ſtop him herein, ye may break your ſelves by attempting to remove this burthenſome ſtone out of your way (for indeed it doth lie ſomewhat offenſively in the way of all Settlements and Governments acccording to the fleſhly wiſdom) but it will fall upon and break all that burthen themſelves with it, though not by outward Might or Power, yet by that Spirit of Life and Righteouſneſs which is in it, which the Lord is with to proſper. Conſider theſe things in Meekneſs, Righteouſneſs, and in the fear of the Lord, even in that Spirit which is fit to act for God and not againſt him.

An Advertiſement to the Powers and People of this Nation.

BEcauſe of my dear love to my Native Country, and becauſe of the dregs of that Cup which the Lord hath already cauſed it to drink of, which cannot be ſpared unleſs the Lords Will be effected without it, which dregs are ſo bitter, terrible and dreadful, as will make the ſtouteſt hearts to faint, and the confidenteſt countenance wax pale: I ſay for this cauſe, in love am I conſtrained to add theſe few lines more, that if it be poſſible this Nation may apply it ſelf, in the fear and dread of the Eternal Majeſty and Power, to make its peace with him againſt whom it hath long Warred (not only by much outward Wickedneſs, Looſeneſs, Vanity, and Prophaneneſs, but more eſpecially by ſetting up an invented Form of Godlineſs, and perſecuting the Power) and to whom it is not yet reconciled in this matter, nor found ſo much as willing to be reconciled.

The Lord God of Heaven and Earth, of Glory, of Majeſty of everlaſting Power, Victory, and Dominion over all, who made both Heaven and Earth, and hath the command of all things therein, he diſpoſeth of Nations, of Governments, of Earthly Powers according to his pleaſure, and who may ſay unto him what doſt thou? Who may implead him for making a Rich Nation poor, a Strong Nation weak, or for bringing down the High and Mighty, the Strong, Stout, Honourable and Noble in a Nation, and exalting the poor, the mean, the perſecuted? And if he turn his hand again, and lay them flat whom he had lifted up, and exalt the other even unlookt for, who can withſtand him, or who may contradict him?

Now what is in the Lords heart (who is thus mighty and abſolute) he will certainly bring to paſs, how unlikely, how contrary, how impoſſible ſoever it ſeem to the Eye of Man. If he will exalt his deſpiſed truth (which alwayes was ſo to the Eye of the great and wiſe ones of this world) or give his People Liberty to fear, worſhip, and obey him; if he will have Truth and Righteouſneſs have the Dominion in mens Heats, and in the Nations, and not the wills and luſts of men, how great and powerful ſoever: I ſay, if this be his intent, though generation ſhould riſe up after generation to oppoſe him herein, yet will he be too hard for them all, and they will all fall before him, and his Truth, his People, his holy Eternal Counſel will he raiſe up, and cauſe to Triumph over them all.

It is mans way to ſettle himſelf by outward ſtrength againſt outward ſtrength, and then he thinks he is ſafe, not Eyeing the inviſible hand which turns the Wheels, and delights to overturn that which is outwardly ſtrong (and ſeemeth unremovable) when it forgetteth him, and oppoſeth it ſelf againſt him. The Lord God loves to take his Enemies at the ſtrongeſt, when they are moſt Wiſe, moſt Mighty, euen when nothing ſeems able to deal with them but himſelf. This was it overthrew the foregoing Powers one after another, they were Courting worldly intereſt, and ſtrengthening themſelues that way, but overlooking God who riſed them, and the work which he had raiſed them to accompliſh. This turned the hand againſt them which had been for them, and how then could they maintain their ſtanding.

O that the preſent Generation could ſee the tickliſhneſs of their ſtanding, and conſider that this is their day of Tryal, and that the Lord's Eye is upon them to obſerve their wayes, to ſee whether they will now mind Righteouſneſs and the Liberty of his People better than formerly they did, and that his truth may in its life and power and not in ſuch a form or way of worſhip as they may think good to preſcribe) have its ſcope in the Nation. The Lords Eye and Heart is upon his truth (and upon his People:) and as Nations or Powers deal with that, ſo will he deal with them. Oh therefore be not deceived, for though the Lord hath often times long ſuffered his People to lie under Reproach and Perſecution, (as he did Iſrael in Ægypt for diuers Ages) yet at length he hath ſtill heard their Groans, and hath ariſen to deliver them: And though Pharaoh afterwards with all its ſtrength went after them, and made no queſtion but to bring them back again under his ſubjection (and there was nothing in appearance able to deliver them from him) yet he could not, but overthrew himſelf and his ſtrength utterly. Ye know not what ſtrong cries and tears were put up to the Lord, before theſe late Changes, that Righteouſneſs might be eſtabliſhed in the Nation, and that his People might have liberty to Worſhip him in his Fear, and according to the leadings of his Spirit, without being yoaked under any Form of Worſhip, which their hearts could not own to be of God. And when the Long Parliament was unexpectedly raiſed up, that was looked upon by many to have been the Means God would have uſed towards the effecting of this: and we cannot yet deny, but that God did make uſe of them in ſome things for Good, for which his name was Honoured. But though that Inſtrument did warp becoming unfaithful to the Lord, diverting from his Work and Service, towards the ſeeking and eſtabliſhing of themſelves and their own Intereſts, and ſo are at length themſelves juſtly therefore fallen: yet the Work of the Lord is not fallen, as relating to himſelf, though, becauſe of the unfaithfulneſs and ſelf-ſeeking of the Inſtruments which he began to uſe; at preſent it lieth under much reproach (and that juſtly as relating to them) yet for all this the Lord himſelf can bring it about again, and carry it on with better advantage to his Name, Truth, and People than if it had gone on in their hand: And the more men ſet themſelves to oppoſe it, the more glory will God get to himſelf in effecting it.

its

Let not therefore my true love to the Nation, and to the preſent Powers thereof, be deſpiſed by them: but let them fear before the Mighty God of Heaven and Earth, and in their hearts bow to him that they may be humbled, and made fit Inſtruments in His hand for his ſervice, and not be found Enemies againſt Him. If they will be fit Inſtruments for God to Work by, they muſt be Meek, Lowly,, Poor in Spirit, waiting in God's Fear for his Counſel, and not hearken to the fleſhly Wiſdom of Man, which is his utter Enemy, and will perſwade, adviſe, and inſtruct them to ſettle the Nation and Church (as they call it) in a way contrary to him, And remember this Word, Be ſure you ſmite none for Obedience to God. Limit not His holy Spirit in His People, but limit the unclean and evil Spirit in thoſe who manifeſt themſelves not too be his People. This is the true intent of Government. How can he which Governs aright under God, hurt that which is of God and for God? Or how can he ſpare that which his Sword is given him to cut down? O how happy were it for the Nation if they would let Truth have its ſcope, and let Righteouſneſs overcome them, and not contend for Shaddows againſt the Subſtance, but let the Subſtance overcome all thoſe Shaddows which have held it in Bondage, and upheld its Enemy.

The great Enemy of God, all this night of the Apoſtacy, hath been Antichriſt: who hath not been an open Enemy only, but hath appeared as if he had been for Chriſt, commanding the worſhipping and honouring of Chriſt, yea and with a great Zeal taking upon him to cauſe People to Worſhip, according to what he determined to be right: and thus he getteth into the Temple, erecting an Uſurping Authority over the Conſcience, ſetting up, and compelling to an invented Worſhip.

Againſt this kind of Worſhip God hath ſtill been raiſing Witneſſes (but he having the Powers of the Earth on his ſide, as was Prophecyed he ſhould, Revel. 17. 13.) hath often prevailed over them, Revelations 13. 7. And ſo the Truth hath been ſuppreſſed, and falſe Worſhips ſet up by the Powers of the Earth, according to that Proportion they have drunk of the Golden Cup of Fornication which doth not only deceive in one way of manifeſt and groſs falſe Worſhip, but hath many mixtures and myſteries of deceit in it, Revel. 17. 2. &c.

Now God hath a time to call for an account of the Sufferings and Bloud of his Saints, Saints, Revel. 6. 10, 11. He hath a time to judge the great Whore, Revel. 17. 1. And when the time of God's Judgment comes upon the Earth, God begins with His own house first, and so with that which hath taken upon it to separate from Babylon, to see what he can find of Babylon therein; and he will judge that before he fall upon the great body of the Mystery of Iniquity, 1 Pet. 4. 17. Heb. 10. 30.

Now therefore it behoves this Nation to consider what of Babylon may be found in it, and to part with it, that it may escape the Plagues of Babylon, Revel. 18. 4. Which are very bitter, as verse 7, 8, &c. These are the two main things whereof Babylon is guilty.

1. An invented Form of Worship, a Likeness of the true Worship, but not the true Worship it self.

2. A persecuting and endeavouring to Suppress the Power of the Truth; even of the Purity of the Godly Religion and Worship by means of this Form, because for conscience sake men who are taught otherwise by the Spirit of God, cannot submit and subject thereto.

This God is coming down to plead with in that great City Babylon, and this God will first plead within thee, O England. Consider what of this is yet remaining in thee (or what of this thy heart hankers after) and part with it as thou loveſt thy peace. The Lord is the witness of the integrity and fidelity of my heart to thee in these Lines. It will be hard for thee to escape the Lords hand, yet it is not impossible: If thou bow before the Mighty God, and lie abased in Spirit at his feet, he can open that eye in thee which can let thee see thy danger, and also the way how to escape it.

I. P.

Printed, 1660.

THE

CONSIDERATION of a POSITION

Concerning the Book of Common-Prayer,

AS ALSO

Of some Particulars held forth for Truths, by one Edmund Elis stiled a Minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

With a Warning of Tender Bowels to the Rulers, Teachers, and People of this Nation, concerning their Church and Ministry.

Likewise a few Words concerning the Kingdom, Laws, and Government of Christ in the Heart and Conscience; Its in-offensiveness to all just Laws and Governments of the Kingdoms of Men.

By ISAAC PENINGTON the Younger.

Behold, I come as a Thief. Blessed is he that watcheth and keepeth his Garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame, Rev. 16. 15.

The PREFACE.

CHRIST, the Eternal Son of God, the substance of all the Types and Shadows of the Law, was made a Priest to God, Not after the Law of a Carnal Commandment, but after the Power of an endless Life. He came in the Power of the Father, he received the Power, he Ministred the Power and in the Power. Thus he gathered together living Stones, Built them into a living Temple for the Father of Life to dwell in, that they might be filled with the Power, dwell in the Power, and be to the glory of the Power. The Church of Iſrael, the Church of the Old Teſtament, the Church of Moſes, was gathered by the Letter, was to be ordered by the Letter, was to keep and obſerve the Law of the Letter: was to have Prieſts and Sacrifices according to the Letter: But the New-Teſtament-Church was to be of true Jews, of Jews gathered in the Power, Circumciſed by the Power, Renewed in the Power, &c. So that he is not a Jew any longer, who is one outward nor that Circumciſion, which is outward in the Fleſh; But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly, and Circumciſion is that of the heart in the Spirit, and not in the Letter. We are the Circumciſion, ſaith the Apoſtle, which Worſhip God in the Spirit, and have no confidence in the Fleſh. The New-Teſtament-ſtate is a ſtate of Subſtance, even of that Spiritual Subſtance, which the Law held out in Shaddows. The Jew is inward, the Circumciſion inward, the Sacrifices inward, the Church inward, the Miniſtry inward, the Worſhip inward: All is in Spirit, in Life, in Power, in Vertue; The whole State is anſwerable to the High-Prieſt of our Profeſſion, even after the power of the endleſs Life. By the Eternal Spirit was he made a Miniſter, by it he Preached (the Spirit of the Lord is upon me, becauſe he hath anointed me to Preach the Goſpel, &c. Luke 4. 18.) through it he offered up himſelf a Sacrifice without ſpot to God, Heb. 9. 14. And in the ſame Power runs the Vein of the whole Diſpenſation of the Goſpel, for it is a Miniſtration of the Spirit, 2 Corinthians 3. 8. Take away the Life, take away the Spirit; Ye take away the Stones of this Building, ye take away the Church, ye take away the Miniſtry, ye take away all.

Now about this inward Building there was an outward Court, which had its Being, State and Honour from the preſence of the inward Life. The Vertue of the inward Building did caſt a reflection, and bring forth an outward ſtate (as it cannot but do, where-ever it appears in its Riches and Glory.) This State ſtood firm in the days of the Apoſtles, till Gods meaſuring and removing of his Temple, Altar, and Worſhippers, and his giving up of the outward Court (it having loſt the Life and Vertue, which flowed into it from the Temple, while the Temple remained within it) to the Gentiles, who under the Goſpel are ſuch as are Uncircumciſed in Spirit, and can Worſhip in the outward Court without the Spirit, The Enemy indeed fought hard againſt the Life and Power, but he could not there prevail, the Gates of Hell could not prevail againſt the true Church, which brought forth the Man-child, nor againſt the Man-child whom ſhe brought forth, but the Man-child was caught up to God, and the Woman fled into the Wilderneſs. Then that Church, State, and Worſhip, which depended upon their preſence, was diſſolved: For how could it be otherwiſe, when both the Man-child, which was the Head of the Church (from whence the Vertue, Life, and Influence did flow into the whole Body) and the Woman (or Church) her ſelf alſo were both gone out of ſight? So that the Miniſtry of Eternal life, and the Temple, wherein the life was Miniſtred, being both removed, they are neither of them henceforward to be found in that place, where they were beheld before (and where moſt eyes would be ready to look for them again) but there where the Spirit had hid them.

Now mark diligently, what kind of eſteem the true Church hath had in the World, ever ſince her diſrobing her ſelf of her outward Garments and flight into the Wilderneſs, and how her true true Seed have been handled. The Dragon immediately caſts a Floud after her; her beautiful Raiment being put off, and she clothed in the Habit of a Widow, the eye of the World could no longer see and acknowledge her to be the Church, but disdain, reproach, revile her. This is her Lot all the days of Antichrist, she is misrepresented by the Dragons Flood of Reproaches, and looked upon as a Strumpet, as one that pretends to Christ for her Lord and Husband, to his Spirit, to his Kingdom, to his Truth without a just Right, and the remnant of her Seed are still made War with by the Dragon. Who have been the hunted ones, the hated, the persecuted in all Nations, but the Tender-conscienced, who receive the Law of Christ into their hearts, bowing to him in their Worship and Conversation, and dare not Bow or Worship according to the Doctrines and Commandments of Men?

ſhe

Now the true Church or Temple being thus removed, the Outward-Court becomes the Habitation and Place of Worship among the Gentiles, all the time of the Churches abode in the Wilderness. The Spirit of the Lord having left it, the heathenish Spirit (Man's earthly Nature and Wisdom) the Spirit of Antichrist enters into it, and upholds the Form of the former Building (so far as it judgeth necessary) and here it is found Worshipping, and making a great shew of Holiness and Devotion, but in the mean time makes War with the true Worshippers, who cannot Worship in the outward Court (since the Spirit of the Lord hath left it, and given it to the Gentiles) but follow the Church into the Wilderness, and Worship in that Temple which God hath removed thither.

O where is the Eye which can read these things, as they are Written either in the Letter, or in the Spirit. Antichrist is a Mystery of Iniquity, which Works, and gets Up, and Reigns, under an appearance of Godliness; And he that will discern him and his false Ways of Worship, must have that eye which sees beyond the appearance of things, into their Nature: And in this is the Discovery of him, and the Redemption from him. And happy is he, who is not defiled with Women, but abideth in the true Virginity, expecting and preparing for the appearance of the Bridegroom.

The Consideration of a Position concerning the Book of Common-Prayer: As also of some Particulars held forth for Truths, &c.

THere is a Position laid down in some Printed Letters, concerning the use of the Common-Prayer-Book, tendred by one Edm. Elis (who professeth himself to be a Minister of Jesus Christ) to Mr. Hughes, and Mr. Ford (as he stileth them) against which Position he entreateth me, if I find upon my Spirit any thing to be objected against it, to discover it in exact and punctual expressions. This desire of his is set down in Print after the Letters.

His Position or Assertion is this: That a man may Worship God in Spirit, and in Truth in the use of that form of Prayer for Morning and Evening, which we call the Common-Prayer.

Now whoever would weigh this Assertion aright, must have the Ballance of the Sanctuary, and must put it into the Scale with an equal hand; and then looking with that eye, which is given to see the Mysteries of the Kingdom of God, to him who is born of God, the Truth or Error of it is easily discerned.

True Prayer is the breathing of the Child to the Father which begat it, from the ſenſe of its wants, for the ſupply of thoſe wants.

The Wind bloweth where it liſteth, and thou heareſt the ſound thereof, but canſt not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: ſo is every one that is born of the Spirit, John 3. 8. God by the breath of his ſpirit, begets a man out of the ſpirit and likeneſs of this World, into his own Image and Likeneſs. He that is thus begotten, wants Nouriſhment, wants the Divine Warmth, the Breaſts of Conſolation, the Cloathing of the Spirit, the Garment of Salvation, wants the Bread of Life to feed on, wants the Water of Life to drink, wants ſtrength againſt the enemies aſſaults, wiſdom againſt his Snares and Temptations, wants the arm of the Deliverer to preſerve and carry on the work of Redemption daily, wants Faith to deny the fleſhly Wiſdom, that ſo he may Truſt and Feel the vertue of the Arm of the Deliverer, wants Hope, Patience, Meekneſs, a clear Guidance, an upright heart to follow after the Lord; yea very many are the daily wants of that which is begotten by the Breath of God, in its ſtate of weakneſs, until it be drawn up into the unity of the Body, where the full Communion with the Life is felt, the Heart ſatisfied, and the wants drowned.

Now the breathing of this Child to the Father, from the ſence of theſe wants, for his Supply, that's Prayer; nay though it be but a Groan, or Sigh, which cannot be uttered or expreſſed, yet that's Prayer, true Prayer, which hath an acceptance with the Lord, and receiveth a Gracious Anſwer from him. And he that begetteth the Child teacheth him to Pray, even by the ſame Spirit which begat him. In watching daily to the Spirit, the Child is kept ſenſible of the Will of the Father, and in his Light he ſees the Way wherein he is to walk, he ſees alſo the Enemie when he is coming, yea and the Snares he is privily laying, and he feels his own weakneſs to withſtand or eſcape: and in this ſenſe his Heart cries to the Father of Spirits for Preſervation, for him to ſtand by him, for him to ſtep in in the needful time, even in the ſeaſon of diſtreſs. And thus, watching to the Spirit, the Life of a Chriſtian is a continual courſe of Prayer: He prays continually. This is the living Prayer of the living Child, which conſiſts not in a Form of Words, either read out of a Book or conceived in the Mind; but in feeling the Breath of its Nature iſſuing out, from the Principle of Life in it, to the Living Spring, which is the Father of it; who by cauſing his vertues to ſpring up in it, nouriſheth it to Everlaſting Life.

But now, man who is not born of the Spirit, but (by conceiving ſome of the Truths of God in the Wiſdom from below) hath attained to ſome change of Opinion and Converſation, he pretends to be this Birth from above, though indeed he is Born but of Bloods, or of the Will of the fleſh, or of the Will of Man, John 1. 13. and what God begets in, and gives to his True Child, he will be imitating, though he be out of the Nature and Spirit, where the True Child is begotten, and where the True gift of the Father is received by him. He will be believing, though he hath not received any Proportion of the Living Faith from the Hand of the Father; he will be forming Repentance and Sorrow for ſin, though his heart be not turned from it; he will be hoping in Gods Mercy, although he be both from off the Foundation, and from under the ſhadow of the Mercy-ſeat, and he will be praying, though he hath neither received the Spirit, nor be taught by the Spirit to pray; And ſo being from that which ſhould guide him, and teach him the truth and way of Worſhip as it is in Jeſus, he runs out into the inventions and imaginations, and ſets up a way of his own chuſing; which he having much conſidered of, and beat out by reaſonings, and fenced about with Arguments, he grows wiſe in his own eyes, and now verily believes it to be the way of God, and that he is able to maintain it againſt all oppoſers. Thus one man, he is for a Form; another man he is againſt a Form, and for conceived Prayers; and each think themſelves able to maintain their own, and to overthrow each other. But Oh that that ear were open, which can hear the truth, that where there is any true, honeſt, upright deſire after God, from the ſimplicity of the heart, it might not be thus betrayed through the ſubtilty of the fleſhly Wiſdom, which lies lurking in the wiſe, reaſoning, knowing part, to betray the poor, weak Babe. The natural man, the reaſoning man, the underſtanding man, the wiſe man according to the natural wiſdom cannot underſtand the things of God. Here's no learning to pray aright, to believe aright, to hope aright, to mourn aright, to rejoyce aright, &c. But this wiſdom muſt be brought to nothing (1 Cor. 1. 19.)

and

and a man muſt become as a Child to all knowledge, as let in this way; And he that ſo becomes a Child, is taught to pray, to believe, to wait, to hope, and all that is neceſſary to eternal life.

Now as the Father teacheth to pray, ſo he giveth deſires or words (if he pleaſe) according to the preſent need. Sometimes he gives but ability to ſigh, or groan (if he give no more, he accepts that.) Sometimes he gives ſtrong breathings, and plenty of words to pour out the Soul in before the Lord. But if a man ſhould catch thoſe words, and lay them up againſt another time, and offer them up to God in his own Will, this would be but Will-worſhip and abomination. This I have known experimentally, and have felt the Wrath of God for it. That is Prayer, which comes freſh from the Spirit; and that is a true deſire, which the Spirit begets; but the affections and ſparks of mans kindling pleaſe not the Lord, nor do they conduce to the Souls reſt, but will end in the Bed of Sorrow, Iſa. 50. 11.

Now as touching the Book of Common-Prayer, or Prayers conceived without the immediate breathings of the Spirit, I ſhall ſpeak mine own experience faithfully, which is this; I have felt both theſe ways draw out the wrong part, and keep that alive in me, which the true Prayer kills. And he that utters a word, beyond the ſenſe which God begets in his Spirit, takes Gods Name in vain, and provokes him to jealouſie againſt his own Soul. God is in Heaven, thou art on Earth, therefore let thy Words be few. The few words which the Spirit ſpeaks, or the few, ſtill, ſoft, gentle breathings which the Spirit begets, are pleaſing to God, and profitable to the Soul? but the many words, which mans wiſdom affects, hurt the precious life, and thicken the Vail of Death over the Soul, keeping that part alive, which ſeparates from God; which part muſt dye, e're the Soul can live.

The true Prayer is by that which God begets, in the vertue of his Spirit (praying always in the Spirit, Epheſ. 6. 18. Jude 20.) in the time he chuſes: for the Spirit breatheth as well when he liſteth, as where he liſteth; and man cannot limit him when he ſhall breath, or when he ſhall not breath, but is to wait the ſeaſon of his breathing, and ſo to watch unto Prayer.

Now if the Prayer be in words (for there is a praying without Words) then it muſt be in thoſe words which he pleaſeth to give, from the ſence which he kindleth, and not in the words which mans wiſdom teacheth, or would chuſe to uſe. And indeed, in the true Religion, and in every exerciſe of it, mans wiſdom is kept out, and nail'd to the Croſs, by which means the immortal life is raiſed and grows in the true Diſciple. He believes, he hopes, he waits, he prays, he mourns, he rejoyces, he obeys, &c. in the Croſs to the mortal part; not as mans wiſdom teacheth, or would teach, or can teach any of theſe things; for his Sacrifice is ſtill an abomination, even to the wiſe Egyptian part in himſelf (O wiſe man, abaſe thy ſelf before the Lord in his Spirit, that thou mayeſt read this and live) but as the life teacheth, as the Wiſdom from above teacheth, which breaketh down, ſhutteth up, confoundeth and deſtroyeth mans wiſdom, while he is teaching his Babe.

Thus have I anſwered, in the ſimplicity of my heart, to the nature of the thing, ſo far as the Lord hath pleaſed to draw forth my ſpirit; and in ſinking down to that, which thus opened my ſpirit, my Anſwer may eaſily be read and aſſented to; but to that which is in the diſputing wiſdom, out of the feeling of the hidden life and vertue, it may prove a Myſtery.

Afterwards, he alſo intreateth me to peruſe ſeriouſly, and to lay deeply to heart (in the real fear and dread of the great God) ſome particulars which he teacheth for Truths.

I perceive he is offended at the queſtioning of his Miniſtry, and that the main intent of his propoſing theſe, is to juſtifie his Miniſtry; which if they were true, yet the Preaching of them would not prove him, or any man elſe, to be a Miniſter of Jeſus Chriſt: For it is not Preaching things that are true, which makes a true Miniſter, but the receiving of his Miniſtry from the Lord. The Goſpel is the Lord's, which is to be Preached, and it is to be Preached in his Power; And the Miniſters which Preach it, are to be endued with his Power, and to be ſent by him. The Apoſtles themſelves, though they had received inſtructions concerning the Kingdom from Chriſt's own Lips, both in his Life-time, and after his Reſurrection (Act. 1. 3.) and had received a Commiſſion from him to teach all Nations, Matth. 28. 18, 19. Yet this was not ſufficient to make them able Miniſters of the New-Teſtament; But before they went abroad to Preach, they were to wait for the Power; Acts 1. 4, 8. And when they had received it, they were to Miniſter in it, that men might be converted to the Power and by the Power, that the Faith of Perſons might not ſtand in the Wiſdom of their Words, (which Paul might have abounded in, as well as others) But in the Power of God, 1 Cor. 2. 5. And this was it made Paul Miniſter in fear and trembling, leſt the wrong part in him ſhould Miniſter, leſt the earthly underſtanding part ſhould be holding forth the truths of God out of the Life, out of the Power; and ſo he ſhould convert men to the Wiſdom of the Words he ſpake, and not to the Power, ver. 2, 3. This was it he was ſent for, to turn men from Darkneſs to Light, and from the Power of Satan to God (Acts 26. 18.) from the Spirit of Enmity and Death, to the Spirit of Love and Life: And this he was careful of in his Miniſtry, that men might not run away with his Words, and miſs of the thing. And this alſo was the way whereby he diſcovered true and falſe Miniſters, I will come and know (ſaith he) not the Speech of them which are puffed up, but the Power: for the Kingdom of God is not in Word, but in Power, 1 Cor. 4. 19, 20. Many men might catch their Words, and run away with them and Preach them, but they could not Miniſter in the Power. Now the Kingdom, which the Goſpel-Miniſters are the Preachers of, conſiſts not in Words, but in Power. God hath made us able Miniſters of the New-Teſtament, not of the Letter, but of the Spirit, 2 Cor. 3. 6. The Miniſtry of the New-Teſtament is a Miniſtry of the Spirit, and it cannot be without the Spirit. It is a reaching to Men's Conſciences in the Demonſtration of the Spirit and Power (1. Cor. 2. 4. and 2 Cor. 4. 1, 2.) which, being felt in the heart and turned to, this Converts them to God.

ſion

The Miniſtry of the Goſpel doth not conſiſt in a bare opening of the Letter (or raiſing of Doctrines and Uſes from the Letter, which the Wiſdom of man may eaſily perform) as the Miniſtry of the Law did: But in bringing men to the feeling of the Spirit, even of the eternal Power of God which redeems, in turning men from the darkneſs to the light, in ſetting their Faces towards the Power. The Goſpel is the ſubſtance of what was ſhaddowed out in the Law; and he that Miniſters it, muſt Miniſter ſubſtance. He muſt have the Heavenly Treaſure (that is the ſubſtance) in his earthly Veſſel, 2 Cor. 4 7. And he muſt give out of this Treaſure into the Veſſel which God prepares And that he may do this, he muſt Miniſter in the Spirit, and in the Power. His words muſt not be ſuch as mans wiſdom would teach, or as mans comprehenſion would gather, but ſuch words as Gods wiſdom prepares for him, and puts into his mouth He that will be a true Miniſter, muſt receive both his Gift, his Miniſtry, and the Exerciſe of both from the Lord; and muſt be ſure in his Miniſtring to keep in the Power, or he will never win others to the power: But in keeping in the power, while he is miniſtring, and ſtanding in the croſs to his own underſtanding and wiſdom, giving forth the truths which the Lord chuſeth, to have him ſpeak in the word which God chuſeth, even in the words which are miniſtred to him by the power in thus miniſtring he ſhall ſave his own ſoul and thoſe that hear him even all who in fear and Meekneſs receive the ingrafted Word, which is able to ſave the Soul. For alas, alas, many have received Words of truth, and apprehenſions of Knowledge whereby they hope to be ſaved: but how few are acquainted with that knowledge which ſtands in the Power, which alone converts and keeps alive unto God! O how many Souls are to be anſwered for by them, who take upon them to be Paſtors from God, who have fed the Flock with Words, with Diſcourſes which they have made, and have ruled over them with force and cruelty, but have wanted the love, the tenderneſs, the light and power of the true Shepherd! O what will theſe do, when God requires his Sheep at their hands! O that there were an heart to conſider. Ye Shepherds of England, little do ye know what is towards you.

Now for thoſe things themſelves, which he ſaith, he he principally endeavours to make known to the Sons of Men, There is a mixture in them; which, if he could ſingly apply himſelf to wait on the Lord, in the Meek Sober Spirit, out of the conſultations, Wiſdom, and Confidence of the Fleſh, it might pleaſe the Lord to make manifeſt to him.

The firſt particular of thoſe, which he lays down for Truths, is, That the good things of this Life, Honours, Riches, &c. Unleſs we make uſe of them in the ſervice of God:

are

but Vanity, and Vexation of Spirit; And in no wiſe any more capable to ſatisfie, or content an immortal Soul, than Lime, and Aſhes, and Cobwebs, and ſuch like traſh are to ſatisfie, and keep in health the bodies of thoſe perſons, who through the depravedneſs of their appetite, deſire to feed on them.

Anſw. Chriſt by his Miniſtry, calleth his Diciples out of the World, up to the Father, out of the Honourr, Riches, and what ever elſe is of the World. How can ye believe, which receive Honour one of another, and ſeek not the honour that cometh from God only? John 5. 44, And the Rich man, he bids him Sell all and follow him. And the Apoſtle John ſaith, Love not the World, neither the things that are in the World: If any man love the World, the Love of the Father is not in him: For all that is in the World, the Luſt of the Fleſh, the Luſt of the Eyes, and the Pride of Life, is not of the Father, but is of the World, 1 John 2. 15, 16. He that will be a Diſciple of Chriſt, muſt travel out of the earthly into the heavenly, leaving all that is of this World behind him, poſſeſſing nothing as his Portion, but him who hath call'd him out of his Countrey, from among his Kindred, and from his Father's Houſe to another Land, Kindred, and Habitation. So that here they are Pilgrims, and Strangers, Sojourners, and Paſſengers, unknown to the World, and of a ſtrange Garb, Behaviour, and Appearance in it, not enjoying any thing as the World enjoys, not uſing any thing as the World uſeth, not honouring men or receiving honour from men, as the World gives or receives honour, but honouring men in the Lord, and receiving honour from the Lord: And what ever they ſeem to retain of the earthly things, they hold as Stewards under the Lord, not uſing or diſpoſing of them as they think good, but waiting for the diſcovery of the Maſter's pleaſure, who is to order, in his Counſel and Wiſdom, all that is his own to his own Glory. The Law required a Tenth Part to be given up to the Lord, the Goſpel requireth all; Soul, Body, Spirit, Good Name, &c. Even that the whole Poſſeſſion be ſold and laid at the Maſterr feet; And he that keepeth any thing back, cannot be a Diſciple, cannot be a Souldier of Chriſt, but muſt needs Entangle himſelf with the Affairs of this Life. This is Sound and Savoury, even the Truth of Jeſus, as it is known and felt in the renewed Spirit, but his Words, if he meaſure them in the pure Light of God, he will perceive not to have ſprung thence, but to have been formed in the earthly Wiſe part, even in that Wiſdom, Underſtanding, and Comprehenſion, which is ſhut out of the Myſterys of God's Kingdom.

For his ſecond, That nothong but the enjoyment of God, the Fountain of all Goodneſs, can truly and really content an immortal Soul. And for his third, That no man can enjoy God, but he that loves him with all his Heart and withal his Soul, and (for his ſake) his Neighbour as himſelf: I own both the things themſelves and theſe Words, and I felt a good Savour in them at the reading of them, only let me ſay this, if he put men upon ſtriving after theſe things, without pointing them to the gift where the ſtrength is received to perform, and where the waiting is to be for the ſtrength, he cannot Preach them profitably to his Hearers.

To his fourth, That, though every ſincere Convert, or regenerate Perſon loves God continually with his whole heart, as to the Habit, or Root of holy Love; yet whilſt he is in the Body, he may ſometimes fail of the Act, or Fruit of it, and may offend God through the love of the Creature. Which Truth (ſo much oppoſed in theſe days) is clear, and manifeſt in the holy Scriptures; Particularly, in the Records of the hainous ſins of the Prophet David, and Peter the Apoſtle.

Anſw. The Lord Circumciſeth the Heart of Believers under the New-Covenant, to love the Lord their God with all their Heart, that they may live: he cauſeth the Plant to ſpring up out of the dry and barren Ground, which he watereth with his Bleſſing; and he layeth his Ax to the Root of the old Tree, hewing at it, even till he hath cut it up: he engrafteth the Eternal Word into the heart, and by it is daily purifying thereof, fulfilling the good pleaſure of his goodneſs therein, and carrying on the Work of Faith with Power: And the Miniſtry which he gave, was for the perfecting the Saints (Epheſ 4. 12, 13.) which Miniſtry exhorted and encouraged Believers (from God's Promiſes of his preſence and powerful operation of his Spirit in the hearts of his Sons and Daughters) to cleanſe themſelves from all filthineſs of the Fleſh, and Spirit, prrfecting holineſs in the fear of God, 2 Cor. 7. 1. Now that the Corrupt-Tree ſhall never be cut down whilſt man is in the Body, that the heart ſhall never be throughly Circumciſed to love the Lord, but be in danger of offending God through the love of the Creature: This Doctrine and Belief ſpringeth not from the pure Fountain of Life and Power, but the reaſoning part hath gathered it from its conceivings beneath the power.

but

The Seed of God cannot ſin (for as he is pure which begetteth, ſo is that pure which is begotten of him) nor can man ſin, who is born of it and abides in it: and if God pleaſe to perfect the Birth and the Work of Circumciſion, What can hinder a man from being wholly born from it and from abiding in it? Indeed a man that ſtrives in his own ſtrength, either againſt ſin or towards holineſs, may well doubt of ever having it accompliſhed: but he that feels the Eternal Power beginning the Work, and carrying it on daily, cannot doubt but he can perfect it, yea, and is encouraged (by the feeling thereof) to hope and wait on him for the perfecting of it.

As for his inſtances of David and Peter, they reach not the thing: For though David and Peter did fall, yet both David and Peter might attain an higher ſtate before they went out of the Body, then they were in before they fell. David was a great Prophet, and Peter a precious Diſciple, but yet there was an higher Eſtate to be adminiſtred, even the receiving that which the Prophets Propheſied of, and which the Diſciple was to wait for. The Diſciples who had known Chriſt, and had been taught by him, and had received a Commiſſion from him, to whom all Power in Heaven and Earth was given, yet were to wait for a further and higher State, even for receiving the Promiſe of the Father, the Power from on high, that he that was with them might be in them, John 14. 17. John was as great as any Prophet, and yet he that was leaſt in the Kingdom was greater than he. Read the Acts of the Apoſtles, behold what a preceious people was brought forth, even in the beginning of the Apoſtles Miniſtry, how full of Faith, how ſtripped of the World, how Single-hearted to God, and one towards another, Acts 2. 42. &c. and Acts 4. 32 &c. What would theſe be, abiding and growing up in the Vine? The cutting off of ſin, is neceſſary while in the Body, but to make the committing of ſin neceſſary while in the Body, is a great Derogation to the Power of Gods Grace, and to the Myſtery of Faith, which overcometh the evils of the Heart, and the Worldly Nature within; purifieth the Conſcience from dead Works, and is held in the Pure Conſcience. O that men knew the Power, and the Faith which ſtands in the Power: For then would not they judge it ſo impoſſible to be cleanſed by the Faith through the Power. O that Light, that Light, that Pure Light of the Spirit, wherein the Living Bloud runs, which cleanſeth from all ſin, and keepeth clean them that abide and walk in it! If this were but a little felt, ſuch Doctrines as theſe (which are gathered in the comprehenſion from Words read, without being let into the thing it ſelf) would ſoon vaniſh, and find no place in the Heart where the Power dwells, nor in the underſtanding which is renewed, preſerved, and fed by the Power. For the things of God are to be known, and held in the underſtanding which is given of God (which underſtanding is of the Spirit, and is ſpiritual) and not with the natural underſtanding, which cannot receive the things of the Spirit, but only a carnal apprehenſion and ſenſe of the Words of the Spirit, according as a man can beat them out with, and comprehend them in his reaſoning part.

To the fifth, That the Souls of the faithful are always growing in Grace, whilſt they are in the body? and at the inſtant of death, or ſeparation from the body, our Lord Jeſus ſhall preſent them to the Father without ſpot, or blemiſh.

Anſw. Chriſt preſenteth to the Father, when he hath purified the heart and mind, and made it fit for Gods pure life and preſence. He hath received the fulneſs from the Father, and hath freely given of his Grace and of his Truth to the Sons of men, to regenerate them, to cleanſe and ſanctifie their hearts, and make them fit for God to dwell in. He ſitteth in his Temple as a Refiner and Purifier of Silver (who is like a Refiners Fire and like Fullers Soap) and when he hath purified his Diſciples, his Children, his Levites, he preſenteth them to the Lord, for the Lord to Tabernacle and dwell in, when he hath throughly conſecrated them, he preſenteth them as Kings and Prieſts to his Father, to offer up an Offering for Righteouſneſs, and to reign with him in his Kingdom, Mal. 3. 3. Rev 1. 5. And there were ſome ſo purified by the Leaven of the Kingdom (which purgeth out the old Leaven by degrees, even till at length it hath made the Lump wholly new) that to them all things were pure, Titus 1. 5. There were ſome come unto Mount Sion, and unto the City of the Living God, the Heavenly Jeruſalem, and to an innumerable merable company of Angels, to the general Aſſembly and Church of the firſt-Born, which are written in Heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the Spirits of Juſt men, made perfect, and to Jeſus the Mediator of the New Covenant, and to the Blood of Sprinkling, Heb. 12. 22, 23, 24. Thus it was before the Apoſtacy: yea, and after the Apoſtacy there were ſome found ſtanding on Mount Sion again, ſuch as had learned the New Song, ſuch as were redeemed from the Earth, ſuch as were not defiled with Women, (with any of the falſe Churches or their falſe ways of Worſhip) but had kept their Virginity in the Wilderneſs. If ye would know who theſe were, they were the firſt fruits unto God and the Lamb after the Apoſtacy, who were throughly cleanſed by the Spirit of burning, inſomuch as in their mouth was found no guile, but they were without fault before the Throne of God, Revel. 14. ver. 1. to 6.

The Work of the Spirit of Chriſt in the heart is an inward work, and doth not conſiſt in outward times or ſeaſons, but in ſpiritual degrees and ſeaſons; which when they are finiſhed, the heart renewed, the ſpirit changed, the work wrought out; then the glory of the Father is revealed, the entrance into the everlaſting Kingdom Miniſtred, and then their is a ſitting down in the everlaſting Manſion, even with Chriſt in the Heavenly places which he hath prepared, where they that are redeemed, and purged and ſanctified, ſit together with him: and as the body cannot hinder his entring into the ſpirits of his Saints, and his dwelling in them, no more can it hinder their entring into him and dwelling in him.

Now there are ſeveral exerciſes of Spirit, ſeveral meaſures of Faith, and ſeveral degrees of Life and Glory. Some are under the Clouds, ſome in the Sea; ſome in Egypt, ſome in the Wilderneſs; ſome waiting for his appearance, ſome in the enjoyment of him already appeared. In ſome the work of Regeneration, of Sanctification, of newneſs of Spirit and Life is but begun, in others it is interrupted and they come to a loſs; in ſome it is much carryed on, even towards conſummation, and ſome are already compleat in him, finding fulneſs of ſatisfaction in him (in whom the everlaſting Springs are opened, to the full content of their hearts) and bring forth fruit to him, to the full content and ſatisfaction of his heart. In the Apoſtles days there were thoſe that waited for his coming, and there were thoſe alſo that knew him come, and had received the good underſtanding from him, and were in the Eternal life, John 5. 20.

Yet this doth not exclude growth, for the fulneſs is infinite; and though a perfect ſtate may be attained in the perfect Gift, yet there is a growth in the perfection (for Chriſt who was perfect, and in whom was no guile, grew in Wiſdom and Knowledge and in favour with God and men.) And as God is infinite, ſo to that which is tranſplanted into him, there is no end of growth in him; but the Tree, which ſtands in God's holy Earth, by his pure River of Waters, ſhall grow for ever and ever into his endleſs life and fulneſs.

To his ſixth, That no man can ſo know God as to love him with all his Heart, and with all his Soul, but through the knowledge of Jeſus Chriſt, and him Crucified: Who, by thoſe grievous ſufferings which he endur'd when he was upon Earth, made ſatisfaction to the Juſtice of God for the ſins of all thoſe that believe in his Name; ſo that it is as conſiſtent with the Juſtice, as with the Mercy of God, to forgive them their ſins, and make them heirs of Eternal Life, God is Juſt, and the Juſtifier of him that believeth in Jeſus.

Anſ. The knowledge of Chriſt is like Eternal, and in his Croſs is the ſpiritual vertue, which cuts off the uncircumciſion of the heart, whereby it is enabled to love the Lord. Now Chriſt is the Lord from Heaven, the quickning Spirit, who ſoweth the Seed of the Kingdom in the Heart, and cauſeth it to ſpring up; out of which Seed the Faith, the love, the hope, the meekneſs, the patience, and every ſpiritual fruit ſprings and grows. And he that is thus born of this Seed, and receives the knowledg of life which ſprings from this Seed, he cannot but love him which begat him, and he reapeth the fruit of all that Chriſt did and ſuffered in that prepared body: and God is both Juſt, and the Juſtifier of him who is thus united to Jeſus. But that man who knoweth not this Faith, nor is acquainted with the Love which ſpringeth from this Root, and which is of this Divine nature, but thinketh to be juſtified by applying to himſelf what is related in the Hiſtories concerning Chriſt; this man deceives his Soul, and miſſeth of the true Juſtification; for God is juſt, who hath made the Promiſe ſure to the Seed, and hath ſhut out man, further than he is born of the Seed, and found in the Seed. But he who abideth in the Seed, and in whom the Seed findeth pleaſure and abideth, he cannot miſs of the Promiſe, of the everlaſting Righteouſneſs, the Reconciliation, the Peace, the Joy, and whatever elſe God giveth to the Seed.

To his ſeventh and laſt, That the ready way to receive Chriſt, the only Light, by which we may ſee the way to Heaven: or ſo to believe in him that we may be ſaved by him, is, to forſake all that we have, that we may be his Diſciples: that is to ſay, to take off our affections from things on the earth, and to ſet them on things above, where Jeſus ſitteth on the right hand of God; putting our truſt and confidence in the free, and in the infinite mercy of God, through Chriſt, to be guided by him in all our ways, to be led by his good Spirit in all thoſe ways of Grace and Holineſs, through which we muſt paſs before we can attain to Glory.

Anſ. To know Chriſt as the Light eternal, (as he was yeſterday, is to day, and will be for ever) to truſt this Light in its convictions, calls, and free openings of love, to feel its living vertue, and in that virtue to give up all that is of the earthly nature and ſpirit, to ſell all for the everlaſting inheritance, this is indeed the way to life. But it is not the doing of things which is of value, for man may imitate and ſtrive to do much, and may go a great way in forſaking all, and in taking off his affections from things, (inaſmuch as he may give all his Goods to the Poor, and his Body to be burned, and yet it profit him nothing;) but it is the doing of things in the vertue, in the life, in the power which comes from Chriſt, which is of acceptance with God, and of advantage to the Soul. Every motion and operation of true life ſprings from the root of life, and hath the vertue of the root in it: and that which differenceth it from all mens imitations, and from all the likeneſſes which the earthly ſpirit can frame, is the nature and vertue of the root being found in it. Therefore he that will be a true Chriſtian, muſt eye Chriſt the ſpring of his life, and keep in the feeling of his living vertue, and in that offer up all his Sacrifices of faith, love, and obedience to God: and he that will be a true Miniſter, muſt wait upon the power himſelf, to be an Inſtrument (in the hand of the power) to direct men to this, and to preſerve and build them up therein.

But alas, this is the Stone, which the wiſe Builders have all along refuſed! The Builders before the coming of Chriſt, they got a knowledge concerning the Meſſiah to come, but being unacquainted with the thing it ſelf, rejected both it at its coming, and alſo the Veſſel wherein it appeared. And the Builders all along the Apoſtacy, gat a knowledge of Chriſt come, and Preached Believing in him Crucified as the way to life; but the living Stone, the living thing it ſelf (which is both the Foundation, the Corner Stone, and the top Stone of the building) they have been ignorant of, and ready to perſecute every appearance of it. Chriſt can no more now appear in Spirit, than formerly he could in that prepared body of fleſh; but the wiſe Builders now are as ready to cry out againſt him for a Blaſphemer, a Prophaner of Gods Ordinances, a deceiver of the people (yea, a Witch or one that hath a Devil) as the wiſe Builders then were. But Wiſdom in all ages is juſtified by her Children, and of none elſe. He that is born of the Wiſdom, he can diſcern the Womb, and own the fruit and branchings forth thereof under the mean dark vail, whereby it hides it ſelf from all the fleſhly wiſe of every age. The Kingdom of God cometh not by Obſervation, the wiſeſt Scribes and Phariſees could not know it by all the Obſervations, which they could gather out of Moſes and the Prophets Writings, nor can any now know it, by any obſervations they can gather out of the Apoſtles Writings; but by being born of that ſpirit whereof they were born, and by being formed in that Womb wherein they were formed, by this means alone is the thing come to be known which they knew. He that receiveth the ſame eye, ſeeth the ſame thing, according to his meaſure; and coming to the life, wherein they received the Truth, the words which they ſpake concerning the Truth are eaſie. Thus as they were writ in the Spirit, ſo are they there along truly read; and being ſo read, they become exceeding profitable to that which ſo reads them; but man gueſſing, and imagining and reaſoning in his carnal wiſdom concerning the things of God, and ſo gathering ſences and meanings about the words and expreſſions of Scripture, doth but build up a Babel, which the eternal Life and Power will throw down (when ever he appears) with that which built it. O that men were wiſe to wait for the diſcovery of the true Rock, and of the true Builder upon that Rock, that that City and Building might be raiſed in them, which God alone can rear, that they might not be left deſolate and miſerable in that ſtormy day, which will ſhake all Buildings and Foundations, and Rocks but our Rock; wherein all Profeſſors, and Preachers, and high Notioniſts, and whatever ſort elſe can be named (who have ſtumbled at Gods living Truth, and at the pure appearance of his redeeming Power, which in this age hath mightily broke forth, after the long dark night of Apoſtacy, to the ſight of eery eye which is opened in the Spirit) ſhall confeſs with tears, ſorrow, anguiſh and ſhame, that their Rock is not as our Rock, they themſelves being Judges. For though all ſorts of Profeſſors generally own Chriſt as the Rock in words, yet moſt miſs of the thing: and the ſubtile Enemy hath made uſe of a Notion, or apprehenſion of the thing in the carnal mind, to deceive them of the thing, to keep them from feeling the eternal vertue, the living Power of Life in the heart, which is the Arm of Gods Salvation, whereby Chriſt draws mans loſt Soul and Spirit out of the Pit, out of the Grave of Sin and Corruption up to the Father. But O how are poor hearts deceived, who think by a believing of what Chriſt did, of a ſatisfaction he made for them while he was here on Earth, though they lye in the Pit all their days, though they carry the body of ſin about with them to the very laſt of their time here in the body, and have not felt the Arm of Gods Power breaking down their ſpiritual enemies, their luſts, their corruptions, and redeeming them from them, yet hope to be ſaved in the end, and to be preſented without ſpot or wrinkle to God! Chriſt had the name Jeſus given him, becauſe he was to ſave his People from their ſins: and no man can truly and livingly know the name Jeſus, further than he feels the ſaving vertue of it: but he that effectually feels the vertue, he indeed knows the name, and can bow at the name, feeling his luſts and enemies bowed under by the power thereof, and that raiſed up in him, which can Worſhip the Father in the Spirit and in the Truth. O that the Sons of men knew, O that the Teachers and Profeſſors of this Age knew, what they have ſo long reviled and trampled upon! Surely they would mourn bitterly, kiſs the Son, and eſcape the Wrath.

raiſed

Now, if the Lord pleaſe to ſmite any ones earthly wiſdom and comprehenſion (which is the main thing which ſtands in the way of the pure openings and revelations of the life) and give him the feeling of any thing here written, let him in fear acknowledge the Lord, ſacrificing to his goodneſs, and waiting upon him to be kept in that feeling, not magnifying or villifying any of his Inſtruments, but in meekneſs and humility embracing the inſtructions of the Almighty, from the hand which he pleaſeth to give them forth by. As for me, I am but a Shell; and if this party knew me (who ſets me up ſo high, preferring me above many, whom the Lord hath preferred far above me) he would ſoon acknowledge me to be a very poor, weak contemptible one: yet this I muſt by no means deny, that the pure Liquor of the eternal Life, at its pleaſure ſpringeth up and iſſueth out through me; though I can alſo in true underſtanding ſay, that it iſſueth out far oftener and much more abundantly through others. Let it have its honour, wherever it appears; and the Lord bring down that in peoples hearts, which hindreth the owning and receiving of its vertue.

A Warning of tender Bowels to the Rulers, Teachers, and People of this Nation, concerning their Church and Miniſtry.

THat there was a Fight between the Dragon and his Angels, and Michael and his Angels, concerning the New-Teſtament-Church and Miniſtry, is manifeſt even from the Letter of the Scriptures, Rev. 12.

That the Dragon and his Angels, though they could not get the better, as relating to the Power, yet that they did get the better as relating to the Form, inſomuch as that they overcame the third part of the true Miniſters, and drew them from their ſtanding in the Firmament of Gods Power, off to their earthly Miniſtry, and that the Church her ſelf alſo was fain to fly into the Wilderneſs, from the face of the Dragon, for her ſafety and preſervation, where ſhe was to be nouriſhed and fed by God all the time of Antichriſts Reign; this likewiſe is not onely revealed in the Spirit, but is alſo manifeſt from the Letter, Rev. 12.

That after this Flight of the true Church, and overcoming of the true Miniſtry, the Dragon erected his falſe Church and Miniſtry (which had but at beſt the Form without the Power) over all Nations, Peoples, Multitudes and Tongues, this is alſo as evident, to them that read the Prophecies of the Revelation, in the Light of that Spirit that wrote them. Is not the falſe Woman (after the true Woman was fled) manifeſtly deſcribed? Rev. 17. which hath a bewitching Cup of Fornications, v 2, 4. Mark, She hath not the true Cup of Bleſſing, her Cup is not filled with the Wine of the Kingdom, it is not the Cup of the true Spouſe (which keeps Chaſt and Loyal to the Bed of the Husband) but the Cup of Fornications, wherein is a form of Doctrine, and Diſcipline, and Order, and Church-Government which leads from the Life, which bewitches from the Power, which luls aſleep in a Form of Profeſſion and Worſhip of Chriſt, without knowledge of, guidance by, and ſubjection to his Spirit. And this is the Government, Miniſtry, and way of Antichriſt, where-ever it is found: how curiouſly ſoever the Cup be guilded, yet it is but the Cup of Fornication, which bewitcheth the heart with its golden appearance, and then leads it into adultery from the Life. And the Dragon doth not only ſet up a falſe Church over the Nations (in many parts whereof the truth had before appeared) Rev. 17. 15. But a falſe Miniſtry alſo. There's a falſe Prophet (which deceiveth with Miracles and falſe appearances of Truth) advanced in this corrupt ſtate: which falſe Propher continues and upholds his deceit over the Nations, till the mighty apperance of Chriſt in Spirit and Power, doth judge him, Rev. 19. 20. 2 Theſſ. 2. 8. There is a Beaſt with Horns like a Lamb, who doth great Wonders, ſo that he maketh Fire come down from Heaven on the Earth, in the ſight of Men, and deceiveth them that dwell on the Earth, &c. Rev. 13. 13, 14. Inſomuch as he draws the King and Inhabiters of the Earth (in a Myſtery of Deceit) into the Bed of Whoredom and falſe Worſhip, inſtead of the pure Way of Life, and pure Worſhip of the living God, in his Spirit, and in his Truth, Rev. 17. 2.

Is it not further manifeſt, that this falſe Church and falſe Miniſtry. ſet up in the World by the Power of the Dragon, perſecute Gods Witneſſes to the Truth, in all the Ages of Antichriſt's Reign? So ſoon as ever the Church was fled into the Wilderneſs, the Dragon forthwith went to make War with the remnant of her Seed, which kept the Commandments of God, and had the Teſtimony of Jeſus Chriſt, Rev. 12. 17. And it was given unto him to make War with the Saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all Kindreds, Tongues, and Nations. And all that dwell upon the Earth ſhall worſhip him, whoſe names are not written in the Book of Life, of the Lamb ſlain from the Foundation of the World. If any man have an Ear, let him hear, Rev. 13. 7, 8, 9. And he had power to give life unto the Image of the Beaſt, that the Image of the Beaſt ſhould both ſpeak, and cauſe that as many as would not worſhip the Image of the Beaſt ſhould be killed. And he cauſeth all, both ſmall and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a Mark in their right Hand, or in their Fore-head. And that no man might buy or ſell, ſave he that had the Mark, or the Name of the Beaſt, or the Number of his Name, Rev. 13. 15, 16, 17. Yea, The Woman (the falſe Church, which the Dragon had ſet up, by his power in the Nations, inſtead of the true) was drunken with the Blood of the Saints, and with the Blood of the Martyrs of Jeſus, Rev. 17. 6. O the miſery, and lamentable hard uſage of the Witneſſes of Jeſus, who have been true Lambs, born of the Power, faithful to the Power, witneſſing againſt every form and appearance of Religion, Doctrine, and Worſhip, which hath appeared without the Power even in the days of greateſt Profeſſion and higheſt Devotion under the Apoſtacy from the Power) how have theſe been hunted perſecuted, devoured by the Wolves in the Sheeps cloathing, who had got the outſide, the garment, the Name of Chriſt and Chriſtianity, the Profeſſion of Church, Miniſtry, and Ordinances, but have wanted the Life, the Virtue, the thing it Self; and ſo have turned againſt it, and kept it down, that they might keep up their Form! For let but the power appear, the Form without the Power is ſoon detected to be what it is. And this is properly Antichriſt and Antichriſtianiſm, to wit, Not openly to appear in a direct denyal of Chriſt, his Truths and Worſhip, but to ſet up a way of Knowledge and Worſhip without his Spirit. Another Spirit creeping into the Form, that's Antichriſt (and the ſetting up obſervation and practice of the Form out of the Life and Power, that is Antichriſtianiſm) and this is the Perſecutor, Deſtroyer, and Devourer about Religion.

Now

Now though the Lord hath ſuffered this falſe Church, and falſe Prophet to Reign long in the Dragons Power, and to revile and worry his poor Lambs, in ever Age of Antichriſts Reign; yet the Lord hath appointed a ſeaſon to judge this falſe Church, Rev. 17. 1. to caſt the falſe Prophet into the Lake, Rev. 19. v. 20. Yea and to torment with fire and brimſtone, all the falſe Worſhippers, Rev. 14. 9, 10, 11.

O how deeply doth it concern England, her Rulers, her Teachers, ye the whole People thereof, to conſider their Ways, to conſider their Worſhip, to conſider their Church-ſtate, to conſider their Miniſtry, that they be not overwhelmed at unawars in the bitter Wrath of the Almighty, before which there is no ſtanding. O that they could mourn, and pray, and wait for the Eye of God's Spirit, for his pure Light, which ſearcheth and diſcovereth all the deceits of Antichriſt; that they might not be bewitched with any of the Wine of the Fornication of the falſe Woman, Whoſe Heart is Snares and Nets, and her Hands as Bands, to entangle her Lovers in, and keep them from the pure Bed of Life, where the Father of Life, with the Son and Spirit, are enjoyed and worſhipped.

If men conſult concerning theſe things in the Wiſdom of the fleſh, they will be entangled, and err, for that eye cannot ſee the Myſterys of the Kingdom, or the courſe either of Truth or Deceit. The Goſpel, the Eternal Truth, the true Church, the true Miniſtry, are all ſpiritual (not new ſhaddows, as the things under the miniſtration of the Law were, but Spirit and Subſtance) and they can only be ſeen by the ſpiritual Eye of the Children of Wiſdom. The wiſe Hunters, and diligent Enquirers, into the comprehending part, cannot find the Womb or the Way of Life, or the Way of the Worſhip of that which is begotten in the Life, or God's Way of Miniſtry, which he hath appointed for the feeding and preſerving of the Life. The Prophets of old could not be known, diſcerned, or owned by the fleſhly Eye of obſervation in Iſrael, after the fleſh (but they ſtill rejected them, eſteeming and magnifying the falſe Prophets above them) how much leſs can the Prophets and Miniſters of the New-Teſtament be ſeen by Mans eye? Are they the Prophets and Miniſters of Chriſt, which a Nation cries up for ſuch, and which the Eye of the Wiſe men therein admires, and pitches upon? Or, are thoſe they which the renewed eye, in the Light of the Lord, ſees to be fitted, ſanctified, and called forth by Chriſt unto that ſervice? Ah poor England, muſt thou fall into the Pit before thine eyes be opened.

The great Controverſie of this Age is about Church and Miniſtry, which muſt carry it, the Form or the Power? Whether the Church and Miniſtry ſhall take place which was before the Apoſtacy, or that which hath ſprung up in or ſince the Apoſtacy? Whether Mans Wiſdom ſhall determine which is the true Church, and its true Miniſtry, or whether the Spirit of God ſhall determine it? Whether a Nation, with the Miniſters it ſets up, ſhall be the Church and Miniſtry? Or whether God's holy Nation (which he calleth and ſanctifieth by his Spirit) and the Miniſters which he chuſeth, and ſendeth to gather and build up his in the holy Faith, and pure Power of Life, ſhall be the Church and Miniſtry? Our Eyes wait on the Lord to ſee this Controverſie determined, and our hope of help is in his Arm, nor are we at all affrighted at the riſing of any ſtrength againſt us (our hearts being given up to God's Truth, and to ſuffer for its Teſtimony, according to God's Will, meekly and patiently in his Strength) but we pity this poor Land, yea in the depth of Bowels we pity the Rulers, the Teachers, and People therein. O that they might be humbled, and in fear of the Great God, ſurrender to him his due, before he appear in his ſtrength to force it from them.

Of the Kingdom, Laws, and Government of Chriſt in the Heart and Conſcience, its Inoffenſiveneſs to all juſt Laws and Governments of the Kingdoms of Men.

CHriſt's Kingdom, God's Kingdom, the Kingdom of Heaven (for they are all one, and the ſame) is that ſeed of Eternal Life, which God hath hid in the hearts of the Sons

Sons of Men, whereby he gathereth them back unto himſelf, bringeth them under the Yoak of his Government, ruleth over them, and reigneth in them.

This Kingdom is likened to a Grain of Muſtard-Seed, for its ſmalneſs; to a Pearl, for its Riches, Value, and Worth? to Leaven, for its ſpreading Nature. And many other Parables did Chriſt make uſe of to diſcover it by, as to a piece of Silver, which the Woman that loſt it, lighting the Candle, ſweeping the Houſe, and ſearching it diligently, at length found it even there where ſhe had loſt it.

Man fallen from God, is become loſt as to the Lord, and as to his own happineſs in the Lord, being driven from his bleſſed Preſence, and divine Image, Life, and Spirit, into the earthly Spirit, Image, and Life which he choſe. Yet in this Earth, in this Field of the World, God hath hid ſomewhat, even the Everlaſting Pearl; which, when man is awakened to ſeek, and findeth in the living Breath, in the eternal Light of Life, it is able to redeem him, it is able to overſpread (he becoming ſubject to the Laws, Leadings, Teachings and Power of it) and leaven him into the Likeneſs and Image of the pure Life and Spirit.

O that men knew the Gift of God, O that men knew the Purchaſe of the Bloud of Chriſt, O that men knew that ſpiritual good thing, which Chriſt (who dyed for them) hath given to Redeem them by, that in that they might be united to Chriſt, and ſo by him be Renewed and Reſtored to God. For as the Father receiveth none but through the Son, ſo the Son receiveth none but in that gift which he beſtoweth from the Father. He owneth no Faith, no Love, no Hope, no Repentance, no Obedience, but what ſpringeth from that, and ſtandeth in that.

Now as man is Born of this, is Leavened by this (as he becomes a Fool in his own Earthly Wiſdom and excellency of the fallen Spirit, and becomes a Babe, Child, a Simple, Innocent, &c.) ſo he enters into the Kingdom, being ingrafted into the Root, through the Virtue of this which is given him from the Root, and ſo grows up in this, and this in him. And here's the new Nature, the new Life, the new Heart, the new Spirit, in which the Unity and Fellowſhip with God is again known, and the Diſunion with the World, the Wiſdom, the Intereſts, the Faſhions, the Cuſtoms, the Fears, the the Hopes, the Delights, the Joys of this World, and whatever elſe is of it. For Chriſt, as he is not of the World, ſo he calleth men out of the World; and they which follow him, and become his Diſciples, go out of the World after him; that is, travel in Spirit and Converſation from what is of the Earth, from what ever is not of the Father, but of the World. They are not of the World, as I am not of the World (ſaith Chriſt concerning his Diſciples, John 17. Therefore the World hateth them.

The Laws of this Kingdom are given forth in the Kingdom, from the Covenant of Covenant of life, which is made there in Chriſt. They are written in the heart, in the mind, as far as it is renewed. There the Fear is put, there the Eternal Wiſdom is opened, there is Sion known, and the Jeruſalem which is from above, and the Laws of eternal Life iſſue freſh from it, and are revealed by the Life, in the heart which is turned towards the life. There ſin is reproved, and everlaſting Righteouſnes manifeſted, in the Light which cannot deceive: and as the heart is made ſubject under the yoak, ſo ſin is wrought out and righteouſneſs brought in; and under the croſs or yoke of life, the bloud of the everlaſting Covenant runs through the Veſſel, to keep it pure, ſweet, clean and freſh in the life.

This then is the Government of Chriſt, to be ſubject to his Spirit, which appears and opens his Will, in the gift of Grace which comes from him: to feel his living Breath, by which the heart is begotten to God, out of the Region of Darkneſs; to know the movings, the ſtirrings, the leadings, the ſteps of the Lamb, who is The Captain of our Salvation; and to follow him where-ever he goes. doing all things that he commands, forbearing all things that he forbids, without Murmuring, without Diſputing.

Who ever will be of the inward Iſrael, the ſpiritual Iſrael, which Chriſt redeems out of the ſpiritual Ægypt, and leads through the ſpiritual Wilderneſs, into the Land of Reſt, muſt know his leader, muſt receive his Spirit, and follow it faithfully. If any man hath not the Spirit of Chriſt, he is none of his, he is none of the ſpiritual Iſrael: And if any man follow not the Spirit of Chriſt through all the Travels in the Wilderneſs, (but either ſits down by the Way, or lies overcome by any kind of Enemies, and comes not to the end of his Journey, finiſhing the Warfare and Fight of Faith) he falls ſhort of the reſt. O that men were awakened to conſider of things as indeed they are: For Religion is not ſuch an outward Form of Doctrine, or Worſhip of any ſort, as men generally (whoſe poor Souls are deceived through the ſubtilty of the powers of darkneſs) are too apt and willing to apprehend; but it conſiſts in Spirit, in Power, in Vertue, in Life: Not in the oldneſs of any Form which paſſeth away, but in the newneſs of the Spirit, which abideth for euer; in being born of the Spirit, in abiding in the Spirit, in living, walking, and worſhipping in the Spirit, yea, in becoming and growing into Spirit, and into eternal Life: For that which is born of the Spirit, is Spirit. O that the Sons of Men would hearkened, that they might taſte of the ſweetneſs and riches of the goodneſs, which the Father in his free Love hath opened in the Spirits of many, and hath let the Spirits of many into. O that men would ſuffer the wearing out of this earthly Spirit and Wiſdom, that they might become like God, be formed into and live in his Image: How long ſhall the Deſtroyer in every Age, prejudice men againſt them in that age, which ſeek their good with their hearts! How long will the World ſtand in enmity againſt the Generation of God's choice, and provoke the Lord to Wrath againſt them! Surely the Spirit of this World will try it out to the very laſt againſt the Spirit of God: For indeed the Spirit of this World is not ſubject to the Spirit of God, nor indeed can be, and ſo cannot endure the Government of his Kingdom (which is not of this World) to be ſet up in the ſight of it.

to

Yet the Government of Chriſt and his Kingdom, is not oppoſite to any juſt Government of a Nation or People. Chriſts Government is a Righteous Government of the heart, or inner manchiefly, which doth not oppoſe a Righteous Government of the outward man. Nay, thoſe who are Chriſts ſubjects, and ſingly obedient to his Law of Righteouſneſs in their ſpirits; are more faithful to men, and more ſubject to any juſt Law of Government, than others can be: for their fidelity and ſubjection is out of love, and for Conſcience ſake. But this is it which offends the World, men many times make Laws in their own will, and according to their own Wiſdom (now the wiſdom of the World is corrupt, and hath erred from the guidance of God) and are not free from ſelf-ends and intereſts, not being gathered into that, which cleanſeth and keepeth pure the naturals. Now that which is of God, cannot bow to any thing which is corrupt in man: it can lye down and ſuffer, and bear the plowing of long and deep furrows upon its back, but it cannot act that which is againſt its life. It cannot be diſloyal to its King, to gratifie the ſpirit of this World; but what Practice or Teſtimony its King calls for, againſt the evil and corruption of this World, it muſt obey ſingly and faithfully.

God in every age ſo bringeth forth and ordereth his innocent Lambs and People, as that they are ſtill offenſive to the preſent age. The Lord fitteth them, and calleth them forth to be Witneſſes againſt the evils of the preſent age, How can they but offend it? Can darkneſs chuſe but hate the light, which ſpeaks againſt it? How can darkneſs in Power and Dominion, bear to be reproved by a mean contemptible appearance of the Light, in mean and contemptible Veſſels? For God chuſeth the weak, and fooliſh things of this World, and things that are not, to bring to nought things that are. Look into former ages, How did God reprove the Kings and Princes of Iſrael? Not by the eminent Prieſts and Prophets, whom they expected to be taught by, but by Herdſmen, by Plowmen, by Prophets which they deſpiſed. How did he overcome the Heatheniſh World, yea, and the Jewiſh corrupted ſtate? Was it by wiſe learned men (by the learned Scribes and Phariſees among the Jews, or by the wiſe Grecians among the Heathen) or by Fiſhermen and Publicans? and how ſhall the recovery out of the Apoſtacy, and the reproof of the Antichriſtian World be? Shall it be by wiſe Synods and Councils of Learned and Orthodox men among them (as they ſpeak?) Or ſhall it be by the learning of the ſpirit in ſuch as theſe contemn? When God hath the rich Treaſure of the Knowledge of his Kingdom to manifeſt in the World, he chuſes earthen Veſſels, weak veſſels, poor contemptible perſons (he appears there, (where the eye of man leaſt looks for him) that the excellency of the Power might appear to be of him wholly, and that the Veſſel might rob him of none of the Glory of it. Now the Lord hath not only choſen, in this day of his great appearance in ſpirit to the ſpirits of his People, mean Inſtruments, but mean things alſo, fooliſh things, weak things, the keeping on of an Hat, the uſe of ordinary Language, the appearing in mean habits and deſpiſed geſtures, yea, and in a fooliſh way of Preaching (indeed it is ſo, to that which hath not the ſavour of the Vertue and Power of the life in it) And how can the wiſdom of man but ſtumble at it? Who would think that God ſhould require ſuch things, or appear in ſuch things? O living eternal Power, how is thy mighty Preſence and Appearance vailed from all, that look for it in any way of mans obſervation, or judge it with the eye of mans wiſdom! Verily, thou art a God that haſt hid thy ſelf from the earthly ſpirit in its utmoſt Wiſdom, yea, in its utmoſt ſearch after the knowledge of, and in the midſt of the higheſt profeſſion of Religion! Which of the Wiſe, which of the Scribes in this Age can diſcern any of the Paths, or ſo much as one of thy Foot ſteps! Oh that men would fear before the Lord, and be ſure to govern in that which is of God, and then they ſhould harm none of his, nor hazard the ſhaking of their Government; but whatever is not of God, both within and without, muſt fall in the day of Gods power. O happy is he, who is now made willing to part with that, which God is determined to rend from man, that his ſtanding may be in that which cannot be ſhaken. For there hath been a great Earthquake in this Nation, both of things without and of things within; and there yet remains ſomewhat to be ſhaken both without and within, that the Glory of God may have room to appear. O England, Kiſs the Son leſt he be angry: Let all ſuch Laws and Cuſtoms as are not of him, fall before him, and whatever is of him, let it bow unto him (both within and without) that his Wrath break not forth like a fire, which none can quench. For the Lord hath mighty things to bring to paſs, and he hath a mighty Arm of Power to effect them by, and what ſhall be able to ſtand before him, that ſtands in his way?

way

An ANSWER to that common Objection againſt the QUAKERS, That they condemn all but themſelves, With a Loving and Faithful Advertiſement to the Nation and Powers thereof.

OBJECTION.

IT is commonly Objected againſt us, That we condemn all but our ſelves, all the Proteſtant Churches, Martyrs, and Worthies formerly (many of whom were valiant Champions againſt Rome, and divers of them ſealed their Teſtimony with their Blood) and all ſorts of Chriſtians and Profeſſors at preſent, who are not juſt of our ſtamp and way, though otherwiſe never ſo zealous and upright hearted towards God.

ANSWER:

The Proteſtant Churches (as they are called in way of diſtinction from the Church of Rome) the bleſſed Martyrs, who ſuffered for the Teſtimony of a pure Conſcience towards God, and all the Worthies of the Lord in their ſeveral Generations, who fought againſt that Scarlet Whore, were accepted of God in their Teſtimony againſt her, and are not diſowned by us, but dearly owned and honoured therein: And for agreeing with them in their Teſtimony in ſeveral things, as againſt deriving of a Miniſtry from Rome (which Luther wrote againſt, and John Hus Propheſied of another Miniſtry to ariſe) and againſt maintaining the Goſpel Miniſtry by Tythes, or any other way of forced maintainance, which (till Popery grew very ſtrong and powerful) was known to have been free, and againſt ſwearing, &c. (Walter Brute ſaid, the perfection of Chriſtian men is not to ſwear at all, becauſe they are ſo commanded of Chriſt, whoſe commandment muſt in no caſe be broken, although that the City of Rome is contrary to this Doctrine of Chriſt, Fox his Acts and Monuments, Page 460, 461. And ſee alſo Page 495. Thorp's Teſtimony both about Tythes and Swearing.) For theſe very things and ſuch like (as for following of Chriſt, in not receiving or giving that honour which is out of the Faith, and for for teſtifying againſt the Hypocriſies and Corruptions of our age) do we ſuffer in this our day, even as they did in their day, from the ſame Spirit that perſecuted them; which though it hath much changed its form and way of appearance, yet ſtill retaineth the ſame nature.

But all things were not diſcovered at once. The times were then dark, and the light ſmall: yet they being faithful according to what was diſcovered, were pretious in the Lords eyes; and what through ignorance they erred in, the Lord winked at and overlooked, being pleaſed with that ſincerity and ſimplicity of heart, which he had ſtirred up in them towards himſelf. But if they were now alive in theſe our days, and ſhould depart from the ſincerity which was then in them, and oppoſe the Light of this age; they would not then be accepted of the Lord, but their former ſincerity would be forgotten. For the Light ſhineth more and more towards the perfect day: and it is not the owning of the Light as it ſhone in the foregoing ages, which will now commend any man to God, but the knowing and ſubjecting to the Light of the preſent age. Even as in theſe our days, there was (ſome years ago) an honeſt zeal and true ſimplicity ſtirring in the Puritans (eſpecially among the Non-conformiſts of them) which was of the Lord, and was very dear to him; And had the Generations of this age abode there, they would have been able to have followed the Lord in every further ſtep and leading of his Spirit. But departing from that into ſome form or other, the true ſimplicity withered, and another thing began to live in them; and ſo they ſetled upon their lees, magnifying the form they had choſe to themſelves, till at length their hearts became hardned from the pure fear, even to the contracting of a ſpirit of Prophaneneſs, inſomuch as they could mock at the next remove and diſcovery of the Spirit as ſome new Light: and ſo by degrees have grown perſecutors of that ſpirit in its out-goings in the people of the Lord, which they themſelves had once ſome taſte of, while they were reproached for Puritans. And the God of this World, who at firſt tempted them aſide into the form, hath at length prevailed ſo far to blind them therewith, that they can neither ſee what ſpirit they themſelves are of, nor what ſpirit it is they perſecute.

Let therefore people conſider the truth of the thing, as it is before the Lord: We do not caſt dirt upon any, in whom the truth of God hath ſtirred and appeared in any meaſure in former ages, or in this our age: but this we teſtifie againſt, to wit, the ſetting up of any form without the life; for it is the erring ſpirit which ſtill cryeth up the form, to keep down the power by the form, and ſo by the help of it to bewitch from the Spirit, wherein is the life, and not in the form. This was the painted Jezabel of the Apoſtles Age, falſe teachers finely dreſſed up themſelves with the form of godlineſs, and then under this cover they could deny the power, and make head againſt it, 2 Tim. 3. 5. how eaſie is it for them who appear in the form of the Doctrines of the Goſpel, in the form of zeal, in the form of holineſs, to paſs in a Nation for the true Church, and then to aſperſe them for Hereticks, who (appearing in the power) cannot but deny that form which is without the power. This is the great Witch of this age (even that ſpirit of Zeal and Devotion, which is beſt clothed and decked with the form without the power) which though men (who judge of the things of God after the fleſh) juſtifie, admire, and much contend for in her ſeveral ſhapes and dreſſes (ſome being for one, ſome for another) yet the Lord is ſearching after her, and will find her out with his eternal flames, which will make her manifeſt, and all her lovers ſhall dread her burning and bed of Torment. Now as all along the Apoſtacy, this bewitching ſpirit (this ſpirit which bewitcheth from the power) hath crept up under a form of Church Worſhip and Holineſs; ſo the other Spirit (the pure Spirit of life, (the Spirit of true zeal, and fear of the Lord) hath ſtill appeared more and more out of the Forms. Who were the beſt Preachers, and moſt eminent Chriſtians in the Puritan days? Were they not thoſe who leaſt minded the form then, nay indeed, who were moſt againſt the Form, and perſecuted for their conſciencious ſtumbling at it? And who were the greateſt Perſecutors then, but they who were moſt zealous for the Form, both of the Government and Worſhip of the Church of England? And where is the perſecuting Spirit next to be looked for, but in the forms which ſhould next appear? And where likewiſe is the appearance of the true Spirit next to be looked for, but in thoſe whom the Lord ſhould raiſe up to teſtifie againſt thoſe Forms, and to be the ſucceeding ſufferers for their Teſtimony, as the Puritans had been foregoing ſufferers for their Teſtimony?

Yet if there be any perſons left, among any of the Forms which have appeared (whether former or latter) that have not loſt their ſincerity and true zeal towards God, them we own and have unity with, ſo far as they keep, or rather are kept thereto. If there be any among the Epiſcopal ſort, that in truth of heart deſire to fear the Lord, and look upon the Common-Prayer Book as an acceptable way of worſhipping him; we pity their blindneſs, yet are tender towards them, and would not have the ſimpli ity perſecuted in them becauſe of this, but rather cheriſhed. If there be any among the Presbyterians, Independants, Anabaptiſts, Seekers, or any other ſort, that in truth of heart wait upon the Lord in thoſe ways, and do not find a deadneſs overgrown them, but a pure, freſh, lively zeal towards God, with an unfeigned love to his people, our hearts are one with this; and we cannot fight againſt this good thing in any of them, though in love to them we teſtifie, that their form and way of Worſhip, is their preſent loſs and hinderance, yet we doubt not, but that the Lord (in his time) will make manifeſt to ſuch the Light of this Age, which is the very thing the People of God in many foregoing Ages have been praying for. But this is our Lamentation, that forms and ways of Worſhip abound, but the Puritan-Principle, the Puritan-Spirit is loſt and drowned in them all; and that men are hardened againſt our Teſtimony, not from the remainders of the ſimplicity in them, but becauſe they are erred from the ſimplicity, and fallen in League with another Spirit, which hath lain lurking in Forms of Knowledge and Worſhip (to tempt aſide from the ſimplicity, and to hide the ſight of the Life and Power from the panting Soul) all this night of the Apoſtacy.

Now mark how eaſie and natural it is to that Spirit to enter into a form, to cry up a Form, to ſet up a Form in a Nation, City, or Countrey (doubtleſs it had been done in this Nation long ago, had not the mighty hand of the Lord withſtood it.) When the evil and unclean Spirit is detected and driven out of one Form, if it doth not get another ſuddenly to appear in and tempt with, it muſt needs loſe many of its Subjects. The Strumpet or falſe Church is forced (as God diſcovers her nakedneſs and lewdneſs) to change her dreſſes and appearances, to new trick and adorn her Bed: And then, as if ſhe alſo were changed, and were now no longer the ſame, ſhe comes forth again with boldneſs, and tempteth the young Man again to come in unto her, Prov. 7. 16. And thus ſhe caſteth down many Wounded, yea many ſtrong men have been ſlain by her, ver. 26. Who otherwiſe would have pondered the Path of Life, chap. 5. 6. had they not been enſnared by her flatteries, who forſaketh the guide of her Youth, and forgetteth the Covenant of her God, chap. 2. 17. There is no more certain and ready way to ſuppreſs truth, and to betray the honeſty which is ſingly ſearching after it, than to preſent a form of Godlineſs or Worſhip, as the proper way of meeting with it: For hereby the Soul is lulled aſleep with a falſe hope, until the freſhneſs of its deſire begins to dy, and its Life to wither; and then the fleſhly part eaſily grows into unity with, and zeal for that Form which indeed is of the fleſh, though it appeared and tempted as if it had been otherwiſe. And how many have gone a great way towards Hell, and have been deeply entangled and diſtreſſed in the Chambers of death, by entring into this Strumpets Church or Houſe which they then (through the ſubtilty of her deceit) took for the Houſe or Church of God? Pro. 7. 27. Conſider the thing a little ſeriouſly. When the evil Spirit is driven out of his ſtrong Hold of groſs Popery, whither ſhould he run but into Epiſcopacy? When he is driven out of Epiſcopacy, whither ſhould he run but into Presbytery? When he is driven out of Presbytery, whither ſhould he run but into Independancy? When he is driven out of Independancy, whither ſhould he run but into Anabaptiſm? When he is driven out of Anabaptiſm, whither ſhould he run but into a Way of Seeking? And what is his end of running into Epiſcopacy, but to ſave alive that Spirit which was hunted out of Popery (and could abide no longer there) and ſo the better (and the ſafer from being diſcerned) to reproach and perſecute the other Spirit (where-ever it appeared) under the Nick-names of Puritans, Separatiſts, Browniſts, Round-heads, &c. And what is his end afterwards of running into Presbytery, but to ſave that alive which was hunted out of Epiſcopacy, and to perſecute the former truly zealous Spirit (where it ſhould further appear afterwards) by means of that Form? Thus the forms and appearances of things change, but the ſight is ſtill the ſame, the evil Spirit ſtill getting upermoſt, under a form of Godlineſs, and from thence ſhooting forth its Arrows at thoſe that ſeek after purity of heart, and cannot but teſtifie againſt thoſe forms where the impure one lodgeth.

This

This then is the ſum of our anſwer in this reſpect; we are not againſt the true Life and Power of Godlineſs, where-ever it hath appeared, or yet appears under the Vail of any Form whatſoever. Nay all perſons who ſingly wait upon the Lord, in the ſimplicity and ſincerity of their hearts, whether under any form, or out of forms (that matters little to us) are very dear unto us in the Lord. But we are againſt all Forms, Images, Imitations, and Appearances, which betray the ſimplicity and ſincerity of the heart, keep the Life in Bondage, and endanger the loſs of the Soul. And too many ſuch now there are, which hold the immortal Seed of Life in Captivity under death, over which we cannot but mourn, and wait for its breaking off the Chains, and its riſing out of all its Graves into its own pure Life, Power, and fulneſs of Liberty in the Lord.

A Loving and Faithful Advertiſement to the Nation and Powers thereof.

O King, O Parliament, O Nation of England, conſider before the Decree come forth, before the ruine of the Nation (with the Powers thereof) be irrevocably ſealed: for the Lord hath a controverſie with this Nation, and he will plead with thee O England, who deſireſt not, nor canſt not bear a Government in Righteouſneſs, for the ſuppreſſing of the evil, and encouragement of the good, but the good is ſtill ſuppreſſed in thee, and cannot grow as it ought, becauſe of the Luſt of the Nation againſt the purity of the life of God, and becauſe of the corrupt wills, ends, and intereſts of thoſe who ſtill are in Power.

After King Henry the 8.th had renounced and ſhaken off in part, the Pope's Authority in this Nation, he did not let it fall to the ground as an evil thing, but took upon himſelf the exerciſe of it, aſſuming to himſelf the Headſhip and Government under Chriſt in all Eccleſiaſtical Cauſes and Matters in his Dominions. The ſame courſe his Succeſſors followed, keeping the very Title which the Pope gave to him of Defender of the Faith. And ſo Parliaments in their days (as if the Government of the Church were a right and priviledge of the Nation, and not peculiar to Chriſt) have taken upon them to make Laws and Orders, about the Government of the Church and People of God in Spiritual things, as well as about matters of State.

Now it would fairly and honeſtly (with the Spirit of Meekneſs, and in the Fear of the Lord) be enquired into, Whether the Pope's Power and Authority in this Nation, was a true Church-Power and Authority? That is, Whether it was ſuch a Church-Power and Authority as Chriſt had inſtituted, or of another Nature, even of a Nature contrary to Chriſt, and to his inward Government in the Spirits of his People? For if the Pope's Power and Authority was a true Church-power and Authority, then it may be lawful in another hand, though not in the Pope's: But if it was an uſurped kind of Authority and Government in it ſelf, then it cannot be lawful in it ſelf, nor ſerviceable to Chriſt in any other hand, but will prove an Inſtrument of War againſt him, in whoſe hands ſoever it be put: And let it be ſingly conſidered, whether the Church Power in this Nation hath not been a curb to the riſing of the purity of Religion, even a ſharp check upon the tender Conſcience, but ſuch as the looſe (yea prophane Spirit) would take pleaſure in and contend for?

The true Church-Power is only the Power of the Spirit of Chriſt. That converts men to God, and that alone is able to govern them (in the affairs of his Kingdom; being converted. Man medling with Religion and Church-Government in his Wiſdom, is but a Beaſt: and muſt govern like a Beaſt; namely, with Force and Cruelty over the Spirit and Conſcience which is tender towards God. As the Lord God of Heaven and Earth, never gave the converting Power to any, ſo neither did he ever give this Governing Power to any, further than as they were endued with his Spirit: For that is the Scepter of his Church and Kingdom, which is a Scepter of Righteouſneſs, which leads on in the love and gentleneſs of the Spirit, that which is to be dealt gentle with, and ſpiritually cuts off by its ſeverity and ſharpneſs that which is to be cut off. And here are Christs limits of Government, which that Spirit and Wisdom which exceeds, errs, and does hurt both to it self and others.

Now if in the mist of darkness, which hath long overspread the Earth, (for though there brake out a little Light to discover the thick blackness of Popery, and to cause some Reformation out of it, yet the mist was not expelled) this Nation hath erred, her Princes, her Teachers, her Parliaments, and all sorts of Persons, in laying hold on and establishing a wrong Church-Power, which Power hath had a bad effect, namely, in suppressing the progress of the reforming Spirit, and raising up a formal Spirit (if not a Spirit of looseness and prophaneness) which ran backwards towards Popery, and not forwards from it: Yet let them not love error, and so strive against the Light which shineth forth to discover the error to them. But let them humble themselves before Christ the Lord of all, and restore unto him that which is his due, lest they provoke him to Wrath, and cause him to take from them what they look upon as their due. For is it not just with Christ to take that power from men, which they (so long as they have it) will not forbear managing and making use of to keep him from his power? Consider these things, O England, for they belong to thy peace, and toward the mitigation of thy sorrow and misery in the day of thy calamity.

This is from one who hath mourned over thee, while thou hast been rejoycing.

Isaac Penington the Younger.

O that thou couldst know, at least in this last hour of thy day, how to make thy peace with the Lord, and not begin that controversie afresh with him, which he hath already so much shattered and broken thee about, that the dregs of the Cup (whereof thou hast already so largly drunk) might pass from thee.

An Explanatory POSTSCRIPT.

WE read of the getting up of another Power than Christ's in the Church, after the days of the Apostles, 1 Thes. 2. 4. Rev. 13. 2. Which Power was to last 42 months, even all the time of Antichrist's Reign; by which Power the Beast should make War with, and overcome the Saints in all Kindreds, Tongues and Nations, ver. 5, 6, 7. And all this wickedness and persecutions of the Saints should be committed, under a pretence of righteousness, as if it were for Christ and the well-government of his Church, from a true and rightly-derived, and well-ballanced Power, 1 Thes. 2. 8, 9. Now this Power will last in one form or other, even till the very coming of Christ: and then shall that wicked Spirit (in all his workings, in all his various appearings and transformings, as if he still were for God, and for the right and orderly Government of his Church and Temple) be discovered, by degrees consumed, and at last destroyed, ver. 8. And then the Kings or Powers of the Earth, which give their power and strength to the Beast (helping him to cause men to worship, Rev. 13. 15, 16.) making War with the Lamb and his suffering Saints by their Laws, Whips, Prisons, Fines, &c. shall be overcome by him, who fighteth against them with the Spirit of his mouth, and by his Truth, Meekness, and Rigteousness, which shines in the Hearts and Conversations of his Called, Faithful, and Chosen, Rev. 17. 13, 14: Psal. 45. 4, 5.

The power of Christ cannot hurt any of his Lambs (it never forced the weak ones, the tender conscienced, but he carrys the Lambs in his Bosom, and gently leads those that are with Young, Isa. 40. 11.) He had rather have many Hypocrites spared, than one Ear of Wheat plucked up, Mat. 13. 29. That power therefore in the Church which spares the Hypocrites (who can easily comply with an outward Conformity in Worship, without feeling an inward Life or Virtue) but lights heavy on that which is tender and shy in matters of Worship (knowing that it must give an account thereof to Christ) that is not the true Church-power, but at best but a counterfeit of the true.

Printed, 1660.

THE

The Great Queſtion

Concerning The

Lawfulneſs or Unlawfulneſs

OF

SWEARING

Under the GOSPEL,

Stated and Conſidered of;

For the Satisfaction of ſuch as deſire to ſcan the Thing in the Weight of God's Spirit, and to ſee the true and clear Determination of it in his Un-erring Light.

By ISAAC PENINGTON the Younger. 1661.

Queſt.

WHether it be lawful for Chriſtians (who know Chriſt, the ſubſtance of all the Shadows under the Law, and are in the New Covenant) to Swear upon weighty occaſions, as it was lawful for the Jews to do under the Old Covenant? Or, Whether Chriſt alloweth his Diſciples to ſwear in ſolemn Caſes, as Moſes did allow his Diſciples.

Anſw. For the clearing of this weighty Controverſie, to all ſuch as ſingly deſire to know the Truth (as it is in Jeſus) in this particular, that their hearts may bow to Him therein, and not be overtaken with the Reaſonings and Subtilties of the Carnal Mind (which never knew nor can know the Power, but hath always been, and ſtill is ſetting up dead Images, of God's Truths and of his Worſhip, out of the Power) theſe few things following would be conſidered of. Firſt, What an Oath is? Or, The nature of a right and true Oath under the Law. Secondly, The ground or occaſion of its Inſtitution. Thirdly, The Caſes wherein an Oath was to be uſed. Fourthly, The proper end and ſervice of an Oath. Fifthly, the ſuitableneſs of its Nature to its End and Service. Laſtly, The perſons to whom the uſe of an Oath was proper in its ſelf, and intended and allowed by God; and whether there be any perſons to whom it is not proper, and to whom the Lord doth not allow it? This laſt is the main, and will of it ſelf determine the thing, but yet a brief Conſideration of the former may not be unprofitable, to make way for a clearer leading and inſight into it.

Firſt, As touching an Oath, what it is, or the Nature of it. A true and lawful Oath under the Law was an Engagement or Bond upon the Soul (Numb. 30. 2.) by the Name of the Lord Deut. 10. 20.) to the ſpeaking of Truth in things Affirmed, and to the performance of Truth in things Promiſed It was as a Seal to bind fallen man (man fallen from the Truth, from the Uprightneſs) to Truth in his Words and Promiſes, either to God or Man. This is the nature and uſe of an Oath, to wit, to bind the Soul to Truth, to be ſuch an Engagement upon the Soul, as if there be any fear of God there, it cannot cannot but dread to break, knowing that the Lord will not hold him Guiltleſs, that taketh his Name in vain.

Secondly, The ground or occaſion of an Oath, is the Fall of Man from Truth, from Innocency, from the Uprightneſs which engaged him to Truth before his Fall. This made the Jews ſtand in need of this Bond under the Law, in their Purpoſes and Promiſes towards God; and the ſame thing likewiſe made them ſtand in need of it one from another, to Ratifie and Confirm Truth between them.

Thirdly, The Caſes wherein an Oath was to be uſed, which were chiefly theſe four:

1. In caſe of a promiſe or Vow to God.
2. In caſe of Promiſe to man.

} That the Truth, Integrity, and plain Intention of the Heart might ſtand, and there might be no departing therefrom, in the thing promiſed, either to God or man; an Oath in that ſtate was found uſeful to bind the ſoul thereto

3. In caſe of Pronouncing or Declaring the Truth of a Thing, which was weighty, that there might be a clear and ſatisfactory ground of belief.

4. In caſe of Controverſie between Parties, where the Controverſie could not be determined, but by taking the Confeſſion of the one Party for Truth; there that Party was to ſeal his Confeſſion with an Oath, and ſo the other to reſt ſatisfied therewith, and the Controverſie thereupon end.

Fourthly, The end of an Oath, which is, for final Confirmation, and avoiding of all further Strife and Contention about the Thing ſworn to: By binding the Thing (promiſed or affirmed) with an Oath, the thing is confirmed; and now there is no more ſtrife in the heart concerning the thing, if relating to God, or between man and man in things relating to them, but the ſtriving nature is bound down by the Oath of God, wherewith the Thing is ratified, and ſo the Doubt and Uncertainty removed, and the Conteſt ended. Thus of right it ought to be, and is where the Oath is forcible and in its proper ſervice.

Fifthly, The ſuitableneſs of its nature to the end aimed at by it. Man out of the Chriſtian Life, can go no further, than to engage himſelf by the fear and dread of that God, whom he profeſſeth to Worſhip and ſerve, and who cannot but be jealous of his Name and Honour, and ready to vindicate the taking of it in vain. Man under the Law, could not bind himſelf to God, in any promiſe or ſervice more than thus; nor can there be any greater Bond or Seal of Truth given by one man to another, in the fallen ſtate, than this. And he that will venture to break this, what but Deceit and Treachery can be expected from him? inſomuch as no other Engagement from him can be of weight, he hereby manifeſting the want of that in his mind and ſpirit, whereupon all ties are to faſten.

Sixthly, The perſons to whom the uſe of an Oath was proper and lawful, and for whom it was inſtituted; and whether there be any perſons to whom it is not proper and lawful, and for whoſe uſe it was not inſtituted?

To find out this diſtinctly and truly, we muſt conſider the ſeveral Conditions of Man ſince the Creation, and obſerve to which of thoſe it is uſeful and proper in it ſelf, and allowed by God, and to which it is not uſeful in it ſelf, nor allowed by God.

There have been four Eſtates or Conditions of Mankind ſince the Creation:

1. An Eſtate of Innocency, an Eſtate of Integrity, of Purity, of Righteouſneſs, wherein man could not lye or deceive; but his Promiſes to God, and his Words to Men, muſt needs be Yea and Amen: for it was impoſſible to man, who was made in Gods Image (which is Truth) to lye or deceive, until the Deceit entred him, and drew him out of the Truth.

2. There was (and ſtill is) an Eſtate of deep Captivity, wherein this Truth and Innocency was wholly loſt, and man wholly corrupted in his ſpirit and nature, and wholly degenerated from God. This was the Eſtate of the Heathen, who knew not God generally, nor deſired after Him, but walked in the vanity of their minds, and were given up to their own hearts luſts. Yet among ſome of theſe the Eternal Principle of Life was ſtirring, which did check them, and offer to guide them out of this Eſtate, which they that hearkened unto, did not remain in the Fall with the reſt, but felt the Power of that, which reproved and checked them, circumciſing their Hearts, and, in their Obedience thereto, juſtifying them in their Conſciences before God.

3. There

3. There was an Eſtate of ſhadowy Redemption, which was not the true Eſtate of Redemption it ſelf, or they the true People which were to be redeemed, but a ſhaddow of the Redemption, a ſhaddow of the Redeemed People, a ſhaddow of the Way and Path of Life, wherein were Figures of the Heavenly Subſtance, the Heavenly People, the Heavenly Things, the Heavenly Inheritance, the Heavenly Food, &c. But all theſe Figures, in and under the Law, were not the true Heavenly and Inviſible Things themſelves, but Outward and Viſible Signs and Repreſentations of them.

4. There was, and, bleſſed be the Lord, now at length (after the great, long, and dark night of Apoſtacy) again is brought forth an Eſtate of True Redemption, wherein the Soul is brought back from the Death, from the Captivity, from the Fall, from the Deceit, and from the Shaddows, into the Truth, into the pure Life, into the Innocency, into the Uprightneſs; Wherein Chriſt (the Power of God) is witneſſed, and the Soul new formed in his pure Image, and become a new Creature, having a new Eye, a new Ear, a new Heart, a new Nature, a new Life and Spirit (in the newneſs of which Life, it is to live and walk) a new Courſe and Converſation, a new Place to walk and have its Converſation in, even in that very Heaven, from whence it looks for the Saviour; wherein alſo all old things, which came in by the Fall, and all the old Shaddows of the Law are to paſs away, and in this ſtate all things to become new. And this is not only to be expected in the perfection of this ſtate, but belongs (in its meaſure and degree) to the very beginning of it: for even ſo ſoon as a man is engrafted into Chriſt, even then he is a new Creature, and all things then begin to become new unto him, and he is then to begin, departing from all the old things, both of the Natural or Heatheniſh ſtate, and of the Jewiſh ſtate, until he hath left them all behind. The Apoſtle ſaith expreſly, If any man be in Chriſt, he is a new Creature: Old things are paſſed away, all things are become new. Chriſt, the Lord and Maſter of all Believers, who himſelf was not of the World, calleth all his Diſciples and Followers out of the World: How, out of the World? Doth He call them from having any being or commerce in the Earth, or in the World? Nay, not ſo, but to come out of the Evil and Corrupt ſtate, Practices, and Ways of the World; out of the Earthly Ways of the Heathens, out of the Earthly Ordinances and Obſervations of the Jews; Yea, even out of every thing in both, which was not of the Father, but of the World; and this made them a gazing ſtock to both, and the ſcorn and hatred of both, where-ever they came.

Theſe are the four Eſtates or Conditions of Man-kind ſince the Creation: In one of which, all men that ever were, have been to be found; and according to the Eſtate and Condition wherein Man is found, is the Law of God to him, and his requirings of him.

Now let any Man, in the Fear of the Lord God, weigh and conſider. to which ſort or ſorts of theſe an Oath was uſeful in it ſelf, and allowed by God, and to which not. Was it uſeful in the Innocent ſtate? Or, did God appoint it there, when man could not but ſpeak Truth? Or, is it uſeful in the Redeemed Eſtate, where a greater Bond is received, and profeſſedly held forth, than the Innocency of Man's Nature was? Is not Chriſt the Truth, the Subſtance? Is not he that is in him, the New-Creature? Were not all the Oaths and Shaddows of the Law, to laſt till Chriſt the Subſtance came? Is not this the Bond of the Goſpel? And doth not this ſeal Truth, and keep to Truth more firmly than the Oath under the Law could? And the greater Bond being come, doth not the leſſer Bond (which ſignified it) flee away and vaniſh, and the uſe of it now become both needleſs and unlawful? Men may reaſon ſubtilly, and perſwade ſtrongly againſt the Truth, but we know certainly and infallibly in the Light of the Lord, that the uſe of an Oath was not for Man in Innocency, nor for Man under the power and vertue of the Redemption by Chriſt (which brings Man back into the Truth, into the Innocency, and into that Life and Strength, which preſerves in the Truth and Innocency) but for fallen Man, for Man erred from the Truth and Covenant of God: And it is very manifeſt to us, that for a Diſciple of Chriſt, who hath received the Law from his Lips againſt Swearing, to be brought back again to Swearing (the Bond of Man in the fallen ſtate, and under the Law) is no leſs than a denial of Chriſt, who is his Life and Redeemer out of the fallen ſtate, and who alſo is the ſubſtance, which ends the Oaths: and he that hath ever known the pure Power of His Life, and received the pure Law thereof in the clear Openings of his Spirit, muſt not depart from thence, from the feeling of that, into the fleſhly reaſonings, into conſultations with the fleſhly-wiſe part, which will be ſure to give ſuch Interpretations of Scriptures, as may avoid the Croſs; but keep to that Power which begat him, and to that Principle wherein he was begotten; and there he ſhall never be able to get beyond the Yea and Amen in Chriſt, beyond the Confeſſing of the Truth in the Preſence and Life of it, which is the end and ſubſtance of Swearing under the Law; and therefore the Apoſtle Paul, who ſeveral Times, and in ſeveral Caſes relates to the Prophecies of the Prophets (who foretold of things under the Goſpel, in Law-phraſes) renders the word Confeſs, inſtead of Swear, as may appear by comparing, Rom 14. 11. and Philip 2. 11. with Iſa. 45. 23. That which the Law called Swearing, the Goſpel calls confeſſing (each of them ſpeaking of the ſame thing, in the proper dialect of each:) which Confeſſing in the Life, in the Truth, in the renewed Principle, is the weight and ſubſtance of that, whereof the Oath was but a ſhadow. For what is the ſubſtance and intent of an Oath? is not the intent of it to bind to the ſpeaking or performing of Truth? And what is it that binds? is it the ſhadow or the ſubſtance? is it the words of an Oath, or the ſenſe and weight of the thing upon the ſpirit? It was not the form of an Oath, but the weight and ſubſtance hid underneath, which bound the Jew under the Law; and if there be more weight and ſubſtance in the Yea and Nay of a Diſciple under the Goſpel, it muſt needs be more binding to them, and hath alſo more true ground of ſatisfaction in it (to other Chriſtians at leaſt) than a Jews or Heathens ſwearing; yea, and if the Men of the World would but freely ſpeak their hearts, it would be acknowledged to be of more weight with them alſo. Who of thoſe who have obſerved and known our Converſation, and upright ſpeaking and behaviour for theſe many years (both towards the various Rulers and Authorities of the Nation, and alſo towards all men of all ſorts) would not prefer our Yea and Nay before the Oaths of others.

that

Object. But though a Chriſtian may not ſwear in relation to himſelf, yet why may he not ſwear in relation to the ſatisfaction of others, ſeeing God himſelf ſware in that reſpect, who was as much in the Power and Virtue of that Life which binds from Swearing, as a Chriſtian can be?

Anſw. 1. God (being not bound Himſelf by the Laws, wherewith He binds the Creature) may either Himſelf, or by an Inſtrument (in his immediate Life and Power) do that, which the Creature hath not liberty from Him to do; but that is no warrant in general, but the Diſciple is particularly to eye the Rule from his Maſter CHRIST JESUS (who is Lord over the Houſhold of Faith, and who was as faithful in all his Houſe as a Lord, as Moſes the Servant was in his Houſe) by whom the ſame God, who once allowed Oaths to the Jews, hath now wholly forbidden Swearing. And let the Diſciple diligently and faithfully eye the Laws of the New Covenant (which are written by, and received from the ingrafted Word of Faith in the heart) he ſhall find Oaths excluded there as a part of the Old Covenant, even as a literal and ſhadowy Confirmation of Truth among the Jews, under Moſes his Diſpenſation, for the time of the Law; but the Grace and Truth it ſelf is the ſubſtance, and the Faith received is the ſeal of Truth under the Goſpel, both towards God and man.

Anſw. 2. A Chriſtian may not ſwear in relation to the ſatisfaction of others, Becauſe he is to hold forth his Light, his Life, his Principle in the eye of the World; He is to teſtifie to the Worth and Excellency of it, that it is a greater and firmer Bond to him both towards God and man) than any Oaths either of the Heathen, or of the Jews can be. Now his entring into their way of Confirmation of things, which is ſhort of his own, is an undervaluing and diſparagement of the worth and weight of that Principle of Truth, which God hath given him and raiſed up in him: It is indeed a denying of it; for, entring into the Law-bond, is a laying of the Goſpel-bond by, and an offering of that as a Bond, which indeed once was ſo, but is now excluded by the Law of Faith from being a Bond any longer. and hath loſt its vertue. And if men would but open their eyes, they might eaſily ſee how little Oaths bind, and how unprofitable they are to the end and uſe for which they are intended: but the Yea and Amen in Chriſt (the Principle of Life) cannot be broken, but he that abides in Him, muſt perform the Yea and Amen, which is firm in him.

Anſw.

Anſw. 3. A Chriſtian or Diſciple may not ſwear under the Goſpel, Becauſe Chriſt hath brought in Confeſſion or Affirmation of the Truth, from the Principle of his Life, inſtead of Oaths: which is made good, not only by the Apoſtle Pauls rendring of Swearing in the Law-time, Confeſſing, in the fulfilling of it under the Goſpel; but alſo by Chriſts bringing in the Yea, Yea, and Nay, Nay, inſtead of the Laws Swearing. In the Jew the Oath was the Seal or Confirmation under the Law; in the Diſciple, who is in the Life, and hath learned the truth of Chriſt the Life, the Yea, Yea, the Nay, Nay, is appointed him by Chriſt inſtead of the Oath. And though the ſubtilty and fleſhly wiſdom ſtrive hard, to wreſt that place out of the hands of the Simplicity, yet they ſhall never be able to do it; but he that looks on it with a ſingle eye in the Light of that Spirit wherein it was wrote, ſhall plainly ſee Chriſts drift to be to take away the ſhadow, even to aboliſh that uſe of Swearing which was proper and allowed to the Jews under the Law, and to bring the Confeſſion or Denyal of the thing, the Yea, Yea, and Nay, Nay, (from the Goſpel-Spirit and Principle in the Diſciple) in the ſtead of it; Which, to make more manifeſt to the honeſt, ſimple, and naked heart, which is willing to take up the Will and Truth of God in every thing, with all the Croſſes that attend it, let theſe few things following be uprightly conſidered of.

Firſt, that ſlight, trivial and frequent Oaths were not allowed under the Law, but forbidden by the Law, as a taking of Gods Holy and Dreadful Name in vain.

Secondly, That though vain Oaths were then forbidden, yet ſolemn Oaths, weighty Oaths (ſuch as were needful and uſeful to the thing intended) were allowed under the Law. So in all thoſe Caſes before expreſſed, Oaths were allowed and juſtifiable, ſo that they were but careful to perform them, and did not forſwear themſelves.

Thirdly, Chriſt brings in an Exception againſt the uſe of this lawful Swearing under the Law, as the Word But doth plainly ſignifie, and forbiddeth Swearing wholly, altogether, or at all. The Law ſaith, Thou ſhalt not forſwear thy ſelf (that's the ſubſtance of what the Law forbids: it allows Swearing, but forbids Forſwearing) But I ſay unto you, Ye ſhall not only avoid Forſwearing, but Swearing alſo, and that wholly or altogether: But I ſay unto you, Swear not at all.

Fourthly, Chriſt brings in another thing inſtead of Swearing (a thing far more ſuitable to the truth, plainneſs and ſimplicity of the Goſpel) which is Confeſſing the thing, or ſpeaking the thing in truth, juſt as it is, either by way of Affirmation or Denyal; But let your Yea be Yea, and Nay, Nay:

And there is liberty enough left to a Diſciple, to ſatisfie any man concerning the truth of a thing by Confeſſion, as much as by an Oath: For is it not full as weighty, under the Goſpel to confeſs the Preſence of God, or that He is Witneſs, or that we ſpeak the thing in his Fear, and in the feeling of his Life and Power, as it was under the Law to Swear by his Life, by his Fear, by his Power, or the like? Is not the Confeſſing of God by a Chriſtian, of more weight, than the Swearing by Him from a Jew or Heathen? O Nations and Powers of the Earth, ſeek Truth, ſeek Righteouſneſs, and do not ſet up a Form or Image of things in your own wills (and according to your own wiſdom and inventions) above the Power of God.

And let it be duly conſidered, whether the Powers of this Nation deal kindly with the Lord, in exacting an Oath from his People, who not in the leaſt diſaffection to them, but only in fidelity of Conſcience to Chriſt their Lord and Maſter, cannot but refuſe it.

The Queſtion is, concerning their Fidelity and Obedience to the King, that is the thing which an Oath is required to ratifie and confirm. Now the Swearing it ſelf (or formal taking of an Oath) is of little value; but to be obedient, to be faithful, is the thing of value. The caſe then ſtands thus; The Lord hath ſo formed them, that they cannot but be faithful and obedient. The Lord hath raiſed up that Principle in them, which cannot hurt the King or any man, nor cannot ſtand by and ſee him or any man hurt, without endeavouring to prevent it. Here is their ſtrength of performing good and avoiding evil; and their Yea and Nay from this Principle, is the beſt Security which they can poſſibly give to any man (and he who hath thus formed them in the pure Principle of his Life, hath likewiſe forbidden them to Swear) But this cannot be accepted for want of the other Confirmation, to wit, of Swearing, which came in by the Fall, and was allowed among the ſhadows of the Law, but is forbidden by the Goſpel.

Now, O King, ſhal not Gods People be faithful and obedient to the Lord as well as to thee? ſhall they not be true to the Principle of Life, wherein they are begotten and brought forth, in the Love and Good-will to all, and out of enmity to any? Hath God raiſed up in them a Principle which cannot deceive, and will not the Yea and Nay, of that ſerve (after ſo much experience, through ſo many changes) but they muſt either break Chriſts Command, and hazard their Souls, or elſe loſe their Liberties and Eſtates?

O that men would wait on the Lord, for his pure Fear to be written on their hearts by the finger of His Spirit, that they might come out of the fleſhly wiſdom into the Womb of the Eternal Wiſdom, from whence our Principle came; that they might be able to ſee and juſtifie the Purity, Righteouſneſs, Nobility and Worth of it, and that they might feel its ſecurity from all that is out of the Good-will, out of the Love, out of the Life, and out of the Peace, that ſo there might be an end of all Strife, Rebellion, Heart-burnings, Plots, and all manner of Wickedneſs and Ungodlineſs, which have no place in it, but daily waſte and wither where it is ſown and grows, even till they come to an end, and till Righteouſneſs and pure Innocency fill the room and place which they had, both in the heart and mind within, and in the life and converſation outwardly.

And let every one that nameth the Name of the Lord, depart from Iniqity, and look well to his goings: for the darkneſs of the thick night of Apoſtacy is already paſt, and the True Light now again ſhineth. Bleſſed is the Eye which ſeeth it, and the Heart which is eſtabliſhed in it, in the midſt of thoſe terrible and dreadful ſhakings and confuſions, which muſt not end here, but go over all Nations. O that this Nation could once bow to it, that it might be happy, and its rents and breaches healed for ever.

Somewhat ſpoken TO A Weighty Queſtion. CONCERNING

The Magiſtrates protection of the Innocent, wherein is held forth the bleſſing and Peace which Nations ought to wait for and embrace in the latter days.

With ſome conſiderations for the ſerious and and wiſe in heart throughout this Nation to ponder, for diverting Gods Wrath (if poſſible) from breaking forth upon it.

Alſo a brief Account of what the People called Quakers deſire, in reference to the Civil Government.

With a few words to ſuch as by the everlaſting Arm of Gods Power have been drawn and gathered out of the Apoſtacy into the living Truth and Worſhip.

By ISAAC PENINGTON the Younger. 1661.

And in that day will I make a Covenant for them with the Beaſts of the Field, and with the Fowls of Heaven, and with the creeping things of the Ground, and I will break the Bow, and the Sword, and the Battel out of the earth, and will make them to lye down ſafely, Hoſ. 2, 18.

Somewhat ſpoken to a Weighty Queſtion, concerning the Magiſtrates Protection of the Innocent, wherein is held forth the Bleſſing and Peace, which Nations ought to wait for, and embrace in theſe latter days.

Queſt. WHether the Magiſtrate in Righteouſneſs and Equity is engaged to defend ſuch, who (by the peaceableneſs and love which God hath wrought in their Spirits, and by that Law of life, mercy, good will, and forgiveneſs, which God by his own finger hath written in their hearts) are taken off from fighting, and cannot uſe a Weapon deſtructive to any Creature to defend him?

Anſw. Magiſtracy was intended by God for the defence of the people, not only of thoſe who have ability and can fight for them, but of ſuch alſo who cannot, or are forbidden by the Love and Law of God written in their hearts ſo to do. Thus Women, Children, Sick perſons, Aged perſons, and alſo Prieſts in Nations (who have ability to fight, but are exempted by their function, which is not equivalent to the exemption which God makes by the law of his Spirit in the heart) have the benefit of the Law and of the Magiſtrates Protection, without fighting for the defence of either: And is it not moſt righteous and equal, that fighting, which came in by the fall, ſhould come to an end in ſuch, whom God draws out of the fall; and that Magiſtrates (who have power given them to rule by God, and ought to rule under him) ſhould not require fighting of them, whom the Lord of Lords hath redeemed out of the fighting nature, and choſen to be as examples of meekneſs and peaceableneſs in the places were they live? how can he fight with Creatures in whom is love and good will towards thoſe Creatures, and whoſe Bowels are rowling over them, becauſe of their wandrings in the Luſts, in the Strife, and in the Wars? Fighting is not ſuitable to a Goſpel Spirit, but to the Spirit of the World and the Children thereof. The fighting in the Goſpel is turned inward againſt the Luſts, and not outward againſt the Creatures. There is to be a time, when Nation ſhall not lift up Sword againſt Nation, neither ſhall they learn War any more. When the power of the Goſpel ſpreads over the whole earth, thus ſhall it be throughout the earth; and where the power of the Spirit takes hold of and overcomes any heart at preſent, thus will it be at preſent with that heart. This bleſſed ſtate, which ſhall be brought forth in the general in Gods ſeaſon, muſt begin in particulars; aud they therein are not prejudicial to the World (nor would be ſo looked upon, if the right eye in man were but open to ſee with) but Emblems of that bleſſed ſtate, which the God of Glory hath promiſed to ſet up in the World in the days of the Goſpel. And though by this means, there may ſeem to be a weakning of the ſtrength of the Magiſtrate, and of the defence of that Nation, wherein God cauſeth the vertue and power of his Truth to ſpread in the hearts of people; yet in truth it is not ſo, but a great ſtrengthning. For if Righteouſneſs be the ſtrength of a Nation, and the Seed of God the ſupport of the Earth, then where Righteouſneſs is brought forth, and where the Seed of God ſprings up and flouriſheth, that Nation grows ſtrong; and inſtead of the Arms and Strength of man the eternal ſtrength overſpreads that Nation, and that wiſdom ſprings up in the Spirits of men, which is better than Weapons of War; And the wiſdom which is from above is pure and peaceable, and teacheth to make peace, and to remove the cauſe of Contentions and Wars, and uniteth the heart to the Lord in waiting upon him for Counſel, Strength, and Preſervation in this ſtate, who brought into it. Now is not this much better and ſafer, then the preſent eſtate of things in the World? Firſt, to have the cauſe of Wars removed, and a ſweet peaceable, righteous Spirit in the ſtead thereof? Secondly, to have a peaceable and a righteous Generation (whom the Lord hath made and preſerved ſo) breathing to the Lord for Peace, Good and Proſperity to the Nation, and Magiſtrates thereof, and to ſtretch forth his Arm to be a defence about them? Thirdly, to have the God of Heaven engaged by his Power to defend that Power and Magiſtracy, which defends Righteouſneſs in general, and particularly his People in their Obedience unto him, whom it is moſt Righteous for them to obey, and for the Magiſtrate (who claims his Rule and Dominion under God) to protect them in? Were not this much better both for Magiſtrates and People, than the preſent Eſtate? O that that were awakened in men, which can rightly diſcern and judge.

Object. But this is an Utopian ſtate, or a World in the Moon? Is it poſſible that ever there ſhould be ſuch a ſtate here on Earth?

Anſw. 1. When the Principle of God, which lies hid in the hearts of men (over which the corrupt nature hath grown, and upon which the Spirit of darkneſs in men tramples) ſhall be raiſed and come into Dominion; Righteouſneſs Peace and good will ſhall ſpring up as naturally among men, as Wars, Strifes, Diviſions, Emulations, heart-burnings, &c. now do.

2. There is a promiſe of ſuch a ſtate, When the Lion ſhall eat Straw like the Ox, and lie down with the Lamb, when the Earth ſhall be filled with the knowledge of the Lord, as the Waters cover the Sea, and nothing ſhall hurt or deſtroy upon God's holy Mountain, but the Nations, who have been full of War, ſhall throw away their Weapons, become ſubject to the Spirit of Peace and Righteouſneſs, and learn War no more; When the Wiſdom of the Wiſe and Strength of the Strong ſhall be broken in pieces. and the little Child ſhall play on the Hole of the Aſp, and at the Cockatrice's Den, and lead all. As certainly as the Lord God is true, ſo this muſt be in the Lord's ſeaſon: And will it not be happy when it comes to paſs? Who would hinder it? Who would ſtrive to keep the old Heavens and the old Earth ſtanding, which muſt be diſſolved, before the new Heavens and the new Earth (wherein dwells Righteouſneſs) can be formed and brought forth?

3. This ſtate was in a fair forwardneſs once, before the univerſal Apoſtacy from that truth and power which God had ſown in the Earth, upon the breathing of and ſending forth his Spirit among his Diſciples, according to his promiſe. Precious was that Seed, great the growth of it, the Woman (or true Church) full of Beauty and Glory, and brought forth the Man-child, which was to rule all Nations; but it hath pleaſed the Lord to adjourn that day till after the night of Apoſtacy, catching up the Man-child to Heaven, and cauſing the Woman to flie into the Wilderneſs, where ſhe hath been hid ever ſince from all but the inward eye of the inward Iſrael; And the World in the Heatheniſh nature hath been crying up holy Church, holy Church, to her who hath ſate upon the Beaſt, and been drunk with the Bloud of the Martyrs of Jeſus; But the tender Spouſe, the Lambs Wife, the Mother of all the Lambs hath been baniſhed from the Earth, and a cruel bloudy Step-Mother ſet over all the tender-conſcienced ever ſince. O woful, woful hath been the ſtate of the true Church and of all the Children of Truth all this dark night of Apoſtacy, but the Lord is putting an end to it; And though this falſe Woman ſeem to be recovering ground, and ſetting her Feet over the Necks of the Lambs again, and begins to think ſhe ſhall prevail, and ſit as a Lady and Queen over the Conſciences of God's Heritage for ever, yet ſhe ſhall find that ſtrong is the Lord God who hath begun to judge her, and into the Sea which ſhe raiſeth ſhall ſhe ſink like a Stone, and her fall ſhall be great and ſpeedy, for even in one day ſhall her miſery overtake and devour her.

4. After this long night of Apoſtacy, the Lord hath begun to make ſome preparations towards this ſtate again. He hath opened his Treaſuries, he hath let forth the Power of his Truth, he hath poured down of his Spirit to ſanctifie and gather a people unto himſelf, he hath opened the Principle of Life in the hearts of many, and in a great meaſure drawn them into it, who ſo far as they are renewed thereby (and found there) are made peacable, pure, meek, gentle, innocent, upright hearted, and tender-conſcienced, both towards God and Man. And though multitudes of reproaches have been caſt upon them, yet the Lord hath pleaſed to cauſe their innocency and integrity to ſhine, to the wiping of them off in a great degree, and will in due time bring forth their Righteouſneſs as the Light, and their Judgment as the Noon-day. And what remains toward the carrying on of this Work, but the Lord's proſpering of this Principle, and blowing upon the other? As the Lord doth this ſo will it go on, and the Nations, Kings, Princes, great Ones, as this Principle is raiſed in them, and the contrary Wiſdom, the earthly Policy (which un-undoes all) brought down, ſo will they feel the bleſſing of God in themſelves, and become a bleſſing to others. O that there were an ear to hear, for this is the only way of healing this Nation (which hath been ſo grievouſly torn) as will be acknowledged when woful experience makes it manifeſt. But man in proſperity cannot hear, and that enforceth from the Lord (by the turning of his hand) the bringing upon him the day of his adverſity, which could he have hearkened in the day of his proſperity might have been eſcaped: For God doth not afflict willingly, nor grieve the Children of men; he is neceſſitated to it for his own glories ſake, the preſervation and defence of his Truth and People, and for the carrying on of his Work.

Object. But if all men were of this Mind, and none would fight; Suppoſe a Nation ſhould be invaded, would not the Land of Neceſſity be ruined?

Anſw. Firſt, When ever ſuch a thing ſhall be brought forth in the World, it muſt have a beginning before it can grow and be perfected. And where ſhould it begin but in ſome Particulars in a Nation, and ſo ſpread by degrees, until it hath overſpread the Nation, and then from Nation to Nation, until the whole Earth be leavened? Therefore whoever deſires to ſee this lovely ſtate brought forth in the general, if he would further his own deſire, muſt cheriſh it in the Particular. And O that men would not ſpend their ſtrength, and hazzard the loſs of all in cheriſhing pretences and names of Chriſtianity, but would pray to the Lord at length to open that eye in them, which can ſee the lovelineſs of the Truth, Power, and Vertue of Chriſtianity, that they might cheriſh that tenderneſs of Conſcience, wherein the Truth grows and ſprings up in its Vertue and Power. (And then perhaps they would ſoon acknowledge the happineſs of the World to depend upon the growth of that Principle and of that People, who are now deſpiſed by the World, and cannot but be ſo, by the Spirit and Wiſdom of the World, which lies in Wickedneſs, they being drawn out of and teſtifying againſt it.)

2. It is not for a Nation (coming into the Goſpel, Life, and Principle) to take care before-hand how they ſhall be preſerved, but the Goſpel will teach a Nation (if they hearken to it) as well as a particular perſon to truſt the Lord, and to wait on him for preſervation. Iſrael of old ſtood not by their ſtrength and wiſdom, and preparations againſt their Enemies, but in quietneſs and confidence, and waiting on the Lord for Direction (Iſa. 30.15.) and ſhall not ſuch now, who are true Iſraelites, and have indeed attained to the true Goſpel-ſtate, follow the Lord into the peaceable Life and Spirit of the Goſpel, unleſs they ſee by rational demonſtration before-hand, how they ſhall be preſerved therein? I ſpeak not this againſt any Magiſtrates or Peoples defending themſelves againſt Forreign Invaſions, or making uſe of the Sword to ſuppreſs the violent and evil doers within their Borders (for this the preſent eſtate of things may and doth require, and a great bleſſing will attend the Sword where it is born uprightly to that end, and its uſe will be honourable; and while there is need of a Sword, the Lord will not ſuffer that government, or thoſe governours to want fitting Inſtruments under them for the managing thereof, who wait on him in his fear to have the Edge of it rightly directed:) but yet there is a better ſtate, which the Lord hath already brought ſome into, and which Nations are to expect and travel towards. Yea, it is far better to know the Lord to be the Defender, and to wait on him daily, and ſee the need of his Strength, Wiſdom, and Preſervation, than to be never ſo ſtrong and skilful in Weapons of War.

3. If the Lord God ſhall undertake the defence of a Nation by his Spirit and Power, what can hurt that Nation? What Power of man reach it, to diſturb the Peace of it? The Egyptians are Men, and not God, and their Horſes Fleſh, and not Spirit, Iſa. 31:3. What could Senacherib with his Army do againſt one Angel in the time of the Law? How many of his Hoſt were ſlain in one night? And what power then ſhall be able to prevail over a Nation brought into the peaceable Spirit of the Goſpel, and defended therein by the mighty power of God himſelf? Will not God be as ſure a defence over the true Iſrael, in the way and diſpenſation wherein he leadeth them, as ever he was over the repreſentative Iſrael, in the way and diſpenſation wherein he led them? Will he not preſerve and defend that Nation, whom he firſt teacheth to leave off War, that they ſhall not be made a prey of, while he is teaching other Nations the ſame Leſſon?

God promiſed Iſrael of old, that when they went up thrice in the year to appear before fore the Lord, according to his command, he would keep it out of the hearts of the Nations from ſo much as deſiring their Land, much more from entring and taking it from them in the mean time, though they might ſeem watchful after, and ſufficiently greedy of ſuch an opportunity, they being caſt out of the Land, and having had it taken from them before, Ex. 34. 24. The Lord alſo can now keep it out of the hearts of the Nations, from invading or prejudicing that Nation, which he ſhall firſt draw into the peaceable Spirit: Or if he ſee not good to do that, he can defend thoſe that have followed him out of the earthly Spirit, Wiſdom, and Strength, by ways that man knows not of; nor may it be fit for him to know, till the Lord bring it forth. Iſrael of old was not to know the deliverance before-hand, but to truſt the Lord; under the Goſpel the Lord giveth more Faith than to Iſrael of old under the Law, and therefore may juſtly require greater confidence in greater ſtraits. And awaken O Earth, behold the Iſrael of the Lord, whom he hath begotten and brought forth in the Earth, after the long dark night of Apoſtacy, and ye ſhall ſee what hearts the Lord hath given them to truſt him, in all the Straits and Tryals wherewith he pleaſeth to exerciſe them, and what the Lord will do for them when they are brought to the brink of the Pit, and when it ſeemeth impoſſible for them to eſcape utter ruine and deſtruction, The eye which the Lord hath given them, ſeeth the Lord and his Strength; and the heart which he hath created anew in them, naturally feareth the everlaſting Power, which reacheth both to the Body and Soul for ever: But as for whole multitudes of Nations, they are but as the drop of a Bucket, and (in their greateſt Wiſdom and Strength) but as vanity, as the ſmall duſt of the Ballance, as nothing before him, and leſs than nothing to him.

Conſider this O ye great men, O ye Wiſe men, and deep Politicians; all ye have done or can ever do, in relation to overturning any thing that God hath purpoſed, what are ye therein? Or what will your Work come to? It is juſt like The ſmall duſt of the Ballance, it hinders not at all the Weight of his Power on the other hand, but he will carry on his Work, bring to paſs what he hath purpoſed in himſelf and promiſed to his people, and all your Councils, Wiſdom, Strength, Hopes, Reſolutions, and preſent or future advantages againſt him and his Work, ſhall hinder him no more than the ſmall duſt in the Scale of a Ballance, which the Wind blows away, and it is not. Be Wiſe therefore O ye Sons of Men, fear before your Maker, wait in his Fear for his Counſel, that ye may not be ſuffered by him to undertake any thing againſt him, leſt before ye are aware ye fall before him. O let every one in fear remember that paſſage. Lo, this is the man that made not God his Strength, but truſted in the abundance, &c. Forgetting the Lord in the day of Proſperity, cauſeth much increaſe of the anguiſh and ſorrow of heart in the day of adverſity. O ye that are in preſent Power, conſider how unwilling ye would be to have the Lord turn his hand upon you, and bring you under again. O provoke him not, for he is able to do it, as he was to overturn thoſe which went before. It were far better for you, now to fear the Lord and prevent it, then to bewail and repent afterwards. O reject not the Love and Counſel of the Moſt High (which would now preſerve you) as thoſe which went before you did.

There is a deſire in all men (in whom the Principle of God is not wholly ſlain) after Righteouſneſs, which deſire will be more and more kindled by God in Nations, before Righteouſneſs and Peace meet together and be eſtabliſhed in them. Now ſuch and ſo great hath been the kindling of this deſire in this Nation, and ſuch is the ſtate thereof, that nothing can ſatisfie the heart of it but Righteouſneſs; this it longeth after at the bottom. This the governours which were before might have, and the governours that now are (by asking counſel of the Principle of God in themſelves, and keeping cloſe thereto) may anſwer the Nation in. But if the conſultations be not with the Lord, in the principle of life which came from him, but with the Wiſdom and Policy which is of the earth, and from beneath, and not from above, that will incline to ſelf and to corruption, and never bring forth Righteouſneſs, nor can the Bleſſing of God attend it, nor the Peace which accompanieth Righteouſneſs be reaped from it.

Some Conſiderations for the ſerious and wiſe in heart throughout this Nation to ponder, that they may ſend up earneſt Prayers to Almighty God, and uſe their beſt endeavours in their ſeveral Places and Stations, to prevent that dreadful ſtorm of Wrath which hath long hung over this Nation, that at length it break not forth like a Fire which none can quench, or like a Floud which none can ſtop.

1. DID not God, by the power of his Spirit in the Apoſtles days, gather a people out of the World unto himſelf, and by his Wiſdom (and according to his Heavenly Will) build them up into a Church or Holy Temple, for his Spirit to inhabit and dwell in, and for himſelf to be Honoured and Worſhipped in Spirit and Truth, according as he ſhould teach them and require of them?

2. Did not the ſame Spirit, which built this Church, not only ſignifie that the love ſhould wax cold, and there be a falling away from the Truth, and warn the Churches of Aſia of the removal of their Candleſticks; but alſo foretel of the total diſſolution of that building as to its outward ſtate [upon the cloſe of the ſharp Battel by the Dragon and his Angels, or falſe Miniſters, with Michael and his true Church and Miniſters] inſomuch as the Church her ſelf ſhould fly into the Wilderneſs, and her Seed be made War with, and perſecuted up and down the Nations, all the time of the Apoſtacy afterwards? ſee Rev 12.

3. Was not this deſolate eſtate of the Church to remain and laſt all the allotted time thereof, which is expreſſed to be 42 months, 1260 days, or a time, times, and half a time, wherein the Beaſt ſhould rule, Antichriſt ſit in Gods Temple, and the Dragon be Worſhipped there inſtead of the living God; and alſo the Lambs of Chriſt and Witneſſes of Jeſus (who retain the Worſhip in Spirit and Truth, and cannot joyn with any of the falſe ways of Worſhip ſet up in the Nations) torn and rent, by the Woman which appears inſtead of the true Church, but is not? (Revel. 11. 2. and 12. 6. 14. and 13, 4. and 17. 6.)

4. Doth not this Woman continue deceiving the Nations and Kings of the earth (whom ſhe cauſeth to drink of her Cup of Knowledge, Worſhip, Doctrine and Diſcipline, whereby ſhe blindeth their eyes, bewitcheth their hearts, and maketh them take her for the true Church; who, notwithſtanding all this her glorious appearance, is but Babylon in a myſtery, and notwithſtanding all her pretences for Chriſt, doth not drink the bloud of his true Saints and Witneſſes) I ſay, doth ſhe not continue her deceit till the very hour of her Judgement, and until ſhe hath brought the dreadful Vials of the Wrath of God, both upon her ſelf, and upon all that continue joyning with her? Rev. 17. 2. &c.

5. Is there not to be an end of this night of Apoſtacy, and of the falſe Church, with all her various habits, and dreſſes and new paints and arts of deceit (though both have continued long,) wherein Chriſt the Lamb comes forth in his power to fight with the Beaſt, and the Woman which rides thereon, and to ſmite the earth which remains infected with her Fornication (which withdraw and ſteal away the heart from the pure life and ſpirit of Chriſt, and from his pure, living, ſpiritual worſhip, into a falſe, invented, dead, formal Worſhip) that ſo he may reſtore, and ſet up his pure Spiritual Worſhip again, Rev. 19. 11.

6. Are not the Kings, Powers and Inhabitants of the earth in great danger of fighting againſt the Lamb, in defence of this falſe Church againſt his true Church (when he again comes to ſet it up in Nations, after the expiration of the long night of Apoſtacy) even to the hazard of utter ruining themſelves thereby? For thoſe that fight againſt the Lamb, muſt needs be overcome by him, his inviſible ſtrength and Armies being much ſtronger than the viſible Armies and all the outward ſtrength in Nations, though to the outward eye ſuch may appear very great and invincible? (Rev. 17. 14.)

7. Shall not the Kings of the Earth and the remaining powers at laſt (after the overthrow throw of many for joyning to her, and striving to uphold her) hate the Whore (which hath corrupted the earth with her Fornications, drunk the Blood of the Saints and Martyrs of Jesus, brought Misery and Desolation upon Nations, &c.) make her Desolate, and burn her flesh with fire? And were it not far better for them to do it before, rather than to hazard the ruining of themselves by seeking to uphold her? (Rev. 17. 16.)

8. Is it possible for any Nation (or any power in any Nation) to hinder the shining forth of Gods light therein, after the long night of Apostacy? There is a Spiritual Day, as well as a Natural day. There was a Spiritual Day before the Apostacy, in the days of the Apostles, And there is to be a Spiritual day again after the Apostacy, upon the Spirit of Lifes entering into the Witnesses, their rising and standing on their feet, and the Light of God shining forth from them. The Spiritual Day dependeth upon the shining of Gods Spirit in the Hearts of People (which did once shine forth, and doth begin to shine forth again) as the natural day dependeth upon the shining of the Sun. Now who can hinder the arising or shining of the Son of Righteousnes in the Hearts of Gods people? If ye can, then may ye prevent the carrying on of Gods work of Reformation in this Nation, and throughout the World; but it is easier for you to stop the shining of the Sun in the Firmament. O that the eye were opened which can see the way of Peace, that the present Governours might be blessed and the Nation blessed in them, and not the Spirit of the Nation (by a secret kindling, which none knows whence it comes) brought over them as a Flood, as it was over them that went before them.

In that fear which God works in the Heart (and out of the compass of that carnal wisdom and strength, on which man relies) is the Wisdom, Council and Preservation of the most high; both of particular persons, and also of Nations. O Lord my God, if it may please thee, open the Ear that can hear thy Voice, that misery may be avoided, and thy Peace and Blessing sought after and enjoyed, or at least some of the force of that bitter Storm (which sweepeth away and maketh Desolate, even as the abomination of Desolation hath entred, and of a long time made the Earth desolate of the Life and Power of Godliness) broken, that this Nation may not be swallowed up in the dreadful breakings forth of thy displeasure, but may be prepared by thy Correcting hand, and fitted for the day of thy Mercy.

A Brief Account of what the People called QUAKERS desire, in Reference to the Civil Government.

THere are three things which we cannot but earnestly desire in our hearts, and pray to the Lord for, as the proper means of setling aright the Spirit of this Nation, as also necessary for the growth of Gods pure Living Truth, and as just and equal in themselves.

1. Universal Liberty for all sorts to Worship God, according as Christ shall open mens eyes to see the Truth, and according as he shall perswade their Hearts by his Spirit, who is every mans Master in Religion, to whom they must stand or fall in all they do therein, Rom. 14. 4

Now if any man Walk disorderly, and contrary to the light of Christs Spirit either in Doctrine or Worship; that power which converts to God, is to reprove and correct such an Offender with the Spiritual Rod and Sword, that he may be again restored to the Truth and Obedience of the Spirit: But the Magistrate is not for any such thing to Imprison, Fine, Banish, or put him to Death. For Christ is the Judge of his People in the things of his Kingdom, Heb. 10. 30. and he hath appointed to have his Spiritual Weapons in a readiness, to revenge every Disobedience and Rebellion against his Spirit, 2 Cor. 10 4. The bringing in and applying of the Magistrates Sword to this Work, was never by the True Church, in whose hand the Sword of the Spirit was ever found sufficient; But the false Church not having the Sword of the Spirit, is fain to uphold her self by the carnal Weapons, or else she would soon fall. But the Lord God is wresting these out of her hands, and then his light will break forth without interruption, and her shame and nakedness soon appear.

2. That no Laws formerly made, contrary to the Principle of equity and righteousnes neſs in man, may remain in force; nor no new ones be made, but what are manifeſtly agreeable thereunto. All juſt Laws, ſay the Lawyers, have their Foundation in right reaſon, and muſt agree with, and proceed from it, if they be properly good for, and rightly ſervicable to Mankind. Now man hath a corrupt and carnal Reaſon, which ſways him aſide from Integrity and Righteouſneſs, towards the favouring of himſelf and his own party: And whatever party is uppermoſt, they are apt to make ſuch new Laws as they frame, and alſo the interpretation of the old ones bend towards the favour of their own party. Therefore we would have every man in Authority wait in the fear of God, to have that Principle of God raiſed up in him, which is for righteouſneſs, and not ſelfiſh, and watch to be guided by that in all he does, either in making Laws for Government, or in governing by Laws already made.

3. Seeing this Nation is in ſuch a ſhattered Condition, and there have been ſo many Breaches, Parties, and Factions in it, that no Party might be bolſtered up in enmity and oppoſition againſt another, but that every Party might be conſidered, in what might be done for their Eaſe and Benefit, without danger and detriment to any other party. And if I might be hearkened to, I would perſwade thoſe now in Power, not to deal with their Enemies as they formerly dealt with them, but as they would have been dealt with by them when they were in Power.

I would alſo dehort and diſſwade all people from Plotting or contriving againſt this preſent Government (for they muſt have their day, do all men what they can) but inſtead thereof to pray for them, that they may ſee the former errours in Government, humble themſelves before the Lord, and (by their Meekneſs, Gentleneſs, and Righteouſneſs towards all) ſhew forth the Fruit of his Long afflicting-hand upon them. But if they ſhall over-look, forget, and neglect the Lord, who hath ſhewn ſo great mercy to them, and not in his fear wait on him, to preſerve for them the ground and intereſt he hath given them, and think that now they are able to ſtand on their own Leggs, and by their own Wiſdom and Strength, and ſo aſſay to carry on things according to their own Will, and in the ſtrength of their own Wiſdom, and ſo not mind for what end the Lord brought them in again, and what he expecteth to have effected by them, but ſtrive again to ſettle the Principles and Practices which he hath been ſhaking, according to what ſeems right and good in their own Eyes (meaſuring things by their own corrupt reaſon, ſelfiſh Wiſdom and Intereſts, and not by the Principle of God, common Equity, and right Reaſon) I ſay, if it come to be thus with them, ye ſhall not need to Plot againſt them: for the Lord God Almighty, who with eaſe removed their Enemies and made way for them, can with as great eaſe remove them, and put the power into another hand

Therefore, all People, be ſtill and quiet in your Minds, and wait for righteouſneſs, for that is it which the Lord is making Way for in this Nation, and which he will ſet up therein; and he whoſe deſire is not after that, and whoſe intereſt lies not there, will find himſelf diſappointed, and at unawares ſurprized with what he expects not.

This is given forth that the Powers and People may ſee what is the deſire of our hearts in theſe reſpects, and how upright our hearts are towards them in what is juſt and right, and that we are not at all againſt Magiſtracy, Laws, or Government, though we cannot flatter or bend to them in that which is ſelfiſh and corrupt, and indeed againſt God and not for the good of men. It was written long ſince, and intended then for ſervice to the Lord and this Nation, and his People therein, but the Lord ordered it otherwiſe: If he pleaſe now to accompany it with his bleſſing, and make way for the reaſonableneſs, Equity, and Righteouſneſs of it, to enter into the Minds and Hearts of them that are in Power, it will be a good ſeaſon for it, and they will find cauſe to bleſs the Lord, for putting of it into my Heart at firſt, and for the publiſhing of it now.

A few Words to ſuch as have felt the power of the endleſs Life drawing, and have faithfully followed the Leader of the Flock of Iſrael, who hath of late led his Sheep in ſuch Paths as hath not been known all the night of the Apoſtacy.

O Ye Children of the moſt High, who hath felt the breath of the eternal Spirit begetting you in the pure Life, and drawing you out of this World, out of the vanities, out of the corruptions, out of the courſe and faſhions, out of the invented Ways and Forms of Worſhip (yea out of the very Root and Principle thereof) into the Worſhip and Spirit of Truth, and into the fear of the moſt high, which is Wiſdoms Place and Habitation, where the pure Law of Life is received and the Salvation begun, wrought out, and perfected. O ye dear Plants of the right hand of Eternity, fear not what is to come to paſs in this viſible Creation (to break the corrupt ſtate thereof, and to make way for the ſpringing up and ſpreading of his pure Life and Righteouſneſs, which the corrupt Eſtate, Spirit, and Principle of the World cannot but oppoſe, until it be broken and ſubjected) but ſanctifie the Lord of Hoſts, and let him be your fear and dread, that he may compaſs you with the Arm of his Power, and hide you under the ſhadow of his hand, until he hath Planted the Heavens, and laid the Foundations of the Earth, and ſay to Sion, in the ſight of all her Enemies, Thou art my People. The Lord my God watcheth over you Night and Day, and preſerve his living Principle pure and freſh in you, and you in perfect ſubjection unto it; that he may delight in what he hath begotten and preſerved in you, and ye may be ſatisfied in the openings and overflowings of the love of his heart towards you. Amen, ſaith my Soul.

From Alisbury Priſon in Bucks: where my Life breath for the Conſolation and Redemption of God's Iſrael, and for the turning of the captivity of the whole Creation 1661.

A few words about the preſent work of God in the World.

WOULD any know what God is now on doing in the Earth, and what changes he is making therein? Let him ſink out of the earthly Part, even from that which blinds the pure eye, and waiting to have the underſtanding and eye of his Spirit opened in the Lord, let him read theſe things following.

The Lord God of Bowels and Compaſſion, and of everlaſting Power and Strength, hath heard the Groans of Iſrael, whoſe Conſciences have been burdened, and whoſe Souls have been bowed down under the Power of the Beaſt, under the hard Yoak of Antichriſt for theſe many Generations; And he is ariſen in his jealouſie, in his indignation, and in his fury, to break the Yoak, and let oppreſſed Iſrael go free.

He hath already ſtretched forth the Arm of his Power, the Eye of Iſrael hath ſeen it, and hath in part felt the Redemption (both inwardly and outwardly) which he hath brought to paſs by it; and a Song of Praiſe hath been ſung to him, who hath begun to deliver his People, and who is able perfectly to accompliſh the Work he hath begun, notwithſtanding all the oppoſition he can meet with, whether from within or from without.

Lift up then the Eye of Faith, and behold a great part of Iſrael already paſſed out of the Land of Ægypt, and the Spirit of the Lord awakening and rouzing the reſt, to leave their dark Habitations in the Land of Darkneſs, Oppreſſion, and Bondage, and to travel towards the good Land of Light, Reſt, and Peace:

Ariſe

Arise O Israel, shake thy self from the dust O Captive Daughter of Sion, behold the Courage of thy Leader, let thy heart consider the Arm of his Strength, and the Rod of his Power, wherewith he is able to dash in pieces all his Enemies. Fear not, Worm Jacob, because of thine own weakness and unworthiness: thy Strength is in thy Leader, and thy Comliness (not in what thou now appearest, but) in what thy Husband will put upon thee, when he shall circumcise thee throughly, and rowl away thy reproach for ever.

Was all the strength of Pharaoh able to keep Israel in the Land of Ægypt, or to drive them back after God had brought them forth? Were all the Enemies in the Wilderness able to stop their passage forward? Were all the Enemies in Canaan, or the Strength of their Cities (though their Walls might seem to reach to Heaven, and the Inhabitants thereof were Tall and Mighty) able to keep them out of the Inheritance which God alloted them? Thy God, O Worm Jacob, is the same for ever: he hath the same Arm of Power to stretch forth, yea and his heart loveth his inward Israel ful as dearly, as ever he did the outward. O wait on the Lord, believe in his Name, trust his Love, hope beyond hope for the appearance of his power, and the Red-Sea shall divide, and the Waters thereof stand on heaps, yea, Jordan shall be again driven back; the Mountains shall skip like Ramms, and the little Hills like Lambs; Yea, the whole Earth shall tremble at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob: and Glory, Glory, Glory, everlasting Glory, Power, rich Praise, and endless Life, shall sound through all the Tents of Jacob in the Wilderness, and through all the Habitations of Israel in the holy Land, to the King of Glory, Power, and life, even to the Lamb that sits upon the Throne, who was, and is, and is to come; who hath reigned, doth reign, and will reign on his holy Hill of Sion, over all the Powers of darkness for evermore, Amen, Hallelujah.

O ye Sons of Men, how long will ye run after vanity, and seek to a Refuge of lies for succor and stability, and so lose your share in the everlasting Riches and Glory, which God is preparing for the Souls of his Chosen! Why will ye dy? Why will ye perish? why will ye undo your Souls? why do ye so greedily sow Misery, Anguish, Perplexity, and Wrath for your poor Souls to reap? O God of love, who knowest the value and price of Souls, pity thy poor Creatures, and put a stop to this course of perishing, wherein so many multitudes are overtaken and pass down to the Pit unawares: O thy Bowels, thy Bowels, thy wonderful Bowels! Let them rowl in thee, and work mightily, and in the strength of thy compassions bring forth thy judgment and thy mercy among the Sons of Men. Build up the Tents of Sem, perswade Japhet to dwell therein, and let Canaan become a Servant. Preserve the feet of thy Saints for ever: shut up and silence the wicked one in the darkness; let not his strength or subtilty prevail against thee or thine any more: but let the fresh Power of thy life, and the virtue of thy incomprehensible love redeem, fill, possess, and make glad the heart of thy Creation for ever, Amen, Amen.

J. P.

Printed, 1661.

CONCERNING

PERSECUTION:

Which is,

The Afflicting or Puniſhing that which is GOOD, under the Pretence of its being EVIL.

Which Practice is contrary to the very Nature of Mankind (ſo far as it is drawn out of the Corruption and Depravation) which would be Good and do Good, and have Good Cheriſhed and Evil Suppreſſed, both in it ſelf and others.

It is contrary alſo to all Equal and Righteous Government, which is for the Suppreſſing of Evil, and Cheriſhing of Good, and not for the afflicting and cruſhing of that which is Good, upon pretence of its being Evil.

Yet this unhappy Error will always be committed in Nations and Governments, until the proper Right and juſt Liberty of Mens Conſciences be diſcerned, acknowledged and allowed.

LIKEWISE,

There are ſome Anſwers given to that common Objection, againſt affording CONSCIENCE its due Liberty, becauſe Evil Perſons may pretend Conſcience to eſcape the juſt Puniſhment of their Evil Deeds.

With a brief Account of that ſuppoſed STUBBORNNESS, which by many is objected againſt the People called QUAKERS.

Given forth in love to this Nation, that at length the true bottom and foundation of a laſting Peace and Settlement may be eſpied, the Spirits of the Governors and People fixed thereon, and that dangerous Rock of Perſecution (whereon both the Powers and People of this Nation have ſo often ſplit) carefully a voided by all.

By ISAAC PENINGTON the Younger. 1661.

The PREFACE.

THere hath been an Enmity in the Seed of the Serpent, againſt the Seed of the Woman, from the time of the Promiſe even until now. God in mercy to Mankind, hath given unto him ſince the Fall, a Seed or Principle of Life, in the Light and Strength whereof he is to War againſt, and ſubdue the Corrupt Principle, and ſo be freed from the Curſe, and become Heir of the Bleſſing. Againſt this Principle all the Powers of Darkneſs fight (even in every particular Man and Woman) until they be overcome and ſubjected there: And againſt thoſe in whom this pure Principle Reigns, all the Powers of Darkneſs in the World fight alſo, ſtriving to make it miſerable, and to bring it into Death and Captivity, that they might keep up the content and happineſs of the Corrupt State. All the Nations of the Earth have always warred againſt the Principle of God and the People of his choice. In the time of the Law, the Jews were the object of the Envy and Hatred of all the World: in the times of the Goſpel, the Jews in Spirit were hated and hunted, in that day and hour, not only by Heathens, but alſo by ſuch as were Jews according to the Letter; and ever ſince the Apoſtacy by Chriſtians alſo, according to the Letter, who are as great enemies to the Spirit and Power as ever the Jews were.

ſince

Now all the Miſery of the World, as it at firſt came by departing from the Principle of Life; ſo it hath been ever ſince continued by mens joyning with the Principle of Death and Corruption, to oppoſe and withſtand the workings of the Principle of Life, both in themſelves and others. What man is there that hath not in him a Witneſs againſt that which is Evil? But where is that man, who joyns with this Witneſs in him againſt the Evil, and not with the Evil againſt this Witneſs? Oh how doth Gods Witneſs reprove for Sin, making the heart (which is not ſenſual and bruitiſh, but ſeriouſly conſiders its latter end) ſad becauſe of it, This is Gods way of making the Creature weary thereof, of weaning him from it! delivering him out of it, and ſo reſcuing him from the Wrath and Everlaſting Burnings, which are the portion and inheritance of the Wicked. But who is it that doth not ſtrive to ſtop, ſilence and ſuppreſs this Witneſs in himſelf, that he might enjoy his Luſts, eaſe and content in the fleſh, by keeping the ſight and remembrance of the Evil-day far from him? And if he can do ſo, then he rejoyceth and maketh merry over the Teſtimony of the Witneſs in himſelf; and when he hath ſo far prevailed, then he is in a good capacity to perſecute others, who hear and obey the Voice and Teſtimony thereof in themſelves.

That which is to redeem the World out of Miſery, is the Power of the Goſpel: and precious is the Peace which comes thereby, after the work of the Spiritual Sword (with the trouble thereof) is finiſhed. O how bleſſed would the Principle and Power of Life make the World, might it but have its free courſe therein! O how happy is that man, who bears the Condemnation becauſe of Sin, follows the guidance of the Living God, and waits for the day of his Salvation! O the ſweet inward Peace of Spirit which is enjoyed after the Storm, and after the Judgment of that which is to be judged and deſtroyed! And that which makes one perſon happy, the ſame muſt make Nations happy. There is no true ſettlement nor abiding ſecurity, but in the ſetled and abiding Principle. God is ariſen to ſhake the Earth, and it can ſettle no more upon the old Foundations: yea, the ſame God hath ſhriveled up the old Heavens, and they can no more be ſtretched forth again. Behold, I make all things new, ſaith the Lord in the days of the Goſpel, when he ſtretcheth forth the Arm of his Power: And who is he which ſhall venture to eſtabliſh the old Heavens and the old Earth, which the Lord God is removing and cauſing to paſs away, and aboliſh the new Heavens and the new Earth, which the Lord God hath Created and Formed and is eſtabliſhing? O that men knew the place of Wiſdom, that they might be Wiſe and not fight againſt their Creator, from whom their ſtrength comes, and againſt whom their ſtrength cannot prevail. O that men could ſee how induſtrious they are to keep up Miſery, and to keep out Happineſs. The eye of man (in the fallen and corrupt eſtate) cannot ſee aright: and miſ-ſeeing, how can he chuſe but miſ-aim and miſ-act? and miſ-aiming and miſ-acting, how can he attain his end? But the Lords Counſel ſhall ſtand, and he will fulfil all his pleaſure in every heart, and throughout the Earth. Happy is he who is weaned from himſelf, and begotten in the light of life which is incorruptible, he ſhall ſtand and be Bleſſed, when all fleſh falls before the Breath of the Lord and becomes miſerable; and the fall of all the fleſhly Will, Wiſdom and Strength haſtens apace; Happy is he who is delivered from them before the day of their ruine, which is nearer than man is aware of, or can believe.

I. P.

Concerning

Concerning PERSECUTION, &c.

BEcauſe men, generally, in Perſecuting know not what they do (neither whom it is they perſecute, nor how they Sin againſt God therein, nor what danger they are expoſing themſelves to, and what miſery they are drawing upon themſelves thereby, both in this World and for ever) even as Chriſt ſaid concerning the Jews, who were Perſecuting him even to Death, Father forgive them, for they know not what they do: and afterward to Saul; Saul, Saul, why Perſecuteſt thou me? Therefore, in love to thoſe, who are at unawares running into this great error, that they may find the good hand of God ſtopping them therein for their own good, are theſe things following concerning Perſecution Written, wherein are manifeſted,

First, What it is that is Perſecuted.
2. Who it is that Perſecutes, or is the Perſecutor.
3. The Nature of Perſecution.
4. The Grounds or Cauſes of Perſecution.
5. The Ways and Means of Perſecution.
6. The Ends of Perſecuting, what men aim at therein, or rather what that Spirit in men, which puts them upon Perſecuting of others, aims at thereby.
7. The Colour or falſe Pretence of the Perſecuting Spirit.
8. The Bleſſedneſs of the Perſecuted.
9. The Miſery of the Perſecutors.
10. The Way and Means whereby men may come to avoid this great evil of Perſecuting others:

Whereunto (in the Laſt Place) are added, Some ſad Effects of Perſecution, to kindle in men a Deſire of avoiding ſo great an Evil in its ſelf, and ſo Pernicious an Enemy, (to all that is good in General, and Particularly to the Peace and Welfare of Mankind) as the Perſecuting Spirit is.

1. What or who it is that is Perſecuted.

The Perſecuted in all Ages, is that which is born after Gods Spirit, Gal. 4.29. He that is new-created in Chriſt Jeſus, who is formed in the Image and by the Spirit of God (which is contrary to the Image and Spirit of the World) and who follows Chriſt in the leadings and teachings of his Spirit (which is out of and contrary to the courſe, faſhions, ways and cuſtoms of the World) This is the man that is Perſecuted in all Ages. He that is of another Spirit and Principle than the World, and ſo cannot be as the World is (being made otherwiſe by God) nor walk as the World walks, nor Worſhip as the World worſhips, being taught and required of God to do otherwiſe, This is the man who is afflicted, reproached, hated, hunted, perſecuted. And ſo the Apoſtle lays it down, not only as a thing to be in his Age, but in after Ages alſo, 2 Tim. 3.12. Yea and all that will live Godly in Chriſt Jeſus ſhall ſuffer Perſecution. Men may talk of Chriſt, profeſs Chriſt, worſhip Chriſt according to the way that is ſet up in Nations, and avoid Perſecution; but come under the new Principle, come into his life, live Godly in Him, become really ſubject unto the Power and direction of his Spirit; then there is no longer avoiding of Perſecution. That which comes into the Life of Chriſt, comes preſently into a proportion of Suffering from that which is contrary to his Life.

2. What or who it is that Perſecuteth, or is the Perſecutor.

The Perſecutor, in all Ages, is that which is after the fleſh: That Spirit and Principle in man which is from beneath, puts the men in whom it is upon perſecuting the other Principle, and the perſons in whom it appears; Or more plainly thus; That which is of the World, that which loves the World and preſent ſtate thereof; that which lies in the darkneſs, is in unity with it, loveth it, and the corrupt ways thereof; that hates the Light, and Perſecuteth the Children of the Light, who are witneſſes againſt, and reprovers vers of the darkneſs, John 3. 20. He that was born after the Fleſh, Perſecuted him that was after the Spirit. So it was formerly, ſo it is alſo now, ſaith the Apoſtle, Gal. 4. 29. Now there are ſeveral ſorts and ranks of theſe, as ſome in the way of open prophaneneſs and wickedneſs, ſome more civilized, and of a more Gentle, Noble, and Conſiderate Spirit and Temper, ſome more Religious and Devout in worſhips (though not rightly principled and guided, but turned aſide to ſome inventions or other of the earthly Spirit, all which are pleaſing to the earthly Spirit) But all theſe, though they are different one from another, and agree not well among themſelves, but are full of diſlikes one toward another, yet they all agree in this, to wit, in a willingneſs to have that perſecuted and ſubjected, which is of a contrary Spirit and Nature to them all. They are all againſt this more or leſs, though not all againſt it in the ſame degree of heat and vehemency.

3. The Nature of Perſecution, or what it is to Perſecute.

Perſecution is the oppoſition of the Fleſh againſt the Spirit: The fretting or daſhing of the earthly Spirit, or Spirit of man corrupted, againſt that which is born of God: The fighting of the unregenerate and unrenewed Spirit in Man, againſt the Spirit of Man renewed by the regenerating Power of the Spirit of God. The fighting, the oppoſing of this Spirit againſt the other, is Perſecution. Whatever any man does in his own will, according to his own wiſdom, and after the inclination of his own heart, againſt another who deſires to fear the Lord, (who waits on him for the counſel and guidance of his Spirit, that he might obey and worſhip him aright) is Perſecution. The Principle of God teaches to fear the Lord, not according to the fear which is taught by the Precepts of Men, but according to the fear which God puts into the heart; It teaches likewiſe to worſhip the Lord, not according as man invents and thinks good to preſcribe, but as the Lord inſtructs and requires; It teacheth likewiſe not to conform to the World, but to deny it and come out of it: Now the hating, oppoſing, and puniſhing of that which is thus taught, becauſe of theſe teachings and its obedience thereto, this is Perſecution. The riſing of the heart againſt ſuch, is Perſecution in the heart: The Reproaching, Scoffing at, or ſpeaking evil of ſuch, is Perſecution with the Tongue: (So Iſhmael's mocking of Iſaac, Gen. 21. 9, 10. is called Perſecuting of him, Gal. 4. 29, 30.) The Smiting, Fining, Impriſoning of ſuch, &c. in relation to any thing that they do from this principle, is Perſecution with the hand, or lifting up of the power either of a particular Perſon, or of a Magiſtrate againſt ſuch.

4. The Grounds of Perſecution, or what are the things that cauſe the one Spirit and Principle to Perſecute, and the other to be Perſecuted.

The Grounds and Cauſes which expoſe the one to Perſecution, and kindle the heat of Perſecuting in the other, are chiefly theſe three enſuing.

1. The enmity of the Birth of the Fleſh againſt the Birth of the Spirit. There is enmity in the Serpent againſt the Woman, and in the Seed of the Serpent againſt the Seed of the Woman. That which is born of the corrupt Principle cannot endure that which is born of the pure Principle. That which Walks and Worſhips in the Will, and according to the Inventions of Man's Wiſdom, and in Shaddows and fleſhly Forms, pleaſing to the Fleſh, cannot endure that which Worſhips in Spirit and Truth.

2. The contrariety of that which is born of God and drawn out of the World, to that which is of the Fleſh (or of corrupt Man) and left in the World, this is that which incenſeth, and draweth forth the enmity in the corrupt Principle. They are not of the World, even as I am not of the World, John 17. 16. Therefore the World hateth them, v. 14. They are of another Spirit, of another Image, of another Make, of another Heart, of another Deſire, of another manner of Carriage and Demeanor, of another Principle, and have other Ends in all they do, than the World. And their whole Courſe and Converſation being in the Light, and in the Love, and in true Purity of Mind) reproves the World, which lies in the darkneſs and in the enmity, and walks in the Wickedneſs. And how can the World bear this, in the midſt of all their height, glory, and greatneſs, to be continually reproved by a poor and contemptible Generation, as God's choice in the World have for the generality of them always been, even looked upon by the World as the off-ſcouring thereof, as not fit to be ſuffer'd to have a being in it, but rather as deſerving to be ſcowred off from it?

to

The Light, whereof the Children of Light are born, and which they hold forth (or rather which God holds forth by them) condemns the World. The evenneſs, ſweetneſs, and ſtraitneſs, of their Converſation and Practices condemns the unevenneſs, crookedneſs, and perverſneſs of the Spirit of the World. The integrity, ſerioufneſs, and ſpirituality of their Worſhip (with the living power and preſence of God, appearing among them) condemns the deadneſs, formality, and hypocriſie of the Worſhips of the World, who draw nigh to God with their Lips, when it is manifeſt, that their Hearts are far from him, being enſnared, and captivated with Vanities and Self-intereſts, and love of the World and Earthly things. Indeed the whole courſe and manifeſtation of the Light and Power of God in them, is a continual upbraiding of the Principle and Ways of darkneſs in the men of the World. And how can the men of the World forbear making an unrighteous War, even a War of Perſecution againſt that which invades their Territories, and makes War with them in Righteouſneſs? Can darkneſs chuſe but fight to ſave its own Dominions? It muſt put out the light or it cannot ſave its own, but will be loſing ground daily.

3. Becauſe of the Children of Light leaving and coming out of the World. They were once of the World, as well as others; Of the ſame Nature, of the ſame Spirit, of the ſame corrupt Will, of the ſame corrupt Wiſdom, walking in their way, worſhipping according to their worſhips, approving and obſerving their cuſtoms, faſhions, and vanities. But when the Spirit of Chriſt called them out of the World, and created in them that which could hear his voice and was willing to follow him, then they left all theſe, and ſtood witneſſes (in God's Spirit which called, and in that Life which was begotten in them, and in the fear, love, and power of that God who quickned them) againſt all theſe. And this mads the World, in that they were once of them, but left them. Had they ſtaid in the World, and been ſtill of the World, the World would have loved them, as it doth the reſt of its own: but departing from the world, travelling towards another Countrey, ſubjecting themſelves to another Spirit, and teſtifying againſt that Spirit which formerly led them, and ſtill leads the world, and againſt thoſe ways and practices wherein formerly they walked, and wherein the world ſtill walks; this fills the worldly Spirit with rage againſt them.

5. The Ways and Means of Perſecution.

The Ways and Means of Perſecution are very many. Who can want Inſtruments to afflict the Innocent and Helpleſs, who can neither reſiſt the evil which is offered them, nor harm that which offers it? I ſhall only here mention three general heads, to which many particulars may be referred.

1. One great way of Perſecution is, by making uſe of Laws already made, either according to their proper tendency to that end and purpoſe, or by bending them aſide from their proper Intent, to reach thoſe whom they have a mind to afflict and perſecute. Thus the Jews, when they had a mind to have Chriſt put to death, told Pilate, We have a Law, and by our Law he ought to die, John 19. 7.

2. Another way is, by making new Laws fit for their purpoſe, whereby they may catch, enſnare, and ſuppreſs that which is contrary to their Spirit and Principle, and which will not bow thereto. This is a certain way to take that which is born of God and which cannot but be true to Him, and ſo cannot bow to the corrupt will of Man, nor to any Law made in the corrupt will, to ſtrengthen the corruption, and againſt the holy pure will and mind of God. Thus Daniel and the Three Children were caught in the Snare by Laws, Daniel for praying to his God, againſt the Royal Statute and firm Decree of the King, ſigned in writing, according to the deſire and advice of all the Preſidents of the Kingdom, the Governours, Princes, Counſellors, and Captains, Dan. 6. 7, 8. And the Three Children, for not worſhipping the Image Nebuchadnezzar had ſet up, accordinh to the Decree of the King. (obſerve this by the way, and conſider it well: what hath been ſet up all this night of the Apoſtacy, but Images of the true worſhip? and what compelling hath there been thereto?) Thus have Articles been framed, and Statutes made here in England (as in King Henry the 8*th*. and Queen Mary's days) which have been great Engines of Perſecution: And thus have there been ſome late Laws made in New-England to the ſame Effect, though better might have juſtly been expected from them. And this is not only a certain way, but a very plauſible way likewiſe, whereby the Perſecutor hides himſelf from the imputation of Perſecution, and appears as a juſt Executer of the Law; and ſo repreſents him who is upright before God, and innocent in the ſight of God, as an Offender and Breaker of the Law, and ſo juſtly puniſhable. But this will not always cover the Unjuſt Spirits Perſecution of the Juſt. He that ſhall Perſecute the Lord of Glory (as he that Perſecuteth the leaſt Member of his, how contemptible ſoever he appears to his eye, doth no leſs, Acts 9. 4 Matth. 25. 40, 45. when Chriſt ſhall call him to account therefore, it will be a vain plea for him to ſay, there was a Law for it, and he acted according to Law. It is fit for all Men and Laws to bow before the Lord, and not to diſturb any in their Obedience to the Lord, or hurt the Principle of his Life in any, but cheriſh and nurſe it up as much as in them lies) in that tenderneſs which Chriſt begetteth in it, and in that ſpiritual Liberty which Chriſt allows it.

Worſhip

3. A third way of Perſecution is by the hand of Violence, without either Law, or ſo much as pretence to Law. Thus the perſecuting Spirit, when it hath power in its hand, and is out of fear, ſmiteth (with the open fiſt of wickedneſs) that which is an Enemy to, and ſtands a Witneſs againſt its wickedneſs.

6. The Ends of Perſecution, or what the perſecuting Spirit aims at in its Perſecuting, and would fain attain thereby.

1. The main end of Perſecution, is, to bring the Children of Light, (who have left the Evil, Darkneſs and Corruption of the World) back to the World again. That which they perſecute them for, is, for leaving the World, both in its Principle and Practices, and for profeſſing Obedience and Subjection to another Spirit: That which they drive at in Perſecuting them, is, to force them back from under ſubjection to that Spirit which hath led them out of the World, into ſubjection to the Spirit of the World again. There is a great Fight between the Spirit of God and the Spirit of the World, in the two Seeds; the Spirit of God ſtriving to bring the Spirit of the World under, and the Spirit of the World ſtriving to bring the Spirit of God under. This is well known in the heart, where the new Birth is witneſſed. O what ſtriving there is by the powers of darkneſs, with all manner of ſecret temptations and forcible oppoſitions (ſo far as the Lord permits) to bring the Heart (which the Lord hath begun to redeem, and in ſome meaſure ſet free from them) under their power again! And the ſame that ſtirs up the Darkneſs in the Heart againſt the Seed and Birth of Light there, the ſame ſtirs up in the darkneſs in other men againſt it alſo. The Lord knows what bitter Fights we have had with the Enemy in our own Hearts, before we could leave our Principles, Paths, and Practices of Darkneſs, how hard it hath been to us to deny the World, and come out of it: and yet when the Lord hath conquered and ſubjected the Darkneſs in our own hearts in any meaſure, then we meet with a new fight abroad in the World, the ſame Principle and Power in them fighting againſt us, as did at firſt in our ſelves. And as this was the aim and work of the Power of Darkneſs in our ſelves (and ſtill is, ſo far as any of it is left in any of us) to bring us back under the Darkneſs again, even from the Light and Leadings of the Spirit, and from ſingle Obedience thereto: So it is the aim and endeavour of the ſame Spirit in others. And if they could but bring us back from our God into the World again, they would be at peace with us as well as with other men, and love and cheriſh us as they do the reſt of the World.

2. A ſecond End of Perſecution in the Spirit that perſecuteth, is, to keep the Children of Light from gaining further ground. The Kingdom of God and his Truth is of a growing ſpreading nature. It is like Leaven, like Salt, like the Light of the Morning; Its Nature is to Leaven, to Seaſon, to Overſpread, and Gather Mankind from the Evil, from the Darkneſs, from the Corruption, from the Death and Deſtruction. Now the Spirit of the World, and that Spirit which ruleth the World, is loth to loſe ground; and therefore hunts and ſeeks to deſtroy the Veſſels wherein the Light appeareth, and from whom it ſhineth forth, and to make them appear as odious as they may, that they may keep all their own Territories and Dominions in a perfect deteſtation of them, and diſtance from them. Thus though the people of God have ſtill been an innocent people, and ſimple as to the ſubtilty and deceit of the Serpent, and weak and fooliſh in compare with the wiſe and ſtrong ones in the worldly nature and ſpirit: yet they are ſtill repreſented as moſt dangerous, moſt ſubtile and pernicious, as ſhrewd Deceivers, Witches, Jeſuites, &c. yea, any thing that is hateful and hated.

3. A third end of Perſecution, is, to affl ct, grieve, vex, diſturb and torment thoſe, whoſe Principles and Practices are diſpleaſing to them. There is enmity in the nature and ſpirit of the World, againſt the holy pure Spirit and Seed of God; and if it cannot overcome and get its will one way in bringing back, yet it will ſtrive to have its will another way, even in vexing and afflicting. It is the pleaſure of hatred or enmity to do any thing which may hurt that, againſt which its hatred is. Thus the evil ſpirit rejoyceth in iniquity, in grieving and afflicting that which is good. As the Spirit of love delights in Love, and in doing good even to thoſe which perſecute: ſo the ſpirit of enmity delights in hatred and doing evil, even in vexing and oppreſſing thoſe which ſeek their good, becauſe they are not, nor cannot be one with them in their dark Principles and evil Practſies.

7. The colour or pretence which men put upon their Perſecutions of that which is good.

Perſecution is ſo hateful (and hath ſuch a blackneſs of ſpirit in it) that it cannot endure to appear in its own colour. Where is the man that would appear to perſecute that which is good in men, or men becauſe of their goodneſs? Therefore all Perſecutors, though they ſtill perſecute that which is good, and thoſe which are good; yet they ſtill repreſent and charge them as evil, that they might thereby hide the badneſs and unjuſtneſs of their Perſecutions from their own eyes, and from the eyes of others. Thus the true Prophets of the Lord were always miſrepreſented by their Perſecutors, even as falſe Prophets, as Troublers of Iſrael, as mad men, as men not fit to be tolerated in the Kingdom or Common Wealth of Iſrael: (ſee Jer. 29.26, 27.) And thoſe which condemned their fore-fathers, for perſecuting the true Prophets in former days, yet could alſo perſecute the true Prophets in their own days. Chriſt himſelf, when he asked the Jews, for which of his good works they ſtoned him? They ſaid, Not for a good work, or as a good man; but for his doing evil; for his Blaſphemy, in that he being a man would make himſelf God, Joh. 10. 32, 33. And the Phariſees did not repreſent him as a good man, as an Holy Teacher from God (as indeed He was, though his Doctrine and Converſation differed very much from theirs) but as a Deceiver, a Seducer of the people, a mean man, the Son of Joſeph the Carpenter, one whom none of the wiſe Scribes owned, but only ſuch ſilly people as knew not the Law (John 7, 49.) yea, as a very bad man, as one that was againſt the Worſhip and Ordinances of Moſes, againſt Gods Temple and Prieſts in his Doctrine and Principles, and a prophaner of Gods Holy Sabbath in his practices; yea, more than this, they repreſented him as a man that had a Devil; and when the mighty power of God appeared in him, they ſaid it was the power of the Devil, and that He was able to do ſuch great things beyond them, through the help of Beelzebub the Prince of Devils. Could the Jews think they did otherwiſe than well in deſiring ſuch a man as this to be put to Death? might they not well prefer Barrabbas before a man thus repreſented by their chief Prieſts and Teachers, who knew and could expound the Law, and were beſt able to judge (as they might well think) both what was the Truth, and who were Deceivers?

8. The Bleſſedneſs of the Perſecuted.

The Diſciple of Chriſt, who is perſecuted for Conſcience ſake, who ſuffers from men and their Laws for the uprightneſs of his heart towards, and for his obedience unto Chriſt, that man is precious in the eye of Chriſt, and hath his bleſſing with him; yea, the more men diſeſteem and hate him upon this account, the greater is his bleſſedneſs.

Bleſ-

Bleſſed are ye when men ſhall revile you, and perſecute you, and ſhall ſay all manner of Evil againſt you falſly for my ſake. Rejoyce and be exceeding glad, Mat. 5. 11. 12. He is bleſſed in ſeveral reſpects.

1. That man is in that Spirit and in that way which God hath choſen, and ſo he is in a happy ſtate and condition at preſent. He is in the path of Life, in the way of Peace, under the Leadings of Gods Spirit. The World loveth and cheriſheth that which is its own, that which is of it and walketh with it, but is at enmity and War with that which is of God. Therefore the Worlds diſlike, enmity and perſecution is an evidence of Gods choice, and of a Removal from it towards God. It is an happy thing in the eye of man, to be at unity with the World, to have the love and friendſhip thereof, to have all men ſpeak well of one, to be found doing that which is pleaſing in the eye of the World, and to be enjoying the pleaſures and profits thereof: but in the eye of God it is happy to be in unity with that which is contrary to the World, and procureth its ill will. Love not the World, neither the things that are in the World. If any man love the World, the Love of the Father (which begetteth out of the World) is not in him. But he that loſeth the love of the World (for the principle of God and his ſubjection thereto) is in that which the Father loveth, and feeleth the Love of the Father opened in him, and revealed to him: and this is truly an happy ſtate.

2. The Recompence, which God will give to them in the World to come, who cleave to Him and his Truth, for all the perſecutions which they endure in this World for his Truths ſake, is exceeding great. Great is your Reward in Heaven, Mat. 5. 14. Our light Affliction, which is but for a moment (but at moſt, for the time of this World) worketh for us a far more exceeding eternal weight of Glory, 2 Cor. 4. 17.

3. The Reward is great in this world alſo. There is an hundred fold Recompence to be reaped in this life. The peace of God in the Conſcience, the preſence of God, the Life of God, the Vertue of God, the Glory of the Spirit of God (which accompanieth, reſteth with, and abideth on the heart which is faithful, and waiteth upon God for patience, meekneſs, innocency and ſtrength to carry through Sufferings) may well be valued at above an hundred fold Income and Recompence, for all the Hardſhips and Tribulations which are undergone for his Name ſake. If ye be reproached for the Name of Chriſt happy are ye; for the Spirit of Glory and of God reſteth upon you, 1 Pet. 4. 14.

9. The grievous miſery of the Perſecutors.

It is a miſerable thing to be deceived about that which is good, to put Good for Evil, Light for Darkneſs, Sweet for Bitter, and ſo (under a miſtake at leaſt) become a Perſecutor of the Good. All Good is of God, and he that is againſt Good is againſt God; and it is a dreadful thing for the Creature to ſet himſelf in Battel againſt his Creator, and to engage the Power and Wrath of the Omnipotent One againſt him, though while the eye is ſhut, it doth not appear to men, either that they are againſt God, or that their danger is ſo great thereby, as indeed it is. The Children of God are as the Apple of his Eye: Who can touch them, and He not be deeply ſenſible? yea, and they are moſt dear to God in that, for which the World moſt perſecutes them. And therefore their danger and miſery muſt needs be great, which may further appear in theſe three reſpects.

1. In reſpect of the weight of Wrath, which their Perſecutions of others here will bring upon themſelves in the World to come. Then every hard word, with every thing they have done againſt any Lamb of Chriſt's, ſhall come upon them. There is a time of Judgement for all that is ſowed in this World; and then every one ſhall reap what he hath ſowed. And if he that hath not viſited the ſick and impriſoned for Chriſts ſake, ſhall hear that Sentence, Go ye curſed, &c. what will his portion be, who hath impriſoned them and cauſed their ſickneſs? Now is our time of trouble; but the Lord hath prepared a day of reſt for that Spirit which is troubled in this World by the ſpirit of this World, and then ſhall the troubleſom Spirit, which troubled the peaceable ſpirit (and would give it no reſt in its following and obeying the Lord) be troubled by the Spirit of the Lord, 2 Theſ. 1. 6, 7. And what ſhall the miſery of that ſpirit be, whom the Spirit of the Lord troubleth and filleth with anguiſh, and torments in his Fire and with his Brimſtone! Oh that men would awaken and conſider in time, and not ſell away their everlaſting Inheritance for a meſs of Vanity, and tranſitory Luſts and Pleaſures.

2. The hand of God doth often overtake them in this World, and the Lord doth many times curſe their very Bleſſings to them, inſomuch as they cannot enjoy this World with that ſweetneſs and content they might, were it not for the rage and bitterneſs of their ſpirits againſt Gods people, and their provoking of God againſt them thereby. How many of his own people did Pharaoh loſe, and how did he break the ſtrength and glory of his Kingdom, by perſecuting Gods Iſrael of old? How did Amalek cauſe his name to be rooted out from under Heaven? How did the Nations and mighty Powers of the earth fall upon this account, one after another? And in this Nation how many powers have already fallen thereby! Jeruſalem is a burthenſome ſtone (it was ſo in the Type, it is much more ſo in the ſubſtance) which lyes in the way of every earthly ſpirit and power, which they know not how to build with, neither can they rear up their own building becauſe of it, and therefore every power ſtrives to remove it out of their way; but they know not the weight of it, nor who it is that hath ſquared it, and how firm it is fixed upon the Rock. The earthly ſpirit is never to enjoy any true or laſting peace and ſettlement (which is the gift of God) until it leave off perſecuting Gods Iſrael (which are the people whom God calleth out of the World) and leave them free for God to enjoy, command and diſpoſe of; and whatever holds Iſrael in Bondage, either within or without, muſt either be ſubject to the Lord, or be broken by that Arm of Power, which the Lord putteth forth to redeem Iſrael with.

3. By all their Perſecutions and Afflictions they ſhall but increaſe and cauſe to grow, that which they ſtrive to ſuppreſs: This is miſery indeed, for a man to hazard his Soul eternally, and his Peace and Proſperity in this World, to cruſh and ſuppreſs a People, and yet not be able to effect that neither, but even thereby occaſion their growth and encreaſe; and yet ſo it is in the day that God putteth forth his hand to redeem Iſrael. The ways that man takes to bring them back into Captivity ſhall be the means of perfecting their Redemption. Come, ſaid Pharaoh, this People multiply too faſt, they grow more and mightier than we; let us deal wiſely with them, and keep them down by hard labour, leſt they grow over-numerous and joyn with our Enemies againſt us, when they ſee their advantage: But they grew and ſpread the more, upon his wiſe plotting and contriving to diminiſh them. And what did he get by ſtriving to keep them from going forth of his Land and Idolatrous Worſhips, to worſhip the Lord aright, but Plagues and Judgments upon himſelf and his People from the Lord? Can the Powers of the Earth withſtand God any more now, than they could formerly? ſhall he not redeem and bring forth his People from the Land of Babylon? His ſpiritual Iſrael from the ſpiritual Egypt? Shall he not break the Antichriſtian Yoke from their Conſciences, that they may be free in ſpirit to ſerve the Lord? Can any hinder God from breathing his ſpirit upon People, and from begetting them in the Image and likeneſs of his Spirit unto himſelf? And ſhall not theſe be the Lords? ſhall not the ſame Spirit teach them to Worſhip the Lord? ſhall God call them to Worſhip him openly, and ſhall they not obey him, but worſhip him according to mans Inventions and Commandments, or not at all publickly? Oh ye ſons of men be wiſe, do not contend with the Lord; be not bewitched by the Cup of Fornications, from the pure ſpiritual Worſhip of the living God, into Mans Inventions, which the Lords Soul loaths; nor do not ſtrive to hold any back from the Lord, whom the Lord draws after him; but conſider his power, wait to know his Work in the World, and do not intrench upon his Dominions, but be thankful for and content with your own; and do not provoke him againſt you, who can more eaſily take yours from you, than ye can his from him. And conſider this Watchword, in that which can open and ſhew the truth of it; The Lord hath put forth his Arm to recover his Poſſeſſions from out of the hands of Antichriſt: and who ſhall be able to force it back again, to make it return into his Boſom without effecting what he ſtretched it forth for?

Therefore, O Magiſtrates of this Nation, do not make uſe of the Sword to ſuppreſs the Plants of God, but to cut down that which manifeſtly is not of God. Look abroad throughout this Nation, behold how much evil there is to grieve and provoke the Lord, and to divert good from the Nation, and to bring wrath upon it and the Government thereof; ſtrike at that in righteous and true Judgment, and with Mercy to Creatures Souls and Bodies; but that which certainly is of God, meddle not with; and that which may be of God, for ought ye know, be circumſpect in meddling with, leſt ye engage gage God againſt you. It were better to let many Tares grow, than pluck up one Ear of Corn. Chriſt hath abſolutely expreſſed it to be his Mind, that he would not have that done, which may ſo much as hazzard the plucking up of an Ear of Corn (Mat. 13. 29.) But oh how are the Laws and Governments of this World to be lamented over (and oh what need there is of their Reformation) whoſe common Work it is to pluck up the Ears of Corn, and leave the Tares ſtanding! The chief Cauſe of this miſery (from whence it principally ariſeth) is mens meddling with thoſe things which God hath reſerved for Himſelf, and aſſaying to do that carnally, which God once did ſpiritually, and will do ſpiritually again, in his due time, when he hath ſufficiently ſhewn how untoward and improper mans hand is to effect it. The Chriſtians in the Apoſtles days, were of one Heart and one Mind, which proceeded from the Power and Work of God upon them, and then they ſoon came into one Way and Worſhip; but men will have Unity and Uniformity in a way of Religion and Worſhip, before there is one Heart and one Mind. Now this is contrary to the Spirit of God, and to the very Nature of Religion, and the cauſe of much Cruelty upon mens Conſciences: And this hath been and will be the conſtant effect of it, even the cruſhing (as much as lies in man) of that which is tender, and of and for God, and the increaſing of that which is formal, dead, and earthly. Now if ever Chriſt appointed or intended ſuch a Church-Government, which naturally produceth this effect, let all that fear God, and are of ſober Spirits, judge.

10. The Way and Means to avoid Perſecution.

VVhere is the Man (in whom there is any good, who hath any love to Goodneſs and Righteouſneſs, who hateth Cruelty and Oppreſſion over mens outward Liberties and Eſtates, and much more over the Conſciences of People) that could not with his heart deſire to have this grand Enemy removed, both from Particular perſons, and alſo from Governours and Governments, that peace and ſettlement might be known, Righteouſneſs reaped, all Cruelty and hardneſs in one man towards another removed, and there be no more complaining in our Streets, either becauſe of Oppreſſions from Men, or fear of Wrath from God upon thoſe Governments which oppreſs? And who would not earneſtly pray to God for the diſcovery of that VVay and thoſe Means, and be very induſtrious in the uſe of them, whereby this perſecuting Spirit and Temper might be waſted and dryed up in him? Now the VVay and Means whereby the perſecuting Spirit may be ſubdued, are divers. As,

1. By a true Aw and Fear of God in the Heart. The Fear of God teacheth to depart from Iniquity, and to ſeek the crucifying aud bringing under of the worldly Spirit in a man's ſelf, and to wait daily to have God's VVill revealed, and likewiſe to be made obedient thereunto. Now he that is in this temper of Spirit, will hardly be drawn to perſecute another, but rather rejoyce to ſee a tenderneſs of Spirit in him, and true ſubjection of heart to what he believes to be the Mind and Will of God; and dares not ſo much as judge him for differing, either in apprehenſions or practices about VVorſhip, much leſs perſecute him therefore. But that Man who is of a prophane Spirit, or comes eaſily by his Religion (even by the wiſdom, induſtry, and parts of man, and not by the gift of God) and is exerciſed in that Fear of God which is taught by the precepts of men, but knoweth not that Fear which God puts in the heart (from whence the true Religion and VVorſhip ſprings) either of theſe may be drawn to perſecute, yea indeed, it will be hard for either of them to abſtain there-from.

2. By meekneſs of Spirit. The Goſpel makes meek, tender, gentle, peaceable, fills with love and ſweetneſs of Spirit, teacheth to love, to forgive, to pray for and bleſs Enemies: And how ſhall this Man perſecute? Can a Lamb perſecute? Can a Dove perſecute? Indeed a Wolf in Sheeps clothing may Raven and Devour, but a true Sheep cannot. As the Power of the Goſpel is known, the Devouring and Perſecuting Nature is deſtroyed: And that being taken away, Perſecution ſoon comes to an end.

3. By a ſober and patient conſideration of their cauſe whom they perſecute, and what it is in themſelves which moves them to Perſecute them. The ſtrength of Perſecution lies in the darkneſs, in the dark thoughts, miſ-judgings, and miſ-apprehenſions about him, whom one

one perſecutes or is inclined to perſecute, in prejudices and falſe judgments of Perſons and things received: which by a ſober hearing and conſidering of things in God's fear and in meekneſs, might be removed; and then the eager Perſecuting heat of Spirit would ſoon abate and fall, the Fewel (which kindled it) being taken away. The Jews ſtopped their Ears and ran upon Stephen, Acts 7. 57. This is the way of perſecuting Spirits; They take in prejudices againſt perſons, their Principles and Practices, ſtop their Ears againſt what may be ſaid to manifeſt either the equity of the thing in its ſelf, or their miſtake about it, and then run headlong in their fury of perſecuting and devouring. But he that is ſober and conſiderate and weighs the cauſe before he ingages againſt it, and obſerves what it is in him which moves ſo hotly againſt another, and which is ſo ready to believe ill afore-hand: He ſhall ſoon ſee that, which is always hid from the Eye of the Perſecutor, and find Water to caſt on this devouring Fire of Spirit in him.

4. By a righteous frame of Spirit, which is willing to do by another, as he would be done to in the like Caſe. Perſecution ariſeth from unrighteouſneſs and ſelfiſhneſs; Righteouſneſs and true Equity would ſoon end it. If no man would make another man's Conſcience bow by force who would not have his own ſo bowed, Perſecution would ſoon ceaſe. But this is the great Evil and Unrighteouſneſs of Man; Whoever is uppermoſt, thinks he hath right to bow all the reſt under him, and lookes upon them as guilty and offenders, if their Conſciences do not yield and bow under him. And he that newly complained of the Load laid on his Conſcience by others, yet if he can get eaſe and power into his hand, is preſently laying a Load upon others. Here is a wrong frame of Spirit within, and how can it chuſe but bring forth Injury and Perſecution outwardly?

5. By taking heed and watching againſt the corrupt and carnal Principle, with the reaſonings, ſelf-ends, and intereſts thereof, and hearkening to the Principle of God, which teacheth and ſpeaketh right Reaſon. Man, as he came from God and was by eſpecial favour formed in His Image: So it pleaſed God to place in him a Principle of his own Life to govern him: This Image was defaced by the Fall, and this Principle forfeited, yet for Chriſt's ſake (who is the Saviour of all Men, but eſpecially of them that believe) the Lord ſtirreth up and viſiteth all mankind more or leſs, by the pure eternal Principle of his own Light and Life in Chriſt. In hearkening to this, man's reaſon is rectified, purified, and preſerved pure; and his ſteps here are ſafe? But conſulting and contriving out of this, he meets with that which corrupts him (captivating and miſ-byaſſing his reaſon) and then all his Intents, Deſigns, and Contrivances become corrupt, and tend not only towards the prejudice of others at preſent, but alſo to his own loſs and detriment in the iſſue. He therefore that would be ſafe in the enjoyment of any bleſſing which he hath received from God, and faithful in doing him ſervice in his Generation, muſt know what of himſelf is ready to betray him, that he may watch againſt it, and turn from it, and what in himſelf is given him of God to enlighten, guide, inſtruct, and preſerve him, that he may hearken thereto, and be made happy thereby.

11. And Laſtly, To ſet it yet more home upon all that are ingenuous, and would be Worthy and Noble, and do that which is Worthy and Noble, abhorring cruelty, afflicting and oppreſſing of others, let them conſider the Fruits and Effects of Perſecution which are very many, and of the worſt kind, even ſuitable to the nature of the Root. At preſent I ſhall only mention theſe four.

1. In a great degree, It hindereth the growth of the preſent good in every Age and Generation. ſo far as the earthly Power or Sword of the Magiſtrate can well hinder. Perſecution of that which is good by the earthly Powers, in its proper tendency is an hinderance to the growth thereof in their age and day, though the Lord can overbear the malignity of it, and further the growth of his Seed thereby.

2. It wholly tends towards hindring the ſhooting up of any further Seeds of Good, which God hath to ſow in the Earth: For all the Seeds of Good which God hath to ſow in the Earth, at firſt they are looked upon as evil, until by God's bleſſing upon them, and opening of mens Eyes through the much ſuffering of thoſe Veſſels in whom God cauſeth the moſt excellent Seeds of his Virtue and Goodneſs firſt to appear, their innocency and beauty begins at length to ſhine in mens eyes, and be diſcerned.

3. It

3. It occaſioneth the growth of evil. For good withſtandeth, oppoſeth, and chaſeth away evil, even as light doth darkneſs; and therefore the preventing of the ſpringing up of the good, is a cheriſhing and ſtrengthening of the evil. Beſides, the ſame Spirit, Government or Power, which perſecuteth and keepeth down the good, under a pretence of its being evil, cannot chuſe but alſo cheriſh and nurſe up the evil, under a pretence of its being good. For the ſame Eye, Tongue, and Heart, that ſeeth, calleth, and acknowledgeth that which is indeed good to be evil, cannot chuſe but alſo miſtake the evil and think it good.

4. It draweth down the Wrath of God upon People, Powers, and Governments, where ſuch Perſecution is; where the evil is cheriſhed under a pretence of its being good, and the good endeavoured to be ſuppreſſed under a pretence of its being evil. If men from their hearts do acknowledge the being of God, and his diſpoſal of things: then ſurely what is truly good in Perſons or Nations is of him; and what is of him, his Eye is upon. He beholdeth the Plants which he hath Planted in the Earth, and the Plants which the envious one hath planted: and he cannot bleſs that Place, that People, thoſe Powers, that Government, where his Plants are cruſhed, under a pretence of their not being his, and where the evil Nature and Plants are cheriſhed as if they were the good.

Therefore he that would not be an Enemy to God, an Enemy to Goodneſs, an Enemy to Himſelf, an Enemy to Mankind, and a Friend and Promoter of Evil, let him wait on the Lord, for the fear of his Name and Power to be written on his Heart, and for a meek righteous frame of Spirit, &c. that he may conſider his ſteps and the reaſonings of his mind, and not miſtake evil for good, and good for evil, and ſo perſecute men for being and doing that, which (might it have its courſe and progreſs) would make the World happy.

Object. But will not this undermine Magiſtracy, and interrupt its puniſhing of Evil-doers, if they ſhould be thus tender and conſiderate? For what Man cannot pretend Conſcience for what he does? And if the Magiſtrate ſhould hearken to every pretence of Conſcience, the Laws would ſoon be ſilent, Government at a ſtand, and every one do what they liſt, bringing in all manner of licentiouſneſs and diſobedience to Authority, under a pretence of Conſcience.

Anſw. 1. Conſcience is of God; and tenderneſs and conſcientiouſneſs towards him is neceſſary to the receiving of his pure fear, and towards the ſpringing up and growth of all good in the heart. The Seed of good is tender: and if it be not received into tender and well-prepared Earth (but into Thorny, Stony, or High-way-ground) it cannot grow. And it cannot reaſonably be ſuppoſed, to be the intent of God in appointing Governments, that ever their Laws or Authority ſhould hurt that tenderneſs of Conſcience, wherein his Seeds of good are ſown.

2. It is true, The corrupt Nature of Man, which is ſelfiſh, and ſeeketh covers for evil, may alſo ſeek this cover to hide Iniquity under, and may pretend Conſcience, when there is no matter of Conſcience at all, but Self-Will and Self-Ends at bottom.

3. Notwithſtanding this, God would not have the true Conſciencioufneſs and tenderneſs in any of his cruſhed; nor can it be done by any Perſon, Authority, or Law, without provoking God on the one hand, or without injury to ſuch who are ſo dealt with, viz. who are puniſhed by man for the exerciſe of that conſcientiouſneſs which is of God, and which he requireth and is pleaſing to him.

4. It were far better in it ſelf, ſafer for Governours, more agreeable to equity and righteous Government, and more pleaſing to God and good Men, rather to ſuffer ſome (by their craft and falſe covers) to eſcape due puniſhment, then to puniſh thoſe who (by the Goodneſs, Innocency, and Righteouſneſs which God hath planted in them) are exempted from puniſhment. Yea, it were better and much ſafer to ſpare many evil men, than to puniſh one good Man: For Mercy and Sparing (even of Offenders) is natural to that which is good, but Severity and Puniſhments are unnatural, and but for neceſſities ſake. And as for that man, who by his ſubtilty and deceit thus eſcapes mans hand, he will be no great gainer: For God, who is above all, will be ſure to meet with him. Yea that Magiſtrate (who ſpares ſome evil and evil-doers meerly upon this account, leſt he ſhould hurt that which is good) the Lord will help and bleſs: whereas that Power and Government which wilfully errs herein, the Lord may ſoon cut down; and that which errs thus through miſtake (it being a grievous miſtake to cut down the good inſtead of the evil) the Lord, who loveth the good and hateth the evil, may eaſily be provoked againſt.

that

5. As Government came from God; ſo the righteous execution of it depends upon God. Every man needs Gods help daily, elſe he may eaſily err in his courſe: and Governments and Governours need Gods help much more, in the many intricaſies and perplexities which they often meet with: And God is nigh to them in their difficult caſes, who wait upon him for counſel and direction. If the caſe be knotty, yet if God give wiſdom, hath the Magiſtrate cauſe to complain? And will not the Lord aſſiſt that Magiſtrate, who in his fear waits on him, and is not willing to ſpare the evil, and afraid to hurt the good? If there were not ſo much conſulting with mans wiſdom and policy, (nor ſuch laying of deſigns and intents at firſt, as ſpring from man and not from God) but a naked upright waiting on him for inſtruction, who can only guide the ſpirit of man aright, Governments would not prove ſo difficult, nor the ſucceſs therein of dangerous.

A Brief Account of that ſtiffneſs, reſolvedneſs, and ſuppoſed ſtubbornneſs, which by many is objected againſt the People called Quakers.

Object. That the People called Quakers, are an innocent and induſtrious People, that they aim at good, and might be ſerviceable and profitable to the Nation in many reſpects; this many believe concerning them, and in their hearts wiſh that the Powers would let them alone and make a Trial of them: the which they might be the more enclined to do, were it not for a certain ſtiffneſs which appears in them, they being ſo glued to their Principles and Practices that they will not bend in the leaſt, nor ſo much as meet the Magiſtrate one jot in any favour he would ſhew unto them. This is ſuch a temper as no Magiſtrate or Governour can bear, and therefore there is a neceſſity either of baniſhing or ſuppreſſing them one way or other.

Anſ. I freely confeſs, that (looking upon them with mans eye) it may eaſily appear ſo to man, who cannot ſee either whence that is, or what that is, which is wrought in their hearts by God. And how can I blame others for judging thus of them, when I my ſelf ſhould be liable ſo to judge, if I did ſo look upon them? But yet, if I had patience to hear them, and to conſider the thing in the fear of God, (watching againſt that wiſdom, from which the knowledge of the things of God and the ſtate of his People is hid) I ſee alſo, that there is ſome ground may appear unto man, to let him ſee that this is not ſuch a ſtiffneſs and ſtubborneſs of ſpirit as he judgeth, but ariſeth from, and neceſſarily accompanieth a true tenderneſs and conſcientiouſneſs towards God; which to make the more manifeſt to ſuch as are willing fairly to conſider the thing and know the truth thereof, I ſhall thus demonſtrate.

1. Stubbornneſs, or ſuch a kind of ſtiffneſs and reſolvedneſs, ariſeth from the ſtrength and corruption of the natural will and earthly wiſdom. The wiſdom which is from above is gentle, eaſie to be entreated; and the will which is created by God is mild and flexible, and eaſie to be led (by the leaſt Child) in the line of goodneſs. And I can truly ſay this, that I never in my whole courſe and converſation (who have long been a Spectator and un-intereſted perſon both as relating to the civil ſtate and the various profeſſions of Religion, till the power of Truth and preſence of God appearing in this people drew my heart after them) yea I cannot but ſay in the ſingleneſs of my heart, I never met with a more mild, gentle, flexible ſpirited People. And he that can reach the ground of the thing, cannot but ſee it to be thus; For he that is daily exerciſed in denying his will and wiſdom, he on whoſe back the Lord lays the Croſs and Crucifies him every day, his ſelf-will and ſelf-wiſdom (with all the conceitedneſs and ſtiffneſs which ariſeth therefrom) muſt needs be much broken in him.

2. In the tenderneſs and pliableneſs to good, which God begets, there is and cannot but be an unbendedneſs to evil. Conſider this, O ye that are wiſe; In the Birth which God begets in the heart, in the immortal Seed of life, which God hath ſown and cauſeth to ſpring up in his heritage, there is a bowing to God at every appearance of good, accompanied companied with a tenderneſs, gentleneſs and good will to man: But it cannot bow to that which is evil in any man upon the face of the Earth. Read then this Riddle, with a true underſtanding: The tender one cannot yield, the flexible one cannot bow, but naturally ſtandeth upright and ſtrait towards God, even in every thing it hath learned of him, and which he requireth of it. Thus in the Apoſtles days, the Chriſtians (though meek, though ſweet, though pliable to the Spirit of God and to all good, yet) could not bow to ſo much as an appearance of evil any where, but ſhun and avoid it every where. And if it were not for this kind of ſtiffneſs and unbendedneſs, the Children of God could never be preſerved in their departure out of the Worlds Spirit, Ways, Worſhips and Practices: but would ſoon be enſnared and drawn back again, by the enticements and ſubtilties of the Worldly nature either in themſelves or others.

3. A ſtiffneſs then I grant, an unbendedneſs I grant; but not of the earthly, nor of the ſelf-will, nor according to the earthly; but ſuch as ariſeth from Truth in the heart, and from tenderneſs of Spirit towards God; ſuch as is begot in his fear, preſerved by his power, and is neceſſary towards their preſervation who are born of him, and called by him out of the World. And if thoſe who are apt and liable to misjudge of them, did but ſee the ſincere deſire of their hearts not to offend man, but to be ſubject to the utmoſt according to the will of God, and knew what breathings there are in their hearts to God (in relation to the Magiſtrate, and when they appear before him) that they may be preſerved in the pure fear, and in righteouſneſs and inoffenſiveneſs, and how they cannot but refuſe to break any of Gods Commands, becauſe He is their Supream Lord, and they dare not diſobey Him to pleaſe man, or avoid their own Sufferings from man: I ſay, if men did ſee this, ſurely they would not call it ſtubbornneſs and ſelf-willedneſs, but a pure ſubjection and denial of the ſelf-will in Gods fear, joyned with an holy and humble boldneſs in His power.

4. Let it be equally conſidered, and it will ſoon be acknowledged, That the leaſt thing which God requires (the Command being from ſo great a King, upon whom the Soul hath ſo great dependance, from whom it hath ſo great hopes, and to whom univerſal obedience is ſo due in it ſelf and ſo profitable to the Creature) is exceeding weighty: and it is impoſſible for the fear of him, and due tenderneſs towards his Commands, to be preſerved, without a ſtrict and cloſe giving up the Will to him, and ſtanding in his Strength, ſtrong and unbended againſt all temptations, provocations, allurements and affrightments to the contrary, (and how eaſily may men call this ſtubbornneſs and ſtiffneſs.) But this they receive from God, as well as the Law of obedience and power to obey; and this (which men call ſtubbornneſs) flows in upon them from him, when they are in the ſweeteſt and meekeſt frame of Spirit, moſt ready to deny themſelves and to yield up their own Wills, to whatſoever is good and righteous, and ſo of God.

5. The ſame thing, which is offended at this unbendedneſs and reſolvedneſs, which is wrought and preſerved in them by the fear of God, (calling it by way of reproach, ſtiffneſs and ſtubborneſs,) I ſay, the very ſame thing will commend that reſolution and ſtiffneſs, which is taken up in mans wiſdom, and held in mans will. Is it not good to weigh and conſider things reaſonably, and then to chuſe and hold faſt to thoſe Principles which appear moſt reaſonable? what man, but will ſay it is? And is it not good to obey and keep to that Light which is higher than Reaſon, which comprehends Reaſon, rectifying and preſerving it, making it profitable and ſerviceable to God which made it, to the Veſſel in which it is, and to the reſt of the Creation? But Wiſdom is juſtified of her Children. He that knows not the Principle of the Eternal Light, who is not born of it (much leſs by unfeigned obedience and ſubjection formed into it) he cannot juſtifie it in his Paths: but he juſtifies the earthly wiſdom and reaſon of man, by its ſetting up appearances of Good, inſtead of Good, and would make all acknowledge and bow to them as Good; whereas that which is indeed acquainted with the Good, living in the Principle thereof, cannot bow to the falſe Appearance, but only to the Truth it ſelf. When mans ſpirit and wiſdom is wearied out of all its paths, and he broken with the miſery which will certainly overtake him therein, at laſt the Path of God will be welcome to him, and that Principle which (through the operation of God) is able to rectifie him and make him happy.

There hath long been a Peace and Proſperity throughout the World in Unrighteouſneſs: but the ſeaſon is at length come for the breaking thereof, and now there is not to be ſuch a ſettled falſe Peace in Unrighteouſneſs any longer: but Tribulation, Anguiſh, and Deſtruction is coming upon the ſelfiſh and unjuſt Spirit: and he that refuſeth the Path of Righteouſneſs, muſt not know Peace, but be overtaken with the overflowing ſcourge, and ſwept into and ſhut up in the Pit, which hath long been digging for the wicked (Pſal. 94. 13.) and mark this thing following ye that would not find your ſelves deceived of your Souls hereafter, nor of your outward Peace and Proſperity here: for it deeply concerns both.

The Spirit of the Lord once raiſed up a ſpiritual Building, which the Spirit of the Dragon overturned (as to its outward ſtate, though the Gates of Hell could prevail againſt the Being and inward ſtate of the true Church) and inſtead thereof ſet up an earthly Image, agreeable to the earthly Spirit in Nations, but burthenſome to that which is innocent, pure, and ſpiritual. The Lord God ſuffered this to ſtand all its alotted time, and to have power to keep down the viſibility of his Truth and People: but the Lord hath appointed a ſeaſon to raiſe up his own Building again, and to throw down this Image. Now this I ſay to all men, in the fear and dread of the Almighty, ſtand ſtill and mark, if all the power of man be able to keep down God's ſpiritual Building which he is raiſing up; or to keep up any part of the earthly Image which he is throwing down. The Spirit of man (in various ways) hath ſhewed, what it judgeth beſt to have down, and to have up, and hath put forth its ſtrength to accompliſh its Will and Counſel. Stand ſtill a while, and ye ſhall ſee, that the Spirit of the Lord will alſo ſhew what he would have down, and what he would have up, and he will alſo put forth his Strength, to accompliſh his Will and Counſel. It is the Glory and Honour of the Lord to carry on his Work, in the midſt of all the Oppoſitions of man, and againſt the full current of his Strength and Will. This will make it to appear to be of God, and cauſe the Glory of his Name to ſhine. O that men could fear the Lord and bow before him, that he might be honoured in them, and ſee good to honour them in the carrying on of his Work, and ſo might not be forced (through their hearkening to the dark Spirit, and becauſe of their Ignorance of, and Diſobedience to the Light of his Spirit) to get himſelf a Name, by overturning their Strength and Councils, and cauſing his Glory to ſhine over them.

We have been a poor oppreſſed People, from the day that the power of the Lord brake forth upon us, and his Light ſprang in us, even until now: And now we are brought lower than ever, and are in greater danger (to the eye of man) than ever. Yet our confidence is ſtill in our God: and this we are certain of, that our Principle (and Practices there-from) ſhall ſtand, and man ſhall not be able to prevail againſt it; for God will preſerve his People in his Life and Power, and the heads of all that wait upon him in his fear, ſhall be lift up above all the ſwellings of the Waters; yea, a Song of praiſe is already prepared in the heart of God's Choſen, againſt the day of his Deliverance. We look not out, but give up our backs to the Smiter, as if their Stroaks were never to have an end: and yet we wait on our God and hope in him, as if Deliverance were ſpringing up every moment. And, Oh that God would ſmite the Spirit of Enmity and Darkneſs in Men and Powers, and then there would be Love, Peace, purſuing after God and Righteouſneſs, and no more Perſecuting and Smiting of God's People for the Uprightneſs of their hearts, and for their Obedience and Faithfulneſs to him. But be it known throughout all the Earth, We are the Lord's, and we muſt worſhip and ſerve him. He hath redeemed us, (even all of us in ſome meaſure, who have known Unity with his living Truth) in Soul, in Body, and Spirit: and they muſt all be his in the firſt place, and cannot bow to man (in the leaſt) againſt his Will, or contrary to the Law of his pure Life, and leadings of his Spirit in the Heart. Here is our ſtanding, in the ſtrength of our God, whatever become of us. And here we ſtand in love and good-will to mankind, yea, to theſe preſent Powers, however they judge of us; and have been praying for them, and mourning over them, while they have been ſmiting of us. And when they have drawn the Hand of the Lord upon themſelves; if the Lord ſhall pleaſe to open their Eyes, to ſee what we have been towards them (and how fain we would have had them ſet footing there, where they might have ſtood firm and have been preſerved) they will bewail as much their dealings with us, as what will befal themſelves ſelves: The Lord will manifeſt all things in his Time, and give his Truth a paſſage in the Earth, and his People a quiet Habitation therein, how black ſoever the Face of things now appear, as relating to them.

O how happy will the Day be when the Lord ſhall have wrought down the ſelfiſh Spirit in Man, and ſhall have raiſed up His own Noble and Equal Principle. Then ſhall Righteouſneſs ſpring up and ſpread abroad throughout the Nations: and the Work of Righteouſneſs ſhall be Peace, and the Effect of Righteouſneſs Quietneſs and Aſſurance for ever.

Some DIRECTIONS to the PANTING-SOUL, which hath been long travelling in the Letter, but hath not yet been acquainted with the Power, nor hardly ſo much as entred into the Miniſtration of the endleſs Life (which is the Miniſtration of the GOSPEL) that it may feel the Spring, and come to drink there of the living Waters.

MATTH. 11. 28, 29, 30.

Come unto me all ye that Labour and are heavy Laden, and I will give you Reſt. Take my Yoak upon you, and learn of me, for I am Meek and Lowly in Heart, and ye ſhall find Reſt unto your Souls. For my Yoak is eaſie, and my Burden is light.

Some ſweet Meditations ſprang in my Heart concerning this Portion of Scripture, with breathings of Spirit for, and rowlings of Bowels towards thoſe that Labour and are heavy Laden, which I find drawings to Communicate.

1. IN the Goſpel (which is the power of God unto Salvation) is the Souls Reſt. It is the Doctrine of the Kingdom, wherein is Life, Joy, Peace, and everlaſting Reſt to the Soul in God. The Law had the Shadow of the good things to come, but under it was not the poſſeſſion of the good things themſelves, but only a labouring after them, and a mourning and load becauſe of the want of them: but in the Goſpel is the Subſtance, the Enjoyment; Life and Immortality is there brought to Light, and an Entrance miniſtred into the everlaſting Kingdom, where they are felt, poſſeſſed, and enjoyed. The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand, ſaith the Fore-runnner: It is come, ſaith the Meſſiah: And in it there is Righteouſneſs, and Peace, and Joy in the pure Spirit of Life.

2. It is the Will of the King of Saints, that his People ſhould enjoy the Reſt and Peace of his Goſpel. He would not have them always labouring and heavy laden, as under the Law: but he would have their Souls feel and enjoy the Eaſe, the Liberty, the ſweetneſs, the pure Power and eternal Reſt of his Life. The Spirit of the Lord was upon him to preach glad Tidings to the Meek, Liberty to the Captives, Life to the Dead, the Opening of the Priſon to the Priſoner of Hope, the binding up of the Broken-hearted, the Pouring in of Oyl upon the Wounded: and he would have the Souls of his People enjoy that which he came to bring them.

3. Chriſt hath plainly chalked out the Path of his Reſt to every weary panting Soul, which he that walketh in cannot miſs of. He hath caſt up, caſt up, he hath made the way plain in the Goſpel, ſo plain that the wayfaring-man, though a Fool, yet keeping to the Light of the Goſpel, cannot err therein, or miſs of the bleſſed Reſt thereof. How is it? Why, Come unto me; Take my Yoke upon you, and learn of me: He that walketh in this Path, cannot miſs of it: The reſt is at the end of it, nay the reſt is in it: He that believeth entreth into the reſt. The true Faith, the Faith which ſtands in the Power, and which is given to the Birth which is born from above, is the ſubſtance of the Reſt hoped for, and there is a true taſte and ſome enjoyment of it given to him that truly believeth.

4. The reſt was once felt and injoyed, when the Goſpel was known in Power. Believers, in the firſt day of the Goſpel, before the night overtook that glorious diſpenſation, found Peace and Joy in believing, yea they could rejoyce in the Lord always. They felt the Power and the Life, which ſtood over all the powers of Darkneſs, and brought good to them out of every Affliction, and out of every Temptation, and out of every Diſtreſs: ſo that they ſtanding in the Life and in the Power which had quickened them and was preſent with them, they could count it all joy when they fell into manifold Temptations, knowing the advantage which would accrue to them thereby, and poſſeſſing their Souls in the pure patience, till God wrought it out for them. They had an entrance miniſtred to them into the everlaſting Kingdom: They received the Kingdom which could not be ſhaken, and in it had fellowſhip with the Father and with the Son, and in the eternal Light the bloud ran in their Veſſels, which cleanſed them and kept them pure; and they ſate down with Chriſt in the heavenly Places, even every one in the particular manſion which God hath built in them by his Spirit. The Fear of the living God was put in their hearts; The Spirit of the Lord was within them, and there his Law was writ, and read in the Spirit, and the Treaſures of his Kingdom were opened by the Key of David in the hand of the Spirit; and their Souls had true ſatisfaction and reſt in meaſure, and were travelling on towards the fulneſs.

5. There is no reſt to the Soul, to be enjoyed in the Goſpel, from under the Yoke. This ſtands Eternally, That which yoaks down that which would be at eaſe and liberty out of the Life, that is the Souls true reſt, there is no other; and under the Yoke it is enjoyed, and not otherways: only, when that which is to be yoked down is conſumed and deſtroyed, it is then no longer a Yoke, but perfect Liberty. But the ſame thing which is the Liberty, is the Yoke: And under the Yoke, the ſweetneſs, the eaſe, the lightſomneſs, the ſafe poſſeſſion of the Life is enjoyed. Mark this therefore diligently; The Yoke is not one thing and the Liberty another, but one and the ſame. The Power of God, the Life Everlaſting, the pure Light, the divine Nature is a Yoke to the tranſgreſſing Nature; but it is the eaſe, the pleaſure, the reſt, the peace, the joy, the natural center of that which is born of God.

Now to the Soul that hath felt breathings towards the Lord formerly, and in whom there are yet any true breathings left, after his living preſence, and after the feeling of his eternal vertue in the heart, I have this to ſay. Where art thou? Art thou in thy Souls reſt? doſt thou feel the vertue and power of the Goſpel? doſt thou feel the eaſe which comes from the living Arm, to the heart which is joyned to it in the Light of the Goſpel? Is thy labouring for life in a good degree at an end? and doſt thou feel the life and power flowing in upon thee from the free Fountain? Is the load really taken off from thy back? doſt thou find the captive redeemed and ſet free from the power of ſin, and the captivity broken, and he which led thee Captive from the life and from the eternal power, now let captive by the life, and by the redeeming power, which is eternal? Haſt thou found this, or haſt thou miſſed of it? let thine heart anſwer. Ah do not imagine and talk away the reſt and ſalvation of thy ſoul. The Goſpel-ſtate is a ſtate of ſubſtance, a State of enjoying the Life, a State of feeling the Preſence and Power of the Lord in his pure holy Spirit, a ſtate of binding up, a ſtate of healing, a ſtate of knowing the Lord, and walking with him in the Light of his own Spirit. It begins in a ſweet powerful touch of Life, and there is a growth in the Life (in the Power, in the divine Virtue, in the Reſt, Peace, and Satisfaction of the Soul in God) to be adminiſtred and waited for daily: Now art thou here, in the living power, in the divine Life, joyned to the ſpring of Life, drawing Water of Life out of the Well of Life with joy? Or art thou dry, dead, barren, ſapleſs, or at beſt but unſatisfiedly mourning after what thou wanteſt?

Well, ye that are dry, dead, barren, as it were without the living God (that know not the ſhining of his Sun, nor the deſcending of his Dews from on high on his tender Plants, nor the care, diligence, and circumſpection of the Husbandman over his Husbandry.) Oh wait for the quickening virtue, for the viſitations of the day-ſpring from

on

on high; that ye may be quickened again to God, that ye may find his Life viſiting you, his Spirit breathing upon you, that the Seed of Jacob may be raiſed in you to travel out of this barren ſtate, even out of this Land of Darkneſs, and from under the ſhadow of Death, to the Land where Life lives and flouriſhes, and daily diſtributeth plentiful nouriſhment and refreſhment to all its off-ſpring, who are taught to wait for it, and to feed on it in the holy place, out of the ſight of the eye of the fleſhly Wiſdom.

And ye who are ſtill gaſping after the living God, on whom the breathings of Life ſtill abide, (who remain unſatisfied inwardly for want of the preſence of the Lord, and whoſe hearts ſtill mourn and lament deeply after him) Oh conſider what is the matter, that ye have mourned ſo long, and ſought ſo long, and yet to this day are at a diſtance from the thing ye have mourned and ſought after.

Strait is the Gate, narrow is the Way that leadeth unto Life, and few there be that find it. The way of unbelief is broad, yea the way of belief is broad alſo. It is eaſie for a man ſo to believe concerning Chriſt, or in Chriſt (as his heart may call it) as to miſs of the nature of the true Faith, and of the ſweet and bleſſed effects which accompany it. It is eaſie likewiſe to miſs the Yoke (to take up a wrong Yoke, in the ſelf-will, ſelf-wiſdom, ſelf-interpretation of Scriptures) or eaſie ſtarting aſide from the true Yoke: but it is hard coming under the Yoke of the Life, and hard abiding under it. Again, It is eaſie miſ-learning: A man may ſo read, and ſo hear, as that he may be always learning, and never come to the knowledge of the Truth; never come to the Truth as it is received and held in Jeſus; but may ſo get and hold the Knowledge of the Truth, as man in his Wiſdom may get and hold it from the Letter. And if a man thus miſs the way, how can he attain the end? If a man begin not in the true Faith, in the living Faith, how can he attain the Reſt which the true Faith alone leads to? If a man miſs of the Yoke, or abide not conſtantly under the Yoke, how can he meet with the true eaſe and reſt which is in it, and which it alone can adminiſter? If a man learn not the Truth aright of the true Teacher, how can he ever reap the effects of the true Knowledge? Ah poor hearts! It is not enough to have breathings after God, nor to be very diligent and induſtrious either in outward Ordinances, or inward Exerciſes of Spirit, but the way of the Goſpel muſt be caſt up by God, and the Soul led into it by him, and daily preſerved by him, and muſt walk in the path which is proper for it to walk in, or it may mourn and cry all its days, and never meet with that injoyment of God and ſatisfaction in God, which it waits for and cries after. It is one thing to mourn after a Goſpel-ſtate, but another thing to be brought into it by the Power. With my heart I own thoſe that mourn after and feel the want of God, where-ever they are: But this I know certainly, that they can never come to the injoyment of him, but in that living Path which the Scriptures teſtifie of to be in him who is the Life, and which his Spirit is now found manifeſtly leading into. Bleſſed be his Name.

Queſt. But how may my poor Soul, who have long mourned, and groaned, and been ſick of Love after my Beloved, but could never attain to the ſatisfactory enjoyment of him, come to walk in this Path, that ſo I may meet with, and lie down in that power of Life and Salvation, which the Goſpel holds forth to the true Believer, and which I have been long ſenſible of the deep want of?

Anſw. Thou that wouldſt enjoy thy Beloved, and feel the Reſt of his Goſpel, and walk in that Path which leads thereto, wait to learn of the Spirit theſe things following.

1. Know what it is that is to walk in the Path of Life, and indeed is alone capable of walking therein. It is that which groans, that which mourns, that which is begotten of God in thee: The Path of Life is for the Seed of Life. The true knowledge of the Way, with the walking in the Way, is reſerved for Gods Child, for Gods Traveller. Therefore keep in the Regeneration, keep in the Birth. Be no more than God hath made thee. Give over thine own willing, give over thy own running, give over thine own deſiring to know or to be any thing, and ſink down to the Seed which God ſows in the heart, and let that grow in thee, and be in thee, and breath in thee, and act in thee: and thou ſhalt find by ſweet experience that the Lord knows that, and loves and owns that, and will lead it to the Inheritance of Life, which is its Portion. And as thou takeſt up the Croſs to thy ſelf, and ſuffereſt that to overſpread and become a Yoke over thee, thou ſhalt become renewed, and enjoy Life and the Everlaſting Inheritance in that.

up

2. Know in what Light it is to walk, which is the Light of the Spirit. There the Child is begotten (not in Satans Darkneſs, or higheſt Transformings into the likeneſs of Light, which is but Darkneſs; nor in the light of mans wiſdom, ſearching Knowledge or comprehenſion) and there it walks: in that Light it fetcheth every ſtep and motion towards the Land of Life. Therefore hold no knowledge out of the Spirit. If any knowledge concerning the things of God be held out of the freſhneſs of the Spirit, it preſently proves dead and unprofitable. The Spiritual Iſrael cannot travel without a Spiritual Light, which Light is Eternal and incomprehenſible, and cannot be held by mans ſpirit, but ſhineth freſh into the renewed Spirit every day, and ſo is daily gathering it more and more inwards into it ſelf, comprehending it in it ſelf, and preſerving it in its own Purity, Clearneſs and Brightneſs. Oh this is it hath undone many, even catching at Light from the Spirit, tranſplanting the Image of Divine things into the Earthly Principle, and there holding of them in the Earthly part, growing wiſe by them there, and making uſe of them from thence as man ſees good, and not ſeeing a neceſſity of depending on the Spirit for freſh Light and Life every day, to every ſpiritual motion. Thus the Traveller ſoon comes to loſe the true path, and inſtead thereof travels on in a Road of his own wiſdoms forming: and ſo though he ſeems to himſelf to make a large Progreſs, yet makes no true Progreſs at all, but is exceedingly run out aſide in a by-way, all which ground he muſt traverſe back again, ere he can come to the Truth of his former State, or proceed in the true Travel.

3. Know and keep to the Power, which alone began any true work in the heart, which alone alſo can preſerve it, and which alone can carry it on. Chriſt was made a Prieſt, not after the Law of a carnal Commandment, but after the Power of an endleſs life: and every Sacrificer under him (which every true Believer is) is ſo made by the ſame Power. The Powers of Darkneſs are continually at hand, which nothing can ſtand its ground againſt (much leſs walk on ſafely) without being in that Power which is above them. The firſt coming to Chriſt muſt be in the Power of the Fathers drawing: and no believing afterwards is of the true nature, nor will avail the Soul in its progreſs and travels towards Life, but what abides in, and goes forth in the ſame Power. So the taking up the Yoke and drawing in it, muſt be by the Power of the new Life. And ſo muſt the Diſciples learning be. As the Maſter teacheth in the Power of the Spirit, the things which alone can be ſeen with the new eye, heard with the new ear, and received into the new heart: ſo the Scholar muſt learn and receive his Leſſons of Life in the ſame Power. Let any Diſciple of Chriſt be from under the ſhadow of the Power, believe out of the Power, walk out of the Power, act out of the Power; he is from that wherein his Life ſtands, and wherein alone is his Preſervation, and ah, how liable is he then to falls, bruiſes, ſnares and temptations of the enemy.

4. Watch againſt the ſelfiſh Wiſdom, in every ſtep of thy growth, and in every ſpiritual motion, that that come not between thee and thy life; that that deceive thee not with a likeneſs, a ſhadow, making it appear more pleaſing to the eye than the ſubſtance. Every ſtep of thy way it will be laying baits for thee, and it is eaſie for deceit to enter thee at any time, and for that Wiſdom to get up in thee under an appearance of Spiritual wiſdom, unleſs the Lord tenderly and powerfully preſerve thee: and if it prevail, it will lead thee from the path of the true wiſdom; It will cozen thee with a falſe faith inſtead of the true faith, with falſe praying inſtead of the breathings of the true Child, with diligence and zeal in thy falſe way, inſtead of the true zeal and diligence; yea it will hurry thee on in the path of error, ſhutting that eye in thee which ſhould ſee, and hardening thy heart againſt thy boſom-friend. And being thus deceived, thou mayſt be as zealous in thy Age and Generation againſt the Truth, as the Jews were in theirs: and as certainly as they put Chriſt to Death, and perſecuted his Apoſtles, though they cried up the former Prophets; So certainly thou (under this deceit) canſt not but act againſt the preſent diſpenſation and appearance of Chriſt's Spirit, and wouldſt perſecute either the Prophets, Apoſtles or Chriſt himſelf, were it their preſent day now ſo to appear as formerly they did.

5. Let

5. Let nothing judge in thee (concerning thine own heart, or concerning others, or concerning any way or truth of God) but only to the begotten of God in the heart. Let the light in which thou art begotten to God, and which ſhines upon his begotten, be the only Judge in thee, and then thou canſt not err in Judgment. Be not haſty, be not forward in Judgment, keep back to the life, ſtill waiting for the appearance and openings of the life. A few ſteps fetched in the Life and Power of God are much ſafer and ſweeter than an haſty progreſs in the haſty forward ſpirit.

Indeed this is the true Religion, to feel God beginning the work, and to wait on him for his carrying it on. The feeling of Gods Spirit beginning ſomewhat in the heart, the hearts waiting on him for more of his Spirit, and walking on with him in his Spirit, as he pleaſeth to quicken, lead, draw and ſtrengthen, this is the ſpiritual and true Religion: and there is no Duty or Ordinance of the Goſpel out of the Spirit, but it is eaſie crying up, and obſerving the likeneſs of any of them out of the Spirit, into which obſervance a ſtrange Spirit eaſily enters, and then that which was of God in the heart, ſoon withers, and a contrary Building is raiſed, and the ſtate of the heart changed: Oh wait on the Lord, that he may give you to underſtand theſe things: for the Apoſtacy from God is very deep, and more provoking among the Proteſtants than among the Papiſts, yea moſt of all provoking, where it is moſt inward and ſpiritual.

Queſt. But how may I know and keep to the begotten of God, and to the Light and Power of the Lord, and keep down the fleſhly Wiſdom and Comprehenſion concerning the things of God?

Anſw. When God begets life in the heart, there is the ſavour of it in thy Veſſel, and a ſecret living warmth and vertue, which the heart in ſome meaſure feels, whereby it is known. Lie low in the fear of the moſt high, that this leaven may grow and increaſe in thee. This is the leaven of the Kingdom, this is it which muſt change thy heart and nature, and make thy Veſſel (which perhaps hath been long and much corrupted) fit to receive the Treaſure of the Kingdom. Now while the ſavour is upon thee, while the vertue of the Life is freſh in thee, thou findeſt ſome ſtrength towards God, with ſome little taſte and diſcerning of the things of his Kingdom, know thy weakneſs, and go not beyond thy meaſure, but in what thou haſt received bow before the fulneſs, worſhip God in that, and be patient in what he exerciſes thee withal, waiting for more from him. And when the night comes upon thee, and thou perhaps art at a loſs, miſſing the ſavour and preſence of the Life, and not knowing how to come by it again; Be patient and ſtill, and thou wilt find breathings after a freſh viſitation, and a meek humble, broken Spirit before the Lord. Thou wilt ſee thou canſt do nothing to recover his preſence again, nay thou canſt not ſo much as wait for him, or breath after him without his help; but he is nigh to the poor, nigh to the broken, nigh to the diſtreſſed, nigh to the helpleſs. Oh do not with thy fleſhly cries and roarings think to awaken thy Beloved before his ſeaſon; but in the night of diſtreſs, feel after ſomewhat which may quiet and ſtay the heart till the next ſpringing of the day. The Sun will ariſe, which will ſcatter the Clouds; and he is near thee who will give thee to hope that thou ſhalt yet ſee God, and find again the quicknings and leadings of his Spirit. And in the day of his Power thou wilt find ſtrength to walk with him: yea, in the day of thy weakneſs his Grace will be ſufficient for thee. And he will nurture thee up in his Life by his pure Spirit, cauſing thee to grow under his ſhadow: and he will be teaching thee to live, and to ſpeak, and to move and act from the Principle and within the Compaſs of his light and life eternal. Only be not wiſe to catch the notions of things into the earthly part, where the Moth can corrupt, and where the Thief can break thorow and ſteal: but know the divine Treaſury, where all the things of life are Treaſured up by the Spirit: and handed forth to the living Child with freſh life, according to its need of them. And thus thy heart being kept cloſe to God, and thy ſpiritual Senſes continually exerciſed about the things of God, it will be eaſie to thee to know the Shepherds Voice, and to diſtinguiſh the ſound of the Spirit in thine own heart. And that which tries ſpirits and motions in thine own heart, will alſo give thee the diſcerning of Truth and Error abroad, even of the Spirit of God, and the Spirit of Satan in others, ſo that thou wilt be able to try not only Words, but Spirits, becoming acquainted with the anointing, which ſavours all things, and will give thee to judge, not by the Words, but by the Power: for thou thy ſelf being in the power, in the anointing, in the ſavour, it will become natural to thee to feel, to taſte, to know and unite with what is one with thy life, what comes from the ſame ſpirit in others, and to turn from the contrary. And thus thy life, thy growth, thy path will be ſweet, ſafe, clear, certain, demonſtrative in the Spirit, and paſt all reaſonings of fleſh and blood, either in thy ſelf or others. The beginning of life eternal is in an higher Principle, than man can come at. Mans Wiſdom and knowledge of the things of God, is but bruitiſh before it. As thou comeſt into that Principle, abideſt and groweſt in that Principle, thou art beyond mans Judgement, and art able to Judge man, and fathom his whole courſe as with a ſpan, but art quite out of his reach in the loweſt of thy motions, thoughts or actions, I mean ſuch as flow from and are comprehended in the life.

Iſaac Penington the Younger.

Concerning the Worſhip of the Living God, which he teacheth Iſrael his People, who know him to be the only true to God, and the Worſhip which he teacheth them, to be the only true Spiritual Worſhip.

With ſome Queſtions and Anſwers relating Converſion, and to Tenderneſs of Conſcience.

BEcauſe the Worſhip of God is a weighty thing, and there have been (and ſtill are) ſo many Errors about it, and the Errors therein are of ſuch dangerous conſequence, both in relation to mens Eternal Eſtate hereafter, and to their right Conſtitution, Peace and Welfare in this World; and becauſe I have had deep experience concerning the Worſhip of God from a Child, having travelled in Spirit with my God for the right knowledge thereof, and in ſingleneſs of heart giving up unto him, according as he hath taught and led my poor, needy, depending Soul: I ſay, Therefore is it on my heart, to anſwer ſome few Queſtions concerning the Worſhip of God, for the ſervice of ſuch, as both deſire and need inſtruction therein.

Queſt. 1. Who is the Worſhipper, the acceptable Worſhipper in the ſight of God? Or whom hath God choſen out, to hold forth his Worſhip in the ſight of the World, ſince he rejected the Jews with their Worſhip?

That God hath appointed a choſen People to Worſhip him, that I preſuppoſe: though, if need were, the proof thereof might be ready at hand. It is not every man that would thruſt himſelf upon the Lord, whom the Lord will accept: but the Father ſeeketh ſuch to Worſhip him, John 4. 23. There is a capacity to be found in man, to make him a Worſhipper, even ſuch a capacity, as may enable him to perform that Worſhip, which God requireth of him. Now that is the thing to be enquired into, What this capacity is, and who are the perſons that are found in this capacity?

Anſ. The Worſhipper in the times of the Goſpel, the Worſhipper under the New-Teſtament is he that is born of God. He that is drawn out of the dark ſpirit of this World, and formed anew in the light of Gods Spirit. He that is a Jew inward, he that hath the Uncircumciſion of his heart cut off by the power of God. This is the Worſhipper, whom the Father ſeeks to Worſhip him. This is the ſort of Worſhippers God choſe, when he caſt off the Jews. God did not chuſe any one Nation, or many Nations, inſtead of that one which he caſt off: but he ſent his Apoſtles and Miniſters among all Nations, to gather a Spiritual ſeed inſtead of the natural. And theſe alone are capable of ſetting up, and holding forth his ſpiritual Worſhip unto the World, and to provoke them to wait for, and preſs towards the capacity of coming into the ſame ſpiritual Worſhip with them.

and

Queſt. 2. Which is the place of Worſhip?

Anſw: The only place of Worſhip in the New-Teſtament, is where the ſpiritual Worſhippers meet together. The place is ſpiritual. As the Worſhip is ſpiritual: ſo is the place where it is to be offered. It hath a ſpiritual conſideration, not outward as under the Law. It is to be offered in the Spirit, that's the place. Where doth my Soul offer its private Worſhip to God? Hath it relation to any outward place? Or is it in the building, which God hath reared up in my heart by his Spirit? Which building ſtands in, and is comprehended in his Spirit. And I can offer his publick Worſhip in no other place, but in a building of the ſame Nature, in an houſe built of more of the ſame Stones. This then is the way of Worſhipping in the true Light; Divers living Stones meeting together, every one retiring in Spirit into the living Name, into the Power which begat them, they all meet in one and the ſame Place, in one and the ſame Power, in one and the ſame Fountain of Life: and here they bow down to the Father of Life, offering up living Sacrifices to him, and receiving the Bread and Water of Life from him, and feeding in the rich Paſtures of his infinite Fulneſs: In the holy City, in the living Temple which is built by God, of the Stone which all other builders refuſe, is the place of the Worſhip of the living God, where the true Jews meet to offer up their Spirits, Souls, and Bodies, a living Sacrifice to the Father of Life, and where they meet with ſuch a glorious Preſence and Power of the Father, as none but the true Jews were ever acquainted with.

Queſt. 3. What is the Worſhip, or what are the Sacrifices, which the true Worſhippers offer up to God, in this holy place?

Anſw: The Gifts of his Spirit. Theſe they offer up, and nothing elſe. The breathings which the Father gives into the heart of the Child, they are breathed back unto him in the ſame Spirit of Life, in the living Senſe, in the quickening Power. Nothing of Man's Wiſdom, nothing of Man's Invention, nothing according to Man's Will, nothing that would pleaſe the Fleſh, or ſeem glorious in its Eye, is offered up here: but the Exhortations, or Directions, or Reproofs that ſpring up in God's Light, in God's Wiſdom, they are given forth in the Leadings, and by the Guidance of his Spirit, and they reach to the hearts of thoſe, to whom he pleaſeth to direct them. And this is the ground of ſuch meltings, and breakings, and convictions of Soul (and ſuch like inward operations) as are frequently found in ſuch Aſſemblies. For the living God is there, and the dread of his power overſpreads the hearts of ſuch, as are gathered into and aſſembled in his Name; and the Life ſprings in the earthen Veſſels, and the ſavour is precious to all that have their ſpiritual Senſes.

Queſt 4. What is the ſeaſon of offering up theſe Gifts?

Anſw. The ſeaſons of the true Worſhip ſtand in the Will of God. They are Gifts, and the time of them ſtands in the Will of the Giver. Prayer is a Gift. A man cannot pray when he will: but he is to Watch and to Wait, when the Father will kindle in him living breathings towards himſelf. So the Word of God (whether of Exhortation or Inſtruction) is a Gift, which is to be waited for, and then to be given forth in the life and ſtrength of that Spirit, which cauſeth it to ſpring. Indeed it is an hard matter either to ſpeak the Word of the Lord, or to hear the Word of the Lord. A man may eaſily ſpeak what he invents, and another may eaſily hear and judge of ſuch Words: but to ſpeak the Word of Life, requires the Tongue of the Learned in the Language of God's Spirit; and to hear the Word of Life, requires a quickened ear: and to know the times and ſeaſons of the Spirit, requires both being begotten of the Spirit, and being acquainted with it.

Queſt. 5. Was this the Worſhip of the Former Chriſtians in the Apoſtles days?

Anſw. Search the Scriptures: Were not they come to the New-Jeruſalem? And where did they offer their Sacrifices? Did they offer them in the Old-Jeruſalem, or at Samaria, or the Mountain where the Fathers Worſhipped? Or did they not rather offer them at the Mount Sion to which they were come; where the Male of the Flock (even the Lamb without ſpot) is known, and the bloud of ſprinkling felt? Heb. 12. 22, 23, 24. and 1 Pet. 2. 5. O read, read in the Life of God, the nature of the things themſelves, and do not feed upon your own imaginations, or the imaginations of any other men concerning them. Sweet is our God: His living preſence is exceedingly nouriſhing to the Soul: precious is his power felt in the heart: it is no leſs than life Eternal to Worſhip him in his Spirit. O let not the Enemy of the Soul cheat your Souls any longer of the Precious Things of his Kingdom, with husky aud dry Food inſtead thereof, which only gratifieth the earthly part, but nouriſheth not the immortal Life.

Queſt. 6. How came the Worſhip of God to be transformed, and changed ſo from the Living Power, into ſuch dead formal Ways, as generally Worſhippers in the World are found in?

Anſw. The Enemy hath done this, by God's permiſſion. The Lord pleaſed to ſuffer him thus far to prevail againſt the Truth; even to get into the Form of it, and there to beget men into the Form, and then deny and turn againſt the power. And this is the Way of Antichriſt in Kingdoms and Nations, even to ſet up a formal way of Worſhip, and by it to fight againſt the true Power.

Queſt. 7. How long hath this been done, and how long is it yet to laſt?

Anſw. From Antichriſt's beginning, all the time of his Reign, until his overthrow. The formal way of Religion will never be overturned, nor the power of Religion find place in the Earth, but there will be ſtill countenancing of formal ways of Worſhip, and turning head againſt the power and life of the Spirit, until Antichriſt's time come to an end, and the Lord conſume him by the Spirit of his Mouth, and deſtroy him by the brightneſs of his coming.

Queſt. 8. When ſhall this be?

Anſw. The Lord is about this Work. He hath already raiſed up that, which hath not been raiſed up for many Generations: and the Lord hath ſorely ſmote down the Spirit of Antichriſt in many hearts already; and he is fetching a great and univerſal blow at him: which ſtroke, when it cometh from the Throne of God, the Nations ſhall tremble before him; and it will be as honourable to wait for the movings of his Spirit, and to Worſhip him alone therein, as now it is reproachful.

Some Queſtions and Anſwers relating to Converſion, and to Tenderneſs of Conſcience.

Queſt. WHat is the way of Converſion?

Anſw. To turn men from Darkneſs unto Light, and from the power of Satan unto God.

Queſt: When is a man Converted?

Anſw. When he is gathered into the Light and into the Power: out of the Darkneſs of Sin and Dominions of Satan.

Queſt. How is man Converted?

Anſw. By the operation of the Light and Power of God upon his Conſcience.

Queſt. In what condition is the Conſcience, before God works upon it?

Anſw. Hard and corrupt: hardened by ſelfiſh reaſonings and dark imaginations, againſt the convictions of the Light and operations of the Power of God, and corrupted with the ſin and iniquity that dwells in it.

Queſt, What doth God make it, in his Working upon it?

Anſw. Gentle and tender, fit to receive the impreſſions of his Spirit. By the influence and power of his Spirit on the Conſcience, he openeth the ear to hearken to his Voice, and prepareth the heart to follow him in his leadings.

Queſt. How doth God carry on his Work in the converted Soul?

Anſw. By keeping it low and tender, out of the ſelf-wiſdom and hardening reaſonings of the humane underſtanding: by this means he keeps it pliable to the light and power of his Spirit:

Queſt. Is only the tender Conſcience then fit to be wrought upon by God?

Anſw. Yea indeed, that alone. The heart that is hard is inconſiderate of the Voice of God, and ſtiff and ſtubborn againſt it, having ever at hand ſome Wiſdom or Will of the the Flesh, to withstand the voice and leadings of God by.

Quest. Who is it that preserves the Conscience tender?

Answ. The Lord of the Conscience: He, who made it, knoweth the proper temper of it, and his light and power is alone able to preserve it in that tenderness, which he formeth it in.

Quest. What is it that hardens the Conscience?

Answ. The Wisdom of the Flesh. Man having gained a Wisdom out of the light of God; by the imaginations, reasonings, and strength thereof, hardens himself against God.

Quest. What is most necessary for a man to be vigilant in, that desires to have the Work of Conversion go on in his heart?

Answ. To be careful to turn from and avoid the reasonings of mans Wisdom, and to have his eye and ear open to the light and voice of Gods Spirit, that his Conscience may be kept upright and clear before the Lord.

Quest. What stains the Conscience?

Answ. Any Disobedience to Gods Spirit, any hearkening to or following the voice of a strange Spirit. This lets in the Darkness, which defiles; even as the Light cleanses.

Quest. Is a man then to expect such a thing as the Leadings of God's Spirit in his Conscience?

Answ. A man cannot inherit the Kingdom of God, but he must be first born again, even born of the Spirit, (so saith the Scripture, and so saith the experience of every one who feels the new Birth) And when he is born of the Spirit, he is to abide with him, and learn the law of the new life, and receive power from him daily; or the Spirit of darkness will soon get ground upon him, and by degrees be recovering him back again into his Dominions.

Quest. Surely if it be thus; Hard it the way of Religion, and few there be, who are found in the truth of it.

Answ. The Way of Religion is hard indeed, and wholly contrary both to Man's Wisdom and Will, insomuch as he cannot enter into it nor walk therein, but as they are cut down. He that will be a Disciple of Christ, and follow the leadings of his Spirit, must deny himself wholly, and become anothers, and be content to stand or fall to his own Master. He cannot please men, no not in his worshipping of God, but must turn from that which is glorious in their eyes, and sacrifice that which is to them an abomination. So that he must look to be condemned by men, who will be approved in the sight of God.

Quest. Why hath God put his People upon such hardship, as still (in all Ages and Generations) to walk in a way contrary to the World, and still to be the Object of its hatred, scorn, and Persecution?

Answ. How can it be otherwise, He begetting them in a Spirit contrary to the World, and which testifieth against the World, shewing that the deeds thereof are Evil? How can the Spirit of the World but still turn against such, and Hate and Persecute them?

Quest. How long shall it be thus?

Answ. Till Truth be raised by the power of God, into Dominion over the Spirit and Power of Darkness. The Spirit of Life now suffers under the burden of man's corruptions, in love to them striving to save them therefrom. There is somewhat in every Sinner, that at seasons groans under the weight of his Sins, and in some proportion strives against the Burthen thereof This shall not always lie underneath, but in the Day of the Lord rise over the Transgressor: And in that Day shall Israel be Glorious with his God, and receive praise of him, and be eased of all that hath oppressed him.

Quest. Is there such a day to be?

Answ. The Scriptures testifie of such a Day, wherein the Lord alone shall be exalted, and wherein He will take away the Rebuke of his People from off all the Earth, and bring down all that is High and Lifted up above the Fear and Spirit of the Lord: And in this our Age, the Lord hath chosen many Messengers to run up and down and Proclaim this Day. And as sure as the Lord liveth, what he hath spoken shall come to pass, and not a tittle of it fall to the ground. God did not make man for him to serve his own Lusts; nor this Creation to serve the Lusts of man: But he made man to Fear before and serve his Creator; and he made the Creatures to be ordered by man in the Fear and Wisdom of God to the Glory of God. The Spirit of God now groaneth under Man's Iniquity, the Spirits of his People mourn and sigh also, yea and the very Creatures groan under the Bondage of Corruption: And the God of Bowels heareth their Cry, and a day, even a mighty day of Redemption and Deliverance is determined, wherein the Spirit of the World shall be sunk down, with all its weight of Wickedness, and the Spirit of life and righteousness rise in its Glory.

Amen, Halelujah. Everlasting Praises to the Omnipotent One, Who was, and is, and is a coming; Who hath reigned, doth reign, and will reign over all the Powers of Darkness, in the pure power and glory of his Life for evermore. Let all the Lambs skip for joy, let all the Stars of the Morning shout: For the darkness vanisheth and is passing away, and the light of life shall cover the Earth, as the Waters cover the Sea: Amen, Halelujah.

Happy is the Eye that seeth this, and the heart that prepareth for it, overlooking all that stands between. This is the Hope of Israel, and the Expectation of all that wait for the Lord, which he is hastening upon the Earth.

Isaac Penington.

SOME QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS,

For the opening of the Eyes of the JEWS NATURAL, that they may see the Hope of Israel, which hath so long been hid from them.

WITH

Some Questions and Answers, for the Direction, Comfort, Help, and Furtherance of God's Spiritual Israel, in their Travels in Spirit from Spiritual Egypt, through the Spiritual Wilderness to Spiritual Canaan, which is the Land where the Redeemed Soul flourisheth in the Life, walking with God, and worshipping him in Spirit and Truth.

By Isaac Penington the Younger.

The PREFACE.

SEveral things hath the Life, begotten by the Eternal Vertue, breathed in me towards my Father for, in relation both to my self and others, from my Childhood. As touching my self, First, that I might be a Vessel for him; that I might be freed from the bondage of Corruption and brought brought forth in the Image of his Life. Secondly, that I might be filled with his Life, that I might be ſatisfied in the Preſence and with the Fulneſs of the Spring of my Life: Even that I might have enough of my God in my heart continually. Thirdly, that he would of his own meer Goodneſs both preſerve the Veſſel and dwell in it for ever: that ſo my Tenure and Poſſeſſion of him, and fitneſs for him might be of his Grace, of his Love, of his Good-will, of his own Nature, depending wholly and altogether on him, and not at all on any thing that can be expected from the Creature-hood in its pure State. And likewiſe, that if he pleaſed to uſe me in any ſervice, it might be of him, and for him, and to him: That he would bring me ſo low in my ſelf, that I might not be able to detain any of his Glory and Vertue from him, but the meanneſs of the Veſſel might ſtill ſo appear to me, and alſo be ſo ſenſibly diſcerned and acknowledged by all other eyes alſo, that the excellency of the Power and of the Glory might run back entirely into his pure Boſom.

Beſides theſe, there have been vehement deſires in me concerning others alſo. Firſt, towards Mankind in general, that they might have an exceeding merciful and powerful day of Viſitation, even that the whole Earth might be touched with the Power of Life and drawn out of the Darkneſs. O how hath my Soul breathed for poor loſt Mankind, and how hath my Spirit travelled (with unutterable pangs and earneſtneſs) for unheard of, unthought of, and altogether unexpected Mercy and Good-will towards the Sons of Men in general! Secondly, towards my Brethren in Spirit, that they might know the day of Redemption and Power in Spirit, and not always lie groveling on the Earth, and groaning and mourning becauſe of the Luſts and Corruptions, but might know Deliverance in Power, and might ſing the Song of Moſes and the Song of the Lamb (becauſe of their feeling Victory over Pharaoh and the Dragon) and might ſerve and worſhip the living God in Spirit and Truth, without fear of Interruption and Captivity from the Enemy any more, Thirdly, towards the Jews after the Fleſh, that their Iniquity might be blotted out, their Wound healed, the pure Eye opened in them, and the pure Glory revealed to them: that they might know the Shepherd of Iſrael in Spirit, the Spiritual Tents of Jacob, the Beauty of the Footſteps of the Spiritual Flock, and might Travel out of their Darkneſs, Earthlineſs, and literal Knowledge into the Land of pure Life, Reſt, Peace, and freſh Joy in the living God, (whereof their Land of Canaan, with all the good things thereof, was but a ſhaddow) and might be anointed with the freſh Oyl of the Salvation of the Meſſiah, and might become indeed an holy Nation, yea a Kingdom of Prieſts to offer up ſpiritual Sacrifices on God's ſpiritual Altar.

My Soul ſtill breatheth to the Lord, and waiteth on him for all theſe things: and as he draweth my Spirit forth, ſo am I ready in Spirit to be ſerviceable unto him therein. Theſe preſent drawings and openings of my Life, in the Queſtions and Anſwers following, are both towards the Jews in Fleſh, and alſo the Jews in Spirit, that they may meet in one, even in the one Path and Paſture of Life, where there is one Shepherd, one Seed, one Flock, one Spirit, one Beginning, one Progreſs, one end in one and the ſame Circle of Life. The Lord my God take it into his own hand, diſpoſe of it for good, manage and bleſs it according to his pleaſure.

I. P.

SOME

Some Queſtions and Anſwers for the opening of the eyes of the Jews natural, that they may ſee the Hope of Iſrael, which hath ſo long been hid from them.

Queſt: WHAT was the Riſe of that People the Jews?

Anſ. They came of Abraham after the fleſh, who was Gods Friend, whom God took from his Fathers Houſe and from his Native Country (where he was worſhipping and ſerving Idols) to be the Stock and Pattern of the Faithful, both of the Jews according to the fleſh, and of the Jews in Spirit. Of this Root, of this Stock came this People according to the Fleſh, who were an Holy Nation, a Circumciſed People, a Sanctified People outwardly: and (as long as their day laſted) were the Beloved of God, the Pitied, the Pardoned, the Redeemed Ones, even until the ſhadows were finiſhed, and the ſeaſon came, for the Subſtance to appear and be ſet up in the World; whereof they had the firſt offer alſo, and out of whom was the firſt gathering for the Spiritual building. But they generally hardening their hearts, and cleaving to the Wiſdom and Knowledge which their wiſe Ones had taught them (from their miſ-underſtanding the Letter of the Scriptures) miſſed of the Spirit, Rebelled againſt the Redeeming Power, and ſo loſt their ſhare in the Inward Glory, and by Gods Righteous hand were cut off from their outward alſo, their day being ſpent, and the Blood not only of the Prophets, but of the Son and Heir himſelf alſo required at their hands.

Queſt. How came this People to be the choſen People at firſt, and ſo long to continue ſuch?

Anſw. It was not for their Righteouſneſs, not for their lovelineſs, or pliableneſs to God above other people; but becauſe it pleaſed the Lord freely to love them, and to pitch upon them for the people of his choice after the Fleſh, in the free Covenant which he made with Abraham. The Earth is the Lords, with the fulneſs thereof, and he may chuſe whom he will to fill with his Inward and Spiritual Glory (even with the manifeſtations of his pure love, life and preſence) and he may alſo chuſe whom he will to make outwardly or typically Beloved, Great and Glorious. He choſe Abraham freely, he gave to Abraham an heart to follow him, he gave him the Faith and Obedience which made him accepted with him: and he choſe his ſeed after the Spirit to be his Eternal Heir, and his ſeed after the Fleſh to be his Temporary Heir. Thus of Iſaac in Spirit came the Children of the promiſe in ſpirit, and of Iſaac after the Fleſh came the ſeed of Promiſe after the Fleſh. Sarah after the Fleſh bare one of theſe, the Sarah repreſented by her (or the Free Woman which is from above) bare the other. And of Iſaac comes Jacob, Worm Jacob, who ſerves for his Wife, who flies from the face of Eſau, yet afterwards finds favour in his eyes; from this Worm do the Twelve Patriarks branch forth, who were the heads of the Tribes of Iſrael. Thus hath it been with that Nation according to the letter; and thus it hath alſo been and is ſtill inwardly in Spirit, as the Iſrael of God, the Jews in Spirit (who are learned in the Law of the Spirit of life) can very well read. Thus outwardly Iſrael was Gods Child, Ephraim his Dear, his Beloved, his pleaſant Son; Judah his Praiſe, whom his heart was towards, and to whom he ſtretched forth his Arm of Salvation all the day long: In all their Affliction he was afflicted, and the Angel of his preſence ſaved them: and he ſaid, Surely they are my People, Children that will not lie, ſo he became their Saviour. Thus it was with them till the day of Iſrael after the Fleſh expired, and the day of Iſrael in Spirit was to ſucceed in the ſight of the World.

Queſt. What was the end for which God choſe that People?

Anſ. It was to be a Veſſel for him to form, to try and experiment what his Love could could bring them to, and bring forth in them in that way of Manifeſtation and Operation. This God opens to Jeremiah concerning them, bidding him go down to the houſe of the Potter, where, in a Parable, they might read their own State, and what they were to expect from God, even to be formed by God unto the utmoſt, until he had made a perfect tryal of them, and then to be broken and laid aſide, as a Veſſel that could never be fitted for the Maſters uſe in this way of Diſpenſation, Jer. 18. 4. On the Lords part there was no defect towards his Child, his Spouſe, his Vineyard, his Garden of pleaſant Plants (as this people was in that Diſpenſation:) for he was ſtill a Father to them, Faithful in Covenant, Tender in Bowels, abundant in loving Kindneſs and Mercies: Yea what could be expected from the Lord towards a people, according to that Diſpenſation, which the Lord failed in? But they were ſtill faithleſs, continually breaking Covenant, erring from his dear and tender love, and drawing down the ſtrokes of his Wrath upon them, forſaking the guide of their Youth, forgetting the love of their Eſpouſals, continually ſtarting aſide from the right ſtate, wherein God pleaſed at firſt to ſet them, or at any time afterwards in any meaſure to reduce them.

Queſt. How did God exerciſe and try them to the utmoſt, even till at length it was plainly manifeſt, that there was no firm keeping a People to him by Vertue of that Diſpenſation, but he muſt neceſſarily cut them off, chooſe another People, and take another courſe, if he would have a People for his Heart to love and delight in, and for them to enjoy and poſſeſs him?

Anſ. He tryed them ſeveral ways, and in ſeveral States and Conditions; as Firſt, in a ſtate of Captivity in the Land of Egypt: Secondly, in a ſtate of Straits and continual Dependance upon God, even for Neceſſaries, in the Wilderneſs. Thirdly, in a ſtate of Enlargedneſs in the Land of Canaan, which flowed with plentiful proviſions for the outward man (which were alſo ſhadows and inſtructions concerning the inward Bleſſedneſs.) Fourthly, in often Captivities. Fifthly, in Returns to their Land again, with Settlement and Peace and many Bleſſings therein.

Queſt. How did God try them in Egypt?

Anſ. Firſt, with ſore Bondage and Oppreſſion from Pharaoh and the Egyptians. Secondly, with giving them the feeling of their ſtate, the ſence of their Bondage, and cauſing them to cry unto the Lord for Deliverance. Thirdly, in raiſing up a Deliverer, and giving them a Sign of the Deliverance by the hand of the Deliverer, in his ſmiting of an Egyptian and ſaving an Hebrew. Fourthly, in ſending the Deliverer to them with Promiſes of Deliverance, and with Signs and Symptoms of the Delivering Power. Fifthly, in Pardoning their Unbelief and Rebellions againſt him in Egypt, and ſhewing many Signs and Wonders for them in that Land, till at length he had brought them forth by his Mighty out-ſtretched Arm, even againſt the will and mind of Pharaoh and their Task-maſters.

Queſt. How did God find them in Egypt upon this Tryal?

Anſ. Very unbelieving, very ſtubborn, miſ-interpreting his Sign of Deliverance, reaſoning againſt his Promiſe, becauſe it came not ſo ſoon and after the manner they expected. When he lift up his hand to them to redeem them from under Pharaoh, to bring them forth of the Land of Bondage, to the good Land he had eſpied for them, and bid them forſake the Idolatrous Worſhips of Egypt, and not defile themſelves any longer therewith; becauſe he was now to become the Lord their God, and to appear in his power for them; yet they would not, Ezek 20. 5. &c. When Moſes would have reconciled an Hebrew to his Brother, he would not hear him, but upbraided him for ſlaying the Egyptian, not waiting on God to underſtand the Figure, but miſinterpreting and abuſing it in the Fleſhly mind. When the Deliverance ſucceeded not according to their expectations, they murmured againſt Moſes and Aaron: and when God ſent them again with a freſh Promiſe, they would not mind it. Yet God bare with all this in them, and did not caſt them off, but aſſwaged his Wrath, and ſtirred up his Love to make a further Tryal of them.

Queſt. How did God try them in the Wilderneſs?

Anſ. By many Temptations, Signs and Wonders; by powerful appearances for them againſt their Enemies; by bringing them into many ſtraits, by unexpected and impoſſible ſupplies (I mean impoſſible to the ſight or expectation of the outward eye) as with Bread from Heaven, Multitudes of Quails, Water from the Rock, keeping their Cloaths

and

and Shoes from wearing out and decaying. Likewise he gave them an Holy and Righteous Law to inform their Minds in Equity and Righteousness, directing them in an holy way, walking with God, and one towards another, and chalking out unto them an acceptable path of Worship: and this Law was delivered in great Majesty, dread and terrour, to cause a deep impression thereof upon their minds.

Quest. How did God find them in the Wilderness?

Ans. Full of discontent, full of murmuring, full of self-will, full of doubts and questionings concerning Gods Power. They did not wait on him, who had delivered them out of the hand of Pharaoh, and from under the Egyptian Task-masters, but they murmured against him. They did not wait for food, or water when they wanted, but distrusted and complained repining at Moses and Aaron, and sometimes talking of making a Captain to lead them backward. Neither were they content with the Provision which God allotted them (that was mean in their eyes) but they would have flesh: Though the Manna, the light Bread as they esteemed it) of Gods choice and with Gods Blessing, had been far better for them, than the flesh with his Curse, upon that Lust which asked it, and would not be content without it. Again, They would not go on towards Canaan or Fight when God would have them, and when his strength would have gone along with them: but when he forbad them, of their own will, and trusting to their own strength, they would go on and Fight. It is a sad record which Moses their tender Shepherd (who with the Eye of true Light had faithfully observed them) left concerning them, Deut. 9. 24. You have been rebellious against the Lord, from the day that I knew you,

Quest. How did God deal with them in referrence to the Land of Canaan?

Answ. First, He prepared them for it, Secondly, He dispossessed their Enemies, and placed them in it, giving them an Inheritance according to their own Will. Thirdly, He poured down Blessings upon them therein.

Quest. How did God prepare them for the good Land?

Answ. First, By many Afflictions and Exercises in the Wilderness, wherein he judged and wore out the rebellious Generation (who were consumed with dying) and raised up their Children in the aw and dread of his mighty Power. Secondly, by giving them a righteous Law to walk by in every respect, that they might not be to seek how to please God, or how to walk one towards another, or towards the Heathen among them, or round about them, but in every thing might be rightly instructed. Thirdly, By warning them of their own proneness to err from God, and of the Danger thereof, both in Relation to the loss of Mercies and drawing down of Judgments, that they might watch against the erring Nature and transgressing Spirit in their Hearts. Fourthly, by appointing a way of Sacrifice and Mediation, whereby God might be attoned, either for particular Persons, or for the Land in general. Fifthly, By directing them to a Principle as near to them, and more strong than the unrighteous Principle; whereby they might be preserved in the Obedience of the Law, and from out of the reach of the Curse.

Quest. How did God find them in their own Land?

Answ. That Generation which was thus prepared, thus taught, thus directed, walked sweetly with the Lord, and was a precious Savour in his Nostrils: but soon after the evil thing sprang up again in the Generations following, and they did quickly corrupt themselves, departing from the Lord, and running a whoring after their own hearts lusts, Judg. 2. 7, &c.

Quest. How did God deal with them then?

Answ. He brought Judgment upon Judgment, still weightier and weightier upon them, according as their need required, exercising loving kindness and mercy towards them, as much as possibly their Estate could bear. He sent his Prophets to forewarn them of the Wrath, that they might be spared, if possible: and when his Judgments and Severity came he mingled Mercy therewith, that by both he might try to the utmost, what they might be wrought to. He tryed them along while under the Judges and a long while under the Kings, often recovering them and setting them to rights, expecting the Fruit of his Rod and of his Love towards them.

Quest. What was the Result of God's trying them under the Judges and Kings?

Answ. They wearied out God's Prophets, yea, they wearied out the Lord also in that way of his Dispensation. They chose the false Prophets before the true, lying Divina-vinations before the openings of Life, and dead Idols before the living God. The kindneſſes and Mercies of God were waſted upon them, for with his Love they were not drawn: the Bellows alſo were burnt, the Lead conſumed, the heat of the Furnace ſpent upon them, and yet their tin and droſs not purged away. Under the Judges they tried out the Lord's patient expectation of Good from his Delivering hand, inſomuch as he reſolved to deliver them no more, Judg. 10. 13. Under the Kings they were as unruly, (whether good Kings or bad Kings, given in Love or Wrath) inſomuch as the Lord ſaid, Why ſhould ye be ſtriken any more? Ye will revolt more and more, Iſa. 1. 5: There was indeed no bending of Iſrael after the Fleſh, and keeping him ſtrait to God, in that way of Diſpenſation: therefore muſt he be caſt off, even becoming reprobate Silver in the ſight of the whole Earth, becauſe the Lord would reject him.

Queſt. How came Iſrael after the Fleſh to be rejected?

Anſw. His day of Fleſh was out, and the day of Spirit was come, wherein the ſpiritual Glory (which was to ſucceed the ſhadows of the Fleſhly) was to be ſet up; and ſo he not ſeeing that, nor entring into that, his own Sun ſet, and he hath abode in the darkneſs unto this day, Queſt. How came he not to ſee the ſpiritual Glory?

Anſw. Becauſe the Eye of the Fleſh was open in him, which Eye cannot ſee it. He read the Law in a gathered Light, in the Light of the earthly Wiſdom, and not in the Light of the Spring from whence it came, and then how could he poſſibly underſtand the Law aright? Could he then chuſe but ſet up the ſhadows of the Law, in the ſtead of the ſubſtance which was vailed therein? He read Moſes with the Eye which can ſee but to the Vail and not to the Glory which was revealed to Moſes, and which Moſes hid under the Vail. And thus likewiſe he beheld the Prophets, in the days of their appearance; not in the Light in which they appeared, but in the Light of his own Reaſon and Imaginations: and upon this ground the Jews ſtill choſe and cryed up the falſe Prophets but Perſecuted the true. Now not ſeeing Moſes in Spirit, nor the Prophets in Spirit, how could they ſee him who was greater than the Prophets, he looking ſo contemptibly to the ſight of that Eye, wherewith they expected to ſee him? It is the Jew in Spirit, who alone can ſee and own the Meſſiah in Spirit: yea no fleſhly Jew could poſſibly diſcern him then, whoſe eternal Life (Light and Power) was hid under ſo mean a Vail. He muſt be more than a Jew after the Fleſh who can own ſo much as the Law, or any of the Prophets in Spirit: and then ſurely it can require no leſs than inward Jewſhip, to diſcern the Meſſiah himſelf. They knew by the Letter, that then he was to come and to appear; but they could not know by their obſervations from the Letter which was he, but alone by the pointing of the Finger of the Spirit, which they were unacquainted with.

Queſt. What did they do to him, not ſeeing his Glory?

Anſw. They dealt with him as they had dealt with the Prophets before him, diſdained him that he ſhould claim to be the Son of God, ſlighted him, reviled him, reproached him, preferred Moſes and the Prophets above him (who all did but declare of him) yea at laſt they preferred a Thief and Murderer before him, and put him to Death after that manner that the Prophets had foretold they would do.

Queſt. Did the Prophets foretel that the Jews would put the Meſſiah to Death?

Anſw. Yea, very manifeſtly, with the manner and circumſtances thereof: Daniel ſaid plainly that the Meſſiah ſhould be cut off; though not for himſelf, Chap 9. 26. Iſaiah ſhews the Cauſe why he was cut off, to wit, For the Tranſgreſſion of my People was the Stroke upon him, chap. 53. 8. He was the Lamb without Spot, there was no Iniquity found in his Heart nor guile in his Mouth, but he offered up his ſpotleſs Soul (through the Eternal Spirit) as a ranſom for the Souls of Tranſgreſſors, and with his Bruiſe are they healed. David ſhews yet more particularly how he ſhould be cut off, They pierced my Hands and my Feet, Pſal. 22. 16. And Zachary ſaith, that afterwards in the day of their Viſitation, They ſhall look upon him whom they have pierced, Ch. 12. 10. Was he not betrayed by one of his own Table? (Pſal. 41. 9.) Did they not caſt Lots for his Garments? (Pſal. 22: 18.) Was not Gall alſo given him, and Vinegar to drink? (Pſal. 69. 21. Were not his Bones kept from being broken, according to the paſchal Lamb the Type; (Exod. 12. 46.) O that the Jews could read the Words of their own Prophets, in the Light of the Prophets, and not in the Light of man's Imagination, and then Queſt. 7. Where is the Spirit of the Scribes and Phariſees now to be found?

Anſw. They in all Profeſſions (gatherings and walkings) that are ſtrict, zealous and Righteous according to their own underſtandings and apprehenſions of the Letter, and not according to the Spirit and Power of the endleſs Life, they are of, and in that Spirit.

Queſt. 8. How may a man come out of the Spirit of the Scribes and Phariſees, and into the Spirit of Chriſt?

Anſw. By coming to the Power of the endleſs Life, wherein Chriſts miniſtry is: wherein his Spirit is felt and miniſtreth. This ſhuts out all the deceits and devices of that Spirit, which lieth in wait to deceive. He may entangle the mind about the Letter, about the underſtanding of Scriptures, and Practices and Ordinances there: but he that begins in the Spirit (in the Power of Life, in the living demonſtration of Truth) is out of his compaſs; and there abiding, groweth up and remaineth out of his reach.

Queſt. 9. How may a man come to the Power of the endleſs Life?

Anſw. By waiting to feel it. There is ſomewhat of God near every man: which, his Spirit retiring & waiting on the Lord, the Lord will give him to feel, in the ſeaſons of his good pleaſure. For it is near man, not as a Talent alwayes to lye dead & buried: but to work in him, & bring him out of his own ſinful corrupt Nature into its holy pure Nature.

Queſt, 10. How may a man feel and know the Power of this Life?

Anſw. By its Nature, Properties, manner and end of working in the heart. It enlightens the Soul, it quickens to God, it draws the heart from that, which is manifeſtly and ſenſibly evil without diſpute, it opens the eye to ſee and diſcern that which is holy and good, inflaming the mind with deſires after it. Now this is the appearance of the holy one, who thus appears and begins to work; to draw the mind from that which is ſinfull, and deſtroyeth to that which is holy and ſaveth. Happy, O happy is he, who thus feels the drawing, quickning Spirit, and in faithfulneſs gives up thereto: For he (by the Spirit and Power of Life) ſhall feel Cain, the Sacrificer according to the Fleſh, Iſhmael the Seed of Abraham after the Fleſh, Eſau the firſt Birth, whoſe mind is in the earth; he ſhall feel theſe, I ſay, caſt out: and Abel the Righteous Seed, who lives and Sacrifices in the true Faith; Iſaac the Seed of Promiſe, Jacob the wreſtler with God, in the Power and ſtrength of his own Spirit, with the tears and ſupplications which are from his own Life, he ſhall feel (I ſay) this Nature, Birth and Spirit raiſed in him, and his ſoul in it living to God, and increaſing in union and fellowſhip with him.

Some Queſtions Anſwered concerning Blaſphemy and Blaſphemers.

Queſt. 1. What is Blaſphemy?

Anſw. IT is the reproaching or ſpeaking ill of the Truths or Name of God, in any of their appearances, or of them whom he hath choſen to bear his Name, or hold forth his Truth. To reproach the Name, or Truths of God as they have been held forth in former Ages, or as they are held forth in this Age; or to ſpeak evil of the Inſtrument he then choſe, or now chuſeth and maketh uſe of to hold them forth; This is Blaſphemy: and the Lord will not hold him guiltleſs who ſo doth, whatſoever he be.

Queſt. 2. In which reſpect are men moſt liable to Blaſphemy? are they apteſt to reproach and ſpeak evil of Gods Truths, as they have been held forth in former Ages, and the Inſtruments by which God then held them forth? or are they apter to reproach and ſpeak evil of the Truths of God, as they are held forth in their Age, and the Inſtruments and miniſters who then hold them forth?

Anſw. Men are not ſo liable to blaſpheme the truths (or Name) of God, as formerly held forth, or the meſſengers and miniſters of former Ages, as the preſent Truth and the preſent Miniſtry.

Queſt. 3. How cometh that about, or why is it ſo?

Anſw. Becauſe the Truths of former Ages, and the miniſtry therein, have wrought through through the deceit and oppoſition, which withſtood them in their day, and have left a good Savour behind them; ſo that it would be hard, and diſadvantagious to the evil Spirit, to endeavour to bring a reproach over them. If men ſhould go about to revile Moſes, or the Prophets of old, Chriſt or his Apoſtles; who would give an ear to them? Surely very few, if any. But to cry up theſe and their Doctrine, and to endeavour to make the preſent diſpenſation of Truth appear to men, as if it were different from and contrary to theſe (of another nature, of another Spirit, tending to other ends, and towards the producing of other effects) This is a very ſubtile device, and advantagious an way of oppoſing the preſent truth and miniſtry with: and this way the Enemy hath taken all along. Moſes, in his day, had enemies and reſiſters: but after his death, we never hear him ſpoken againſt; but thoſe that withſtood the Prophets in after Ages, would honour the remembrance of Moſes. In Chriſts day, they would honour both Moſes and the Prophets: but Chriſt, and his Diſciples, and Apoſtles, were reproached as Blaſphemers and Deceivers. After that age, Chriſt and his Apoſtles were generally acknowledged, as well as Moſes and the Prophets: but yet they that were in the ſame Spirit, in the ſame Life, in the ſame Nature, have afterwards ſtill been perſecuted, and oppoſed by the preſent Age.

Queſt. 4. Who are the great Blaſphemers in every Age?

Anſw. They which profeſs Truth, but are not in the Power and Life of that which they profeſs. And among theſe, thoſe eſpecially, who have had any taſt of the Power: For if theſe turn from the Power, which it pleaſed God to give them ſome taſt of, they are given up by God to deluſion, deviliſhneſs, ſubtilty, and enmity, above all others. For as the Blaſphemy (which I am ſpeaking of) is above truth, and the Name of Chriſt: ſo it is chiefly to be found among thoſe who pretend to his Name. Thoſe that have the outward Name, Knowledge, and talke about the Name, about Chriſt, about the heavenly things; theſe Blaſpheme and Reproach thoſe who have and are in the thing it ſelf, who dwell in heaven, and worſhip in the heavenly place, even in the true Tabernacle which God hath pitched, and not man. Theſe bring their Knowledge, Wiſdom, Scriptures, Experiences, Obſervations, and all that ever they can reap and rend, againſt the preſent Power, and Life of Truth.

Queſt. 5. How come men, who pretend to truth, and to ſeek after it, to run into this grievous and dangerous Blaſphemy?

Anſw. By reaſon of their not being in that, which demonſtrateth the truth in the holy Power and Nature thereof. They want its Light and Demonſtration, and ſo underſtand things out of it: and in this their own miſunderſtanding turn againſt that, which ſhould enlighten, ſanctify and preſerve them, Now, not being in that (but in another thing) not being in the true Spirit, in the true Light, in the true Knowledge, in the true ſenſe and underſtanding, they muſt needs err and misjudge: and the greater their Knowledge, Ability, Wiſdom, and Zeal is, the more deſperate, and dangerous is their path of error, both to themſelves and others. Who erred ſo dangerouſly in that day, as the Scribes and Phariſees, which by their Wiſdom, knowledge and skill in the Scriptures, would diſpute againſt Chriſt, prove he was not (he could not be) the Meſſiah, according to the Scriptures (bidding men ſearch the Scriptures, and ſee if any Prophet came out of Gallilee, Joh. 7. 52.) judged him, who was indeed the holy one (who loved Righteouſneſs, and hated Iniquity) an unholy one, a Sinner and Companion of Sinners, a Blaſphemer, Deceiver &c? And in the ſame Spirit the ſtricter a man is, and the more he knows, and the more confident he is of his knowledge, and skill in the Scriptures, the more deſperately and dangerouſly will he venture, to oppoſe the appearance of the Spirit and Power of the Lord Jeſus in this day.

Queſt. 6. How come they who have ſo much literal knowledge of Scriptures, and and have had a true ſenſe and experience (ſome of them) of the things of God, to be out of that which demonſtrateth the truth?

Anſw. By their turning from it, and rejecting it. The Scribes and Phariſees rejected the counſel of God, againſt themſelves. There is but one thing can open the eyes, and the Scribes and Phariſees turned againſt it, believing that their eyes were opened already, by the Light and knowledge which they had received from Moſes. Moſes, ſaid they, we know God ſpeaks to: but as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is. And juſt ſo is it now: O that ye could read, whoſe ſtate it is.

Queſt. Why do they turn from it and reject it?

Anſw. Becauſe it anſwers not their expectations. That appearance of Chriſt in Fleſh in that day, did not anſwer the expectations of the Scribes and Phariſees. And this appearance of Chriſt in his holy Spirit and Power after the Apoſtacy, doth not anſwer the expectations of many now. And ſo, not appearing as what they look for, as what they have expected, according to their apprehenſions and underſtanding of the Scriptures, they cannot (ſo ſtanding and believing) wait, but turn from it, and turn the Scriptures againſt it, as the Scribes and Phariſees turned the Scriptures againſt that appearance of Chriſt.

Now, O that men, that have any deſires after truth, might not run into this kind of Blaſphemy, and ſo thereby provoke and turn that Spirit and Power of Life againſt them, which alone is able to ſave them. For the Spirit and Power of the Lord turneth againſt the other Spirit, in all its devices and transformings, and againſt them who are joyned to that Spirit. And as the eye of the Lord is chiefly upon his preſent miniſtration of truth in the preſent age to mind that, to bleſs that, to appear in that: ſo his Spirit moſt turneth againſt that which oppoſeth and ſeeketh to overturn it. Yea little do men know, what they have loſt from God, as to themſelves and their own ſtates, and what they are become in his Sight, by their oppoſing the preſent diſpenſation and miniſtration of truth; even as little do many know in this day, as the Scribes and Phariſees did, (in their day) what they brought upon themſelves and others, whom they infected (by their falſe knowledge and wrong expounding and managing of the Scriptures) with a prejudiced Spirit againſt Chriſt.

The Lord did promiſe that he would become the Shepherd, and gather his ſheep himſelf, after the cloudy and dark day. He is come to ſeek out, to gather, to heal, to bind up, to comfort, to preſerve &c. He is known, he is witneſſed, he is received; his Life, Vertue, Healing and Saving Power is felt. Let men reproach and revile it never ſo much, yet it is known to be the Thing, the Pearl, the Seed of the Kingdom &c. Yea and he that receiveth it, and is born of it, knoweth that he is of God, and hath the true nature of Life, and true language from God; which that, which knoweth God, heareth; but that which is not of God, cannot hear.

A Queſtion concerning Miracles Anſwered.

Queſt. 1. IF this be a new diſperſation of the life and power of God, even of the preaching of the everlaſting Goſpel again after the Apoſtacy, why is it not accompanied with outward miracles now, as formerly it was? I ſay outward miracles, becauſe it is accompanied with inward miracles. For the lame (that could never ſet Step in the path of life) do now walk: the eyes, that were blind, are opened and do now ſee: the ears that were deaf, have been unſtopped and do now hear: the Lepers inwardly (who were all overſpread with ſin and corruption) have been waſhed, cleanſed and healed by the pure power: yea the dead inwardly have been quickened, raiſed, turned to him that lives for evermore, have received life from him, and do live in him and with him. Now theſe are mighty things, wonderful miracles, even the ſubſtance of the miracles, which were wrought under the Law, and which Chriſt himſelf wrought outwardly. For it was not the outward healing, which is Salvation, Life and Power chiefly aimed at therein: but to point men by that, to the thing which was to work the inward; that they might take notice of it, know it, come to it, and wait upon it, to be made partakers of the inward health and ſalvation by it. Yet ſeeing in that day Chriſt did then pleaſe to put forth his power outwardly, to point to and witneſs of the inward, why doth he not do ſo now?

Anſw.

Anſw. The nature of the preſent diſpenſation doth not require it. For preſent diſpenſation of life, is to bring men to the principle of life which is within them (which is the ſum and ſubſtance of all former diſpenſations :) and to bring them to this, there doth not need any thing of a miraculous nature outwardly; but the witneſs, demonſtration and enlightening of the ſpirit inwardly. Now when the outward Law was to be received, then the Lord ſaw need of outward Miracles to confirm it: ſo alſo in the Prophets dayes, while that diſpenſation held, till towards the coming of Chriſt. And when Chriſt came, in the body prepared by the Father, it pleaſed the Lord to confirm (by outward viſible demonſtrations of his Power in him) that this was he. Likewiſe afterwards, the Apoſtles having the doctrine concerning that appearance to preach aud teſtify to the World, the Lord was alſo pleaſed and ſaw good to confirm it by Miracles. But now there is not any new doctrine to be preached. The doctrine concerning Chriſt is the ſame that it was, the very ſame that the Apoſtles preached. Neither is there any need of confirming it now: for it is generally believed among profeſſors of all ſorts: as Chriſts Birth, preaching, living holily, dying (offering himſelf up as a ſacrifice for ſin) riſing, aſcending, ſitting at the right hand of the Father &c. who doubts of theſe things? But under all this Knowledge men hide their Sins, their luſts and corruptions, ſerving not the Lord (not truly fearing, believing in and obeying him) but his enemies, and are become corrupt like unto the Heathen; being in words Chriſtians, but as to the holy converſation and Power of the endleſs Life, as far from it as the very Heathen. Therefore hath the Lord viſited the world in this ſtate, and ſent forth what he judged meet for it in this ſtate, to wit, not a miniſtry to preach over that doctrine, under which the Chriſtian world had corrupted themſelves; but to point to the principle of Life, wherein is the Light and Power to diſcover, lead from and waſh away this corruption. And with this miniſtry, there goeth a power, to reach the heart and raiſe the witneſs, in all that hear in fear and in the ſenſe, and dread of God; ſo that the witneſs preſently anſwers, and the mind is inwardly ſatisfied, knows the thing, and turns to it. Now this (and the effect of this) is beyond miracles, and the ſatisfaction or aſſurance which they can afford. For miracles leave a diſpute in the mind, (Notwithſtanding all the miracles Chriſt ſhewed, there was yet a diſpute and diſatisfaction in the minds of many concerning him.) But he that feels the thing it ſelf in the true principle, where the demonſtration and certainty of the Spirits aſſurance is received; he is paſt diſpute, and is gone a degree in the nature of things, beyond that ſatisfaction, which miracles can afford. He is out of that ſtate and mind, which asketh a ſign, or ſeeketh confirmation by a ſign. So that men ought to take heed, how they expect or call for miracles now, as the Jews did to Chriſt for a ſign of old: for that is not the temper of mind, which this diſpenſation is to anſwer, but rather to draw men out from thence into a principle, into the new Life and Spirit it ſelf; where full demonſtrations (of a deeper nature) are given to the Soul, there outward miracles are. Feel the Power that is revealed, feel the Life that is made manifeſt, let in the Light of the day which ſhines; This will ſcatter the darkneſs from thee, and clear up the things of the day unto thee. The pure miniſtration of Power, the pure miniſtration of Life, the Light of the everlaſting day is come: O wait the opening of the [illegible] eye that ſees it, and conceived and brought forth in the womb of it.

Some

Some further Queſtions Anſwered concerning the new Covenant.

Queſt. 1. WHat were thoſe dayes, after which the new Covenant was to be made?

Anſw. They were the days of the Law and Prophets, the dayes of the firſt Covenant, the dayes of God's exerciſing and making triall of that outward People the Jews, by his outward and literall Covenant. After the full expiring of thoſe dayes, another Covenant was to be made.

Queſt. What are the dayes wherein the new Covenant is made?

Anſw. They are the dayes of Chriſt, the dayes of his Power, the dayes of the miniſtration of his Spirit.

Queſt. 3. What is the houſe of Iſrael and Judah, with which this new Covenant is to be made? is it the Iſrael and Judah according to the Fleſh? the Iſrael and Judah according to the old Covenant; or according to the new?

Anſw. When the old Covenant is paſſed away, the conſideration of Iſrael and Judah (after the Fleſh) paſſed away alſo: and the new Covenant is fitted for and made with the new Iſrael and Judah: ſo that (as the Apoſtle ſaid) He is not (now, according to this Covenant) a Jew, that is one outward; nor is that circumciſion, which is outward in the Fleſh: but he is a Jew, which is one inward &c. The Goſpel breaks down the outward conſideration between Jew and Gentile, and brings up another conſideration in both: ſo that the Promiſes and bleſſings are not to either in their old ſtate, but as they are gathered into, and ſpring up in the new Seed.

Queſt. 4. Is this Covenant faultleſs? doth it mend that which God found amiſs in the other? doth it keep more firmly to him, than the other did? is there no falling away from it?

Anſw. Yes, it is faultleſs, it doth help the deceits of the other. It doth keep more firmly to God. There is no falling away from it by thoſe, with whom it is fully made, and who are eſtabliſhed in it. But in the paſſage and travel, there is danger to the Soul, which is not faithfull, and watchfull, leſt it be drawn from that, which gives it right to, and entrance into the Covenant. For as the beginning is in the Faith, and in the obedience: ſo is the continuance, growth and progreſs. Thus the Goſpel was preached, He that believeth, and is Baptized, ſhall be ſaved: which believing includes not only a beginning to believe, but a going on therein, and continuing to the end. For ſo is the Promiſe and word of Chriſt, He that continueth to the end, ſhall be ſaved. But if any man draw back from the Lord, from his Spirit, and return into the way of Death with the other Spirit, the Soul of the Lord will have no pleaſure in him.

Object. But then this alſo is like the firſt Covenant, depending upon the Creature, and is defective as the other was.

Anſw. No; This Covenant doth not depend upon the Creature: but upon Gods Love, Mercy and Power, which hath no limits in this Covenant, but may extend it ſelf as far and as long as it pleaſeth. It dependeth upon the principle of his Life, upon the Power of his Spirit freely diſpenſed to the Creature: yet the Creature that will reap and enjoy this, muſt come to it in the Faith and Power which is of the Principle, and in the ſame muſt abide with it. For God forceth none to come, but draweth and maketh willing: neither doth he force any to ſtay, but perſwadeth and maketh willing to ſtay. This is the manner of his working, the day of his Power. But now, if the ſoul hearken to the other Spirit and his drawings, and depart from the Lord, and will not hearken and be won again, the Love and Pleaſure of the Lord turns from it, even according to the Law of this Covenant. For there is a Law of this Covenant, according to the nature of it (according cording to which the Lord works) as well as was in the other.

Now ſearch ye the Scriptures concerning this thing,. Is there any Promiſe of Salvation, but upon coming to the Son, or to them that come, without abiding? Did not Chriſt tell his own diſciples, that as they were in the Vine, in his Love: So they muſt abide there? It was the Law his Father gave him: and the ſame Law he giveth them. It is natural to man to backſlide: and in his backſliding from that wherein is the Life and Vertue, how can he but miſs of the Life and Vertue of it? Therefore in this Covenant, the Lord hath provided that which will heal the backſlidings, which will work out all in man freely, which will powerfully preſerve him, &c. But he muſt come to it (he muſt come to the Son, he muſt come to the Waters) and he muſt alſo abide there. Yet this is not required of him to do of himſelf neither, according to the Law and courſe of the old Covenant: but of him in the new ability; which is in the new Principle of Life, wherein he is daily to receive it: yea it is with him and near him; as near him to be daily drawing him into and preſerving him in Life, and within the limits of the Covenant, as the Tempter is to be drawing him into ſinning againſt the Covenant, and ſo into death.

Queſt. 4. What doth God promiſe to do, for the new houſe of Iſrael and Judah, in this new Covenant.

Anſw. He Promiſeth to put his Laws into their mind, and write them in their Hearts. (O happy he that knoweth theſe Laws, this Mind, this Heart, this manner of writing.) He promiſeth to be their God, and that they ſhall be his People (This Covenant is a Powerfull Covenant, it will make ſo indeed.) He Promiſeth to become their Teacher, and ſuch a Teacher as all ſhall know him, from the leaſt to the greateſt, even ſo as they ſhall not need to ſeek out abroad after the Knowledge of him. (It is ſo, where this Covenant is made, even with the leaſt with whom it is compleated: but it is not ſo where it is only begun, or in ſome few degrees carried on.) He promiſeth to take away that, which alone is able to hinder the good things of the Covenant: for he will be mercifull to their unrighteouſneſs and their Sins and Iniquities will he remember no more. This alſo is witneſſed, according to the Souls growth in and receiving into it the ſtrength of the Covenant. For many find ſinning againſt the Covenant, and the remembring of their Iniquities, in their paſſage; yea Judgment doth continue in the refining time, till that be made to paſs away thereby which the Judgment is to: but in the Covenant it ſelf is Reſt, Joy, Peace, Satisfaction, Life and Powerful Redemption and Righteouſneſs for evermore.

Queſt, 5. How is this Covenant made, and how doth the Soul enter into it, grow up in it, and reap and enjoy the Sweet bleſſings and Promiſes of it?

Anſw. It is made in the Faith and Obedience of the Soul to the Goſpel, to the Power of the endleſs Life; It is made according to the Promiſe. The Promiſe is to him that believes and obeys the Goſpel. There is no other way into it but union with Chriſt in the Faith, from which flows Obedience to the holy commands and requirings of his Spirit. All unbelief and diſobedience is out of this holy, bleſſed Covenant. They are ſtops in the way, and hinder the Soul both from entring into, and from abiding in the Covenant; yea the Gates of Hell may eaſily prevail againſt them, who do not believe, obey, watch and pray, but enter into the Temptations of the enemy, which draw into death, as the motions and requirings of the Spirit lead into Life.

A brief Account concerning ſilent Meetings, the Nature, Uſe, Intent and Benefit of them.

This is a great myſtery, hid from the eye of man, who is run from the inward Life, into outward Obſervations. He connot ſee, either that this is required by the Lord of his People, or any Edification therein, or Benefit thereby; But to the mind that is drawn inward the thing is plain, and the building up hereby in the Life of God, and fellowſhip one with another therein, is ſweetly felt, and precious refreſhment from the Preſence of the Lord received by them, who ſingly herein wait upon him, according to the leadings and requirings of his holy Spirit. Now to open the thing a little to the upright hearted, if the Lord pleaſe.

After the mind is in ſome meaſure turned to the Lord, his quicknings felt, his ſeed beginning to ariſe and ſpring up in the heart, then the fleſh is to be ſilent before him, and the ſoul to wait upon him (and for his further appearings) in that meaſure of Life which is already revealed. Now this is a great thing to know fleſh ſilenced, to feel the reaſoning thoughts and diſcourſes of the fleſhly mind ſtilled, and the Wiſdom, Light and guidance of Gods Spirit waited for. For man is to come into the poverty of Self, into the abaſedneſs, into the nothingneſs, into the ſilence of his Spirit before the Lord, into the putting off of all his Knowledge, Wiſdom, Underſtanding, Abilities, all that he is, hath done or can do out of this meaſure of Life, into which he is to travel, that he may be clothed and filled with the Nature, Spirit and Power of the Lord.

Now in this meaſure of Life which is of Chriſt, (and in which Chriſt is in this and appears to the Soul) there is the Power of Life and Death: Power to kill to the fleſh, and Power to quicken to God: Power to ceaſe the Soul to ceaſe from its own workings, and Power to work in, and for the Soul, what God requires, and what is acceptable in his Sight. And this God is to be Waited upon and Worſhiped continually (both in private and in publick) according as his Spirit draws and teaches.

For the Lord requireth of his People not only to worſhip him apart, but to meet together to Worſhip him, in the ſeaſons and according to the drawings of his Spirit: And they that are taught of him, dare not forſake the aſſembling of themſelves together, as the manner of ſome is, but watch againſt the temptations and ſnares, which the enemy layes to deceive them there-from, and to diſturb their ſenſe by, that they might not feel the drawings of the Father thereunto.

And this is the manner of their worſhip. They are to wait upon the Lord to meet in the ſilence of Fleſh, and to watch for the ſtirrings of his Life, and the breakings forth of his Power amongſt them. And in the breakings forth of that Power they may pray, ſpeak, exhort, rebuke, ſing or mourn, &c. according as the Spirit teaches, requires and gives utterance. But if the Spirit do not require to ſpeak and give to utter, then every one is to ſit ſtill in his place (in his heavenly place, I mean) feeling his own meaſure, feeding thereupon, receiving therefrom (into his Spirit) what the Lord giveth. Now in this is edifying, pure edifying, pretious edifying; his Soul who thus waits, is hereby particularly edified by the Spirit of the Lord at every meeting. And then alſo there is the Life of the whole felt, in every veſſel that is turned to its meaſure; inſomuch as the warmth of Life in each Veſſel, doth not only warm the particular, but they are like an heap of freſh and living coals, warming one another, inſomuch as a great ſtrength, freſhneſs, and vigour of Life flows into all. And if any be burthened, tempted, buffetted by Satan, bowed down, overborn, languiſhing, afflicted, diſtreſſed, &c. the eſtate of ſuch is felt in Spirit, and ſecret cries, or open (as the Lord Lord pleaſeth) aſcend up to the Lord for them, and they many times find eaſe and relief, in a few words ſpoken, or without words, if it be the ſeaſon of their help and relief with the Lord.

For abſolutely ſilent meetings (wherein there is a reſolution not to ſpeak) we know not: but we wait on the Lord, either to feel him in words, or in ſilence of Spirit without words; as he pleaſeth. And that which we aim at, and are inſtructed to by the Spirit of the Lord as to ſilent meetings, is that the Fleſh in every one be kept ſilent, and that there be no building up, but in the Spirit and Power of the Lord.

Now there are ſeveral States of People. Some feel little of the Lords preſence; but feel temptations and thoughts, with many wandrings and roveings of mind. Theſe are not yet acquainted with the Power, or at leaſt know not its dominion, but rather feel dominion of the evil over the good in them. And this is a ſore travelling and mournfull State, and meetings to ſuch as theſe (many times) may ſeem, as to themſelves, rather for the worſe than for the better, Yet even theſe, turning (as much as may be) from ſuch things, and cleaving, (or at leaſt, in truth of heart deſiring to cleave) to that which diſliketh or witneſſeth againſt them, have aeceptance with the Lord herein: and continuing to wait in this trouble and diſtreſs (keeping cloſe to meetings, in fear and ſubjection to the Lord who requireth it, though with little appearing benefit) do reap an hidden benefit at preſent, and ſhall reap a more clear and manifeſt benefit afterwards, as the Lord waſteth and weareth out that in them, wherein the darkneſs hath its ſtrength. Now to evidence that the Lord doth require theſe ſilent meetings, or meetings after this manner ſilent, it may thus appear.

God is to be worſhiped in Spirit in his own Power and Life, and this is at his own diſpoſe. His Church is a gathering in the Spirit. If any man ſpeak there, he muſt ſpeak as the Oracle of God, as the veſſel out of which God ſpeaks; as the Trumpet out of which he gives the ſound. Therefore there is to be a waiting in ſilence, till the Spirit of the Lord move to ſpeak, and alſo gives words to ſpeak. For a man is not to ſpeak his own words, or in his own wiſdom or time: but the Spirits words, in the Spirits wiſdom and time, which is when he moves and gives to ſpeak. And ſeeing the Spirit inwardly nouriſheth, when he giveth not to ſpeak words, the inward ſenſe and nouriſhment is to be waited for, and received as it was given when there are no words. Yea the miniſtry of the Spirit and Life, is more cloſe and immediate when without words, then when with words, as have been often felt, and is faithfully teſtified by many witneſſes. Eye hath not ſeen nor ear heard, neither hath entred into the heart of man, how and what things God reveals to his Children by his Spirit, when they wait upon him in his pure fear, and worſhip and converſe with him in ſpirit: for then the Fountain of the great deep is unſealed, and the everlaſting ſprings ſurely give up the pure and Living Water.

THE END

Life and Immortality brought to Light through the Goſpel. Being a true diſcovery of the Nature and Ground of the Religion and Kingdom of CHRIST, In ſeveral weighty Queries propounded; and other ſerious Matters treated of, highly Importing the Eternal Salvation of Souls.

Written by Iſaac Penington, in the time of his Impriſonment at Reading-Goal.

The Preface to the Reader.

THE Goſpel is the Power of God unto Salvation. O bleſſed is he, who meets with that which Powerfully ſaves. Moſt Mens Religion is but a talk, and Profeſſion of that, which they have not: and what will ſuch a kind of Religion avail, when it comes to be tryed by the piercing Fire of the Spirit of burning, and pure (Impartial) judgment. Neither Circumciſion availeth any thing, nor Uncircumciſion, but a new Creature. Alas, how few know that? And yet if any man be in Chriſt, he is a new Creature: old things are paſſed away, and all things become new there. Who can bear the deciſion of this Tryal? for many pretend to be in Chriſt, and yet they themſelves are ſtill in the old Nature and Spirit. Be not deceived, ſaith the Apoſtle, God is not mocked. Alas, how many are deceived about their Religion; Indeed it is impoſſible for a man not to be deceived, who knoweth not the anointing, nor is taught his Religion by the anointing. He is Truth and no Lye, and he teacheth Truth and no Lye: but mens apprehenſions and concealings, upon the holy Scriptures and Myſteries of God's Kingdom are but like themſelves: empty and vain. O that men could ſee with the true eye, hear with the true ear, underſtand with the true heart! Then might they know indeed, and come to witneſs the Ethiopian skin waſhed, and the Leopard Spots changed: but till then, they may change from one opinion to another, and from one Profeſſion and way of Religion to another, and yet in Nature, Spirit, Mind and heart, yea and in Converſation alſo, (as to the ſubſtance thereof) remain ſtill one and the ſame. And what will become of men, whoſe hope is in their Religion, in their knowledge of Chriſt, in their Faith, in their Worſhip, &c. if all theſe, when they come to be tryed ſhall be found wanting of the true Nature and Vertue, and condemned by the Lord for dead and dry! O that men knew what ſhould be yoaked down, what ſhould be turned from and denied, how gloriouſly and takingly ſoever it appears! All fleſh is graſs, all fleſhly Knowledge and Religion muſt paſs away. That which the earthly man can comprehend in his underſtanding, is but the outward, the fleſhly part of Religion: the Spiritual Knowledge, the living Knowledge is reſerved for, and given to the Spiritual capacity and underſtanding, which the Children of the moſt high received in the new Birth, and holy Begettings of Life.

Here are ſome queries held forth in love to thee, Reader, to bring thee to a true ſenſe in many weighty matters. They are not of a confounding (unleſs it be, to that part which is not to know) but of an opening Nature; they were ſweet to my taſte, which (as in Gods preſence, and by the Vertue of his Life and Spirit flowing in me) reliſhed the things queried of. I deſire they may be profitable to thee alſo, and that thou mayeſt witneſs the guidance of Gods Spirit, leading thee into and giving thee faithfully to walk in the way that leads to eternal reſt. For our dayes in this World are but for a moment, and then we muſt be Judged, and diſpoſed of by the Lord, for ever: each Perſon according to the Nature and Spirit he is of, and according to the deeds done in the Body, whether they have been good or evil. The Lord give thee ſo to conſider thy wayes, that thou mayeſt apply thy heart to true Wiſdom, which conſiſts in fearing God, and departing from evil, which the leaſt child, that is taught of God, learns; and thoſe that are grown up in Holineſs and Righteouſneſs, are skilfull and perfect in; So that they cannot do any thing againſt the Truth, but in and for the Truth.

in

There are alſo ſome queſtions anſwered, one about Preaching the Goſpel after the Apoſtacy, another about the reaſon of Gods not teaching others what it pleaſeth him to teach us, and the way of his teaching us. There is likewiſe ſomewhat concerning the three-fold appearance of Chriſt, and touching Mount Sinai, from whence the Law of the Letter was given, and Mount Sion, from whence the Law of the Spirit goes forth; as likewiſe concerning the Temple and Sacrifices under the Goſpel, and of the way to know ones Election and to obtain full aſſurance thereof, &c. All theſe ſprang from Life in my Heart, for thy ſake who breatheſt after the Lord, and after his pure way and holy path of Life, and who Readeſt in humility, fear and uprightneſs: and my Prayers to the God of my Life goe along with them, that thy heart may be opened by him, in the Reading of them, and that thou mayeſt have the ſenſe of them in the ſhinings of his Light in thine own heart, whoſe work it is to cauſe it to ſhine out of the darkneſs that his Glorious Goſpel may not be hid from the Sons of men, but through the Virtue, Power and operation of the Spirit of Truth (which firſt convinceth of ſin, and then leadeth out of it, into that which is pure and holy, they may come to be acquainted with the myſtery of Life, which hath been hid from Ages and generations, but is now made manifeſt to Gods Children and Sanctified ones: which being made manifeſt to them, is revealed and known to be Chriſt in them, the hope of Glory. The Lord grant thou mayeſt know & experience him to be ſo to thee & in thee, Amen.

A few Words in general, to thoſe that deſire the Knowledge of the True GOD.

The Inſpiration of the Almighty, giveth Underſtanding.
We know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an Underſtanding, that we may know him that is True.

IT is a great Matter to receive an Underſtanding from the Lord; which, 'till a Man doth, his Knowledge is neither True, Living, nor Saving.

Now, he that would receive an Underſtanding from the Lord, muſt wait to know the Beginnings of the New and Holy Underſtanding; and what that Underſtanding and Knowledge is, which ſtands in the way thereof, and how to part therewith: And then he muſt faithfully loſe, and part with it, for the other; which is Pure, True, and Heavenly.

And when a Man hath received an Underſtanding from the Lord, then he may weigh, conſider, and come to know things aright: But till then, deceit will lodge in his Heart, and have Power over him; and his very Wiſdom and Knowledge will pervert him, and turn him aſide from the way of Life and Truth. The Wiſe profeſſing Jews were hindered from owning the Meſſiah, by the very Knowledge which they had gathered and comprehended out of the Letter of the Scriptures.

But if a Man hath received an Underſtanding from the Lord, in meaſure; yet it is an hard matter to keep to that Underſtanding; and he muſt lye very low and humble, who ſo doth. Oh, What a continual Watch hath my Soul had (and ſtill hath) againſt that Part wherein my Religion formerly ſtood! For, though the Lord had reached to the pure Seed of Life in me, and had quickned my Soul thereby; yet I knew not how to turn to the Seed, and abide in the Seed, and to hold my Knowledge and Life there: but was ſtill ſtriving to live and know (and (comprehend and practiſe) in a part above the Seed: and there the enemy was ſtill too hard for me, and did often deprive me of the benefit or right uſe of what the Lord had wrought in me, and freely beſtowed upon me.

Alaſs, who can underſtand this voice! Surely it is very hard for any ſo to do, but ſuch who have had ſome ſenſible and lively experience thereof in themſelves: but for want of this Knowledge, Senſe and Experience, many are deeply deceived concerning the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and the ſtate of their own Souls concerning Faith in him, Love to him, Pardon of Sin and Juſtification in and through him, Regeneration and Sanctification by his Spirit, and concerning walking in the way of Holineſs and obeying his commands; and ſo err in heart exceedingly (both in Doctrine and Practice) concerning the weighty things which appertain to Salvation.

Now I having erred in time paſt in my former Profeſſions, and been deeply perplexed and diſtreſſed, through my erring from the holy Seed, Spirit and Power of Life: bear with me, bear with me, yea I ſay again, bear with me if I pity others, and ſincerely deſire that their eyes may be opened to ſee the Pure, Living, Holy, Undefiled way, in which no defiled Spirit can walk; but a man muſt be truly made alive, and truly cleanſed in mind and Spirit, before he can walk in this way. Now, if we experimentally, moſt tenderly and in true Love witneſs, from the God of Life and Salvation, where the Life of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and the cleanſing of his blood and Spirit is met with; and that according to the plain Teſtimony of the Scriptures: why are ye offended with us for our Love, and for telling you the truth, as the Lord hath opened our eyes, and taught us to ſee, and read it in the Scriptures of truth, and as we have experimentally found it in Jeſus?

Well, The Lord knoweth how we are many times mourning and praying for you, while ye are reviling and backbiting us: for we know the way and courſe of that Spirit, wherein ye oppoſe us. And, O that ye your ſelves alſo did know what Spirit it is, which thus acts you! for then, ſurely, ye would confeſs it to be the very ſame which oppoſed Chriſt in the dayes of his Fleſh, having only a different cover and way of appearance; That, crying him up as to come, This, as, already come; but both denying him who is the Meſſiah. For, in that ye deny his Spirit, Life, Appearance and Power in the leaſt of his, ye deny him. O that ye could feel the tender bowels, truth of heart and true underſtanding from Gods holy Spirit, wherein this is written! O that ye could rightly diſtinguiſh between the pretious and the vile; and not call that vile, which in Gods ſight is pretious; nor that pretious, which in Gods ſight is vile. Ye muſt feel the Holy Seed, the Living of God Judge in you, and ye judge only in that, or ye will err in Judging according to the appearance, and not judge the righteous Judgment.

Reading-Goal, 26th. of the 3d. Month
1671.

J. P.

Life

Life and Immortality brought to light by the Goſpel, being a true Diſcovery of the Nature, and ground of the Religion, and Kingdom of Chriſt, &c.

I

Some Queries concerning the State of the Church, as it was in the Apoſtles dayes, and was to be afterwards.

Quer. 1. WAs not the Church exceeding Beautiful and in heavenly Glory, in the dayes of the Apoſtles? did ſhe only travel after Life and Glory? did ſhe not alſo bring forth? did ſhe not witneſs the Kingdom come, the Power come, the Eternal Life come? and did ſhe not partake thereof and dwell therein? Was ſhe not a woman clothed with the Sun, and the Moon under her feet, and Crowned with a Crown of twelve Stars? yea did ſhe not bring forth the man-Child, which was to rule all Nations with a rod of Iron? who can read this State who is not in ſome meaſure a partaker of the ſame Glory?

Quer. 2, Was not this Heaven afterwards wrapped up, rolled up, and did not this Glory paſs away? did not the great red Dragon fight with the Woman? and did ſhe not fly into the wilderneſs, and was not the man-Child caught up to God? & did not the remnant of her Seed (who had the teſtimony of Jeſus, and who kept his Commandments) teſtifie and propheſie in ſackcloth? Read the 11 and 12 Chapter of the Revel.

Quer. 3. Upon the flight of the true Church into the wilderneſs (when ſhe was thus gone out of Sight) did not the falſe Church ſtart up, which made a Glorious and taking appearance in the World, to the eye of mans Wiſdom? did not ſhee ſit upon a Scarlet coloured beaſt (Wiſe and ſtrong) having Seaven heads and ten horns? Was ſhe not arrayed in purple and ſcarlet colour, and decked with Gold and pretious ſtones and pearls, having a golden Cup in her hand making the Kings, Nations and Inhabitants of the earth drunk with the Wine of her fornication? What do thoſe things mean? what did the Wiſdom of God thus deſcribe her for?

Quer. 4. What did the true Church carry into the Wilderneſs with her, & what did ſhe leave behind her? did not the Temple, the Altar and the true Worſhipers go along with her? did not the Gentiles, ſuch as were not true Jews, ſuch as could not come iuto the Temple (but only into the outward Court, and Worſhip there) did not theſe ſtay behind? and had not theſe Gentiles henceforth (from the true Church its flight into the Wilderneſs) the outward Court given to them, that they might make uſe of it (and worſhip in it) as much as they would? The Virtue, the Life, the Power, the Spirit being taken away, & removed with the true Church which fled into the Wilderneſs; what did God regard the outward? leave it out of my Meaſure, ſaith the Lord, and give it to the Gentiles Revel. 11 2.

Quer. 5. What is the Cup, the golden Cup, which this falſe Church hath in her hand, wherein are ſorceries and witchcrafts, wherewith ſhe bewitcheth People and maketh them drunk? Is it not a Glorious appearance of things, without the true Life and Power? Doctrines concerning God, Doctrines concerning Chriſt, Doctrines concerning Worſhip, Doctrines concerning Sanctity? &c. Yea, but the Spirit, the Life, the Power that was in the Apoſtles dayes is wanting. What remains of theſe, is to be found with the true Church in the wilderneſs (the Bloud of whoſe ſeed ſhe drinks) not with her.

Quer. 6. What will become of this great Woman in the end; this Rich, this Glorious Glorious Church? ſhall ſhe continue ſo for ever? ſhall ſhe ſit as a Queen for ever, and never ſee ſorrow? ſhall the true Church never come out of the Wilderneſs, to be reſtored to her Beauty and Glory again? Nay, nay, in one day ſhall her plagues come, Death, and Mourning, and Famine. It is true ſhe is Wiſe and Strong (and a beaſt alſo on which ſhe ſits and rides, who is able to make war with, ſaith mans Wiſdom) but Wiſer and ſtronger is the Lord God Almighty who judgeth her, aud who is taking and will take to him his great Power, wherewith he will Thunder againſt her, until he hath brought her down, and her fleſh be utterly burnt with Fire.

Quer. 7. What ſhall become of thoſe who drink of her Cup, and who believe and Worſhip as ſhe teacheth? ſhall they not all drink of the Wine of the Cup of the wrath of God almighty, poured out without mixture? ſhall they not partake of her dreadfull plagues, in the hour of her judgment? Read Revel, 14. 9, 10. 11. and Chap. 18. For theſe things are to come to paſs; as certainly as they were foretold: and when they do come to paſs, bleſſed ſhall the Saints be, who have ſuffered with patience, keeping the Commandments and the faith of Jeſus; and Wo will be to them, who have perſecuted them, and drunk their Blood, Read 13. 14. 17. and 19. Chap. of the Revel. which ſignifie of and teſtifie to theſe things.

Now whereas many ſay, that the Book of the Revel. is ſuch a myſtical book, that it is not to be underſtood: to what end then was it written? It was the Revelation of Jeſus Chriſt, which God gave unto him, to ſhew unto his Servants things which muſt ſhortly come to paſs, Chap 1 8. 1. and would Chriſt give them forth in ſuch words, as could not be underſtood; Again it is ſaid ver. 5. Bleſſed is he that Readeth, and they that hear the Words of his Propheſie, and keep thoſe things which are written therein: for the time is at hand. How can any be bleſſed in reading, or how can any keep what is written therein, without underſtanding the things contained in it? How can any follow the true Church into the Wilderneſs, or avoid being taken with the Golden Cup of fornications of the falſe Church, or refuſe the mark of the Beaſt (that he take it neither on his fore-head nor hand, nor have the name of the Beaſt upon him, nor ſo much as the number of his name) unleſs he truly & rightly underſtand theſe warnings and deſcriptions of the holy Spirit of God, given forth in the Book, to preſerve in the way of Truth, in the way of Life, (though through great ſufferings and tribulations) out of the way of Spiritual whoredom and death? For, Myſtical Babylon, the Nations of the earth and great ones (generally) commit fornication with, Revel. 17. 2. and 18. 3. Indeed this Book is a myſtery to mans wiſdom: for it was not given to the wiſdom of this world, but is hid from that; but God gave it Chriſt to give to his ſervants, and it is not a myſtery (but opened and revealed by the Fathers Spirit) to the Children of the true wiſdom, who are inſtructed and taught of God to eſcape that bed of whoredom, and ſpirittual fornication, which the earthly wiſdom (in the wiſeſt men of this world) is intangled in.

II.

Some Queries on Chap. 29, and 30. of Deut. compared with Rom. 10

Quer. 1. DId not God Command Moſes? to make a Covenant with the Children of Iſrael, in the land of Moab, beſides the Covenant he made with them in Horeb, Deut. 29. 1.

Queſt. 2. What was this Covenant? was it of the ſame Nature with the former? or was it of a different Nature; was not the former the Covenant of the Law? and was not this the Covenant of the Goſpel? did not this Covenant contain the promiſe of Circumciſing the Heart, Deut. 30. ver. 6. Whereas under the other Covenant, notwithſtanding all the temptations, ſigns and miracles which they had ſeen in Egypt, and in the Wilderneſs about the ſpace of Forty years: yet the Lord had not given them an Heart to perceive: and eyes to ſee and ears to hear unto, unto that day. But Moſes and Aaron, with Caleb, and Joſhuah, who know and partooke of the other Covenant, they were of a better Spirit, and underſtood the leadings and commands of God, and followed afterhim

Quer. 3. Had the Jews minded this Covenant, might they not have been able to keep the other alſo? Did any fail in Sacrifices or outward Obedience to the Law, who kept to this Covenant? what an holy man was Samuel, who did not ſo much as err in Government, but could plead with the people, whoſe Oxe or Aſs have I taken? or whom have I defrauded or oppreſſed. Zacharias and Elizabeth his wife walked in all the Commadments and Ordinances of the Lord blamleſs. And ſo the Children of God in the Goſpel, who have a new Heart and a new Spirit, and walk not after the fleſh, but after the Spirit, and Law of Life in Chriſt Jeſus, they alſo fulfill the Righteouſneſs of the Law declared in the Letter, Rom. 8, 4.

Quer. 4. What is the Commandment of this Covenant, and where is it written? the Commandments of the other Covenant were written in the Law of Moſes, and in Tables of Stone: but where is this Commandment written? or where is it to be found; Is it in heaven above to be fetched down from thence? or is it beyond the Sea, &c. Nay, is it not very nigh? is not the word of this Commandment nigh in the mouth and in the heart? and is it not there placed by the Lord for this very end, that men might hear it and do it?

Quer. 5. Was not this the word or Commandment of Life and good, or of death and evil to the Jews (ſee Chap. 30. 14, 15.) and is it not ſo alſo to mankind? He that hears and obeys the word of this Commandment, doth he not live and partake of good? he that diſobeys it, doth he not dye and undergo wrath and evil, tribulation and anguiſh upon his Soul from the hand of the Lord, either poured out upon him at preſent, or treaſured up for him againſt hereafter? Read Rom. 2. 5. 6. &c.

Quer. 6. Was not this other Covenant, this ſecond Covenant, this new Covenant, which God bid Moſes make with them then, the ſame which God makes with believers in the dayes of the Goſpel; The old Covenant had been made with the Jews before: was not this the new? They had had the Law in the letter before, wherein the Commandment was afar of: but is not the Commandment of the new Covenant (the Law of the Spirit of Life) nigh; and had not that People of the Jews the Spirit of the Lord nigh to inſtruct them, by vertue of this Covenant; That they had ſo, is plain, Nehem. 9, 20. and Iſa. 63. 10. but whether they had the Spirit nigh to them by vertue of the old Covenant, or by vertue of the new (which Moſes was appointed by God to make with them, as is afore expreſſed) let the wiſe in heart conſider: and whether the tender mercies, which God all along expreſſed to them (as is mentioned Iſa. 63. 7.) were by vertue of that Covenant wherein God had continual advantages, and provocations againſt them, or by vertue of this Covenant, from which mercy and redemption is continually ſpringing freely towards the Iſrael of God.

Quer. 7. whether the word of faith which the Apoſtles preached, was not the ſame word nigh in the mouth and heart which Moſes Preached? Is not the word of Life, the word of Faith, the word of the new Covenant one and the ſame in all ages and generations; Indeed there are outward ſayings and teſtimonies after divers manners: but Chriſt is the ſame yeſterday, to day, and for ever, and the Commandment of Life in the mouth and heart changeth not, but is always one and the ſame.

Quer. 8. What is the juſtification under this Covenant, or what is that which God hath an eye to in juſtifying any perſon here? is it not the obedience of faith? What doth God condemn, but unbelief? and will he not juſtifie Faith? for Faith flows from Life, and Life from Chriſt. So that indeed here the holy root makes all that are of it holy, and the Righteous root makes all that are of it Righteous; and he that doth Righteouſneſs is Righteous, even as he is Righteous, 1 John, 3, 7. and Chriſt is here indeed made unto the Soul, that thus receives him, and obeys him, as the word and Commandment of Life. I ſay, he is indeed made unto ſuch an one of God, Wiſdom, Righteouſneſs, Sanctification, and Redemption:

demption: and bleſſed are they that do not miſtake about this, but come truly to witneſs it.

III.

Some Queries concerning Deſtruction and Salvation.

Quer. 1. WHether there be not ſomewhat which deſtroyes, which hath the Nature of Death and Deſtruction in it, and which leaveneth with Death and Deſtruction, as it is let in and received.

Quer. 2. Whether there be not ſomewhat alſo which ſaves, which hath the Nature of Life and Salvation in it, and which leaveneth with Life and Salvation as it is let in and received?

Quer. 3. Whether that which deſtroyes be not near, and whether that which ſaves be not near alſo; (doth not Chriſt ſtand at the door and knock? and may not he be heard and let in. ſee Revel. 3. 20.)

Quer. 4, Whether this which is ſo near and ſo able to ſave, was not that which ſaved in all ages and generations, even before Chriſt appeared in a Body of Fleſh, and the ſhedding his bloud?

Quer. 5, Whether after Chriſt appeared in a Body of fleſh, and ſhedding his bloud, any can be ſaved thereby? or by any believing on Chriſt whatſoever, without letting in or receiving that Life and Power which ſaves? Be not deceived, God is not mocked: He that believeth in the Power which raiſed our Lord Jeſus Chriſt from the dead, and is ſubject to the Power, ſhall be redeemed and ſaved thereby: For Death came by the Souls Separation from the Power which gave Life; and Chriſt ſaves by bringing to the Power again (ſo that he that would indeed be ſaved by Chriſt, muſt believe in God through him, and feel the Power which redeems.) But let a man believe never ſo much concerning God and Chriſt; until he feel this and be changed by the vertue and operation of this, he cannot be ſaved; but is ſtill in his Sins, and under condemnation and wrath; becauſe of Sin, whatever he think of himſelf.

Quer. 6. Whether Chriſt was not the ſame yeſterday, to day and for ever: even before he took up the Body of Fleſh, while he was in the Body, after he laid down the Body; and after he took it up again and appeared in it to his Diſciples?

Quer. 7. Whether Chriſt, where he inwardly and Spiritually appears and is received, doth not diſcover, ſhake, diſſettle, and remove that Nature, which cannot receive the Law, and ſo bring up and bring forth the Heavely ſeed, which was afore the Law (which is appointed by God for a Generation to himſelf) which alwayes doth the will of him who quickens it, and who fills it with Life and Power from an high?

IV.

Some Queries on Coloſs. 1. 27, 28, 29. (obſerve, that in ver. 27. whereas it is in our common Tranſlation rendred, this Myſtery among the Gentiles; and it is by ſome other Tranſlations rendred, This Myſtery in the Gentiles: and ſo it is in the Greek)

Quer. 1. WHether there be not a Myſtery of Light, a Myſtery of Life: ſomewhat of true Light hidden, ſomewhat of true Life hidden in the Gentiles? Whatſoever makes manifeſt, is Light, ſaith the Apoſtle, Epheſ. 5. 13, 14. And that which may be known of God is manifeſt in them, Rom. 1. Is there not ſomewhat in the Gentiles, which in ſome meaſure diſcovers ſomewhat contrary to God in them, and is many times working in their minds againſt it? Is not this of a Pretious Nature? and hath it not Pretious Vertue and Power in it, though it be little tooke notice of by them?

Quer.

Quer. 2. Do not the Saints know what this myſtery is? do they not know what is the Riches and Glory of it? Indeed it hath been hid from Ages and Generations; ſo that they knew it not: but is it hid from the Saints alſo, in the day of the Goſpel? is it not revealed in them, and to them?

Quer. 3 What is this Myſtery in them in whom it is revealed? Is it not Chriſt in them? Is it not the hope of Glory in them? Do they not know it to be Chriſt? Do they not know it to be the hope of Glory? Who can damp the Faith or darken the Knowledge of thoſe, who feel the Myſtery of Life revealed in them? who feel Chriſt the (hope of Glory) Living, Dwelling, and Reigning, in the Authority and Power of the Father, in their own hearts?

Quer. 4. Did not the Apoſtles preach this Myſtery? did they not Preach the Word of Faith within in the Heart? the Kingdom within? Chriſt, the hope of Glory within? Did they not Preach this Meſſage of the Goſpel (which they had from Chriſt to carry to men) that God is Light, and in him is no darkneſs at all? And did they not Preach it to this very end, to turn men and bring men, from the Darkneſs within to the Light within? That in it they might have Union and Fellowſhip with God, who is Light. Can any have fellowſhip with God, who is Light, but as his Spirit is brought out of the inward darkneſs, into the inward Light?

Quer. 5. What did the Apoſtle Paul, and the other Apoſtles aim at, in their warning men and teaching them in all Wiſdom? Was it not to perfect the work of God in them, and that they might preſent every man perfect in Chriſt Jeſus.

Quer. 6. Did not the Grace and Power of God go along with the Apoſtles, and work in them mightily to this end, even for the perfecting the Saints? And the Grace and Power of God, working mightily againſt ſin, and the power of Satan, is it not able to conquer Satan, and to make him fall like Lightning, and to trample him under feet? conſider ver. 19, & 2 Theſ. 1. 11, 12.

Quer. 7. Did the Apoſtles ever preach ſuch a Doctrine, that no man could be perfected in this Life; but man muſt alwayes, (every day) be committing ſin? Nay, did they not ſpeak Wiſdom among them that were perfect, and ſay, let as many of us as be perfect, be thus minded? Did they not diſtinguiſh between the weak, and between the ſtrong and perfect? Do they not ſpeak of ſome that had overcome the wicked one, and were born of God, and did not ſin? It is a pretious thing to feel the Power of God regenerating the mind: But it is much more pretious to witneſs it regenerared. But that ſtate none know, but they that are in it: but this is moſt certain, that ſin is ſhut out of it, and that all things are new there.

Quer. 8. Will the Myſtery of Life, where it is received and turned to, ever ceaſe working againſt the Myſtery of Death, untill it hath wrought it out of the mind? ſhall Judgment never be brought forth unto victory over ſin in the Heart? ſhall there never be pure and full Communion with the Lord here in this world, without the interruption of ſin? Theſe things, ſaith John, I write to you, that your Joy may be full. Shall the Joy never be full in any? How can the Joy be full, where ſin hath power and breaks in upon the ſoul, and prevaileth upon the mind, even to the committing of it daily? The ſoul that is weary of ſin, and grieved at its grieving Gods Spirit thereby, can never come to full union and fellowſhip with the Lord, nor to have its joy full while it doth that which grieves Gods Spirit: for it is impoſſible but it ſhould grieve the Soul alſo, and weaken its joy and rejoycing in the Lord.

Some Queries concerning the Way of Life, and Myſtery of the Goſpel, Quer. 1. IS not the way of Life, the way of Holineſs, the way of Truth, the way of Peace one and the ſame, in all Ages and Generations? was there ever or ſhall there ever be another, than that which was from the begining?

Quer. 2. Is not this way a pure way, a clean way? Can any impure thing walk in it? Is not the Gate ſtraight, and the way narrow that leadeth unto Life? is it eaſy finding it? or is it eaſy entring into it and walking in it? Doth not the Corruption and Unholineſs of the hearts of many hinder them, from walking in the holy way of Life and Peace?

Quer. 3. Is not this way a Myſtery? Can any learn it, but thoſe, whoſe eyes are opened by the Lord, and to whom the Myſtery is revealed by him? Can any diſcern or underſtand it, but the Children of the Pure, Heavenly Wiſdom, whom the Lord teacheth, and whoſe eyes he openeth, to ſee and juſtifie it in every Age?

Quer. 5. Is not the whole Viſion of God, the whole Viſion of Life, the whole Viſion of Peace, a Book ſealed to all ſorts (both learned and unlearned in every Age and Generation) but thoſe to whom the Lord unſeals it?

Quer. 4. May not ſuch, as are not at all acquainted with the Myſtery of Godlineſs, the Myſtery of Life, the Myſtery of Redemption; read what the Scriptures ſay concerning theſe things, and get a great deal of knowledge (from the Letter of the Scriptures) into thier minds, and be able to raiſe Doctrines, Reaſons, Uſes, &c. And back all by Scriptures very plentifully? But are not thoſe, who teach not from the Myſtery of Life and gift of the Spirit, but only what they have gathered and formed from the Letter; I ſay, are not ſuch blind leaders of the blind? and is it poſſible, but that they themſelves and ſuch as follow them ſhould fall into the ditch? For it is only the Myſtery of Life, and Redemption (not a litteral Knowledge and Wiſdom, though with an endeavour to practiſe according thereto) which preſerves out of the ditch. O that this were duly conſidered of! for it is tenderly and weightily propoſed.

Quer. 6. What is the Knowledge of Chriſt which ſaves? Is it a Knowledge of him after the Letter, or a Knowledge of him in the Spirit and Power of the endleſs Life? Can he be known truly, livingly, and ſavingly, without the Fathers revealing him in man? or can any truly call him Lord, but they that are firſt taught by the father to diſcern his Spiritual and heavenly Glory, and to receive him and bow to him in Spirit?

Quer. 7. What is it to kiſs the Son? Can any do ſo, but thoſe who diſcern and receive the Light of his Spirit.

Quer. 8. Can any truly know the Father, unleſs the Son reveal him? or can any know the Son, unleſs the Father reveal him? I know men may get Notions out of the Scriptures, concerning God the Father and his Son: but can they get true Knowledge of either, without the inſpiration of the Almighty which giveth underſtanding?

Quer. 9. Can any perſon fear God and depart from Evil, (any where upon the face of the earth) without ſome viſit of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt to his ſoul, and without receiving ſomewhat of Life and Power from him? He is the Wiſdom of God, he can teach this, but can any elſe teach it? If none elſe can teach it; then he that learn'd it, muſt needs learn it of him. Is not this (to wit, to fear God and depart from Evil) the path of Wiſdom, which is hid from all living, but ſuch as are taught by Chriſt, who is the Wiſdom of God, Read Job, 28. 12. to the end of the Chap. and conſider. For doth not the Spirit of Chriſt, which convinceth of ſin, Reach to all men and Miniſter to all men inwardly and ſpiritually, in ſome days of inſtruction about fearing God and departing from Evil?

Quer. 10. Can any be acquainted with the fear of God, and be ſenſible of the hour of his Judgment, and give Glory to him and worſhip him, but they muſt know and receive the everlaſting Goſpel? They that are ſent to preach this after the Apoſtacy, are they not ſent to preach it as the everlaſting Goſpel; read Revel. 14. 6, 7. and conſider. For, come to Life and Power in any Doctrine, which Chriſt ſends his meſſengers to preach towards the ſalvation of mens ſouls, a man comes to the Goſpel preſently: but read and aſſent to, and practiſe all the things (as well as men can) related in the Scriptures without the Life and Power, and ſo acknowledge and believe all that is ſaid concerning Chriſt: yet for all this, and in the midſt of all this, a man may miſs of the Goſpel: for the Goſpel is an hidden Myſtery of the Life and Power, ſee Coloſ. 1. 26, 27

this

Quer. 11. Is not the meſſage of the Goſpel, That God is Light, and in him is no darkneſs at all? doth not the Spirit of Chriſt Preach this, more or leſs, to all people under heaven? Yea, is not the Goſpel preached in every Creature, and hid in thoſe that are loſt, whom the God of this world blindeth? for is not the Spirit of God, in ſome meaſure, every where convincing men of Sin, and drawing them out of Darkneſs, into the ſenſe and obedience of Light? and will not this be the generall and univerſal condemnation of the world, that they did not bring their deeds to the Light, but turned from it and hated it, loving the darkneſs more than it, becauſe their deeds were evil, and they had not a mind to part with them but to remain and abide in them?

Alas, alas! Men ſhould paſs through the Knowledge of things after the Letter, into the Knowledge of things after the Spirit and Power of the endleſs Life; but, inſtead thereof, men ſtick in their apprehenſions of the Letter: and if any man be taught of God, and have the things of his Kingdom, and the Myſtery of the Scriptures revealed to him in the Spirit, and ſo ſignifie of them, in the words which Gods Wiſdom teacheth; yet ſo men know them not, but oppoſe and reſiſt the Miniſtration of Life and Power in their day and generation! and this will be bitterneſs in the latter end, even as bitter to the profeſſors of this age, as the former denying of Chriſts appearance in the Fleſh was to the profeſſors of that Age.

VI.

Some Queries concerning Righteouſneſs or Juſtification.

Quer. 1. IS there not a new Covenant under the Goſpel, as well as there was an old Covenant under the Law.

Quer. 2. What did the old Covenant require? Did it not require Obedience to the Law of Moſes? What doth the new Covenant require? doth it not require Faith in Chriſt and Obedience to his Spirit,? Doth it not require Faith in the Grace, and Obedience to the Grace which bringeth Salvation, teaching to deny ungodlineſs and Worldly luſts &c.

Quer. 3. What is the Righteouſneſs or Juſtification in the Old Covenant? what doth God Juſtifie in the old Covenant? doth he not Juſtifie the Obedience thereto, and condemn all diſobedience? what is the Righteouſneſs or Juſtification of the new Covenant? what doth God juſtifie in men under the new Covenant? Doth he not Juſtifie their Faith in Chriſt, and their Obedience to the Law of his Spirit? is not whatſoever is not of Faith ſin and condemned, and whatſoever is of Faith holy, and juſtified?

Quer. 4. What is Faith? is it not the gift of God? What is Obedience? doth it not flow from faith? is it not performed by the Power and in the newneſs of the Spirit? and is not that juſtifiable, and always juſtified in the ſight of God? Doth it not ſpring from the new Tree, from the holy root of Life in the Heart? and whatſoever ſprings therefrom, is it not holy and righteous? and is not whatſoever is truly Holy and Righteous, juſtified, and accounted Righteous by the holy and Righteous God?

Quer 5. To what end was Chriſt made under the Law, and did fulfill the righteouſneſs of the Law? was it not that he might accompliſh and fulfill that Righteouſneſs, and ſo make way for the bringing in of the everlaſting Righteouſneſs, even of the Righteouſneſs of his own Nature and Spirit, which is everlaſting? is not this the righteouſneſs, which the Children of the new Covenant experience in the new and living way? is not this far beyond the Righteouſneſs of the Law, if they could fulfill it never ſo exactly from the Letter! For I feel a vaſt difference between that righteouſneſs which would belong to me from the Law, and the righteouſneſs which flows into my heart from the Nature and Spirit of Chriſt revealed in me, and which floweth up in me from my Union with him: for this is absolutely a Righteousness of another Nature, of another Kind, of another Root.

Quer. 6. If Christ fulfilling the Law of Moses, the Law of the first Covenant, were imputed to us as our Righteousness, and we justifyed in the Sight of God thereby; were not then our righteousness the Righteousness of the First Covenant in Nature, and our justification a justification by the Righteousness of the first Covenant? For Christ was made under the Law, made under the first Covenant, and fulfilled the Righteousness of the first Covenant: so that if that be imputed to us for Righteousness, then the Righteousness of the first Covenant is imputed to us for Righteousness, and is our Righteousness.

Quer. 7. Was not Faith imputed to Abraham for Righteousness? What was his Righteousness? was it not the Faith which he had from Christ, whereby and wherewith he believed God? Is not Faith of the Nature of Christ? Is not true Faith Justified for ever, and doth it not Justifie him in whom it is found? And doth not Gospel Obedience flow from Faith? and hath it not of the Nature of Faith in it? O how pure and pretious was it in the eye of God, that Abraham reasoned not, consulted not with Flesh and Blood, but retired into Faith in the pure Power! He believed God, saith the Scriptures, and it was accounted to him for Righteousness: and shall it not be Imputed to us also, if we have the same Faith, and believe in the same Power?

VII.

Some Queries about being under the Law, and being under Grace.

Quer. 1. WHether they that have received the Spirit of Grace, and are under the Spirit of Grace; I say, whether they were under the Law also, or witness freedom therefrom?

Quer. 2. What is the Law? is it not a Ministration of Death, of Bondage, of Condemnation? What is the Spirit of the Lord, the Spirit of Grace? is it not a Spirit of Life, a Spirit of liberty, a Spirit that frees from Bondage? They that have received it, and are in subjection to it, do they not partake of its liberty, and through it come into dominion over Sin and Death?

Quer. 3. Is the Law to the Righteous or Unrighteous? whom was it made for? He that cometh into the Holy and Righteous Nature of the Seed, doth he not come from under the Law? Doth he not come into the Nature, State and Spirit, which is free from the Law?

Quer. 4. What is it to come through the Law into the Liberty and Redemption of Sons? What is it to know the Seed free in the particular, and to come into the freedom of the Seed? Doth not the Son make free, the truth of God make free, all that come to it and dwell in it; and are not they that are made free by it, free indeed? O Sion, thy Children are all free born! Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the Mother of us all: and she bringeth forth none but free Children. They that dwell in the height of notion, they are not free: but they that dwell in the Power of Life, know that which makes free, and witness freedom by it.

VIII.

Some Queries for the Professors of Christianity to Consider of, and try their States by: For it is good for every one to know and Understand his Estate aright (what it is in the sight of the Lord) and not to be mistaken in a matter of so great Concernment.

Quer. 1. IS thy Spirit, Heart, Mind, Soul and Body, a Temple for God to dwell in? Who dwells in thy Heart? Doth the Holy Spirit or the Unclean Spirit? Is that dislodged and purged out of thee, with which God will not dwell? Is that discovered and taken away, in which the wicked one dwelleth? O

Jerusa-

Jeruſalem, waſh thine Heart from Wickedneſs, how long ſhall thy vain Thoughts lodge within thee! O Jeruſalem, wilt thou not be made Clean? When ſhall it once be? Is not forbearing to touch every unclean thing, and cleanſing from all filthineſs of Fleſh and Spirit, more neceſſary to the State of a Son and Daughter of the moſt High, than moſt people are aware of? read 2. Cor. 6. 16, 17. and Chap. 7. 1.

Quer. Is Chriſt Revealed in thee? Doth God dwell any where, in any heart, but where Chriſt is, but where he is inwardly and Spiritually Revealed? Know ye not that Chriſt is in you except ye be Reprobates? And can any know Chriſt in them, who have not had him Revealed there by the Father? Almoſt all ſorts of Pretenders to Chriſt, own him as ſpoken of without; but the true Chriſtian witneſſeth him Revealed within: for it pleaſeth the Father to Reveal the Son in ſuch, and none can be truly Ingrafted into Chriſt, but as Chriſt is in ſome meaſure made manifeſt within.

Quer. 3. How doſt thou Confeſs Jeſus to be the Lord? Is it by Notions from the Letter, or by feeling his Spirit and Power Revealed within, and thy heart made ſubject to his Spirit and Power inwardly Revealed? For there is a Confeſſing Chriſt in and by the Spirit, and a confeſſing him without the Spirit, according as men can read, conceive, and apprehend of him from the Letter: Conſider which of theſe thine is.

Quer. 4. Art thou come out of the Apoſtacy and Spirit of Darkneſs, into the Light and Spirit of Chriſt? What was the Apoſtacy from? Was it not from the Spirit, from the Anointing? Wherein did it Conſiſt? Did it conſiſt in holding a knowledge of Chriſt, and form of Godlineſs out of the Power? Art thou returned to the Anointing? To the Holy Spirit of the Father? Haſt thou received it? Doſt thou Live and Walk in it, and not fulfill he Luſts of the Fleſh?

Quer. 5. Doſt thou know the Tree of Righteouſneſs, and the Tree of Unrighteouſneſs, inwardly? Haſt thou felt the Axe laid to the Root of the corrupt Tree, and it cut down; and the holy Plant of God (the Plant of his Renown) planted in thy Heart, and bringing forth Fruit to him? Can the fruit ever become good in thee, till the Tree be made good? Can the corrupt Tree ever bring forth the Holy Fruit of Righteouſneſs to the Lord? O mind thy growth, I mean, from what thou groweſt, and from what thy Fruit proceedeth: for all the Knowledge, Faith, Love, Zeal, Practices, &c. which proceed not from the renewed Spirit and Nature, is not the good Fruit which God calls for, and accepts: but the denying the leaſt cuſtom or faſhion of this world, from a renewed Nature, and from the drawings and teachings of Gods Spirit, is good Fruit, and accepted by him.

Quer. 6. Can any be Redeemed to God, but by his judgment and Righteouſneſs Revealed in them? Is the Soul redeemed from its Enemies, while its Enemies remain in ſtrength, and have the Dominion over it? Where Grace is received, and the Soul taught by it, and ſubject to it; Doth it not break the Dominion of Sin? As the Spirit of judgment and burning is felt in any Heart, doth it not cut down, and burn up Sin there? And as the righteous Spirit is turned to, is not his righteous Nature received, and doth not the Holy and Righteous Seed ſpring up in the Heart? And as it ſpringeth up, Doth it not Redeem and Deliver that which is joyned to it? Can any be Redeemed by a Righteouſneſs at a diſtance, without partaking of the new and holy and righteous Image of the Son? And he that is the righteous in meaſure, he may do Righteouſneſs: But no man can do Righteouſneſs, until he become Righteous, by being joyned to, Changed by, and in ſome meaſure brought forth a new Plant to God, in the new Righteous and Holy Seed; ſee 1 Joh. 3. 7.

Quer. 7. Do ye indeed know the new Covenant? Was it ever inwardly revealed in you? Do ye know the difference between reading the holy Directions given forth in the Scriptures, and ſo getting them into your minds and practiſing them, as well as you can; I ſay, do ye know the difference between this, and Gods writing them in your Hearts, and cauſing you to walk in his Ways? Do ye know the difference between reading in the Letter, and in the Spirit: and between walking according to the oldneſs of the Letter, and according to the newneſs of the ſpirit? O that ye might not be deceived about theſe things, but might know the Truth, as it is in Jeſus, and come into fellowſhip with us therein: For truly our fellowſhip is with the Father and the Son, in that which changeth not, but is one and the ſame for ever: yea the Lord our God hath Redeemed us out of all the changeable Ways, Religions and Worſhips, into the one pure way of Life, and into the Worſhip in the one Spirit and Truth, which changeth not, but is ſtill what it was, even one and the ſame before the Law of Moſes, or Writings of the Prophets, all the time of the Law, while Chriſt was in the fleſh, afterwards when he was Revealed in Spirit, and all the time of the Apoſtacy, and after the Apoſtacy, and ſo for ever.

is

IX.

A Queſtion Anſwered about Preaching the Goſpel after the Apoſtacy.

Queſt. WHy doth God after the Apoſtacy, ſend an Angel to Preach the everlaſting Goſpel, after a manner different from what it was Preached before the Apoſtacy? How was it Preached before the Apoſtacy? Was it not Preached thus, that in Chriſt alone is Remiſſion of Sins, and Salvation through faith in his Blood? How is it to be Preached after the Apoſtacy? Is not an Angel from God, ſent to preach it thus; fear God and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: And Worſhip him that made Heaven and Earth, and the Sea, and the Fountains of Waters? Is this the ſame Goſpel that was Preached before? How differ nt is the ſound thereof! Surely this would ſeem not the ſame, but rather another Goſpel, to any man who is not taught of God, and hath not received of him the true Underſtanding to obſerve and diſcern the nature of things

Anſw. The Goſpel is the ſame in ſubſtance, though differing in ſound and manner of appearance; and they that judge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment, experience it to be the ſame: for whoever receives the Goſpel thus preached, receives the power of God unto ſalvation, which goeth along with his fear, and with the hour of judgment, and with the true Worſhip.

And this is the Reaſon why the Lord ſends his Angel thus to Preach it; that he might ſhut out the Birth of the falſe Wiſdom, and convey it to the Children of the true Wiſdom. For in the Apoſtacy, the Doctrines of the Knowledge of Chriſt had been Corrupted, and held in the wrong part; and men had got a wrong knowledge, and a dead belief concerning Chriſt, and his Blood, &c.

Therefore, to ſhut out theſe, God ſo orders his Goſpel to be Preached, as theſe cannot underſtand it, nor know it to be the Goſpel, nor come into this ſpiritual Miniſtration of it; but thoſe whom the Lord toucheth, whoſe hearts he openeth and quickneth, they (in the Demonſtration of his Spirit) have the ſenſe and obedience of it; for men had got a form of Religion, a form of Knowledg, a form of Doctrine, a form of Worſhip out of the Power: Therefore the Lord comes with the light of his Spirit, to ſever between that which was known and held out of the power, and that which was received and held in the power, and ſo Preached the Truth, that none but thoſe that are of the Truth, can Own and Receive it.

Had he ſent an Angel to Preach the Birth of Chriſt, the Death of Chriſt, his Reſurrection, &c. all the Dead would receive this: but to Preach thus; Fear God, Come to the Spirit of judgment and Burning, Worſhip Him that made the Heaven, the Earth, the Sea, and Fountains of Waters; Who can underſtand what this means? Who can know this to be the Everlaſting Goſpel, but he that is taught of God?

This is to Preach God the Creator, ſaith the Wiſe Profeſſor; this is not to Preach Chriſt the Redeemer: This is not to Preach the Everlaſting Goſpel, will they readily ſay. Yes, but God who is Wiſe, and knows what the Goſpel is, and ſends his Angel to Preach Preach it after the Apoſtacy, ſends it thus to be Preached to every Nation, Kindred, Tongue and People: Read Rev. 14. 6, 7. and conſider ſeriouſly, and ſpurn not againſt the way of Gods Preaching his Everlaſting Truth, wherein is wrapped up the Eternal Salvation and happineſs of Mankind, yea more eſpecially of this Age, who ought to bow to God in this his way of diſperſing his Truth, which he himſelf hath Choſen.

Now, conſider this one thing, Was ever the Goſpel thus Preached before this Age? The ſame Goſpel was preached from the beginning: but was it ever thus preaced before? The Seed of the Woman, ſhall bruiſe the Serpents Head: So it was Preached to Adam; In thy Seed ſhall all the Families of the Earth be Bleſſed: So it was preached to Abraham; To us a Child is Born, to us a Son is given, &c. So it was preached in the days of the Prophets; By this Man, every one that believeth in his Name, ſhall receive Remiſſion of ſins. So it was preached in the Apoſtles Days.

And in the Reformation from Popery, ſome of the Doctrines about Free Juſtification by Grace, and of Remiſſion of Sins by Faith in Chriſt, &c. were revived: But, was it ever thus preached before our Age? Did Perſons ever come forth in the Power and Authority of God, bidding Men fear him, and be ſenſible of the hour of his judgment, even of his mighty day which was at hand; and come out of all falſe Ways and Worſhips, into the Worſhip of him, who made Heaven and Earth, and the Sea, and Fountains of Waters? I ſay, Did perſons ever come forth thus, and preach the Everlaſting Goſpel thus, preach theſe Doctrines to Men, as the Goſpel of God, before this day? And let Men well conſider, whether it be not indeed, of of God, and by his Command and Power thus preached; and take heed of oppoſing his Meſſage, leſt they be found Fighters againſt him.

For mind: Was not this always the ſum and ſubſtance in every Diſpenſation? could men be ſaved by believing that the Seed of the Woman ſhould bruiſe the Serpent's Head? Or that in Abraham's ſeed all the Families of the Earth ſhould be bleſſed? Or, that a Child ſhould be Born, and a Son given? Or that, through Chriſt's Name, Remiſſion of ſins was to be had, &c. Without coming into the true Fear, which teacheth and cauſeth to depart from Evil; and without giving Glory to God, in bowing to his Spirits Inſtructions, and Teachings; and without worſhiping him, who made Heaven and Earth, and Sea, and fountains of Water? Or, Could any fear the Lord, and give Glory to him, and come under the hour of his Judgment, and Worſhip him, who made Heaven, and Earth, and Sea, and fountains of Waters; but they muſt firſt feel the Power of the Goſpel overcoming their Spirits, and leading them thither.

X.

Two Queſtions anſwered; one concerning others not learning what God teacheth us; the other concerning the way of his teaching us.

Queſt. 1. WHat is the reaſon, that others cannot learn nor become ſubject to the ſame ſpiritual Truths, which God makes manifeſt to us and ſubjecteth our Spirits to?

Anſw. The reaſon is, Becauſe they do not learn the ſame way that God teacheth us; and ſo, though they have many advantages above us of Parts, Learning, &c. and ſtudy hard to know much; yet not coming into the right way, wherein God's Spirit teacheth, they neve r come to learn the Truth, as it is there taught.

Queſt. 2. But What is the Way, wherein God teacheth you, may ſome ſay.

Anſw. Thus God teacheth us, by giving us an underſtanding to know him that is true, and by opening an ear in us to hear his Voice; and ſo, being kept within the Limits of that Underſtanding and Ear, we come to hear and know aright.

Take heed (ſaid Chriſt), how ye hear. Oh! the Lord hath made us ſenſible of the weight of that Scripture; and we have often experienced, that it is eaſy to hear amiſs, and read amiſs, and pray amiſs, and believe amiſs, and hope amiſs; but hard to do any of theſe aright. Therefore, we are taught ſtill to wait for the ſtirring of the Waters, for the moving of Gods Holy Spirit upon our Spirits; and then Healing, Vertue, and Ability is felt and received from him, to perform what he requires.

Thus

Thus, when we read the Scriptures, our eyes are towards him, and we watch against our own Understandings, against what they could gather, or comprehend of themselves, and wait to feel, how he will open our Spirits, and what he will make manifest to them, being opened: and if he drop down nothing, we gather nothing; but if he give Light, then in his Light we see and receive Light. So in praying, we wait to feel the Birth of Life (which is of the the Father and which the Father hears) breath in us; and so far as the spirit of the Father breaths upon it, and it breaths to the Father, so far we Pray: And when Life stops, we stop, and dare not offer up to God any Sacrifice of our own, but what the Father prepares and gives us. So in eating and drinking, and what ever we do, our heart is retired to the Lord, and we wait to feel every thing sanctified by his Presence and Blessing: And, indeed, here every thing is sweet unto us. And in what ever God enables us to do, we narrowly watch to that direction of Christ, not to let the left hand know, what the right hand doth. For we are nothing of our selves, nor can do any thing of our selves: therefore whatever is done in us, as we feel the Grace of God, the Vertue and Power of his Life working all in us; so it is still given us to attribute all the Honour and Glory thereto.

And in this Temper of Spirit, we find nothing too hard for us: for the strength of Christ is still at hand, even in the midst of our weakness, and the Riches of the Kingdom is still at hand in the midst of our Poverty and Nothingness: and his strength works, and our Weakness doth not hinder the Glory of him that works through it. So being beaten to it, by constant sense, and dayly experience, that it is not by our Willing or Running, according to our Wisdom and Strength, that we can attain any thing; but by God's shewing Mercy to us in Christ; we therefore daily wait at the Posts of God's Heavenly Wisdom, to feel the gate of Mercy and tender Love opened to us, and Mercy & Love flow in upon us; whereby we may, and daily do obtain what our Hearts desire and seek after, blessed be the Lord, for ever.

And truly here, the Springings of Love, and Openings of Mercy from our God, we have fellowship and Converse with the Father and Son, and one with another, in the Holy Spirit of Life; and we testify of these things to others, that they also might come into the same fellowship, and be of the same Faith which flows from, and abides in, and makes living, in the Power and Life Eternal.

The Lord guide all Tender, Breathing, Panting Spirits hither; that they may be satisfied in the Goodness, and loving Kindness of the Lord, and may Eat abundantly of the Fatness of his House, and Drink of the Rivers of his Pleasures, and not wander up and down any longer in their own barren Thoughts, Apprehensions, and Conceivings upon the Scriptures.

XI.

Of the threefold appearance of Christ, to wit, under the Law in a Body of Flesh, and in his Spirit and Power.

First UNder the Law, various were the appearances of Christ: Sometimes as an Angel, in the likeness of a Man; So to Abraham, and so to Jacob, when Jacob wrestled with him, and prevailed, and had overcome God: So to Joshuah, or the Captain of the Lords Host, at his besieging Jericho: So to Moses, in the Bush, he appeared as an Angel, Acts. 7. 35. So likewise in Visions: Those Glorious Appearances of God to the Prophets in Visions, were the appearances of Christ; as particularly, that Glorious appearance of God sitting upon a Throne, and his Train filling the Temple, and the Seraphims crying Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of Hosts; his Glory is the fulness of the whole earth, Isa. 6. This was an Appearance of Christ to Isaiah, as is manifest, John. 12. 41. where the Evangelists (relating to that Place) useth this expression: These things said Isaiah when he saw his Glory, and spake of him. So he was the Angel of God's Presence, which went before the Jews, in all their Journeyings and Travels out of Egypt, through the the Sea, and in the Wilderness, and in the time of the Judges; and wrought all their Deliverances for them, as is signified, Isa. 63. 9. In all their afflictions he was afflicted; and the Angel of his Presence saved them, &c. So with the Three Children He appeared in the midst of the Fiery Furnace, in a form like the Son of God, as Nebuchadnezar judged, Dan. 3. 25.

Now indeed, the whole Law was a Shadow of him, who was to come to be the substance of it, and to perform that inwardly in the Hearts of his, which the Law figured forth, and represented outwardly. Thus Moses, and all the Prophets, were fore-runners of him, the great Prophet of the Spiritual Israel of God; All the Priests, especially the High Priest, were Types, and fore-runners of him, and to end in him, who is the high Priest over the Household of God for ever. The Judges and Saviours were Types of him, the great Saviour and Redeemer: For they saved not by their own strength, but by his Spirit and Power coming upon them; so that the Yoak (which was made, and brought upon them, by their Rebellion against the Lord, and Disobedience to his Law) was still broken, because of the Anointing.

David, Solomon, and the good Kings, were Types of him: David of his conquest over his Spiritual Enemies; Solomon of his Ruling his Israel in Peace, after he had Conquered their Enemies.

Circumcision was a Type of his Circumcising the Heart, that his Children (his holy Seed) might Love the Lord their God, with all their heart, and live.

The Passover, and Blood of the Lamb, was a Type of his Blood, and sprinkled upon the Conscience, which preserveth against the stroak and Power of the Destroyer; and so God passeth over all such, when he visits for Sin and Transgression.

The outward Sabbath was a Type of the Pure Rest, which Christ gives to those that believe in his Name: for indeed, they that truly believe in him, do enter into Rest, and cease from their own Labours and Workings of themselves, and witness Gods Working in them, both to will and to do of his good Pleasure.

The outward Law, in the Letter, written in Tables of Stone, was a shadow of the Inward, Living, Pure, Powerful, Spiritual Law of Love and Life, which God writes in the Hearts of his Children; which constrains them to Obedience, and enables them to do all that God requires of them, with Ease and Delight: For truly the Yoak of his Law is Easy, and the Burthen of his Commandments is Light; so that, they are not at all grievous to them that are under, and in subjection to his Spirit.

When the Mind is gathered, and brought from under the Spirit and Power of darkness, into his Spirit and Power; Oh, how easy is it to Believe, to Love, to Obey, &c. Indeed, there is nothing but Love, and Faith, and Obedience, and Life, and Righteousness, and Holiness, and pure Power, and Peace, and Joy here. For the old things are passed away, and all things are become new in Christ, to them that are in the new Creation in him.

So Canaan, the Holy Land, represented the Land of Life, or Country of Life, into which God gathers, and in which he feeds and preserves all the Living, whom he gathers out of the Territories of Death and Darkness. And the Plenty and Fulness of the Land of Canaan, and the sweet Rivers therein, signified the Abundance of Rich Things, and the Rivers of God's Pleasure, whereof his Redeemed ones Drink, as they come to live, and dwell, and walk and sup in, and with him.

Jerusalem, the Holy City, was a figure of the New Jerusalem, the Spiritual Jerusalem, the Heavenly Jerusalem, which is the Mother of all them that are born of the spirit; and the Hill, whereon Jerusalem was built, signified God's Holy Mountain, whereon this his City is built; and the Inhabitants of the outward Jerusalem, signified the Inhabiters of the new and inward Jerusalem, and the Temple signified Christ's Body, and the Bodyes of the Saints, which are Temples, which the Holy ones dwell in the midst of. And that Altar, in the outward Temple, signified the Altar in this inward Temple; which all the True, Inward, Spiritual Jews have right to Partake of, and none else: The fire in the outward Temple, and the Candlesticks, and the Lights which were never to go out, signified the Holy fire in the spiritual Temple, which comes from Heaven, wherewith all the spiritual sacrifices are to be offered up, and the Candlestick is to hold the Light (and the Priests to keep the Lamps burning) or God will remove it out of its Place. So the Holy Garments of the Priests, signified the tables of Righteousness, Innocency and Purity, wherewith the People of God under the Gospel (who are a Royal Priest-hood to him) are to be cloathed.

And the Ark signified that, which holds the Law of the New Covenant; and the Pot of Manna, with which kind of Food God Fed and nourished the soul in the Wilderness, before he brought it into the Holy Land, must be for an everlasting Memorial in the Land of the Living. For Indeed Christ appeared to, and was with that People in the Wilderness, in a Cloud, by day, and in a Pillar of fire, by night; which signified the Leadings of Gods spirit, in the day of the Gospel, Isa. 4. 5. And she was the Rock that followed them; and he was the Manna of which they did eat, and the Water of which they did drink; for they did eat and drink of the Heavenly things, in a figure, and (as their spirits were at any time opened) had a taste and sense of the True food, in and through the figure; yea, doubtless, at some times, they had all some sense, and did all eat of the same spiritual Meat, as we now eat of, and did all drink of the same Spiritual Drink, as we now drink of, 1 Cor. 10. 3, 4. for they were not only all under the Cloud, and did not only all pass through the Sea; but they were also all Baptized in the Cloud and in the Sea, having a sense of the Pure Power of the Lord, and of his outstretched Arm made bare for them; in which sense they sang his Praise, though they soon afterwards forgat his Works, Psal. 106. 11, 12. So likewise, there was Aaron's Rod that budded laid up in the Ark; which is the evidence of the true Priest-hood and Ministry for ever; and that which is so, is not to be spurned against; but still to be acknowledged, and Honoured as of God.

In it also were the Tables of the Law, in the Representative Ark: in the true Ark, are the Tables of the Law of Life, which God writes by the finger of his Spirit, and appoints to be kept in the spiritual Ark for ever.

Above the Ark was the Mercy-seat, with two Cherubims of Glory, one at each end of it, spreading their wings on high over the Mercy-seat, between whom God dwelt or sate, where God met with, and Communed with Moses, and the Priests, under the Law, when they came to Worship him, and enquire of him: which figured out the true Mercy-seat, under the Gospel, where the true Priests (the true Circumcision, the spiritual Israel of God) have Access with Boldness to the Throne of Grace; that (through the High-Priest of their Profession) they may obtain Mercy and Grace, to help in time of need.

So under the Law, all the Sacrifices (the Sin-offering, the Peace-offering, the Thank-offering, the Heave-offering, the Wave-offering, the whole burnt-offering, the meat-offering, the drink offering, &c.) signified Christ the one Offering, who comprehends them all; and the Holy, Spiritual, Heavenly Offerings, which the Spiritual People (the Priests of the Gospel) are dayly to offer up to God: and the sweet Spices, Frankinsence, and Odours signified the sweet seasonings of the Gospel-Sacrifices, with Grace, with Salt, with the Spirit, with the fresh breathings of Life, with Innocency, with Meekness, with Tenderness, with Zeal, with Faith, with Love, &c. which yields a most Pleasant scent in the Nostrils of the Lord.

Now, in the Bullock and Goat for the Sin-offering, the Blood was to be brought into the Holy Place, to make Atonement; and the Fat and Inwards burnt on the Altar; and the Flesh, Skin, and Dung, carried forth and burnt, without the Camp. What means this? O how Pretious is it to Read the figures of the Heavenly things with true understanding; but to read through the figures (with the eye of Life, with the eye of the Spirit) into the invisible substance; this is sweet, pretious and Heavenly indeed.

Secondly

Secondly, Concerning Chriſts appearance in a Body of Fleſh.

When the time of theſe ſhadows drew towards an end, and the fulneſs of time was come; he who thus appeared in ſeveral Types and Shadows, among that People of the Jews under the Law, he now came down from the Father, debaſed himſelf and cloathed himſelf like a man, partaking of Fleſh and Blood; and was in all things made like unto us (excepting Sin; for he was the Lamb without ſpot) humbling himſelf to come under the Law, and under the Curſe, that he might Redeem thoſe that are under the Law, (and under the Curſe) by fulfilling the Righteouſneſs thereof, and bringing themſelves through into the Righteouſneſs everlaſting.

Now, while he was in the Body, his Glory did ſhine to the eye of the Children of the true Wiſdom: his Diſciples (to whom not fleſh and blood, nor the Wiſdom and Knowledge which they could get from the Letter, but his Father revealed him) they ſaw the hidden Glory? they ſaw through the Vail of his fleſh, and beheld him as the only begotten of the Father, full of Grace and Truth,

Now in this Body he finiſhed the Work which his Father gave him to do, he fulfilled all Righteouſneſs (the Righteouſneſs of the Letter, the Righteouſneſs of the Spirit) that he might bring his through the Righteouſneſs of the Law, or Letter, into the Righteouſneſs of the Spirit and Power, into the Righteouſneſs of the New Life; and here that Scripture is read and fulfilled, I through the Law am dead to the Law, that I might live to God. So his whole Life was a doing the will of the Father, which ſent him.

When he was but twelve years old, he diſputed with the Doctors and teachers of the Law, hearing and asking them Queſtions, (diſcovering the pure Wiſdom of the Father which dwelt in him) becauſe it was his Fathers buſineſs, which he was to be about, as he told his Mother, Luke. 2. 49. And when the Lord led him into the Wilderneſs to be tryed, he went and was Tempted, that he might fight the Battle againſt his great Adverſary. And when the Spirit of the Lord was upon him, moving him to Preach the Goſpel, he Preached the Goſpel in the Spirit and Power of the Father, and went about doing good, and healing all that were oppreſſed of the Devil, as his Fathers Spirit led and guided him: for he did nothing of himſelf, or in his own Will, or for himſelf: but all in the Will and Time of the Father.

Mine hour is not yet come, ſaid he to his Mother, when ſhe was haſty to have him do that Miracle of turning Water into Wine, John. 2. 4. And ſo when his Brethren urged him to go up to the feaſt, John. 7. 3, 4. My time, ſaid he is not yet come: your time is alwayes ready, ver. 5.

Thus he did alwayes pleaſe his Father, and ſeek the honour of him that ſent him, and was Obedient unto Death, even the Death of the Croſs, being willing to drink of the Cup, which his Father gave him to drink: and ſo, having finiſhed his work, he returned from whence he came, and ſate down at the right hand of the Majeſty on high, being exalted above all Principalities and Powers, and Dominions, both in this world, and in that which is to come.

Thirdly, Now the Third Appearance of Chriſt, which theſe two outward Appearances made way for, was his appearance in Spirit, even his Pure, Inward, Heavenly Appearance in the Hearts of his Children. This he bids his Diſciples wait for; telling them, that he would not leave them Comfortleſs, but would come again to them. They had had the Appearance of the Bridegroome in the fleſh: and he was to go away. It could not be helped; it was neceſſary for them, that he ſhouid go away: but (ſaith he) I will come again. The ſame Power and Preſence that is now with you in a Body of Fleſh, ſhall viſit you in Spirit, and ſo abide with you for ever: For he that is now with you ſhall be in you; Till that time ye ſhall have Sorrow, and be like a travelling Woman, but the World in the mean time ſhall rejoyce: but I will ſee you again, and your Heart ſhall re- joyce, and your joy no man takes from you. And was it not ſo? Did not Chriſt ſend the Spirit, the Comforter? did he not come in the Spirit and Power of the moſt high, to be with them alwaies to the end of the World? Did he not bid them, ſtay and wait at Jeruſalem, for that Appearance of him in his Spirit; and not go about his work and meſſage, till he came in the Power and Authority of his Father, to go along with them? And did not their Hearts rejoyce, when he came, with joy unſpeakable, and full of Glory? had they not then the Joy and Peace, which paſſed all the underſtanding of man? which joy and Peace none could take from them? which Joy they were not Promiſed, that they ſhould receive, till he came, and ſaw them again. Yea truly, in the Kingdom, Spirit and Power of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, there is a ſeeing eye to eye; yea it was ſo, in ſome meaſure, with ſome Pretious ones, in the dayes of old, which that Promiſe, Pſal. 32. 8. (I will guide thee with mine eye) intimates; for the eye of the Soul muſt be upon Gods Eye, and obſerve the Motion thereof, if it be guided thereby.

And truly, this Adminiſtration of the Spirit and Power of the Goſpel, is exceeding Glorious; and they that come into it, come into the Glory and Heavenly Dominion, and Authority of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt (and ſo are made Kings by him, and wear Crowns in his Preſence, though they ſtill caſt them at his feet) and are changed from Glory to Glory: and behold as in a Mirror, the Glory of the Lord, which none can do, but with the eye which is in ſome meaſure changed and Glorified.

Now, this Diſpenſation (of the Goſpel, Spirit, and Power) began in the Apoſtles dayes; and the Church was exceeding chaſt, pure, and beautifull then, without ſpot or wrinkle; though there were ſome crept into the outward Court, which were ſpots among them, but that did not Marr the beauty of the reſt; but they could bring Victory and Dominion to him, that ſate on the Throne, and witneſſed that Salvation and Strength, and the Kingdom of our God, and the Power of his Chriſt was come. For the Man-Child was born, and was among them; and the Glorious Woman, (the Church, the Spouſe of Chriſt) Was clothed with the Sun, &c. And had both her Husband (her Lord and Head) and the Man-Child, (the pure Birth of Life) with her. But there was a falling away after this, and a thick dark Night, and a very great and Univerſal Apoſtacy from the Spirit and Power of the Apoſtles; many departing out of the Fear, into the High mindedneſs, and not keeping their ſtanding in the Faith and Love, and Obedience of the Truth, but holding a form of Godlineſs out of the Power.

But God, in his tender Mercies, determined to ſend an Angel to Preach his everlaſting Goſpel again; and in due time ſo did, as is expreſſed, Revel. 14. 6, 7. (Mark, None could Preach the everlaſting Goſpel after the Apoſtacy, by any Ordination, or ſucceſſion of miniſtry left amongſt Men; but there muſt be a new receiving of the Goſpel, by a new Meſſage and Commiſſion from on High:) And God likewiſe ſent forth his Spirit of Judgment and Burning, to Conſume the Whore (the falſe Church) which was grown very great, ſitting over Peoples, Multitudes, Nations and Tongues; and to bring the true Church out of the Wilderneſs, into the injoyment of her Beauty and Glory again. And when ſhe comes again, ſhe comes as a morning without clouds; without any Vail, without any outward Types, or Shadows of the Glory to be revealed, even in the pure and Heavenly Glory it ſelf.

He that hath a true eye, let him read this; and he that hath an heart opened by the Lord, let him acknowledge it: For the Name of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, is exalted, and the knees of his redeemed ones bow to him, and acknowledge him the only Anointed one, the only Lord and King over all, to the Glory of God the Father, Amen.

Concerning

XII.

Concerning Mount Sinai, and Mount Sion.

WAs not Sinai, the Mount that might be touched, an earthly Mount, from whence was the Miniſtration of the Law outward, or in the Letter, which gendred to Bondage, Condemnation and Death? Doth not the Apoſtle Peter, ſay concerning the law, as ſo adminiſtred, That it was a Yoak too heavy for them, or their Fathers to bear? Acts. 15. 10.

Is not the Goſpel Sion, A Spiritual mount, an Heavenly mount, a mount that cannot be touched by humane ſenſes? a Mount from whence is the Miniſtration of the ſpirit, the miniſtration of liberty, the miniſtration of life, the miniſtration of the Glory that excelleth? Is it not the holy mountain, whereon the holy City (the new Jeruſalem) is built, and where the King of Righteouſneſs rules in Righteouſneſs and Peace, over all his ſubjects? where he makes to them the feaſt of fat things, and of wines on the Lees well refreſhed? where he and his ſup together; eating and drinking the bread and wine of the Kingdom, even the living bread, and the fruit of the living Vine?

Is not the whole miniſtration of Life, from the beginning to the end, from mount Sion? Is it, any of it, from mount Sinai?

Is not Sion to be redeemed with Judgment, and her converts with Righteouſneſs? Doth either the judgment, or the Righteouſneſs, wherewith Sion, and her converts are to be redeemed, come from mount Sinai? Do they not both come ſtom mount Sion?

Out of Sion ſhall go forth the Law, and the word of the Lord from Jeruſalem, Iſa. 2. He that underſtandeth this ſcripture knoweth the Goſpel ſtate.

Ye are not come, (ſaid the Apoſtle) to the Mount that might be touched, and that burned with Fire; nor unto blackneſs, and darkneſs, and Tempeſt, and the ſound of a Trumpet, and the voice of Words, &c. but ye are come to mount Sion, and unto the City of the Living God, the Heavenly Jeruſalem. &c. Heb. 12.

Now they that are come thither, they witneſs the Law of the ſpirit of life in Chriſt Jeſus, which maketh free from the Law of Sin and death, and the pure word of eternal Life iſſuing thence, even from that Sion, and Jeruſalem.

Mind that Scripture, Gal. 4. 25, 26. For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and anſwereth to Jeruſalem; which now is and is in bondage with her Children: but Jeruſalem which is above, is free, which is the Mother of us all?

We read, Revel. 11. 19. that the Temple of God was opened in Heaven; and there was ſeen in his Temple the Ark of his Teſtament; and there were Lightnings and Voices, and Thunderings, and an Earthquake, and great Hail. Whence did thoſe Lightnings, Voices, Thunderings, &c. iſſue? out of Sinai, or out of Sion; Doth not the Lyon of the tribe of Judah roar out of Sion, againſt his Enemies, and ſhoot the arrows of his Judgments from thence? and if he judge his Enemies from thence, doth he not judge his People from thence alſo? Is not his fire in Sion, and his furnace in Jeruſalem? and doth not the ſpirit of judgment, and burning (by which he waſheth and purgeth away the blood and filth of the Daughter of Sion) Iſſue forth from thence? O, that men had a true and ſpiritual underſtanding of theſe things, and were taught of God to know and diſtinguiſh concerning the things of his Kingdom.

XIII.

Of the Signification of Mount Sinai, and Mount Sion.

MOunt Sinai was that Mount of earth, which the voice and preſence of the Lord ſhook, at the Miniſtration of the Law outward.

Now, there is an inward earth, which is to be ſhaken alſo, even the Nature which tranſgreſſed, the Nature which was ſubject to Sin, and under the Curſe, the the earth which brings forth Briars and Thornes. Into the earth, the Plough of the Lord is to go, to break it up, and overturn it, that there may be a new earth formed, fit to receive the heavenly ſeed; out of which it may ſpring, and bring forth fruit to God: yea, not only the Earth, but alſo the Heavens are to be ſhaken, yea, and removed too; though the ſhaking of Mount Sinai did not ſignifie that, but only the ſhaking of the earth. But yet once more (ſaith the Lord) I ſhake not Earth only, but alſo Heaven: which ſignifieth, the removing of thoſe things, that may be ſhaken; that thoſe things which cannot be ſhaken, may remain.

There is that which is changeable, and there is that which is unchangeable: the old Earth and the old Heavens are changeable; the new Heavens and the new Earth are unchangeable. There is a changeable mind, a changeable ſpirit, a changeabe nature, a changeable will, a changeable wiſdom, a changeable reaſon and underſtanding (which one while goeth this way, and another while that way) a changeable knowledge of God: which man learns not of the Spirit of the Lord, but after a traditional way, and by the ſearch of his own hunting mind, and drinks into that part which is old and earthly. There is mans kindling a fire there, a beating out ſparks there, with which he compaſſeth about and warmeth himſelf, getting unto himſelf Peace and Joy, Hope and Confidence, &c. But when the Lord appears and his voice is heard (when he ariſeth to ſhake terribly the earth, yea and the Heavens alſo) all theſe will be ſhaken, and fall like untimely Figgs at the ruſhing of a mighty wind and terrible tempeſt.

For the day of the Lord, the day of his pure appearance, the day of the brightneſs of his riſing will be upon all that is high and lofty, upon all that is proud and lifted up above the pure Seed. Every Cedar of Lebanon, and Oake of Baſhan, that is high and lifted up; every high Mountain and Hills that are lifted up, every high Tower and fenced Wall, every ſhip of Tarſhiſh and pleaſant picture, &c. Shall all feel the terror of his Majeſty: and that alone which is of the pure ſeed, gathered into the ſeed, and changed into the nature of the ſeed, that alone ſhall ſtand Nothing elſe ſhall be able to dwell with the devouring fire and everlaſting burnings: So that it may be very well ſaid, Who may abide the day of his coming? and who ſhall ſtand when he appeareth? For he is like a refiners fire, and like fullers ſope: and he cometh with his Fan in his hand, to fan away the chaff; and ſhall ſit as a Refiner and purifier of Silver, to purifie the Sons of Levi, and purge them as Gold and Silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in Righteouſneſs, Pleaſant to the Lord; which none can do, but thoſe that are purified by him.

And happy will they be, whoſe Religion and Worſhip in that day, will ſtand the Tryal and bear the fire. And, Oh bleſſed for ever be the Lord, who is come near to Judgment, and is a ſwift Witneſs againſt all deceit and unrighteouſneſs; but a Juſtifier of them, whoſe conſciences he hath ſprinkled with the blood of Jeſus.

But now, as the Lord taketh away the Old; ſo he bringeth in the New: As he removeth the Old Earth, and the Old Heavens, wherein dwelt Unrighteouſneſs; ſo he formeth and bringeth forth the New Heavens, and the New Earth, wherein dwels Righteouſneſs.

And here the Kingdom is known and received, which can never be ſhaken: Here is the Mount Sion, which ſhall never be removed; and the Jeruſalem, one of whoſe ſtakes or cords ſhall never be plucked up, nor broken. Here is the City which hath everlaſting Foundations, whoſe Builder and Maker is God.

Bleſſed are they that are come hither, and dwell here; who are not come to the Mount that may be touched and ſhaken, and removed, (read inwardly:) but to the holy Mount of God, and whereon all the Buildings of Life are raiſed, and whereon they ſtand firm for ever.

And all that are herein built up, and eſtabliſhed, can truly ſay, and ſing in ſpirit; Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael; and bleſſed by him ſhall be the Habitation of Juſtice, and Mountain of Holineſs, from this time forth for evermore. For Jeruſalem is now become a quiet Habitation, and the King of Glory reigneth therein: for the Lord of Hoſts who hath created the New Heavens, and the New Earth, hath created created Jeruſalem a Rejoycing, and her People a Joy; and they ſhall be glad and rejoyce, and bleſs themſelves in him, for ever and ever. Amen, Amen.

XVI.

Concerning the Temple, and Sacrifices under the Goſpel.

God's Temple, under the Goſpel, is the Light of his Son, the Spirit of his Son; and thoſe ſouls which are renewed, and built up an Habitation for him, in the ſpirit of his Son; and thoſe bodies, in which renewed minds and ſpirits dwell. God is Light, and he dwelleth in Light: God is Spirit, and his building is holy and ſpiritual; for he dwelleth in nothing that is dark, or corrupt, or unclean.

And that which is Sacrificed or offered up to God, muſt be clean and pure. No unclean thought, no unclean deſire, nothing that is earthly, or fleſhly, or ſelfiſh, muſt be offered up to God; but the pure breathings of his own ſpirit: For whatſoever is of him, and comes from him, is accepted with him; but whatever man can invent, or form, or offer up of his own, or of himſelf (though it be never ſo glorious and taking in mans eye, yet) it is but Abomination in the Sight of the Lord.

Thus all the Sacrifices of the Gentiles (or Heatheniſh Nature) are rejected: thus all the Sacrifices of the Jews outward (or of the profeſſing mind and nature, without the true Life) are rejected alſo.

Wherewith ſhall I come before the Lord (ſaid the Prophet of the Lord of Old,) and bow my ſelf before the High God? Shall I come before him with Burnt-Offerings; with Calves of a Year Old? Will the Lord be pleaſed with Thouſands of Rams, with ten thouſands of Rivers of Oyl? Shall I give my firſt-born for my tranſgreſſion, the Fruit of my Body, for the Sin of my Soul? Mic. 6. 6, 7.

What ſaith the Anſwer of God? No, no: This is not the way to come to Pardon of Sin, or to acceptance with the Lord: But come to that, which teacheth what is good, and what the Lord requires of thee, O man; which is to do Juſtly, and to love Mercy, and to walk Humbly with the Lord: Come thither in the teachings of God's Spirit, and worſhip there, and there thou ſhalt witneſs Forgiveneſs of ſins, and acceptance with the Lord, Mic. 6. 7, 8. and Iſa. 1. 16, 17, 18. For it was not offering Sacrifices of old (appointed under the Law) that would do the thing, nor mens pleading the Sacrifice of Chriſt under the Goſpel: But coming to that Spirit, which teacheth holyneſs, and being ſubject to that ſpirit, and offering in that Spirit, (to the Father) what proceeds there-from. So that his building in the ſpirit, is the only Temple, and the Sacrifices or Offerings in the Spirit, are the only Offerings of the New Teſtament.

And here, every Groan, or Sigh towards the Lord, after that which is pure, every Supplication in the Spirit, every acknowledgement of the Goodneſs of the Lord, in a true and pure ſenſe, are of a ſweet ſavour in the Noſtrils of the Lord: Yea, uſing Hoſpitality, relieving the Poor, or doing any thing that is good, from the good and holy root, are Sacrifices acceptable to the Lord. Read theſe Scriptures following, (and if the Lord open thine eyes, thou mayeſt thereby come to ſee, both what the Temple and Sacrifices are) 1 Cor. 3. 16. and 2 Cor. 6. 16. Iſa. 5. 7, 15. Epheſ. 2. 21, 22. Heb. 3. 6. Rev. 21. 22. Joh. 4. 23. Pſal. 90. 1. Theſe places foregoing are for the Temple: Then for the Sacrifices, Pſal. 50. 14, 15. and 51. 16, 17. and 141. 2. Mal. 1. 11. Heb. 10. 8, 9. Rom. 12. 1. 1 Cor. 6. 19, 20. 1 Pet. 2. 5. Heb. 13. 15. Philip. 4. 18.

XV.

Some Queſtions concerning the Light of Chriſt's Spirit anſwered, according to the Teſtimony of the Scriptures of Truth, and according to Experience.

Queſt. 1. WHat is the Meſſage, which Chriſt ſent his Apoſtles to declare; whom he ſent to preach the Goſpel.

Anſw. This is the Meſſage, which they heard of him, and which they declared unto others; That God is Light, and in him is no Darkneſs at all.

Queſt. 2. What was Chriſt's Intent, in ſending them with this Meſſage? And for what end were they to declare it to others?

Anſw. For the opening of Mens Eyes and Hearts, that Men might come to a Sight and Senſe of the Darkneſs, and to a Sight and Senſe of the Light; and might be turned from Darkneſs to Light, (and ſo from Satan's Power, to God,) and might come out of the one, into the other (that is, out of the Darkneſs, into the Light) and ſo might walk in the Light, as God is in the Light.

Queſt. 3. What is the Danger of Abiding in darkneſs?

Anſw. In the Darkneſs is Sin, Death, Condemnation, and Deſtruction of the Soul, and Separation from God and Chriſt for ever.

Queſt. 4. What is the Benefit of being turned to the Light, and of coming into the Light, and walking in the Light, as God is in the Light?

Anſw. The Benefits are great and many; three whereof I may now mention, which comprehend and contain in them many more.

Firſt, In the Light, Remiſſion of Sins is received; For there is the Blood of Sprinkling, wherewith thoſe are ſprinkled that come thither: and indeed none can walk and abide there, but they come to witneſs the Blood of Jeſus Chriſt, God's Son, cleanſing them from all Sin; and true, real cleanſing, is no where elſe witneſſed.

Secondly, They have Fellowſhip with the Father, and the Son, and come alſo into Fellowſhip with the Saints in Light: which are great Myſteries, and none knows what they mean, but ſuch as are in that Holy Fellowſhip.

Thirdly, They there receive the Earneſt of the Everlaſting Inheritance, and the Sealing up by God's Holy Spirit, unto the Day of full Redemption.

Queſt. 5. Where is the Darkneſs, which men are to be turned from?

Anſw. It is Within, chiefly Within; there is Satans Kingdom; there is the Houſe, which the Strong Man armed keepeth, where his Goods are in Peace, till a Stronger than he commeth to trouble, and diſpoſſeſs him.

Queſt. 6. How, or where is the Light to be met with, which Man is to be turned to?

Anſw. It appears Within alſo; it ſhines in the darkneſs: For thither Chriſt (the Stronger) comes, with the Light of his Spirit, to overcome, and diſpoſſeſs the Strong Man of his Houſe, and Kingdom.

Queſt. 7. When doth the Light of Chriſt's Spirit ſhine in the Darkneſs of Man's Heart?

Anſw. When, and as God pleaſeth. For the Light is his, and he cauſeth it to ſhine (in the Hearts of the Sons and Daughters of Men) according to his Pleaſure: And therefore men are to wait for the ſhining of this Pure, Heavenly Light in their hearts, that with it the Darkneſs may be reſiſted, overcome, and ſubdued in them, and ſcattered and diſpelled from them, and their Hearts filled with the Light and Power of Life.

Queſt. 8. How may a Man perceive, or know the Light, when it ſhines?

Anſw. By its ſhining: For Light (both outward and inward) manifeſts both it ſelf, and other things by its own ſhining. And as there is no diſcerning the things of this World, but by the Light of the World: So there is no diſcerning the things of the other World, but by the Light of the other World; That is, there is no diſcerning Spiritual Things, but by the Light of the Spirit of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, which which God cauſeth to ſhine in the Heart; which Light ſearcheth the Heart and tryeth the Reins, and diſcovereth the moſt hidden things there.

Object. But the Heart is deceitful above all things, and Satan can transform himſelf into the Likeneſs of an Angel of Light; ſo that he ſhines inwardly too, by his feigned appearances: how then may I know the ſhinings of the true Light of Chriſt's Spirit in my Heart, from his falſe Shinings and Transformings?

Anſw. God hath a Witneſs in Mens Conſciences: For, as God hath not left himſelf without Witneſs outwardly, but all his Works teſtifie of him (his Works of Goodneſs, Love, Mercy, Power, &c. Teſtifie of his Goodneſs, Love, Mercy, Power, &c.) So he hath not left himſelf without Witneſs, inwardly; but there is ſomewhat in Men to teſtifie of God and for God, and againſt his Enemy, and all deceitful appearances: Which Witneſs alwaies ſpeaketh faithfully, and teſtifieth Truth.

Therefore, He that cometh to diſcern that, and mind that, ſhall find that near him, which will alwayes Witneſs for God upon every occaſion, and againſt all the appearances and devices of the Enemy.

Now, no Man can come to diſcern or diſtinguiſh in Caſes of this Nature, but as that which is of God, and for God, gives the Judgment in him; and he that judgeth thus, ſhall never judge according to the Shews and Appearances of things; but ſhall ſtill judge the true and righteous Judgment.

Queſt. 9. What is the Nature and Properties of the Light of Chriſt's Spirit, and What will it do in the Hearts of thoſe that turn to it, receive it, and walk in it?

Anſw. It hath a moſt excellent Nature and Properties, and it will work wonderfully, in the hearts of thoſe, that receive it, and walk in it towards the redeeming and ſaving them from Sin, and the Powers of Darkneſs: So that, following this Light, and abiding and walking in it, they cannot be overcome by the Enemy of their Souls, but muſt needs conquer and overcome him. To inſtance in ſome, Firſt, It hath an inlightening or manifeſting Property. It will diſcover all that is of God, and likewiſe all that is againſt him; It will diſcover the very Myſtery of Death, and the moſt ſubtile Workings of the Enemy in the Myſtery of Darkneſs, and Deceivableneſs of Unrighteouſneſs: And it will diſcover the Myſtery of Life, and the Myſtery of the Way of Holineſs. So that not only the Precepts of Holineſs, but the Way of the Precepts, the Way of Obeying the holy Will and Spirit of God in every thing, is here learned.

Secondly, It hath an awakening Property. This Light will not let a man ſleep in ſin, or grow heavy and dull, (if he hearken to it) but it awakens him that ſleeps: And whoever is truly awakned at any time, is awakened by this Light; by the ſhining thereof in his Heart, by the Manifeſtation of God to his Spirit by it. This teſtimony Paul gives, Epheſ. 5. 13, 14. Whatſoever doth make manifeſt is Light. Wherefore, he ſaith; Awake thou that ſleepeſt, &c.

Thirdly, It hath a quickening Property: For it is the Light of Life, the Light of Chriſt's Spirit, which is living and powerful: and it hath Life and Power in it, and quickeneth and raiſeth the man, to whom it reacheth, and giveth him Ability to ariſe from the Dead.

Fourthly, It hath a Cleanſing, a Sanctifying, a Purifying Property. O how clean it makes within. The Light is pure, and it maketh pure. All the Defilement and Corruption, is in the Darkneſs: None of it is in the Light; but the Light purgeth it away, where it findeth Entertainment.

Fifthly, It hath an uniting, and ſeparating Property. It unites to God, it unites to that which is pure; and it ſeparates from Sin, Satan, Darkneſs, and whatever is impure.

Sixthly, It hath a preſerving Nature and Property. It preſerves the man in whom it dwels, and where it hath power, and rules, it keeps out the darkneſs; ſo that darkneſs cannot break in, where it hath place, and is kept to: Nor can the mind break out from the Lord, which keeps in the ſenſe, ſavour and ſeaſoning of the Light of his Spirit.

Indeed time would fail me, to ſpeak of the excellent Nature, Vertues and Properties thereof: But, come taſt and ſee, how ſweet the Light is, and what a pleaſant thing it is to behold the ſhinings of this Son.

Queſt. 10. Doth God viſit all Men with this Light?

Anſw. Yes, As God loveth all Men, and would have all men ſaved; ſo he viſiteth all men (more or leſs) with that which is able to diſcover the darkneſs to them, and to ſave them therefrom.

Queſt. 11. What is the Reaſon then, that all Men are not ſaved by it?

Anſw. Becauſe they do not receive it, and joyn to it againſt the darkneſs; but joyn to the darkneſs, and hearken to the Wiſdom and Reaſonings thereof againſt the appearances and diſcoveries of the Light.

Queſt. 12. How comes it that Men do ſo?

Anſw. From their Love to the Darkneſs, and to the Deeds of Darkneſs; which they know, they ſhould not love; becauſe they have ſomewhat near them, which often ſhews them the evil, both of the Darkneſs that is in them, and of the Deeds that come from it. So that, this is the Condemnation, that men love the Darkneſs, cleave to the Darkneſs, and follow the Darkneſs; but hate theLight, and turn from the Light, which in the Love, and Mercy of God follows them, to bring them out of Love with the Darkneſs, and to bring them into the ſenſe of, and Fellowſhip with him in the Light.

Queſt. 13. How come ſome to love the Light?

Anſw. God affordes a Capacity therein to all, and God is Love; and from the Flowings of his Love, and aboundings of his Mercy to all, are Men begotten to him; and the Obedient are kept by him in Subjection to that, which many Reſiſting the ſtrivings of his Spirit with them, are finally given up to hardneſs of heart, who turn from, and hate the Light. So that to God, and his Grace is to be Attributed the Salvation of all that are ſaved; and to man, his own Deſtruction, and periſhing from the Way of Life, notwithſtanding the tender Viſitations of God, to recover and reconcile Man to himſelf, through the blood of his Son.

Queſt. 14. Againſt whom do they rebel, that rebel againſt the Light?

Anſw. They rebel againſt Chriſt, from whom the Light comes; and Will Chriſt ſave ſuch as rebel againſt him? O that Men did aright conſider this thing: For it is a greater matter to know, and be ſubject to the Light of Chriſt's Spirit, as it ſhines from him in the Heart, then men are aware of: Now that which diſcovers the hidden things of darkneſs in the heart, and reproves for it, is the Light of Chriſt's Spirit, and not another. O that all that deſire to know what, and where the true Light is, did underſtand ſo!

Queſt. 15. What do they miſs of, who do not know, nor heed the Light of Chriſt's Spirit, nor mind the reproofs thereof in their hearts; but look on it, as inferior in kind and nature, to what it is?

Anſw. They miſs of many great and precious priviledges, which they that know it, and have received it, and ſo walk in it, and are ſubject to it, do experience, and are acquainted with.

Firſt, They miſs of knowing the wayes of it: For, in this Light, there are Wayes or Paths of Holineſs, Paths of Life, Paths of Righteouſneſs, Paths of Peace, Paths of Joy, Paths of Refreſhment, and Conſolation; wherein all theſe things are daily met with, by thoſe that walk there; which they that know not the Light, (or rebel againſt the Light) are not acquainted with. See Job 24. 13.

Secondly, They miſs of the lighting of their Candle by it: For God lights his Candle in the Heart by this Light, and by no other thing; ſo that, in this his Light, they whoſe Candle is lighted by him, See Light.

David had experience of this, and from that experience ſpake; Thou wilt light my Candle; the Lord my God, will enlighten my Darkneſs, Pſal. 18. 28. And Job had experience of this alſo, as thoſe words of his plainly ſignifie, Job 29. 2, &c. where he ſaith; O that I were, as in the dayes paſt, when his Candle ſhined upon my Head, and by his Light I walked through Darkneſs. And all the Children of God, who who in this day wait for the ſhinings of the Light of his Spirit in their hearts, and are ſubject to him therein, they experience the ſame, and know the Word of Life (which is nigh in the Mouth and Heart) to be a Lanthorn to the Feet, and a Light to the Paths of the loweſt and meaneſt here.

Thirdly, They miſs of ſending forth, or Revelation of that from God, which leads to his holy Hill, and to his Tabernacles, which David experienced, and deſired more of, Pſal. 43. 3. For, Who ſhall dwell in God's holy Hill, or abide in his Tabernacle? Pſal. 15. 1. He that walketh uprightly, and worketh Righteouſneſs, and ſpeaketh the Truth in his heart, &c. he ſhall never be moved, ver. 2. to the end, & Iſa. 33. 15. &c. But how ſhall any come thither? Surely by God's Light and Truth ſent forth from his Spirit into their Spirits; this is the way of aſcending thither in all Ages and Generations.

Fourthly, They ſlight that meaſure of Light given them, and deſpiſe the day of ſmall things; and therefore miſs of the pouring forth of God's Spirit upon them, which is plentifully poured forth upon the Sons and Daughters of the ſpiritual and heavenly Jeruſalem, in this day of Gods viſiting the Earth again, after the Apoſtacy; bleſſed be the Name of the Lord. And how comes it to be poured forth upon them? How comes wiſdom to pour out her ſpirit unto them? Why, they hearken to her reproofs, turning thereat, and forſaking that which they are reproved for, and ſo come into Wiſdom, Fear: and then Wiſdom opens her ſecrets, and pours out her Spirit, and makes known her words to thoſe that are ſubject to her reproofs and learn her Fear, which is the Fear of the New Covenant. See Prov. 1. 23. He that receiveth the convincer of Sin, and followeth his leadings, out of the ſins he is convinced of (and into the paths of Righteouſneſs and holyneſs, into which he is the leader) cannot miſs of the Comforter, or of his Comforts; for he is one and the ſame with the Convincer, or Reprover.

XVI.

The Way to know one's Election, and to be fully aſſured of it: As alſo, concerning Election it ſelf.

David ſaith, The Lord hath ſet apart him that is godly for himſelf, Pſal. 4. This is God's choice. God is the great Potter, who formeth Veſſels upon the Wheel of his power: ſome to honour, ſome to diſhonour; but not before they were. Some he melteth and tendereth for ſalvation, who hearken to his voice: others he hardeneth and giveth up for deſtruction, who rebel againſt his ſpirit. O, how ſhould all fear before him, who hath power over them, as the Potter over the Clay, that they ſhould reverence and obey him, leſt his power break them to pieces!

Now this is moſt certain: The holy man, the righteous man, the godly man, he that is renewed in the ſpirit of his mind; this is a Veſſel of Honour, fitted and choſen by God unto honour: but he that is corrupt, dead, filthy, polluted, &c. This is the Veſſel, which God rejects. For the Righteous God loveth Righteouſneſs for ever, and the holy God loveth holineſs for ever; and he that is holy and righteous, is of him, and choſen by him: But all that is unholy and unrighteous, is of another nature and ſpirit; and ſo rejected, and caſt out by his pure nature and ſpirit.

Therefore, every one that would be accepted of the Lord and witneſs his Choice, is to mind that, and be ſubject to that, whereby God fitteth Veſſels for himſelf; which is the holy Spirit, Nature, and Life of his Son, wherein every man is accepted (as he is called thither, gathered thither, and found there) and none Rejected: But out of this every man is Rejected, but none Accepted; For God is no Reſpecter of Perſons.

He carrieth himſelf equally to every Jew, under the old Covenant: And he carrieth himſelf equally towards all, who obey the Call of his ſpirit, into the new and living Covenant: ſo that the Truth ſtandeth for ever, that in every Nation, Tongue and People, he that feareth God, and worketh Righteouſneſs is accepted of him, and none elſe. And this is the great mercy and tender love of God to all Men, that which bringeth into his Fear, and teacheth and enableth to work Righteouſneſs, is near every man, which is the word of Faith, the word of Life, the word of Power, the word of Reconciliation: So that no man need go far to ſeek out Salvation; for Chriſt the Saviour and Salvation of God is nigh to every man, in the Light of that Holy Spirit of Truth, wherewith God viſiteth Mankind, and wherein he ſpeaketh Peace and Reconciliation, both to them that are nigh, and to them that are afar off, as they hear the Voice of the Spirit of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and learn ſubjection to it.

Give all diligence to make your Calling and Election ſure, ſaid the Apoſtle Peter, 2 Pet. 1. 10. How ſhall we do that, may ſome ſay? Why, give all diligence to add to your Faith Vertue, and to Vertue Knowledge, and to Knowledge Temperance, and to Temperance Patience, and to Patience Godlineſs, and to Godlineſs Brotherly-kindneſs, and to Brotherly-kindneſs Love. For if theſe things be in you and Abound, ye cannot be barren in the knowledge of Chriſt, but muſt needs be Fruitful. Well, but what then? What if they be Fruitful? Why, if they be Fruitful, then (to be ſure) they are Choſen Branches: For God caſts off none, but that which is Dry, Barren, Dead, and Unfruitful. Feel Life, which is active and bears Fruit, thou feeleſt the Choice of God, thou anſwereſt the end of thy Call, &c. and herein as thou comeſt to ſettlement and eſtabliſhment, thou wilt find thy Calling and Election made ſure to thee, and an entrance miniſtered to thee abundantly, into the everlaſting Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt. For Chriſt hath the Key of the Kingdom: and ſhutteth out no ſuch as theſe, but giveth them further Admittance day by day. And ſo by this means, thou wilt witneſs Tranſlation further and further out of the Kingdom of Darkneſs, into the Kingdom of Gods dear Son, and an Inheritance and Poſſeſſion of Life and Glory in meaſure, which will be an earneſt to thee of the full Inheritance in due time, and a Seal upon thy Heart unto the day of full Redemption. Yea, thou may'ſt then alſo come to ſee, how thou waſt Loved and Choſen in Chriſt before the Foundation of the World, through Obedience unto, and Sanctification of the Spirit, manifeſted in time, 2 Theſ. 2 13. (For known unto God are all his Works from the Beginning, before ever any of them were wrought:) If thou feel that which cometh forth from the Lord to call, and gather to him, and to renew and Sanctify, and make fit for him, and to make thee fruitful (from the Holy Root and Power of Life) in that which is good; this is enough for thee, and thy ſoul is ſafe and bleſſed here: for here thou knoweſt that, and art in that bleſſed ſeed of Promiſe, into which all that are gathered, and abide, are bleſſed in and with it.

Now, as concerning Election it ſelf, obſerve this; that it is in Chriſt, and not out of him. For it was the intent of God to Honour his Son, even as his Son Honoured him: and this was the Honour which God gave him, That he ſhould be his Salvation to the ends of the Earth: that whoſoever believed on Him ſhould not Periſh, but have Everlaſting Life; That he ſhould be the way for all Mankind to come to the Father, through Faith in him; that as in Adam all died, ſo in Chriſt all might be made alive; and as in Adam all Men were ſhut up in Death and Condemnation, ſo the free Gift might come upon all, and the way of Life and Redemption be opened to all, in Him Mind the Figure, the Brazen-ſerpent, which was not lifted up, that a certain Number might be Healed, and no more; but that every one that was Wounded, every one that was ſtung with Serpents, might look up, and be Healed.

So was Chriſt lifted up, that every Sinner that was ſtung with Sin, and the Serpent, might look up to the Phyſitian of Souls, and receive Vertue and Healing from him; according to that precious Scripture; Look unto me, and be ye Saved, All the Ends of the Earth: And, Whoever is a Thirſt, let him come, and whoever will, let him come, and Drink of the Water of Life freely. Yea, God ſtands ready, by his holy Spirit, and quickning Power, which is near Men, to kindle the true Thirſt in them, and to make them truly willing. To open it yet further;

There is Predeſtination, Election, Calling, Juſtifying, Glorifying: Predeſtination unto unto Holiness, Election in that which is Holy, Calling out of Darkness into Light, Justifying and Glorifying in the Light, Through the renewing, and Sanctification of the Spirit. All these God ordereth, and manageth according to his good Will, and according as he hath purposed in himself; although he be not the Decreer, nor Author of Sin, or Rebellion against himself, which is the cause of the Creatures Condemnation.

Thus all things are as present with God, before they were; for God did foreknow Adam's Fall (though he was not therefore the Author of it) before it came to pass; and he fore-knew how his Power, and Love, and Mercy should work towards Men, and for Men, in, and through Christ; and how far he would visit Men therewith, and how far Men would resist and strive against his Holy, and Good Spirit; and he determined how long his Spirit should strive with Nations, and Persons: for with some, he would long wait to be Gracious, with others he would be quicker, and more severe, according to their Provocations.

Now, his Love, his Mercy, his Power, his Good Spirit are his own; and he may shew forth the Operations of them towards Men, according to his Pleasure: And who may say unto him, What dost thou? May he not do with his own what he pleaseth (who is Good and Righteous in all his Wayes?) And because he may shew Mercy as long as he will, and Harden as soon as he will (as he sees Cause.) May it not be truly said; That he hath Mercy, on whom he will have Mercy; and whom he will, he hardeneth? But, that he hardeneth any, without first giving them a Day of Mercy, and Visitations of Mercy, following them with Mercy, and forbearing them in Mercy, and so by the Riches of his Goodness, Forbearance, and long Suffering, leading them to Repentance, that they might escape his Wrath, and the Dread of his powerful Vengeance, because of Sin: I say, that God hardens any, before he hath dealt thus with them, from a Meer Will in himself; because he would Destroy the most, and far greatest part of Men: This the Scriptures no where testify to, but abundantly testify against: For, How long did God strive with the Old World even to have Saved them, whom afterwards he did Destroy? And, How did he strive with that People of the Jews, (yea, and with other Nations also, though they might seem cast off?) As I Live, saith the Lord, (and he speaketh his Heart) I desire not the Death of the Wicked; but rather that they might return and Live. I am not the Destroyer, I am the Saviour; and My Delight is not to Destroy, but to Save. O Israel! thy Destruction is of thy self; but in Me is thy Help: And no Man's Blood will lye at God's Door, but at his Own.

Therefore, as God hath prepared a Saviour; so there is no want of Love, or Mercy, or Power on his part to draw Men to the Saviour; but this is the Condemnation, that Men harden themselves against the drawings of his Spirit, and against the Operation of his holy Light and Power, when it appeareth, and is willing to work in and upon their hearts. This is not the condemnation of Men: that Light doth not shine in their hearts; but that they love the darkness, more then the light which appears and shines in them, and is there witnessing against a drawing from the darkness. And so when it shall at last be made manifest, how Light hath appeared to all Men, and Gods Spirit therein, and thereby striven with all men and how they have refused, and would not be turned from their darkness to the light of the Lord: every mouth will be stopped before him, and all men that perish, justly condemned, for refusing and neglecting so great Salvation: for the light of the Sun of God's everlasting day, and the sound of his Spirit of life, visiting dark man, reacheth throughout all the Earth, and his voice, and words to the ends of the World.

XVII. Some

XVII.

Some Obſervations concerning the Prieſt Hood of Chriſt, from ſeveral Paſſages in the Epiſtle to the Hebrews

Obſ. 1. WHo is the Apoſtle, and High Prieſt of our Profeſſion? It is Jeſus Chriſt, the Son of God, whom God hath appointed Heir of all things, by whom he made the Worlds; and who is the expreſs Image of his Fathers ſubſtance, &c. Heb. 1. and Chap. 3. 1.

Obſ. 2. Why this High Prieſt was to ſuffer Death? which was, that he might taſt Death for every man, and ſo, through ſuffering become a Perfect Saviour, or Perfect Captain of Salvation, to all the Sons, that were to be brought by him to Glory, Chap. 2. 9, 10.

Obſ. 3. Why he partooke of Fleſh and Blood? one reaſon whereof was; becauſe the Children (and that therein he might ſhew them an example of Righteouſneſs, that he might condemn himſelf in the Fleſh) were partakers of Fleſh and Blood; for that was the very Ground or Reaſon, that he took part of the ſame. Another Reaſon was that, which was mentioned before; that he might taſt Death, and through Death deſtroy him, who had the Power of Death, and ſo break open the Priſon doors, and deliver thoſe who were Captives under him; Chap. 2. 14, 15.

Obſ. 4. Why he was tempted, and why in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his Brethren? which was, that he might be a Merciful and Faithful High Prieſt, in things pertaining to God, to make Reconciliation for the ſins of the People: For his own ſuffering under Temptations (even the ſenſe thereof) renders him Merciful, Tender, Faithful, and ready to help and ſuccour his in all their Temptations Chap. 2. 17, 18.

Mark, Chriſt was not only to Die, and ſo offer up a Sacrifice of Attonement; but he was alſo to make Reconciliation by it ever afterwards for his Children, (in caſe of tranſgreſſion) when ever occaſion ſhould be. So ſaith John, If any man ſin, we have an Advocate with the Father, (to plead for the forgiving and blotting out of the Sin) and he is the Propitiation (or Reconciliation) for our Sins; as the old tranſlation renders it, 1 John. 2. 1, 2.

Obſ. 5. Chriſt, our Apoſtle, and High-Prieſt, is as Faithful over all his houſe, as Moſes was over his. There is not one of the Children, not one of his family, but he will teach: not one Soul belonging to him, but he will ſuccour, being tempted; nor any one, but he will be an Advocate, and Reconciliation for (in caſe of Sin) in, and according to the way that God hath appointed, Heb. 3. 2.

Obſ. 6. Who are Chriſt's Houſe? over whom is he, an Apoſtle, and High-Prieſt? It is over his own houſe, whoſe houſe are all ſuch as are called by him, if they receive and hold faſt that which gives a Right to him, and intereſt in him, Chap. 3. 6, and ver. 14. For as under the Law, the High-Prieſt was Prieſt only over the outward Iſrael, the Jews Natural; ſo under the Goſpel Chriſt is appointed of God High-Prieſt over the inward Jews, the Jews ſpiritual.

Obſ. 7. How this Apoſtle, or High-Prieſt of our profeſſion, doth work in the hearts of his family, or houſhold? which is by the word of Life, by the Word of his own eternal power, which pierceth deep, and divideth between ſoul and ſpirit, joynts and marrow, diſcerning and judging every thought and intent, and bringing every high reaſoning, and imagination into captivity, that the Heart, Soul, Mind and Spirit, with all the thoughts and intents thereof, may become ſubject to his Spirit and Power, Chap. 4. 12.

Obſ. 8.

Obſer. 8. What an Advantage we have by having ſuch an High-Prieſt (as was tempted like us, and touched with the ſenſe of our infirmities) of coming boldly to the Throne of Grace, that we may obtain Mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. For he who experimentally knew, what the weakneſs of our fleſh is, and what it was to be tempted therein, and how needful and ſeaſonable help from his Father then was; ſurely he cannot but be ready to give out, and multiply Grace and Mercy to his in the time of their need, chap. 4. 15, 16.

Obſer. 9. How Chriſt came to be an High-Prieſt, which was not by his own taking the honour to himſelf, but by Gods glorifying him with the Call thereto; 5. 4, 5.

Obſer. 10. How God fitted Chriſt, and made him a perfect High-Prieſt? which was by preparing for him a body of fleſh, and exerciſing him in the dayes of his fleſh, with many tryals and temptations, and at laſt with a bitter Baptiſm, and Cup of Death, in which he felt, and bare the griefs and ſorrows of his People, and cryed mightily to his Father, and was heard in that he feared: And ſo having himſelf perfectly learned Obedience to his Father, he knows how to become the Author of eternal Salvation to all that obey him. For Chriſt, who was heard and ſaved from Death in his Obedience to his Father, is appoynted to be the Leader, and Saviour of his People, to ſave and redeem them in their Obedience unto him, the Leader into, and in the Way and paths of Life, chap. 5. 7, 8, 9.

Obſer. 11. Where Chriſt mediates for his People? which is within the Vail, in the heavenly place, in the holieſt of all, where the Author of our Hope reacheth to him, and faſteneth upon him, and there remains ſure and ſtedfaſt: ſo that, we are ſtaid upon him, the Rock of Life and Power, againſt all the ſtorms and tempeſts of the Powers of Darkneſs, both inward and outward, chap. 6. 19, 20.

Obſer. 12. After what Order Chriſt was made an High-Prieſt? which was, after the Order of Melchizedeck, who was King of Righteouſneſs, and King of Peace: even after an Holy and Heavenly Order. Not after the Order of the earthly Prieſt-Hood, the High-Prieſts whereof were taken from amongſt Men: but after his Order, who was made mention of without Father, without Mother, without Deſcent, (for who can declare his Generation?) without beginning of Dayes, or end of Life, chap. 7. 1, 2, 3, and 15.

Obſer. 13. That this Prieſt put an end to, and changed the Laws of the other, earthly, ſhadowy Prieſt-Hood of Levi, by which, Perfection was not; that he might bring in that Prieſt-Hood of his own, by which, perfection was to be; chap. 7. ver. 11, &c.

Obſer. 14. How Chriſt was made Prieſt after a different manner from the Prieſts of the Law: For they were made Prieſts after the Law of a carnall Commandment; but Chriſt was not made Prieſt ſo, but after the power of an endleſs Life, Chap. 7. 16.

Obſer. 15. That the work of Chriſt's Prieſthood continueth untill it be finiſhed; that is, till this high Prieſt hath ſaved all whom he is to ſave which is thus: As in all ages the Father draweth ſouls to him, ſo he is to ſave them; to deſtroy their Enemies, to blot out their ſins, to break down what ſtands between God and them, and ſo to bring them into the true oneneſs; for God will never be reconciled to his enemy, the Devil, nor to man while in union with him, Chap. 7. 24, 25.

Obſer. 16. That this High-Prieſt needeth not to offer many Sacrifices to attone by, as the Prieſts under the Law needed to do often: for he was a perfect Prieſt, and offered up one perfect, spotless Sacrifice, and is a propitiation for the sins of the whole World, Chap. 7. 27, 28.

and

Obs. 17. What Sanctuary is Christ the high Priest and Minister of? which is of that Sanctuary and true Tabernacle, which the Lord pitcheth and not man, Chap. 8. 2.

Obs. 18. What he hath to offer: for every high Priest was ordained to offer both Gifts and Sacrifices? He hath the heavenly Gifts and Sacrifices to offer; even all the gifts and spiritual Sacrifices that are revived and brought forth by him in the holy Place, even in his Temple or Spiritual House within the Vail; he is to offer them all up to his Father, ver. 3, &c.

Obs. 19. What Covenant he is Mediator of? even a better Covenant than the Priests under the Law were Mediators of, which is established upon better promises; a Covenant, wherein there is no Defectiveness or imperfection, wherein all shall certainly be redeemed and saved by him, who come to him in the drawing of the Father and abide with him: For in such, God will put his Laws into their minds, and write them in their Hearts, and will be their God, and they shall be his People; and will so teach them, that they shall need no other teacher; but shall all know him from the least to the greatest; For as men come into this Covenant, God will be merciful to their Unrighteousness, and their Sins, and their Iniquities will he remember no more, ver. 6. to the end.

Obs. 20. That Christ is not an High-Priest of the figures of things, but of the good things themselves (which came in the time of reformation) even of the perfect Covenant, the perfect Tabernacle, and of the Worship and Service in Spirit and Truth: where the perfect Refiner (by his Spirit of Judgment and Burning) purifieth the Sons of Levi, that they may offer to God an offering in Righteousness, chap. 9. 9, 10, 11. and Mal. 3. 3.

So that, there is a different state witnessed, by the People of God, in this Covenant, from what was witnessed by the Jews in the other Covenant: For what was amiss there, is reformed here by the Spirit and Power of our God, in all those that abide and walk in this Covenant: who live in the Spirit, and walk in the Spirit and do not fulfil the Lusts of the Flesh, which grive and provoke God's holy Spirit.

Obs. 21. How Christ came to obtain Eternal Redemption for all his? which was by his Blood. For as the High Priest under the Law, entered into the Holy Place of that Tabernacle made with hands, by the Blood of Goates and Calves, and so obtained Remission for the sins of that outward People the Jews: So Christ entered into the truly holy Place, into the greater and more perfect Tabernacle, and there by his Blood obtained remission, for all that should receive Repentance from him, and believe in him; ver 11. 12.

Obs. 22. How Christ purifieth, purgeth, and sanctifieth the people with his Blood? which is, by sprinkling it upon them. For under the Law, in that outward Covenant, the unclean were sprinkled with the Blood of the Sacrifice, that they might be Sanctified to the purifying of the flesh: And under the Gospel, in this inward Covenant, believers are sprinkled with the Blood of the Lamb, that their Consciences might be purged from dead Works, to serve the Living God, as his cleansed, holy, renewed People? ver. 13, 14.

Obs. 23. For what cause Christ was Mediator of the new Testament? which was, that by meanes of Death, for the Redemption of the Transgressions under the first Testament, they which are called might receive the promise of Eternal Inheritance, ver. 15. For God hath made Christ a Propitiation for all men, both Jews, and Gentiles, that through Faith in his Blood, his Righteousness might be declared for the remission of Sins, that are past, through the forbearance of God, that he might be Juſt, and a Juſtifier of him, who is of the Faith of Jeſus, Rom. 3. 15, 16. So that they that were under the firſt Covenant, hearkening unto him, and believing in him, were Juſtified from all things; from which they could not be Juſtified by the Law of Moſes, Acts. 13. 39.

that

Obſ. 24 The neceſſity of Chriſts Death, which was, becauſe he was to make way by his own Blood into the Holyeſt, to appear before God for us; and to ſprinkle the Heavenly things with the Blood of a Sacrifice, of an higher and better Nature than the Blood of Bulls and Goats was: for that was the Blood of the Covenant, which was to paſs away, but he was to ſprinkle his, with the Blood of the everlaſting Covenant; And by this his Death and Blood, (ſprinkled upon the Hearts of his) his Covenant, comes to be of force, ver. 16. to 25, and Chap. 13. 20, 21.

Obſ. 25. That this High-Prieſt need not often Offer Sacrifices, to put away Sin, as the Prieſts of the Law did; becauſe this one Offering is ſufficient, and the Blood thereof ſprinkled upon the Conſcience, is able to purge away Dead works, wherever it is ſprinkled. There needeth not any other Offering, nor any other Blood to do it: but all that is now further needed, or to be expected by his, is his appearing the ſecond time, without Sin unto Salvation, in the pure Vertue, Power, and Life of his own Spirit, ver. 25. to the end.

Obſ. 26. What it was, that was the thing of great Value with the Father, in Chriſt giving up himſelf to Death? It was his Obedience. He did Obey his Father in all things, not doing his own Will, but the Will of him that ſent him. He was obedient to Death, even the Death of the Croſs: and ſo, as by one mans Diſobedience, Death came upon all; ſo by the Obedience of one, the free gift came upon all; which free gift is unto Life: for Life comes upon all, that come to him, and believe in him, through the free gift, which is freely tendred to, and come upon all; Chap. 10. 7. Rom. 5.

Obſ. 27. That God took away Sacrifices, and burnt Offerings, which were appointed by the Old Covenant, that he might eſtabliſh this Obedience among all his Children. Chriſt lead the way, and all are to follow him in the New Obedience, and to walk in newneſs of Spirit before the Lord, ver. 9.

Obſer. 28. That we are Sanctified by the ſame Will, by which Chriſt was ſanctified, or ſanctifieth himſelf. In ſubjection to the ſame Will, which the Head obeyed (even in denying themſelves, taking up the Croſs to their own Wills, and ſubmitting to God's) are the members ſanctified. The Spirit of God works them into Holineſs by this Will of God, and through the offering of the Body of Jeſus Chriſt once, ver. 10. and Joh. 17. 19.

So mark: There's the Will of God, the offering up the Body of Jeſus, the pouring out the Spirit of Grace, the New Covenant, and Faith in Chriſt, &c. All theſe tend to work out one and the ſame thing, and they all concur thereto, in their ſeveral Orders and Places.

Obſer. 29. That as this High Prieſt ſanctifies Men, ſo he perfects them, and when they are fully ſactified, then they are forever perfected: But till then, Chriſt the High-Prieſt of our Profeſſion, hath ſomewhat to do upon them towards the perfecting of them, that he may preſent them ſpotleſs, and blameleſs to his Father ver. 14, 15.

Obſer. 30. How the Apoſtle proves, That by this one offering, Chriſt hath for ever perfected them that are ſanctified. He proves it thus: By this offering the Covenant is eſtabliſhed, wherein is the putting and writing Gods Law in the heart and mind, the remiſſion of ſins.

So, come into this Covenant, come under this High-Prieſt; there is no more remembring of ſin there, but perfect forgiveneſs through this one offering, and ſo no more need of any more Sacrificing or Offering for Sins to such, ver. 15, to 19. For he shall sprinkle many Nations with the Blood of this one Offering, Isa. 52. 15.

Obser. 31. The great priviledge of those, who do indeed believe in Christ, and are sprinkled with the blood, and how they are to improve and make use of that Priviledge.

First, They have Liberty, Confidence, or Boldness to enter into the holyest by the Blood of Jesus, ver. 19. What is more holy, then God's Spirit? Is not that the most holy place? Why, there they are to worship; for they that worship the Father in the New Covenant, or according to the New Covenant, must worship him in the Spirit, and in the Truth; yea, and must also live in the Spirit, and walk in the Spirit, which is the place of everlasting Rest, and Land of the living.

Secondly, Take notice how they come into the holyest, which is by the new and living way, which Christ hath prepared, or consecrated through his Flesh, ver. 20.

Thirdly, They have an high Priest there over the House of God, who appears before God in the Holiest, and stands ready there to perform all the Offices of Priest-Hood for his household, ver. 21.

Fourthly, There is an orderly Way of drawing nigh to God, and worshiping him in the Holyest? there is a certain manner, after which Believers are to approach, and draw nigh to God; which is, 1. With a true Heart. 2. In fullness of Faith, or in full Assurance of Faith; not waveringly, but as those that are called of God, and shall be helped by him, and accepted of him through their High-Priest. 3. In Purity of Conscience and Conversation, having their Hearts sprinkled from an evil Conscience, and their Bodies washed with pure Water, ver. 22, 23. and Psal. 26. 6. Christ came by Water and Blood: So here's both the Water, and the Blood, according to the Figures thereof, under the Law.

Obser. 32. Whither they came in the Apostles Days, who knew Christ as their High-Priest, and Mediator, and who partook of the Blood of Sprinkling? They came to spiritual Mount Sion, and to the City of the Living God, the Heavenly Jerusalem, Heb. 12. 22.

Observe likewise, where they walked, who felt the Vertue of Christ's Blood cleansing them; which was in the Light, as God is in the Light, 1 John 1. 7.

Now, what Light is that which the Redeemed are to walk in? Is it not the Light of the Lambs City, the new Jerusalem? Is it not the Light thereof, that the Nations of them that are Saved must walk in? Rev. 21. 24. Yea, this Light, this City, and the holy Waters of the Sanctuary, which flow and stream from the River of Life there, were in measure known and experienced in the Days of old, which David prayed for, and experienced a sense of, Psal. 43. 3. and 46. 4. Yea, he knew also the Blood of the Everlasting Covenant, praying and waiting to be sprinkled and cleansed therewith, Psal. 51. 6. For he looked through the outward Figure, to what his Soul needed to Purge, and wash it inwardly: which outward Hysop, or outward Water of Purification (he knew) would not do; For he that saw through the Outward Sacrifices to the inward, could not chuse, but see through these also.

But that Power, Vertue, and Life of Gods Spirit, which could create a clean Heart, and renue a right Spirit in him, and bring him into Gods Presence, where he might feel the upholdings of his free Spirit, and partake of the Joy of Gods Salvation, and deliverance from that which had defiled him; this was it he prayed for; knowing assuredly, he should here meet with the true Hysop, and Water of Life, and Blood of the Covenant, which purgeth the heart and conscience from dead works and maketh it whiter than the Snow in God's sight, ver. 10, 11, 12. For he that delighted not in sacrifice, nor burnt-offerings neither could he delight in Hysop, or Water or blood, outward or natural; but in that which melteth the heart and purifieth the conscience from that which is dead and unclean, in that is Gods delight; and in that which is melted, broken, and purified by it, ver. 16. 17.

Obs-

Obſ. Laſtly, That there is a ſin unto death, a kind of ſinning for which there is no Sacrifice (but a certain fearful looking for of Judgment and Fiery Indignation, to deſtroy and devour the Adverſaries, ver. 26, 27.) which is a wilful deſpiſing this Covenant; which he that doth muſt die without mercy; as he that deſpiſed Moſes's Law did: ver. 28, 29. For the Lord will revenge this ſin, whereſoever he finds it: and ſuch ſhall know, that it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God, when he comes to Judge them, ver. 30, 31.

XVIII.

A Brief Relation of the Eſtate or Condition the Lord found many of us in, when he came to viſit us, and make known to us the bleſſed Miniſtration of his Spirit and Power, and of ſome of his dealings with us, in inſtructing and nurturing us up therein; with a few words of Exhortation.

THere are Chambers of Imagery in many people, and ſtrong Holds, and reaſonings, and Imaginations, and high thoughts, exalted above the pure ſeed and meaſure of Life in their hearts. For every true Chriſtian (every true Believer) hath received ſomewhat of Chriſt's Spirit, ſome proportion of Grace and Truth from the fulneſs of Chriſt, which is as Leaven and Salt, to leaven the heart, and ſeaſon the mind, and ſpirit with.

But all do not diſtinctly know this, nor are all that do know it, ſubject to it; ſo that this doth not lead, and command, and rule in all: but there is ſomewhat which holds Captive, and the Enemy of the Soul hath the Rule and Dominion in many Mens Spirits, profeſſing godlineſs: whereby the ſeed is kept under in them, and their ſouls kept back from that redemption and deliverance, which they ſhould partake of in, and with the ſeed. So many talk of the Goſpel, (and ſpeak great words of Chriſt, and Redemption by him) who know not Immortality brought to Light, nor the Dead raiſed by it, to live to God and praiſe his Name.

Now in theſe Chambers of Imagery, in theſe ſtrong Holds, there are many pleaſant Pictures, many Images of the Heavenly things, which men form in their minds, from their own apprehendings, and conceivings upon the Scriptures. For men reading the Scriptures, not in the Life, Spirit, and Power which gave them Faith; but with that which is Natural, they come not to the True, Pure, Heavenly, Living Knowledge; but only obtain a Natural Knowledge, according to which they Believe and Worſhip; and ſo, fall down before, and according to the apprehenſions, and imaginations of their own minds: and ſo, one believes and Worſhips one way, another Believes and Worſhips another way. And truly, here men worſhip they know not what; but they that are the true Jews, know what they worſhip; for Salvation is of the true Jews, who worſhip neither at this Mountain, nor at the other Mountain; but only in Spirit, and in Truth, even in the Life and Power of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

Thus it is with all men in their ſeveral profeſſions of Religion in the Darkneſs, in the Apoſtacy from the true Life and Power, which all ſorts have erred, and wandered from, but few have returned to: Ah! few have found the Pearl of Price, which hath been long loſt; but have contented themſelves with a litteral Relation and Knowledge concerning the Pearl, without knowing and Poſſeſſing the Pearl it ſelf. Yea indeed, this was the ſtate of darkneſs the Lord found us all in, when he came to viſit us: For the ſtrong man armed, had his ſtrong Holds in us, whereby he held us in the Bands of Death, and kept us captive and free from that righteous Life, and Power, which we thirſted after. But when the ſtronger then he came, he battered his ſtrength, he aſſaulted and took his ſtrong-Holds; he brake all his Reaſonings, Knowledge, Wiſdom, and Subtilty, wherein he truſted, and made ſpoil of his Goods, and delivered the Captives from under his hand.

For indeed, when the Mighty day of the Lord came upon us, and his pure Heavenly Light ſhone in our hearts, God ſearched Jeruſalem as with Candles diſcovering the moſt hidden things of Eſau's Nature inwardly; and then all the Knowledge and Wiſdom, all the underſtanding and experiences, which were treaſured up in us out of the pure Life, out of the Truth, which lives and abides, they were found Dead, and condemned as Dead in us, and to caſt forth, as the treaſures of Egypt and Babylon, and thrown to the Batts and Moles; who either creep up and down in the earthly Nature, or ſoar aloft in the dark Dreams and Imaginations of the Night of Darkneſs and Apoſtacy.

For when the true Light ſhines, it diſcovers what the Day is, and what the Night is; and the things which are of the Day, and the things alſo which are of the Night.

Now, when the Lord thus appeared unto us, and cauſed the Light of his Son to ſhine in us, many of us quickly came out of Egypt, turning our backs upon the Darkneſs; and went willingly into the Wilderneſs, to travel along with the Lord, and to be exerciſed and fitted there for the good Land, the Land of the redeemed, the Land of the Living, the Land which flows with Milk and Honey (which is Pure and Heavenly food) whither they that come, find the excellent Vine, which bears the Heavenly grapes, of which is the Wine of the Kingdom, and the true Olive, which yields ſweet Oyl, and Houſes which they built not; wherein are many Manſions, of Reſt, and pure Glory, and Vineyards, which they planted not, wherein the Living plants grow, and ſpring up in the preſence of the Lord; who dwells among his, and walks in the Gardens, and holy Plantations.

But there were others, who were loath to come out of Egypt, or to forſake the Idols, and way of worſhip in Egypt and Babylon, whom the Enemy long held Captive in their thoughts and reaſonings, and in the diſputings of their Minds.

Now, theſe ſuffered much, and felt many of their ſtrokes and dreadful Judgments of the Lord, poured out upon that Spirit in them, which held them Captive, and upon them for their hearknings and joynings to the ſubtil Twinings and Entangling reaſonings, and ſuggeſtions of that Spirit. For the Enemy uſeth all his ſtrength and ſubtilty, to the utmoſt, to hold his Captives in ſubjection to him, and under his Power, as long as ever he can. He keeps every Hold, he ſtrengthens every reaſoning, and every thought, and imagination of the Mind againſt Gods Call, againſt the appearances of his Spirit in the Heart. Do not go yet, (ſaith the Enemy) thy way is not yet plain before thee, thy Light is not yet clear enough; the Reaſon or Conſideration which is objected, is not yet fully anſwered. Thou art to try all things; but there is this, or that, or the other Conſideration, which thou haſt not yet tryed, or conſidered of fully, and Satisfactorily to thy own Heart.

Thus many pure drawings of the Father, (in which their was Light ſufficient for the Soul to follow) have been loſt, and the Soul thereby hath miſſed of the Hand, which was put forth (in the tender Love of the Lord) to help, and ſave it.

Queſt, But ſome may ſay; What have ye learned of the Lord more than we, or more than ye knew before, when ye walked among us, and practiſed the Ordinances, which we practiſe? Have not we good directions from the Scriptures? Do not we practiſe them? and is not the Spirit of God in the Scriptures? are they not joyned together: and ſo, having the Scriptures, we have the Spirit of God too?

Anſw. It is not in my heart to enter into diſpute now, though I am ſenſible of the darkneſs, from whence this Objection ariſeth: And Oh! that it were removed from their Hearts in whom it is; for truly, we our ſelves were once there, and when we were there, we knew not the Scriptures aright, as we ought to know, nor the Power of God. But to anſwer plainly and directly to the thing it ſelf.

There are three things I ſhall mention (beſides many others, which might be mentioned) which the Lord hath taught us, ſince his Spirit and Power hath appeared to us, and led us out of the Darkneſs, towards, and into the Land of Light: which are theſe. He hath taught us to Believe, he hath taught us to Obey, Obey, and he hath taught us to Pray to him in the Name of his Son.

Object. Why, Did ye never learn theſe before?

Anſw. No, not ſo as the Lord hath now taught us. There was indeed, ſome true Faith from the true Seed in us, and ſome true Obedience, and ſome pure Breathings to the Father, in the dayes of our former Profeſſion: But we knew not the Root from whence they came, ſo as to turn to it, and abide in it; and ſo the holy Deſires, and true Senſe in us, were often made a Prey of, and we ſtill in Want and Penury in a ſtrange Land, and could not enjoy (Poſſeſs or retain) what was freely given us of our God, and Father in Chriſt: but ſtill a fleſhly Wiſdom, a fleſhly Comprehenſion, a fleſhly Nature, Mind and Knowledge (which in that day went with us for Spiritual, as well as it doth ſo with others now) pecked up over it; and ſo Hagar, was in the Houſe, and would be Miſtreſs there; but was not caſt out with her Seed: Oh, who can read, and truly underſtand this! But when the Lord turned us to the Light of his Spirit, and by the Light and Power of his Spirit, brake the bonds and chains of darkneſs in us; then we would believe in him who appeared, and (in the Strength and Vertue received from him) we could obey him, yielding our Members Inſtruments of Righteouſneſs to do his Will; and in the Spirit of the Son (which we then received in the Faith, even the Heavenly Spirit, the moſt excellent Spirit) we could pray to the Father; Firſt, ſighing and groaning before him, afterwards pouring out our Requeſts and Supplications to him, with giving of thanks.

Queſt. How did the Lord teach you to believe? or what did he teach you to believe now, more than before?

Anſw. It is written in the Prophets, all thy Children ſhall be taught of the Lord; and in the new Covenant it is promiſed, They ſhall all know me, from the leaſt to the greateſt.

Now, as we were brought by the Lord into the Light of this Covenant, we were taught thus to know him, and to believe in him, and his Son, as thus made known. So that we knew the Father revealing the Son, and the Son revealing the Father; and our Hearts were drawn to believe in both, as they were both revealed in us, and to us, and the revealing was in the ſpirit of both, in the Light of both, in the Life of both, in the Power of both; which Spirit, which Light, which Life, which Power is one; ſo that, he that indeed knows the Son, knows the Father alſo; and he that indeed knows the Father, knows the Son alſo.

Very deep and weighty was that anſwer of Chriſt to Philip, when Philip ſaid; ſhew us the Father, and it ſufficeth. Haſt thou not ſeen me, Philip, ſaid Chriſt; how is it that thou ſayeſt, Shew us the Father? he that hath ſeen me, hath ſeen the Father alſo. Are they not one Nature, one Wiſdom, one Power, one pure Eternal Being? Can the one poſſibly be ſeen, and not the other? though they may be diſtinguiſhed in manifeſtation in the Hearts, where they are received: Is it poſſible, they ſhould be divided, and ſeparated the one from the other?

Thoſe that thus apprehend, plainly manifeſt, that they never received the true Knowledge of the Father and Son: but have only Notions, and Apprehenſions of Man's Wiſdom concerning them.

So, now to us, there is but one God and Father, Of whom are all things, and we in him; and, One Lord Jeſus Chriſt, by whom are all Things, and we by him; and but one Spirit and Power of Life, which we have received of the Son and Father, through which we Believe, and lay hold on the pure Eternal Power, and Strength of the Almighty, which redeems and ſaves the Soul; and ſo believing on him, who raiſed up our Lord Jeſus Chriſt from the Dead, here we meet with Juſtification, and are at Peace with our God, laying hold on his Strength, and Being held by it.

And ſo here, in the New Covenant, under the Teachings of God's Spirit, we witneſs that Scripture fulfilled in our Hearts, Iſa. 27. 4, 5.

Queſt. How did the Lord Teach you to Obey? ye do not obey the Ten Commandements; ye neither Learned, nor Teach them: But all that ye Obey, is all Light and Spirit within, which may be a Spirit of Deluſion, for ought we know; and we believe it is ſo, becauſe we do not find it agreeing with the Scriptures, nor you in the Pra- ctice

Exercise of the Ordinances of Christ, according to the Scriptures.

Answ. That Harsh Spirit which in this manner objecteth, is not very fit, nor likely to receive or embrace Information, from the meek and tender Spirit of the Lamb: but there are some, who are broken and tendred, and fit to receive Impression and Information from the Holy Spirit, and Power of our God; and to them, and for their sakes are my Answers given forth, and directed. So, for their sakes I shall proceed in Plainness, and Evidence of Truth, Answering, as the Lord shall open my Heart.

Truly, the Lord hath taught us Obedience, so, as we never learned before, putting his Laws into our Minds, and Writing them in our Hearts, and giving us his good Spirit to dwell in us, to quicken and help us to obey, and perform his Holy Laws. And those Two Commandements, (on which the whole Law and Prophets hang) to wit, To Love God with all our Hearts, and Our Neighbours as our selves, as Taught by Moses and Christ; yea, the very Substance of the Law written in Tables of Stone, he hath inwardly Written in our Hearts, and Taught us to Observe, and Obey: So that, we have no other God, but Him, who brought us out of Spiritual Egypt, by his out-stretched Arm, and Holy Power, revealed inwardly for us, as it was outwardly for that People of the Jews, whom God redeemed out of outward Egypt.

Indeed before, other Lords had Rule over us, and somewhat still got between us, and our God; so that, when we were without the Limits of the pure Power, we were Idolaters in God's Sight, though we then knew it not; But now, we make mention of the Lord's Name only.

So, the Lord hath Taught us not to make any Image, or Likeness of his Appearance, or of the Heavenly Things: not to form any thing in our Minds from the Scriptures; But to wait on God, to know his Truths revealed in their own pure Nature.

The Lord hath likewise Taught us to Sanctify his Name, which he hath made known to us, and not to take it in vain; but to reverence his Holy Power and Spirit, in every degree of its Appearance: For the Name of our God is Living, and is only Sanctified, and not taken in vain by those that are Living.

Also, the Lord hath Taught us to observe, and keep his holy Sabbath, and Day of Rest, (even the Day of the Gospel-Rest; for that is the Sabbath now) not doing our own Works, or thinking our own Thoughts, or kindling a Fire of our selves, on his Holy-Day; but ceasing from our own Willing and Running, and from all the Works of the Flesh, and waiting to feel him Work in us, both to Will, and to Do of his good Pleasure: Which Works in the Spirit, (Works of Faith, of Love, of Mercy, &c.) Break not the Gospel-Rest, or Sabbath.

And having thus learned the Duties of the First Table (the Lord having Circumcised our Hearts, to Love the Lord our God, with all our Hearts, and to Exalt Him, his Spirit, his Nature, his Will, his Name, his Day in us) the Duties of the Second Table are ealy, and natural to us, and we cannot but Do to others, as we would be done unto; and so Love, and Honour all Men in the Lord, as the Lord Teacheth us from the True and Holy Ballance. Therefore, we cannot Kill, or Commit Adultery, or Steal, or Bear False Witness, or Covet any thing that is our Neighbours.

Then, for the Laws and Ordinances of the New Testament; The Ministration of the Gospel, is a Ministration of Spirit and Power: even of the Light of the Everlasting Day, which the true Ministry was sent to turn Mens Minds from the Darkness to.

And here we see, what was taught and required before the Apostacy, while the Church was in its First Glory; and what was permitted, and practised by Permission: which were such kind of Things, as were not of the Nature of the Kingdom, not of the Nature of the Light of the Gospel-Day; but of a Lower Nature, of an Outward Nature, of an Earthly (Elementary) Nature, which were to be shaken in due time, that that which could not be shaken (which they signified of, and represented) might remain, and be Established in the Spiritual and Heavenly Jerusalem (which is the Jerusalem of the Gospel) without any such thing thing as could be ſhaken; as is Teſtified, Heb. 12. 22. to the end: And we underſtand alſo from God's Spirit, and from the Scriptures of Truth, that all ſuch kind of things were part of, or belonging to the Outward Court; which was ſhaken, and given to the Gentiles, when God's Spirit meaſured what he would have abide with his True, Inward, Spiritual Jews; and what he would leave to the Profeſſing World, who in Mind, Nature, and Spirit, and in God's Account alſo, are but Gentiles.

Queſt. How did God teach you to Pray? Surely, ye never learned the Lord's Prayer; for ye do not practiſe that among you.

Anſw. As God brought us into a ſenſible Condition, ſo we came to feel our Wants, and the Need of our Souls, Inwardly and Spiritually.

Now, waiting on the Lord, in this Sence, when we meet together, and when we are alone alſo, the Lord Breatheth upon us, and kindleth in us fervent Deſires and Longings of Soul after that which is Pure, and to be Delivered from that which is Impure, and that we might be Ingraffed more and more into Chriſt; and that Judgment, and Condemnation might paſs upon all, that is not of God in us, and that our Hearts might be ſo united to the Lord, as that we might Fear his Name fully. For we feel and obſerve, that all our Life and Strength flows from the Union of our Souls, with the Lord; and therefore, above all things, we cry for that, and for Separation from that Spirit, which Captivateth into the Things of the Earth, and in the Earthly Mind, and Nature.

So, we watch unto Prayer, and watch for help from God in our calling upon him; and are deeply ſenſible, that we have need both of Watching and Praying continually, the Enemy is ſo near, and the Soul's Snares and Dangers ſo many.

And truely, Chriſt our Lord, and Maſter, who taught his Diſciples to Pray formerly, hath taught us alſo to Pray that very Prayer; though not to ſay the Words outwardly in the Will of Men, or in our own Will; that he hath taught our Hearts to Breath after the ſame things, even that the Name of our Heavenly Father might be Hallowed or Sanctified more and more, among all that call upon his Name in Truth, and eſpecially in our own Hearts; and that his Kingdom might come more and more, that he might Reign more in Men's Spirits, and the Kingdom of Sin and Satan be thrown down; and that his Will might be done, even in our Earth, as it is done in the Heavenly Places, where all the Hoſts of God obey him; and that we might have every day a Proportion of the Heavenly Bread, whereby our Souls may Live to him; and Convenient Food and Proviſion outward alſo, according as he ſeeth Good, who careth for us.

Now, as we are kept in the Light, and watch to the Light which diſcovers things, we ſee what we are kept out of; and what we at any time are intangled in, and ſo treſpaſs againſt the Lord: and then we are taught to beg Pardon, and to wait where Pardon is to be received, through our Advocate, even as God hath taught us to Forgive.

Yet this doth not imbolden any of the little Ones to Sin; but they pray that they may be led (or fall) into Temptation; but may Witneſs deliverance from the Evil, which the Enemy watcheth to betray, and inſnare them with. And theſe Cries are put up to him, who is ready to hear, and who can anſwer and fulfill the deſires of them, that love and fear him: and indeed not only ſo, but they are alſo put up in Faith, that in the Way of God, the Soul ſhall obtain and receive what it Prayeth and Waiteth for.

Now, we witneſs this to be true Religion, and undefiled before God; and we are ſenſible, that the Lord hath taught us this, and is with us in our Faith, which he hath given us, in our Obedience, in our Praying to him in the Name of his Son, in our watching, in our waiting, in the ſilence of our Spirits, before his Mighty and Glorious Majeſty.

O that ye all knew our God, and his Chriſt, in the ſame Covenant, and Power of Life, wherein it hath pleaſed him to make himſelf manifeſt to us! Oh, awake, awake out of your Dreames, come out of the night of Sin and Darkneſs, into the Light of the day.

Be

Be not offended, that I call them Dreames of the Night, ; for they are no better before the Light of the day. O be not contented with Dreames concerning God, with Dreames concerning Fellowſhip, with him, and the Saints in Light, with Dreames concerning Remiſſion, concerning Juſtification, concerning Peace, concerning Sanctification, concerning the Help of God's Spirit in Prayer, &c.

All friends; dear friends (for ye, in whom there is any true breathings after the Lord, are ſo to me) Oh! let go the Dead for the Living; away with Dead Knowledge, Dead Faith, Dead Hope, Dead Prayers, Dead underſtanding of the Scriptures, Dead ſtrivings after Holineſs, which ſhall never obtain, but ye be ſtill bowed down, under Corruption, when at any time truly ſenſible, notwithſtanding all theſe: (truly groaning and complaining is your beſt State here; for your Peace here is wrong:) and come to feel that raiſed in you, in the true, retired waiting upon the Lord, which ſhall certainly obtain in you, as your minds are united to it; and come into the true ſence and ſubjection under it; And then, ye ſhall obtain in it, and with it, what the Hearts of all the upright, (whether in Captivity, or out of Captivity) breath after.

O therefore, be not any longer prejudiced, by the ſubtile devices and deceits of the Enemy, againſt that in your Hearts, which reproves becauſe of Sin; and likewiſe, draws and leads into that which is Holy: for it is no leſs, then the Pure, Heavenly Light of God's own *S*pirit, what ever ye, through miſtake, miſunderſtanding, or want of true experience, may judge of it.

XIX.

Concerning the Goſpel-State.

THe Goſpel is a Miniſtration of the new Covenant, or a Spiritual Miniſtration of the ſubſtance of all that was ſhadowed out under the Law. There were many things under the Law; but in the Goſpel, God hath gathered all into one; in Chriſt there is but one Seed, one Spirit, one Life, one Power, which Redeems, one Circumciſion, one Baptiſm, one Faith, &c.

The Law was given by Moſes, and the Miniſtration thereof continued through the Prophets, untill the Seed ſhould come, which was to put an end to the Law, and the Righteouſneſs thereof, (as in the Letter) and bring in the Righteouſneſs in the Spirit, which ſhould laſt for ever.

The Goſpel is By Chriſt, by whom God ſpake in the laſt dayes; who is the beloved *S*on, the Prophet and High-Prieſt of God, who is to be heard for ever; who taught his Diſciples while he was with them on Earth, in that Body of Fleſh, which his Father prepared for him; and afterwards by his Spirit (or Holy Anointing) whereby he continueth teaching his Children, and bringing them up in the Vertue, Life and Power of the new Covenant, giving them a new Heart and Spirit, and cauſing the old Nature of the earthly Adam to dye in them, and paſs away from them.

The Law was given to the Jew outward, and is againſt nature in man, which ſeems forward to obey, but will not.

The Law, alſo is given to check that Part (or nature in Man) which is above the Seed; to which were all the Shadows and Types outward.

But in the Goſpel, which is the Power of God, to the Redemption of the Soul, that part is done away, and the Seed raiſed, and comes to live in the Soul, and the Soul in the Power, which quickens it in, and through the Seed.

And ſo, here the Life, and Virtue, and Nature of the Seed overſhadows all, and changes all in the Goſpel-Miniſtration: So that here's a New Heaven, and a new Earth, wherein God reigns, and where Righteouſneſs dwells; and the old Things, wherein Unrighteouſneſs dwelt, and wherein the Devil reigned, are done away; and ſo, his Kingdom is deſtroyed, and laid Waſt in man, and the Kingdom of Chriſt ſet up, exalted and eſtabliſhed

Then comes the Mountain of the Lords Houſe to be known on the top, and above

Above all the Mountains and Hills; and then is the flowing of the enlightned Soul thither, to learn of the Lord in his Holy Sanctuary; that it may know his Wayes, and walk in his Paths. Then is the Voyce of the true Shepherd heard, and the Law known, (the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus) which cometh out of Sion, and the Word of the Lord, (even the Holy One of Israel) which cometh from Jerusalem. Then is the Day of the Lord known, the Mighty terrible shaking Day of the Lord; which is then upon all flesh, silencing it in the dread and awe of him, who is Holy and Pure; and the Seed is then raised to Life, and in Life and Power, and the Lord alone exalted in that Soul. For the Son exalted the Father only, in the dayes of his flesh; and it is so now, wherever the same Seed and Power of Life is made manifest, and rules.

Then after this shaking, after the Work of this terrible day of the Lord in the Heart, when God hath purged away the Filth and Blood of the defiled Soul and Spirit, by his Spirit of Judgment, and Burning: Then that which is felt, shall be called Holy and dedicated to the Lord, even in every one that is written and reckoned by God among the Living, in his Jerusalem. And all God's Tabernacles, and Dwelling Places on his Holy Mountain, and in his Holy City, will he cover with the Glory of his Presence, and all their assemblies (by his Cloudy Pillar, and by his shining Flame) will God be a defence about; before which brightness (and the arising of his Life and Power, in the midst of his People) Satan with his devices and fiery Darts shall fall like flashes of Lightnings, and his Storms and Winds shall not be able to prevail, (against the Houses) or Dwelling-Places which God builds on this his Holy Mountain of Peace and Salvation.

Then the Rod of the Stem of Jesse is known, and the branch which groweth out of his Root, and the Spirit of the Lord resting upon him. For Grace and Truth came by Jesus Christ; and where the Grace, and Truth which comes by Jesus Christ is received and his everlasting Covenant entred into; there the same Spirit is poured forth, and rests (even upon all the Sons) and true judgment is set up in the Heart, and the Soul established in the Righteousness and Peace of his Kingdom.

So if any want Wisdom, let him ask in Faith; it is presently given from the spirit of Wisdom, which is poured out upon the seed, which is a spirit of Understanding and Knowledge, and of pure Heavenly Fear, &c. which maketh quick in understanding the Fear of the Lord, which Fear (being understood nnd observed) keepeth the Heart clean, teaching it to avoid, and keep out of all that defiles: so, that here is not so much as a touching the unclean thing, by any of the sons and daughters, who are led by God's Spirit, and live and walk in the spirit; but a following of the Law of the spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, fully and perfectly.

Let sin and imperfection be received back to Sodom, Egypt, and Babylon, from whence it came: but let Holiness and unstained Beauty dwell in Sion; yea, let Urim and Thammim, even God's Light and Perfection, be with his redeemed People for ever and ever.

Here the Wolf dwells with the Lamb, and the Leopard lyes down with the Kid, and the Calf, and the young Lyon, and the Fatling together, and the little Child leads them. Here the Lyon devours not, but eats straw like the Oxe, and the sucking Child, and the weaned Child can play in the hole of the Asp, and put his Hand on the Cockatrices Den; and they that are in the Power, can tread upon Serpents, and they cannot Hurt, Wound, Poyson, or Destroy; For there is safety all over God's Holy Mountain, and the Venom, or Poyson of the wicked Spirit, cannot reach thither, to Hurt or Poyson any there: For God's Earth is filled with Knowledge, with Life, with pure Living Knowledge, which preserves out of the reach of Darkness and Death.

Nay here, Ephraim doth not envy Judah, nor Judah vex Ephraim: for the envying, vexing Nature and Spirit, is taken out of them both. And here is turned to the Lord, a People of a pure Language, who speak the Truth, as they feel it, as they receive it from the Lord, in the Life of it, in the true sence and understanding of it, and not according to their own Apprehendings, or Imaginings concerning it, which are the various and many Languages of Babel. For, in the Seed; and of the Seed is the pure Language; but out from the Seed, are the many Voices and Languages (even the confusion of Babel) one speaking as he apprehends, thus; another speaking as he conceives, thus; so, plainly manifesting, that they are out from the evidence and demonstration of the Spirit, whose Voyce is one and Language one in all, in the day of the Gospel. And he that speaks otherwise, then the Law and Testimony of Life speaks in the Heart, it is either because he knoweth not, or is not yet gathered into the Morning-Light of the everlasting day of the Gospel: for there all are to speak, as the Oracle of God, the Truth as it is in Jesus.

In this day, the Anger of God is turned away, and Condemnation come to an end, (for there is no Condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the Flesh, but after the Spirit) and the Comforter is come, by whom God Comforts the Soul, and the Soul with joy draweth Water out of the Wells, of Springs of the Comforter. Yea, the Soul is gathered into the Love, (or into God, who is Love) where the Saviour and Salvation is felt, and God found such a present Help, and Strength in time of Trouble, that fear is done away, and the Lord trusted and hoped in; yea, and boasted of in every condition. So that his Name is made mention of, and Sung of, and exalted, over all that can come to oppose, or break down the Work of his Power, in the Heart; insomuch, that the Inhabitants of Sion, cryes out and shouts against the enemy, when he appears, because the Holy one of Israel is so great in the midst of her, who breaks the Spear and the Bow, the Shield and the Battle, Selah, See Isa. 12.

Yea, in this Day, the Feast of fat things is made on God's Holy Mountain, of fat things full of Marrow, and of Wines on the Lees well refined. And in this Mountain, the Vail of the Covering, (spread over the Heart) is done away; for in the Seed, there is no feigned Covering, but an opening of the unvailed Eye, to see the unvailed Life, and Power, even the revealed Arm of the Redeemer.

Who hath believed our Report, and to whom is the Arm of the Lord Revealed? It was said so, in the old Covenant, in the Law-Dispensation; but it is not said so, in the new Covenant, in the Gospel-Dispensation: for the Vail is done away in Christ; and the Children there, with open face, behold (as in a Mirror) the Glory of the Lord.

And here, where the Seed is revealed, and the Soul come into the Seed, and become one with the Seed, that is felt, which breaketh the Serpents Head: and when his head is broken, Death is soon swallowed up into Victory, and the tears of Sorrow wiped away, (so that, there is no room for any tears now, but tears of Joy, tears of melting Love, and Sweetness, before the Lord) and the Rebuke, because of Circumcision, taken away. For, when God Circumciseth the Heart, to love the Lord with all the Heart; then it receiveth Life from him, and then the shame and Rebuke of the uncircumcised, and Dead state passeth away.

And then, saith the Soul; Lo, this is my God, I so much wanted, and so long waited for. Oh! He is come, he is come to Judge my Heart in Righteousness, and to bring under all that hath kept the Seed under in me; and I feel him, my Souls Salvation, and my Heart is glad in him. And now I know the Land of Judah, (for that Land outwardly was but a figure of the inward) and the strong City that is therein (which the Righteous Nation, that keepeth the Truth, enters in at the Gates of) where God appointeth Salvation for Walls and Bulwarks. See Isa. 25. and Chap. 26.

And in this Day, when the Seed is raised, when the Gospel Power reacheth to the Seed, and raiseth up the Soul with the Seed, and punisheth Leviathan that crooked Serpent, and destroyeth the Place where the Dragons lay, so that as such a Place it can be found no more, because the Lord hath made all things New, and laid waste the Old, then shall be sung to her that was Afflicted, a Vineyard of red Wine, which the Lord will keep and Water every moment, lest any hurt it; yea, the Lord (who is the keeper of Israel, who neither slumbreth nor sleepeth) will keep it night and day: and though fury be not in the Lord, yet he will go through the Bryars and Thorns, which set themselves in battle against him; to hinder hinder the Current of his Love and Bleſſings upon his Heritage.

But, as for his People, God will be very Gracious to them, anſwering them in all that they call upon him for, and being with them in the Fire, and in the Water; ſo that, the Waters ſhall not be able to overwhelm them, nor the Flame of the fierceſt Fire kindle upon them. For the Enemie's Fire ſhall not be able to burn up God's Heritage, nor their Waters to overflow them: But God's Fire and Waters ſhall overflow, and conſume the Adverſaries, as he pleaſeth to let forth his overflowing Scourge, and Fiery Indignation upon them.

The Goſpel is a State of pouring out the Spirit of God upon his Seed, and his Bleſſing upon his Off-ſpring; wherein he ſtrengthens that which is Weak, and confirms that which is Feeble; wherein he comforts Worm Jacob, and recompenceth Vengeance to that which oppreſſed him: That which wounded him, that which bowed him down, that which cloſed his Eye, ſtopped his Ear, made him Dumb and Lame, hardened his Heart from God's Fear, &c. That Nature, that Wiſdom, that Spirit, that Power is viſited with Vengeance: That which emptied him of the Good, and made him deſolate and Solitary, is now ſmitten, diſtreſſed, and made Solitary, and the Priſoner of Hope looſed, and brought out of the Pit, and the Blind Eye opened, and the Deaf Ear unſtopped, and the Lame made to Leap as an Hart, and the Tongue of the Dumb to Sing, and the parched Ground become a Pool, and the Thirſty Land Springs of Water; and that Nature wherein Dragons dwelt, is now changed, and Life dwells there, and the Holy New Earth brings forth her Increaſe of Life to the Lord, and the Way of Holineſs is made plain, which Rough Eſau, or Conceited Iſhmael, or Sacrificing Cain (who hath not the true Brotherly Love in him) cannot come into, but Holy Abel, Bleſſed Iſaac, Plain Jacob, Walked therein, and Inherited the Bleſſing, and the Ranſomed of the Lord return from all their Deſolations, Captivities, and Scatterings in the Apoſtacy, and come to Sion with Songs, and everlaſting Joy upon their Heads, where they obtain Joy and Gladneſs, and where Sorrow and Sighing flee away. For when the Comforter is come to the Soul, when the Spirit from on high is poured out upon it; then the Wilderneſs becomes a Fruitful Field, and the Fruitful Field is counted for a Forreſt: Then Judgment dwells in the Wilderneſs, and Righteouſneſs remains in the Fruitful Field: Then Righteouſneſs is known, and the Work thereof; and the Work of Righteouſneſs is Peace, and the Effect of Righteouſneſs Quietneſs, and Aſſurance for ever: And the People of God then dwell (even his Holy Iſrael, his Spiritual Iſrael, the Redeemed Ones, by his Spirit and Power) in a peaceable Habitation, and in ſure Dwellings, and in quiet reſting Places; where their God is to them, as Ammunition of Rocks, and as broad Rivers of Love, Life, Righteouſneſs, Peace, Joy, and Bleſſedneſs for ever.

In the Goſpel-State, the Lord, the Redeemer, the Holy One of Iſrael, who is the Teacher of his People in the New Covenant, who Teacheth them to Profit therein, and Leadeth them in the Way that they ſhould go; I ſay in the Goſpel-State he is known, and his Voice hearkened to. My Sheep (thoſe whom I Gather and Redeem) hear my Voice, and follow me, ſaith Chriſt; who feed my Flock like a Shepherd, guiding them by my Spirit into freſh and green Paſtures, gathering my Lambs with my Arm, carrying them in my Boſom, and gently leading thoſe that are with Young: Yea, I bring the Blind by a Way, that they knew not, and lead them in Paths they have not known: I make Dark things Light before them, and Crooked things Straight: Theſe Things do I do unto them, and will not forſake them. Yea, Worm Jacob, which was trampled upon by all, is now made a ſharp, threſhing Inſtrument, having Teeth, which threſheth the Mountains (beating them ſmall) and makes the Hills as Chaff; which Fans them, and the Wind carrieth them away, and the Whirl-Wind ſcattereth them: But Jacob rejoyceth in his God, and glorieth in the Holy One of Iſrael; who openeth Rivers in high Places, and Fountains in the midſt of Vallies, and makes the Wilderneſs a Pool of Water, and the Dry Land Springs of Water. For the Lord hath Comforted Sion, and had Compaſſion on her waſt Places, and on her oppoſed Seed in Babylon; and hath ſaid to the Priſoners, Go forth to them that ſate in Darkneſs, ſhew your ſelves abroad in the Light: And he hath made her Wilderneſs like Eden, and her Deſart like the Garden of the Lord; ſo that Joy and Gladneſs is found in her (even the Joy of God's Spirit, which is unſpeakable, and full of Glory) with Thankſgiving, and the Voice of Melody: For the Deſtroyer, and thoſe that made her Waſt, are gone forth of her, and great is the Holy One, in the Midſt of her. So that, the Barren, that did not bear, ſings; and ſhe cries aloud, and breaks forth into Singing, that did not Travel with Child: for ſhe Travels not now in vain; but alſo, brings forth abundantly: So that, more are the Children of the Deſolate, than of the formerly Married Wife. And, How can it be otherwiſe? For the Maker is the Husband, who hath made an Everlaſting Covenant of Peace with the Soul, in the Son of his Love, and keeps and preſerves in that Covenant, where the Lord can never be wrath with the Soul, nor rebuke it. For here, all the Children of the Lord are Taught of the Lord, and kept in his Holy Fear, and in Subjection to his Spirit; and great is their Peace, and in Righteouſnes are they Eſtabliſhed, and are far from Oppreſſion; the Terror whereof cannot come near them.

There are Three or Four Things yet more on my Heart, to mention concerning the Goſpel-State.

Firſt, In it the Goſpel-Faſt is known; which is not to afflict the Soul, or hang down the Head like a Bulruſh for a day; but to looſe the Bands of Wickedneſs, to undo the heavy Burdens, to let the Oppreſſed go free, to break every Yoak, to deal One's Bread to the Hungry (To Viſit the Fatherleſs, and Widows, in their Affliction, and to keep ones Self unſpotted from the Worldly Spirit and Nature, which defiles; and ſo, not to touch the unclean thing.)

Then the Light of the Soul breaks forth, as the Morning, and its Health ſprings forth ſpeedily, and its Righteouſneſs goeth before it (for that which judgeth Unrighteouſneſs, that is its Righteouſneſs; which inſtead of coming after to Reprove and Condemn, now goeth before) and the Glory of the Lord is the Reward, coming after to preſerve and defend all that ſprings up in the Power. O bleſſed is he, that Witneſſeth this State!

Secondly, In the Goſpel-State the Goſpel-Sabbath is kept, and known to be God's Holy Day, and called a Delight (the Holy of the Lord, Honourable) and the Lord is honoured in it by the Soul, while it walketh not in its own Wayes, nor findeth its own Pleaſures, nor ſpeaketh its own Words: And then the Soul delighteth it ſelf in the Lord, who then (in this State) cauſeth it to ride on the High-Places of the Earth, and feedeth it with the Heritage of Jacob its Father. What is that? What is Jacob's Heritage? What is it, that Jacob is to be fed with, and Inherit? Is it any leſs, than the Life, and Bleſſedneſs of the Promiſed Land? Is it any leſs, than the hidden Manna? Is it any leſs, than the Fruit of the Living Vine? Is it any other, than the Sweetneſs, and Fatneſs of the True Olive-Tree?

Thirdly, In it the Garment of Salvation is put On, even the Lord Jeſus Chriſt; for here the filthy Garments are put off, and the pure Garments put on: For here, the Lord hath appointed to them that Have Mourned in Sion, to give them Beauty for Aſhes, the Oyl of Joy for Mourning, the Garment of Praiſe for the Spirit of Heavyneſs, that they might be called Trees of Righteouſneſs, the Planting of the Lord, that he might be Glorified. So that, here the Soul can truly ſay, I will greatly rejoyce in the Lord, my Soul ſhall be Joyful in my God; for he hath Cloathed me with the Garments of Salvation, he hath Covered me with the Robe of Righteouſneſs. For as the Earth bringeth forth her Bud, and as the Garden cauſeth the things that are ſown in it, to ſpring forth: ſo the Lord God hath cauſed Righteouſneſs, and Praiſe to ſpring forth, before the Eyes of all that are truly opened by him: And he will not draw back his Arm, or put up the Sword, which he hath drawn, till he hath Deſtroyed his Adverſaries, and laid waſt the Mount of Eſau, and made his Jeruſalem the Praiſe of the whole Earth. Amen, Hallelujah.

And here is the Love, which caſteth out fear, and removeth Care; ſo that, they that dwell here, are carefull in nothing; but in every thing make their requeſts known to God, by Prayer and ſupplication with thankſgiving; and the Peace of God,

God, which paſſeth all underſtanding, guards the Heart and Mind through Chriſt Jeſus. So that here God Glorifieth the ſoul, charming it from Glory, to Glory, in and hy his ſpirit; and God is Praiſed and Glorified in, and by the Soul, and the Heart kept pure, and chaſt in the eye of the Lord; and in the Converſation ordered aright, by his Spirit and Power, in which the Soul lives and walks, and his ſalvation ſeen and enjoyed daily more and more: ſo that, here is a poſſeſſion or inheritance of Life in the Kingdom (in the holy Land of the Living) of which there is no end; Everlaſting endleſs Prayers, to the Holy One of Iſrael, (whoſe Tabernacle is with Men, and who dwelleth in the midſt of his People) for ever and ever.

Now, if any one doubt, concerning the Truth of theſe things, this Word is in my Heart to ſuch, Come, and ſee, O come, and ſee the Glory of the Lord, and the Power of his Life, and Righteouſneſs of his Kingdom, which is now revealed after the long Night of Darkneſs! O Bleſſed, Bleſſed be his Name, who hath cauſed his Light to ſhine, and opened the eye (which was once blind) to to ſee it.

Queſt. But how may I come to ſee the Glory of the Goſpel-State?

Anſw. Come to the Seed, and wait to feel and receive the Power, which raiſeth the Seed in the Heart, and bringeth the Heart, Soul, and Mind, and Spirit into Union with the Seed.

Queſt. But how may I come to the Seed? And how may I wait aright to feel, and receive the Power which raiſeth it?

Anſw. Mind that in thee, which ſearcheth the Heart, and what it reacheth to, and quickeneth in thee; what it draweth thee from, what it draweth thee to; how it ſheweth thee thine own in ability to follow, and how it giveth Ability, when thou art weary of Toyling and Labouring, of thy ſelf. O, this is he, whom we have waited for! Thus he appeared to us, thus he taught us to turn in, and to turn from the Kingdome of Darkneſs within, towards the Kingdome of Light, which the Good Seeds-man had ſown in us, as a grain of muſtard-ſeed; which when we found, we knew it to be the Pearl of Price, and were made willing to ſell all for it: and now, it is purchaſed, and alſo poſſeſſed in a good meaſure, bleſſed be the Name of our Mercifull God, and tender Father, for ever and ever.

O Hungring and Thirſting Soul after Life, (after Truth, after the Lambs, Righteouſneſs) do thou alſo wait to be taught of the Lord (who thus taught us) and then do thou go, and do ſo likewiſe, and thou wilt never repent of this purchaſe, or of what thou parteſt with for it, when once thou comeſt to enjoy, and poſſeſs any Proportion of it.

The Lord make thee ſenſible of the Viſits, Drawings, and Leadings of his holy Spirit, and guide thy feet thereby into the way of Truth and Peace. Amen.

XX.

Concerning Baptiſm.

He that believeth, and is Baptiſed, ſhall be Saved; but he that believeth not, ſhall be Damned, Mark. 16. 16.

THis is a very weighty Scripture, and neceſſary for every Chriſtian rightly to underſtand; that he may ſo believe, and be ſo Baptiſed, as to witneſs Salvation by the Goſpel of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

Now, what believing is this, which is here required as neceſſary to Salvation, and which the Promiſe of Salvation is to? Is it any leſs, than a believing in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, from a ſenſe of the Power, which the Father hath given him to ſave with? Is it not an inward believing, a believing with the Heart? And, what Baptiſm, or Waſhing is it, which ſerves? Is it not an inward Waſhing, a Waſhing of the Soul, a Waſhing of the Heart, a Waſhing of the Conſcience, from dead works, to ſerve the the Living God? Doth outward washing save the Soul? Inward washing doth, Baptising into the Name doth. Bodily exercise profiteth little, but Godliness (the inward Renewing, and Washing of the Mind) profiteth greatly.

There is one Faith, one Baptism: Is not the one Faith inward and spiritual? Is not the one Baptism so also? Sure I am, that he that thus believeth, and is Baptised shall be saved; but he that believeth not, remaineth in the filthy, unwashed state, in which there neither is, nor can be Salvation; but Judgment and Condemnation, Death and Destruction for ever.

The Apostle Peter shews, Pet. 3. what the Baptism is which saveth, even that which is the Antitype, or which inwardly or spiritually answers to Noahs Ark. The The Greek Word is Ἀντίτυπος, which signifieth the Antitype, or that which answers to the Type; the Substance, which comes instead of the figure or shadow; and so it is more Properly and Naturally rendered in the old Translation thus. (The Baptism that now is, answering that figure, saveth.) For, as Noahs Ark saved the Bodies of those that were in it, when God came to Judge and destroy the Old World; so the inward washing saveth those, that are washed thereby, from the Wrath and Destruction, which will come upon all that are unwashed.

Now lest any should misunderstand and misapply his Words, as if he spake concerning outward Baptism or Washing, he explaineth himself in the following Words; Not. (saith he) the putting away of the filth of the Flesh, not the outward Washing of the Body, that's not it that saves; but that Baptism which causeth the Answer of a good Conscience towards God, by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ: For this is the effect of the inward Baptism; Sin being washed away by the Water of Life, by the Blood of the Lamb; that which is new, that which is renewed, riseth up out of the Water, which washeth away Sin, and then the pure and good Conscience answers to God, and the Soul, knows and partakes of both the Death and Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ: and so being Baptised by the one Baptism, even the Baptism of Christ, into the one Body, comes into the state and fellowship of the Living. Another Apostle also speaketh of the inward washing, even the washing of Regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost, by which, saith he, God according to his Mercy saved us, Titus. 3. 5.

The Apostle Paul speaks of a Circumcision made without Hands, and tells wherein it consists, to wit, in putting off the Body of the Sins of the Flesh; and sheweth how this is effected, namely, not by Moses his Circumcision, but by the Circumcision of Christ. Col. 2. 11. And truly, they who were thus Circumcised are the true Circumcision, the Spiritual Circumcision, who Worship God in the Spirit, and have no Confidence in the Flesh but rejoyce in Christ Jesus, who thus Circumciseth them, Now, in the next verse he speaketh of Baptism, of being Buried with Christ in Baptism, and of Rising with him in the same, through the faith of the Operation of God, who raised him from the dead. What is this Baptism? is it inferior to the Circumcision before spoken of? Is it not without Hands also? What is it, that buries into the Death of Christ? That raiseth into the Life of Christ, through the Faith of the Operation of God? Is not this the one Spiritual and Heavenly Baptism, wherewith the one Body is Baptised by the one spirit? What doth outward Circumcision avail? Doth it avail any thing? What doth outward Washing avail? Doth it avail any more than outward Circumcision? But the inward Circumcision of the Jew inward, and the inward Washing of the Soul from Sin, doth avail very much.

Now for that place, Math. 28. 19, where Christ expresly Commandeth Baptising: it is a Question very weighty and worthy, duly to be considered, what Baptism he there commandeth. For if it be outward Baptism, they greatly err who apprehend it to be the inward and spiritual Baptism: but if it be the inward and spiritual Baptism which Christ intended in those Words, then they greatly err who apprehend it to be the outward. Now consider the words in the fear and weight of Gods Spirit.

It is said, Go teach Baptising: but it is not said, Baptising with Water, but in the Name, or rather (as the Greek is,) into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Now

Now to Baptiſe with Water is one thing, and to Baptiſe into the Name, is another; as they who experience the Spiritual Baptiſm know it to be. For the word of Faith turns men from Satan, to the Power of Life; and then, as they receive the Power, and are made partakers of the Power, they are Baptiſed into the Power, and Virtue of Life; and ſo they are buried (ſo far as they come into Chriſt) by the Power of his Spirit, with this Heavenly Baptiſm, into Death, unto Sin, and by the ſame Power are made alive unto Righteouſneſs: and ſo the Name of the Lord, the Name of the Father, Son and Spirit comes over them, and they riſe up in it unto Life and Righteouſneſs, and ſo are Dead unto Sin, and alive unto God. Now, any outward Circumciſing or Waſhing can be but a figure of this: but the inward Circumciſing and Waſhing is the thing it ſelf. For Chriſt ſent not his able Miniſters of the new Teſtament, to Miniſter the Letter, or to Miniſter the figures of things; but to Miniſter the Spirit, (elſe how were they able Miniſters of the Spirit?) to Miniſter the ſubſtance; not to Miniſter a Circumciſion or Baptiſm, which might be ſhaken, and paſs away, as Outward and Elementary; but to Miniſter the Circumciſion and Baptiſm which cannot be ſhaken, which is the Circumciſion and Baptiſm of the Goſpel, the Circumciſion and Baptiſm of the Spirit, the Circumciſion and Baptiſm of the Kingdom, which is never to be ſhaken, and paſs away, as Elementary; but to ſtand, and abide for ever, read Heb 12. 26, 27, 28. and conſider, how all Elementary and Outward things, which could be ſhaken, were to be ſhaken, and paſs away; that thoſe things, which were of an Higher Nature (even of the Nature of the Kingdom) might remain, and be eſtabliſhed in their ſtead.

And indeed, as the inward Circumciſion could not be throughly, and alone eſtabliſhed, while the figure thereof remained; the ſame may be truly ſaid concerning the inward Baptiſm: So that, by this it may appear, that the Baptiſm of water cannot be the Baptiſm which Chriſt intended in this Place, becauſe the Baptiſm here ſpoken of, was to continue to the end of the world: but the Baptiſm of water, is plainly of ſuch an outward, elementary Nature, as might be ſhaken, as well as Circumciſion, and ſo was to be ſhaken in due time, that that which could not be ſhaken, might remain; read alſo Rev. 11, 12. where it is plainly ſignified, under that Phraſe of the outward Court, being left out of God's meaſure, and given to the Gentiles, that things of ſuch a nature were ſhaken. And ſo were thoſe that were not the true and Spiritual worſhippers, in God's ſight. For they are Jews under the Goſpel, who were Jews inwardly; and they who are not Jews inwardly, are by Gods Spirit numbered amongſt the Gentiles. And conſider, how, not only the notorious Heathen, but ſuch as had got the form of Godlineſs, but denied the Power thereof, were rejected with their outſide ſhadows, as real as outward Jeruſalem was rejected to be troden under foot of the Gentiles.

Object. 1. But againſt this it is objected, That the Baptiſm in the ſpirit cannot be the Baptiſm ſpoken of in this Place; becauſe the Baptiſm ſpoken of in this Place, is commanded, but the Baptiſm of the ſpirit was never commanded, nor was it any mani ſin, ſo not to be Baptiſed.

Anſw. Surely, this is a great miſtake; Was the inward waſhing of the Heart never commanded? Rent your Hearts, and not your Garments. What is this but the ſpiritual Baptiſm? The Goſpel is a Miniſtration of inward things, and the inward things are ſtraightly commanded there. Can any man be ſaved, without inward Baptiſing? and is he not commanded to receive inward Baptiſing? and doth he not ſin, if he do not wait to receive it, and give up his Heart and Soul to be Baptiſed by God's Holy Spirit: If the eye were opened in People, to look into the Goſpel Miniſtration, and into the inward Nature of things, this might eaſily be Demonſtrated to the leaſt Babe there. For as the Goſpel was before the Law, and could not be Diſannulled by the Law; ſo this Miniſtration of the Spirits Baptiſm, (for Nature and Kind) was long before John's Baptiſm, and could not be Diſannulled, by any outward Miniſtration of Baptiſm, but abideth the ſame for ever; and is to have its place in the Goſpel-ſtate, where the figures & ſhadows of things paſs away, and that which is true, laſting and ſubſtantial, filleth up the room thereof.

Now, the Baptiſm of the Spirit, or the Spiritual waſhing, and Circumciſing the Heart

Heart (which is all one in ſubſtance) was called for, and required of the Jews under the Law; and it was their Sin, not to anſwer God's Call, and Requiring therein. Conſider theſe Scriptures following, with many more of the like Nature: Break up your Fallow-ground, and Sow not among Thornes, Jer. 4. 3. Can the Fallow-ground be broken up, and the Thornes rooted out, (elſe the Sowing will be amongſt them) without the Circumciſion or Baptiſm of the Spirit, which is all one in nature and ground? Again: Circumciſe the Fore-skin of your Hearts, and be no more Stiff-necked, Deut. 10. 16. Make you a New Heart, and a New Spirit; for, why will ye Dye, O Houſe of Iſrael! Ezek. 18. 31. (Is not this all one in Subſtance with that Scripture, He that Believeth and is Baptized, ſhall be Saved?) O Jeruſalem, waſh thine Heart from Wickedneſs, that thou mayſt be Saved: How long ſhall thy vain Thoughts lodge within thee! Jer. 4. 14. Waſh ye, make you Clean, put away the Evil of your Doings, from before mine Eyes; ceaſe to do Evil, learn to do Well; ſeek Judgment, relieve the Oppreſſed, judg the Fatherleſs, plead for the Widow. Come now, and let us Reaſon together, ſaith the Lord: Though your Sins be as Scarlet, they ſhall be as white as Snow; though they be Red like Crimſon, they ſhall be as Wool. If ye be Willing and Obedient, ye ſhall Eat the Good of the Land; but if ye Refuſe and Rebel, ye ſhall be devoured with the Sword: For the Mouth of the Lord hath ſpoken it, Iſa. 1. 16, to 21.

Is not here the true Baptiſm, and the Remiſſion of Sins, which enſueth thereupon, with the Bleſſing on the Baptiſed Eſtate, and the Curſe on the Unbaptized, which extendeth both to Jew and Gentile: for with God, There is no Reſpect of Perſons.

O that Men could read the Scriptures of Truth, with the true Spirit, and with the true Underſtanding! For theſe things which were Written to the People of the Jews, were Written for our Learning; and precious Things may be Learned from the Scriptures, by thoſe whoſe Eyes are opened by the Lord, and who keep cloſe in their Reading, to that which anointeth and openeth the Eye; whereas others cannot but miſunderſtand and wreſt them, to their own great Danger at leaſt, if not to the Ruin, and Deſtruction of their Souls.

I ſhall here mention but one Place more, which is that of Pſal. 51. 17. The Sacrifices of God, are a broken Spirit; a broken and contrite Heart, O God, thou wilt not Deſpiſe. Can any offer up the Sacrifice to God, but he who is inwardly and ſpiritually waſhed from that which defileth, and hardeneth? And, Doth not God require this Baptiſm? And, What is this, but the Baptiſm of the Spirit? who thus waſheth the Soul with his Heavenly Water, in the Miniſtration of his Word and Power, when the Vertue and Efficacy thereof reacheth to the Heart, in, and through the Faith.

Object. 2. The Baptiſm of the Spirit cannot be here intended, becauſe this Baptiſm is to be adminiſtred by Men; but the Baptiſm of the Spirit was never adminiſtred by Men, Jeſus Chriſt Was the alone Miniſter of this Baptiſm.

Anſw. The Apoſtle ſaith, That God had made them able Miniſters of the New Teſtament; not of the Letter, but of the Spirit: for the Letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth Life, 2 Cor. 3. 6.

Mark; They were made able Miniſters by God, of that which giveth Life: And that they did miniſter the Spirit by Impoſition of Hands, is manifeſt, Act. 19. 6. and in many other Scriptures.

Indeed, the Apoſtles were not able of themſelves, or by any Vertue or Strength of their own, to beget Men to God, or to Baptiſe Men into his Name and Power: But their Sufficiency was of God.

Again, Paul was ſent to the Gentiles, to open their Eyes, Act. 26. 18. Now, Opening the Eyes of the Blind, is as peculiar to Chriſt, as Baptizing with the Spirit can be.

When Chriſt gave his Apoſtles Commiſſion to Teach, Baptizing, he told them, All Power in Heaven and Earth was given him; and bid them not Depart from Jeruſalem; but wait for the Promiſe of the Father: For John truly Baptized with Water, but ye ſhall be Baptized with the Holy Ghoſt, not many dayes hence: and then they ſhould receive Power: What to do? To Baptize with Water, or, to Baptiſe Baptiſe into the Name with the ſame Baptiſm, wherewith they themſelves were Baptiſed? ſee Math. 28. and Acts. 1.

Now, if this Commiſſion (here given to the Apoſtles, Math. 28. 16, &c.) was to Baptiſe with Water, then Paul was inferior to the other Apoſtles: for he, though he had ſeen the Lord, and was ſent from him to open the eyes of the Gentiles: yet he was not ſent to Baptiſe with Water, as he expreſly ſaith; he was not ſent to Baptiſe, (that is outwardly with water) but to Preach the Goſpel. But if the Baptiſm intended by Chriſt, was inward and Spiritual, even into the Name, Vertue, Life, and Power of the Spirit: Then Paul had the Apoſtolick Commiſſion, as fully as any of the reſt; and the Grace and Power of God, did work as mightily in him to this end, as in any of them.

But Men are as much miſtaken about the teaching required by this Commiſſion, as about this Baptiſm: For this Teaching is not a litteral teaching of things, or a diſcipling into an outward Knowledge and Way; but a Teaching in the Spirit and Power: And him whom God enableth ſo to do, he alſo enableth to Baptiſe into the ſame Spirit and Power. Yea indeed, when the Life and Power Miniſters (the word ſpoken being mixed with Faith in them that hear) it brings the earthly Part under, and brings the Life and Power of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, over the Heart and Spirit. And this is true Baptiſm, and the ſubſtance of the Figure or Shadow, which was before the Figure either of Baptiſm, or Circumciſion was, and remains when they are gone.

Object. 3. This Baptiſm in the Commiſſion was to all Nations, but the Baptiſm of the Spirit, fell only on ſome few at the beginning.

Anſw. The Promiſe of receiving the Spirit, is upon believing, and it extendeth to every one that believeth. He that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath ſaid, out of his Belly ſhall flow Rivers of Living Water: but this ſpake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him, ſhould receive, John 7. 38, 39.

Anſwerably Peter ſaid to that great aſſembly, to which he preached, whereof there were added about Three Thouſand Souls; Repent and be Baptiſed every one of you, in the Name of Jeſus Chriſt, for the Remiſſion of Sins, and ye ſhall receive the Gift of the Holy Ghoſt: for the Promiſe is unto you, and to your Children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God ſhall call, Acts 2. 38, 39.

Indeed, ſeveral Gifts of the Spirit were given (ſome to one, ſome to another, according to the Pleaſure of the giver) and diverſities of manifeſtations and operations of the ſame inward Life and Power: but every one received ſo much of the Spirit, as to make him a Son, and to Cry Abba Father, and to Waſh him.

And this is the one Waſhing, which all the flock are waſhed with; and ſo Baptiſed into the one, pure, Living Body: And this is the ſubſtance of the Figure, which ſubſtance belongs to the Goſpel-State; though God alſo ſaw an uſe of ſome Figures in that Day, and ſo inclined their hearts then to make uſe of them, which his gathered Sons and Daughters (by the Goſpel-Spirit and Power in this Day) would make uſe of alſo, if the Lord did ſo require them. For the Lord is our Judge, and the Lord is our King, the Lord is our Law Giver; who by his Spirit and Power determines in every Age, what he would have his People do; and who leads into the way of Life, Truth, and Holineſs, which alwaies was and is but one and the ſame for ever.

And what if the Lord, who hath cauſed his everlaſting Day to dawn again, and the everlaſting Goſpel to be preached again, will have every ſhadow and Figure to fly away (ſeeing they are but of one elementary Nature and uſe, and not everlaſting and abiding;) Who may gain-ſay him herein; and ſay, That this is not the Miniſtration of the everlaſting Subſtance, or the ſame Goſpel the Apoſtles preached; becauſe ſome ſhadows, which they expect, and have a ſtrong belief concerning, are not found therein?

Object. 4. The Baptiſm in this Commiſſion, cannot be the Baptiſm of the ſpirit, becauſe it is to be adminiſtred in the Name of the ſpirit.

Anſw. The Greek word is not ἐν, which ſignifieth in; but εἰς which ſignifieth into;

So that, the Baptiſm here Commanded is to Baptize into the Name; into the Father's Name, into the Son's Name, into the Spirits Name, by turning them from Darkneſs to Light, from the Power of Satan to God; and then the Power and Life of God's Holy Spirit, comes over their Hearts and Minds, and breaketh the Power of Satan, and waſheth their Conſciences from that which is Dead, and plungeth or dippeth them into that which is Living.

Now, as God made them able Miniſters of the New Teſtament (which is a Spiritual Miniſtry, an Inward Miniſtry) and gave them the Heavenly Treaſure of Life, and of his Spirit to miniſter with: So, he required, and expected of them the Work of the Spiritual Miniſtry, which was the Spiritual Teaching, and Spiritual Baptizing into the Inward Name.

But, that there was alſo a Baptizing with Outward Water, that I do not deny; and that it was of uſe, as a Type to the Weak and Ceremonious ſtate the Jews were in (when Chriſt ſent forth his Apoſtles to gather them out of the Law-State, into the Goſpel-State,) I am alſo ſatisfied in: But it hath been ſince corrupted, and ſet up above it's place by Apoſtates; and every one ſhould conſider, and wait on the Lord to know, what God requires, and will accept of him. For the Kingdom of God ſtands not in Meats, or Drinks, or any Outward Waſhings, nor comes in the way of Man's Obſervation; but in an Heavenly Seed, and in the Holy Spirit and Power of Life; which, happy are they, who are made Partakers of, Baptized with, and led by. God will try every Man's Religion, Work, and Practices, by the true Reed, or Meaſuring-Line: Bleſſed is he, whoſe Religion will bear that Tryal.

It is a great Matter to know the Goſpel-State and Miniſtration, the Goſpel-Spirit and Power, the Goſpel-Church and Ordinances, the Words of the Holy Prophets concerning the Day of the Goſpel, the Words of Chriſt concerning the Kingdom and Power of God, the Words of the Apoſtles, concerning the Myſtery of Faith, and the VVord which was from the Beginning.

Theſe are weighty Things, and of great Concernment, about which Men may eaſily miſs, and wreſt the Scriptures, unleſs they be enlightened by the Lord, in the Renewing of their Minds, and their Eye kept to the Holy Anointing, that they may not out-run (and ſo imagine and conceive of themſelves, according to their own Ability of Underſtanding) but know, and keep to the Gift, and Inſpiration of the Almighty, which giveth true Underſtanding. For, as no Man knoweth the Mind of a Man, but Man's own Spirit within him; So the Mind of God (in the VVords which his Spirit ſpake) no Man knoweth, but his Spirit: And there is a Key of Knowledge, to open the Words of Scripture by, which they cannot be opened without; I mean, ſuch Scriptures as relate to the Myſtery of Life and Salvation, which was alwayes hid from the Wiſe and Prudent, in every Age.

The Phariſees had got a great deal of Knowledg, and Underſtanding of the Law of God, and Propheſies of Things to come from the Words of Moſes, and the Prophets: But they had not the Key of Knowledge; and ſo they erred, not knowing the Scriptures (notwithſtanding all their diligent Reading, and Studying them) nor the Power of God.

Every one had need be wary, leſt he err after the ſame manner; and ſo ſet up his own Apprehenſions from the Scriptures, inſtead of God's Truth, and the Mind of his Holy Spirit: For then he cannot but alſo oppoſe that, which is indeed his Truth, and truly agreeable to the Scriptures, though to Man's miſs-byaſſed Judgment, it may ſeem different or contrary

The Lord beget in Peoples Hearts true Deſires after Himſelf, and guide them into the Way, wherein they may obtain all the Deſires of their Souls, which he begets in them: and the Lord preſerve all that fear Him, from claſhing againſt the preſent Diſpenſation of his Life and Power, in their Day and Generation.

The Phariſees little thought, they would have killed the Prophets, had they lived in their Dayes; nay, they greatly Condemned their Fathers, for ſo doing: and yet they themſelves Crucified Chriſt. And many now little think, they would have have Crucified Chriſt, had they lived in the Dayes of his Fleſh; and yet they diſdain, reproach, and perſecute the Appearance of the ſame Spirit, Life, and Power, as it now appeareth in his Saints, whom he hath Redeemed, and dwelleth in, and in whom he manifeſteth Himſelf, Preacheth and Suffereth, whatever Men think of them.

O Bleſſed are they, that are not offended in Chriſt, in the preſent Appearance of his Life and Power: for they are not offended at him, who gives Life, in the Fathers Name, to all that receive him, and wait upon him, and worſhip in the Quicknings, and Vertue of his Spirit.

XXI.

Some Queſtions Anſwered, concerning the Gentiles doing by Nature the things contained in the Law; and ſo ſhewing the Work of the Law Written in their Hearts, Rom. 2. 14, 15.

Queſt. 1. BY what Nature did the Gentiles the Things contained in the Law? By the enlightned or unenlightned Nature? By Nature, as it lyeth corrupted in the Fall; or, By Nature in ſome meaſure renewed, by the Light of God's Spirit ſhining in the Heart? And, By what Covenant was the Law Written in their Hearts? Is not the Writing of the Law in the Heart, a Promiſe of the New Covenant, and can it be Writ in any Heart, but by Vertue of the New Covenant? Is not the leaſt Writing of the Law in the Heart, a Degree of the Promiſe? For the Old Covenant contains only the Law in the Letter; but the New Covenant contains the Writing of the Law in the Heart, by the Spirit.

Anſw. The Apoſtle had ſhewed before, that that which might be known of God, was manifeſt in them; for God had ſhewed it unto them: So that, they had a Manifeſtation of the Light of God's Spirit in them, whereby they might diſcern his Eternal Power and Godhead, in, or by the Things made: for that which is Viſible, ſhadows out, and declares that which is Inviſible, which the inward Eye ſees it, being opened by the Lord.

Now, their Hearts being joyned to this Manifeſtation of God within, it changeth the Heart and Nature; and in the changed Heart and Nature, God Writes his Law: and the Law being writ in any Meaſure in the Heart, it hath ſome Power upon Man, to cauſe him to ſubject to it, and anſwer what God requires of him thereby; and ſo his Heart and Conſcience will Accuſe him, or Excuſe him, as he is found Anſwering, or Rebelling againſt the Holy Light and Law of God's Spirit within, manifeſting the Will of God unto him. For God, though he peculiarly choſe the Jews, and in that Sence had caſt off the Gentiles, not chooſing them ſo to be his peculiar People; yet he was not the God of the Jews only, but of the Gentiles alſo; and had a Care of their precious Souls, viſiting them with that Light, and inward Manifeſtation of his Spirit, which was able to Save, and Deliver them from the Darkneſs. And it is Teſtified, they came thus far by this inward Manifeſtation of God in their Hearts, and what God had ſhewed them thereby, that they knew God, Rom. 1. 21. They had a true Knowledge of God, from the Light within: They had a Meaſure of the pure, and heavenly Gift. But they were not thankful for ſo great a Gift, in their dark State; and when they came to ſome true Knowledge, did not glorify God, according to what they knew of the Lord, from the Light of his Spirit within; but ran out from the Meaſure of the Gift into Imaginations, into the Conceivings of their own Wiſdom: And this brought Darkneſs upon them, and gave deceit Power over their Hearts.

Now, if they had not profeſſed themſelves to be Wiſe, but kept low to the Manifeſtation of God's Spirit, and denied their own Wiſdom; they might have been truly Wiſe: But running out from the Meaſure of the Gift, into their own Wiſdom and Thoughts, they became Fools, as to the true Wiſdom, and wandered into groſs Idolatrous Conceptions, and brought great Judgments from God upon themſelves. And this was their Condemnation (not that the Light of God had not ſhone in their Hearts, not that that which might be known of God, was not manifeſt in them; but) That they loved their own dark Wiſdom, Thoughts, and Conceivings, more than the Manifeſtation of the Light of God's Spirit within.

Queſt. 2. But, if God was the God of the Gentiles, and thus viſited them, Were any of them Saved hereby? Did not all the Gentiles Univerſally periſh, notwithſtanding this Light, or Manifeſtation of God's Spirit within?

Anſw. God forbid, that the inward Manifeſtation of his Light and Viſitation of his Holy Spirit, ſhould be of no Effect to none of the Gentiles; but that they ſhould all Periſh notwithſtanding it. It is Teſtified here, that ſome of them came ſo far, as to have their Nature changed, ſo that they were a Law to themſelves, and did by Nature the things contained in the Law; which it is impoſſible for corrupt, fallen Man to do. And theſe, harkening to that, and following that which led them thus far, could not chooſe but like to retain God in their Knowledge, which the Generality (who followed their own Wiſdom) did not; whereupon God gave them over to a Reprobate Mind, ver. 28.

But now, thoſe that had the Law Written in their Hearts, and Anſwered it, fearing God, and working Righteouſneſs, and liking to retain God in their Knowledge, ſuch God did not give up to a Reprobate Mind; but kept them ſavoury to himſelf, and made them more and more Partakers of the true and inward Circumciſion: So that, their want of outward Circumciſion, was no Hinderance to them, as to Acceptance with God; but their Uncircumciſion, went with God for Circumciſion.

And this their State (from the inward Life and Power) judged the Jew, who boaſted ſo much of his State, becauſe of the Letter of the Law, and outward Circumciſion, Rom. 2. 26, 27. Yea, this State ſhall be juſtified by God, when God cometh to judge the Secrets of Men by Jeſus Chriſt, according to my Goſpel, ſaid Paul, ver. 16. Jeſus Chriſt is the Judge, who will juſtify what ever his Spirit hath made known of God the Father, in the Hearts of the Gentiles, and them in their Senſe thereof, and Subjection thereto.

That Man, who hath bowed to the Spirit, been taught by the Spirit (having had the Law of God Written in his Heart) and learned Obedience in the New Nature, ſo as to do the things contained in the Law, and hath received the inward Circumciſion, which cutteth off, teacheth to deny, and keep down that which is corrupt; which will never anſwer the Law, nor ſuffer the Man in whom it rules to anſwer it: I ſay, he that cometh into the Senſe of God's Spirit, and the Law thereof, and into the Denial of his own Spirit, he bears that, which in Subſtance is the Croſs of Chriſt, which Crucifieth the Worldly Nature and Spirit: And as he is truly Circumciſed; ſo muſt he needs alſo be Juſtified, and Saved under this Yoak. For the Lord God of Life, the Father of Glory, will condemn none whom he finds in Chriſt, ſubjected to Chriſt, one in Nature with the Image of his Son; and Chriſt will condemn none, whom he finds in his Spirit, taught by his Spirit, receiving Holy Laws from his Spirit, and walking in Obedience thereto. And indeed, I doubt not, but the Merciful God hath ſaved many among the Gentiles, in all Ages and Generations, by the Light of his holy Spirit, working their Minds into the ſenſe thereof, and into ſubjection thereto, according to the Manifeſtation thereof within them. For it is not the having much Knowledge that ſaves; but the being ſubject to the Meaſure of the gift, which comes from the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the Saviour.

Queſt. 3. But, How can thoſe be Juſtified according to Paul's Goſpel, who never heard Paul's Goſpel?

Anſw.

Anſw. Paul's Goſpel is the Goſpel of Chriſt, the Everlaſting Goſpel, the One Goſpel, which is the Power which Saves, which is manifeſted in the New Covenant within; which is hid in them that are loſt, but revealed in ſome meaſure, in all that are Saved. Where-ever the New Covenant is, there is the Goſpel: Where-ever the Law is in any meaſure written within, there's ſomewhat of the Goſpel.

If a Man believe in that which ſhines within, which manifeſts the Will of God within, he believes in that Power, which raiſed our Lord Jeſus Chriſt from the Grave: And if he layd hold on it by Faith, he layes hold on God's Strength, which inwardly viſits to ſave the Soul: Yea, and if he obey it, he obeys the Goſpel, and ſhall not be condemned for Diſobedience, when Chriſt appears in Flames of Fire, to Judge and Condemn all the Ungodly.

XXII.

Concerning the Rule of the Children of the New Covenant.

WHat was the Rule of the Jew outward? As to their outward State, Was not the Law and Teſtimony outward? Did not he make the Law in the Letter? What is the Rule of the Jew inward? Is not the Law and Teſtimony inward? Is not the Goſpel a Miniſtration of Spirit and Power? And, Is it not a more Glorious Miniſtration, than the Law of the Letter? Under the Law, God ſpake by Moſes, and the Prophets; but under the Goſpel, he ſpeaketh by his Son: And, Do not his Sheep hear his Son's (the true Shepherd's) Voice? We all like Sheep, have gone aſtray; but (Bleſſed be the Lord) are now returned to the Shepherd, and Biſhop of our Souls: And, Shall we not hear him, and follow him whitherſoever he goes, and leads by his holy, and good Spirit? A Prophet ſhall the Lord your God raiſe up unto you, like unto me; Him ſhall ye hear in all things, ſaid Moſes. Did Moſes ſay, My Words ſhall be your Rule; or, The Words of the Prophets ſhall be your Rule then, in the Dayes of the New Covenant? Nay, he did not ſay ſo; but, Him ſhall ye hear in all things; and he that will not hear Him, ſhall be cut off: Yea, verily, it is ſo. He is the Miniſter of Life: and he that doth not hear him, and receive Life, Vertue, and Power from him, he builds but from the Letter (from what he apprehends from the Letter) but is really ſeparated, and cut off from the Miniſtry of the Life and Power. He that hath an Ear, let him hear; and he that hath an Heart, let him conſider.

Now, the true Jew, the Jew inward, in whoſe Heart God writes his Law by the Finger of his Spirit; he is to read and to meditate on the inward Law written in his Heart, as the outward Jew was to read and meditate on the outward Law. And as in Obedience to the outward Law, the outward Jew was bleſſed, and free from the Curſe, and his outward Enemies: ſo, in Obedience to the inward Law (the Law of the Spirit of Life) the inward Jew reaps the Spiritual Bleſſings, and becomes inwardly free from his inward, and ſpiritual Enemies. Ye ſhall know the Truth, and the Truth ſhall make you free, ſaid Chriſt to his Diſciples: and every true Diſciple in the Obedience of the Truth, witneſſeth it.

And here the Myſtery of all (which was outwardly written, and teſtified of) is known: the Myſtery of the Law, the Myſtery of the Propheſies, the Myſtery of the Goſpel, the Myſtery of the Fellowſhip in, and with the Saints in Light, the Myſtery of the Faith, which is held in a pure Conſcience, the Myſtery of the Love, which ariſeth from the true and inward Circumciſion, the Myſtery of the Hope, which anchors within the Vail, and purifies the Heart, as he is Pure. For the true Children, the Children of the Heavenly Wiſdom, being Children of the hidden Life, are begotten in a Myſtery: for the Spirit of God breatheth upon them, no man knoweth how, and thus is every one, that is born of the Spirit.

Now, as they are begotten in the Myſtery of Life; ſo the Myſtery belongs to them, them, and is revealed and opened in them; insomuch, that they know God, not only as outwardly described; but, as inwardly revealed and manifested in Christ, his bright and heavenly Image.

So here the one Truth is known, even as it is in Jesus, the one Way is known, the one Name of the Lord (which is, and was the strong Tower, in all Ages and Generations, which the Righteous did, and do still fly unto, and are safe) is known; here the one Baptism is known, here the one Supper is known; yea, here the One God is worshipped, as Father and Son, in the one Spirit and Truth. So that, here is no dreaming in the Night, by Men's Comprehendings and Conceivings upon the Scriptures. But here is seeing with the true Eye, in a Measure of the Light of the Everlasting Day, which is given to the Children of Light; who live in the Light, and walk in the Light, and in the true Light (which now shines) see the pure and Eternal Light dayly more and more.

Who would not count all Dross and Dung (even all the Knowledge he can gather and Comprehend of himself) for the Excellency of this Knowledge, which God gives to those that are turned to the Light, and power of his Spirit, from the Darkness of their own Thoughts, Reasonings, and Conceivings upon the Scriptures; and who wait upon him therein, even in his holy Temple, Night and day? For all under the Gospel, are to be Priests to God; and all his Priests are to wait upon him, and worship him in his holy Temple, and to watch diligently, that neither the Fire go out, nor the Lamp go out, nor the Salt be wanting to season, and keep the Heart melted and broken, that it may be a continual acceptable Sacrifice to the Lord.

Time was, when we also did believe, that the Scriptures were the only Rule of Faith and Practice; and so bent our selves to search out, and observe what we found written therein, hoping thereby to have attained to that, which our Souls desired after. But we found all the Directions thereof weak, as to us, through the Flesh, and Sin had still Power over us; and we knew not what it was, to be made free by the Son, (free by the Truth) free indeed from that which stood near, to tempt and draw us into sin. But, when the Light of God's holy Spirit shined upon us, and our minds were by him turned thereto, and his Law written on our Hearts, in and by the New Covenant, which he revealed in us, and made with us in, and through his Son: then we felt the Ministration of the Power of the endless Life, and were experimentally assured, that in the Gospel-Administration, which is an administration of the Spirit and Power, nothing less than Spirit and Power, can be the Rule.

Mark; In the Old Covenant, Letter (or outward Directions) was a Rule; (but the Living Commandment, or word in the Heart, was the Rule in the New Covenant, living Laws, Laws livingly written; Laws that give Life to them, in whom they are written; they are the living, powerful, and effectual Rule.

Nor do we undervalue the Scriptures, in thus giving Honour to Christ, and his Spirit: For it is their Honour, to testify of Christ, and of his Spirit; who is the pure, certain, infallible Rule of the New Life, and who gives to fulfil all the Holy Directions, which are written in the Scriptures, concerning the Way of Life.

A Man, at a distance, may easily speak uncertainly: but let a man be joyned to God's Spirit, and feel his holy Nature, Movings, Leadings, and Guidings, he cannot but acknowledge them to be his certain and infallible Rule: For nothing is more certain, then God's Spirit, then the holy Anointing, which is Truth, and no Life, and leads into all Truth, and out of a very Lye and Deceit.

XXIII. Some

XXIII.

Some Queries concerning the Law, or Word, Statutes, Teſtimonies, Judgments, &c. which David was ſo delighted in, and prayed ſo earneſtly for.

David ſaid; Thy Word is a Lanthorn to my Feet, and a Light to my Paths. He found it ſweeter, than the Hony, and the Hony-Comb: He deſired to be taught God's Statutes, and to Learn the Way of his Precepts, &c. as may be abundantly read Pſal 19. and in other places.

Quer. 1. What was this Word or Law, which there was ſuch an earneſt deſire in David after; by obſerving whereof, he became Wiſer than his Teachers? Was it the Law of Moſes, the Law outward? Or, Was it the Word, and Law of Life inward?

If it be ſaid, It was the Law of Moſes, then I query in the ſecond place.

Quer. 2. What Rule had David from the Law of Moſes to ſay, That God deſired not Sacrifice, nor delighted in Burnt Offerings? Did not God deſire and require of his People under the Law, that they ſhould perform theſe Things? And, Did he not accept of them, and delight in them, when they performed them aright, in Faith and Obedience to him? Was not the Lord pleaſed with Abel's Sacrifice? And, did not God ſmell a Savour of Reſt in Noah's Sacrifice? How could David ſay in Truth, and from a true Spirit, that God did neither deſire them, nor delight in them?

Quer. 3. Ought not David to try this Spirit, which ſpake thus in him, whether it was of God, or no? Should he receive a Teſtimony from any Spirit, ſo directly contrary, in Appearance, to the foregoing Teſtimonies of God's Spirit in the holy Scriptures, without a full and certain Evidence and Demonſtration, that it was the Spirit of God.

Quer. 4. How was David to try, or how might he certainly try this Spirit, whether it was of God, or no? Was he to try it thus, whether it ſpake according to the Teſtimony, and Law of Moſes, according to what Moſes had ſpoken in this Matter, which certainly was of God, and was given by God, for a Law or Rule to that People the Jews? If he had tryed it thus, Would he not have judged it a Spirit different from the Spirit of Moſes, ſpeaking contrary to the Law and Teſtimonies; which God gave forth by him? for Sacrifice and burnt offering was ſtrictly required there, and God often teſtified his Acceptance thereof, and Delight therein. So that, God did accept, and did delight therein in one reſpect; and did not accept, nor delight at all in them, in another reſpect; but his aim was at another thing, and at other Sacrifices, which David clearly ſaw. And ſo David's Eye, Mind, Heart, and Spirit being gathered inward, even thither where God's Eye and Heart was; he there had a clear Sight, and gave a certain Sound, concerning what was acceptable in the Eye of the Lord, and what not: And ſo ſaith, God did not deſire Sacrifice, nor delight in burnt Offering; (Pſal. 51. 16.) Though the Language of the Law of Moſes, ſpeaketh far otherwiſe; where Circumciſion, Sacrifices, and ſuch outward Things are expreſſed as of great Value with the Lord, and as great and high Priviledges, which were beſtowed upon that People, in that Day.

Quer. 5. May not the ſame Spirit, or the Children of God, in the ſame Spirit ſay ſay to the Lord in this Day, concerning Things of the ſame outward Nature: Thou deſireſt not ſuch outward Things, elſe would we perform them: Thou delighteſt not in outward Shadows of the things of the Kingdom. Thou deſireſt not outward Waſhing the Body with Water, or Eating and Drinking of outward Bread and Wine, which avail no more than Circumciſion, and the Paſſover. If thy Delight were in Things of this Nature, and thou didſt require them of us, How willingly would we be found in the Practice of them, before thee? But thy Delight is in that Water, which waſheth the Soul from its Filth; and in the Souls, that are waſhed therewith: And thou deſireſt to ſee thy Children feeding on the Living Bread, the Bread which comes down from Heaven, and to drink of the Wine which refreſheth, and maketh glad the Heart both of God and Man.

Quer. 6. If any of the Children of the moſt High ſhould in this feel the Life wherewith God hath quickned them, open in their Hearts, and ſuch a Teſtimony ariſing from his Spirit in them; How ſhould they try, whether this Spirit and Voice were of God, or no? Should they look into the Writings of the Evangeliſts and Apoſtles, to ſee whether Baptiſm with outward Water, and eating of outward Bread, and drinking of outward Wine was ever commanded, and practiſed in the Apoſtles Dayes? And if they ſuppoſe ſtrongly, that 'twas Commanded, or find it was practiſed; May they thereupon ſafely conclude, That it is a wrong Spirit, and wrong Voice, that teſtifieth thus in them, and not the Voice and Spirit of the Lord? Had David tryed, and judged thus, Might not he have judged and condemned the Spirit and Voice of God, in his Day? And, if we Try, and Judge in this manner, May not we Judge and Condemn the Spirit and Voice of God, in our Day? David ſaw clearly, that outward Sacrifices were not the abiding Thing; but Significations of that, which was Abiding; and this Sight greatly ſhook them, in his Spirit. The Lord hath likewiſe ſhewn us clearly, that outward Water, Bread, and Wine, are not the Subſtantial, the Spiritual, the Heavenly Water, the Heavenly Bread and Wine; but of the Nature of ſuch Things, as were to be ſhaken, that thoſe Things which cannot be ſhaken, may remain in the Goſpel-State and Kingdom.

O therefore, let Men take heed how they build, or how they judge concerning the Appearances of God, by their own Apprehenſions, upon the Letter of the Scriptures. But let every one be careful to build upon the Rock Chriſt, upon his Spirit, his Life, his Power inwardly revealed, which the Birth, which is of him, knows; and that Birth, being kept to, reveals in, and to us: But no Man, by his own Conceivings, and apprehenſions upon the Letter, ever knew or can know the Spirit, and Voice of the Lord.

And thus Men may come, waiting here in Humility, and Fear upon the Lord, to Judge true and righteous Judgment, concerning the Appearances of God, and the Things of his Kingdom; which they can never do, by their own Underſtanding, and comprehending Things from the Scriptures, out of the Light, and quickning Life of God's Spirit. For Man is dead, dark, and corrupt, but as he is quickned, enlightned, and his Heart ſanctified by God's holy Spirit. What can a dead Man ſee? What can a dead Man hear? Can he hear the living Sound before he is quickned by it? Do not the Scriptures relate, and treat of Spiritual Things? And, Can the natural Man underſtand them? Can Man's unholy Mind underſtand the Word of God's pure holy Spirit, which were given forth through Veſſels that were ſanctified (ſome from the Womb;) and when the Spirit of the Lord was upon them, and they gathered by his Spirit into an holy, living Senſe?

O that Men ſaw their Need of the Lord, to open their Hearts, and that Fleſh might be ſilent in them, that they might come to witneſs the Birth of God's Spirit, and the precious underſtanding of the Heavenly Things, which is therein given! And then, that Underſtanding which is not precious, nor living, nor of God, but of themſelves, would not be of ſo great value with them: For indeed, through this great Miſtake, many (ſome whereof are zealous, and knowing, according to the Eſteem of Men) reject that which is of God, and ſet up that which is of themſelves, even of their own apprehending, and conceiving, which will be bitterneſs, and ſorrow in the latter end; when that eye ſhall be opened in them, which is at preſent cloſed in too too many.

Bleſſed is he, who can truly ſay, The Lord hath opened an eye in me, even the true eye, the pure eye, the living eye; and with that eye I now ſee,; but with the eye wherewith I ſaw before, I now ſee not: and now I know the difference between ſeeing the ſame things with my own eye, and with the eye which God hath given me, So that now my earneſt deſire, and Prayer to the Lord is, to keep open in me for for ever, that eye which he hath opened; and alſo, to keep that eye ſhut which he in his tender Mercy to me hath been pleaſed to cloſe up in me.

And truly, this is the ground of the great Difference between us, and others about the things of God; for though we own the ſame things, and ſpeak of the ſame things; yet we own them not alike, nor ſpeak of them alike. Why ſo? becauſe we ſee them with different eyes, and ſo have a different ſenſe of them.

Others call things True, and ſo acknowledge them as they apprehend them from the Letter: we call things True, as they are demonſtrated to us by Gods Spirit, and as we feel the Virtue, Life and Power of them from God, in our Hearts.

Now, this we are aſſured is the true way of Knowledge; therefore is it our hearts deſire (in true love to all, eſpecially to thoſe in whom there are any tender breathings after God) that People might ſo wait upon the Lord, as that they might be led by him into it, and quickned daily more and more by him in it.

And indeed, thoſe teachings and demonſtrations of Truth, which are given and received in the pure Senſe, and in the quickening Life; they are the teachings of Gods Spirit, according to the new Covenant, which is a Miniſtration not of the Letter (no not of thoſe ſhadowy or dead things, which are adminiſtred therein) but of the Power and Life. For the Law, is Letter, but the Goſpel is Spirit and Power. The Goſpel-State is a State of fulfilling thoſe things in the Spirit and Power of the endleſs life, in the new Covenant, which were ſpoken of, promiſed, and ſhadowed out under the Law in the Old Covenant.

XXIV.

Some Obſervations on 2 Pet. 3. 14, 15, 16.

Wherefore beloved, ſeeing that ye look for ſuch things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace without Spot, and Blameleſs. And account the long ſuffering of the Lord is Salvation; even as our beloved Brother Paul alſo, according to the Wiſdom given unto him, hath written unto you, as alſo, in all his Epiſtles; ſpeaking in them of theſe things, in which are ſome things hard to be underſtood, which they that are unlearned and unſtable wreſt, as they do alſo the other Scriptures unto their own Deſtruction.

Obſer. 1. WHat Peter, Paul, and the reſt of the Holy men of God wrote of? They wrote of the Grace of the Goſpel: they wrote of the ſufferings of Chriſt, and the Glory that ſhould follow, and the Salvation of the Soul, and true Reſt, which believers ſhould receive; and enter into in him, 1 Pet, 1. 2, &c. and Heb. 4. 39. They Wrote concerning the times of Reformation, wherein thoſe things ſhould be reformed under the ſecond Covenant, which had been amiſs under the firſt, Heb. 8. They wrote of the times of Refreſhing, and Reſtitution from the Preſence of the Lord, Acts. 3. 24. For in the new Covenant, there is a renewing and reſtoring; and the pure preſence of God, which refreſheth, is witneſſed and enjoyed there. They wrote of the Everlaſting Kingdome the Kingdom which cannot be ſhaken, Heb. 12. 28. which ſtands in that Power, which ſhakes all things that may be ſhaken; but it ſelf is unmoveable. They wrote of the Day of the Lord, the Day of the Goſpel, which brings Darkneſs and Confuſion upon mans ſpirit, and Glory, and Deſolation upon his Buildings, melting and diſſolving the Old Heavens, and the Old Earth, wherein Righteouſneſs had a Place; and bringing forth the new Heavens and the New Earth, wherein dwells Righteouſneſs. Iſa. 51. 16.

For, if any Man be in Chriſt, there is a New Creation: Old things paſs away, and all things become New, at Chriſt's appearing in his Glory, in the heart, to which they that truly believe in him, cannot but haſten; that the earth with the Works thereof, may be burnt up, and the Heavens alſo; that ſo the new Heavens, and the new Earth, may be inwardly Witneſſed and experienced, and the King of Glory found ſitting on his Throne, and Reigning therein.

Obſer. 2. How Peter and Paul, with the reſt of the Apoſtles, and Holy Men of God, wrote; they wrote according to the Wiſdom given unto them: They wrote not in their own Wills, or according to their own Wiſdom; but kept to the Gift and Light of the Spirit, which they had received from the Lord. They waited to obſerve the Lord go before, the Spirit of the Lord move, and alſo give ability from the meaſure, and gift of Life, which he had beſtowed upon them.

And theſe are the proper limits of writing and ſpeaking under the Miniſtration of the Goſpel, which is a Miniſtration of the Spirit and Power, and not of the litteral Knowledge of things, according to mans Underſtanding and Comprehenſion.

Obſer. 3. That there are ſome things in the writings of Paul (and in the other Scriptures alſo) hard to be underſtood; which every one that hath true Life, and true ſenſe, do not at firſt underſtand; but only ſuch as are grown to a Capacity. For the writings of the Apoſtles, and miniſtrations of the Spirit, are to ſeveral States and Capacities, and can only be underſtood according to the growth and Capacity of each ſtate; much leſs can the Carnal underſtand or digeſt that which is high, and Spiritual.

Obſer. 4. That there are ſome, among thoſe, whom the Lord viſiteth, and reacheth to by his Power, who do not attain to the Knowledge of the Truth, nor come to the eſtabliſhment therein; Some that are alwaies Learning, but never come to the True, Heavenly, Spiritual Knowledge of the things of God; Some that know Chirſt only, according to the Letter, but not according to his Spirit and Power. Some there are, that learn in ſuch a way, as they can never come truly and throughly to underſtand: For it is God, that openeth the Heart and Ear; it is Chriſt who hath, and giveth the Key of Knowledge; but many learn what they can, of the things of God and Chriſt, without having their Hearts and Ears opened by the Lord, and without the true Key of Knowledge; and ſo thoſe remain unlearned and unſtable, as to the Myſtery of Godlineſs, as to the Myſtery of Life and Salvation, and as to the Nature of the things of God's Kingdom.

Obſer. 5. That thoſe, who are unlearned and unſtable in the myſtery of Truth, are wreſters of the Scripture. They cannot underſtand things as they are, not having the Key, and ſo they wreſt them, and ſtrive to make them ſpeak, as they apprehend, and would have them.

And here, in this State, in this Wiſdom, is both adding to, and diminiſhing from the Holy Words of Truth: For in many places, they add of their own Conceivings, and in other places diminiſh from the Driſt and Intent of God's Spirit.

Obſer. 6. That wreſting the Scriptures tends to the Deſtruction of thoſe that do it. God is the Saviour, and the Holy Words of the Saviour tend to ſave: but being bent aſide by mans Nature and Spirit, they are not the ſame they were, when they came from God, nor have at all that Virtue and Nature in them.

And indeed, wreſting the Scriptures, is an high, preſumptuous, and provoking act, act, and brings God's diſpleaſure againſt, and curſe upon the Soul.

Now, It it is impoſſible for any man, not to wreſt the Scriptures, unleſs he keep cloſe to God's Spirit to receive from him the underſtanding of them; For the Inſpiration of the Almighty, giveth underſtanding, and not another thing. God knoweth what he intendeth, in the words he ſpake concerning the heavenly things; but man knoweth not, but as his Spirit is opened and enlightned by the Lord.

Bleſſed is he, who waiteth upon and watcheth to God's Spirit, in reading the Scriptures, not leaning to his own underſtanding and apprehenſion of things, but waiting to feel his mind opened and quickned by the Lord; that, in the renewings of his mind, he may learn of God that which is New and Living, which is not comprehended in the Letter, (or in Litteral deſcriptions of things, but in the ſpirit and power it ſelf; which is the limits of the new Covenant, out of which the Children of life are not to depart; but to abide, dwell, and grow up therein.

XXV.

Concerning the Goſpel Miniſtry, or right Way of Teaching and Learning the Myſtery of Life and Salvation.

WHen Chriſt came in the fulneſs of time, in that Body prepared for him by the Father (he who was filled with the Spirit, and anointed of God to preach the Goſpel,) he preached the Kingdom of God, bidding men ſeek it, directing them where to ſeek it and how they might find it; telling them in ſeveral Parables, what it was like, and where to look for it, even within their own Hearts; and that they might the better diſcern it, ſhadowed out the Being, Nature, and Properties of it, in ſeveral Reſemblances. He compared it to a Treaſure hid in a Field, which the Wiſe Merchant ſelleth all, to buy; To a Pearl hid in the Earth; To a loſt piece of Silver, which they that ſweep their own Houſes and ſearch with the true Candle, may find; To a Talent, (for ſuch is the Free-Gift of the pure and Heavenly Life;) To Leaven (hid Leaven;) To a Seed; To a Salt, &c.

So when Chriſt ſent his Apoſtles after him, in the ſame Spirit and Power wherein he himſelf came and Miniſtred, he ſent them to preach the ſame thing, giving them this meſſage to declare to men, that God is Light and in him is no Darkneſs at all and that Chriſt is the Way, the Truth, and the Life; and that the Life was manifeſted; ſo that they heard, and ſaw, and taſted, and handled of it, and ſo were to direct men, how to come into fellowſhip with them in this Life, and to walk in the Light as God is in the Light.

Thus Paul likewiſe who was ſent after the reſt, was ſent to turn men from Darkneſs to Light, and From the Power of Satan unto God. Acts. 26. 18

Now, People being turned to the Light (where they may receive underſtanding, and feel Vertue, and know the anointing, and hear the Voice of the ſhepherd) thoſe who are over them in the Lord, and were made uſe of by him, as Inſtruments, to turn their minds hither, may be ſenſible of their Conditions, and may have a Word of Direction from God to ſpeak to them. And this teaching, is not the teaching of man, but the teaching of the Holy Anointing, and he that heareth this teaching, heareth Chriſt, and he that rejecteth this Preaching rejects Chriſt.

Yet, (though the Lord pleaſeth thus to miniſter from the Heavenly Treaſure, in ſome Veſſels, which he hath prepared for that end) People are not alwaies to be expecting Penſions, or Portions of food from others without; but to know, and come to the Bread and Water of Life in their own Houſes; that there they may eat the Fleſh of the Son of man, and drink his Blood, as all do who have true Life in them.

Now, to give forth Precepts of Holineſs (as the Way in the Apoſtacy hath been) before mens minds are turned to that which inlightneth, and giveth Power to Believe and Obey; that is not the way of the Goſpel; but the way of the Goſpel, is to bring to the Foundation of Light and Life in the particular, and ſo to diſſettle the Spirit from that which is Dead, and found it upon that which is Living; that a Living building of pure Life, of living materials, of living ſtones may be raiſed up unto the Lord, in which Temple he dwells and appears, exerciſing his Authority and Power.

For indeed, God dwelleth in the Temples of his own building, which are built by and in his Spirit; but in all other Temples, which are built out of the Spirit, and only by men (not by God) in a way of Imitation from the Letter, in which they ſet up the likeneſſes of things; and ſo, ſet themſelves to Pray and Preach, according to their apprehending, and forming of things: I ſay, in theſe buildings the Holy Spirit of God dwelleth not; but that Spirit, which hath thus deceived them.

And thus, Men erring in their hearts, concerning the Light, concerning the Power, concerning the Foundation, (not knowing how it is indeed laid in Sion) concerning the Scriptures of Truth, (which can only be underſtood in the light, and Inſpiration of the Almighty, from whence they were given forth) they can never come to konw Chriſt, and his Spirit, livingly revealed in Power, in their own Hearts; nor the New and Living Way, and how to Walk therein; nor the Truth as it is in Jeſus, according to the Miniſtration of the New-Teſtament, (which is not after the Letter, but after the Spirit) nor the New-Covenant, which is made with the Soul in Chriſt, wherein all things are made new, and the Old done away; nor the Law of the *S*pirit of Life in Chriſt Jeſus, written in the Heart, which blots out the other Law, even the Law of *S*in and Death, and makes free therefrom; and ſo they cannot Witneſs what it is to come from under the Law, where *S*in Reigns, into, and under Grace, where Life Reigns, and hath the Dominion.

Who knows the Truth, which makes free! Could Men then ſay, they ſhall never be made free from the Body of *S*in, on this ſide the Grave! Who hath received Grace, for Grace, from Chriſt Jeſus the Lord, and knows the Virtue of it? Could Men then teſtifie againſt it, for Sin, as if the Grace of Chriſt could never deliver from it, and give Dominion over it, here in this life; who knows the Faith which gives Victory, the Hope which Purifies, the Love which Unites to God, and Conſtrains unto the Obedience of the Goſpel, and whoſe Strength in the Heart is ſtronger than the Strength of Death?

Oh, the Goſpel-Religion, the Goſpel-Spirit, the Goſpel-Power, the Goſpel-Love, the Goſpel-Faith, the Goſpel-Obedience, the Goſpel-Knowledge, the Goſpel-Worſhip, hath been loſt for many Ages, and Generations. And, now God hath cauſed it to ſhine forth, and appear again, what a Flood of reproaches doth the Dragon ſend forth againſt it? And, how do Men ſtrive to uphold their dead knowledge, and their dead buildings, their dead ways, their dead worſhips, &c. Which they think highly of, and Magnifie, blaſpheming that which is living; which came from God, is accompanied with his Power, and hath the Evidence and Demonſtration of his Spirit going along with it!

Well, All Fleſh is Graſs, and its Beauty ſhall Fade! Let it Paint, and make a Flouriſh, as long as it can; yet the Breath of the Lord hath blown upon it, and it is already withered, and ſhall wither dayly more and more. But the Word of the Lord, which quickeneth, and changeth the Heart, (which his deſpiſed ſervants have been viſited with, and have Teſtified, and do Teſtifie of) ſhall abide for ever, when that Spirit, Wiſdome, and Religion, which hath oppoſed, ſhall Vaniſh like ſmoak, and ſink under eternal Condemnation.

XXVI.

A few words concerning the Old and New-Covenant, with ſome Queries thereupon.

THe Old Covenant was that Covenant, which God made with that people the Jews, when he took them by the hand, to bring them out of the Land of Egypt Outward. The New-Covenant, is that Covenant, which God makes with the Soul, when he takes it by the Hand, to lead it out of Egypt Inward, which is the Land of Darkneſs and Pollution.

The Old-Covenant was made with the Outward People, with the Seed of Abraham, according to the Fleſh. The New-Covenant is made with the Inward People, with the Seed of Abraham, according to the Spirit, according to the Faith, according to the Promiſe: for in this Covenant, not they that are the Children of the Fleſh, are of Abraham; but the Children of the Promiſe are accounted for the Seed.

The Old-Covenant was made by Moſes, the Servant, who was Faithful in all his Houſe, as a Servant. The New-Covenant is made by Chriſt, the Lord and King of his Church and People, who is Faithful in Quickening them all, Reconciling them all, Interceding for them all, according to the Tenure and way of this Covenant.

The Old Covenant conſiſted in Laws and Directions outward, which that Nation and People had fully and exactly given them from God, above all Nations and People of the Earth. The New Covenant conſiſts in Life and Spirit inward which the Holy People, the Renewed People, the Redeemed People are viſited with, and made Partakers of, above all other People.

Under the Old Covenant, though the Lord did great things before the Eyes of that People in Egypt, and exerciſed them with Signes, Miracles, and Tryals alſo in the Wilderneſs; yet the Lord did not give them an Heart to perceive, and Eyes to ſee, and Ears to hear unto that day; as mentioned in Deut. 29. 2, 3, 4. the vail was over their Hearts. But the Other Covenant containes the Giving of a New Heart, the Opening of the Blind Eye, the Unſtopping of the Deaf Ear, the Writing the Law in the Heart, the putting the pure Fear in the inward parts, the Putting God's Spirit within them; and ſo, cauſing them to walk in his Statutes, and to keep his judgments, and do them.

Whereupon theſe Queries are in my Heart.

Quer. 1. Will not this Covenant inwardly Reform the Heart, Soul, Mind, and Conſcience; and amend all in this Inward, ſpiritual, renewed People; which was amiſs in that outward, earthly, unrenewed People?

Quer. 2. Doth not the Soul begin to enter into this Covenant, ſo ſoon as ever it Anſwers the Lord, in the viſits of his Love, turning from Sin unto Him?

Quer. 3. How precious is that Grace of the Goſpel, which brings into this Covenant? For the People of the Jews came into the Old Covenant, by the Law which was given by Moſes; but the Children of the New Covenant come thereinto, by receiving the Gace and Truth, which comes by Jeſus Chriſt.

Quer. 4. Can any poſſibly enter into the Covenant, without coming to the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and receiving Grace from him? Can obſerving Precepts, and Directions from Scripture, bring into this Covenant? Or, Is it the receiving Grace, Truth, Life in the inward Parts, from Chriſt the Lord, which brings into this Covenant? O wait to know the Miniſtration of the Goſpel, and Covenant of Life, with the Entrance thereinto; O all that truly deſire the Salvation of your Souls!

Quer. 5. Wherein doth the Miniſtry of this Covenant conſiſt? Or how is the Teaching thereof? Is it by getting a form of Knowledge out of the Letter, or Miniſtring the Letter; Is it not a Miniſtration, not of the Letter, but of the Spirit?

rit? The Apoſtles ſaid ſo, who knew what it was, and was made an able miniſtiſter thereof by God, 2 Cor. 3. 6. Truly, none can Miniſter Goſpelly, none can miniſter under the new Covenant, but thoſe that miniſter from, and in the Spirit.

XXVII.

Queries on ſome Parts of Rom. 6, 7, and 8th. Chapters.

From Chapter. 6.

Quer. 1. WHat is it to be Baptiſed into Chriſt? Is it not to be Baptiſed into his Death? Are not they that are truly Baptiſed into Chriſt, buried with him by Baptiſm into Death? that like as Chriſt was raiſed up from the Dead by the glory of the Father; even ſo they alſo ſhould walk in the Newneſs of Life. How can they that are dead to Sin live any longer therein?

Quer. 2. What was the end of Chriſts Manifeſtation in Fleſh, and ſending his Spirit? Was it not to deſtroy the Works of the Devil, to Crucifie the Old man, that the Body of Sin might be deſtroyed, that henceforth we ſhould not ſerve Sin?

Quer. 3. Is he that is Crucified with Chriſt, and dead unto Sin, freed from Sin? Doth the Truth of Chriſt, the Life of Chriſt, the Spirit of Chriſt, the Power of Chriſt, make thoſe that receive and obey it free indeed; ſo that Sin cannot have Dominion over them, to make them do what they hate, or to hinder them from doing what God requires? Did not Chriſt himſelf Dye to Sin once, but now lives to God? and are not Believers, after this manner, to reckon and experience themſelves Dead indeed unto Sin; but alive unto God through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord?

Quer. 4. Have believers received Power from Chriſt (who had all Power in Heaven and Earth given unto him) to become Sons? Have they received the ſpirit of the Father, which hath Dominion over Sin? Can they ſtop or hinder the reign of it in their mortal Body, and refuſe obeying the Luſts thereof; and not yield their Members Inſtruments of unrighteouſneſs unto Sin?

Quer. 5. Are believers Alive from the Dead? And Can they yield their Members ſervants to Righteouſneſs, for God to Work in and by them, according to his Will and Pleaſure? Can they ever come to ſuch a ſtate, as to do nothing againſt the Church, but for the Truth; to do all things through Chriſt that ſtrengthens them.

Quer. 6. Is this true, that to whom People yield themſelves ſervants to obey, his ſervants they are to whom they obey; whether of ſin unto Death, or of obedience unto Righteouſneſs?

Quer. 7. Do Men, or is it poſſible for men in receiving, joyning to, and Obeying the truth, to be made free from Sin, and become the ſervants of Righteouſneſs?

Quer. 8. Cannot men have their fruit unto Holineſs, and at the end everlaſting Life, without being made free from ſin, and becoming ſervants to God? Is the Wages of ſin Death, after a man hath believed? After a man is turned from ſin to Chriſt if he hearken afterwards to Satan, and commit Sin, doth he reap Death thereby? See, alſo Gal. 6. 7, 8.

From Chap. 7.

Quer. 1. What Law is that, which hath Dominion over a man as long as he liveth; and what life is that in man, which the Law hath Dominion over?

Quer. 2. How doth a man become Dead to the Law, that he might be Married to another, even to him who is raiſed from the Dead, that he ſhould bring forth fruit

Fruit unto God? Can any be Married to the raiſed living Husband, but the quickened, raiſed and living Soul? And can any elſe bring forth fruit to God?

Quer. 3. What is the ſtate of being in the Fleſh, and of knowing the things of God after the Fleſh? of receiving Directions, and Practiſing Duties in that ſtate? Do not the motions of Sin (which all outward Laws and Directions do but ſtir up, but cannot overcome) Work in the members there, in that ſtate to bring forth fruit unto Death?

Quer. 4. How comes a man to be delivered from the Law? Is it not by the death of that in him, which held him Captive unto ſin? And, why doth God quicken with a new Life, and kill in the Hearts of his that, wherein they were held? Is it not that they ſhould ſerve him in newneſs of ſpirit, and not in the oldneſs of the Letter? For the Letter killeth, and the litteral Service and Worſhip is Dead, and that Worſhip alone Living, and Goſpel-Worſhip, which is in the Newneſs of the Spirit: for ſuch alone, the Father ſeeketh to Worſhip him, and ſuch Worſhip alone he accepteth.

Quer. 5. Is the Law Sin, becauſe it ſtirs up Sin? Nay, the Law it ſelf is not Sin, but that which diſcovers and makes it known: for no man can know ſin, but by the Law or Light which diſcovers it.

Quer. 6. How is Sin Dead without the Law? And how doth it take occaſion by the Commandement, to work in the heart all manner of Concupiſence?

Quer. 7. How was Paul alive, without the Law once? Could he Sacrifice, could he read the Scriptures, could he be Knowing, could he be Zealous, could he Walk according to the Law in the Letter blameleſs, in that State? See Phil. 3. 4, 5, 6.

Quer. 8. What Commandment was that, upon the coming whereof Sin revived, and he Dyed? Was it the Law in the Letter, or the Law in the Spirit? he ſaith The Commandment which was to Life, he found to be unto Death. What is the Commandment, which is to Life? Is not the Word nigh in the Mouth and Heart? See Deut. 39.

Quer. 9. How came Sin to take Occaſion by the Commandment (which comes forth Holily, and as juſt and good from God) to deceive and ſlay him? What was it, which it deceived, and ſlew? Was it not that part, which thought it could Obey and ſerve God, if his Will was made Manifeſt! Which now, when the Law indeed came, found it could not? Nor can any man obey the Holy Law of Life, till this Nature, Wiſdom, and Spirit be in ſome meaſure ſlain in him.

Quer. 10. Doth then the Holy Law of God, which God ordains and ſends unto Life, Miniſter Death to the Soul? Or, doth Sin (being provoked and ſtirred up, to put forth its ſtrength to ſave its Life, and retain its Dominion in the heart) take occaſion by the Commandment, to work Death, and ſhew the exceeding Evil and Sinfulneſs of its Nature?

Quer. 11. Is not the Law Spiritual? Can Sin gain any Strength or Advantage by that which is Spiritual? Surely, nay; but it taketh Occaſion then to Tyrannize over, and Captivate me (who am Carnal and ſold under it) till the Power of the Lord make a Change in my State, working me from under the Dominion of it.

Quer. 12. How is it with the Soul in the State of Captivity, when Sin is revived by the Law, the Soul dead as to its former Life and Strength, and not yet come under the Dominion and Power of Grace? Doth it not do what it allows not, and not do the good it would? Yea, doth not the Enemy oftentimes even force it to do what it hates, the Soul being as yet weak in the Faith, whereby alone Strength is received to reſiſt him? Is not this State experienced, in ſome meaſure, by every Traveller? Doth not every one feel the ſtrength of Sin, and his own inability, either to Will or Do of himſelf that which is Good, &c. before he witneſs Help and Deliverance from the Lord?

Quer. 13. Doth God impute to the Soul, or to Sin, the effect of this Captivity, and Work of Sin and Satan upon the Heart, againſt the Bent, and Earneſt Deſires and Endeavours of the Soul?

Quer. 14. When is the Soul in this State of Trouble and Captivity? Is it not after ſome appearance and Operation of Gods Power in the Heart? Is it not after the mind is turned from Sin, and deſireth to be Joyned to the holy Law of Life

Life, and Obey it? is it not after God hath wrought the Will (in the Mind to do Good; ſo that, the conſent is given to the Law, and the Will is preſent; but how to perform that which is Good, it findeth not, becauſe Faith is yet ſo weak, and Sin and Unbelief ſo ſtrong in the Heart?

Quer. 15. Is not this the Time of bitter Warfare, and day of Terrible Diſtreſs in the Heart, and of feeling the wickedneſs of the eſtate, becauſe of Sin, and of crying out, and longing after the Salvation, and deliverance of the Goſpel? O, wo is me, who ſhall deliver me, poor Captive, ſaith the Soul in this State!

Quer. 16. Is not God very tender to the Soul in this ſtate, daily blotting out, and not Imputing Sin? Oh! If it were not for the exceeding Mercy, and tender love and help of the Lord in this ſtate, it were impoſſible for any ever to come through it? But, thanks be to God, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, who both upholds in it, and carries through it; ſo that, a Change comes to be witneſſed, and a better ſtate known by thoſe who conſent not to Sin; but continue in taking part with the good, holy, and ſpiritual law of life againſt it.

From Chap 8.

Quer. 1. What is that ſtate, wherein there is no Condemnation? Is not that the ſtate of the Redeemed ſouls in Chriſt? Doth not Condemnation follow, where there is Sin and Diſobedience? ſee Heb. 2. 1. &c. Doth not God condemn ſin, and the ſoul becauſe of ſin; till it be driven from Sin by the Law, unto Chriſt, and learn of him to walk, as he walked, even not after the Fleſh, but after the Spirit? For to the ſpirit, to the ſeed, to the heavenly Man there is no Condemnation; nor to them that walk after the ſpirit.

Quer. 2. How come any to walk after the ſpirit? can any walk after the ſpirit, but as they are made free by the Power of Chriſt, revealed in their Hearts againſt the Power of Satan, from the Law of ſin and death? Will not ſin and death Captivate a man, and entangle him in Luſts, evil Motions and Works; till their ſtrength be broken in him, and his Soul delivered, and ſet free therefrom?

Quer. 3. How doth the Law of the ſpirit of life in Chriſt Jeſus, make free from the law of ſin and death? Is it not thus? Did not God Condemn ſin in Chriſt's Fleſh? and doth not the ſame ſpirit, and Law of Life Condemn it in ours alſo, and bring the Judgment and Juſtice of the holy Law of Life over it? And ſo bringing the ſoul of from that which is un-holy, unto the holy and Righteous Spirit and Nature of Chriſt, and bringing it to walk out of the deadneſs of Sin in the newneſs of Life, it is removed from thence where the Condemnation is, thither where the Condemnation cannot come: for in Chriſt, in the new Nature, in the Heavenly Image, in the newneſs of the Spirit there never was, nor ever can be any Condemnation.

Quer. 4. Would God have the Righteouſneſs of the Law fulfilled in his Children? would he have them walk exactly with him in the new Covenant, which both Comprehends and exceeds the Righteouſneſs of the old Covenant? Conſider whether Chriſt fulfilling the Old Covenant be their Righteouſneſs, or his fulfilling the new in them and for them? for he both doth away their unrighteouſneſs, and alſo brings in the Righteouſneſs into them which is of his own Pure, Heavenly and Everlaſting Nature. Is not he the Image of God? Is not he Righteouſneſs? And when he is in them, and they changed into his Nature and Spirit, is not he their Righteouſneſs? O wait to determine this thing (all that deſire to know and partake of the Righteouſneſs of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt) in the true and pure ſenſe of Life, and in the Evidence and Demonſtration of God's Holy Spirit, Quer. 5. Do not all men act according to the Principle, whether of Feſh or Spirit, to which their minds are Joyned? Do not they which are of the Fleſh mind, favour, approve, deſire after and delight in that which is Fleſhly? but they that are after the Spirit, do not they mind, favour, deſire after, approve, and delight in the things of the Spirit? Therefore is not this of great concern to all, to consider not so much what their Profession and appearance is outwardly, as what their Root is inwardly, and what Nature, Spirit and Growth they and their Religion is of?

to

Quer. 6. What doth it Produce to have the mind exercised by the Flesh? Doth it not produce Death? Is not the Nature, Spirit and Wisdom of the Flesh separated from God's Nature, who is Life? And can it bring forth any thing in the Heart, but Corruption and Death? But the minding of the other Principle, and being exercised by the other Principle, that produceth Life and Peace: Doth it not? Let all, that have inwardly experienced these things, assent and testifie in Spirit before the Lord, to his Praise.

Quer. 7. Is not the Flesh enmity against God? Can any thing which is enmity against God, who is the Quickening Life, do any thing but deaden and kill where it finds entrance? Life and Peace is witnessed in subjection to God, who gives it to them that Obey the Law of his Spirit. Is that which is in the enmity and stands in the enmity, subject (or can it be subject) to the Holy Law of God? Nay, there must be a new Creation felt in the Heart, before there can be a subjection to that which is pure and Living.

Quer. 8. Can any men that are in the Flesh, that are not truly and inwardly changed by the Spirit and Power of the Gospel; I say, can they please God in any thing they do? Can they believe, or pray or read the Scriptures, or practise any thing they observe from the Scriptures, so as to please God thereby? Nay surely, without changing the Principle, without having the Heart changed by God's Power, there is no right believing, praying, or doing any thing to please God. This makes most mens Religion and Performances unsavory, because they know not, nor are returned to, and guided by that principle and Seed of Life, which seasons and makes savory.

Quer. 9. How may a man know whether he be in the Flesh, or in the Spirit? If he be in the Spirit, doth not the spirit dwell in them? For the spirit Createth anew, and the spirit dwelleth in that which he new-Createth. It is the strong Man Armed who keeps, and dwells in the Old House; but the Spirit of Christ keeps, and dwells in the new House: and if any man have not the spirit of Christ, (notwithstanding all his Religion, Knowledge, Faith, Prayers, &c.) he is none of his.

Quer. 10. If Christ, the quickning spirit (the living Power) be in a man: Doth he not kill sin there? Is not the Body dead there, because of sin? Can sin live there, where Christ dwells? And is not his spirit Life there, to quicken in and unto Righteousness? yea, is it possible that Christ should dwell in any mans heart by his spirit, and his spirit not be quickning the mortal Body in which he dwells? O how pretious is it to feel the quickening Life and Power! This is a dayly seal of the true Religion, and the dayly Operation of God's spirit in the hearts of his Children, shews who dwells there.

Quer. 11. To which are we debters, who are redeemed to God by his Spirit and Power? Are we debters to the Flesh, to live after the Flesh, which brings into Bondage to sin and death? Or are we debters to that spirit and power of Life, which hath made us alive to God, and preserveth us in Life, and quickeneth us unto Life, day by day?

Quer. 12. Is it possible that any one should come to Life, but by the mortifying, denying, and destroying of that, which nourisheth sin, and leads into death? and what can do that, but the Power of God's spirit?

Quer. 13. Are not all the sons of God lead by his spirit? O how necessary then is it for every man to be sure, both that he hath received God's spirit, and that he be led by it?

Quer. 14. What is the spirit of Bondage, which begetteth fear when God awakeneth the soul? and what is the spirit of adoption, whereby the soul can cry Abba Father? Can any cry Abba Father, but those that are begotten of Gods Spirit? many men put up requests, and are able to make long Prayers (perhaps such as may be taking to the eye of mans Wisdom) and yet, know not that spirit which begetteth Life in the heart, and teacheth to cry Abba, Father.

Quer. 15. Is it not a pretious thing for people truly to feel the spirit of God bearing witneſs, with their Spirits, that they are God's Children, and heirs of God and with Chriſt; and ſo leading them through the ſufferings, that they may come to partake with him of his Glory? but do any come to partake of his Glory, who do not firſt come through the ſufferings?

XXVIII.

A further Teſtimony in Brief concerning the Work of God upon our hearts, who are called Quakers.

IT hath been with us, and ſo we have felt it from the Lord, juſt as is expreſſed Tit. 2. 5. Not by Works of Righteouſneſs which we have done, but according to his Mercy he ſaved us, by the waſhing of Regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghoſt.

We are a people, who have been greatly diſtreſſed (many of us) for want of that Life and Power, which was revealed in the Apoſtles dayes. We are a race of travellers, who have been travelling out of the Nature, Wiſdom, Spirit and courſe of this World (which is vain and paſſeth away) towards our reſting place. We have wandered from Mountain to Hill, from one way of Religion to another, ſeeking after him whom our Souls dearly loved. Indeed the watch-men have often laughed at us and Mocked us, wiſhing us to return to them: but that would not ſtill the cry of our Souls, which were ſick with earneſt deſire, not after formal wayes of Religion, but after Life and Immortality that it might be again brought to Light (as it had been in the Apoſtles dayes) and our Souls made partakers thereof. Now, after many a weary ſtep and deep ſickneſs of Heart, when we were come even near to deſpair, of ever finding and injoying what our Souls ſo ſorely longed after; it pleaſed the Lord, at length in his tender Mercy to appear among us, and by the directions of his holy Spirit to turn our Minds inwards: ſhewing us, that that which we ſought without, was to be found within; telling us that there was the Kingdom, which was not to be found by Obſervations without, but by meeting with and ſubjecting to the Light and Power of Life within, and when we were ſollicitous how to know it, from the darkneſs and deceit within: this anſwer was given us from the Lord, Its Nature will diſcover it ſelf: it will turn againſt all darkneſs and deceit in the heart: it will find out and Reprove whatever is Reprovable, and furniſh the Soul with ſtrength againſt it. O bleſſed Sound from the Lord God of Life, who thus drew our hearts to wait upon him; and ſhewed us how to wait, and what to wait for, and where we might meet with that which our hearts ſo exceedingly deſired and panted after! And truly as our minds were thus turned inwards, the holy Light did ſhine upon us from the Son of Righteouſneſs, and the pure Life and Nature from the Son of God did ſpring up in us; and we felt the Power of God revealed in our Hearts, and the Old Image of Sin and unrighteouſneſs daily defacing, and our Souls Creating anew (in Chriſt Jeſus) into the Holy and heavenly Image. So that here we felt the Mercy of God, which ſaved his People in all ages, reaching to us alſo; and his Spirit regenerating, renewing and waſhing us, with the Water and Blood which cleanſeth. And as we were regenerated and renewed more and more: ſo we were ſtill waſhed more and more, and came more into fellowſhip with Chriſt in his Death, and were alſo raiſed up by him more and more into his Life, and taught to ſet our affections more on things above, and leſs on things below; which are of an enſnaring and entangling Nature, in which the minds of the ſons of men are held Captive, untill they meet with that Royal, Excellent, Noble Spirit and Power, which breaks the Chains and Fetters of darkneſs and redeems out of them. And now we can Teſtifie (in true ſence, and in the evidence and demonſtration of Gods Spirit) that not by Working, willing or running of our ſelves; not by any works of Righteouſneſs which we had done or could do: but by the tender Mercy of God viſiting, and by the Operation of his holy ſpirit upon us (in and through regenerating, renewing,

and

(and waſhing us from that which defiled and ſtained our Souls, and made them guilty in his ſight, and lyable to his wrath) were we ſaved from the wrath to come, and from the wayes of Tranſgreſſion wherein we walked, before our God thus viſited us.

Now, it is the ſincere deſire of our Souls, that this tender Mercy of God might take effect on others alſo, and that they might likewiſe be Lighted by him to the place where Wiſdom teacheth her Children, and where the True Redemption of the Soul is witneſſed, and the true Knowledg of the Father and of Chriſt (which is Life eternal) given and received, that People might not be hardned to Deſtruction and deceived of their Souls, by a fooliſh and vain Religion, wherein is not the ſubſtance and kernel (which alone can nouriſh up to Life Eternal) but only ſome ſhew and appearance thereof, which cannot really ſatisfie that which is indeed begotten and born of God's Spirit.

XXIX.

A brief account of the ground of our Worſhip, and How it cometh to paſs that we cannot conform to the Spirit of this World, or to the Wills of Men therein, but only to the Spirit and Will of our God.

WE fear God, who made Heaven and Earth, whoſe Power is over all, who hath cauſed the Light of his Holy Spirit to ſhine in our Hearts, thereby teaching us how to Worſhip him acceptably in Spirit and Truth: which Worſhip he hath required of us, and that we meet together ſo to do in thoſe Aſſemblies, which he hath gathered by his Power, and ordereth by his Spirit, either in ſilence or ſound of Words according to his pleaſure.

And God who hath appointed us thus to worſhip him, hath Power over our Bodies and Souls, and can deſtroy and caſt both into Hell, if we ſhould deny that Truth and way of Worſhip, which he hath taught us. Yea, if we ſhould deny this way of Worſhip, we ſhould deny Chriſt and be denyed by him, before his Father in Heaven: For he himſelf hath ſaid, that neither at the Mountain of Samaria nor at Jeruſalem ſhould men worſhip; but they that worſhip the Father, muſt worſhip him in Spirit and in Truth. Now men cannot worſhip in Spirit, and in Truth, as they Pleaſe, or in wayes of their own Inventing and ſetting up: but he that worſhipeth in Spirit and Truth, muſt firſt be made Spiritual; and then muſt wait in ſilence of the Fleſh, for God's Spirit to quicken him unto Spiritual worſhip. For they that worſhip otherwiſe than thus, worſhip at beſt, but aſter the Oldneſs of the Letter, and not in the Newneſs of the Spirit, which is the only worſhip God ſeeketh, and requireth under the New Teſtament.

Beſides, we have found God's preſence with us, and bleſſing upon us, in this way of worſhip, and our Hearts greatly melted and warmed therein, and Power given us over our paſſions, and corruptions inwardly, and to order our Lives and Converſations, Holily, Righteouſly, and Innocently outwardly: which preſence of God, and holy Power over ſin and vanity, affections and luſts, we would not loſe for ten thouſand Worlds. And what an unjuſt, and unthankful thing were it in us, to turn from this way of Worſhip, which God hath called us to, where we have met with theſe things; to that way of worſhip, where we did not meet with theſe things, and where others do not, nor can meet with them? For theſe things are only to be met with in that way of worſhip, which God hath appointed and bleſſed, and not in that way of worſhip, which man hath invented and ſet up; which every prophane and wicked Perſon can cry up and enjoy his luſts under, but they that are otherwiſe taught of God can by no means ſubmit to, without grievous ſinning againſt him.

Now, Magiſtracy was never Ordained of God, nor Power given men by him to force People to Sin againſt him.

And is it not a great Sin to worſhip againſt one's Faith, according to the wills and precepts of men, contrary to the teachings and requirings of his holy Spirit? Are not they that do thus Hypocrites? Was Power given unto Magistrates to make men Hypocrites? or to incourage People unto Truth and Uprightness both towards God and men? To wait upon God, in his fear, to be taught by him the true Way of Worship: is not this Good and Right in his sight? and to Worship in Spirit and Truth, as he teacheth: is not this to do well? and was not the Magistrate Ordained of God to be a terror to evil doers, and a praise to them that do well? The Magistrate saith we do not Obey him: but he should rather inquire, whether he doth not require that of us, wherein we cannot Obey him, without Sinning against the Lord, and against the Light of his Holy Spirit in our own hearts and Consciences, and so bring God's Wrath upon us, and provoke him to destroy us both Body and Soul. But if men will needs be angry with us for serving the Lord, and Worshiping him according to his Holy Law and Will: we had better undergo their anger and unjust punishments for Obeying our God, than come under his Wrath for Disobedience. And God is our witness that no stubornness, wilfulness or contempt of authority engageth us in the least to continue, through many sufferings, in this way of meeting together to Worship our God: but only Obedience to the Gospel and Power of Christ, which we have found this Visitation and Ministration of Life from on High to be to us, by its Redeeming us out of Sin and from the Spirit of this World. And the same that hath redeemed us in some measure, hath required us thus to wait on the Lord to have our Redemption perfected: and in thus waiting upon him it is daily added to and carried on; Blessed be the Name of our God. But if we should forbear thus to meet, we should turn from, Sin against and provoke our God (who hath already Redeemed us in part, and is still further and further Redeeming us,) and turn Back to Egypt, Sodom and Babylon, where is darkness, thy Lust and Confusion, and not the holy Order of God's Spirit, neither in the Conversations nor in the Worships of those that dwell and abide there.

XXX.

Some Queries concerning knowing and owning the Lord Jesus Christ truly and aright, who hath been the only Saviour and Redeemer in all Ages and Generations, and there never was and never shall be any other.

Quer. 1. WHether they know or own the Lord Jesus Christ truly and aright, who only know and own him as outwardly described and related of in the Scriptures; but know him not inwardly revealed in their hearts, as the Word and Power of Eternal Life? Or whether they are the true knowers and owners of Christ, who know and own him not only according to a litteral description of him in the Scriptures, but also as inwardly revealed by the Father, witnessing him formed in them, and their hearts changed into his holy and Heavenly Image, by the virtue of his inward appearance, and operation of his Spirit and Power in them?

Quer. 2. Whether they truly and rightly know the Death and Resurrection of Christ, who know only the Relation of them in the Scriptures; but are not made conformable to his Death, nor raised up by him in the Power of his Life? Or whether they are the true and right Knowers of his Death and Resurrection; who are buried with him by the holy Baptism of his Spirit into Death? who through the Spirit have mortified the deeds of the Body, and witness the holy Seed of Life raised and living in them, and themselves raised and made alive to God, in and through the power of the Father revealed in them?

Quer. 3. Whether they truly and rightly confess Christ to be the Lord and King, Priest and Prophet of his People, who confess it only from the Reading of it to be so in the Scriptures? Or whether they are not the true and right Con-

Confessors of Christ's Kingly, Priestly and Prophetical Offices, who witness him exercising them in them? Who witness him overcoming and reigning over Sin and Death in them? over whom other Lords, even the Spirits and Powers of darkness have not Dominion now, but Christ only? and in whom he Ministreth as in his Temple, Offering Spiritual Gifts and Sacrifices to his Father; and who also prophesieth there, opening and revealing the Mysteries of his Kingdom to them, as he doth to the least Babes that are truly begotten and born of his Spirit?

Quer. 4. Do they or can they truly know Christ's voice, who never experienced the Word of Life speaking in their hearts? Where doth the false Propher speak? Doth he not speak within? And where doth the true Shepherd speak? Doth he not speak within also, even in the heart? And do not his Sheep hear, know and distinguish his voice there?

Quer. 5. Who knoweth the truth as it is in Jesus? Do any do so, but those that have felt the drawings of the Father, come unto the Son, in the drawings received Life from and abide in him? Do any know the truth in Jesus, but those that witness Virtue, Freedom, Life and Power by the truth in some measure? Doth not that saying and promise of Christ (John. 8. 31, 32.) Stand firm in every Age? If ye continue in my Words, then are ye my Disciples indeed. And ye shall know the Truth, and the Truth shall make you Free.

Quer. 6. Who are ingrafted into Christ? Can any one be ingrafted into him, but as he is inwardly revealed and made known? yea is not he in them who are ingrafted into him, and are not they in him? is not he that is truly regenerated cut off from the old stock within, from the Root of bitterness within? and is not he implanted into the new stock within also; Insomuch as he sensibly feeleth the pure, holy root of Life bear him, and the Sap thereof springing up in him, causing him to bring forth Fruit to God in due season?

Quer. 7. Who prayeth in the Name of Christ? Doth he who saith these, or such like Words, with the best seriousness and sensibleness he can in his own Will; Hear me, O Lord, for Christ's sake: I confess I am unworthy, but I beg of thee in his Name who is worthy, &c. Or he, who prayeth in the childs Nature, on the Fathers breathing upon him, in the Spirit of the Father which is given him, and in the time and Will of the Father? He that doth but sigh or groan in and from the Spirit, doth not that Sigh or Groan ascend up to the Father in Christ's Name? Alas, how outward is mens Religion: but the inward strains and current of the True, Pure, and Heavenly Religion they know not?

Quer. 8. Who receiveth Christ? Do any but those, who receive and bow to the Light of his Spirit inwardly revealed? Can any receive him, but they that hear his knocks and open to him? Do any know the inward Voice of the Shepherd, besides the sheep? And can any receive his Voice, and not receive him? And can any who are Ignorant of and refuse his Voice, receive him?

Quer. 9. Who do truly and rightly believe in Christ? do any do so, or can any do so, but they who first feel life, from whence the true Faith springs? Ah that all the faith in men were dashed, but what comes from life, unites to life and abides in Life?

Quer. 10. Whom doth Christ gather from the barren Mountains? are they not his Sheep: his Poor, Distressed, Scattered, Wounded, Fainting and almost Famished Sheep? What are the Mountaines he gathers them from? are they not the several dead Wayes, Worships and Gatherings without Life? And out of whose mouths doth he rescue them? Is it not out of the mouths of the Shepherds that made a Prey of them? who fed them not with Life, with Vertue, with pure living Knowledge: but with Words, with Dreams, with Apprehensions of their own concerning the things of God? And whither doth he lead them? is it not to his own holy Mountain (which is exalted by God and established over, and on top of all those other Mountains) where the fresh pastures are, and where the Streams of Life flow and run plentifully?

Quer. 11. Who are Christs kindred according to the Spirit? who is his Mother, Sister, Brother? Are any so, but they that do the Will of his Father? And is this Obedience a working according to the Law, or of the Righteousness of the Law?

Nay

Nay, is it not rather of the Nature and Righteousness of the Gospel? is not that which floweth from him who is Righteous, Righteous also even as he is Righteous.

Quer. 12. To whom doth Christ give Power to become Sons? Is it not to as many, as truly and rightly receive him and believe in his name. To as many as received him of Old, to them he gave Power to become the Sons of God: Doth he not do so still? What is it to receive Power to become a Son? Let the heart that hath received it, answer; for the Notionist cannot.

Quer. 13. What is the Reason so many who are high in Notion and Profession, cannot own his Precious Appearance of the Spirit, Power and Glory of our Lord Jesus Christ in this our Day in the Hearts of his Children, after the long Night of Darkness, which hath so long covered the Earth? Is not this the very reason, even because they do not truly and rightly know either the Father or the Son? Can any see or know him that begets, and with the same Eye not see or know him that is begotten of him? Can any love Christ, and not love his Brethren? Is not Wisdom, in her appearances, justified of her Children in this age, as well as formerly?

Quer 14. Are there two Christs: one manifested without, and another revealed within? or is it the same Lord Jesus Christ, who in the dayes of his flesh appeared outwardly, and was afterwards manifested within as the Mystery of Life and Hope of Glory, who also in this our Day is revealed and made known within unto his, by the same eternal Spirit?

Quer. 15. He that truly and rightly knoweth the Spirit of Christ, doth he not know Christ also? even as he that knoweth Christ, must needs know the Father also. Are not the Father and Christ one? could any one see Christ, even in the Dayes of his Flesh, and not see the Father also? (see John 14. 9) So is not Christ and the Spirit one in like manner? and are not all that are truly of Christ, begotten by, gathered into, and do they not live and walk in that one Spirit of his? and do they not there know the things of God as they are, and testifie of what they have seen and known; though they that are out of that Spirit and Power know neither him, nor the Testimony of Life that comes by him, no more than the Jews knew his appearance outwardly in their Day.

A Query Added Concerning Imputation.

Quer. IN what State was Abraham, when Faith was Imputed to him for Righteousness? Was he in the ungodly State? in the State of unbelief and disobedience to the Spirit and Power of the Lord? or was he in the sense of Gods Power, in the belief of him who could raise up his Son from the Dead, and in the performance of Obedience unto him, giving up his Son at the Lords command?

And in what State must we be, when we witness Faith Imputed to us also for Righteousness? Must we not be in the sense of the same power and in the belief of it, and in the Obedience of Faith? Read Rom 4. and consider: For the Righteousness of the Gospel is not Imputed in or by the works of the Law, but in the Obedience of Faith.

It is true, God justifieth the ungodly, through Faith he makes them Just and Godly, but doth he justifie or accept them in the ungodly State? doth he not first make change in them by his Power? doth he not first, in some measure, purifie their hearts by Faith?

The

The CONCLUSION.

THere are a great many who profeſs the Goſpel-State, and that they are in Chriſt, and under Grace, and freely juſtified by Grace; ſo that they look upon their Sins, as Covered by the Lord, and not imputed to them; they believing (as they pretend) in the Name of His Son, and Obeying His Goſpel, &c. I ſay, many profeſs theſe things, who do not at all know what they mean, truly and rightly, as in God's Sight.

For it is a great matter to be in Chriſt; even to Know Him that is True, and to be in Him that is True: to come out of Darkneſs into His Light; out of Death into His Life; out of Satans Kingdom, and out of Subjection to Sin, into His Kingdom, and into Subjection to His Spirit. If any Man be in Chriſt, he is a New Creature: Old things are paſſed away, and all things become New. Is this true? Doth he that is in Chriſt, witneſs this? And he that doth not witneſs this, Is he in Chriſt?

Ah! How many then are Deceived about their being in Him, and of their Hope in Him. For, How few of thoſe, who Talk of being in Chriſt, know what the New Creation in Him means, or what it is to have Chriſt formed in them! How few know His Spirit by Receiving it, by Union with it; which yet if a Man have not, he is none of His! How few know how to try Spirits, by the holy Anointing, which is only able to try, and diſcover ſuch falſe Spirits, as come in the Sheeps Cloathing, and as Miniſters of Righteouſneſs, and yet come with the Deceivableneſs of Unrighteouſneſs, to draw Men from the Spirit and Power, or to keep them in a Dead form of Knowledge, and Worſhip without true Life.

So, for being under Grace, few truly know what it is: For Grace is that which hath Dominion over Sin, and which giveth Dominion to thoſe that are under it. Sin ſhall not have Dominion over you, ſaid the Apoſtle: For ye are not under the Law, but under Grace. Therefore, yield not your Members Servants or Inſtruments to Sin. Ye did ſo, when ye were free from Righteouſneſs: but now, let not Sin Reign in your Mortal Bodies; ſeeing Grace gives you Power over it, and makes you free from it unto Righteouſneſs.

So, Juſtification by Grace is only to them who are Taught by Grace. The Grace of God brings Salvation, Redemption, Juſtification to them, and no others. For their Sins only are Blotted out, covered, and not imputed, who receive Grace, hear the Voice of it, and Obey it. Hear, and your Souls ſhall Live. In Hearing the Grace which Teacheth from God, Souls come to Live in His Sight; and the Living are Juſtified by Him, and in the Living Way, and Path of Life, are the Sins Blotted out, and the Garment given which Covers the Nakedneſs; which Garment is to be girt about the Soul, and kept cloſe on; or the Nakedneſs and Shame will appear, and be ſeen again.

So, to Believe in the Name of Chriſt, and to Fly to His Name, and Truſt in His Name, and to Pray to the Father in His Name, and to Obey in His Name and Power: Theſe are great Matters, and very few of thoſe that make Profeſſion of them, truly know them. For His Name is Living (He was Dead, but is Alive) and his Preſence, Heavenly Vertue, and Power is in it. They that know His Name, know that which is above every Name. They know that which hath an Authority from God, to bring all things under (both in the Heart, and alſo in the Life and Converſation) that God alone may be Exalted.

The Goſpel-State, is a great State, an high State, a State not of ſhadowy things; but of the Everlaſting Kingdom, where the Subſtance of the things under the Law is given to, and Poſſeſſed by thoſe that are there, as they Grow up in the Goſpel-Power and Covenant. There the Goſpel-Faſt is known, the Faſt which God hath choſen, which is to looſe the bands of Wickedneſs (which bind down the Good) even that which is of God in the Heart) to take off the heavy Burthens, under which, and by which, that which is pure is bowed down, and to let the Oppreſſed Seed go free. This is the Faſt which God hath choſen under the Goſpel, the pure and undefiled Faſt, even to Viſit the Fatherleſs, and Widows in their Affliction, and to keep ones ſelf unſpotted from the World. And to thoſe that obſerve this Faſt, God maketh a Feaſt of Fat things: for their Light breaketh forth as the Morning, and their Health Groweth up ſpeedily, and their Righteouſneſs goeth before them, and the Glory of the Lord gathereth them up, or is their Rereward; and the Lord is nigh unto them, and ready to Anſwer them, in all that they call upon him for, as was Promiſed, Iſa. 58. 8, 9. Now being come to this Feaſt, they are to keep it with unleavened Bread, as to the Fleſh, as to Mans Wiſdom; but with the Bread which is Leavened with the Spirit, Leavened with Life; and with the Wine of the Kingdom, which Chriſt Eats and Drinks with his Redeemed Ones, new, in the Goſpel-Spirit and Power, which is His Fathers Kingdom: For the Kingdom of God ſtandeth not in Meats or Drinks, or any other outward thing, no not in good Words concerning the things of the Kingdom; but in the Spirit, Power, and Life it ſelf, and in the Righteouſneſs, Peace, and Joy, which is in the Spirit.

that

THE END.

Concerning the RULE of the NEW-COVENANT, or that which God hath Appointed to be the Rule to the Children of the New-Covenant.

THE Way, the Truth, the Life, the Everlaſting Way, the Everlaſting Truth, the Everlaſting Life; that is, the Rule in the New-Covenant. God ſent Chriſt his Son, the Word of Eternal Life, a Light into the World; and the Meſſage and Driſt of the Goſpel is to turn Men from the Inward Darkneſs to the inward Light: and being turned to it, the Manifeſtation of this Light is to be the Rule, which Manifeſts the Way of Light and Truth, as Immediately in the Heart, as ever the Darkneſs did the Way of Deceit and Errour.

The Promiſe of the New-Covenant is, I will put my Spirit within them: and this Spirit hath an Inward Law and Teſtimony, which it Writeth in the Heart; which Inward Law and Teſtimony, is to be the Rule of the Heart. And as the Outward Jews were to have Recourſe to the Outward Law and Teſtimony, ſo the Inward Jews are to have Recourſe to the Inward Law and Teſtimony; and to Witneſs the Law of the Spirit of Life in Chriſt Jeſus Revealed in them, and their Minds and Spirits ſubjected thereto: And this is near, bright and powerful in thoſe who receive the Spirit, and with him, the Law and Power of the Endleſs Life.

The Letter Killeth, the Jews underſtand not the Way of Life by the Letter; therefore, the Promiſe was, I will pour out my Spirit upon all Fleſh: And becauſe ye are Sons, God hath ſent forth the Spirit of His Son; and thou ſhalt hear a Voice behind thee, ſaying, This is the Way, Walk in it. And this Voice is to be hearkened to; this Prophet (which God raiſeth up to the Soul in the New-Covenant) is to be heard in all things: And he that hears His Voice, and Obeys, Live; and he that hears not, is in Death, even until now, profeſs what he will.

In Chriſt Jeſus, neither Circumciſion availeth any thing, nor Uncircumciſion, but the New-Creation: If any Man Walk according to this Rule, Peace be upon him, &c. What doth the Apoſtle call the Rule here? O wait on the Lord to Read in the Spirit, and Rightly to Underſtand. If

If a Man receive the Spirit, and walk in the Newneſs of the Light, and quickenings thereof every Day, hath he not a Rule which is certain and infallible? If any Man be in Chriſt, there is a New Creation; and the Limits of that New Creation, which is the Light and Power of the Endleſs Life, or of God's holy Spirit dwelling within, that is His Rule. And within the bounds of that (within the bounds of His Light, His Life, His Motions, His Inſtructions) Man never Errs; but out of it, Deceit, and Darkneſs, and Errour is always at hand.

Yet (though we do own Chriſt to be the Rule) we do not deny making uſe of the Scriptures to try Doctrines, and Forms of Religion by; but know, that what is of God, doth, and will agree therewith, and what doth not agree therewith, is not of God; and that our Fore-Fathers in the Faith, were led to Batter the Superſtitions, and Idolatries of the Papiſts, by the Teſtimony of the Scriptures; and we have alſo the Teſtimony of the Scriptures with us, both to the Light, and Spirit within, and againſt Forms formerly invented, or now Practiſed out of the Life and Power. But we believe the Spirit to be a Touch-Stone beyond the Scriptures, and to be that which giveth Ability to try, and diſcern not only words, but Spirits; whereas a Man may hold the Form of Doctrine and Godlineſs, and yet want the Power; in which Caſe, nothing can try ſuch a Spirit, but the Spirit of God, which is in the Spiritual Man. And for calling the Scriptures the Word of God, we cannot but look upon it, as an improper Expreſſion, They being many Words, not the one Word; and Chriſt is called in Scripture, not only the Word God, but the Word of God. And if in the Fear of the Lord, and true Senſe, we keep herein to the Expreſſions of Scripture, and its Form of Words, which are Sound; ſurely we cannot Juſtly be blamed for ſo doing.

But whereas ye affirm the Scripture to be the Rule; Conſider ſeriouſly, and Anſwer me this Queſtion. How is it a Rule? Whether it be a Rule, as it is literally underſtood? Or, Whether it muſt not be Interpreted, before it can be underſtood as a Rule? If it muſt be Interpreted, What muſt be the Interpreter, whether it be the Spirit of God, or a Man's Wiſdom?

As to that Queſtion, Whether the Writings of any now be of equal Weight with the Scriptures; I have this to ſay:

The Weight of the Words which are from God's Spirit, is according to the Strength of Life, which he pleaſeth to Cloath them with; he ſent forth Moſes, the Prophets, the Son in that Body of Fleſh, the Apoſtles in His Name and Authority; and the Angel that He ſends with the Everlaſting Goſpel, after the Apoſtacy, to Preach to every Nation, Kindred, Tongue, and People, he ſends not without His Authority; yea, the Meſſage that he thus ſends in any Age, hath a peculiar Reference to the State of the World, and the State of the People of God in that Age, and none can ſlight (whether it be ſignified by word or writing) without daſhing againſt God's Authority, and deſpiſing him that ſpeaketh in theſe Latter Days. Yea, the immediate Word of the Lord, Spoken, and Declared at this Day, by any Man to whom it pleaſeth the Lord to commit the ſame, is of no leſs Authority, nor more to be ſlighted now, than it was in His Servants in the Days paſt, by whom the Scriptures were given forth.

Concerning Chriſt.

CHriſt is that Word of Eternal Life, which was Glorified with the Father before the World was, who in the full appointed time took up the Body of Fleſh, prepared by the Father, to do the Will in, and did the Will in it, Fulfilling all Righteouſneſs to the Satisfaction of the very Heart of the Father, for whoſe Names Sake the Sins of Believers are Pardoned. And this ſame Word of Eternal Life, and no other, which took that Body of Fleſh upon Him, is alſo Manifeſted, and Dwelleth in the Hearts of His Saints, who (receiving Him in the Faith which is of Him) Dwells in them Richly, Manifeſting in the Veſſel, the Treaſures of His Divine Wiſdom and Knowledge. Now, this is the precious Knowledge of Chriſt indeed; and this is it, every one is to wait for, to find a Meaſure of the ſame Life, the Fulneſs whereof Dwells in Him Bodily, Dwelling in our Mortal Bodys, and making us like unto Him in Spirit, Nature, and Converſation. And he that knoweth not, but Oppoſeth this (in any of its Appearances, or Operations) either in himſelf or others, is ſo far of the dark Anti-Chriſtian Spirit.

Concerning the Form of Sound Words.

NOt only the Form of Sound Words, but alſo the good Knowledge of the Heavenly Things themſelves, have been miſerably Loſt, and Buried in the Ruins of the great Apoſtacy. And though God hath oftentimes touched Men's Spirits, and given them ſome Senſe of the Anti-Chriſtian State of Darkneſs; yet have they not had that regard thereunto, ſo as to be led thereby out of the State of Darkneſs, but are found in Babylon, by the Spirit of the Lord, at the very time of His coming to Deſtroy Her. For though the Spirit of the Lord Call out of Babylon; yet there is great Danger of not Obſerving, and Following the Call; but of abiding ſtill there, and partaking of her Plagues.

Now, though Men have had the Scriptures, yet wanting the Spirit of God, and not knowing how to turn their Minds thereto, and diſtinguiſh His Voice, from the Voice of their own Spirits and Reaſonings; (yea, of the Enemy alſo, who lieth in wait to Steal into Men's minds, falſe Apprehenſions from Scriptures) they have not come into a clear Underſtanding, either of the Things or Words of Scripture: but with that Knowledge, and Apprehenſions of things, which they have gathered, have many times been ready to Fight, rather againſt Chriſt, than Anti-chriſt; and ſo their Confeſſions of Faith, and Expoſitions of Scriptures, have been mixed things; rather ſuiting to their own Beliefs and Apprehenſions, than the true Nature of the things themſelves: yea, by this gathered Knowledge, they have been in great danger of a deſperate oppoſing the pure Adminiſtration of God's Truth, from, and in the Light and Power of His own Spirit. Likewiſe, the Churches they have Gathered, and Built up, they have done in a way of Imitation, from what was done once formerly, by the power, and in the authority of the Spirit; but not in the ſame power, life, and authority. I might ſay the ſame about their Ordinances and Duties, wherein the Lord, God knoweth, hath Manifeſted to others, and can Manifeſt to them, that they have Erred very much.

It is true, ye have rejected ſome Wood, Hay and Stubble, and we acknowledge the Lords goodneſs to you, in that ye have gone ſo far: Yea but there is yet more to be rejected, and all Imitations and Knowledges and Interpretations of Scripture out of the pure Life are to be laid aſide, and the Spirit of the Lord waited upon, in the light which is of him, to which the mind is to be turned from the Darkneſs, and in which it is to abide. Now here ye are very ſhort, not ſo much as come to the outward owning or underſtanding of the way; ſo far are ye from walking therein.

That ye ſeek to find the Power and Operation of Truth in your hearts, I do believe it concerning divers of you, and do bleſs the Lord in reference to any of you that it is ſo with you, and from my heart deſire for you, that your hearts may be anſwered by the Lord therein, and that ye may feel preſervation through that which is of him in you, though diſtinctly ye know it not, nor how to have your minds turned towards, and waiting upon, the Lord in it.

So to ſeek to have Chriſt formed in you, and to know Union with him, and a real Implanting into him, to know as a Vine, as Head, a living Stone, a Root, as Meat indeed and Drink indeed, &c. This is pretious indeed to deſire after, but much more more pretious to witneſs: And O that ye alſo knew the way, the living way, wherein God communicateth theſe things abundantly to thoſe, who once ſate in the Deſolate and Barren places, mourning and ſorely crying out for the want of them: for then ye would not oppoſe us for turning people from Darkneſs to Light, but be one with us therein: The integrity which is in any of you, is of God; and though the ſoul miſtake about a Duty or Ordinance, yet the Cry therein after him is not wholly rejected and deſpiſed by him. But ye would know much more of him, if ye were accquainted with him in his own Way, and Worſhipped him in the Everlaſting Ordinance, which is the pure Light of his Son, which was before the Letter, brings the Soul nearer to the Lord than the Letter can, and gives a fuller Communion with the Lord in Spirit, than can be had or enjoyed through Words or Conceptions of things. And the end of the Letters Teſtimony is to bring into the Spirit and Power, which is the Adminiſtration of the Goſpel.

Concerning inward Impreſſions.

ALl the Impreſſions which are from the Holy, Pure Power of the Living God, are of the Goſpel Adminiſtration, and are of great Uſe and Vertue: and he that is gathered out of the Dark Power, into the pure Power of God who is Light, and who gathers into the Light, by the Meſſage and Miniſtration of the Goſpel in that Light, hath a diſcerning of the Power into which he is gathered, from the Power out of which he is gathered. And here he neither can nor dares receive any Impreſſion of the Dark Spirit and Power (which is known and experienced to work in great ſubtilty and deceivableneſs) nor refuſe any motion or impreſſion which is of the Pure and Holy One. But ye lay the great ſtreſs upon owning Doctrinals according to your apprehenſions of them, whereas ye muſt come much further out of Babylon, out of Man's Spirit and Wiſdom, more into the pure Fear and waiting upon God, more into the Senſe and Power of Truth, and into the Light and Knowledge which is thereof, before your Doctrinals can be owned and ſubſcribed to, by that which is of God. And this ſprings in my heart in true Love and Tenderneſs and Melting Bowels concerning you, O that ye held the head! I queſtion not, but that ye hold notions about the Head, according to your underſtanding of things; but to hold the Head is a far deeper thing than ſo. As for that paſſage about Communion with God, apply it, O apply it, or rather wait for the Spirit of the Lord to apply it cloſe to your hearts: for it is poſſible by his Light and Spirit in his own due Seaſon, he may make manifeſt to you, that much of that which goeth with you for Communion with God, is not really ſo: and indeed in the true love and upright tenderneſs of my heart towards you, I would not have you miſtaken about theſe things. As for raptures, the errour is eaſy, but in that which lies low in the pure fear is the preſervation. And friend, I pray, conſider this queſtion, which now is in my heart to thee. Thou ſpeakeſt of departing from the Faith: Ah friend, art thou yet come to the Faith? Do not anſwer it ſlightly: for I put it not ſlightly to thee nor without a cauſe. For through the Faith of the Son of God an otherghes knowledge and ſenſe of things, in this Day of the Lord's Power, is received, than thou haſt yet attained.

That a man's Doctrinals are right according to Scripture in all the main ſubſtantials, is no infallible Rule to try what Power it is that works in him, or what his Spirit is; becauſe deceit works in a Myſtery, and the Spirit of error may come in Sheep's Cloathing, and may get good words and fair ſpeeches to deceive the hearts of the ſimple: and there were thoſe that held a form of godlineſs, and had not the true Power. But denyed it, and ſuch were to be turned from, becauſe denying the true Power they denied the Lord that bought them, and ſo held not the head: and he that doth ſo, whatſoever he holds of the Doctrine of Scriptures, hath ſufficient cauſe to queſtion his Communion with God, and alſo the truth of his raviſhments and ſpiritual enjoyments, and all his Duties and Graces.

Again, a man may apprehend his Doctrinals to be right, as to the main ſubſtantials, when indeed they are not ſo. For the Doctrines of the Goſpel are Myſteries, Faith is a Myſtery, the Love of and in the Spirit a Myſtery, Obedience to the Truth a Myſtery, the right confeſſion of Chriſt in and through the ſpirit a Myſtery, the Worſhip of God in Spirit a Myſtery, Juſtification, Sanctification, and the Peace and Joy of the Spirit Myſteries of the Kingdom, &c. and it is eaſy miſſing and miſunderſtanding theſe things, but hard to come to the true knowledge of them: and if any of the true, inward, Spiritual knowledge of theſe things be received at any time, it is hard retaining it, nay impoſſible rightly ſo to do but in that which gave it. And indeed this is the great Myſtery of Religion, to wit, to begin in the Spirit, and ſo to travel on in the pure Light, Life and Knowledge thereof, and not to entertain or mix with any thing of the fleſh. But now if a man have not the Spirit of Chriſt, or if he be not able to diſtinguiſh the Spirit of Chriſt in its Voice, Motions and Workings from the other Spirit, and from his own Wiſdom and Underſtanding: when he reads a ſcripture he may eaſily err and miſtake about the Doctrines thereof, and let in ſomewhat of his own or the other ſpirits forming, inſtead of that which is the pure Truth of God And then this which he hath ſo let in, will cauſe him to miſ-judge concerning the Truth, when God manifeſts and brings it forth purely and unmixedly in others, and make him a great enemy to it.

This was the caſe of the Scribes and Phariſees and great Prieſts in the time of Chriſt; they Studied the Law, gave interpretations of it, being appointed by God to preſerve the Peoples Knowledge; and by their underſtanding of the Law and Prophets, Chriſt could not be the Meſſiah: for plainly, that appearance of his diſagreed with the Law and the Prophets, according to their underſtanding of them. Chriſt was to abide for ever, but he ſaid the Son of man muſt be lifted up. Yea the very Diſciples themſelves underſtood not this for a long time, and if the ſenſe of the Life and Power of the Father in him, had not bowed down their Spirits, they alſo would have reaſoned againſt him in many things. When Chriſt cometh, no man knoweth whence he is: But we know this Man whence he is. And when Nichodemus (who was touched with the ſenſe of his Power) ſeemed to favour him: What ſaid they to him? Search and look, for out of Galilee ariſeth no Prophet. And they themſelves in ſearching and looking and trying by the Scriptures, found him not agree with Moſes and the Law which he had given from God (whom they ſaid they knew was of God) but whereas Moſes had given a ſtrict command about the Sabbath upon which there was no work to be done, nor burthen born, &c. He on the other hand bids a man take up his Bed and walk on the Sabbath day. How could this be the Meſſiah, of whom Moſes wrote (would they ſay in their hearts) would he teach and practiſe contrary to Moſes? So that there is no certain trying by the Scriptures, further than a man is certain that he hath the underſtanding of thoſe Scriptures which he tryeth by, from God's Spirit. For was not this plain to them, that no burthen was to be born on the Sabbath? and do they not herein (according to their Underſtandings and Knowledge of the Scripture) find Chriſt contrary to Moſes and the Prophets; what then would follow naturally? A Deceiver, a Deceiver, would they preſently cry. He cannot be of God; let him talk of what power he will, it cannot be God's power: we need a further ſign from him, before we can believe him to be the Meſſiah.

But the way of trying Doctrines by the unerring Spirit, and pure Light of Truth in the Heart, is certain and infallible. He who is Truth, and no Lye, never deceives about Truth; yea, the very inſtinct of his Life, and Nature diſtinguiſhes things truly, and never Teaches the Heart to Err, who is acquainted with it, and keepeth to it. And, What is the Spirit which is given, and why is He given? Is he not above the Letter? and where he is Received, is he not to be Acknowledged above it? Is not his Law of Light Written by his Finger in the Heart, above any literal Deſcription or Command of it? We muſt ſet the Spirit above the Scriptures, and the Miniſtration of the Spirit, above the Miniſtration of the Letter. We cannot be clear before the Lord, in giving way to any Profeſſors on the Earth herein, but muſt Teſtify for God againſt them. Yea, he that hath received the Anointing, and knoweth how it Teacheth, and how it Preſerveth from all that ſeduceth, cannot but give the Honour to it, and acknowledge that it is the great Ordinance of God in the Goſpel, even above, and beyond the Letter. And till he is ſo known and received, Men can never be able to diſtinguiſh the Truths of God, as held forth by him in the Scriptures of Truth, from their own Conceivings, and Apprehenſions about things, but will be ready to take their own Apprehenſions, and Conceivings for Truth; and having ſo done, they cannot but miſ-ſee, miſtake, and miſ-judge about that which is Truth indeed. So that the Doctrine which they thus ſet up, is not indeed the Doctrine of Truth according to the Scriptures, but rather that which they conceive, and have imagined ſo to be.

hath

So that, whereas thou ſayeſt, your Religion conſiſts, firſt of right Apprehenſions, &c. we on the other hand, cannot but Teſtify, as we have been convinced by the Lord, felt, and underſtood in him that is true, that a Man muſt firſt receive the Spirit, before he can have right Apprehenſions about the Myſtery of God, Chriſt, &c. becauſe the Spirit ſearcheth the deep things of God, and the things of God knows no Man but by the Spirit: therefore, there is a neceſſity for People, firſt to be turned to the Spirit of God, as being the firſt ſtep in the way to true ſaving Knowledge.

Concerning the Light.

CHriſt who had all Power given Him by the Father, and Authority to ſend forth Meſſengers to Preach the Goſpel of His Salvation, He ſent forth His Apoſtles and Servants, to Teſtify and Declare of it.

That which they were to Preach and Teſtify of, was, That which was from the Beginning, even the Eternal Life, which was with the Father, and was Manifeſted unto them. And this is the Meſſage which they heard of Him, and were to Declare to others, That God is Light, and in Him is no Darkneſs at all. And this Word of Faith, this Word which was from the Beginning, this Word which Reconciles the Soul to God, they were to Preach as near in the heart, as in the mouth. And the intent of their Preaching and Teſtifying of this, was to turn men to it, from the Darkneſs within to the Light within, from the Power of Sathan within to the Power of God within. Thus was the Goſpel Preached before the Apoſtacy, and thus is it again Preached after the Apoſtacy; and this Light, this Life, this Power of the Invisible Word is witneſſed again to become the Salvation, as it was before the Apoſtacy.

Now here, being turned to this, this diſcovers the Darkneſs, the loſt Eſtate, the Captivity, the Bands, the Miſery of the Soul, and gives to long after the Saviour; and not only ſo, but it alſo ſheweth the Saviour whom it cauſeth the Soul to long after; and in the waiting upon the Saviour in the Light which is of him, giveth to partake of his Salvation.

And ſo here, we come to have that Work of God renewed in our hearts and ſpirits, which at any time was formerly wrought, and it wrought more clearly and effectually, as it muſt needs be, as the mind is turned toward and gathered into the pure Light, Life and Power. And in this, we are taught to own Chriſt, as he appeared in that body of fleſh, and what he did in the Life and Vertue of the Father; yea the pretiouſneſs of that his Sacrifice, both in its own Nature, and in the eye of the Father; and we bleſs the Lord for him, and believe in the Father through him. Yea, we bleſs the Lord for the Declarations of the good things in the Scriptures, and read them with Joy, and Thankfulneſs to the Father, and in the watch againſt that which would imagine about them; for we know any ſuch thing (let into the mind) Darkens, So that we do not fall ſhort in a true owning of Chriſt, as he appeared in that body: and alſo we know and own the ſame word of Eternal Life appearing in us, that we can ſay truly with the Apoſtle, it hath pleaſed the Father to reveal the Son in us, and it is the Eternal Life, it is the Son indeed of the Holy God, and not another.

Now, for that way of Working, which thou ſpeakeſt of, of ſeeing a Man's Nakedneſs, Filthineſs, wretched, loſt, undone condition, of being convinced of his own impotency, that his help is not in himſelf, that all his Righteouſneſs is as filthy Rags, of crying out, What ſhall I do, Wo is me, I am undone, what ſhall I do to be Saved? How ſhall I appear before the Lord? And ſo of Mourning in Secret, and the Sore Running, &c. and the Diſcovery of Chriſt, as was in that Day, as offer'd without Mony, without Price, &c. and ſo the Soul's humble, and cordial caſting it ſelf upon him, &c. and deſiring to know him, not only as a Saviour, but as a Lord, alſo Reigning over him, &c.

All this we knew, in the true and ſenſible experience, as it was revealed in that day. But we knew not the word of Life within to be the word (though we felt Operations from it) and ſo were not founded upon the Rock, upon the word of Life, as revealed within: and ſo when the ſtorms came, they had greater Power upon our ſpirits, than we believed they could poſſibly have. And now in the Lords freſh viſiting of us, we have not loſt any thing we had before, nor do deny any thing that God wrought in us then, but have it again with advantage, and precious Additions from the Lord God, in that pure Light of Life wherewith he hath viſited us.

And now God having demonſtrated this thing to us, ſhewing us what it is? and giving us to partake of the precious Virtues of it; how can we call it leſs than a meaſure of Chriſt, of his Spirit, than the ſeed of the Kingdom, than the Heavenly leaven &c. knowing and experiencing it aſſuredly to be that very thing, which Chriſt ſo called in his Parables: and that in you which is offended at us for it, we know to be not the true Birth, but the Birth of another wiſdom, which is to be caſt out, with her Mother: and it will be a happy day with you, if ever ye come to witneſs the caſting of it out; which ye can never do, till ye come to know, and own and be ſubject to Chriſt within, to the pure Commandement and word of Life in the Heart, to the Law which cometh out of Sion, and to the Teſtimony and word of the Lord from Jeruſalem (And they that come not to know it caſt out of them by the Power, they thereby will be caſt out with it.)

But that there are ſome glimmerings of Light remaining in fallen man, directing concerning many things morally good, as to honour Parents, to deal juſtly, to do as we would be done unto, &c. There is, thou ſayeſt, a Light diſcovering theſe things as duties, and the contrary to be Evil, and there is alſo ſome anſwerable ſtrength to come up to ſuch Moralities. If thou meaneſt a light diſtinct from the Spitit and Divine Nature of God, I deſire thee to manifeſt it from Scripture: For Adam was to dye the death that very day that he ſinned. And the Death and Curſe came upon his Poſterity, who are dead in treſpaſſes and ſins; but the light that diſcovers and leads out of evil is from Chriſt. That which maketh ſin manifeſt, is his Light. I read that the Grace which bringeth ſalvation, hath appeared to all men, and that that teaches men to deny Ungodlineſs and worldly Luſts and gives them ſtrength ſo to do: and that it is the work of the ſpirit to convince of ſin, and that the Spirit of the Lord ſtrived with the Old world to reduce them from their evil wayes, and that he gave the Jews his good Spirit to inſtruct them, but they rebelled againſt him: but that there are ſome glimmerings of Light diſtinct from the Spirit of Chriſt, teaching fallen man to do this, and ſome anſwerable ſtrength in him to walk up thereto, I read not.

It is the promiſe of the new-Covenant, that God will write his Laws in the Heart, and whatever of his Law is written in any man's heart it is by Virtue thereof: for man is dead unto God's Law Naturally, and his eye blinded by the God of the world, but that which opens his eye to ſee what the Law ſaith, is the light of the Spirit. For that which maketh manifeſt is Light, and that which may be known of God in the Gentiles, is made manifeſt to them by the Light of God in them, which ſhineth in their darkneſs, but their darkneſs cannot comprehend it. But it fathometh and comprehendeth the Darkneſs, and is able to gather the Mind out of it, being ſubjected to it, in the Will which it creates and begets, through the Eternal Power which viſits by it, and is preſent with it, to Work the Mind out of, and deliver it from the Darkneſs. And as this Light comes from Chriſt (For he is the true Light, that enlighteneth every Man that cometh into the World) ſo it diſcovers, and maketh Manifeſt Chriſt, in his Nature and Spirit, and leadeth, and guideth towards him: and he that is lead to him in Spirit, and Born of him in Spirit, cannot miſs of the Benefit, and Vertue of what he did in that Body of Fleſh; being gathered into, and found in that which is of him, to which all belongs. And in, and by this is received that nature wherein the Law is Anſwered, and the Work of Anſwering the Law, is through the Renewing of the Mind, and an Evidence of ſomewhat of a New Nature: every Degree of which Nature is Begotten, and Maintained by Chriſt the Power of God, who is over the Fall, and the whole Corruption thereof. But by the Old Corrupt Nature or Mind, can no Man do the things contained in the Law: for it is enmity againſt God, and is not ſubject to his holy Law; neither indeed can be. But the Law is Spiritual, Holy, Juſt, and Good, Converting the Soul, and making Wiſe the Simple; which Work it effecteth, wherever it is Written in the Heart, by the Finger of God's Spirit.

comprehend

Then again, as touching God's imputing Chriſt's active, and paſſive Obedience, &c. We do not lay the ſtreſs of Juſtification in believing a Notion, concerning Chriſt's active, and paſſive Obedience; but this we know, that Chriſt did Obey and Suffer, and that it was for our ſakes; and that for his ſake, there is a Gift given us from the Father, to Draw us to Chriſt; and that he, that is overcome to God, by the Gift of His Light, is thereby drawn out of the Darkneſs; and that that Gift brings every Man (that hears the Heavenly Voice thereof, and follows it) into the Son's Light, into the Son's Nature, into the Son's Life, into the Son's Spirit; in which, the Gentiles might partake of Remiſſion of Sins for his ſake, being gathered thereby, out of the Darkneſs into his Light and Power. For though they had never heard the outward Sound, or Name Chriſt; yet feeling the thing, and being gathered to God by the thing, the Value, and Vertue of it could not but redound to them: For it is not the outward Name, but the inward Life, and Power which is the Saviour.

And whereas the Voice of the Spirit ſaith, Ho every one that Thirſteth, come ye to the Waters: What are the Waters to which the Thirſty are Invited to come? Did we not believe in Chriſt, and caſt our ſelves on Chriſt in that Day, according as thou apprehendeſt? And yet the Thirſt and Cry our of Souls was not ſatisfied. But the living Waters ſatisfy the Thirſt. Nor is it a believing a Relation concerning the Thing; but a Receiving of the Thing, of the Milk, of the Wine, of the Living Water, which anſwers the deſire of the Thirſty Soul. And by coming to the living Waters, and hearing the living Voice, and eating and drinking the living Food, the Soul Lives, and the Everlaſting Covenant is made with it, even the ſure Mercies of David, which are ſure in the Covenant of Life for Ever. And thoſe that are living, in, and by the true Life, cannot deſire to Reap, or Enjoy any thing out of the New Covenant of Life, but only in it.

This is in my Heart concerning you; ye lay the ſtreſs upon a Notion, and upon an act of the Creature, from, and upon a Notion, which they that are out of the Life may perform, and who (that hath any Senſe of a Man in him) would not perform to avoid Periſhing? That is, Who would not thus caſt himſelf upon Chriſt, if believing after ſuch a manner would Save him? And yet there is alſo a difference, a very great difference between doing of it now, when Chriſt is generally owned as the Saviour, and doing it then, when he was generally diſowned. Then who thus believed, it argued the teachings of the light and power ſo to do: but now the form of owning Chriſt, is far more common, than any form or way of diſowning him. So that now, not the word, not the form, not the outward owning, or caſting the Soul upon Chriſt, is ſo much to be conſidered or valued; but rather the power, the light, the life, the gift wherein, and whereby this is alone rightly, and truly done. And he that owneth Chriſt aright, will own that which which is of Chriſt, the manifeſtation and gift of his Spirit, the ſhining of his pure Light, firſt in the Darkneſs, and then out of the Darkneſs, to that mind which it hath gathered and preſerveth out of the Darkneſs.

And then for being compleat in Chriſt in a relative way, while the Heart is unmortified, and unſubdued to God. It is dangerous miſtaking about theſe things. I do confeſs, the Sins are pardoned upon a true belief, and the Soul enters into the Covenant of Life, and is accepted with the Lord, as it finds entrance thereinto and walks therein. And there is no Condemnation to them that are in Chriſt, Who walk not after the Fleſh, but after the Spirit. But if there be an hearkening to the Fleſh, and walking after the Luſts and deſires thereof, is there no Condemnation then? Is not the Juſtification in the Covenant, and according to the Laws of the Covenant? Alas, alas, how do men Imagin concerning things and ſo in their Imaginations juſtify themſelves wherein the Lord God condemns them, and know not the way of the Covenant and of the Juſtification thereof. For there is a New Covenant as well as an Old (and the New is not like the Old) and a walking with God in the New Covenant; and every ſtep in it his Life juſtifies, and every ſtep out of it his Life Condemns, and the Mediatour of the new Covenant juſtifies it and according to the new Covenant, and never otherwiſe. For the way of God is perfect, (the way of Life, the way of Reconciliation, the way of Redemption,) and the Soul is only accepted of and juſtified of the Lord therein. Yea Juſtification is a Myſtery to man's wiſdom and underſtanding, with all his Knowledge he can gather from Scripture, and he only knows it, who feels it, and hath the experience of it in that which is true, and which cannot deceive.

Concerning Juſtification.

THe Apoſtle James ſaith expreſly, that by Works a man is juſtified, and not by Faith only: and his words were from God's Spirit, and are true, and the Lord ſaw an uſe and ſervice of them. There are Works which are excluded the Covenant of Life: and there are Works which are not excluded, no not to Juſtification. There are Works required by the Covenant, Works wrought in the Faith and by the Power of God; and when they are brought to the Light, it is made manifeſt that they were wrought in God, even works that are of his Son, wrought in the Life and by the Spirit of his Son, and theſe the Father alwayes Juſtifieth. Yet we do not ſay, this is a man's Juſtification for his ſins paſt, but they are forgiven for his names ſake: nor do they expiate ſins afterward committed, &c. But the Advocate intercedes and his blood waſhes them away. But this we ſay, that alone in the Faith, in the Obedience of the New Covenant, the Juſtification of the New Covenant is Witneſſed: and the New Covenant Juſtifieth no ſin, nor the Soul in ſin, but Purgeth away the ſin, and Juſtifieth from it, waſhing off the Venom and defilement of the wicked Spirit from the Conſcience, which the Lord purgeth by the Faith, and by the vertue of the Water and Blood which the Faith brings in.

Now having been led by God into the pure Covenant of Life, and having there had the true Sence, Knowledg and Experience of things, even of the Truth as it is in Jeſus, we cannot but ſpeak and teſtify of it, as we have felt and received it; and here we know and find certainly and infallibly, that it is not the Law of works which juſtifieth the believer, nor the Obedience or Righteouſneſs thereof: but there is a Righteouſneſs revealed of an higher Nature and Kind, than the Righteouſneſs of that Law, which is made the Souls in and by the Faith. And this is Chriſts Righteouſneſs, the Righteouſneſs of his Life, the Righteouſneſs of his Nature, the Righteouſneſs of his Spirit, which is revealed in the ſoul, and which in the Union with Chriſt becomes the ſouls, and Chriſt theredy is made of God unto us Righteouſneſs. And the works which are wrought in man by this Righteous Spirit and Holy Power, are of far more value in themſelves and of more acceptation with God, than man's Obedience to the Law could be, could he obey never ſo exactly; for theſe are from an higher principle, and of a far more excellent Nature, Spirit and Kind, than man's Nature and Spirit is: and yet the acceptance is not for the works ſake, but for the ſake of the worker of theſe works.

ous

Concerning God's Love to Mankind.

GReat is the Love of God to Mankind, who deſireth not their Deſtruction, but their Redemption and Salvation from that which deſtroyeth. Now, from and according to this Love, he ſent Chriſt as a Ranſom, a Propitiation for the Sins of the whole World: and not only ſo, but he hath given him as a Light to Enlighten all the dark parts of the Earth, that every Soul might believe in his Light, and by its Guidance and Power come out of the Darkneſs: and the free gift is as large and as powerful to ſave, as the offence or offences are to deſtroy. So that God hath not only ſaid it, but he hath manifeſted that he deſireth not the death of a Sinner, but would have all men to be ſaved, and come to the Knowledge of his Truth and Gift of his Grace, that they might be ſaved thereby. And this is the Goſpel, even the Grace which bringeth Salvation, and the Power of Eternal Life to all men's Doores, by and in which the Spirit of the Lord God (who is able to ſave) ſtrives with them and in them (according to his pleaſure againſt the Enemy.

Now for men to interpret a Scripture, ſo as to overturn this, contrary to the very driſt of the Goſpel, and contrary to the very Nature and Heart of God, they do not well, nor by the guidance of his Spirit in ſo doing. And now in love to thee, though I have not much freedom to open theſe things, knowing that they are above the ſtate of moſt People to underſtand, and that it is rather proper for them to wait in what is clear and manifeſt, than to meddle with things hard to be underſtood and deeply myſterious, before the ſpirit of the Lord opens them to them: Yet I ſay, in Love I find freedom in the Lord to ſay a little to thee. Mind the words of the Apoſtle, in fear and reverence towards the Lord. What if God, willing to ſhew his Wrath and to make his Power known, endured with much Long-Suffering the Veſſels of Wrath, fitted to deſtruction.

Now conſider, how is God willing to ſhew his Wrath, and to make the Power of his deſtroying a Veſſel known? is it a thing natural to him? is it not contrary to his Nature to deſtroy? Any who can teſtify any thing of the Life of God in their hearts, do they find any thing of a deſtroying Nature in it? Chriſt, who was the expreſs Image of God, did not he come to ſave? did he come to deſtroy any? And when any reſiſted the Counſel of God againſt themſelves, was it not grievous to him? O Jeruſalem, Jeruſalem, how often would I have gathered thee! Here the heart of God towards the Sons of Men may be read, as in a true Glaſs. And before the Lord gives them up to deſtruction, doth he not endure them with much Long-Suffering? and is it not the proper intent of the Goodneſs, Forbearance and Long-Suffering of God to lead men to repentance? Rom. 2. 4. And they that are led by the Long-Suffering to repent, do they not witneſs it Salvation? 2 Pet. 3. 15. Ah, wait on God that thou maiſt underſtand theſe things from him, as they are, and not according to the Imaginations and Reaſonings of thine own Wiſdom and Underſtanding: It hath been a long Night of Darkneſs, wherein many Miſapprehenſions and Falſe Conceivings upon Scriptures have been ſwallowed down, which the Lord pitied us under, and bare with us in them: but now it is high time to bow down to, and receive, that Light which purgeth the Veſſel from all ſuch Miſapprehenſions and Miſconceivings, which are as really hay and ſtubble in the ſight of God, as the Groſſeſt Darkneſs of Popery is.

Concerning Baptiſm.

WE own the one Baptiſm, and (bleſſed be the Lord) are baptiſed therewith into one body. That of water was but the forerunner's, but the ſhadow of Chriſt's Baptiſm, which is with the Holy Spirit and Fire. Now when Chriſt ſent his Apoſtles to Preach and Baptize, did he ſend them to Baptize with the Forerunner's Baptiſm, or with his own Baptiſm, when he ſaid, Go teach all Nations Baptizing them into the Name, &c. Paul profeſſeth openly, he was not ſent to Baptize, but to Preach the Goſpel. Was he not an Apoſtle? had he not ſeen the Lord? had he not his Commiſſion from him? did not the Apoſtolick Commiſſion contain Baptiſm, as fully as Preaching? Is it not ſaid, He that believeth and is Baptized ſhall be ſaved? Yes without doubt it did contain Chriſt's Bapiſm (without which there is no Salvation) as well as preaching: but the Baptiſm of Water, which was a figure of the thing (which Paul did find freedom to do to ſome) Paul ſaid he was not ſent to do. He did it not by Commandment, but he might do it by Permiſſion, as well as Circumciſe, which was another figure of the ſame thing.

Concerning Perfection.

CHriſt is a perfect Phyſician, and is able to work a perfect cure, on the heart that believeth in him and waiteth upon him: Yea he came to deſtroy the Works of the Devil, to cleanſe man's mind of the Darkneſs and Power of Satan, and to fill it with the Life and Power of Truth: and he ſent forth a Miniſtry, not only for the begining, but for the perfecting of the work: Yea his word in the mouth and heart is powerful, ſharper than a two edged ſword, and he can caſt out the ſtrong man, and cut down all that is corrupt and contrary to himſelf, and break down every ſtrong Hold in the mind, and ſpoil all the goods of the Enemy. Chriſt likewiſe bids his Diſciples, Be Perfect as their Heavenly Father is Perfect; and the Apoſtle bids men Perfect holineſs in the fear of God, that they might be fully ſeparated from, and not ſo much as touch, the unclean thing; but enjoy the promiſes of God's dwelling in them and walking in them, whoſe Temple under the Goſpel is to be pure. And if a man wait upon God in the Work of puriſying, and witneſs the Power and Vertue of the New Covenant, even the Fear put into the Heart, which keepeth the heart clean, and will not ſuffer it to depart from the Lord, and witneſs the Powerful Law of the endleſs Life, giving him dominion over the Law of Sin and Death in the Members, and the Spirit of the Lord put within him, cauſing him to walk in his wayes, and to keep his ſtatutes and do them: ſure this man cometh near to Perfection. Did Chriſt cure perfectly outwardly in the dayes of his Fleſh, and ſhall he not cure perfectly inwardly in the day of his Spirit? Yes certainly, the Lame, the Deaf, the Blind, the Dumb, the Lepers, waiting upon him in the way of his Covenant, ſhall be cured by him as perfectly inwardly, as ever the others were outwardly. And then is the day of Joy, and of reaping the good things which the promiſes contain, feeding on the feaſt of fat things on God's Holy Mountain in peace of Spirit, in ſecurity from the ſouls Enemies, none of them being able to come to hurt or deſtroy; nay not ſo much as to make afraid on the Mountain of Gods holineſs; and then the ſong of Moſes and the Song of the Lamb is ſung, and walking in the way of Holineſs witneſſed, which no unclean thing can paſs over to, but only the ranſomed and redeemed of the Lord.

Now

Now if any man come in truth to witneſs this from the Lord, and hath found by his conſuming Fire the droſs burnt up in him, and his Soul cleanſed from what is corrupt and unrighteous; doth he deceive himſelf or is he a Liar, if he ſay the Lord hath cleanſed me from all my unrighteouſneſs? And did John ſpeak there of his own ſtate, or of the ſtate of the other Apoſtles and Believers who were grown up in the Life and Power of truth, and had overcome the wicked one by the Strength of Chriſt in them? or did he ſpeak condeſcendingly (as the Apoſtles often did, with the Weak, becoming as Weak, when they were exalted by God to an higher State than that Condition ſignified?) Had he not fellowſhip with the Father and the Son, and was not his Joy full, and is the Joy of any full, while Sin, while Corruption is near and hath Power; while Satan, while the powers of Darkneſs, are not trodden under foot? There is a State of Righteouſneſs without Chriſt, wherein if a man ſay he hath no Sin (and ſo thinks he hath no need of Chriſt) he deceives himſelf. But there is a Power in Chriſt to perfect the Work of Redemption in the Heart, to Sanctify the Creature wholly, in Body, Soul and Spirit; yea his Leaven received will work and works daily, till it hath wrought all out, and the whole be Leavened: and he that truly feeleth it ſo, and can ſay in Gods preſence and in the true fear and humility of Heart the Old Leaven is wholly wrought out, and the new hath wholly Leavened me, this is not the Voice of Deceit, but of Truth in him

As for that Queſtion, Whether Chriſt hath not Reigned in his Spirit all along in the Souls of his true people?

Anſw. There hath been little of Chriſt's Reign in Spirit witneſſed all along the Apoſtacy. It is a great matter to come to witneſs Chriſt Reign in the Heart: Yea there are many who never yet came through the ſuffering which goes before the Reign: but the Croſs, the Power of the Croſs and the thorow-death thereby of all that ſtands in the way of Chriſt's Spirit Reigning, is yet to be taken up, and many Journeyes to be gone before men come to witneſs Chriſt's Kingdom and the Reign of his Spirit therein?

There are ſome other paſſages which I find in my Heart to ſay ſomwhat to. One is this, That ye know through Mercy when ye are well, that ye are ſatisfied, &c.

There hath been a Cloudy and a Dark day, which for its thickneſs may well be called Night, wherein the People of the Lord have been ſcattered from Mountain to Hill, ſeeking their reſting place.

Now it hath pleaſed the Lord, after this thick Night of Darkneſs, to gather the ſcattered Sheep, and to become the Phyſician (in the Miniſtration of his Spirit, Life and Power) to heal them and bind them up.

And thoſe that have been ſick and diſtreſſed and brought into the true ſenſe, they feel the need of the Phyſician, and Bleſs his Name for the healing which he bringeth with him under his wings.

But there are ſome that are fat and ſtrong, and whole and compleat by an Imputed Righteouſneſs according to their own apprehending, and theſe are well theſe are ſatisfied, they have no need of this Viſitation of God, nor of this Diſpenſation of Life and Power from on High.

There was a Church once, before the Apoſtacy took place, that knew the Truth better than ye do, that ſaid ſhe was Rich, encreaſed with goods, and had need of nothing, and yet wanted the tryed Gold, the white Raiment and the Eye Salve: and if ye knew how aright to wait on the Lord, and receive Councel and Light from him, perhaps ye might therein ſee alſo, that ye are deſtitute of, and want, the ſame things.

Now in that we teſtifie to you, that we have been in your State, and fully experienced it, and ſeen in the Light of the Lord the truth thereof and the defects thereof, and in Love and in the Leadings of God's Spirit are drawn to teſtify thereof to you, and have from him received the knowledg of the Living way which was made manifeſt before the Apoſtacy, and is now again; and are taught, and enabled by the Lord to walk with him therein, the Lord having led us into that, and brought us forth in that, from which all the Apoſtates have erred, and out of which they all are, this ſhould not be a thing ſlighted by you; but being a weighty teſtimony, and of great concernment to you ſhould be weightily conſidered of, and determined in you by that which alone is able to decide it. Now if ye weigh this Teſtimony by Scriptures, and have not a true underſtanding of thoſe Scriptures from God, ye will but thereby err the more, and be the more confident and hardened in your Errors, and ſo go on in a kind of Satisfaction and Peace in kicking againſt the pricks.

And as for our Confidence, we can truly ſay in the Spirit of truth, we know that we are of God, gathered unto him by the Life and Spirit of his Son revealed in us; and we could eat our Bread in ſecret, and drink the water of Life out of our own Ciſterns ſilently, but that the Lord required us, and his love conſtraineth us, and it is due to the Glorious Work of his Mercy and Power towards us, to declare in the ſeaſons of his chuſing, what the Lord hath done for our poor, diſtreſſed, mourning wandering, undone Souls. Now if others are confident without a cauſe, that doth not make void our confidence, which is grounded upon the truth, nor the Teſtimony thereof; iſſuing forth from and in the truth: but that which is of God heareth and owneth it, and feeleth the work of his Love and great Power, and bleſſeth his Name therefore.

As for thoſe expreſſions, It is enough for thee that Jeſus Chriſt is thine, &c. So far as thou feeleſt Union with him, in the Principle of Life which is of him, thou mayeſt ſay ſo truly. But is it not ſtrange, that thou ſhouldeſt be of it, and not be able to know and own it, in this day of its manifeſtation; but call the Light which is Spiritual and Eternal (and gives the true and certain Knowledge of Chriſt) Natural? What, of God, of Chriſt, having received the Spirit, the Living Well, and yet not know the Myſtery of Life within, nor its pure voice in this preſent day, but limit the unlimitted one to a form of words formerly ſpoken by him, how do theſe things agree with what thou profeſſeſt? ſurely they are deeply in the miſt, who know not Chriſt from Antichriſt, but fight againſt Chriſt and his Light, as if it were of Antichriſt or Nature. Now we are one with any of you (though ye know it not) ſo far as ye know and are of the Truth, and feel true Union with whatever is of God in you

Thus in Faithfulneſs to God, and in Truth of love and tenderneſs to thee, I have given forth that which ſprang in me towards thee: and Indeed I ſingly breath to the Lord in my Spirit, that it may be ſerviceable in the hands of the Lord for thy good, even to ſhake that Knowledge and ſenſe which is not of him in thee (though thou ſtrongly believeſt it to be of him) and ſo to bring thee to the Infallible ſenſe and experience of the true foundation, and to a fixed building and eſtabliſhment in Spirit thereupon, in that Light which is of the Father, that therein thou mayeſt own and partake of the Miniſtration of the everlaſting and pure Power in thy preſent day and Generation; which is now ſo diſpenſed, as it hath not been ſince the Night of Apoſtacy. Bleſſed be his Name whoſe Light ſhines, whoſe Life is made Manifeſt, whoſe Power is riſen out of and Reigns over the Darkneſs, whoſe Love and Mercy abounds in the Hearts of his Redeemed ones, who abundantly partake of the Covenant of Life, and of the precious promiſes of the Goſpel, to the praiſe of the Riches of the Grace and Mercy; which was to be revealed in the Ages to come after the Apoſtacy, and are ſo revealed, and are yet more to be revealed, to the encreaſe of the Glory of his Name, and of the Joy and Conſolation of his Redeemed ones, who find that to be God's Power and Wiſdom and mighty redemption to them, who to others is a ſtumbling Block, weakneſs and fooliſhneſs: and he who ever was and ſtill is the Life, is once again become a ſtumbling ſtone, and rock of offence to both the Houſes of Iſrael, who though they have longed after him and breathed for him, and Prayed that his Kingdom might come; yet now when he is come, they know him not, but are Wiſe and Strong in reſiſting and oppoſing him, which is much to their hurt and great danger, as the Lord God ſeeth in the Light wherein he dwells, and as he hath given his Children, who dwells with him in the ſame light, to ſee with his eye. And friend, take heed that thou turn not the edge of thy weapon, even of thy Scripture-Knowledg againſt Chriſt, (there were thoſe that once did ſo)

ſo) nor that thy Table become thy Snare: for that was the Curſe, which lighted on thoſe which oppoſed Chriſt's appearnce in Fleſh, and it may alſo (in the juſt and moſt righteous Judgment of God) befall thoſe, who oppoſe his appearance in Spirit in this his day.

And as for what I have writ unto thee, thou ſhalt one day witneſs, that I have writ to thee in true Love, and in the true Light and Senſe of truth: and if thou canſt retire into that which is of God in thee, and receive the true ſenſe and underſtanding there, thou wilt there feel it ſo now. And O that thou couldeſt diſtinguiſh between God's witneſs in thy Heart, and the voice of thy underſtanding and gathered Knowledg, that thou mighteſt receive a Being, Life, pure ſenſe and underſtanding in that which is pure of God, that the Gold might be ſeparated from the Droſs, and there might come forth a veſſel for the refiner?

25th. of the 11th. Month, 67.

I am a lover of Souls, an earneſt deſirer after their welfare, but eſpecially of ſuch as breath after and long for Communion with the Lord in that which is Living and Pure.

I. P.

A Reply to thy Animadverſions.

To the Firſt.

A Man is juſtified upon account of Chriſt, of being in him, believing in him, obeying his Goſpel. All theſe have reference to Juſtification, according to the ſouls experience and according to the Scriptures, and none of them are to be excluded. God hath appointed Chriſt to be a Prince and a Saviour, to give Repentance, Faith and Remiſſion of Sins; and in the exerciſe of that Repentance and Faith, the Righteouſneſs and Juſtification is received. And the Lord condemns the unbeliever, becauſe he believes not; and the diſobedient, becauſe he obeyes not the Goſpel: and he alſo juſtifies the Believer and the Obedient, becauſe of the Faith and Obedience of his Son which he finds in them. And in this Faith the Righteouſneſs, the pure Righteouſneſs flows; the Spirit of the Lord covers, and that it is not only the principle, but alſo the garment of Righteouſneſs and Salvation; yea all that Chriſt did in the fleſh comes in here, and the ſoul feels and partakes of the Vertue and Value of it all, being found here. But out of this are the Notions and Imaginations of mens minds upon, and about Scriptures concerning the thing, who indeed and in Truth (as it really is) know it not.

To the Second, There are Two Covenants, and there are Works of each, Works required by each. In the Old-Covenant, Obedience to the Law of Moſes is required. In the New-Covenant, Believing in Chriſt, (this is the Work of God, that ye Believe in him whom he hath ſent) and Obedience to his Goſpel and holy Spirit. Now theſe, and the Works of the Old, are not one and the ſame, nor have the ſame Acceptance, and Juſtification with the Lord. Nay, though a Man could perform all the Law of Moſes exactly, yet would he not be therein ſo juſtified in the Sight of God, as the Believer is; his Faith and Obedience, which he Receiveth from Chriſt, and performeth in the Strength of his Grace and New Life, being of an higher kind, and more excellent nature, than Man's fulfilling the Law in his own natural Capacity, and Principle can be. I am ſorry thou haſt no better a knowledge, and ſavour of the things of the Kingdom, than to Teſtify a diſlike of this Diſtinction. And as for the Papiſts, we meddle not with them, farther farther than we are led by the Lord: for my part I know not what they hold as to this thing.

To the Third; God did threaten the Gentiles (wiſhing them to take heed of boaſting againſt the Jews) that if they did not continue in the faith, and in the fear, they ſhould be cut off, as the Jews were. Now there was a great and general departing from the Faith, and anſwerably, a General cutting off. And though Life was reſerved in a ſelect member in the wilderneſs, yet the true way of gathering into Churches and the Church-State fell. And Now being fallen, the Lord alone is able to rebuild, as he built at firſt. Now men reading the Scriptures of the Glory of the former Church-State, have been longing after it (which was Good) but withal too forward to thruſt themſelves into it, and build by imitation without the clear Light, leadings and guidance of the Spirit, and ſo have not built up in the ſame Life and Power, by which the Building was at firſt, and can alone be truly raiſed again. Now the Lord being come forth in his Power, and raiſing up his own Building; the ſame Spirit which raiſeth up that, Teſtifieth againſt all the other, which are raiſed up without it. And indeed, the Teſtimony againſt the preſent Churches, and Congregations gathered out of the Power, is Gods, not ours. But conſider ſeriouſly, John had a Reed given him to meaſure the Temple, &c. which, when part was to be reſerved for God, and part to be given to the Gentiles: but who gave you power to gather Churches, or practiſe thoſe which we call Church-Ordinances? Who hath required theſe things at your hands? And where doſt thou Read, that the Gentiles did tread down the outward Court, after it was given them? They trod down the holy City indeed Forty Two Months.

To the Fourth; So far as you ſee, hear, taſt, feel, any thing in the pure light of the Truth, as it is in Jeſus, we rejoyce therein; and heartily deſire the increaſe thereof in you: but we would not have you miſtaken about theſe things.

To the Fifth; Concerning the word or commandement which Moſes ſpeaks of, and which Paul ſaid was the word of Faith which they preached.

If the firſt Covenant had been faultleſs, there had not been place left for a ſecond For if there had been a Law given, which could have given Life, Righteouſneſs ſhould have been by that Law. But notwithſtanding the Wonders which God did in Egypt and the Wilderneſs, and the giving the Law and Ordinances, &c. yet the Vail was upon them, And the Lord had not given them an heart to perceive, nor eyes to ſee, nor ears to hear to that very day, Deut. 29. 4. Well then, there was a neceſſity of another Covenant, and theſe words which Moſes now ſpeaks to them from God, were words concerning another Covenant, beſides that made in Horeb.

But where is the Commandment of this Covenant? where is the Law of this Covenant? where is the word of this Covenant? It is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off. It is not in Heaven, that thou ſhouldeſt ſay, who ſhall go up for us to Heaven and bring it unto us, that we may hear it and do it. Neither is it beyond the Sea; But the Word is very nigh unto thee, in thy Mouth, and in thy Heart, that thou mayeſt do it. And this nigh word, this word of the other Covenant, whereby God circumciſeth the heart, to love the Lord God with all the heart, is the word eternal, and no other, who hath received this Power of the Father, and none elſe hath received it: and in the Obedience to him, his Righteouſneſs is revealed and received, and made the Souls from Faith to Faith. And it is in vain for you to think to blind our eyes either concerning this Scripture, or concerning the thing it ſelf which this Scripture teſtifies of; God having opened the eye and heart which ſees and knows, and which in the true Light, which is from and of the word ſees him who is inviſible and eternal, even the Life, Holy Power, Wiſdom and Righteouſneſs, which was in and with the Father before the World was. And this was the word, before it took up the body of fleſh, and is ſtill the word, and no other: and its Commandment is Life Eternal, in the pure Faith whereof and in the pure Obedience whereto, he giveth life abundantly; but out of the Faith and Obedience thereto, he doth neither give Life, nor the Juſtification of Life, but the deceits of the Enemy there prevail in mens minds concerning theſe things.

Now

Now had the Jews under the Law come to this Word, they had by the Light thereof underſtood the Law, and by the Power thereof fulfilled it. And when Chriſt and the Apoſtles preached, had they, that heard, felt this word, they could not but in their hearts have believed him to be the Lord, and alſo have confeſſed his Reſurrection from the Dead, which in that day it was a great thing to confeſs, being not revealed by Fleſh and Blood, nor the Teſtimony then eaſily ſwallowed by the Fleſhly and Earthly part, but Generally oppoſed by it. But now theſe things are received and acknowledged by multitudes without the Power, and as ſo received are of no value, nor can ſave: but the owning and receiving and being born of the Spirit, Life and Power (which was in him) Saves, and gives ſuch an acknowledgment of theſe things, as is of the Life and Power, and accepted with the Father.

But alas! Friend, how haſt thou wreſted and perverted this Scripture, turning aſide the intent of Gods Spirit, and putting thine own meaning upon his Words, ſtriving to make them ſpeak what thou would'ſt have them; Is this Reading of the Scriptures in Reverence, Humility and Godly Fear? O that God would give thee a ſenſe of what thou haſt done herein! For neither Moſes, nor Paul doth thus reſtrain them, or mention any ſuch ſort of People, as thou ſpeakeſt of; but thou by thy expoſition makeſt void the mind of God, and the drift of his Spirit in the Scriptures. If thou haſt in this Wiſdom and Latitude of thy own Spirit read the Scriptures, not knowing Gods Spirit to gird and limit thee from thine own apprehendings and conceivings, what kind of Rule haſt thou made to thy ſelf out of them? Ah friend, if thou knoweſt Gods Spirit, keep to it: if thou knoweſt it not, wait for it to become thy guide and leader, and the opener of Scriptures and the Myſteries of the Kingdom to thee.

The Light which enlightneth every Man that cometh into the World, and the Eternal Word or Son of God is the ſame. And this Light Shining in the Darkneſs, ſhineth, and enlighteneth with the True Light: and the end of its enlightning is, that therein Men might feel the Drawings of the Father, the Strivings of his Spirit, and in the Faith thereof, and Subjection thereto, come out of the Darkneſs.

Now, the Condemnation is not becauſe Chriſt hath not ſufficiently enlightened them, or that there goeth not ſufficient Power, with his Light to Redeem from the Darkneſs; but becauſe Men turn the Deaf Ear to him, will not hear him, but in love to the Darkneſs, hear the Voice of him who dwells in the Darkneſs. But the Spirit of Chriſt, who is in the Light, and dwells in the Light, who ſtrives with the dark World by his Light, is able to conquer, and overcome the Darkneſs. Yea, the Word of Life nigh in the Mouth and Heart, is able to overcome the power of Death there, to quicken, to gather to God, to ſet the captive free, &c. And the Reaſon why Men Periſh, is not through God's inſufficient viſiting of them, but becauſe of their turning from the Meaſure of the Manifeſtation of his Spirit. They deſpiſe the Day of ſmall things, they will not come to that, wherein the Life and Vertue was hid, and ſo loſe the Day of their Viſitation, and miſs of the Good, which God intended to them thereby.

And whereas thou ſayeſt, The Light doth not, nor cannot diſcover Chriſt, and his being Raiſed from the Dead, &c. I cannot but ſay on the other hand, What doth diſcover them, but the Light? How came the Scriptures to declare of Chriſt? was it not from the Spirit? And is not that ſame Light ſtill with the Spirit, by which the Scriptures were given forth? and can he not give it forth without the Letter, where he ſeeth need of it, and vouchſafeth ſo to do? But how can the vaſt unbelieving multitudes of the world experience what the Light and Spirit of the Lord can do, being not ſubject to it, but rebelling againſt him, Job 24. 13. And why may not men now by the Light of the Spirit come to know that Chriſt is come, dead and riſen, as well as theſe things were known and believed before the Scriptures were written? Yet, if a man ſhould not know the outward death of Chriſt, and his raiſing from the outward Grace; yet being in the Faith of the Power (which whom ever it toucheth and draweth to it, it redeems) that gives him a Right to all that was done by Chriſt: for then he hath Union with the thing which ſaves, and Strength from it againſt that which Deſtroys. Yea, there was a time, when the Diſciples of Chriſt were in the Faith, and yet neither knew, nor believed his Death and Reſurrection: yea, Peter with no ſmall Confidence, ſaid, Lord, this ſhall not be unto Thee, Mat. 16. 22.

and

As touching that paſſage of Renouncing the Works, not only of the Old-Covenant, but even thoſe of the New alſo, as filthy Rags; that is Manifeſtly unſcriptural and unſavoury; the Works of the New-Covenant, being Fruits of God's holy Spirit, which he works in us, and for us. If any Man be in Chriſt, there is a New Creation (where the old things are paſſed away) and he that walks after this Rule, walks in the newneſs of the Spirit, and the ſpirit moves, and lives, and works in him. Not I, but Chriſt in me. And as the Root is holy, ſo is alſo the fruit. The fear which God puts into the heart is clean, and keeps the heart clean, and out of the good and honeſt and clean heart comes good, honeſt and clean fruit, which is not unclean like filthy Rags, read Iſa. 64. 5. and conſider it, waiting on the Lord to open thine underſtanding; Were the works which the Apoſtle ſpeaks of Hebr. 11. and Jam. 2. 24. to be reckoned as filthy Rags?

Abraham was acquainted with the inviſible, eternal Word, and was turned from Darkneſs to Light, and from the Power of Satan unto God, and in his converted eſtate had the Promiſe of the ſeed, and ſaw with the reſt of the Prophets through the day of his Fleſh to the Day of his Spirit, 1 Pet. 1. 10, 11, 12.

David was a ſpiritual man and knew the word of the New-Covenant, which is a Lantern to the feet, and a Light to the Paths of the Children of the New-Covenant, who witneſs and experience their way cleanſed by taking heed thereto according to this word. And the Precepts, Statutes, Laws, Commandments, Ordinances, Judgments, &c. of this word are a Myſtery to all that are not acquainted with it. But they that are acquainted with it, and in the pure fear and humility wait upon it, they learn of it the way of its precepts, and are guided by the Spirit of the Lord in the way everlaſting.

The Wiſdom which Solomon ſpeaks of, is undoubtedly Chriſt, the Word eternal. It is much thou ſhouldſt boggle at this. He is the Sun of the inward World, which enlightens the Dark inward World; not that they ſhould abide in the Darkneſs, but by the Vertue and Power of his Light come out of it. And friend, mark theſe following words, and wait upon the Lord for the true underſtanding of them. Till thou witneſs the inward Word, with the inward Law and Teſtimony thereof, and know its Commandment to be a Lamp, and its Law Light, &c. thou canſt never witneſs the perfect keeping and preſervation from the evil Woman, from the flattery of the tongue of the ſtrange Woman, but wilt be apt to luſt after her Beauty in thy heart, and to be taken with her eye-lids. But if thou know and keep Wiſdom's Commandments, thou wilt thereby witneſs Life indeed, according to that ſaying of Chriſt, If a man keep my ſayings, he ſhall never ſee Death. And Chriſt directed his Apoſtles to wait for his Spirit to receive his ſayings from, who teacheth not only the greateſt, but the leaſt in the New-Covenant, writing his Law in their hearts, which Law is Light. And if any man hear the inward voice of wiſdom, and turn at her reproofs, ſhe will power out her Spirit unto him; ſhe will make known her words unto him.

The ſame thing that teaches to do juſtly and love Mercy, teacheth alſo to walk Humbly with the Lord. It is the ſame Grace (which brings Salvation) which teacheth to live Godlily, that teacheth alſo to live Soberly and Righteouſly. What I had in my former Profeſſion and Congregational-way, the Lord brake by a mighty hand: but yet in tender Mercy he was with me, preſerving me in the midſt of the Storms, and Flouds, and Roarings of the Enemy upon me, till his freſh viſiting of me. And he viſited me with his own Spirit, with the Eternal Light Life and Power thereof, and I know it to be the ſame thing, which had been with me from the beginning: yea the Child, being quickned and raiſed out of the Grave, preſently knew its Father, and cannot but honour and bear Teſtimony to that appearance of Truth, wherewith his Father viſited him, and wherein he hath felt the renewing, and reſtoring of his former Work. And they that knew me formerly, before the Lord daſhed me to pieces, could and did witneſs, that the

the Lord had given me true Humility, and my Soul did witneſs a walking with him in the humility which he gave me. And now I witneſs from him, in this pretious diſpenſation of his Life and Power, the very ſame Humility (and bleſſed be his name, with great increaſe) and a freſh walking with him therein, in a freſh ſenſe and meltings and bowings of Spirit before him Night and Day. I do confeſs I took it to be a Natural thing, and overlooked and deſpiſed it, till the Lord opened my underſtanding and ſhewed me what it was, and how he wrought by it, and that it was a myſtery hid from all, but thoſe to whom he revealed it. And indeed I do hang daily upon the Lord in this for Life and Power, and am very weak without, but ſtrong as it pleaſeth the Father to manifeſt himſelf in me, and to breath upon me through it: Yea indeed my Life, Peace, Reſt, Hope, Joy, Delight, &c. is a Continual Gift from the Father of Spirits, who hath manifeſted himſelf near unto me, and ſhewn me his dwelling Place. And I am ſatisfied that the Spirit of the Lord, by his Immediate Light, is able to reach the darkeſt Heart in the darkeſt part of the World, and to turn his mind to, and give him belief in, that which Saves, and to ſave him thereby.

The Word of Faith which the Apoſtles preached, and the Word or Life Eternal and the Light which enlighteneth every man that cometh into the World differ not, but are the ſame: and the Light wherewith he enlightens them, that they might believe in him who enlighteneth, is of the ſame Nature with the enlightner, and ſufficient to guide them to the Faith of him. But, Friend, take heed of reproaching the Truth. Though thou mayeſt do it Ignorantly, yet it is not wholly excuſable. Haſt thou heard Preaching which thou ſpeakeſt thus ſlightly of, and if thou haſt not, ſurely thou ſhouldeſt have heard and conſidered, before thou hadſt judged. Thou ſetteſt up thine own underſtanding, and a judgment according to the appearance of things to thee, inſtead of the true and Righteous judgment, therein expoſing thy ſelf to the Righteous judgment of the Lord, who judgeth in Truth & Righteouſneſs, and Fear, otherwiſe in this matter, than thou doſt.

Chriſt is the Pearl of Price, or treaſure hid in a field. The field is the World. The World is in man's Heart. And yet this Myſtery was hid from Ages and Generations; (and the Kingdom which the Phariſees fought) was within them, who were as far from any ſenſe and underſtanding of it, as the Gentiles; and ſo though it was within them, yet they were without it, they had no Knowledg, no underſtanding, no ſenſe of it, had reaped no benefit by it, but were Enemies and Alienated in their minds from it. Ah what pallate and underſtanding is that, to which this is unſpiritual and unſavory! but how bold and Preſumptuous, do mens apprehenſions (which they take up from the Letter of the Scriptures, without the Lights and leadings of Gods Spirit) make them, even to fly in the face of that which is certainly known, witneſſed and experienced to be of God, as well as held forth in the Scriptures, as Col. 1. 27, ſee the Greek.

As to thoſe harſh expreſſions, vilifiing the truth of our God, and the Converſion to him thereby; I ſhall only ſay this, well Friend, go on, reproach us and our Teſtimony and the truth of our God, as being able to lead us no further than morality, &c We aſſuredly know and experience, and faithfully teſtify as in God's Sight, that it hath led us further into the Myſtery and power of Life, and into Union and fellowſhip with the father and the Son, than your Doctrines ever have done or can do. For, the apprehenſions of man upon Scriptures are paſſing away, and the pure truth it ſelf, which the Scriptures teſtify of, is already revealed, and further to be revealed, and to have the Glory.

Ye think we ſet up a Natural Light, and eſteem it Spiritual; but we are taught of God to diſtinguiſh, underſtandingly, and experimentally between Nature, and him from whom Nature came, who is the Word of Life, the Lord God of Life, beſides whom there is no Saviour, who is near to every man to warn him of, turn him and deliver him from, the devourer and oppreſſor of the Soul. Now though the veſſels in which the Light ſhines be Natural and filled with Darkneſs, and become Darkneſs in the Darkneſs: yet the diſcoverer, reprover, checker thereof, which giveth the living ſound in the Veſſel, is ſpiritual, even the Spirit of the Lord God, which ſtriveth with fallen man in the midſt of his darkneſs and Captivity at ſeaſons, according to his good pleaſure. This the ſhepherd of our Souls hath taught us, opening our ears, and cauſing us to hear and know his Voice, and to learn of him, who is Truth and ſpeaketh Truth, who is Life and Spirit, and giveth of his own eternal Life and Spirit to his Children.

To the Sixth: What others have been I know not, but this I know concerning my ſelf, that I was ſetled firmly in the Doctrines which ye now own, and in the Congregational way of worſhip, till the Lord ſmote me and brake me to pieces, with ſuch as I did converſe with (to wit, teachers and others of eſteem in that way) profeſſed they could not conceive the ground of; but ſaid it was a prerogative caſe, and did not doubt but the iſſue thereof would be good unto me. But what if the Sheep were ſcattered, before the Shepherd came to gather them; what if they were wandering from Mountain to Hill, ſeeking their reſting Place? What if they went mourning up and down from one Watchman to another, from one ſort of people to another, inquiring after their Beloved? Did this make them unfit to be pitied and viſited by the Shepherd? What ſort did Chriſt gather in the dayes of his fleſh? were they not deſpiſed of the wiſe, learned, ſetled ones? (in their knowledge of the Law and Prophets) But bleſſed be the Lord who hath now manifeſtly revealed the Foundation, and the Kingdom that can never be ſhaken, and in his mercy and tender love, and by his power fixed them thereon; that they know in whom they have believed, and how they came to believe; and have taken up the Croſs of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, wherein the Power is manifeſted to Crucify that, which cannot otherwiſe be Crucified. The ſeventh hath been largely ſpoken to already.

To the Eighth, The Lord God knoweth that it is not in my heart to Judge, or ſet at nought any man, but in faithfulneſs to God and in tender love to ſouls to teſtify to others, what I have ſeen in his Light, as he requireth of me: and is this ſetting them at nought? It is true, they cannot believe nor receive the Teſtimony in the State wherein they ſtand, but that doth not diſanul or weaken it; but Truth and its Teſtimony ſtands, notwithſtanding their rejecting and riſing up againſt it.

To the Firſt particularly, To own and contend earneſtly for the Scriptures aright, is good, but it was not good formerly to ſet up the writings of Moſes, and the Prophets above and againſt Chriſt; nor is it good now to ſet up the Scriptures above the Spirit, or to make them the tryer inſtead of the anointing (John. 2, 27.) for the Scriptures came from the Spirit, and they teſtify of the *S*pirit, and the Spirit is to be received and to dwell in the Soul as in its Temple: and here the King and Law-giver of the Church (with the Ballance of the Sanctuary) is indeed known. And he that receives the *S*pirit is to Live in the Spirit, and walk in the Spirit, and in the Light of the New Jeruſalem; which Light is Eternal, diſcovering, diſpoſſeſſing and working out the Darkneſs, and ſo taking up its Place.

Now though ye may aim at having things concerning Churches and Church-Worſhip, regulated according to the *S*criptures; yet ye may eaſily err therein, and cannot but err therein, if your underſtandings be not opened and Kept open by the Spirit; yea ye may not wait for the Spirits gathering and building, but may gather of your ſelves and build of your ſelves; whereas the Apoſtles were to wait for the Power from on High to do their work with: and were your eyes truly opened, ye would quickly and eaſily ſee, that neither your Preaching nor praying is at all like theirs. They ſpake what they received from the Spirit, ye what ye apprehend and conceive concerning Words ſpoken of by the Spirit. This is very ſhort of ſpeaking as Gods Oracles. And one ſhort of you conceives thus, and another thus concerning the ſame *S*criptures, &c.

To the Second, Till ye know the Spirit, and come to the true waiting upon the Spirit, and Underſtand his Voice, ye can never recover the form of ſound Words by Reading the Scriptures, but will be liable to be ſetting up your own Conceivings and Apprehenſions, inſtead of the Truth it ſelf. And till ye have the true underſtanding of the Spirit, ye cannot but alſo err, concerning the power, and about your experiences of things, and ſo will be continually in great danger of being deceived, and of deceiving one anothers Souls.

To

To the Third, Ye have a Notion about Chriſt's active, and paſſive Obedience, being imputed to the Soul as its Righteouſneſs, which the Scriptures ſpeak not; and which manifeſts, that ye do not know how the Righteouſneſs is Revealed and how the Son is made of God unto them Righteouſneſs, who wait upon him in the Faith, and obey his Goſpel. For the Righteouſneſs is Revealed in the Faith, and is further and further made the Souls, in, and by the Faith.

To the Nineth, God is my Witneſs (whom I Worſhip in Spirit, and in whoſe Fear I write and ſpeak) that I dearly Love you, and in the Truth, and Dearneſs of Love, earneſtly deſire Concerning you, that ye may not miſtake about Chriſt, his Spirit, his Scriptures, about Faith, Love, Mortification, and about the Righteouſneſs, Peace, and Joy of the Kingdom, or any other Spiritual Thing, but may know, experience, and enjoy the truth and ſubſtance of things, as they are in Jeſus. Now, if ye know, and have received the true living Faith, and witneſs the powerful, purifying Vertue of it, which God hath given to overcome the World, and the Wicked one with; How comes it about, that there is ſuch a belief in you, that it can never do its Work perfectly in this World, but only in part? Surely this belief is not of, or from, the true Faith, nor to the Honour of him that hath given it. For the Spiritual Weapons are mighty through God, to the pulling down of the ſtrong holds, and bringing all (even every Thought) into Subjection to Chriſt.

To the Tenth, That God did as much for Judas, as for Peter, is not our Doctrine: For God giveth more or leſs out of his Rich Treaſury, according to his own good Pleaſure. But the unprofitable Servant had alſo a Talent given him, which he did not improve, but hid it in a Napkin; and his Lord Condemned him therefore. There were others had Talents likewiſe, which they did improve, and their Lord accepted and juſtified them therein, ſaying, Well done, Good and Faithful Servant, thou haſt been Faithful over a few Things, I will make thee Ruler over many Things, enter into the Joy of thy Lord.

Now is there juſt Ground for any of theſe Servants to boaſt and ſay, the other had a Talent as well as I; but I made my ſelf to differ, I improved my Talent, whereas he did not? The true Jew doth believe, doth obey the Goſpel, and hath praiſe of God (he that hateth the Light, doth not believe nor obey) and yet he ſeeth no ground of boaſting: for it was not he of himſelf, but the Grace and Power of the Lord wrought all in him. And what is done in, and by, and through the Power of the Lord, the Honour and Glory thereof, properly belongs to the Lord. Yea, he that is in the true Faith, feels that which excludes boaſting, and keeps in the ſenſe of the Love and Mercy. O! that thou kneweſt a limit, and check to this Wiſdom, and theſe Reaſonings in thee, which are not of, but againſt the Truth; as that Light which thou depiſeſt, would Manifeſt to thee, if thou kneweſt the Nature and Vertue of it, and didſt cleave unto it. In this Wiſdom and Underſtanding, thou mayeſt Read much, and Comprehend much, and be greatly taken with thine Apprehenſions upon Scriptures; but it is ſhut out of the true Knowledge of them, and out of the Spirit and Power of Life, which they that Wrote them were in, and Witneſſed of.

As for Free-will; we own no ſuch thing as Man's Free-will, to Good in the fallen Eſtate. But the Spirit of the Lord changeth, and reneweth the Will in the day of his Power; and whoever he ſtriveth with, and draweth, may come in the Drawing, Vertue iſſuing out with the drawing from him that draweth: and this is not the Condemnation, that Men cannot come to the Son, that they might have Life, but that they do not come, that they do not turn at the reproof of his Wiſdom, from that which he ſtands ready to turn them from.

There may be high Admirations concerning God, and his Love in the natural part, which we have known, and are made able in the Lord to judge of, ſince he hath Taught us to diſtinguiſh of things: and this is chaffy in all ſorts of Men. But there is a feeling of the pure Nature of Heavenly Love, and a ſinking therein, into the deep Senſe thereof; and an acknowledging of it to God, in the Humility, in the Fear, in the Spirit, and in the Power. Now this is indeed from the Beloved, and Accepted with God in the Beloved. And this is his Children, who are ſtripped of their own ability of admiring and loving, are taught of him to love, and admire him, being gathered out of that which is natural of Man, into that which is ſpiritual, and of God.

As for the Four Queries at the cloſe, which I propounded in Love, and for Advantage to thee, it ſeemeth to me ſtrange thou ſhouldſt ſay, thou wouldſt ſpeak to the ſenſe of them, and yet ſo wave the main drift and plain ſenſe.

The Firſt was concerning Chriſt's being Spiritually Born of his Church, to which thou haſt ſaid nothing at all, but that the firſt Chriſtians and Churches were very Glorious, &c. which they alſo can own, who have denied the Faith, and are not in the Truth.

To the Second thou haſt Anſwered as little, nor rightly according to the Letter, putting in the Dragon inſtead of the Beaſt.

Thy Third and Fourth are alſo ſhort, and not directly to the thing: but I Wrote not to Contend. The Lord God ſhew thee Mercy, bring down the wrong Wiſdom in thee, bring thee into a capacity of knowing, and receiving his pure living Truth, that thou mayeſt not witneſs or fight againſt him, but in, and by his Spirit underſtand the Scriptures aright, and Witneſs for him.

19. of the 12. Month.
1667.

I. P.

A POSTSCRIPT.

THere is a Word of Advice in my Heart to thee, which it behoveth thee ſeriouſly, and uprightly to wait on the Lord, to be made able to weigh and conſider aright; it is this. Take heed of ſetting up the Letter above or againſt the Spirit (for that is not right in the Sight of God) and take heed alſo, of ſetting up thine own Wiſdom, Conceivings, and Apprehenſions above both: for that is a dangerous way of erring, and may prove a great ſnare to thy Soul; as it hath been formerly, and is at this Day to many. If ye had known what this meaneth (ſaid Chriſt) I will have Mercy, and not Sacrifice, ye would not have Condemned the Guiltleſs. We own the Scriptures truly and ſingly, being Taught of God ſo to do, and do not hold forth any thing contrary thereto, or deny any thing therein contained; but are Witneſſes (Living Witneſſes) of the Truths expreſſed, and related therein: but Mens meanings and conceivings thereupon (who though they will acknowledge, that a Man cannot underſtand the Scriptures without the Spirit; yet will not venture in their own Wiſdom, Spirit, and Underſtanding, to expound and give meanings) we cannot own, nor them, in ſuch their Apprehenſions and Practices.

That in thee, or any which breaths after the Lord, we have Unity with; but that Wiſdom and Comprehenſion which is above it, and a vail over it, and contrary to its Nature, and which is a limit, and bond to the Pious Seed, we cannot have Unity with, becauſe it is of the ſame nature with that which the Lor hath Condemned, and Deſtroyed in us, and he will not ſuffer it to live in others, where his Life and Power prevails.

A Few EXPERIENCES Concerning some of the Weighty things, relating to Gods Everlasting Kingdom.

Given forth, in true and tender Love, for the help of any such of the Race of the true Travellers as may stand in need thereof.

By Isaac Pennington.

A PREFACE to the Experiences.

IT hath pleased the Lord to unseal and open the Fountain of Life in the midst of his heritage, so that in his Light do they see Light, and in his Life do they Reap and Enjoy Life. And the precious promises are fulfilled in the midst of them, of sending the Comforter and pouring out of the Holy Spirit, so that he that believeth, out of his Belly do flow Rivers of Living Water. Yea the Lord hath a Vineyard of his own Planting, which he keepeth Night and Day, (least any hurt it,) and watereth every Moment. O the Streams of Life, the Streams of Love, the Streams of Grace, the Streams of Mercy, the Streams of Peace, the Streams of Joy and Consolation which flow from him into the bosoms of his Children! Indeed Grace and Mercy, and Peace is Multiplied from God our Father, in and through the Lord Jesus Christ daily, insomuch as that saying of Christ to his Desciples (Joh. 14. 26, 27.) is now fulfilled, I say not that I will pray the Father for you: for the Father himself loveth you, &c. The Father in his love hath brought us to the Son, and the Son in the same love hath brought us back to the Father: and now the love flows from the Father in and through the Son most naturally and abundantly. And where the heart is circumcised and much forgiven; there love returns back most truly and abundantly, so that the Lord our God, in the Lord Jesus Christ, is loved with all the heart and with all the soul, and nothing is thought too good to sacrifice to him, nor nothing too much to suffer for him. O the pure Love that springs and flows between the heavenly Father and the spiritual Child! The best love that is to be found in this world (in the men of this world) is not worthy to be a shadow of it. God is Love, and his Children are of him, and partake of, and dwell in the same love; though the enmity and highest wisdom of this world know them not, nor can know them; as it never could know the Children of the true wisdom.

Now from this Fountain do not only issue springs and streams of Life to refresh our own hearts; but testimonies concerning the Life which we feel and partake of, and concerning our travels from the dark Lands through the vally of tears (where he that gave us Life, was our Well) towards our resting place.

These also spring up in us for the sakes of others. Of which nature are the things which follow, in this little Treatise. For not for my own sake only did they spring up in me, but to signifie to others of the Mercy the Lord hath shewn me, and the way wherein he hath led me, and what he hath given me to taste of and experience in the way; which will answer every true palate, every palate that is seasoned with life and with true experience. And having received them from the Lord for this very end, to hold them forth to others; in love and in tenderness of Spirit, my heart is freely given up to him therein, not aiming at any thing thereby, but his glory singly, and the good of such souls, to whom he ſhall pleaſe to extend Favour and ſhew Mercy, in opening the Heavenly Myſtery of Life and Salvation.

to

I have often ſaid in my heart, Who hath begotten me there? who would have ſaid, that Sarah ſhould have given Children ſuck, My wound was deep and ſeemed incurable. But Bleſſed be the Lord who hath made known to me the Phyſitian of value, for whom no diſeaſe is too hard, but he is able to cure every Sickneſs, and to relieve and reſcue all that are Captived and Oppreſſed by the Devil, that come unto him and wait upon him, in the way of his Righteous Judgments and moſt Tender Mercies. For after all My Religon and deep Exerciſes, and inward Experiences and Knowledge, I came to ſuch a loſs of what I once had, that I ſenſibly felt I knew not the Lord, and lay continually groaning and mourning after him, and deeply afflicted for want of him. O the Pure Living and Pretious Life and ſweet Preſence of My God, that my ſoul wanted, inſomuch as my moyſture was turned into the drought of Summer, and my bones grown dry and withered. But at length the Lord in his goodneſs (O bleſſed for ever be his Name) breathed upon the dry Bones, and I felt life enter from him into me, and the dayes of deep ſorrow and diſtreſs were at length forgotten; becauſe a heavenly birth was at length conceived and brought forth. And now where's the Sackcloth? where's the Aſhes? O there's beauty in Life, inſtead of the Aſhes in the ſtate without Life, and the Garment of Praiſe inſtead of the Spirit of Heavineſs. O Glory, Glory, to the binder up of the bruiſed and broken ones, to the Redeemer of the Captives, to the repairer of the branches, to the builder up of the waſted and deſolate ones! Glory to his Tender Mercy, Glory to his Grace, Glory to his Love, Glory to his Wiſdom, Glory to his Power for ever and ever, Amen.

I.

A faithful Teſtimony concerning the True and Pure Way of Life, with Breathings for ſuch as have deſires after it, and yet are Strangers to it.

THis hath been the Cry of my Soul from my Childhood, even after Holineſs, after the Preſence of the Lord, after Union with him, after the Nature and Image of his Son, after a ſeparation from what was contrary to him, and a being brought forth in the Power of his Life.

Now bleſſed be the Lord, that is revealed, which anſwers the Cry, which ſo far as my ſoul comes to partake of, is refreſhed and ſatisfyed with the ſupply of that, which it thirſted and cryed after.

And all that have felt the true Cry, O that they might alſo be taught of God, and learn aright how to wait upon him, and to walk humbly and in fear before him, that nothing might come between them and the Cry of their ſouls; but they might be led by him into the enjoyment and poſſeſſion of that, which the true birth (which is born of the Spirit, and is Spirit) naturally longs after.

Now truly there is no other way to Life and Satisfaction, than by believing in that Power and following that Power which raiſed Chriſt from the dead; for that is to work the work in all that are ſaved. To feel this power, revealed within, to have the mind turned to this Power, to follow this power in the regenerating Work and Path, is the way to partake of its vertue, and to experience the Redemption which is thereby and therefrom.

And he that is born of the Spirit, and hath his eye opened by the Spirit, and daily exerciſed thereby; he knoweth the Spirit, and is acquainted with his ſtirrings and movings and taught of God to diſtinguiſh them from the evil Spirit, its ſtirrings and movings; and ſo doth not quench the Spirit of God, nor grieve it when it moves; nor give way to the other ſpirit, when it moves and allures.

Now

Now the Spirit of Deceit allures and guides men not ſo much by outward Rules, as by an inward evil Nature, and by the Law of Sin and Death. So the Spirit of truth leads into Truth, by the newneſs and Power of its own Life revealed in the heart; by the pure inſtinct of Life within, and by the Law of God written in the Nature of the new Creature, which is nearer than words without. For God blots out of the Hearts of his what Satan had written there and writes by the finger of his ſpirit, what he would have the new Birth read there, and indeed there is a Kingdom of Life, of Righteouſneſs, of true Peace and Joy, (yea of the holy Power and wiſdom of the moſt high) for his Children (which are born of his Spirit and ſprings up of the Immortal Seed) to read.

O why ſhould mens eyes be cloſed and their Hearts hardened againſt the truth! Why ſhould they Cry up Chriſt in words, and cry out againſt his Life and power, where it is revealed! Is this to Kiſs the Son? Can ſuch chuſe (who are guilty of this) but periſh in the way of their ſouls travels? And how many muſt needs Periſh in their reſiſtings the Power of truth, and Precious teſtimony of Gods Holy Spirit (in this our day) tending to their Reſcue and Salvation from that which Captivates and Deſtroyes?

Chriſt came to deſtroy Sin, he having received Power from his Father ſo to do. He knoweth it to be of a deſtroying Nature, and that it will deſtroy the Soul, where it is not by the Power of Life conſumed and deſtroyed in the Soul. O moſt precious to us is that viſitation of Truth, Light, Life and Power, which ſearcheth out and diſcovereth Sin to the very Root, and alſo deſtroyes it! O Glorious is that Axe of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt which is laid to the root of the corrupt Tree, and is daily hewing at and cutting it down, that it might Cumber the ground no more; but that the Heart might become good Earth, Sanctified Earth, Circumciſed by the Lord to bring forth good Fruit, good Grapes, a good increaſe of the good Seed of Life to the Good Husband-man, who is worthy to reap, even in this World, the Grace and Mercy, Love and Goodneſs, Wiſdom and Power, &c. Which he Plentifully ſoweth in the Spirits of his daily. Glory to his Name over all for ever, who hath exalted, exalteth and will exalt that, which the ſeveral ſorts of high Profeſſors in their Wiſdom trample upon and deſpiſe.

II

Concerning the perfecting of Gods Work in the Heart.

IS it not the Will of God, that his People and Children ſhould be Sanctified throughout, in Soul, in Body, in Spirit?

Is it not the Will of Chriſt, that his Diſciples ſhould be perfect, as their Heavenly Father is Perfect?

Did he not bid them pray, Thy Kingdom come, Thy Will be done in Earth as it is in Heaven? and would he never have them believe and expect that it ſhould be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven?

Doth not he who hath the True, Pure, Living Hope (which Anchors within the Vail) purifie himſelf; even as he is pure?

Is not this the way to enjoy Promiſes of Gods holy Preſence, (who Tabernacleth in his People, that are cleanſed and Sanctified) to cleanſe our ſelves from all filthineſs of Fleſh and Spirit, perfecting holineſs in Gods fear? Will God dwell in an unholy Temple? Will he dwell where Sin dwells? He may indeed to ſuch, when at any time they are tender and truly melted before him, be to them as a way-faring man that tarries for a Night: but he will not take up his abode there, walk there, ſup there, and give them to ſup with him?

Hath not Chriſt received all Power both in heaven and earth from his Father? Is not this the end of receiving this Power, to bring down the Soul's Enemies, and to Purify and ſanctify his Church, that it may be without ſpot, or wrinkle er any ſuch thing? Is he not the Captain of our Salvation, anointed to fght the Battels of the Lord? Where is the fight? Where is the ſtrong man to be found caſt out, his goods ſpoiled, and the houſe emptied of him, and all that belongs to him? Is not Chriſt the author of Faith, the finiſher of Faith; and doth not he carry on the Work of Faith with Power? And what is the Work of Faith? Is it not to fight with, and overcome, Sin; to be too hard for the Enemy at all his Weapons; Is there not a whole armour of Light, Life and Salvation prepared? What is it prepared for? Is it not that the Children of Light ſhould be wholly Armed with it? Were there never any wholly Armed with it? or can the Enemy prevail on thoſe that are wholly Armed with it? Are thoſe that are armed with it afraid of the Enemy, his Power, his Snares, his Wiles? Or are they bold in the Faith, following on in the Spiritual Battles, him who rideth before them conquering, and to conquer.?

or

O that mens eyes were opened by the Lord! Then might they ſee the Glory of Truth, in the pure Light which Shines from Gods Holy Mountain: and ſuch dark doctrines of the Night (which tend to the diſhonour of Chriſt, his Power and Love, and to the upholding of the Enemies Kingdom) would paſs away, and prevail no more in the hearts of any that truly fear the Lord; but they would quietly wait and hope for his Salvation, that by the Law of the Spirit of Life in Chriſt Jeſus, they might be made free from the Law of Sin and Death, and not alwayes to be ſubject thereto! For all, whom the Son maketh free, they are free indeed, and being made free by him may ſerve God in freedom of Spirit, without fear, in Holineſs and Righteouſneſs before him, all the dayes of their lives. And then they know the Power and Virtue of the new Covenant, and the defence which is thereby, where the Wing of the Almighty over-ſhadows, and his Salvation (revealed therein) is experienced for a ſufficient Wall and Bulwark againſt the Enemy.

III.

Concerning the true Chriſt, how it may be certainly and Infallibly known which is He.

WHile People were in expectation and muſed in their Hearts concerning John, whether he were the Chriſt or no, John anſwers the caſe and tells them, how they might diſcern and know the true Chriſt. It is not he that Baptiſeth with Water, but he that Baptiſeth with the Holy Ghoſt and with Fire. He whoſe Fan is in his hand, wherewith he cometh thorowly to Purge his Floor, gathering the Wheat into his Garner, and burning the Chaff with Fire unquenchable. Now he that knoweth him that doth this Work, and experienceth him doing this Work in him, doth not he know Chriſt? O is it not pretious to be Baptiſed by him, whom God hath appointed to Baptiſe? O the Fan, the pretious Fan, wherewith Chriſt (who is the Power and Wiſdom of God) he ſeparates the precious from the Vile; ſevers the Wheat and the Chaff; gathers the Wheat into the precious Treaſury, and lets out the unquenchable Fire upon the Chaff! Our God is a conſuming Fire, ſaith the Apoſtle. To what is he a conſuming Fire? Is it not to the Chaffy, earthy, Droſſy Nature in men and women? Why, bring the Chaff near to the Fire, will it not burn it up? And then (as that is burnt up and conſumed) that which is Pure, that which is upright, that which is tender, that which is born of God can dwell with, and delight in, the devouring Fire and everlaſting burnings. For God is not terrible to the Child which is born of him, to him who is brought forth in the Image and Spirit of his Son: but to the tranſgreſſing Nature, to the Seed of evil doers, which are Naturally inclined to do evil, and every day doing evil, he is tertible for ever more. O Bleſſed are they, who believe lieve in that Power, and experience that Power near, which raiſed Chriſt from the dead, and are baptized with his baptiſm! They have acceſs to God: for ſo the true Jews have, being inwardly cleanſed and kept clean: But the unclean, who have only a Notion of Chriſt's Blood, and of his righteouſneſs, but are not waſhed thereby nor Cloathed therewith, nor ever knew what it was to put off the filthy Garment, and to put on the white Raiment. They may Pray in their own Wills and Spirits, but they know not what it is to draw nigh to God in the Spirit and Life of his Son, and ſo are yet to learn what it is to Pray to the Father in the Name of Chriſt. For none truly know Chriſt, but they who truly know and are led by his infallible Spirit. They that have not the Spirit of Chriſt, are none of his: and they that have his Spirit, have that which is infallible. It is one thing to have Words ſpoken concerning Chriſt, or formerly by Chriſt; another thing to have the infallible Spirit it ſelf; to be infallibly born of the Spirit, and brought up in the Life and Light of the Spirit, that he may certainly know the Shepherds Voice, from the Voice of every ſtrange Spirit.

IV.

Some Queries to ſuch as Affirm the Scriptures to be the only Rule, and Deny the Spirit, the Seed of the Kingdom, the New-Covenant, the Holy Leaven of Life, the Law Written in the Heart, to be the Rule of the Children of the New-Covenant.

Quer. 1. HOw are the Scriptures the Rule, or which of the Scriptures are the Rule? Are the whole Scriptures the Rule, from the beginning of Geneſis, to the end of the Revelation? Or are ſome Parts of them the Rule, ſome other not? If ſome parts of them be the Rule, and ſome not, Which parts are the Rule, and which are not the Rule? As to inſtance, in the Book of Job; His Friends ſpake many words concerning God, which were not ſo right as Jobs, Job 42. And alſo Job himſelf, in ſome of his Words and Speeches, darkened Counſel by Words without Knowledge, as he himſelf Confeſſed, Job 42. 3. Now which of Job's Friends Words are the Rule and which not, and which of Job's Words are the Rule, and which not?

Quer. 2. Moſes was the Miniſter of the Old-Covenant (for He Miniſtred to the Jews the Old-Covenant, which was Glorious in its Day:) but he was not the Miniſter of the New-Covenant. Now the New-Covenant, and Miniſtration thereof, exceeds the Old in Glory. The Writing of the Law inwardly, in the Tables of the Heart, is a more Glorious Miniſtration, than the Writing of it outwardly in Tables of Stone. Now, were Moſes Words to the Jews under the Old-Covenant, intended by God, to be the Rule of the Children of Light under the New-Covenant? Shall the Words of that Miniſtration which was to paſs away, be the Rule of the Children of that Miniſtration, which is to abide for ever?

Quer. 3. Did Moſes ſay, That when Chriſt came, my Words which I ſpeak or write, ſhall be your Rule, or part of your Rule? Or did he not rather ſay, When God raiſeth up that Prophet, him ſhall ye hear in all things? Is there any one that is truly a Sheep, who is not ſo made by him who gives Life to the Soul? And after he is made Alive, and knows the Shepherds Voice, is he not to hear his Voice for ever, who gives Life Eternal, and who leads into the Paſtures of Life, and to the pure ſtill Waters, all that hear his Voice and follow him? Read John 14. 3, 4. and Acts 3. 22. and Conſider.

Quer. 4. Was not John as great, if not greater than Moſes? Had ever any the Honour beſides him, to be the immediate forerunner, and preparer of the Way, and to point to the Lamb of God as he did? And yet was not he to decreaſe in his Miniſtry (it being not the Goſpel-Miniſtration of the Spirit and Power, as Chriſt's was) and Chriſt to increaſe Goſpel-Miniſtration in his? Is not the leaſt in the Kingdom greater than John? And are not all that are quickened by Chriſt, and follow him, led by him into the Kingdom? And who can give the Rule of Life in the Kingdom, but the King thereof? In the Laſt Dayes doth not the Lord ſpeak to his People by his Son? And is not he Faithful in all his Houſe, as a Son to give the Law and Rule of Life to them in Chriſt?

Quer. 5. Are not all that are Souldiers and Subjects under Chriſt, to follow him, their Lord and Captain, whitherſoever he Goes or Rules? How can they know whither he Goes or Rules, but by an inward Eye, and Ear fixed upon, and open to him? So that when once they know his Spirit (the Voice of his Spirit, as his true Sheep do) his movings, his drawings, his leadings, his going before, is their Rule to follow. And they are not to grieve, or quench his Spirit, in drawing back from any thing that he leads and draws them to.

Quer. 6. Is not Chriſt the Way, the Truth, the Life; the Living Way, the Living Truth? Is not the Living Way the Rule to them that Live? Is not the Truth it ſelf, the Rule of all that are true? What ſhould rule and guide the Spiritual Man, that is Born of the Spirit, but the Wiſdom of the Spirit, but the Oracle of God, Manifeſted in his Temple and Sanctuary? That which is Born of the Spirit is Spirit, in which the Spirit is to dwell, and he in whom he dwells, is to be Ruled by him.

Quer. 7. What is that which the Apoſtle calls the Rule, Gal. 6. 15, 16. which if a Man walk according to, Peace will be upon him? Is it not the Word, Power, and Wiſdom of God? Doth not he that walketh according to that, walk in the newneſs of the Spirit? Doth not he that walketh out of that, walk but in the Oldneſs of the Letter at the beſt? Doth not he that believeth according to that, hopeth according to that, prayeth according to that, I ſay, doth not he believe, hope and pray according to the Rule? Doth not he that believeth, hopeth, prayeth otherwiſe (though never ſo zealouſly and affectionately;) yet at beſt, can any better be ſaid of it, but that it is but in the Oldneſs of the Letter, and ſo is not the right Goſpel which God requires in the Goſpel-Covenant?

Quer. 8. Is not the Law of the ſpirit of Life in Chriſt Jeſus, the Law of the New Covenant? and is not that the Rule to the Children of the New-Covenant? Is not the Truth which makes free, the Way and Rule to them who are made free by it? Is the Letter or Spirit, the Rule under the Miniſtration of the ſpirit? Let that which is ſenſible, and which feels and knows the Truth and Way of Life (as it is in Jeſus.) anſwer: Men may ſearch the Scriptures, and yet not come to Chriſt for Life: and men may get deſcriptions and a knowledg of things out of the ſcriptures, and yet not receive from him the Rule of the new Life.

V.

Concerning the Light, wherewith Chriſt the Life enlightneth every Man.

In him was Life, and the Life was the Light of Men. And the Light ſhineth in Darkneſs, and the Darkneſs comprehended it not, John 1. ver. 4, 5.

WHat is the Darkneſs which Comprehendeth not the Light? Is it not Man in the Unregenerate eſtate? Ye were Darkneſs, ſaith the Apoſtle, ſpeaking concerning them as they had been in that ſtate.

Now

Now it pleaſeth the Lord that in this darkneſs his pure light ſhould ſhine, to gather man out of the darkneſs. For unleſs Light ſhould ſhine on man in his dark ſtate, he could never be gathered out of it. But he that is turned to the Light and followeth it, he cannot abide in the darkneſs, but cometh into that which gathereth and preſerveth the mind out of it.

But of what Nature is this Light, which ſhineth in man in his dark State? It is of a Living Nature. It is Light which flows from Life; It is Light which hath Life in it. It is the Life of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, of the word eternal, which is the Light of men. And he who cometh to the true underſtanding, may thereby diſtinguiſh it from all other Lights whatſoever.

There is a vaſt difference between it and the reaſon and underſtanding of a man: for the Natural man with his underſtanding is dead, but this is Living and Powerfully operating in man, as it finds entrance, and as his mind is joyned to it. He that is dead indeed knows it not; but he that is alive unto God, feels the virtue of it. This Light is above all gathered knowledg whatſoever, and above all deſcriptions of things whatſoever: for it is the thing it ſelf, even of the Nature of him from whom it flows. A man may get a Notion from this into his mind, which he may retain the dead knowledg of, yea his Notion may quickly be dead in them: but he that dwells in the thing it ſelf, knows that and dwells in that which never dyes

VI.

A few Words further concerning Perfection.

WHat was the intent of God in commending Job to Satan for a perfect and upright man, one that feared God and eſchewed evil? Was it not to repreſent him as a perſon, whom he could not make any breach upon or prevail upon to Sin? Thou haſt been ranging up and down the Earth, tempting many, defiling many: what ſaieſt thou to my ſervant Job, Satan, is not he perfect? Is not he upright to me in his Heart and all his waies? canſt thou make any breach upon him?

What ſaith Satan hereto? Doth he object any ſin againſt Job? He is the accuſer of the Brethren: and if he have wherewith to accuſe, he will not fail to lay it to their charge, even before the throne of God. But what hath he to ſay againſt Job? what can he object (either againſt his uprightneſs or againſt his perfection) to the Lord? O ſayes he thou haſt ſet an hedge about him. He ſerves thee indeed perfectly and uprightly; I confeſs I have nothing to lay to his Charge: but doth he ſerve thee for nought? But take away thy hedge, ſuffer me to winnow him, and thou ſhalt quickly ſee I ſhall have ſomewhat to lay to his Charge, and that no ſmall matter neither: for do but take away thy bleſſings from him, wherewith thou haſt ſo abundantly bleſſed him, and he will ſoon curſe thee to thy face.

Well, the Lord giveth him leave to try if he can ſtain Jobs uprightneſs and perfection: and now begins the tryal, whether the Devils temptations ſhall bring him to Sin, or the fear of the Lord prevail to preſerve him from Sin

Firſt, the Devil hath Power to touch all he hath, which he ſoon doth. What doth this produce! Doth he not ſin againſt the Lord? Doth he murmur? Doth he Blaſpheme, as the Devil had ſaid? No, he fell on the ground and worſhipped, acknowledging all to be the Lords, and bleſſing his Name. So that in all this ſore affliction, he Sinned not, nor Charged God fooliſhly, Job. 1. 20, 21, 22.

But the commendation which God had given him, of being a perfect and upright man, fearing God and eſchewing Evil, ſtill remains and ſtands good againſt Satan, Chap. 2, 3.

Satan gets leave to try him yet further, inſinuating againſt him, that if he may have liberty to Smite his Body, he ſhall eaſily prevail upon him to Sin; but not being able at preſent to bring in any plea againſt his perfection and uprightneſs, againſt his fearing God and eſchewing Evil. But this hath the ſame ſucceſs with the former; for he could not bring Job. to Sin with his Lips, ver. 10.

Now mind, Can any man that hath his heart made upright by the Lord, keep that integrity and Sin? Is not every Sin a departing from the purity, from the Integrity? Was not every tranſgreſſion againſt the firſt Covenant, out of the Firſt Covenant, even a departing from the limits of it? is not every tranſgreſſion of the ſecond Covenant a departing out the limits of the ſecond Covenant? He that abideth in Chriſt, doth he Sin? Can he Sin? doth not he that Sins, depart out of his Light, out of his Life, out of his Power, into the darkneſs, into the Death, into the temptation of the Enemy? Is it not promiſed, I will put my fear in their hearts, and they ſhall not depart from me: while the fear, which God puts into the heart abides there, can that man Sin? Doth not the pure fear cleanſe the heart and keep it clean, that the conſcience may be void of offence, both towards God and Man? Is the conſcience void of offence, where Sin is committed either againſt God or Man? When the blood flows in the pure Light, doth it not waſh? Doth it not waſh clean? Doth it not make whiter than the Snow? When Sin is entred into afterwards, and committed again, doth it not defile? O read in the true ſence, in the true experience, with the true underſtanding, which God gives.

VII.

Concerning Imputation of Righteouſneſs

THe Scripture ſaith, that Abraham belived God, and it was counted unto him for Righteouſneſs: and that ſo it ſhall be alſo to all that believe as he did, even in the ſame Power which he believed in, Rom. 4, 23, 24.

Now thus we witneſs the thing: our minds being turned from Sin and turned to the pure gift of God; that works a change in us. Herein we feel Faith ſpring up, which faſtens our Spirits to the Power of Life, and then we feel that (in the Power of Life) flow upon our Spirits, which waſheth away our Sin: and all that is done in this holy and Righteous Faith, is of the holy, Righteous Life and Power, and accepted with the Lord, and that which condemns Sin in us, never condemns any work that is wrought in God, but Juſtifies it. So that the Root of Sin, with all that flows from it, is condemned by the Righteous principle of Life: but the Root of Holineſs with all that flows from it is Juſtified. And this is our Righteouſneſs, even Chriſt the Holy Power of Life, who condemns and caſts out Sin: and it is great Joy to any of us, to feel the root of Sin ſtuck at, and condemned by his Power, and him caſting Sin out of us; and the root of Righteouſneſs growing up in us, and bearing us, and cauſing us to bring forth Fruit to God. And here we ſenſibly find we have right to the Scriptures, to the promiſes, to all that Chriſt did and ſuffered for us, and witneſs the propitiation by and through him, and bleſs God for all the diſpenſations of Life, wherein he hath appeared to the Children of men in any Age, which were all Glorious and excellent in their ſeaſon: but the diſpenſation of the Spirit is the ſtanding diſpenſation, which excells in Glory, which Chriſt in the dayes of his fleſh pointed his Diſciples to wait for, which his going away was to make way for. This diſpenſation was revealed and ſet up, before the Apoſtacy from the Life and Spirit of the Apoſtles, and is again revealed and ſet up in Power and great Glory, after the long Night of Apoſtacy, Bleſſed be the Name of the Lord for ever. For the darkneſs is already paſt away from many ſpirits, and the true Light again ſhineth, Glory in the Higheſt to the God of Life and Glory for ever and ever, Amen.

VIII. Con-

VIII.

Concerning Juſtification and Sanctification, ſome things which it hath pleaſed the Lord, in his tender Mercy, to give me to experience.

Firſt, that is the ſame Chriſt, the ſame Spirit, the ſame Life, the ſame Wiſdom, the ſame Power, the ſame Goodneſs, Love and Mercy, the ſame Water, the ſame Blood which both Juſtifies and ſanctifies.

Secondly, That Juſtification and ſanctification go hand in hand together. Their is none juſtified, but he that is in meaſure ſanctified: and there is none Sanctified but he that is in meaſure juſtified. For God juſtifieth by a rule (by the new Covenant, and according to the Law thereof) and men receive and partake of Juſtification, according as they are brought into, and kept within, the compaſs of the rule. For God acted of old towards, and Juſtified the Children of the old Covenant, according to the Law thereof, and the Children of the new Covenant are Juſtified and partake of Juſtification, according to the Law thereof.

Thirdly, That juſtification and Sanctification are both of, and through Grace. It is ſo in the begining, and it is ſo all along, Through Grace ye are ſaved ſaith the Apoſtle. The whole work of Salvation is begun and carried on through Grace. It is through that God viſits and reaches to the ſoul with his quickening Virtue and power. He regenerates alſo thereby; through that he Juſtifies, through that he ſanctifies &c. So that as the work goes on Grace, Grace, is to be cryed to him that does the Work from his very laying the foundation, and faſtening the ſoul thereupon, to his very laying on of the top-ſtone.

Fourthly, Though Juſtification and ſanctification be of God's Grace and Mercy in Chriſt; yet this doth not exclude faith: but they are alſo through faith and not without it. God doth not Juſtify man in the unbelieving ſtate, in the dead State, in his abiding there? but in the coming out of it, in the repenting and turning from the dead works, to the living God, and in believing in him: and ſo he alſo ſanctifies him, Fifthly, Faith and Obedience are of the ſame Nature, and alwayes go together. So that where ever there is Faith, there is obedience likewiſe; and where ever there is Obedience, there is Faith: Obedience flows from faith, and cannot be without it. For the very Nature and Virtue of faith is in it. And Faith is Obedience. For this is the commandment of God, that the ſoul believe on him (and in his appearances) whom he hath ſent to ſave: and this believing is Obedience unto him that commands it. And this Faith and this Obedience is Holy and Juſt in Gods ſight, and through it, (but not without it) and thus the ſoul is both Juſtified and Sanctified.

Sixthly, That the works of faith, the works of the new Life, are not the works of the Law, the Works of the Old Covenant; nor are excluded Juſtification as the works of the old Covenant are. For I have found the Lord who hath condemned and excluded all my doings, which ever I have been able to do of my ſelf, ſtill Juſtify and accept what his Spirit and holy Power hath done in me. They are not of the ſame Nature in themſelves, nor are they ſo accounted of in the eye of the Lord. For the Lord diſtinguiſheth between root and root: and what ſpringeth from the holy root, he Juſtifieth as holy; and what ariſeth from the unholy root, he condemneth as unholy.

Seventhly, That by the Law of faith all boaſting is excluded, in the whole work both of Juſtification and Sanctification. What is the Law of Faith? Is not its Law to receive all from the Son, to do all in the Son? to quit ſelf and its own ability, and to perform all in the newneſs of the ſpirit, in the ability which is of God, given and continued in and through his Grace and Mercy to the ſoul

in

in the Lord Jesus Christ. All the veins of Life, all the strains of the new Covenant run here. Here is no boasting of the Creature; here can be no boasting: for all its ability and strength is shut out, and that which is given of God to it, is all and doth all. Yet every Jew here hath praise of God: his faith is commended, his Love is commended, his faithfulness is Commended, his zeal for the Lord, his obedience to the Lord, his patience in sufferings is commended, &c. But the Praise and honour of all redounds not to his flesh, but to the Spirit and Grace of God in him; so that here flesh is laid low and kept in the Dust for ever, and God alone exalted in this day of his pure Power in the Heart. He that truly believeth, entreth into Rest. How into Rest? From what doth he Rest? Why from his own Works? From the Works of the flesh, from the Works of the old Covenant, from the works that arises from his own ability, from the works wherein he can never be justified with the Gospel-justification. But doth he cease from the Works of Faith? Doth he cease from the Labour of Love? Doth he cease from Obedience to any thing that God requires? Nay, then surely he rather beginneth to Work and Labour in the vine-yard, and his Labour is not in vain in the Lord.

IX.

Concerning Faith.

Several things I have experienced both concerning the Nature, Virtue and Operations of it, some whereof (as I feel them spring up Livingly in my heart) I may mention at this time.

First, THis I have often experienced, that it is an hard thing truly and rightly to believe. It is an easy matter to believe Notions concerning God and concerning Christ: but to believe in God, to believe in Christ; to believe in him that raised up Jesus, to believe in the Light, Life and Power which flows from Jesus, this is the gift of Christ Jesus?

Secondly, I have experienced this also, that Faith is Gods gift, and that it flows from the Power of his Life.

There is first a quickening, first a touching of the Heart by the Holy, Pure Power of the Lord: and when a man is touched and quickned, then in, and by, and through the Virtue which flows into him, he can believe in that which toucheth and quickeneth him.

Thirdly, That Faith never stands in a mans own Power, but alwaies in the Virtue and Power of the Life of the Son. So that he that will believe aright must wait to feel the Life of the Son revealed in him, and Faith flowing therefrom. For the true belief springs from the Life of the Holy Root; and from the flowing up and springing up of that Life, Faith receives its nourishment and daily Virtue.

Fourthly, I have Observed this in my Travels, that the Earthly Wisdom and Notions therefrom, got into the mind, and held in the mind, out of the sense of Life, are a great Let to Faith. For these strengthen and nourish that in man, which is to be weakened and dye, that Life and the Birth of Life may be all in all in the heart. Man is to dye, man is to be ceased from; his understanding, his Wisdom is to be brought to nought. But after it hath had a stroak and wounds, from God's Holy Spirit and power (even in the very wound, which tends to death:) yet it will be getting Life again (getting its deadly wound healed) and nourishing its Life by Notions, concerning that Life and Power which (in measure) slew it. And thus the Jew outward, hath his Life in the outwardness of knowledge, in the outwardness of the Law, in the Letter which killeth: the Relation and outward Knowledge of things killeth and deadneth more and more, unless leſs man come into the inward Life and Virtue, and daily feel them quickned there. If ye live in the Spirit, walk in the Spirit, ſaid the Apoſtle. A man cannot live in an outwardneſs of Knowledg concerning the Spirit and Power of the endleſs Life: but he that would truly live, muſt live in the Spirit it ſelf; and he that would rightly walk on in his way, muſt walk in the Spirit wherein he received Life, and wherein he that abideth, lives before the Lord.

Fifthly, This I have alſo obſerved, that all Notional Faith, wherein is not the living Virtue (as concerning Chriſt, his ſufferings, death, reſurrection, aſcenſion, interceſſion and concerning juſtification by him &c.) the Enemy will let the Soul alone with, and let him enjoy a kind of Peace in: but his war is deſperately againſt the true Faith, againſt Faith in the true Power, againſt Faith in the Light of Life. O how many ſore and ſharp aſſaults doth he make, againſt the Faith which receives its Virtue from God, and cauſeth the Soul to Live to God? And how ſore is it with the Soul, when Faith is weak, and the Enemy comes on againſt it with the ſtrength of his aſſaults and temptations. Lord increaſe our Faith, ſaid the ſenſible Diſciples.

Sixthly, It is a precious thing to feel Faith quickened by God, and helped by God againſt the Enemy. For the Enemy cannot prevail againſt the Soul; but the Soul, through the Virtue and Power of Life prevails over the Enemy in the Faith. And this is the great work of a Chriſtian, not only to wreſtle and fight, but to learn ſo to wreſtle, and ſo to fight, as to overcome.

Seventhly, That in the pure fear (not that which is taught by the Precepts of men, but which God puts into the Heart) Faith hath its ſtrength and exerciſeth its ſtrength.

O who knows the Pretiouſneſs of this fear!

The Power of Faith, the Power of Life, the Power of Salvation and everlaſting preſervation is revealed in it. Therefore ſaith the Lord when he ſpeaketh of providing for his Children in the New Covenant, that they ſhall abide with him for ever, and not depart any more from him as the Children of the Old Covenant did; I will put my fear in their hearts, and they ſhall not depart from me. And when the Angel preached the everlaſting Goſpel, how did he Preach it? Fear God, and give Glory to him, for the hour of his Judgment is come, &c. Rev. 14. When the pure fear is felt, when that which is contrary to God is judged, then the Goſpel is known, and the work thereof experienced in the heart. And how eaſy is it, when the pure fear is felt, to diſtruſt and deny ones ſelf, and truſt in the Lord! O how weak are the reaſonings and imaginations then, and how ſtrong is the power which ſcatters them, and lifts up the head over them!

Now it concerns every one deeply to conſider, of what nature his Faith is, and what vertue is in it, and what it can do in and through the Power of the Lord for him, how it fetcheth in the true living nouriſhment every day, how it delivers the ſoul and gives it Victory over that, which Faith was appointed to deliver from. For he who through the Faith overcometh that which is contrary to God, ſhall inherit; and he that fights the good fight of Faith ſhall overcome; but he that overcomes not his enemies, which ſtand in his way, ſhall be ſure to be hindred by them from attaining to his Journyes End.

X.

Concerning Obedience ſome Experiences alſo.

1. TRue Obedience, Goſpel-Obedience flows from the Life, flows from the living Faith. If I could obey in all things that God requires of me, yet that would not ſatisfie me, unleſs I felt my Obedience flow from the Birth of his Life in me. My Father doth all in me, ſaith Chriſt. This was Chriſts comfort: And to feel Chriſt do all in the ſoul, is the comfort of every one that truly believes in him.

2. True Obedience, Goſpel-Obedience is natural to the Birth which is born of God. It is unnatural to the Fleſh, to man's Wiſdom, to deny himſelf and take up the Croſs: but it is natural to the Birth which is born of Gods Spirit. That which is Born of the Spirit is Spirit, and it is natural to it to be converſant in, and exerciſed about that which is Spiritual.

3. That Honouring and Pleaſing and Anſwering the Will of the Lord, is the proper aim of the truly obedient. O how do they delight to do the Will! I have Meat, ſaith Chriſt that ye know not off. To do the Will was his Meat and Drink: and it is Meat and Drink to all that are of his Nature and Spirit. If I ſhould never have any other Reward, but the pleaſure of Obedience, yet I could not but ſay and teſtifie, that in anſwering the Law of the pure Life, in keeping the Holy Statutes and Commandments of Gods Spirit, there is great Reward. But yet there is a Crown alſo, and a reaping after this Life, of every thing that is ſown to the Spirit: and the Crown is Weighty and Everlaſtingly Glorious.

4. Goſpel-Obedience is exceeding neceſſary in, and to, the Goſpel-State Mark; The Lamb is the Leader: and can any be ſaved by him, but they that follow him: When Chriſt calls out of the World, muſt not the ſoul come to him, who is the Shepherd? And muſt not the Sheep daily learn to know his voice, and follow him: even till they come to be acquainted with every Moving, Drawing and Leading of his Spirit, and ſo come to follow the Lamb whitherſoever he goes? Mark what a weight Chriſt layeth upon doing, If ye know theſe things, happy are ye if ye do them. Why then the Diſciple cannot come to happineſs but in the doing, in the obeying of the Will of Chriſt his Lord and Maſter. And he that heareth theſe ſayings of mine and doth them, I will liken him to a wiſe Man, that built his Houſe on a Rock. But the pretended Believer, without doing the Will, is the Fooliſh Builder whoſe building will not ſtand. Again ſaith Chriſt, As the Father hath Loved me, ſo have I Loved you: Continue ye in my love. If ye keep my Commandments, ye ſhall abide in my Love: even as I have kept my Fathers Commandments, and abide in his Love.

The Diſciples whom he moſt dearly loved, muſt keep his Commandments, if they will continue in his love. And his Apoſtles taught the ſame, even the working out of the Salvation, and the purifying of the Heart through the Obedience of the Truth. For mark, There is a Covenant of Life, a Way of Life: and how can Life be reaped, how can the work of Life go on, but in Subjection and Obedience thereto?

O Bleſſed is he, who meets with the power of Life, which enables to obey, and who is Obedient and Subject to that Power. For he that truly believes in Chriſt, is turned by him to his Light, and to the Power of his Father; and the Peace, Growth, Joy, Bleſſedneſs, &c. is witneſſed in Subjection thereto.

XI.

Concerning the Croſs of Chriſt.

THis I have experienced concerning the Croſs of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that it is an inward and ſpiritual thing, producing inward and ſpiritual effects in the mind: and that this is it, even that which ſlaies the enmity in the mind, and crucifies to the World and the affections thereof, God forbid, ſaid the Apoſtle, that I ſhould glory ſave in the Croſs of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, whereby the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

Now mark; That which is contrary to the world and crucifies to the world, that is the Croſs. The Croſs hath this Power, and nothing elſe: and ſo there is nothing elſe to glory in. The fleſh luſteth againſt the Spirit, and the Spirit againſt the fleſh: and theſe are contrary one to the other. Mind, here is the Croſs: The Spirit which is contrary to the fleſh, which mortifies the fleſh, through the Obedience whereof the fleſh is Crucified. If ye through the Spirit mortifie the deeds of the body, ye ſhall live. Whatſoever is of, and in the Spirit, it is contrary to the fleſh. The light of the Spirit is contrary to the darkneſs of the fleſh. The holineſs of the Spirit is contrary to the unholineſs of the corrupt heart. The Life of the Spirit is contrary to the life (or rather death) that is in ſin. The Power of the Spirit is contrary to the Power that is in Satan, and his Kingdom. The Wiſdom of God is contrary, and a fooliſh thing, to the Wiſdom of Man. Yea the New Creature, which ſprings from Gods Holy Spirit, is contrary and death to the Old. Now he that comes hither, out of his own Wiſdom, out of his own will, out of his own thoughts, out of his own reaſonings, and comes to a diſcerning of Gods Spirit, and to the feeling of his begetting of life in his heart, and his ſtirrings and movings in the Life which he hath begotten, and waits here, and receives council here, he is taught to deny himſelf and to joyn to, and take up, that, by which Chriſt daily croſſeth and ſubdueth in him that which is contrary to God.

And here is the Light of Faith, and the good travel under the Croſs, whereby the holy journey is gone, and the enemies (which riſe up to oppoſe in the way) vanquiſhed and overcome. For here is the Power revealed, the preſerving Power, the leading Power, the conquering Power of him, who rideth on conquering and to conquer his ſpiritual enemies, in the hearts of his Children, who know his voice and are ſubject to him, who daily denying themſelves and taking up his Croſs, follow him. Wo is to them that are at eaſe in Sion, under any thing that is contrary to God: but bleſſings are upon them whoſe dwelling is under the Croſs, and who know no eaſe, but what it allows. It will make Truth, Life, Holineſs, Righteouſneſs, Faith, Obedience, Meekneſs, Patience, Love, Separation from ſin, Communion with the Lord, and all the fruits of the Spirit as natural to them in the renewed ſtate, as ever ſin was in the corrupt ſtate. And in that ſtate, they ſhall be able to ſay with Paul, who once complained of his Captivity, and that he did what he hated; yet after he had known the Power of the Croſs and was Crucified with Chriſt, he could then do nothing againſt the Truth, but for the Truth. Yea then, being a Conquerer, having overcome the enemies which ſtood in his way, he could do all things through Chriſt that ſtrengthened him. The cauſe of ſo many complaints and bowings down the head, and going mourning becauſe of the prevailings of the enemy, through temptations, ſin and corruption, is becauſe the Croſs of Chriſt, which is the Power of God (which is his Ordinance againſt the ſtrength of the Enemy) is either not known, or not taken up. And this is the reaſon that many that make a fair ſhew for a while, yet afterwards come to nothing (but are like untimely Figs, or like Corn upon the houſe tops, which haſtily ſpringeth up, withereth) becauſe they either never rightly learn, or keep not the Croſs. For that alone hath Power from God, to bring down and keep down that which is contrary to him. So that from under the Croſs of Chriſt, there is no witneſſing Salvation, or preſervation from the Lord: but out of the limits of the Croſs, the enemy hath Power to recover and bring back under his dominion again. And whoſoever, in his travells, leaves the Croſs behind him, does draw back unto perdition, and not travel on in the Living Faith and newneſs of Obedience, towards the Salvation of the Soul.

XII.

Concerning the Miſtery of Life, and the Myſtery of the Fellowſhip which is therein.

GOd is hid from man as he lies in his Sinful and fallen State: and no man can find or know him, but as he pleaſeth to reveal himſelf by his own Bleſſed Spirit. And Chriſt is God's Image; there is no knowing, or confeſſing him or right calling him Lord, but in and by his own Spirit (1 Cor. 12. 3.) When he appeared in the dayes of his Fleſh, Fleſh and Blood could not reveal him, but only the Father. And he is the ſame to day, as he was yeſterday: He is not to be known now, but in the ſame Spirit, in his own Grace and Truth, in a meaſure of his own Life. The dead cannot know him, they only know him, who are his Sheep, who are quickened and made alive by him. And this Life is a Myſtery: none can underſtand it, but they that partake of it. Can a man that is Naturally dead know what the Life of Nature means? No more can a man that is Spiritually dead, know what the Life of the Spirit means. The Natural man may get the words that come from Life, and cry up them, and ſpeak great words of the ſame of Wiſdom and of her Children: but the thing it ſelf is hid from them all. O it is a ſtraight Gate, at which the Birth enters, and at which none elſe can enter. The Wiſe and Prudent knowers and ſearchers after the Fleſh (and of the Scriptures as they can put meanings upon them, and Comprehend them) are ſhut out in every Age: but there's a Babe born of Naked Truth, born of the Pure ſimplicity, admitted by God, while men diſdain and diſpiſe it.

And the fellowſhip of the Saints is in the Life and in the Light, which is this Myſtery. The fellowſhip is not outward, but inward. All they that meet together in the outward place, are not in the Fellowſhip or Worſhip; but only they that meet together in the inward Life and Spirit. They that Worſhip the Father, muſt Worſhip him in Spirit and in Truth. Look, there's the Worſhip, there are the Worſhippers; They that are in the Spirit, in the Truth; They that meet in the Spirit in the Truth, they meet together in the one Spiritual place, as I may call it. And ſo we own no man after the Fleſh, no man according to the appearance; but in the Righteous judgment of the Spirit, thoſe only who are of the Spirit. Indeed we are tender, where there is the leaſt beginning of the work of God in any heart, yea where there is but ſo much as a Conviction of the underſtanding: but men are not preſently of us, who own our principle in words or outward appearance, but only ſuch as are inwardly changed thereby in heart. It is true, perſons may walk among us, and afterwards go out from us, who were never of us (as it was in Apoſtles dayes) that were never in the fellowſhip of Life wtth us, whom we could never own in the ſight of the Lord, as being born of him, though we were willing to wait and watch for their good, that they might come to witneſs the true Birth. Now from ſuch come the Offences, even from the falling out of ſuch as never were truly ingrafted, and alſo from the ſlips of ſuch who are not watchful to that which preſerves. And wo is to the world, becauſe of the Offences ences which cannot but come. For they which are not approved in the Sight of the Lord, muſt not ſomwhat or other happen to make them manifeſt? And when they are made manifeſt, the worlds eye is offended, and is apt to think hardly of, and reproach the Truth it ſelf, becauſe of them. But bleſſed is the eye, which ſees into the Myſtery, into the Life it ſelf, where there is no offence, but Truth is one and the ſame for ever.

XIII.

Concerning judging according to the Appearance and judging Righteous judgment. Judge not according to the Appearance (ſaid Chriſt*) but judg Righteous judgment*, John. 7. 24.

VVHat is it to judg according to the Appearance, and what is it to judg Righteous judgment? I ſhall ſpeak what I have experienced, having, been deeply exerciſed about this thing. Mark then;

The holy Spirit of Life breatheth upon the heart: and by his breathing and working there he quickens and begets Life, John. 3. 8. And that which is begotten and born of him, is begotten and born into his Nature, and ſo is of the ſame Nature with him, as ver. 6. of that Chap.

Now to that which is born of the *S*pirit, the *S*pirit is the leader, the preſerver, the ſupporter, the comforter, the daily quickner. He can do nothing without the Spirit, without the preſent Life and Power of him that begat him. So that all the judgment which the Birth of Life hath, is from, and of, and in the Holy Spirit of the Father. And here is true judgment, both concerning Righteouſneſs and againſt all unrighteouſneſs. So that keep to the Life, keep to the Spirit, keep to the Power, then is the wiſdom and Judgment of the Righteous God revealed. But any that go out of this, and meaſure without this, they meaſure in the righteouſneſs: and though they ſearch the Scriptures, and think in themſelves they unmeaſure from the Scriptures, yet they are miſtaken, and meaſure from their own Imaginations and apprehenſions upon the Scriptures, as the Scribes and Phariſees did, when they ſeemed to conclude, upon ſearching the Scriptures, that Chriſt could not be the Meſſiah John. 7. 52. Search and look (ſaid they) for out of Gallilee ariſeth no prophet. How then can this Gallilean be he? See by the Scriptures, if this can be the Chriſt.

It is ſaid of Chriſt, He ſhall not judg after the ſight of his eyes, nor reprove after the hearing of his ears, but with Righteouſneſs ſhall he judg, &c. Iſa. 11. 3, 4. Chriſt judged Righteous judgment. How came he to judge ſo? Why, he judged in and with the Spirit. He kept to the *S*pirits judgment. The Spirit of the Lord reſted upon him, and made him quick of underſtanding in the fear of the Lord, ver. 23. And no man can judg aright concerning the things of God, but in and by the ſame *S*pirit. How ſhall I know whether my Duties be right, my Prayers right, Wayes right, my Worſhip right, my Faith right, my Hope of the right kind, my my Knowledg and underſtanding of the Scriptures right? &c. Why there is none but one that can determine. He who begetteth *L*ife, knows whether that which is in thee be from his Life, and whether that which thou offereſt to him, be truly Living or no. And when the Lord ſeparates the Living from the Dead, what will remain in many, that make great profeſſions at this day.

I would have no man miſtaken, about theſe things. I know many are deeply miſtaken, as their own hearts will one day acknowledge, when the Lord ſhall make manifeſt to them, how they have called evil good, and good evil, and put darkneſs for Light, and Light for darkneſs. Indeed it is juſt as it was in the dayes of Chriſts appearing outwardly in a body of Fleſh. The ſame Life, the ſame *S*pirit is denied now as was then. Then the Jews cried up Chriſt to come, but they then Spritually ſaw him not. They ſaw the outward Body but they ſaw not him who dwelt therein. And though the World of Chriſtians now acknowledg Chriſt is come and did appear; neither do they know him who did appear, but deny his Life, his Spirit, his Virtue his Power, which is revealed in this Day of his Love, and goodneſs, to the eyes of the Children of True Wiſdom.

O let not Fleſh judg! Be ſilent, O all Fleſh, before the Lord, and ceaſe judging: for he is ariſen to judg: He is judg in the midſt of his People, and he will judge the Heathens alſo.

And every one bring this near; Wait to feel Fleſh judged in thee, and brought down in thee, that it may not judg in thee, but Spirit and Life may be exalted and ſit upon the throne in thy heart. And when Life is exalted and doth begin to judg, take heed of hearkening to the Fleſh, of begetting in the judgment of Fleſh afterwards, leſt the Spirit be grieved and quenched. For the Wiſdom of the Fleſh is near, and will be ſtriving to get in and recover its ſeat again, and if the watch be not ſingly kept to Gods holy Spirit, ſomwhat elſe will be judging in thee, which will judg according to the Appearance of things to thy mind, and ſo thou wilt miſs of the True and Righteous judgment of Gods Spirit.

XIV.

A Queſtion anſwered about Knowing God's Spirit.

Queſt. HOw ſhall I know Gods Spirit? How ſhall I know the motions thereof? How may I know whether the Faith and Hope in my heart be from him? Whether my Prayers and deſires ariſe thence, &c.

Anſw. No man of himſelf, or by any way he of himſelf can take, can know Gods Spirit. There muſt firſt be a capacity given, before any man can know the Spirit of the Lord; his Life, his Power, muſt firſt be felt; and ſomwhat quickened, ſomwhat formed by him, ſomwhat begotten of him, which is Spirit: and this can know him. Now, man in this may know him, but out of this can never know him. Therefore this is the great Skill, and diligence and wiſdom of a Chriſtian, to keep to this, to wait for this, to watch to this, to have his eye towards the pure ſpring of Wiſdom, that when it ſprings, he may diſcern and receive it: and when that which is of a contrary Nature ſprings, he may diſcern it under all its deceitful appearances, and turn from it; For out of the Heart are the iſſues both of Life and Death. There is all manner of decievableneſs, of unrighteouſneſs, in the unrighteous Nature, in the unrighteous Spirit: and if the watch be not diligently kept, it is eaſy to be deceived at any time. But the true Seed, the holy Seed, the living Seed, the elect Seed, the immortal Seed is never deceived. O bleſſed are they, who have their eyes opened and kept open in it, to diſcern the myſtery of Godlineſs, and the Myſtery of Iniquity, that they may be preſerved ſafe in the one, out of the reach of the other.

XV. Some

XV.

Some Queries concerning the Seed of the Kingdom, in which the Kingdom it ſelf is contained (as the Nature and Subſtance of things is contained in the Seed thereof) and out of which it ſpringeth up and ariſeth in the Heart.

Queſt. WHat is the Seed which is ſpoken of, 1 John. 3. 9. which remaineth in thoſe that are born of God, and preſerveth out of Sin, thoſe that are led by it and comprehended in it, is it not the Seed of the Kingdom?

Quer 2. Do not the Natural Herbs and *F*lowers, the Natural Plants and Trees grow from a Natural Seed? Do not the *S*piritual Plants, the Spiritual Trees, the Trees of Righteouſneſs grow from the Seed of Righteouſneſs?

Quer. 3. Was it not the great Doctrine of Chriſt to Preach the Kingdom? And how did he Preach it? Did he not Preach it as a Seed, as a grain of muſtard-*S*eed? And is not this *S*piritual *S*eed a Leaven, a precious Pearl, a Treaſure hid in a *F*eild, a piece of *S*ilver loſt, &c. O how happy is he, who knows and enjoys the thing it ſelf which Chriſt Preached! All the Prophets Propheſied concerning him, and when he comes this was his Doctrine, that men ſhould mind this, look after this, purchaſe this, poſſeſs this, feel this planted and grow up in them, and themſelves ingraffed into, and growing up in it.

Quer. 4. Can any man be Born of God, and not Born of this *S*eed? Can any man be Born of this *S*eed, and not Born of God?

Quer. 5. How doth *G*race and Truth come, by Jeſus Chriſt? Doth it not grow up from this *S*eed? Can it grow up any other way in any heart?

Quer. 6. Is not Salvation felt and witneſſed in every heart (thoſe that are in any meaſure redeemed) as Seed grows up and overſhadows them? Was not this the Salvation ready to be revealed in the laſt time, 1 Pet. 1. 10. Whereof the Apoſtle Peter himſelf was made a partaker? Chap. 5. 10. In the Law were the ſhadows of good things to come: but in the Goſpel the ſubſtance, the Seed it ſelf is revealed.

Quer. 7. Is it not the right beginning in Religion, to begin in the Spirit? And can any begin in the Spirit, but he that begins in, and with, the Seed of the Kingdom?

Quer. 8. Is it not the main and chief thing in Religion, to know this Seed, to feel this Seed, to be joyned to this Seed, and abide in this Seed?

Quer. 9. Is not all that flows from this Seed, true and certain? Is not the Knowledge certain here? the Faith here? the Love here? the Peace here? the Joy here? the Righteouſneſs here? From this true Root, can there grow or ſhoot forth any thing, but that which is true? O every breathing here is from pure Life, and pretious in the eye of the Father! Is there any certainty elſewhere? O when the Lord appears, will he not diſcard all the Religion and Worſhip, which is not of this growth?

Quer. 10. But ſome may ſay, how may I know this Seed, and how may I be joyned to it?

Anſw. In the quickening Life mayeſt thou know it, and no where elſe. Didſt thou ever feel that which quickened thy Heart towards the Lord? Therein and thereby at that time thou mayeſt feel an eye and heart opened, which can truly ſee and know ſomwhat of God. And (keeping thy eye to the quickening Power of God) as that ſtirs, moves and operates in thee and upon thee, thou mayeſt know again, and know more. Therefore eye the Power which quickens, and eye

eye the Seed which it reveales and ariſes in thee, and wait to feel the Power ſubjecting thee to the Seed, that thou mayeſt come under it, and it may come over thee, and preſs down in thee all that is contrary to its pure Nature. And as thou comeſt hither, thou wilt find that which Death hath no Power over: and as thou abideſt there, thou ſhalt find it to have no Power over thee. For of a Truth, in the holy Covenant of Life and Peace, Death never had, nor can have Power, but he who abideth in him who is the Covenant, who is the ſhepherd, who is the Love, who is the wiſdom and Power of God, witneſſeth there a ſure defence and ſtrong Tower, where ſalvation is for a Wall and Bulwark againſt the Enemy. There are many ſorts of talkers concerning the thing, but there are few travellers into it; but he alone who is a true traveller into it, and takes up his Reſt there, certainly knows and can truly witneſs what it is to be found there. And this is the reaſon that ſo many (who ſeem great and experienced knowers) can not receive our teſtimony, becauſe they know neither the ſeed nor its voice, concerning which, and whereby we teſtify. But wiſdom is juſtified of her Children, and they that know the voice of the ſhepherd, know his preſent appearance in this our Day, which is contrary to the wiſdom and knowledg of all other ſeeds and Births whatſoever. He that hath an ear to hear, let him hear: but he that hath not the true Ear, cannot hear the true teſtimony, though it ſhould never ſo often be declared unto him. But bleſſed is he that knows, and ſtumbles not at that appearance of the Seed and Power of Life in his own heart, but it is turned from the darkneſs to the Light there, and from the Power of Satan to the Manifeſtation of God's Spirit there: for the end of words (even of Chriſts own directions in the dayes of his Fleſh) is to turn men to the holy Life and Power from whence the words came, and thither man is to travel, and therein to enter, waiting on the Lord in the way of his judgments and tender Mercies, to witneſs a tranſlation from Darkneſs to Light, and from the Kingdom of Satan into the Kingdom of the Dear Son, which Kingdom is at firſt but as a grain of Muſtard-Seed, and muſt be ſo known and received. And now, let every ſerious heart examine concerning himſelf; Doſt thou know the Kingdom? is the Seed grown in thee? Doth it overſpread thee? Art thou in it, as in a Kingdom? Doſt thou feel it overſhadowing thee? Art thou in unity with it? doth it ſpeak peace to thee from the Lord? Is the Wall of partition broken down in thee? Is there of twain made one new man? Doſt thou feel that which is contrary to Chriſt ſubdued in thee by his Power, and his holy Nature, Life and Spirit reigning over it? Canſt thou read the Scripture, ſenſibly and experimentally. If ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the Body, ye ſhall Live. Ah how miſerably do men talk of Chriſt, the Power of God, and miſs of the Effect and Work of his power in them? Faith is a powerful thing, it gives victory, (true Faith gives Victory) it ſcatters that which ſtands between, and gives real acceſs to God, and lets in his pure, freſh, living Virtue upon the heart. Love is a powerful thing, it conſtrains to Obedience: and the heart that is circumciſed to love the Lord God, O how doth Life flow from him into it! O away with empty Notions, and come to the Miniſtration of the Spirit, where the Knowledg is Living, the Faith Victorious, the Love pure and undefiled, the Worſhip truly Spiritual, even flowing from, and comprehended in, the Life and Virtue of the Spirit. O that all that truly breath after the Lord might be gathered hither, found here and dwell here, Amen.

A Poſt-Script to the Experiences.

PErſons that have had ſome true touches of Life, and true breathings after the Lord; yet not having their eye rightly fixed upon him, nor diſcerning from whence thoſe came, eaſily Loſe the true ſenſe of Life, and another Birth of another Nature ſprings up in them inſtead thereof. This was it we generally wanted in the day of our former former profeſſion, even the diſcerning of that, and fixing upon that which begat Life in us, through want whereof many of the moſt tender-hearted came to a loſs, whom the Lord at length ſhewed Mercy to, manifeſting to them the Light of their Eyes, and the ſtay of their Souls. Now to all that have been gathered hither by the Lord, Life hath been renewed, and their former experiences (of the Lord and his goodneſs to them in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt,) reſtored again with advantage. And here they ſenſibly ſee, and daily experience, that nothing is of work, but all of Grace and Mercy in and through Chriſt. And here the Glory is revealed; the Glory of Life, the Glory of Peace with the Lord, the Glory of Righteouſneſs in and through his Son, the Glory of Victory over the ſouls Enemies, and of leading Captivity captive, and treading upon the necks of Kings, even of mighty luſts, which mightily prevailed over, and oppreſſed the ſoul, before the Captain of our Salvation appeared in the Power and authority of God's own Spirit. But bleſſed be the Lord, there is not only this Glory revealed, but there is a defence over the Glory: for there is that revealed, which is able to defend it, and doth defend it in the hearts of many, and in the living Aſſemblies which have been gathered by Gods holy Power, (which gathered) and daily Quickens and overſhadows, and is a rock unto and will be ſo for ever, to all that abide with him in his holy Covenant: but out of the limits of that into which God gathers and wherein and whereby he preſerves, there is no defence to any. The curſed thing, the unclean thing, the earthly ſpirit, the earthly Mind and Wiſdom the Lord hath excluded, and it is to be excluded out of his Camp for evermore, that the inward Iſrael may be kept holy to the Lord, and may ſerve and worſhip the Lord in the beauty of the inward holineſs, as the outward Iſrael was outwardly to be, and to do, in that outward Miniſtration of the ſhadows of the Goſpel-State

THE END.

I.

Concerning the Time and Work of Reformation, Some Queries.

Quer. 1. WHat did the time of Reformation and Subſtance (ſpoken of Heb. 9. 10.) Signify and point at in Relation to the Myſtery; was it not for the bringing in of the Goſpel? the day of Chriſts Spirit and Power? the day of his inward Renewing and Reforming? the day of his taking his Fan into his hand, to purge his floor? the day of his laying the Axe to the Root of the Corrupt Tree, that he may deſtroy the works of the devil in men's hearts, caſting down and plucking up what his heavenly Father hath not planted there? When he cometh as a Refiners fire and fullers ſope, to purify the ſons of Levi, as Gold and Silver is purged, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in Righteouſneſs: Is not this the time of Reformation?

Quer. 2. Who is the Reformer? Is it not the Lord Jeſus Chriſt? Doth not he Create anew? Doth not he blot out the Old Image; and Form into a new Lump? For if any man be in Chriſt, ther's a renewing there, a new building there: yea Old things are paſſed away there, there's nothing in him but what is new. He is faithful (in all his houſe) inwardly to judg, condemn, crucify, ſubdue, deſtroy whatſoever is contrary to the Nature and Spirit of his Father, and to form and build up the ſpirits of his in that which is new and Pure.

Quer. 3. How, or by what doth Chriſt reform? Is it not by his Spirit, and Power, by the Light thereof, by the Life thereof, by the virtue thereof? For nothing can change and reform the heart, but that which is more powerful than him who corrupteh it.

Quer. 4. Where doth Chriſt reform and new Create? Is it not in the new Covenant? In the Faith and Obedience thereof? Doth he not by the Laws thereof, break and disannul the Laws of the new Covenant, and Covenant of hell and Death, making void: and so making an everlasting Covenant of life and peace; even an holy, pure, living agreement, between God his Father, and the soules of his? Thus by his light he overcomes darkness, by his life he overcomes death: by his pure Nature and Spirit he overcomes (chains down, subdues and destroyes) that which is Impure, breaking the bond of sin and iniquity, and letting the oppressed go free from under it. Thus he manifests himself to be the Saviour, by his holy anointing breaking the Yoke of the oppressor, Isa. 10. 27.

of

Quer. 5. Whom doth Christ reform? Are they not those who take his Yoke upon them and learn of him? Are they not those who are turned to the Light of his Spirit, inwardly made manifest; turned from the Darkness, walking no more therein, but in his pure Light? They that own his inward appearance in their hearts, and turn (from the Enmity there) to him, receiving his Light, his Law, his Life his Spirit, them doth he exercise daily, and is daily reforming their hearts and waies thereby. But if any man receiveth not his light, his life, his spirit within, such an one is none of his: and he may reform himself as much as he can, but he knoweth not yet the day of the true Reformation.

Quer. 6. How are they to walk, whom Christ hath begun to reform? Is it nor in that Light, in that Spirit, in that Covenant, in that Grace, wherein and whereby he hath in some measure reformed them? Is it not in the newness of the spirit, and in the newness of the Law thereof? Here Christ walked before the Father in all well pleasing, (Lo I come, I delight to do thy Will, O my God: Yea thy Law is within My Heart, said he, Psal. 40. 7, 8.) and here all his are also to walk, 1 Joh. 2. 6. For indeed there is no pleasing the Father, or Christ our Lord and Master, out of the Vertue, Life and newness of his own spirit.

Quer. 7. What was the glory that was to follow the sufferings of Christ, spoken of, 1 Pet. 1. 11. Was it not the Glory of his inward reformation, in the hearts of the Children of the New Covenant? Doth not Christ give of his Grace in the Gospel? And doth not his Grace make a glorious Change? Doth not he give of his spirit to his Children? and doth not his spirit change from sin, from shame into holiness, into true Beauty, into the heavenly Glory: and so from Glory to Glory, translating more and more into the Glory? Doth not Christ appear Gloriously in the hearts of his, and in the assemblies of his, who meet together in his name, and wait upon him in that which is pure and living of him? and is there not a covering, or defence of the wing of the Almighty, upon the Glory? Isa. 4. 5.

Quer. 8. Was not this Glory brought forth in the dayes of the Apostles? Was not great Grace then upon them all? (I mean such as received and held the Truth in the love of it) Did they not witness the Peace which passeth mans understanding. Had they not received the holy and spiritual understanding from him that is true, and were they not in him that is true? Did they not know Victory and Dominion over sin and death? Did not the little Babes witness Pardon of sin, and know him who preserveth from sin? Had not the young men overcome the Wicked One? and were not the Elders strong in the Lord, and in the Power of his Might? Were they not come to the spiritual Sion and Heavenly Jerusalem? and did they not walk in the Light of the Lamb, and of the holy City, before God the Judge of all? There is no man in these our dayes, can so much as conceive the glory of that state, but he that hath tasted of a measure thereof.

Quer. 9. VVas not this Glory Eclipsed, and did not a great darkness come over it, hiding it from the sons of men; so that (for Ages and Generations) they knew not the true spirit, the true Light, the true Life, the everlasting Covenant, the Holy Gospel, the true Church, the Man-child, &c. but these, with many other Heavenly Mysteries, have been hid from their eyes.

Quer. 10. VVhat hath got up since these have been hid? Have not the shaddowes of the night took place and overspread the Christian state, instead of the Light of the Day? Hath not Antichrist got up and a false Church appeared; that which hath been tender, and begotten of God, snibbed, bowed down, curbed and persecuted, and false devotion and worship set up instead of the true.

Quer. 11. Must

Quer. 11. Muſt not Antichriſt be Deſtroyed, the falſe Church Judged, the true Church come out of the Wilderneſs into which ſhe fled, the man-child appear again Conquering and to Conquer all that which hath riſen up from the Spirit of Darkneſs, ſince the firſt breaking forth of the Goſpel? and is not the Goſpel to be preached again to them that dwell on the Earth; even to every Nation and Kindred and Tongue and People? Rev. 14. 6.

Now who is wiſe to underſtand the appearance of the Lord, and the begining of theſe things, which is in a way contrary to mans wiſdom: and ſo he that will diſcern them, muſt come out from following of the man's own ſpirit, nature and wiſdom in himſelf, into the ſence and leadings of him who giveth the true eye ſight: the appearance of the Lord is inward and ſpiritual: and he muſt have an inward and ſpiritual eye, who diſcerneth it. It was ſaid of Old by Mockers and Scoffers, Where is the promiſe of his coming? for all things continue as they were from the begining. The ſame ſpirit will ſay ſo ſtill: and yet to that eye which the Lord hath opened, he is already come inwardly, ſpiritually, in his own pure eternal Life and Power; and the Precious Effects of his coming are made manifeſt in many hearts, bleſſed be his name. Yet he is further to appear in his Glory and pure brightneſs, and ſo we wait further for his appearance, both in our own hearts, and in the hearts of the Children of Men. We have met with our Beloved. Our God, whom we waited for, hath appeared. The Son of Righteouſneſs hath ariſen with healing under his Wings, and we have felt Vertue and healing from him, and cannot but rejoyce and teſtifie of his Salvation.

And what further manifeſtations of himſelf he hath yet to give forth, we are ſure to partake of, being formed by him in ſpirit, and found in that wherein he appears, and from whence his glory ſhines. O that all, that Love the Lord Jeſus Chriſt in any meaſure of ſincerity, did know the way of the Goſpel; which is in the Spirit, Light, Life and Power, which is eternal even in the Grace and Truth which is in him! And his Kingdom, which is ſpiritual, and not of this World, cannot be ſhaken by this World (nor his Mount Sion removed) but is able to ſhake all Nations and Kingdoms which kiſs not the Son, but oppoſe him. Bleſſed are they who are turned to the Light of his Spirit, and who therein kiſs and obey him.

II.

Some Queries Concerning the Spirit of Chriſt, or the Spirit of the Father (it being one and the ſame Spirit) for thoſe who take themſelves to be Chriſtians (and under the Goſpel-Diſpenſation) to conſider and examine themſelves by, that they may not be deceived either concerning their Preſent Eſtate here, or the Eternal Eſtate of their Souls hereafter, ſeeing the Apoſtle ſo expreſly ſaith, If any man hath not the Spirit of Chriſt, he is none of his, Rom. 8.

Quer. 1. DOſt thou know the holy Spirit of the Father? Thou mayeſt have read ſomwhat concerning it, and have apprehenſions in thy mind about it: but doſt thou truly know what it is, by its inward appearances and operations in thine own heart?

Quer. 2. Haſt thou received Gods Holy Spirit into thy heart? Haſt thou let in Chriſts Spirit, when he hath knocked at the door of thy heart, and received him? For he that is a true Child, moſt naturally breatheth and cryeth for the Fathers Spirit; and the Father alſo moſt naturally giveth his Spirit to them, that truly and rightly ask it of him, Luk. 11. 13. and you muſt thankfully receive the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, when the Father gives him, Quer. 3. Doth the Spirit of Chriſt dwell in thee? Hath the ſtronger man caſt the ſtrong man out of thee, and taken poſſeſſion of thy heart, and doth he dwell therein? then thou mayeſt truly ſay, that thou art built up by God, an Habitation for him, in the Spirit. Then thou art waſhed and cleanſed by him from thy filthineſs: and luſts or vain thoughts do not lodge in thee. For the Holy Spirit of Chriſt will not dwell, where ſuch things lodge: but come out from among them, and be ye ſeparate, and touch not the unclean thing, and I will receive you and be a Father to you, and ye ſhall be my Sons and Daughters, ſaith the Lord Almighty, in whom I will dwell and walk, 2 Cor. 6. 15, 16, 17.

Quer. 4. Doth Gods Spirit lead thee into all truth that thou needeſt know and walk in? Art thou a true Child, depending upon and guided by the ſpirit of the Father? Canſt thou not ſee thy way, but as he maketh it known to thee? Art thou a follower of the ſpotleſs Lamb, in the ſame ſpirit wherein he walked? If it be thus with thee, then art thou a Child of God indeed.

Quer. 5. Doſt thou live in the Spirit? Doſt thou feel the Spirit of God to be a Fountain of Life, from whence Life ſprings up into thee daily? Doſt thou witneſs that Scripture fulfilled in thee, He that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath ſaid, Out of his Belly ſhall flow Rivers of Living Water? Haſt thou received the living Water from Chriſt? and is that Living Water become a Well of Life in thee?

Quer. 6. Doſt thou walk in the Spirit, in the Life thereof, in the newneſs thereof ſpringing up in thy heart? Doſt thou know the difference between walking in the oldneſs of the Letter, and in the newneſs of the Spirit?

Quer. 7. Didſt thou ever learn of the Father, to know Chriſt? And didſt thou ever learn of Chriſt, to know the Father? and hath the Father indeed revealed the Son to thee, and the Son indeed revealed the Father to thee? Or art thou yet only in the dead and dry Notions, or barren comprehenſions about theſe things?

Quer. 8. Doſt thou know how the Letter killeth, and how the Spirit quickeneth and maketh alive? and art thou made alive by the Spirit and born of the Heavenly Water and Spirit, and ſo become ſpiritual as the Scripture teſtifieth, That which is born of the Spirit, is Spirit.

Quer. 9. Art thou come under the Miniſtration of the Spirit? Doſt thou know what the Miniſtration of the ſpirit is? or doſt thou only know what the Letter ſaith concerning the Miniſtration of the ſpirit, but art altogether ignorant of the Miniſtration it ſelf?

Quer. 10. Doſt thou know what the Law of the Spirit of Life in Chriſt Jeſus means? Haſt thou ever received this Law; the Law of the New-Covenant; the Holy Law of Life written in thy heart by the finger of God's ſpirit? for the ſame ſpirit that wrote the Law of the Letter in Tables of Stone, writeth the Law of the Spirit in the fleſhly Tables of the heart.

Quer. 11. Doſt thou not grieve the Holy ſpirit, nor quench it, nor deſpiſe the Prophecyings thereof in thine own heart? For Chriſt is a King, a Prieſt, a Prophet: and he Miniſters in his Sanctuary, in his Temple (which the Holy renewed heart is) in and by his ſpirit.

Quer. 12. Doſt thou know what the Anointing is? Art thou Anointed therewith? And doth thy whole ability lye therein, in ſo much as that thou art daily ſenſible thou cannot do any thing of thy ſelf, but ſtill findeſt a working in thee both to will and to do that which is right in his eyes of his own good pleaſure?

Quer. 13. Did thy Religion begin in the ſpirit? in the living Miniſtration of the New-Covenant? Did thy Knowledge begin ſo; to wit, in feeling God opening thy heart by his Spirit, and giving thee the underſtanding whereby thou mighteſt know him? Did thy Faith begin in his Power, and doth it ſtand in the ſame Power to this day? O that men were ſenſible what is the right Religion, and of the inward appearance of Gods holy Arm and Power, which alone can redeem, and ſave the ſoul out of the hands of its Enemies?

Quer. 14. Doth thy Worſhip ſtand in the ſpirit, and inward Life of Truth in thy heart? Art thou ſuch a Worſhipper as the Father hath ſought out and made ſo?

ſo? or art thou a Worſhipper of thine own or other mens making? And doſt thou keep within the Limits of the living and ſpiritual Worſhip, and not tranſgreſs the Law thereof?

Oh, who would be miſtaken and deceived about ſuch weighty things as theſe, of ſo great neceſſity and Concern? Who would miſs of Gods ſpirit, and of the Law and Covenant of Life in Chriſt Jeſus, and be only in a dream concerning theſe things, without the true, demonſtrative knowledge, poſſeſſion and enjoyment of them?

III.

Of the true Way (the Way of Holineſs, the Way of Life) and of the true Teaching and Knowledge.

CHriſt is the Way, the only Way to the Father: there is not another. Now every one that will truly know Chriſt, and come to Chriſt, muſt Learn of the Father. It is written in the Prophets, All thy Children ſhall be taught of the Lord; every one therefore that hath heard and learned of the Father, cometh unto me, ſaid Chriſt. Here are two things neceſſary for every one that would come to Chriſt. One is hearing of the Father: the other is, learning, what he teacheth. For though a man do hear the Living Voice of the Father, yet if he do not learn and keep the inſtruction of Life received from him, he may be drawn aſide, before he come to the Son. But he whoſe ears are opened to hear the voice, and who feels the inſtruction of Life from the Father, to go to him in whom he hath placed Life: here the ſpirit of the Father ſecretly draws in the inwards of a mans mind and ſpirit, from that which is realy dead, to that which is truly living,

Now, when a man is come to the Son, in whom the Father hath placed the fulneſs of Life, then he ſhall witneſs him the way to the Father; and he will teach him daily of the Father. And here is the ſtate of true Subjection to the Son experienced, whom the ſoul muſt hear (and of whom he is to learn) in all things; who diſcovers the inward Darkneſs in mans mind, and breaks down that in him which is contrary to God, having a daily Croſs ready for that which is to be Crucified in him, whereby he ſhall dye daily to himſelf. And as he dies to himſelf, Chriſt will reveal himſelf more and more in him, and he ſhall feel the pure ſeed of Life ſpringing more and more up in him, and living in him, and he in it; in and through which he ſhall come more and more into Union and Fellowſhip with the Father of ſpirits, and the whole living Body of his Church and People.

But now, to learn of the Father to come to the Son, and to learn of the Son to know the Father, and to walk in newneſs of ſpirit before him (and not in an old dead knowledge and fleſhly underſtanding) theſe are great Myſteries, which none can learn by a litteral Conception and Comprehenſion of things; but as they are quickned, and their minds and underſtandings opened and kept open by the Lord. Therefore this is the great skill and true wiſdom, to know the Shepherd and his voice; and his manner of appearing, and to what he appears: which is to his own Sheep, to the true birth. And his way and manner of appearing to that birth, is by viſiting and reaching to it by his Power opening it, thereby giving it to ſee, hear and underſtand; but ſhutting up himſelf from the contrary nature, wiſdom and ſpirit in all men.

There is ſomewhat, which maketh a fair ſhew in the fleſhly part, as if it were of God: but God knoweth what and who are his. Now, it is for the true Children, that the milk of the word, and the Bread of Life is; and them the Lord is ſtill gracious to, and heareth all the deſires and breathings of their hearts; them he preſerveth and viſiteth in Egypt, and alſo bringeth out thence. Them he leadeth through the Wilderneſs, dividing the Red-Sea before them; before them alſo he divideth Jordan (the River of Judgment) cauſing them to paſs through it alſo, that they may enter into the Holy Land. And their lot he defendeth in the Holy Land, in their ſubjection to the ſpirit and law of Life which rules there. But the contrary birth falleth ſhort by the Way, and cannot enter into, nor abide in that which is pure and living of God.

Now in the lowly ſeed the whole Myſtery of Life is learned, by theſe that come thither, and wait there, growing up into him who is the head: but no Leſſon of Life, and of the Truth as it is in Jeſus, is learned out of it. O how careful had men need be to know this ſeed in themſelves, and to witneſs its daily ſpringing up and growth in them.

IV.

Concerning Separation from the Spirit and Wayes of the World.

THere is a neceſſity of ſeparation from the ſpirit, wayes and worſhips of the World, by thoſe that will be the Lords People. The Jews outward were to be a ſeparated People from all other People (from their Gods, from their Worſhips) if they would enjoy the Favour of the Lord, and the bleſſings of the good Land. God had ſeparated them from all other Nations, and they were not to mingle with them; neither in their Worſhip, nor Marriages, &c. So the Jews inward, who are Gods gathering of ſpiritual worſhippers, out of every Nation, Kindred, Tongue and People, are to be a ſeparated and Holy People to the Lord. For when God caſt off the Jews, he ſought out Worſhippers in their ſtead, even for a ſpiritual Nation and Holy People of inward Jews, in ſtead of that outward People, outward Place of Worſhip, and outward Land, which he caſt off Now thoſe whom God ſeeks to be the new, inward and ſpiritual Worſhippers (inſtead of the litteral and outward) muſt come out of all other waies and gatherings, upon the many Mountains, to the Mountain of the Lords Houſe, and to the Place of his gathering; The command is expreſs, Come out from among them, and be ye ſeparate, and touch not the unclean thing, and I will receive you, &c. 2 Cor. 6. It is true, I ſeek you for Worſhippers, and I call you to the Goſpel Feaſt of fat things; and I will receive you, if ye come: but ye muſt firſt come out from among all the falſe wayes and falſe Worſhippers, and depart from (and not ſo much as touch) that which is unclean (the unclean Spirit, his unclean Wayes and Worſhippers) and then I will receive you, and own you as my Sons and Daughters, and be a Father to you; not elſe. Mark now; The Jews outward (in their Day) muſt be ſeparate from all the Heathen outward, if they would be judged and owned by God for true Worſhippers according to the Law. The Primitive Chriſtians were to ſeparate from both Heathen and Jews too (even their Temple, Prieſts and Ordinances, which were once of God) if they would be Worſhippers, true Worſhippers under the Goſpel, Worſhippers of Gods ſeeking. And the Chriſtians after the Antichriſtian Corruption and Darkneſs, muſt come out of Babylon, that is, out of all forms of Religion, and Buildings out of the Life and Power (for that is Babylon, the City of confuſion, which is built, ſtands out of, and practiſeth out of, the order and unity of the ſpirit) if they will be found Worſhippers in the day of Reſtoration; after the long darkneſs of the Apoſtacy, they muſt not worſhip the Beaſt (nor worſhip God, as the Beaſt teacheth and requireth: for in ſo Worſhipping, God is not Worſhipped, but the Beaſt) nor bear his name, nor receive his mark, either on their forehead or right hand, nor be of the number of his Name. Now the command is as expreſs to come out of Babylon, that is, to ſeparate from all Antichriſtian wayes and worſhips, as ever it was to ſeparate from the Heathen and Jews: and there is no being a true Worſhipper in Gods ſight, but in the true way of ſeparation from all all false Worshippers, who worship in forms and appearances of godliness, out of the Life and Power.

Now, O how precious it is to feel God Seeking, God Gathering, God Separating, God teaching, Leading, Drawing into the Truth, and true way of Worship! For there are self-separations, which are out of the true Spirit, Life and Power. Yea God may begin the separation, and another wisdom may step in and carry it on, out of the limits of the sweet, innocent Spirit, Life and Power. O blessed is he who is separated by the Lord, from all that is not of him! But he that is but sensual, and hath not the spirit, but only by a litteral knowledge separateth himself, he differeth from others but in the outward form and appearance of Godliness, but is one in Nature and ground with these whom he separateth from. Thus the Papists and all pretended Christians (of the same spirit) who feel not the true spirit, Power and Life, are but one in the ground, how great soever their difference outwardly seem. And those that separate further and further (even to the utmost extent outwardly, or in way of appearance) being not separated by the Lord, from that nature and spirit wherein the enmity lodgeth, they are still inhabitants of one and the same City, (for the City Babylon is very large) and Daughters of one and the same Mother, even of the wisdom which is from beneath, which wisdom in its highest exaltation, is far beneath the nature and true excellency of the pure and Heavenly Wisdom, even in its lowest and most contemptible appearance. O blessed is the Religion, the Worship, the Separation, the Fear of the most High God, the Faith, the Knowledge which begins in the spirit and power, (even in the evidence and demonstrarion of Gods own Spirit) and which stands and abides therein! for herein are the Children of Light distinguished and kept distinct (by God Almighty, who hath made the difference) from all the Children of Darkness.

71. about the 12th. Month.

By Isaac Penington, Prisoner for the Testimony of Truth at Reading-Goal.

The END.

A TREATISE Concerning God's Teachings and CHRIST'S Law, with ſome other things of Weighty Importance, particularly mentioned after the Preface.

Written By Iſaac Penington, Priſoner at Reading-Goal, for the Teſtimony of Truth.

They alſo that erred in Spirit ſhall know underſtanding, and they that Murmured ſhall learn doctrine, Iſa. 29. 24. Bleſſed be the Lord it is ſo. This Propheſie is ſenſibly and experimentally fulfiled, and fulfilling daily more and more.

The PREFACE.

CHriſt, who came from the Father, and knew the way of Truth and Life everlaſting, and was to guide men to the Father, being the only way unto him; he preached the Kingdom, and bid men ſeek the Kingdom, teaching and inſtructing them in many parables concerning it, and directing them where and how to find it.

The Apoſtles likewiſe (who ſucceeded Chriſt in the ſame ſpirit and power wherein he miniſtred) preached the ſame kingdom, declared and deſcribing what it was, and wherein it conſiſted; namely, not in Word, but in Power, (even in the Power which ſhakes all that is to be ſhaken, but cannot be ſhaken it ſelf, nor the Kingdom which is in it, 1 Cor. 3. 20. and Ebr. 12. 28.) Nor was the Kingdom of God meat and drink (or any outward thing;) but Righteouſneſs, and Peace, and Joy in the Holy Ghoſt, Rom. 14. 17.

And they Preached not in vain: for the Life was inwardly revealed in many, the Power inwardly revealed, the Kingdom inwardly revealed, and the Righteouſneſs, Peace and Joy thereof felt. For ſuch as truly believe and obeyed the Goſpel, received the Kingdom which could never be ſhaken, and had an entrance miniſtred to them thereinto, according to their diligence and carefulneſs in the Truth.

Now, afterwards a great darkneſs came over, and this glorious Kingdom was again Vailed, and the Kingdom of Darkneſs & Deceit overſpread the Profeſſion of Chriſtianity: and in this time Notions and Outward Knowledges took with men, inſtead of the Life and Truth it ſelf, wherein the Kingdom and Power ſtands.

But bleſſed be the Lord, the Light of Life again ſhines out of and over the Darkneſs, and the Kingdom is again received, and the entrance into it again known; and from what is ſeen and heard (and in meaſure enjoyed and poſſeſſed) is a Faithful Teſtimony given forth. And bleſſed are they who hear the joyful ſound, for it is no leſs than the ſound of Life it ſelf, the Power it ſelf, the Goſpel it ſelf, the Spirit himſelf, manifeſting himſelf in and by ſpeaking through Veſſels, according to his Pleaſure.

Now,

Now they that receive this Light, which is teſtified of and witneſſed to, receive Chriſt; but they that deſpiſe and reject it, reject him; as will be made manifeſt in the day of the Lord, whatever men in their Wiſdom and Comprehenſions judge to the contrary, who know not, nor are able to judge of the appearances of the Lord, or of the Glory of this diſpenſation.

For this diſpenſation is indeed moſt Precious, Glorious and Living, being a diſpenſation of the Seed and Power of Life it ſelf, whereby God tranſlateth out of Darkneſs and the Regions thereof, into the Kingdom of his dear Son, and into his glorious Image. Which, Reader, not that thou maiſt have only Notions concerning, but mayeſt really come to partake of, is the end of my giving forth theſe things following, which Sweetly, Freſhly, Livingly and Powerfully ſprang up in my heart for thy ſake, and are in great Love Preſented to thy View;

By a Sufferer for the Truth which lives in him, and in which he lives, through the tender Mercy of the Lord, and to the Glory of the Riches of his Grace,

J. P.

I.

Concerning God's Teachings.

It is Written in the Prophets (ſaid Chriſt) they ſhall be all taught of God. Every one therefore that hath Heard, and hath Learned of the Father, cometh unto me, Joh. 6. 45. For the Prophets indeed had ſaid, All thy Children ſhall be taught of the Lord, and they ſhall all know Me, from the Leaſt of them to the Greateſt of them.

NOw, whoſe Children are they, which ſhall all be taught of the Lord? and which are them, which ſhall all know the Lord, by the teachings of his Spirit, from the leaſt to the greateſt? Are they not the Children of the free Woman, the Children of the Jeruſalem which is from above, which is the Mother of all that are truly Living? Now all her Children the Father of Life begets, and taketh care to teach them the true, pure, heavenly, living Knowledg: ſo that they indeed know the Lord, being taught by the anointing ſo to do; and they indeed know Chriſt, the Father revealing him to them. For none knows the Father but the Son, and none knows the Son but the Father, and he to whom the Father reveales him. Fleſh and Blood hath not revealed it to thee, but my Father which is in Heaven (ſaid Chriſt to Peter, Mat. 16. 17.) And it pleaſed God to reveal his Son in me, ſaid Paul, Gal. 1. 15, 16. And how did Paul preach Chriſt among the Gentiles? Did he not preach him as a Myſtery hid from Ages and Generations, which none but the Father could reveal and make manifeſt? And when he is known and made manifeſt, is he not known within, revealed within, made manifeſt within? Col. 1. 26, 27. and 1 John. 1. 2. Mark. The Life was manifeſted: thus they came to know Chriſt. And if they will bring others to the Knowledg of Chriſt, they muſt bring them to the manifeſtation of the ſame Life, and ſhew unto them that Eternal Life which was with the Father, and was manifeſted unto them, ver. 2. Now that they might do thus, they were to preach the Light to them (even this meſſage that God is Light, and in him is no darkneſs at all, ver. 5.) and to turn them to the Light (Acts 26. 18.) in which alone men men can ſee and receive the Life which is Eternal. Men may know, or comprehend many things concerning the Meſſiah, from the Letter: but they can only know the Meſſiah himſelf, in the Light which he ſhines into their hearts, and ſent his Apoſtles to direct and turn their minds to. For they directed them to the Word within, Light within, Life within, Spirit within: to feel after the manifeſtation of God within, which was communicated to the very Gentiles, Rom 1. 17. and ſo Paul directed the Gentiles to ſeek after and find God nigh, and not afar of, Acts 17. 27. O this is pretious, to find and feel God near, Chriſt near; in his Light to ſee Light, in his Life to feel and enjoy Life. For here (in the Place of darkneſs, in the place of Sin and Death, in the place where Dragons lay, Iſa 35. 7.) is the redeeming Power to be felt, and the deliverance of the Soul experienced by thoſe that truly believe.

The Scribes and Phariſees had a knowledg that the meſſiah was to come: but how came they by it? why, they had read ſo in the Letter of the Scriptures. The Profeſſors of this age have a knowledg that Chriſt is come: how came they by that? why, they have read ſo in the writings of the Evangeliſts and Apoſtles. But who hath believed the report of Life now, and to whom is the Arm of the Lord (which is now ſtretched forth) revealed? who hath heard and learned of the Father to know the Son, and ſo to come to him, even from the inward Revelation of his Spirit, and from the inward Living knowledg which is thereby? Every one therefore, (ſaith Chriſt) every one of theſe Children, every one that is taught of God, (becauſe of what they have heard and learned of the Father) cometh to the Son. Now every one that is thus drawn, and thus cometh, Chriſt receiveth, and giveth to all ſuch Eternal Life: and they know him who giveth them Eternal Life, and who preſerveth and maintaineth Life in them. Others have but a notional knowledg of him; but do not indeed know him that is true, nor are in him that is true, even in his Son Jeſus Chriſt, who is the very God and Life Eternal, 1 John 5. 20.

And ſo they that are taught of God, learn of him to repent from dead works, and do repent them thereof: whereas others through hardneſs of heart do not ſo much as diſcern which are dead works, which not, in matters of worſhip. Others do not know the true difference, between that which is dead and that which is Living: but death (unknown to them) lives and reigns in their very knowledg and apprehenſions of things; ever in their faith, in their duties, yea in all they believe and perform to God. For as Paul was alive without the Law once, even when he walked according to the Letter of the Law blameleſs; ſo all ſorts are now dead, in the midſt of all their Knowledges and practiſes from the Letter (how much alive ſoever they may ſeem to themſelves therein) till they come to the miniſtration of the ſpirit. For the Letter killeth, but the ſpirit quickeneth or giveth Life, 2 Cor. 3. 6. and ver. 3. This therefore is the work of a true miniſter, to beget into the ſpirit and into the Life. But ah, how little do men know what dead works are, and what it is truly to witneſs repentance from them! Men out of Gods Spirit, Light and Power, are ſo far from repenting for them, that they do not ſo much as rightly diſtinguiſh and diſcern them; but take that for living which is dead; kindling a fire of themſelves, and compaſſing themſelves about with ſparks, thinking the warmth thereof to be the true warmth. Now if men are not come to the true repentance from dead works, much leſs are they come to the true Faith towards God; and ſo are yet in their ſins, yet out of Chriſt, having never learned of the Father to come to him; and ſo are ſtill in Egypts ſpirit, in Egypts wiſdom; and in that, hold their Religion: and whenever God appears in his Spirit and Power, he will not be that to them which they expect; but a dreadful ſtroke from him will come upon all their wayes and worſhips, which are as abominable to God, as they are pleaſing to them. But alas, to what end are words to that Ear, to that Spirit, which is like the Deaf Adder, which will not hearken to the voice of the charmer, charm he never ſo wiſely! Could the Letter-learned Scribes and Phariſees hear the voice of Chriſt, in the dayes of his fleſh? Nay, they could not in that gain-ſaying ſpirit. Can the Letter-learned Profeſſors in the ſame ſpirit, hear the Voice of Chriſts Spirit now? Nay, they cannot. And they that cannot hear the voice of the ſecond

Adam,

Adam, the voice of the quickening Spirit, the voice of him who gives Life to the Soul; how can they live? and if they first receive not Life from Christ, how can they perform any Living Action to God? how can they worship in the Spirit & in the Living Truth? Who are not gathered into the Spirit & into the Living Truth? O that men could consider aright of these things, and wait on the Lord for the true understanding of them: for without the true Knowledg of God and Christ (without that knowledge which is Life eternal) men must needs perish. It cannot be otherwise; For the true knowledg only saves: and therefore they which have it not must needs perish.

II.

Concerning the Law of Christ.

And the Isles shall wait for his Law, Isa. 42. 4.

WHat is that Law, which the Isles were, and are to wait for it? Is not the Grace and Truth which comes by Jesus Christ: even the Grace in the inward parts, the Truth in the inward parts? The Law outward was given by Moses to the outward Jews: but Grace and Truth comes by Jesus Christ. That is the Law of the Jew inward, which the Isles of the Gentiles were to wait for.

The Apostle holdeth forth Christ to be the Souls master (he is the Shepherd, Lord, King and Bishop of the soul) to whom every one must give an account. Now what must men give an account to him of? Is it not of the Grace and Truth which comes by him? If any man hath received that, Obeyed that, Believing the sound, Report and Voice of that, and so loved and followed it; will it not be said unto him, well done good and faithful servant? But if any one hath neglected and despised the Grace (not improving the Talent, but improving his own Natural Abilities, while God's Talent lay wrapped up in a napkin and hid in the Earth) will not that Person be judged a slothful servant, as to improving the Talent, whatever he hath been as to improving his own Natural parts and abilities?

Now mind: If Christ be an inward, a spiritual master, what is his Law but the inward teachings of his spirit? A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you, like unto me, him shall ye hear in all things: and he that will not hear him, how secure and confident soever he may seem to himself of his state at present, yet it shall come to pass, that he shall be cut off and destroyed from among Gods People. Are not the Words, the Voice, the motions, the leadings, the drawings, the commands of his spirit the Law to all that are spiritual? Doth not he say to one go, and he goeth? and to another come, and he cometh; to another do this, and he doth it? Heres the Glory of the great Lord and King, and of the great high-Priest over the household of God; in that he giveth forth Precepts according to his holy will and pleasure, and all his sheep know his Voice and follow him, and all his Children and servants Observe and Obey him.

If we live in the spirit, let us also walk in the spirit, said the holy Apostle. Here's the limits of the Children of the new Covenant: here's the Law of Life (the Law of the spirit of Life in Christ Jesus) the Law of the new Covenant, written in the heart, which none can read but with the new eye. The Children of the flesh may read the Letter, and comprehend concerning the Letter, and gather Rules and Observations out of the Letter: but the Children of the new Covenant alone can read the Law of Life in the heart. And this Law 'tis the path of Life, the Path of all that are renewed by God's Spirit; which the Jew inward is to read diligently and to have his delight therein, and to meditate thereon Day and Night. And this Law is Light; true Light, pure Light, spiritual Light, yea the Light which is eternal and never varies; and the Commandment which comes therefrom is a Lamp, which they that receive know it to be no less than Life everlasting: for indeed the commandments of Christ's Spirit are felt to be so. Now this Commandment, this Law, this Light shines in the Darkness at first, but afterwards out of the Darkness more and more (as it is believed, received, obeyed and walked in) unto the perfect day; see Prov. 4. 18, 19.

Quest. But how may I wait for, come to know and receive this Law? I am not of the stock of the Jews Natural, but of the Isles of the Gentiles: how may I meet with and receive the Law of Life from Christ, or the Grace and Truth which comes by him?

Answ. The way of receiving it, is to mind that which enlightens and renews the mind, drawing it out of the Nature and Spirit of this world, and out of the Waies, Worships, Knowledg and Customes thereof, into that which seasons it otherwise, and opens it another way. Now here the Grace is met with, here the Truth is met with, here the Spirit of Life is met with; here the inward Change is felt, and the new Law written in the heart and Spirit. And here the mind comes to prove and know what is that Good, that Acceptable and Perfect Will of God. For God is the Teacher in the new Covenant: and his teachings are here, ever in that which he renews. He gathereth into his Spirit, and he teacheth those that abide in his Spirit, and giveth unto them Eternal Life, Eternal Virtue, Eternal Nourishment in, and from, his Spirit. But they that may be great searchers into the Letter, and comprehenders from the Letter, and practisers according to their apprehensions of the Letter (not being gathered into nor reading in the Spirit) they miss of Eternal Life, and of the redeeming Arm and Power, and are not saved from Sin by the blood of Christ, but are yet in transgression, darkness and Death even untill now. The Lord, who knoweth all things make manifest their estate and conditions unto them, that they perish not for ever, but may learn of the Father to know the Son, and of the Son to know the Father, and come to witness true Life manifested in their own hearts, that they may have fellowship with the Father and Son therein. For he that is not turned from Darkness, unto Light (from the Darkness within, in his own heart unto the Light which God causeth to shine there) doth not yet know Christ Livingly and savingly: but is only in the Notions and comprehensions concerning him, which cannot save. For it is the Life and Power of the Lord Jesus Christ, inwardly revealed against the Power of Sin and Death, which is alone able to save therefrom.

Now consider with your selves (all who would not be deceived in this matter) have ye known this Law? have ye received it in measure, and do ye wait to know and receive it daily more and more? Then are ye Christians indeed, and in the house of Jacob, which walk in the Light of the Lord, and in the Light of the holy City, whose Light the Lamb is. But without this Law, without this light, without the inward writing of God's Spirit in your hearts, ye cannot be inward Jews, nor Children of the new Covenant.

These are weighty things, and to be considered weightily and weighed in the ballance of the Sanctuary. O wait to know what it is to go into the Sanctuary, and to weigh things there, in the Ballance thereof, which exactly and infallibly weigheth and determineth what ever is brought thither. For, of a truth, ye cannot understand any Scripture aright, which treateth of any Spiritual and heavenly Mystery, but as ye are taught of God to bring it unto the Ballance of the Sanctuary, and to weigh it there: where all your own apprehensions, meanings, and conceptions will fall, and the mind and intent of God's Spirit be alone owned and justified. Ah, what a vast difference there is, between weighing men's apprehensions and conceivings upon Scriptures in the ballance of their own understanding, and weighing them in the true ballance! In the former are all the erring judgments: but in the Latter is the true, unerring judgment of God's own Spirit, in the light which is Eternal, which judgment will stand for ever?

III.

A brief Relation concerning my ſelf in Reference to what hath befallen me in my purſuit after Truth.

I Was acquainted with a ſpring of life from my Childhood, which enlightened me in my tender years, and pointed my heart towards the Lord, begetting true ſenſe in me, and Faith and Hope, and Love, and Humility, and Meekneſs, &c. ſo that indeed I was a wonder to ſome that knew me, becauſe of the favour and life of Religion which dwelt in my heart, and appeared in my Converſation.

But I never dur'ſt truſt the ſpring of my Life and the ſpringings up of Life therefrom: but, in reading the Scriptures, gathered what knowledg I could therefrom; and ſet this over the ſpring and ſpringings of Life in me, and indeed judged that I ought ſo to do.

Notwithſtanding which, the Lord was very tender and merciful to me, helping me to pray, and helping me to underſtand the Scriptures, and opening and warming my heart every day.

And truly, my Soul was very near the Lord, and my heart was made and preſerved very low and humble before him, and very ſenſible of his Rich Love and Mercy to me in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt: as I did daily from my heart cry Grace, Grace unto him in every thing my Soul received, and partook of, from him.

Indeed I did never look to have been ſo broken, ſhattered and diſtreſſed, as I afterwards was: and could by no means underſtand the meaning thereof, my heart truly and earneſtly deſiring after the Lord, and not having the ſenſe of any Guilt upon me. Divers came to ſee mee, ſome to enquire into, and conſider of my condition; others to bewail it, and (if poſſibly) adminiſter ſome relief, help and comfort to me: and divers were the judgments they had concerning me. Some would ſay, it was deep melancholy. Others would narrowly ſearch and enquire how and in what manner, and in what way I had walked; and were jealous that I had ſinned againſt the Lord, and provoked him ſome way or other, and that ſome Iniquity lay as a load upon me. But after through converſe with me they would ſtill expreſs that they were of another mind, and that the hand of the Lord was in it, and it was an eminent caſe, and would end in good to my Soul.

At that time when I was broken and daſhed to pieces in my Religion, I was in a congregational way: but ſoon after parted with them, yet in great love: Relating to them how the hand of the Lord was upon me, and how I was ſmitten in the inward part of my Religion, and could not now hold up an outward form of that which I inwardly wanted, having loſt my God, my Chriſt, my Faith, my Knowledg, my Life, my All. And ſo we parted very Lovingly, I wiſhing them well, even the preſence of that God, whom I wanted, promiſing to return to them again, if ever I met with that which my Soul wanted, and had clearneſs in the Lord ſo to do.

After I was parted from them, I never joyned to any way or people, but lay mourning day and Night, pleading with the Lord why he had forſaken me, and why I ſhould be made ſo miſerable through my Love to him and ſincere deſires after him. For truly I can ſay, I had not been capable of ſo much miſery, as my Soul lay in for many years, had not my love been ſo deep and true towards the Lord my God, and my deſires ſo great after the ſenſible injoyment of his Spirit, according to the promiſe and way of the Goſpel. Yet this I can alſo ſay, in uprightneſs of heart: It was not gifts I deſired to appear and ſhine before men in; but Grace and Holineſs, and the Spirit of the Lord dwelling in me to act my heart by his Grace, and to Preſerve me in holineſs.

Now indeed, the Lord at length had compaſſion on me and viſited me, though in a time and way wherein I expected him not: nor was I willing (as to the Natural part) to have that the way, which God ſhewed me to be the way. But the Lord opened my eye, and that which I knew to be of him in me cloſed with it and owned it, and the pure Seed was raiſed by his Power, and my heart taught to know and own the Seed, and to bow and worſhip before the Lord in the pure Power, which was then in my heart. So that, of a Truth, I ſenſibly knew and felt my Saviour, and was taught by him to take up the Croſs, and to deny that Underſtanding, Knowledg and Wiſdom, which had ſo long ſtood in my way: and then I learned that leſſon (being really taught it of the Lord) what it is indeed to become a fool for Chriſts ſake; I cannot ſay but I had learned ſomwhat of it formerly: but I never knew how to keep to what I had learned, till that day.

And then God ſhewed me (by degrees, as he nurtured me up in the heavenly ſenſe and experience of his Spirit) the workings of the good in me and the workings of the ſubtilty: and how himſelf had in time paſt taught me to pray, and to underſtand the Scriptures, and to believe in his Son, and know ſome things aright: but withall, how a knowledg and underſtanding of another Nature had crept in, and gained ground upon me (which inneed I knew not how to diſtinguiſh throughly from the other and watch againſt) and ſo the Truth came not to live in me, nor I to live in that, according to the earneſt deſire and Travel of of my Soul.

But now, of a truth, by this Bleſſed viſitation of the everlaſting Goſpel, the Lord hath at length brought me back to the ſame ſpring I was acquainted with at firſt, and joyned my heart in true ſenſe and underſtanding to it: ſo that the Life that I live is by the ſpringing up of Life in me, and I know the Lord my God by being daily taught by him ſo to do, and I love him by feeling my heart Circumciſed and Conſtrained through the New Nature thereunto: and truly it is not Natural to the Good Seed in me, and to my Soul in and through the ſame to truſt my Father, and to ſuffer any thing that he requires of me, who freely giveth me both to do and to ſuffer; for indeed I live not of my ſelf, but by a continual gift and quickening of Life in my heart.

And, O that others alſo could come to hear the teſtimony of Truth and Life from God's holy Spirit, and be turned thereby to the pure Principle and Spirit of Life it ſelf (which many formerly had a true taſt of, but are now turned aſide to another Nature and Spirit, though they themſelves know it not) that they might witneſs the Goſpel-Power, and know the Spiritual and heavenly Jeruſalem, and ſuck at her breaſts and be dandled on her knee, who is the Mother and bringer up of all that are truly Living.

IIII.

A Queſtion about preaching the everlaſting Goſpel, anſwered.

Queſt. HOw is the everlaſting Goſpel (wherein Chriſt is truly made known, and Salvation really witneſſed in the hearts of thoſe that receive it) preached at this day; how hath the Lord appointed it to be preached, and how is it preached, and how may men come to hear it, that their Souls may live? Are, not they bleſſed that hear the joyful ſound thereof? Are not they wretched and miſerable, and blind and naked, who miſtake and miſs concerning that ſound of it, which it pleaſeth the Spirit of the Lord to give forth in this day?

It is wonderful to conſider how the Truth, the Goſpel, the Life, the Power which ſaves, is one and the ſame in all Ages and Generations; and yet ſtill hid from the wiſe, prudent, profeſſing eye, in every Age and Generation.

Now let me ſpeak a few words to this thing; not only from what I have felt in my heart, but have alſo read in the Scriptures of Truth.

Anſw. The Goſpel, after the Apoſtacy, is thus to be Preached, fear God and give Glory

Glory to him, for the hour of his Judgment is come: and worſhip him that made Heaven and Earth, &c. Rev. 14. 6, 7. He that knoweth the preacher that Preacheth this, he that hath heard this preached in his own heart, he that hath met with that fear which Gods Spirit teacheth and giveth, he that hath known the hour of Gods Judgment, and had the Axe laid to the Root of the corrupt Tree, and hath been taught by the Son to Worſhip the Father in Spirit and Truth; he hath without doubt met with the Goſpel, the Everlaſting Goſpel: and if God require of ſuch an one, and aſſiſt him by his ſpirit and power to Preach this to others, he is a Preacher of the Everlaſting Goſpel, and an able Miniſter of the New Teſtament, not of the Letter, but of the Spirit. But all ſhould take heed of Preaching their own Formings and Conceivings upon the Letter (as too many do in this day who Reproach, Revile and Perſecute the Life and Power,) for that falls ſhort of true Preaching the Letter.

O that theſe things were weighty upon mens ſpirits, that they might learn aright to ſearch and underſtand the Scriptures, and know how the Father hath revealed the Son in this day, and how to come to him to receive Life from him: for many (who ſeem knowing) through Ignorance miſtake in this matter, and ſo run on in their own Wills, Wiſdoms and Comprehenſion, of things, and miſs of the drawings of the Father, & ſo come not aright to the Son; but only according to what they themſelves imagine and apprehend, from what they have gathered & conceived upon the Scriptures.

God, who commanded Light to ſhine in this outward world hath judged it neceſſary to cauſe the Light of his Spirit to ſhine inwardly in mens hearts: and this gives the knowledg of the Scriptures, and the true ſenſe and diſcerning of inward and Spiritual things; yea here the Son is known, and his blood felt cleanſing, which without the Scriptures do not make manifeſt, but in this the Scriptures are a clear and Faithful record of, and teſtimony to. Men had need take heed how they read and how they underſtand the Scriptures (in what Light, in what Spirit;) for it is eaſy erring, but without the preſence and guidance of God herein, men cannot walk ſafely. And truly it is great preſumption in any man to read the Scriptures boldly, without fear and reverence to him who is the Author of them, or to put any of his meanings and conceivings upon God's Words; which it is hard for him to forbear doing, who readeth them in the liberty of his own Spirit, out of the Light of God's Spirit, which is the limit and yoke of the true Readers and Underſtanders of the Scriptures.

V.

Concerning Chriſt's Miniſtry or Prieſt-Hood.

CHriſt is made by God a Miniſter or High-Prieſt, over the Spiritual Iſrael of God, Not after the Law of a Carnal Commandement, but after the Power of an endleſs Life (as Heb. 7. 16. and Chap. 8. 2.) and he Miniſters with his Spirit and Power unto, and in all his. So that he that knows Chriſt's Miniſtry, knows the Power, the Life, the Spirit in which he Miniſters: But he that is not acquainted with theſe, is yet to learn to know Chriſt aright, and to believe in him unto Life and Salvation, which are Wrapped up, Comprehended, Revealed, and Communicated in the Power wherewith he Miniſters. For the very beginning of Chriſt's Miniſtry, is in the Spirit and Power of God, whereby he Redeems out of the Spirit and Power of Satan: and to this Men are to be turned, if they will Witneſs Salvation by Jeſus Chriſt; even to the Light and Power of God's Holy Spirit, which breaks the Darkneſs, and Strength of the Kingdom of Satan in the Heart. For indeed, all litteral Profeſſions, Beliefs, Knowledges, and Practiſes, out of the Life and Power, Satan can Transform himſelf into, and uphold, and maintain his Kingdom under, in the Hearts of Men: but the inward Light, and Power of Life breaks it, where the Minds of People are by the Spirit of the Lord turned thereto, and Subjected under its Rule and Government.

VI.

Concerning the True Knowledge of Chriſt.

IT was ſaid in the Time of the Prophets, under the Miniſtration of the Law, that The Prieſt's Lips ſhould keep Knowledge, and they (that is, the outward Iſrael, Iſrael after the Fleſh) ſhould feel the Law at his Mouth; for he is the Meſſenger of the Lord of Hoſts, Mal. 1. 7. And, Doth not Chriſt our High-Prieſt, and Apoſtle of our Profeſſion, keep all his Peoples Knowledge? And, Are they not all to ſeek the Law of Life, the Law of the New-Covenant at his Mouth? Is not he the Meſſenger of the Covenant, who brings Tidings of the Covenant of Life and Peace; and muſt not the Soul that will Live, hear him? Iſa. 55. 1, 2, 3. Is not he the ſealed, and ſent One of the Father, to open the blind Eye, and to bring the Priſoner out of the Pit? Is not he the Shepherd of the Spiritual Flock? Are not ſuch as are called out of the World (and Sanctified by him) his Sheep? And are not all his Sheep to hear his Voice, and follow him? Is not he the Prophet like Moſes, appointed by God, for all the Spiritual Iſrael to hear in all things? (Is not his Spirit to Teach, and Lead into all Truth? Can any elſe Lead into Truth? or can any come into Truth, unleſs they be Led?) And they that will not hear the Voice of his Spirit in theſe latter Days (ſeeing God in theſe laſt Days ſpeaketh by his Son, and ſaith to all the true Diſciples, and Followers of the Lamb, Hear ye Him.) Are they not to be cut off from the Comforts of his Spirit, from the pure Refreſhments of his Spirit, from the Life of his Spirit, and from the Living Iſrael, and ſo to be Numbred among the Dead and Unredeemed?

Chriſt ſaith, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. It is he alone that is the Living Way, which Leads to the Father. Now, How is Chriſt the Way to the Father? How is he the Truth? How is he the Life? Is he ſo by any litteral, and outward Knowledge of him: or, by the Inward, Spiritual, and Living Knowledge of him? They that know his Spirit, know the Way; and they that walk in his Spirit, walk in the Way: this is moſt certain. They that walk not in the Oldneſs of the Letter, but in the Newneſs, and Life of the Spirit, they walk in the New, and Living Way. How is the Letter Old? and how is the Spirit New? How is Chriſt known after the Fleſh, and ſo to be known no more? And, How is he known after the Spirit, and ſo to be known for Ever? Man is but Fleſh, and his Knowledge and Underſtanding of things of his own fetching, from the litteral Relation and Deſcriptions of them, is but the Knowledge of the Fleſhly part: but there is a New Eye, a New Underſtanding, a New Heart and Mind, to which the Father Reveals him: and that Knowledge which this New Birth Receives of the Father, that is Spiritual, True, Pure, Heavenly, Living Knowledge. And ſo the Children of the Kingdom are to dwell in that Light, wherein the Father Reveals the things of the Kingdom: and this differenceth them from all the litteral knowers of the things of God, upon the Face of the Earth. Now this is it, which ſatisfieth my Heart, concerning my Knowledge of the Things of God; even that I have ſo Learned to know Chriſt, and to Believe in him (and to repent from dead Works, and to Obey him, and Suffer for him) as I could never have Learned, unleſs the Father himſelf had Taught me. And now ſeeing, and partaking of the Difference, I cannot but Teſtify againſt all Dead Teachings, unto the Spirits Teaching, which is Living: knowing aſſuredly, that no other Teaching or Learning the things of God will amount to true Knowledge, or be owned in the Day of the Lord, but that which is of, and in the Spirit.

VII.

A few Words more Concerning the Right Way of Knowing, as it is Witneſſed unto, in the Scriptures, and Experienced in the Hearts of thoſe that Truely, and Livingly Know the Lord.

Wiſdom is Juſtified of her Children, ſaid Chriſt, Mat. 11. 19. Now, Who is Wiſdom? What is Wiſdom? Is it not the Heavenly Mother of all the Living? It is the Spirit which begets all, who are truly Begotten to the Lord? Now, Where, and into What doth he Beget them? In the Earthly Nature, in the Earthly Wiſdom, in the Earthly Spirit; or out of it, in, and into that which is Heavenly.

Now, all that are of this Heavenly Begetting, and Birth, they know (own and juſtify) that Wiſdon, wherein they are Begotten. They juſtify the Nature of Truth, the Light of Truth, the Life of Truth, the Power of Truth, the Appearance of Truth in their Age and Generation. The falſe Birth will own, and juſtify the Words of Truth which were formerly ſpoken, and the former Appearances thereof (as the Scribes and Phariſees did Moſes, and the Prophets, who denyed Chriſt, who was Truth, and ſpake Truth beyond them:) But the True Birth knoweth, and juſtifieth the preſent Words, and the preſent Appearances of Truth, which the falſe Birth ſtill ſlighteth and deſpiſeth.

If any Man therefore will judge aright, concerning the things of God, he muſt be ſure to be of the true Birth (a Child of the true Wiſdom) and that he keep to that Nature, Spirit, and Birth, to which God giveth the diſcerning. For there is an eye of diſcerning, and way of diſcerning, which is a Gift: and he that will know aright, and judg aright, muſt keep to the Gift of Light, the Gift of Grace, the Gift of the Spirit, the Gift of the Holy Anointing; and be watchful, and careful to judg in it, and take heed of judging out of it. For though a Man be come to a Spiritual State, and hath Received the Gift of Grace, Knowledg, and Diſcerning: yet if he be not watchful to keep to the Gift, he may eaſily err, and judg amiſs.

VIII.

Concerning Chriſt's Righteouſneſs, which is the Righteouſneſs of all his Saints.

Chriſt is the Head, his Saints the Body: and they do not all partake of one Nature, one Spirit, one Vertue, one Life, one Righteouſneſs? Doth not Chriſt give them of his own Righteouſneſs, even of the Righteouſneſs which his Father gave him? And is not that Righteouſneſs which Chriſt giveth them, their Righteouſneſs? What was Chriſt's Righteouſneſs? Was it not the Righteouſneſs of God Revealed in him, Communicated to him, and made his? And what is their Righteouſneſs? Is not the ſame Righteouſneſs Revealed in them, Communicated to them, and made theirs, in, and by Chriſt? Are not they made partakers of the Divine Nature, in, and through him, and made the Righteouſneſs of God in him? Chriſt Truſted his Father, and Obeyed his Father in all things. Now was not that an effect of the Righteous Nature, and Spirit of his Father in him? He became Obedient unto Death, even the Death of the Croſs. And, O how was his Father pleaſed therewith! Did not he ſay to him, as to Abraham in the like caſe? Becauſe thou haſt done this thing, in Bleſſing, I will Bleſs thee, and in Multiplying, I will Multiply thy Seed, and thou ſhalt ſee of the Travel of thy Soul, and be ſatisfied: For thou ſhalt not only gather the Diſperſed of Iſrael, but Inherit the Gentiles alſo, And have the uttermoſt parts of the Earth, for thy Poſſeſſion.

was

Conſider now ſeriouſly, in God's Fear; Is Chriſt's Obedience to the Law of Moſes, the Saints Evangelical Righteouſneſs? Or is his Righteouſneſs Revealed in them, from Faith to Faith? Was his being Circumciſed Outwardly, their Circumciſion? Or is his Inward Circumciſing them, their Circumciſion? Which of theſe is the Goſpel-Circumciſion: the Circumciſing of his Fleſh Outwardly, or the Circumciſiing of their Hearts Inwardly? Again, Was his being Outwardly Baptized, their Baptiſm? Or is the Inward Baptiſm of the Spirit, the Goſpel-Baptiſm? Doth he not fulfil the Righteouſneſs of the Law of the Spirit of Life in them, who believe in his Spirit and Power, and walk not after the Fleſh, but after the Spirit? Was not Chriſt juſtified in the Spirit? And are not all his juſtified in the Spirit alſo? Whatſoever is of God, whatſoever is Wrought in God, doth not God Juſtify? Is not the Perſon here Juſtified, the Faith Juſtified, the Works Juſtified with the Juſtification of Life, and of God's Holy Spirit, from whence they proceed? And here Chriſt's Words are verified, He that doth Truth, cometh to the Light, that his Deeds may be Manifeſt, that they are Wrought in God, Joh. 3. 21. And are not his Deeds then Juſtified? He that is United to the Spirit of God (and acquainted with the Spirit of God, and knows his Voice) hears, and ſees, and feels, and underſtands what God Condemns, and alſo what he Juſtifies; who never Condemns any thing that ariſeth from himſelf, and is wrought in himſelf: but only that which cometh from the Fleſh, and is wrought in the Fleſh. And here he ſees (in the True Light) what Faith is imputed for Righteouſneſs, and what Faith is ſhut out; and what Works are accounted Righteous, and what Works are ſhut out: and how Enoch Walked with God, in the Righteous Spirit and Life, and was therein Juſtified: and how Noah built an Ark in the Faith, being moved with Fear, and was therein with his *F*amily Saved. So Abel Sacrificed in the *F*aith, By which he obtained Witneſs, that he was Righteous, God Teſtifying of his Gifts, Heb. 11. 4. Mark, his Sacrifice, his Gift came from a Righteous *S*pirit, and ſo the Righteous God Teſtified of his Gift: and ſuch are all the *S*acrifices now, that are Offered up in God's *S*pirit, and in the True *F*aith. And ſo he alſo ſeeth how Abraham (the *F*ather of the *F*aithful) was Juſtified by Works, Jam. 2. 21. and how God was pleaſed with him, becauſe he had done that thing, of Offering up his only *S*on at God's Command. Alſo Phinehas his Zeal for the Lord, in Executing Judgment, was highly eſteemed of the Lord, and Was counted to him for Righteouſneſs, unto all Generations for evermore, Pſal. 106. 30, 31.

But Alas! How do Men miſtake about the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt, about the Goſpel-Righteouſneſs; and in effect, make it but the Righteouſneſs of the Law, but the Righteouſneſs of the Old-Covenant, performed in the perſon of another for us, and imputed to us? Whereas it is the Righteouſneſs of another Covenant, even of the New and Living Covenant, which the Lord Jeſus Chriſt Worketh, both in us, and for us. Now whoever receiveth this Righteouſneſs from him, and is Cloathed with it by him, he findeth it to be the Righteouſneſs of the Goſpel, the New and Living Righteouſneſs, the True and Everlaſting Righteouſneſs, both of the *F*ather and *S*on, which the *S*ouls of thoſe that truly believe, partake of in them, and with them.

Now conſider a *S*cripture or two, to Evidence this further.

The Apoſtle ſaith, 2 Cor. 3. 17, 18. The Lord is that Spirit (the Lord Jeſus is the *S*econd Adam, the quickening *S*pirit) in whom the Vail is done away, ver. 15. And ſo the true Chriſtian (in whom the Vail is done away, who is come into the true liberty of the *S*pirit) With open Face, beholding as in a Mirrour, the Glory of the Lord, is Changed into the ſame Image.

Now mind: if man be changed into the heavenly Image; if he partake of Chriſts Image;

Image is he not made righteous, and become truly righteous therein? Was not the Image of the firſt Adam Holy and Righteous? and is not the Image of the ſecond Adam Holy and Righteous alſo? and are not they that are changed from the Image of Sin and Satan, into Chriſts Image, Holy and Righteous in that Image? Are they not changed from Unrighteouſneſs to Righteouſneſs? and is not this Image, whereinto they are changed, and wherein they are new created by God, their Righteouſneſs? Whoever is Ingraffed into Chriſt, is he not Ingrafted into Righteouſneſs? (Cut off from Unrighteouſneſs, and Ingraffed into Righteouſneſs; even into the Righteous Nature and Spirit of the Lamb?) And doth he not partake of the Righteouſneſs of the Vine or Olive-Tree, into which he is ingrafted? And doth not that become his Righteouſneſs? If the root be holy, then are alſo the Branches: and if the Root be Righteous, ſo are alſo the Branches: and that is the Righteouſneſs and Holineſs of the Branches, which they have from the Root.

The other Scripture is that of Eph. 4. 22, 23, 24. which ſpeaks of putting off the Old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful luſts; and of being renewed in the ſpirit of the mind, and putting on the New Man, which after God is created in Righteouſneſs and true Holineſs. Mark, here's the New Creation. Now conſider well, what is the Holineſs and Righteouſneſs of the New Creation? Is not that which is put off, Old, Corrupt, Unholy, Unrighteous? is not that which is put on, New, Holy, Righteous: even the Image before ſpoken of, Chriſt the Heavenly Image, the New Man, which is created and formed in man? and then God owneth ſuch to be his People, Iſa. 51. 16.

No man can do that which is Righteous, but he that firſt partakes of Gods Righteous Nature and Spirit. The Tree muſt firſt be good, before the Fruit can be ſo. A man muſt firſt be renewed and made Righteous, before he can bring forth Righteouſneſs. So that he that doth bring forth Righteouſneſs, without doubt he is inwardly renewed, without doubt he is inwardly Righteous. Did the Gentiles do by Nature the things contained in the Law? Then without doubt, they were Partakers of another Nature than the Old Corrupt Nature, which is not ſubject to the Law of God, neither indeed can be. Little Children, let no man deceive you: he that doth Righteouſneſs, is Righteous, even as he is Righteous, 1 Joh. 3. 7. This is the true and weighty Judgement of Gods Spirit: and he that Judgeth otherwiſe, is deceived, and erreth in this particular; and ſheweth that he doth not yet know Gods Righteouſneſs, and Chriſts Righteouſneſs, which is one and the ſame. For, If ye know that he is Righteous, ye know that every one that doeth Righteouſneſs is born of him, 1 Joh. 2. 29. Mark, the New Birth precedes the doing of Righteouſneſs: and the doing of Righteouſneſs is a certain evidence of the New Birth. He that doth Righteouſneſs is Born of God: this Fruit can ariſe from no other, but the Pure, Living, Heavenly Root.

IX.

Of the Grace of the Goſpel.

THE Prophets of Old, propheſied of the ſufferings of Chriſt, and the Glory that ſhould follow, 1 Pet. 1. 10, 11. Now what was the Glory which ſhould follow? Was it not the ſetting up Chriſts Inward and Inviſible Kingdom in the hearts of men? Was it not Gods abundant pouring out his Spirit, and filling Veſſels therewith: ſo that the Spirit of Grace and of Glory ſhould reſt upon Believers, as it had done upon Chriſt? was it not Gods Tabernacling in men, and becoming their God, and making them his People? was it not the fulfilling the precious promiſes concerning the Goſpel-State, whereby men ſhould be made partakers of the Divine Nature (of the Heavenly Image) and be changed from Glory to Glory, by the renewing Spirit and Power? Was it not to have Fellowſhip with Chriſt, not only in his Sufferings and Death, but alſo in his Reſurrection and Kingdom:

where the Bread and Wine of the Kingdom is Eaten and Drank, and the Feaſt of Fat things partook off? Is it not a Glorious State to be tranſlated out of the Kingdom of Darkneſs, into the Kingdom of the Dear Son? and to dwell with Chriſt in the Kingdom; and ſup there with him, and he with them? to have Fellowſhip (Pure Fellowſhip, Living Fellowſhip) with the Father and the Son, that the bleſſedneſs and Joy of the Soul in the Goſpel-State may be full?

The Law was a Miniſtration of ſhadows: for under it were the various and many ſhadows of the good things to come, which were to be poſſeſſed and enjoyed in the dayes of the Goſpel. In the Law there was an outward people (the Jews outward) an outward Covenant, an outward Land of bleſſings, plenty and reſt; an outward Sion, outward Jeruſalem, outward Temple, outward Ark, outward Table, outward Laver, outward Candleſticks, outward Lamps, outward Oyl, outward Anointing, outward Circumciſion and Sacrifices, outward New-Moons and Sabbaths, outward Kings, outward Prieſts, and outward Victories over outward Enemies, &c.

But now, in the Goſpel, there is the ſubſtance of theſe things inwardly revealed, and inwardly poſſeſſed and enjoyed: even the Jew inward (the New Man of the heart) an inward Covenant of Life and Peace, an inward Land of Bleſſedneſs, of Reſt, an inward Sabbath or day of Goſpel-Reſt (which the true Believer keepeth in the Faith, not bearing any Burden, kindling any Fire, nor doing any work of the Fleſh therein) an inward Sion, an inward Jeruſalem or Holy City, an inward Temple (in which the Holy of Holyes) an inward Ark in which the Law of Life is treaſured up, inward Table, inward Laver, inward Candleſtick, inward Lamp, inward Oyl, inward Anointing, inward Circumciſion and Sacrifices, and ſolemn ſeaſons, the inward King of Glory, inward Prophet and Prieſt known, even Chriſt within, who giveth Victories and dominion over the inward Enemies, and giveth his to partake of his Kingdom, and Prieſt-hood, Rev. 1. 6. Yea and (by his Spirit poured out upon them) maketh his Seers and Prophets alſo, as it is written, I will pour out my ſpirit upon upon all Fleſh, and your Sons and your Daughters ſhall Propheſy.

Now, was not this fulfilled after the ſufferings of Chriſt in the Fleſh? (and is it not daily more and more fulfilled, as the ſufferings of Chriſt, which are yet behind, are filled up in his Body the Church?) Did not the Glory then ſucceed? Was not the Goſpel-Spirit and Power then revealed and beſtowed? and did it not bring into the Goſpel-Sate? Were not the Precious Promiſes fulfilled therein? (2 Pet. 1. 5, 6.) Are they not all Yea and Amen in Chriſt? Is not the Vail or Covering taken away in him? Is not the Glory Revealed in him? Is not the Lord one and his Name one in him? Is there not Glory then in the Higheſt, on Eearth Peace, and good Will among men, as well as good Will in God towards men? Where's then the Enmity and Wars; the Luſts and Fightings? Where's the envy of Judah or Ephraim, or the vexing one another here? Are not theſe things drowned in the Love and in the Peace, in the Life and in the Power which is revealed in the Goſpel-State, and ſprings up in the Goſpel-Spirit? they know not what ſpirit they are of, who would have fire come down from Heaven upon the Diſobedient and Gainſayers. To be ſure, they are not of the Goſpel-Spirit, not of Chriſts Spirit, who came not to deſtroy mens lives, but to ſeek and ſave that which was loſt, and to overcome by the overflowings of his Love and tender Viſits of the Life. And how do his Children make War in this day? Is it not with Innocency, with Meekneſs, with Patience, with Bowels of Love, with Long-ſuffering, with Truth, with Righteouſneſs, like the followers of the Lamb, like the Children of him who abounds therein? Indeed there is a Sword given, there is a threſhing Inſtrument, there are Darts and Arrows to be ſhot in the hearts of the Kings Enemies: (Pſal. 45. 3, 4, 5.) But it is not to deſtroy the Creature, but rather to ſmite and wound that Spirit which Captivates it, that the Creature may witneſs Deliverance and Freedom therefrom: though it is true; that they that joyn with that Spirit, muſt partake of its Judgments and Plagues, even to Deſtruction, if they ſo continue.

Now this Glory is wrapped up in the Grace which is Miniſtred by the Goſpel: and and where the Grace is ſown, the Glory is ſown, (there is a true ſeed of the Glory) and where Grace abounds, the Glory abounds. It was ſaid concerning the firſt gathering of Chriſtians by the Apoſtles, that great Grace was upon them all, Acts 4. 33. and indeed, it was a precious and glorious ſtate, which they were gathered into and brought forth in. Now the grace is revealed again, the grace is poured forth again, the grace hath appeared, teaching and bringing Salvation again; doth it not behove every one to know it and partake of it? not to be content with words concerning the grace, but to know the grace it ſelf, receiving it from the hand of him that giveth it, and hearing the Voice, Reproofes and Inſtructions of it? Hear, and your ſouls ſhall Live. Whom ſhould they hear? Are they not to hear Chriſt, the great Prophet? How ſhall they hear Chriſt? Is there any other way, then by hearing his Grace teaching them? then by hearkening to the meaſure of the gift of Grace, which is by Jeſus Chriſt? The Law was given by Moſes (all his People, all his Children, all his Family were to come under the Law, to be governed by the Law.) Grace and Truth comes by Jeſus Chriſt. (All his Children, all his People, all his Family are to come under the Grace, to be governed by the Grace,) who is faithful in all his Houſe, diſpencing of his Grace and Truth to all his, as Moſes did of the Law (Committed to him) to all under him. So then, all that deſire to be truly Chriſtians, let them wait to know, what the Grace and Truth which Chriſt giveth is, and to partake of it and come under it: under its Teachings, under its Influences, under its Protection, under its Government (by being ſubject to it; and in every thing guided by it) that they may know what that Scripture means, in the true and weighty experiences: Sin ſhall not have dominion over you, for ye are not under the Law, but under Grace, Rom. 6. 14.

X.

A Queſtion Anſwered concerning real Holineſs.

Queſt. ARe not Perſons to be really holy (really ſanctified in Chriſt Jeſus) who would be received by the Lord, and enjoy fellowſhip with him as Sons and Daughters, in the Goſpel of his Son?

Anſw. Under the Law, that People of the Jews were to be ſeparated from the heathen, to be outwardly Circumciſed and cleanſed by the Water and Blood of Purifying (which ſanctifyed to the Purifying of the fleſh) and not to touch any dead or unclean thing: for any ſuch thing polluted them, and thoſe that were unclean muſt be kept without the Camp, as unfit for the holy Communion with God and his people, till cleanſed.

Now what did this ſignify? Did it not ſignify that pure and clean ſtate inwardly, which God requireth under the Goſpel? Did it not ſignify the inward Circumciſion of the heart and ſpirit before the Lord, and the cleanſing of the Soul, Mind, and Body, before its appearing to worſhip in the inward and ſpiritual Temple? (Heb. 10. 22.) Is there not a Jeruſalem under the Goſpel, into which no Uncircumciſed or unclean thing is to enter, or appear before God there? Mark what the Apoſtle ſaith, Heb. 12. Ye are not come to the Mount that might be touched, to outward Mount Sinai, or Sion to the appearance of God there: but ye are come to the inward Sion, and to the City of the Living God the heavenly Jeruſalem, and to fellowſhip with God and Chriſt there, ver 18. and 22.

Now what is the way to this holy fellowſhip and Heavenly Communion? Doth not God himſelf preſcribe it, 2 Cor. 6. 16, 17. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ſeparated, ſaith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing, and I will receive you; I will be a Father unto you, and ye ſhall be my ſons and daughters, ſaith the Lord Almighty. For God would have a People repreſentatively holy, in the time of the Law, (yet not deſtitute of inward Holineſs) and he will have a People really holy in the time of the Goſpel. He that defileth the Temple of God, him will God deſtroy: but keep the Temple clean, pure, holy, and then the holy God will dwell and appear there, according to his promiſe, I will dwell in them, and walk in them. And this is Eternally true, and witneſſed by certain experience among them that know the Lord; that if any thing that is unclean be touched, there is a defilement thereby, and there muſt be a cleanſing felt, before an admittance into the preſence of the holy God, and enjoying fellowſhip with him again.

XI.

Concerning the Law of Sin in the Fleſhly Mind, and the Law of Life and Holineſs in the Renewed Mind, and whence each have their Strength.

WHat is the Law of Sin? Who Writes it in the Mind? And, What is it, when it is Writ? When Luſt hath Conceived, it bringeth forth Sin; and Sin when it is Finiſhed, bringeth forth Death, Jam. 1. 15. So that the firſt beginning of Sin Is Evil Luſt; and the whole Corruption that is in the World, is through Luſt, 2 Pet. 1. 4. Now whence cometh that Luſt? Is it not begotten in the Mind, and Spirit by the Tempter? And, What is the Law, both of the Luſting, and of the Sins committed through the Luſt? Is it not the Luſtful Nature, the Luſtful Will, the Luſtful Wiſdom, the Luſtful Deſires and Paſſions, which the God of this World, begetteth in the Worldly part? So on the other hand, there is an Holy Law in the Holy, and Renewed Mind. Whence cometh that Law? Doth it not come from God? Doth it not come from the Holy One? Is it not he that blots out Satans Law, and then Writes his own Law in the Hearts of his? Now, What is his Law? Is it not of a contrary Nature to Satans Law? What God Writeth in the Hearts of his, Teaching them Holineſs, Requiring Holineſs, enlightening the Mind unto Holineſs, manifeſting the good, perfect, and acceptable Will, is not that his Law? Under the Old-Covenant the Law was at a diſtance, Writ in Tables of Stone: But under the New-Covenant the Law is nigh, Written in the Heart by the Spirit, and Power of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt. For he is King, the Inward King, the Spiritual King of his People, who cometh to reform, and amend by his Covenant, what was amiſs under the former. Now, becauſe he found under the Old-Covenant, that Laws Outwardly Written, would never bring Men into, and keep Men in Subjection to his Father: therefore, he Writeth Inwardly by his Spirit and Power, and Viſiteth with the Inward, Eternal Day, even the Day of his Power; and ſo maketh his People willing to receive the Law of his Spirit of Life, which maketh Free from the Law of Sin and Death. For this Law, being Inward and Spiritual, and more Powerful than the other, overcomes the other Law, even the Law of Sin and Death (though it be Inward and Spiritual, and Inwardly Written alſo) and ſetteth free from it; Rom. 6. 18. and 8. 2.

Now theſe Laws have each their Strength from him that Writes them. The Law of Sin and Death hath its Strength from the God of this World, the Prince of Darkneſs, who Ruleth in all that are diſobedient to the Spirit, and Power of Chriſt. The Law of Holineſs, the Law of Life, the Law of Faith in the Power, the Law of Obedience to Gods Holy Spirit, hath its Strength from the Holy One, from the Prince of Life and Peace. For Satan is near his Subjects, and dwells in them, to Act them, and to make his Laws of Sin, and Diſobedience forcible in them. Every Motion, and Temptation to Sin he kindles, and adds Vigour to, that he may ſet on Flame the Wicked Spirits of Men, after Sin, Vanity, Pride, Luſt, Uncleanneſs, Cruelty, and all manner of Wickedneſs, that they may draw on Iniquity, as with Cart-Ropes, and Drink it in, as the Oxe doth Water (Jam. 3. 6.) And the Lord alſo is near to the Soul, the King of Holineſs, the King of Righteouſneſs, and Peace is near, to give Strength to every Holy Deſire in the Heart, and to every Motion of his Spirit towards that which is Good and Holy. Hence it is, that he that truſts God's Spirit, watching to, and following the movings, and drawings thereof, finds Life flow in, Vertue, and Strength flow in, to carry on effectually, in that which the Spirit of the Lord moves to. So that, come but truly to know a Motion, to underſtand the Drawings, and Leadings of God's Spirit; Strength is never wanting to him, who giveth up in the Faith to follow the Lord, in that which he moves, and draws to. And this is the great Skill of Chriſtianity, to come Inwardly to know the Lord, to know the Inward appearances of the Shepherd, his Leadings out into the Paſtures, where Eternal Life is Fed on; and again, into the Fold of Reſt, which is no leſs than the Boſom of Love, and Life Eternal. Now the growth of the New Man, the growth of the Chriſtian State, is in the Exerciſe under the Law of Life, under the Law of the Spirit. For the Spirit Exerciſeth the Mind by his Law, and the Mind is to give up to the Exerciſe thereof, and to wait upon the Lord in it, Day and Night; finding it ſelf never without, but ſtill under the Law to Chriſt in every thing. And indeed, How can a Man do any thing aright, without the ſenſe and knowledge of this Law? How can a Man Fight aright with his ſpiritual Enemies, without underſtanding the Law of Fighting? For there is a lawful fighting, and an unlawful fighting againſt the Souls Enemies. The unlawful fighting is in the Self-will, Wiſdom, and Strength, according to ones own Apprehenſions and Conceivings, which gains no real Ground; and therefore, they that ſo fight, cannot overcome: The lawful fighting is in the Faith, in the Wiſdom, and Guidance of the Lord, in his Spirit and Power; and this is ever Succeſsful. So there is a lawful running, and an unlawful running the Race, which the Apoſtle plainly implyeth, when he ſaith, So Run, that ye may Obtain, 1 Cor. 9. 24. So likewiſe there is a law of prayer, a law of faith, a law of love, a law of new obedience, a law of liberty (for the liberty under the Goſpel is not boundleſs, but bounded by the Spirit) a royal law, which the King of Glory writes, and keeps living in the Heart, by which his Will is underſtood, and the Way of Life known, which never can be underſtood by any, but in thoſe in whom this Law is Written, even the Law of the New-Covenant, the Law of the Spirit of Life in Chriſt Jeſus.

neſs,

Read, and Conſider this ſeriouſly: For indeed, it contains the very myſtery of Chriſtianity and Redemption. For Redemption is not by a Notional knowledge of Chriſt (it is not ſo Witneſſed by any) but by receiving, and ſubjecting to the Law of his Spirit. And mind, and wait to know and underſtand, whether this be not the Law which David ſpeaks of, when he ſaith, Pſal. 19. 7. &c. The Law of the Lord is perfect, Converting the Soul: the Teſtimony of the Lord is ſure, making Wiſe the Simple. The Statutes of the Lord are right, rejoycing the Heart: the Commandement of the Lord pure, enlightening the Eyes. The Fear of the Lord clean, enduring for Ever: the Judgments of the Lord Truth, altogether Righteous. Certainly the Law of the Spirit of Life in Chriſt Jeſus is all this, containing in it the Commandement which is Life Everlaſting, and the ſure Teſtimony, and all the Holy Statutes, Judgments, and Fear, which the Soul need to Learn; and is indeed perfect, and able to convert, and inſtruct perfectly the converted Soul. And here that Scripture is fulfilled, under this Holy Law of the Spirit, and Power of Life, They ſhall not Teach every Man his Neighbour, and every Man his Brother, ſaying, Know the Lord (they ſhall not do ſo in this Covenant, under this Miniſtration, which is a Miniſtration not of the Letter, but of the Spirit) for they ſhall all know me, from the leaſt of them, to the greateſt of them, by the Teachings of my own Spirit, by my Writing my Law in their Hearts; by my Holy Unction, which ſhall Teach my Children, my Anointed Ones, all that they need to know, 1 Joh. 2. 27. Jer. 31. and Heb. 8.

Come, be not deceived about the New-Covenant; but wait to find the entrance thereinto, and to feel the Vertue thereof, and to know, and receive the Law and Power thereof, as becometh Chriſtians.

XII.

Concerning God's Gathering Us home to Himſelf, who are a People deſpiſed and rejected of Men, and in ſcorn by them called Quakers.

IT pleaſed the Lord, who is Rich in Mercy and Goodneſs, to pity our many Wanderings, and ſore Diſtreſſes; and, at length, to gather us Home to the Light and Spirit of his Son, which was the Goſpel-Standard in the Apoſtles Dayes.

Now, that by which God gathered us, was the Power of Chriſt, and the Preaching of the Everlaſting Goſpel, by the Miniſtry which he hath raiſed up in theſe latter Dayes. For as the Lord raiſed up a Miniſtry to preach it at firſt, when he had ſome of the Jews, and many of the Gentiles, to gather: So he hath raiſed up a Miniſtry, to preach it again after the Apoſtacy, that he may cauſe the Sound thereof to go through all Nations. And this Miniſtry hath been raiſed, to go forth in the ſame Virtue, Power, and Spirit, wherein the fore-going Miniſtry was ſent.

God promiſed of old, That he would ſeek after, ſearch out, and gather home his ſcattered Sheep himſelf, and become their Shepherd, Ezek. 34. Now, this was fulfilled in a great Meaſure, in the Dayes of Chriſt, and his Apoſtles; when Chriſt came himſelf, and alſo ſent his Apoſtles after him, to ſeek and gather the Loſt Sheep of the Houſe of Iſrael: And not only ſo, but alſo to Preach the Goſpel to all Nations, that he might be God's Salvation to the Ends of the Earth, gathering and ſaving loſt, and ſcattered Souls out of every Quarter and Corner thereof.

But afterwards, (after the ſpreading of the Goſpel, and Chriſt's gathering of many thereby) there was a great Apoſtacy, and Scattering from this Holy Standard of Life and Salvation, and Darkneſs over-ſpread the Nations again, and an Antichriſtian Reign and Kingdom got up, under a Form and Forms of Godlineſs, without the Life and Power; in which Forms People generally have been ſcattered from the Life and Power, which indeed is the Goſpel.

Now, in this cloudy and dark time, great hath been the Loſs and Diſtreſs of the poor, hungry Sheep; their Shepherds and Watch-men not being able to preach the Goſpel diſtinctly to them, and direct their Minds to the Spirit and Power which ſaves: Therefore, God, in pity to this ſad and loſt Condition of his Sheep, ſends his Angel to preach his Everlaſting Goſpel to them that dwell on the Earth; to every Nation, Kindred, Tongue, and People, Rev. 14. 6.

Now, as the former Publiſhing of the Goſpel began at the ſcattered Jews, who were God's People under the Law; ſo this begins at the ſcattered Chriſtians, who had ſome true Deſires, and had been ſeeking after the Lord, (from Mountain to Hill, and Hill to Mountain) but could by no means find him, nor by any of the Watch-men hear any certain News of their Souls Beloved. But the Lord, in his tender Love, and rich Mercy, in the appointed Time, ſends forth the Shepherd of Iſrael, to ſeek and find them out: And, bleſſed be the Lord, he ſought effectually, and hath found out many, and perſwaded them to follow him, and hath brought their weary Souls home to their proper reſting Place; where they dwell under the Care of the Shepherd, and Biſhop of their Souls.

But, if any ſhall yet further enquire, How, and by whom the Goſpel was preached unto us? My Anſwer is, By the Shepherd himſelf. God Himſelf gave forth the Sound, and Great hath been the Company of them that publiſhed it; and our Ears and Hearts were opened by the Lord, to hear the Sound, and know the Shepherd's Voice.

And mind my Words, (which the Spirit of the Lord is now uttering forth through me; for they are Words of Truth, and certain Underſtanding) They that do not hear, and own the Sound thereof now, (from this Miniſtry which the Lord hath now choſen, and ſent forth) would not have heard nor owned the Sound thereof, in in Chriſt's, and the Apoſtles Dayes, had they lived therein: But would have reproached, and oppoſed them, had they lived then, in thoſe Dayes; as they do now, in theſe Dayes. For, of a Truth, it is the Voice and Sound of one and the ſame Spirit and Wiſdom; and they that do deſpiſe the one, would have deſpiſed the other, had they lived in the Day of the Appearance and Manifeſtation thereof.

And then, for the Manner of its Preaching; It was juſt ſuch as is deſcribed, ver. 7. of Rev. 14. For we are commanded to Fear God, and give glory to him, becauſe the Hour of his Judgment (the great and terrible Day of the Lord) was come; and therefore, to leave off all falſe Wayes and Worſhips, and learn to worſhip the living God, the Creator of All, in Spirit, and in Truth. And truly, it was a terrible Day to the Man of Sin in us; for the Judgments of God were revealed againſt him, and we in fear lay under the Judgment, that we might learn Righteouſneſs, and witneſs the Redemption of Sion thereby.

Now, being thus turned to that Light, and Spirit, and Power which judgeth, it wrought effectually in us againſt the Darkneſs and Power of Satan; ſearching, trying, manifeſting, judging the Secrets of our Hearts daily. It tryed all our Knowledge, all our Faith, all our Deſires, all our Thoughts, Words, Wayes, and Worſhips: So that, all things were naked, and open before him, with whom we had to do; and what had gone before, as glorious and taking in our Eyes, was now manifeſted to be loathſome and abominable in the Sight of God. For indeed, the Axe was laid to the Root of the Tree, and every Plant which the Heavenly Father had not planted, was he now plucking up, that they might no longer cumber the Ground; but he might have Room for his own Seeds, and Plants of Holyneſs and Righteouſneſs, which he was ready to ſow in his own Garden.

And ſo, at length, we came to witneſs (abiding the Tryal of this dreadful Day, wherein our God appeared to us as a Conſuming Fire) a New Heaven, and a New Earth inwardly; and no more Sea of Wickedneſs, no more Sea of inward Trouble; but Righteouſneſs, Peace, and Joy inwardly, and our God becoming a rich Portion to us, watching over us in moſt tender Care and Love, and delighting in us to do us good, making known to us the Riches of the Goſpel, even the Feaſt of fat Things; and giving us to partake of the Well or Fountain of Living Waters in our own Hearts, which ſprings up freſhly in us dayly unto Life Eternal. So that, we were not only invited to the Waters, but taught alſo to come thereto: and when we came, we were not ſent away empty, but had the Water of Life given us; which became ſuch a Well, as out of it flow Streams of Living Water. Ah, bleſſed be the Lord! Did we ever think in our dry, dead, barren Eſtate, to have ſeen ſuch a Day as this?

And all this we met with in the way of Self-Denyal, and taking up the Croſs; in denying our own Wiſdom, our own Knowledge, our own Faith, our own Righteouſneſs, and all that we could call our Own; and owning a little Seed of Light and Life Eternal, even the Seed of the Everlaſting Kingdom, which the Shepherd of Iſrael diſcovered to us, and helped us to ſearch after, and taught us how to find; which was endued in a way very deſpiſable, even to the Eye of our own Wiſdom: For thus it was:

We had been long looking out abroad, ſearching very diligently the Scriptures, and other ſerious Books, for great, full, certain, and undoubted Wiſdom and Knowledge: But now, we were directed to turn inwards, (even thither where we thought no Good was to be found) to mind the Appearance of God there, the Spirit of God teſtifying to us, (according to the Scriptures of Truth) that the Kingdom was within; and there we were directed to ſearch for the Leaſt of all Seeds, and to mind the loweſt Appearance thereof; which was its turning againſt Sin and Darkneſs. And ſo by minding and obſerving that in us which turned againſt Sin and Darkneſs, we came by Degrees to find we had met with the pure, living, eternal Spirit; and by obſerving the Movings, Stirrings, Guidings, Directions, and Law thereof, we found e're we were aware, that we had met with the Law of the New-Covenant, the Law of the Spirit of Life, which had Life and Virtue in it, to enable us to do the Holy Will; and then our Hearts rejoyced; being made truly ſenſible, that we had found that, which we had mourned ed after, and longed for all our Dayes. And then we began to ſee our way more clearly, and to wait on our God for his Teachings, and to follow the Lamb, our Leader, with Joy and Comfort. For indeed, this Experience greatly ſettled our Spirits; knowing aſſuredly, that as none but Chriſt could do thoſe Works outwardly, which he did in the Dayes of his Fleſh: So none beneath his Spirit could do theſe Works inwardly, enlighten inwardly, enliven inwardly, bind up and heal inwardly, open the inward Eye, the inward Ear, the cloſed Heart, and looſen the dumb Tongue; ſo as the Touch of his Power, and Virtue of his Life, and holy Preſence among us, hath done very frequently and livingly.

And now, Is this Teſtimony nothing to you, O ye Profeſſors, that we have found him by God's holy Guidance, (or rather have been found by him) whom we could never find in your Wayes and Gatherings? But ſtill, that which God had quickened in us, was there unſatisfyed, weary, panting, and gaſping for want of, and after the Breath of Life.

O, come and ſee, if this be not He indeed! Wait to feel the cloſing of that Eye, which cannot ſee, (which God hath ordained ſhall never ſee) and for his opening the Eye, which is as yet blind in you, (to which he giveth the true Sight) that ye periſh not from the Way of Life, through Miſtakes and Deceits from the Miſts of Darkneſs, which are yet over all, who have not ſeen the Light of God's Day. To the Law, and to the Teſtimony, (to the inward Law, and inward Teſtimony, if ye be inward Jews; for the Law inwardly written, is Light, even the Light of the Living; and the Teſtimony of Jeſus, is the Spirit of Propheſie) for he that knoweth not theſe, nor walketh according to theſe, nor ſpeaketh according to this Word, it is becauſe there is as yet no Morning in him.

O, come to the Morning-Light of the Everlaſting Day! Come to the Son's Light, to the Son's Spirit! Wait for the Dawning of the Day of Righteouſneſs, Love, and Peace, and for the Ariſing of the Day-ſtar. Come, Dye to your own Wiſdom, (it was the Word livingly ſpoken to me, and entred my Soul when it was ſpoken; never departing from me, though I was long in learning it) and know what it is to ſuffer with Chriſt, that ye may alſo reign with Him.

Ah, if that Candle were lighted in you, which ye ſo much reproach and deſpiſe the Light of, ye might ſee, that inſtead of ſuffering with Chriſt, that which is of Chriſt in you (the pure Light, the pure Life of his Spirit) ſuffers by you, and the Worldly ſpirit Lives (ſhall I add, and Reigns) in you, under all your Profeſſions, Knowledge, Faith, Worſhips, Duties, Ordinances, as ye call them, who want the Knowledge of the Everlaſting Ordinance, even of the Spirit and Power of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt; which is the great Ordinance, and Way of the Goſpel! And he that is ſubject to this Ordinance, ſhall be ſaved; but he that miſſeth of This, ſhall periſh; let him ſearch the Scriptures, and practiſe according to what he apprehends there-from, as exactly as he can, without this Spirit and Power.

XIII.

A few Words concerning the Worſhip which Our God hath Taught Us.

OUr Worſhip is a deep Exerciſe of our Spirits before the Lord; which doth not conſiſt in an Exerciſing the Natural Part, or Natural Mind, either to hear or ſpeak words; or in praying according to what we, of our ſelves, can apprehend or comprehend concerning our Needs: But we wait, in ſilence of the fleſhly Part, to hear with the new Ear, what God ſhall pleaſe to ſpeak inwardly in our own Hearts, or outwardly through others, who ſpeak with the new Tongue, which he unlooſeth, and teacheth to ſpeak: And we pray in the Spirit, and with the new Underſtanding, as God pleaſeth to quicken, draw forth, and open our Hearts towards himſelf.

Thus

Thus our Minds being gathered into the Meaſure, or Gift of Grace, which is by Jeſus Chriſt; here we appear before our God; and here our God, and his Chriſt, is witneſſed in the midſt of us.

This is that Gathering in the Name, which the Promiſe is to, where we meet together, waiting with one Conſent on the Father of Life, bowing and confeſſing to Him in the Name of his Son; and that fleſhly Part, that fleſhly Underſtanding, that fleſhly Wiſdom, that fleſhly Will, which will not bow, is chained down, and kept under by the Power of Life, which God ſtretcheth forth over it, and ſubdueth it by. So then, there's the ſweet Communion enjoyed, the ſweet Love flowing, the ſweet Peace of Spirit reaped, which the Father breaths upon, and gives to his Children, the ſweet Joy and Refreſhment in the Lord our Righteouſneſs, who cauſeth Righteouſneſs to drop down from Heaven, and Truth to ſpring up out of the Earth. And ſo our Father is felt bleſſing Us, bleſſing our Land, bleſſing our Habitations, delighting in Us, and over Us to do us Good; and our Land yields its Increaſe to the Lord of Life, who hath redeemed it, and planted the precious Plants and Seeds of Life in it.

The CONCLUSION.

NOw, this ought to be the great Care of every renewed Mind, even to keep out that which is Unclean. The Enemy will be aſſaulting, tempting, caſting into the Mind that which is Unclean: But the pure, chaſt Mind will not entertain or touch it; but with-draw and retire from it into the Place of Safety, into the ſtrong Tower of Defence, from all the Aſſaults and Annoyances of the Enemy. Such the Lord receiveth, ſuch the Lord delighteth in as his dear Children, and in every reſpect carrieth himſelf as a Father to: And this is a precious State truly to enjoy.

Now, bleſſed be the Lord, who hath revealed and beſtowed on his Sons and Daughters, in theſe latter Dayes, that Light of his Holy Spirit, which ſearcheth the moſt inward Parts, diſcovering every thing that is of a contrary Nature to it ſelf, turning and ſeparating the Mind there-from, and bringing the Mind, Heart, Soul, and Spirit under that; which is a Croſs, and Yoke to it, and hath Power from God to crucifie and ſubdue it: that ſo Life and Immortality may be brought to Light, and reign in the Heart; and Death and Uncleanneſs be ſwallowed up in Victory. For this is the Intent of the Goſpel, and of Chriſt's Appearance, even to deſtroy Sin, and bring up the Holy Seed, and eſtabliſh the Law of the New-Covenant, the Law of Love, the Law of Life, Righteouſneſs, and Holyneſs, in which the Renewed ſhould walk before the Lord all their Dayes.

And God forbid, but that the Goſpel of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, (which is the Power of God unto Salvation) ſhould attain its End, and the Will of God be fulfilled; which is the Sanctification of his People in Soul, Body, and Spirit; that they may be wholly leavened with the Leaven of his Kingdom, and become a new Lump to him.

The Lord bring this to paſs in the Hearts of the Children of Men, bringing down all Religions, which have not the true Virtue in them; and propagate and eſtabliſh that Religion more and more, which ſtands in the Evidence, Demonſtration, Vertue, and Power of his own Spirit: that Men may be redeemed out of, and preſerved from Deceit, in Matters of Religion, wherein the Eternal Condition of their Souls is ſo deeply concerned. Amen.

THE END.

A Queſtion Anſwered concerning Reading the Scriptures Aright.

Queſtion,

How may a Man know, whether he Readeth the Scriptures to his Advantage and Benefit? or, Whether he Readeth Them to his Diſadvantage or Hurt?

THat the Holy Scriptures, written by Men inſpired by God's Spirit, were of great Uſe and Benefit to thoſe to whom they were written, (they rightly underſtanding them, and becoming ſubject to the Voice of God's Spirit in thoſe that wrote or ſpoke them) is an undenyable Truth.

And that they were not only written for them, but for others alſo, in future Ages, who alſo may reap Benefit in the Reading of them; this is as manifeſt.

Yet, that Men may ſo Read them, as not to Underſtand them aright, but miſ-apply them to their own Hurt; that is true alſo, and hath been often, and is ſtill evidenc'd by lamentable Experience.

The Jews, the Scribes and Phariſees heard and read the Law and Prophets to their hurt; ſome in a ſpirit of direct Oppoſition to the Truths, and Will of God, held out by the Prophets; others in a Spirit of Miſ-underſtanding.

Thus the Scribes and Phariſees, in Chriſt's Time, ſo read the Words of Moſes, and the Prophets, (who teſtified concerning the Son, and his Coming) as that thereby they became ſtrong, wiſe, and confident, in oppoſing him when he came. They thought they could prove by Scriptures, That This was not, could not be He: He was to be a Glorious King, and to Reſtore Iſrael. This was a mean Man, a Carpenter's Son; and ſo taught, and ſo behaved himſelf, that if Men believed in him, the Romans would thereby be provoked to deſtroy their Place and Nation. He was an Eater, a Drinker, a Friend of Publicans and Sinners, a frequent Breaker of the Sabbath, a Galilean, &c. And ſhall Chriſt come out of Galilee? Search, and Look; for out of Galilee ariſeth no Prophet, Joh. 7. 52. As if they had ſaid, Can this be the Meſſiah, of whom the Scriptures have ſo abundantly propheſied, who cometh out of Galilee; out of which the Scriptures have not propheſied of ſo much as any Prophet to ariſe? Thus they read the Scriptures to their Hurt.

And ſo afterwards, in the Apoſtles Dayes, Men wreſted the words of the Apoſtles, as they did alſo the other Scriptures, to their own Deſtruction.

And ſince, in the Apoſtacy from the Apoſtles Spirit, Life, and Doctrine, and the coming up of many Sects, Heads, and Horns; Which of them have not ſo read the Scriptures, as to confirm themſelves even in thoſe very Doctrines and Practiſes, which are directly contrary to the Doctrines, Practiſes, and Spirit of the Apoſtles?

Yea, ſince God's breaking the Darkneſs of the Night, and cauſing the Light of his Day again to ariſe; How do Men Read and Underſtand Scriptures? Even ſo as to oppoſe this Light, Life, Spirit, and Power, now it is again made manifeſt; thinking and judging its Appearance now (according to their Underſtanding of, and Apprehenſions on the Scriptures) to be as contrary to its Appearance in the Apoſtles Dayes, as the Scribes and Phariſees judged Chriſt's Appearance in their Dayes, to be different from, and contrary to what the Prophets had propheſied concerning the Meſſiah.

Therefore, it is a Matter of very great weight, for a Man to know when he Reads Reads the Scriptures aright, that his Table (whereon he feeds, and by which Food he hopes to live to God, and be accepted with him) become not his ſnare, and ſet him further of from God. For it is as true in this Day, as it was in Chriſt's Day; that Publicans, and Harlots are nearer the Kingdom, than thoſe who are in the Spirit, Wiſdom, and Righteouſneſs of the Scribes and Phariſees; who have a knowledge, a belief, an hope, a zeal, &c. from a miſunderſtanding of the Scriptures: for this is wrong in a myſtery of deceit, which is worſe in its nature, and more dangerous to the perſon in whom it is, and to the Souls of others, than the deceit which is openly manifeſt.

Well then, Is it not worth the diligent enquiry, and waiting upon God to know, What is the right reading of the Scriptures; and whether a Man ſo read them, as is to the benefit and profit of his Soul, or to his loſs and detriment? To come then to the Anſwer, which is as followeth.

Anſw. He that Reads the Scriptures in a true meaſure of Life received from God, he Reads them aright: and when ever he ſo readeth, it is to his benefit. He that readeth out of that, readeth to his Hurt; that being then up in him, which miſunderſtands, miſapplies, and grows conceited, wiſe, and confident, according to the Fleſh: and ſo he is thereby lyable to, and in great danger of ſetting up his Interpretations, inſtead of the meaning of Gods Spirit, and of condemning that which doth not aſſent and agree therewith, though it be never ſo neceſſary, and precious a Truth of God, and never ſo fully demonſtrated by his Spirit, to thoſe who are in the true faith and underſtanding.

The true Birth is meek, tender, gentle, fearing before the Lord, waiting upon him, often crying to him, that it may not be deceived, that a wrong thing get not up in it; that it receive not any thing for Truth, but what he knoweth to be Truth: and when the Lord pleaſeth to give the true Knowledge, that it hold that Knowledge of his Truth in Righteouſneſs, in his Life, in his Will, in his Wiſdom, &c. But the wrong Birth is not ſo, nor is its Courſe thus: but that is ſubtile in ſearching, and forming of things, and holding them in the ſubtilty, and drawing the wrong part in others, to own and acknowledge that, which it repreſents, and holds forth as Truth.

There is a wiſdom in Man, which is againſt God; which wiſdom oppoſeth the the Wiſdom of God two wayes; either in a direct, oppoſite way, or in a ſecret, ſubtle, undermining way. Now no Man can come to God, or truly underſtand, or receive the things of God; but as this wiſdom comes to be confounded and deſtroyed in him, by the Light and Power of God. All its ſtrong Holds, all its ſubtle imaginations, all its reaſonings, and conſultings muſt be daſhed, and brought to nought, before the Truth of God can have full place and power in the Heart. Now in the true diſcovery of this wiſdom to Man, and in his denyal of it, and watching againſt it, and turning to the other; he may wait upon God aright, receive the knowledge of the Heavenly miſteries aright, read the Scriptures aright, come to the true ſenſe, underſtanding, and experience of them: But at any time, ſo far as he is out of this, he is liable to the ſnare, to the miſunderſtanding of Scriptures, and to the Fleſhly confidence that ariſeth thereupon. So that, having taken up a miſunderſtanding of a Scripture, or ſome Scriptures; he will even boldly venture to ſpeak evil of the heavenly, and ſpiritual dignities, which are of God, and the holy Truths which are held forth by his holy Miniſters: againſt the Prophets in their day, againſt Chriſt and his Apoſtles in their day, againſt the Witneſſes in the times of the Apoſtacy, and againſt the Angel (learn who that is) that is to Preach the everlaſting Goſpel again, after the Apoſtacy. Ah, How doth this wiſdom deſtroy and entangle; and how hath it deſtroyed and entangled many at this day, who think they are greatly for God in thoſe things and practiſes, wherein they are directly againſt him; and that they only oppoſe errour, and a wrong ſpirit, when they are oppoſing his Truth, and his holy Spirit! And it is impoſſible it ſhould be otherwiſe, while they judg and act from that which is wrong, and in that which is wrong. Now mark;

The ſpirit, the truth, the life, the ſubſtance is God's for ever: the unclean

Spirit cannot enter into it, the unclean Womb cannot conceive of it, nor bring it forth: but the letter, the ſhell, the outward figure, the outward relations, and deſcriptions of things, the other ſpirit, wiſdom, and nature in Man may read, gueſs at, transform, receive, believe, and build up with according to the Fleſh. And here is the foundation, and riſe of Anti-Chriſt and Babylon, among them who raiſe up a building, a knowledge, a faith, an hope, a Church, a worſhip, duties, ordinances, juſtification, ſanctification, &c. in imitation of Sion. But they are not the thing it ſelf, but falſe repreſentations of the thing; either ſuch as were invented by Man, or ſuch as were once appointed, and made uſe of by the Spirit of the Lord. For there is little difference between inventing a new thing, and making uſe of an old thing, which once was of God, but is now underſtood, obſerved, and practiſed out of the ſenſe, light, and guidance of his Spirit, in another Spirit, and according to another Wiſdom. Now this is not the right way of reformation, to wit, to return to outward (litteral) things, which were practiſed by the Jews in their day, or by the former Chriſtians in their day: but to return to the Spirit that they were in, and to feel (in the true life and leadings thereof) what it teacheth and requireth, to be obſerved and practiſed now. For there are things, whoſe value is not in themſelves, but in Gods requiring of them; which the wrong ſpirit may get into, and the Lord may draw his People out of them (as he did out of the outward Court, into the inward Building or Temple, by his Light and Spirit within, when he gave the outward Court to the Gentiles, Rev. 11. 1, 8.) And he that is found in thoſe things, after God hath given them to the Gentiles, and drew his People out of them; is not therein owned or accepted of God, though God may bear with him in the time of his ignorance: yet if he abide in them, after the riſing of Light, and its Teſtimony, the Lord will not ſo bear with him; but will condemn him, and deal with him as a Tranſgreſſor of that Covenant, wherein Life and Peace with him is witneſſed.

Therefore, in all things that concern God, whether in Reading the Scriptures, Praying, or obſerving any thing ye call Duties and Ordinances; O that ye would approve your ſelves Chriſtians indeed, waiting to know your Guide and Leader, and the true Limits which are ſet by God; that ye may ſerve him in the true Faith, Spirit, and Underſtanding, even in that which God knoweth to be ſo, and not in that which ye may falſly account ſo! For mark: If ye be Chriſtians, Are ye not in Chriſt, and, Is not Chriſt in you? And, Are ye not to feel his Life, and the Guidance of his Spirit, ſo as ye may live in the Spirit, and walk in the Spirit, read in the Spirit, pray alwayes in the Spirit, believe in the Spirit, worſhip in the Spirit, and in the Holy Underſtanding of his Truth, which is of him?

He that would be right in Religion, muſt have a right Beginning. How is that? He muſt begin in the Spirit: His Knowledge, his Faith, his Hope, his Peace, his Joy, his Righteouſneſs, his Holyneſs, his Worſhip, &c. muſt begin there. He muſt come out of his own Spirit, his own Wiſdom, the Counſels and Thoughts of his own Heart; and wait on Him, who beginneth the Work of Regeneration, and Life in the Heart.

And he muſt afterwards diligently watch againſt that Spirit and Wiſdom, from which the Lord hath led him, that it at no time again enter him; for it will be ſtriving to lead him out of the way, with Likeneſſes, and falſe Images of things, with Knowledge falſly ſo called, with a Faith which is not truly of God, nor of the ſame Nature with that which he firſt felt; with falſe Hopes, falſe Fears, falſe Joyes, a falſe Righteouſneſs and Holyneſs, which are not Chriſt's, nor according to the Scriptures; but only ſuch as he apprehends to be ſo. For a Man, who once taſted the Truth, and in ſome meaſure judged aright, may afterwards erre in his Palate and Judgment; and then take the Wrong for the True, not keeping to that, nor being now in that, which formerly gave him the true Reliſh.

Now, he that would meet with the true Religion, the Religion of the Goſpel, muſt meet with the Power, receive the Power, believe, dwell, and act in the Power. For Chriſt was made a King, Prieſt, and Prophet, not after the Law of a Carnal Commandment, but after the Power of an Endleſs Life: And his Covenant is not like the Old, in Word or Letter; but in the ſame Power and Life, wherein the Prieſt was made, and Miniſters.

So

So the knowledge here, the Faith here, the Hope here, &c. are not litteral but living. He that receiveth this Knowledge, receiveth living Knowledge. This Faith gives Victory over unbelief; and over that Spirit whoſe ſtrength lies in Unbelief. This Hope purifies the heart even as he is pure. And he that receiveth the Righteouſneſs of this Covenant, receiveth a living Garment, which hath power in it over Death and Unrighteouſneſs. The beginning of this Religion, of this Power and Holy inward Covenant is ſweet: but the pure progreſs and going on of much more pleaſant, as the Lord gives to feel the growth and ſweet living freſhneſs of it; Notwithſtanding the Temptations, Fears, Troubles, Trials, Oppoſitions and great Dangers, both within and without, which the Life (which was at firſt turned to) being ſtill kept to, by the Power which is from it, and through the Faith which is in it, in its own ſeaſons and way of its own Wiſdom overcomes, giving the ſoul that is diligent and faithful to witneſs, that all its ways are pleaſantneſs, and its Paths Peace: Yea, the very Yoke is eaſy and the Burden light, when the mind and will is changed by the Power, and helped and aſſiſted by the Lord in its ſubjection to the power.

So the Lord God of tender Mercies, (who pitieth the Miſerable and Erring out of the Way, eſpecially thoſe in whom he hath begot Deſires after himſelf) remove the Stumbling-Blocks, and lead the wandering Jews (who are entangled in their own Thoughts and Reaſonings about the Letter) into that which is of himſelf in them, which is Spirit and Life, and was before the Letter, and excels the Letter (with its Diſpenſation) in Glory; and is to remain (after the Letter) the Reſt, Joy, Life, Peace, and Portion of the Soul for ever and ever. So honour the Letter, in believing its Teſtimony concerning Chriſt, who is the Shepherd, (to whom the Sheep are to be gathered) the Way, the Truth, the Life it ſelf, to whom the Soul is to come, and on whom the Soul is to wait for Life; and having received Life from him, to dwell, abide, and grow up into him, who is the Life; and not go backward into any thing that is litteral, or without Life, nor to glory in the Knowledge, or litteral Deſcriptions of things; but forward into the ſpiritual, heavenly Diſpenſation of Life and Power. The Law was Letter, the Goſpel is Life and Power: The Law was a ſhadow of good Things to come; but the Goſpel is the Subſtance, the Life, the Virtue, the Spirit of what the Law ſhadowed out. From hence the Chriſtian is to ſpring: The Jeruſalem from Above is to be its Mother, the Holy Spirit its Begetter. And becauſe here the ſtate of true Sonſhip is witneſſed, therefore God pours out the ſpirit of his Son upon theſe: And then the Spirit being received, which is above the Letter, a Life is to be felt and lived in beyond Words; even that which the Good Words lead to, and end in.

And here the truth, ſweetneſs, and fullneſs of Words is known, felt, and witneſſed, even in that which comprehends them, and gives them their due Weight and Meaſure. Nor can any poſſibly underſtand the words of the ſpirit, but he that is in the ſpirit; and then he knows the Place of the Words, which came from the ſpirit, and of the ſpirit from whom the Words came. And this is precious; but not to be witneſſed by the wiſe Diſputer, but by the ſerious Traveller; who firſt is broken and daſhed to pieces in his own VViſdom; and then afterwards healed, led, and guided by the Eternal ſpirit of Wiſdom, which is the ſure and unerring Guide.

The Spirit of God knoweth the things of God, and the ſtates of Perſons, and what is proper or improper for them: He knew what was proper for the Jews under the Law and Prophets, what was proper for them in Egypt, what in the Wilderneſs, what in Canaan, and what in their ſeveral Diſperſions and Captivities) for the Diſciples, in the Dayes of Chriſt's Appearance in Fleſh, for the Churches in the Dayes of the Apoſtles, for the Witneſſes and Mourners in the times of the Apoſtacy, and for thoſe who by his Power are raiſed up, and delivered out of the Apoſtacy.

And the Spirit of the Lord doth not only know the ſtate thus in general, but likewiſe every Souls particular State, and how to apply things to its ſtate. There are ſome newly quickned, newly come out of the Darkneſs. There are ſeveral ſtates and degrees of Growth: there is a tempted ſtate, a wandering ſtate, a back ſliding ſtate, ſtate, a ſhaken ſtate, an eſtabliſh't ſtate, &c. Now, there is ſomewhat proper to every one according to his ſtate, which the ſpirit of the Lord knows; and thoſe who are called out by him, to miniſter in his Name and Power, know alſo, as his ſpirit pleaſeth to teach them, and make manifeſt to them. All Truths are not proper to every ſtate, nor all Remedies to every diſeaſe. Chriſt had many things to teach and ſay to his Diſciples, which they were not able to bear: And a Man in Reading the Scriptures, though he ſhould underſtand the Truth of what he reads; yet he is apt to miſ-apply things, as to himſelf or others, unleſs the Lord guide and help him. He is apt to apply that to him, which belongs not to him; and thruſt that from him, which belongs to him.

Thus may a Man eaſily err and wander, from Error to Error, and toyl and wear out himſelf in his ſeveral Apprehenſions, Wayes and Practiſes, (thinking he doth as he ought, and as God requires of him, according to the Scriptures) and yet his Mind be from that, and his Underſtanding out of that, which opens the Scriptures aright, and gives the Right Uſe of them.

Therefore, wait on the Lord, to feel Quickenings from him, through a Meaſure of his Life revealed, and the Minds gathered into, and purged thereby; and then wait for the ſpirit's Appearing to thee, in this meaſure; further quickening, purifying, guiding thee, and manifeſting his truth therein to thee, according as he ſees thy Need, Eſtate, and Condition to require.

And thus thou wilt be like a Chi'd, living not upon a Wiſdom of thy own, but upon thy Father's Wiſdom, and not gathering a Knowledge according to thy own Will, and into thy own Comprehenſion; but receiving it as a gift daily from the Hands of the Father, and ſo thou ſhalt alwayes have it freſh and living, and ſafe for thy Uſe; whereas that, whil'ſt thou keepeſt in thy Comprehenſion, and canſt run to when thou liſts, and make uſe of as thou liſts, putrifies and yields but Corrupt Nouriſhment, feeding not the Living, but the Dead in thee: And ſo thy very Knowledge corrupts thy Mind, and brings it into Death; and thou haſt only ſuch a Knowledge, as may be held in the dead part, and ſo liveſt and walkeſt as Man may live and walk, without the pure Life and Preſence of God.

So, this is the Anſwer, which was in my Heart, (and indeed ſprang up in me, as the Queſtion was laid before me in ſpirit.) In the true Meaſure of Life, which is from God, and one with Him, the Scriptures are rightly Read and Underſtood, in the Will of God, by him that doth it, in the Holy Underſtanding which comes from Him: Not in a Man's own Will, or Underſtanding; for he cannot underſtand what Scriptures he will, or when he will, or as he will; but he muſt wait on him, who hath the Key, who underſtandeth what is fit and proper for him, to know, or not to know; and ſo openeth or ſhutteth in his Eternal Pleaſure, and according to his Eternal Wiſdom: And what he openeth to thee, that is proper for thee to know; and what he ſhutteth from thee, that is proper for thee (as yet) not to know; but to wait the Times and Seaſons of Things, which are in the Father's Hand: And ſo, what the Lord reveals not to thee, that is yet a Secret with him, as to thee; but what he reveals to thee, that is thine in his Fear and Counſel to feed on, and make uſe of.

So here, in the gathering of Life, in the Holy Building, there is a Holy Order and Wiſdom, from the moſt High, wherein every one waites on the Maſter, on the Lord, on the Shepherd, on the Father of Spirits, and receives from his hand, what is proper to his ſtate. And ſo all hold the head, and live by the life, vertue and teaching that comes from the head, and there is one God who is over all, and one Chriſt in whom all are, and one Spirit of Life in which all are Baptized and Joyned together. And every one as he ſprings from this Life, and feels the Union, Vertue and Fellowſhip thereof, ſo abiding here, he is in his Place, and Service, beloved of the Lord and Father of all, and felt by the Life in all, in the Unity of the Body; and ſo cheriſhed and helped forward in the Love and Spirit, wherein the Body is knit to the Head: Yea, whatever his State be, (whether a State of Mourning or Temptation, or deep Diſtreſs; or a State of Joy, Rejoycing, and Peace) yet abiding and waiting on the Lord, he is felt, received, owned, and dearly beloved in the Lord.

I. P.

A few Words to ſuch as Complain for want of Power.

BE ſure ye Receive Chriſt; for he is the ſame that ever he was. To as many as Receive him, to them gave he Power (not only to ſtand againſt Sin, but) to become the Sons of God; He did ſo formerly, and he doth ſo ſtill. And they that are true Jews, born after the Spirit, truly Circumciſed, and are indeed come to Mount Sion, and the Heavenly Jeruſalem inwardly; who feed on God's Holy Mountain, and dwell in his Holy City, in the Building that is from Above, for the Birth which is from Above: There is no complaining in the Streets of this City; but what God requireth, is performed; and what God promiſeth to His, is enjoyed there; according to the ſeveral States and Conditions of each, and according to the Ability, which is given in the New-Covenant, where God fulfilleth the good Pleaſure of his Goodneſs, and the Work of Faith with Power, in the Hearts of his daily, everlaſting Praiſes, and Honour to his Name.

O the precious Name of JESUS, in which the Spirits of the Redeemed meet, in which Name is Power; and He who is the Arm and Power of God, is in the midſt of them!

They who receive Him who is the Power, who is a Spiritual Vine and Olive-Tree to all His, who yields dayly of the living Sap, and Vertue to them, (wherein there is Power:) How can they want Power? or, How can they but praiſe the Lord, who dayly miniſters unto them of the Power of the Endleſs Life? When the Holy Life and Power ſprings, and is felt, Praiſes to the Lord cannot but ſpring with it.

So that, it concerns all People ſeriouſly to conſider, whether the Reaſon why they have not Power, be not becauſe they do not Receive Chriſt, who hath all Power in Heaven and Earth, given to Him; for many talk of Chriſt, but few come to Him in the Father's Drawings, ſo will not Receive Him; like the Jews, who waited for his Appearance, and yet Rejected Him when He came.

ISAAC PENINGTON.

The END.

Somewhat Relating to Church-Government,

Wherein the

Neceſſity, Uſefulneſs, and Bleſſed Effects of the True Church-Government, is here and there hinted at; and This clearly manifeſted,

That the Authority and Power of Chriſt's Spirit in his Church, is no Uſurped or Anti-chriſtian Authority, nor contrary to the True Light and Liberty of any Particular Member; but a Cheriſher and Preſerver of it.

AS ALSO

REMARKS upon ſome Paſſages in a late Book, Entituled, Anti-chriſt's Transformations within, diſcovered by the Light within.

Wherein the Anti-chriſtian Transformer is made manifeſt, and the Light within cleared from his falſe Imputations and Pretences to it.

Written in Obedience to Him that is True, who hath given a certain Teſtimony againſt him that is Falſe, to very many in this his Day; and among others, to Me alſo, whom he hath pleaſed to gather and own among his Children, and Servants in Truth, Iſaac Penington.

For God is not the Author of Confuſion, but of Peace, as in all Churches of the Saints, 1 Cor. 14. 33.

For, What have I to do, to Judge them alſo that are Without? Do not ye Judge them that are Within? 1 Cor. 5. 12.

The Government ſhall be upon his Shoulder, &c. Of the Increaſe of his Government and Peace, no end, &c. Iſa. 9. 6, 7.

Wo unto the World, becauſe of Offences; for it muſt needs be, that Offences come: But Wo to that Man, by whom the Offence cometh! Matth. 18. 7.

For there muſt be alſo Hereſies among you; that they which are approved, may be made manifeſt among you, 1 Cor. 11. 19.

Alſo, of your own ſelves ſhall Men ariſe, ſpeaking perverſe Things, to draw away Diſciples after them, Act. 20. 30.

For not he that Commendeth himſelf, is approved; but whom the Lord Commendeth, 2 Cor. 10. 18.

The PREFACE.

IT hath pleaſed God, in theſe our Dayes, to cauſe his true Light to ſhine forth out of Darkneſs, O everlaſtingly Bleſſed be his Name! He hath laid the Foundation of Life in many Hearts, and gathered his once deſolate People into Families and Churches, and hath been with them, and is with them, dwelling among them, preſerving them, building up Sion more and more, and cauſing his Glory more and more to appear therein. The Living

Living God hath made us a living People, and honoureth us with his living preſence, and with the daily Manifeſtations of his pure Power, Oh Glory, Glory is ſounded to him, in his own ſpringing life, in the hearts of his Children, day by day.

But the Enemy of God and his appearance, hath wrought againſt his Power and Work, many wayes, and hath endeavoured to ſtop the gathering to the Light and the building up, not only by outward force, but alſo by all the devices and Myſterious workings he could invent. But bleſſed be the Lord, who hath appeared againſt them all, and preſerved his remnant from them all, though ſome that have not watched and lain low, but being ſoaring high, in that part where the ſnare is laid and takes, have ſtumbled and fallen. Yet truth ſtands, and the gathering in the truth ſtands; and the Life which God hath raiſed, and to which he hath given Dominion reigns, and much is ſubdued, and the Lord is going on to ſubdue more and more under it daily, in the hearts of ſuch as ſenſibly and Livingly, and not notionally and in a dead formal way, wait upon him and worſhip him.

Now, the ſoreſt and moſt miſchievous way of oppoſing Truth, is by pretending to it. Who could more advantageouſly or readily betray Chriſt, than an Apoſtle of Chriſt? And who can be fitter to undermine the Light, than he who in words cries it up; and yet is ſeparted from it, and ſecretly fights againſt it, and would bring forth, propagate and ſet up an hideous, monſtrous, comprehenſive kind of Knowledg (which is contrary to it, and cannot conſiſt with it) in the Name of it?

Ah, that this perſon, who now appears againſt the Truth, and the Church and Miniſtry which is in and of the Truth, were but what he pretends to be! For then I ſhould gladly have received his Teſtimony, and not have been thus neceſſitated to appear againſt his Spirit, and the dark work and Teſtimonies thereof. He ſaith, there are two Chriſts, both the true Chriſt and Antichriſt. I confeſs his work comes from one of them, even Anti-chriſt, who would deſtroy Chriſt's Work, Kingdom, and Building, and the Miniſtry which he makes uſe of, both to plant, water, and build up: But not from that Chriſt who hath gathered a Church to himſelf, and is with the Church which he hath gathered, and bleſſeth the Church which he hath gathered, and owneth them in their Aſſemblings, and in their Miniſtring: Which Owning and Teſtimony will ſtand; when the Diſowning, and falſe Teſtimonies of all theſe falſe Apoſtate Spirits will fall, and end in their own Sorrow and Miſery.

What I have here written, I have written in an holy Conſtraint, in the opening and feeling Life of Truth, with true Love to Souls; yea, even of this very Perſon, who is erred ſo exceedingly from the Holy Light and Spirit, and its Holy Teſtimony, and would fain exalt his critical Conceits and Notions, above the plain Teſtimony and Evidence of Truth, in the Hearts of God's Choſen Ones.

The Lord bring down the Kingdom of Darkneſs, and exalt his own Kingdom in the Hearts of the Children of Men more and more; and add to his Church, and keep them in that which will never ſuffer them to depart from it; or to teſtify againſt the Life, and Power, and Preſence of the Lord, manifeſted, dwelling, and ruling in it. Amen.

REMARKS upon ſome Paſſages in a late Book, Entituled, Anti-chriſt's Transformations Within, &c.

THE firſt thing that I ſhall obſerve, is, That he doth deny, that Man hath any Rule, Power, Dominion, Government, or Authority, either given or committed to him from the Lord; as pertaining to the Conſcience, in things relating to the Worſhip of God.

Remark, God ſent Chriſt into the World, and he gave him Power and Authority in his Name to do whatever he required of him. And Chriſt ſends his Servants and Miniſters into the World, as Sheep among Wolves, and he gives them Power and Authority to do what ever he requires of them, and which he expects from them, and would have done by them. And their work relates to the Conſcience and to the Worſhip of God; and their Power and Authority extends thither, where their work lies. They are Embaſſadours of Chriſt, and they have Power and Authority in Chriſts ſtead to beſeech men to be reconciled to God. For as Chriſt came in his Fathers name, to fulfil the work which the Father gave him to do: ſo they come in Chriſts name, to fulfil the work which he gives them to do. They have Power to feed the Flock, they have Power to watch over them, they have power to build up in that which is good, and they have Power and Authority to teſtify againſt and hammer down that which is evil; they have power to reprove, they have Power and Authority to viſit with a Spirit of Meekneſs, and Power to come with Gods Rod, yea with his Sword, and to ſmite that with it which riſeth up againſt the Truth, againſt the Life, againſt the Spirit, againſt the holy way and work of the Lord, and holy Order and Government of his Truth and Spirit.

That Chriſt hath ſent forth his Servants, his Miniſters, his Embaſſadours, about things relating to the Conſcience, is ſo manifeſt, that it cannot be denied, but that he hath ſent them forth with Power and Authority in things pertaining to the Conſcience, relating to the worſhip of God; That this man denies; but all that have received the Truth, hold the Truth, and keep the Truth, cannot but acknowledge it.

Now the reaſon he gives, why he denies Man any Rule, Power, Dominion, Government or Authority, either given or Committed to him from the Lord, as pertaining to the conſcience, in things relating to the Worſhip of God, is becauſe it belongeth to Chriſt the Light, the inviſible Power which dwells in men and Women, &c.

Rem. All Power in Heaven and earth was given to Chriſt, and belongs to him: that is freely granted. But the queſtion is, whether he hath not given of this Power to his Children, and his Servants and Miniſters, as his Father gave of it unto him? Doth not he give Power to as many as believe in his Name, to become Sons of God? Did not he make his Apoſtles able Miniſters of the New Covenant, in the Spirit and Power which he gave them? All Power is given me in Heaven and in Earth, ſaid Chriſt, Matth. 28. 18. Go ye therefore and teach all Nations, &c. v. 19. But wait at Jeruſalem for the Power firſt, Act. 1. 8. So when the Power came upon them, it led them forth in their work, and they had Power to gather, and Power to build up, and Power to govern and watch over the Flock of God, over which the Holy-Ghoſt had made them Overſeers, Act. 20. 28. And Paul ſpeaks of the Power the Lord had given him to uſe ſharpneſs, even againſt thoſe in that Church of Corinth, who would not be ſubject to him in that which he had received from the Lord, 2 Cor. 13. 10. But this Power was to Edification, but not to Deſtruction. For though he had Power from Chriſt the Lord, and did by that Spirit and in that Power deliver Hymeneus and Alexander unto Satan; yet it was not that they ſhould be deſtroyed by the Devil, but by feeling themſelves out of the Truth, and under the Dominion of a wrong Spirit, they might come to true ſenſe and underſtanding, and learn not to blaſpheme the Truth, nor the dignities whom God hath made honourable in the Truth, 1 Tim. 1. 20. And not the Apoſtle only, but the Church of Corinth had a ſhare in the ſame Power; and therefore the Apoſtle, knowing what was given and committed to them, exhorts them, that in the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, when they were gathered together, and his Spirit with the Power of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, to deliver ſuch an one to Satan. But this was not for Deſtruction, to deſtroy the Soul; but to bring it back into a ſtate of Edification and Salvation, which now, by departing from the Truth, it was gone from. It was indeed for the Deſtruction of the Fleſh, but not of the Spirit; but that the Spirit might be ſaved in the day of the Lord Jeſus, 1 Cor. 5. 4, 5.

Secondly,

Secondly, The next thing I shall observe is this, he saith, There is no Glory to be given to man, although he be born of the Light.

Rem. That Glory and Honour is to be given to Man, which God gives to Man, who hath said, Them that Honour me, I will Honour; and they that Despise me, shall be lightly esteemed, 1 Sam. 2. 30. He that brings his Deeds to the Light, they being Justified and approved there, he hath Honour in the Light. His deeds being made manifest that they are wrought in God, that is Honour enough for him, John 3. 21. The Children of Light seek for Glory, and Honour, and Immortality, and Eternal Life; and that Glory and Honour they have, and Eternal Life from God, Rom. 2. 7. They seek not the Honour that is from Men, but the Honour that cometh from God only, John 5. 44. the Honour in the Truth, in the Life, in the Power, which God gives them in the hearts of all that are truly sensible and living. For Honouring the Lord and his Truth, how can I but Honour those that are Honourable in his eye, and who are Glorious in his Truth? For indeed the Children of Light, the tender, the humble, the contrite and broken-hearted ones are Glorious in his eye; and the Lord doth exalt them in due time: for after the true Humility, and in the true Humility, they come to partake of the true Honour, 1 Pet. 5. 5, 6. And so every true Jew, every true Servant, every Faithful Steward, every true Minister, that is faithful in the use of his Gift and Talent, hath praise of God, Rom. 2. 29. & they that are of God, honour those whom God honours, glorifying the Lord for them and honouring them in the Lord, 2 Cor. 8. 18. O how could this man say, there is no Glory to be given to man, though he be born of the Light, whenas the Kings Daughter is all glorious within, and man in that Birth is nothing but Glorious in the eye of the Lord. Man, having sinned, fell short of the Glory of God: but coming out of sin, cometh into the Glory again, and is daily more and more changed into the Glorious Image of the Son, from Glory to Glory, &c. 2 Cor. 3. 18. The aim of God is to bring many Sons to Glory, Heb. 2. 10. and as they come out of Darkness and Sin, into Light and Holiness, they come into the Glory, and are in the Glory. Is it not their Glory, in the Lord and in his Light, to be owned and acknowledged by them that are one with them in the same light? They who love God and Honour God, cannot but love them and honour them who are begotten by him and who are in an especial manner made use of by him in his service, for the Good of souls, and for the preservation and building up of the Church. The Apostle speaks of double Honour to be given to the Elders that Rule well, especially they who labour in the Word and Doctrine, and would (from the Spirit of God) have them counted worthy of it, 1 Tim. 5. 17. How far is this man from the Apostles mind, who would have no glory given to any man, no not to the Children of Light, nor Ministers in the Light, who in the Apostles daies were the Glory of Christ? 2 Cor. 8. 23. Yea the just that live by Faith in Christ, and are gathered by him out of Satans Kingdom, into his spiritual Kingdom, and walk in the Light, as God is in the Light; there Light doth shine in them, and they do shine as the Sun in the Firmament, and they that are honoured by the Lord to turn many to Righteousness, do shine as Stars: and though one Star differs from another in glory; yet all that come into the true Nature and Heavenly Image of the Son, do come into a measure of the true glory; and have some of the glory given them, which God gave Christ; and in that are glorious, partaking of his Spirit, Kingdom, Power and Holy Dominion over Sin and Satan, all which is truly glorious, Joh. 17. 22.

Thirdly, The third thing I shall observe is this, he saith, All is to be given to Christ the light in man, unto whom alone it doth belong, who is the true Minister, and hath power in himself to teach all the Sons and Daughters of Men, &c.

Rem. That Christ is the true Minister, that is not denied: but doth not Christ, who is the true Minister in the Power of the endless life, send forth Disciples and Embassadours in the same power, and make them through his Spirit and Power able Miniſters of the New Teſtament? and they that hear them, do they not hear Chriſt? and they that deſpiſe or deny them, do they not deſpiſe or deny Chriſt? And doth not Chriſt ſay to the ſeventy Diſciples, He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that deſpiſeth you, deſpiſeth me: and he that deſpiſeth me, deſpiſeth him that ſent me? Luk. 10. 16. It is Antichriſt that ſo vainly pretends to ſet up Chriſt, or his Light, or *S*pirit or Power; as to deny thoſe that are ſent of him, and Miniſter in his name. As man is in the fall, he is corrupt, and his works are out of God, and he is there to be denied, ceaſed from and not accounted of: but in the reſtoration, in union and fellowſhip with the *L*ord he is a worker together with God, and is there to be owned, and hath a ſhare in Miniſtring out of the heavenly treaſure that dwells in him. *S*o Chriſt was the great Miniſter, who had the fulnes; and they that have gifts from him for the Work of the Miniſtry, and who Miniſter in and from the gift, and in that are able and faithful, are eſteemed and accounted as Miniſters by him. *S*o ſaith the Apoſtle, As every man hath received the gift, even ſo Miniſter the ſame one to another; as good ſtewards of the manifold graces of God. If any Man ſpeak, let him ſpeak as the Oracles of God; If any Man Miniſter, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jeſus Chriſt, to whom be Praiſe and Dominion for ever and ever, Amen; 1 Pet. 4. 10, 11. And Paul ſaith he was made a Miniſter of the Goſpel, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto him, by the effectual working of his Power, Epheſ. 3. 7. Now the gift is given, not to thoſe that are wiſe after the fleſh (unleſs that wiſdom be firſt broken:) but to ſuch as are Mean, Poor, Weak, Low, or ſome way or other contemptible in the eye of mans Wiſdom, and eaſy to be diſregarded and deſpiſed by men. Yet it is hard to deſpiſe the man whom God ſends, without deſpiſing his gift in them; and the gift cannot be deſpiſed or rejected, without deſpiſing or rejecting him that gave it, as the Apoſtle told the Church of the Theſſalonians, he that deſpiſed or rejected, deſpiſed or rejected not man, but God (who gives his holy *S*pirit to them whom he ſends forth to Miniſter in his Name) 1 Theſ. 4. 8. He had been beſeeching and exhorting the Brethren, by the Lord Jeſus Chriſt that as they had received of them, how they ought to walk, and to pleaſe God; ſo they would abound more and more. For ye know, ſaid he, what Commandments we gave you by the Lord Jeſus Chriſt. Mark, the Apoſtle did not only turn them to the word of Life and Power in themſelves; but did give them Commandments from the word of life in him, and they received of them whom Chriſt ſet forth, how they ought to walk, &c. v. 1. 2. And life hath not loſt any of its Authority; but the power may teach and command others, through any veſſel when it pleaſeth: and they that are the true ſheep, know the voice of the true Shepherd, ſpeaking either in their own hearts, or through any other Inſtrument unto them. And the voice of Wiſdom in any, is in every age ſtill heard and juſtified of her Children; and he that is of God, heareth his voice, in thoſe whom he ſends in this age, as well as in former ages: and he that is not of God, heareth not his voice: and hereby the *S*pirit of Truth and Spirit of Errour is known in this, as well as in former ages, 1 Joh. 4. 6.

Fourthly, The Fourth Paſſage I ſhall take notice of, are theſe words, wherefore ſaith he, whoſoever doth Exalt, Chriſt the Light, who is the true Miniſter, before themſelves, by Chriſt the Light within ſhall thoſe be Exalted.

Rem. This is very different from what went before: for before he denied all Glory and Exaltation at all to man, although he be born of the Light. Here he ſpeaks of Exalting Chriſt, the true Miniſter, before themſelves, which doubtleſs every true Miniſter and every Child of Light cannot but do: and herein he confeſſeth they ſhall be Exalted by Chriſt the Light. Then *G*lory is given to them, and he that ſees them thus Exalted by the Light, cannot but eſteem as ſo Honoured and Exalted by Chriſt, and give them that Glory which Chriſt hath given them. And happy would it be with this man, could he ſee the true Church, which God hath brought out of the Wilderneſs, and beautified, and Glorioufly built up to a great height; and the Elders and Miniſters whom he preſerveth, and is with, and makes uſe of in his ſervice, and give them in his heart the Honour and Glory which God hath Glorified them with. But that he cannot do, till he come out of Babylon, and out of that dark and confuſed Spirit, wherein he wrote theſe things, into that Light and Holy Spirit of truth, which diſcovers what they are (to thoſe that are in the Truth) and condemns the Ground and Root out of which they ſprang.

is

Fifthly, The next thing to be obſerved by me is this, He layeth it down, as his judgment, Faith and Belief, that whatever is written to the Churches, ought to be written from God's infallible Spirit, and the word of Eternal Life; wherein I am one with him: for what good can any thing do the Living, but what comes from Life, and from God's infallible Spirit, which alone is able rightly to exhort, adviſe, admoniſh, warn and build up the Spiritual? But his inference thereupon, is that which is before me to take notice of. Wherefore, ſaith he, your paper to the Churches, is not to be owned by the Churches, in as much as it was written from a ſight, or a ſenſe, and from the ſenſible part, and not in and from the Spirit of Revelation.

Rem. God hath, in his holy Church and Living People, opened the eye that was once blind, and daily anointeth that eye, giving a true ſight, and in the ſpringings of Life giveth a true ſenſe; and that which giveth this, is the Spirit of Revelation: and what is writ in this Sight and Senſe, is writ from the Spirit of Revelation. And the called People of the Lord wait upon the Lord, that they may be kept in this Sight, Senſe, and Spirit, in what they do not at all times; but more eſpecially, when they conſider of things relating to the Churches, even to the welfare, holy order and peace thereof; that God's Spirit may have its ſcope every where, and nothing elſe have place in the Churches of Chriſt. And though every one be not an eye and ear-witneſs, of what is to be conſidered of for the good of the Churches; yet every one waits to feel things in the openings, ſpringing Life, and in that to ſpeak, conſider or write. I have often ſeen the carriage of things after this manner, to the joy of my heart, and cauſing of my ſoul Livingly to bleſs the Lord for it; and therefore may I, yea ought I now thus to ſpeak; this teſtimony, which the Lord hath livingly given me, being at this time required of me. O that men knew the ſeriouſneſs and ſolemnity of our Spirits before the Lord, in our conſidering things relating to his Church; and how we retire out of mans wiſdom (affectionate part and comprehending part, as he ſpeaks) to feel the ſpringing Life, and God's holy guidance there? and how the Lord doth ſatisfy and bleſs us with it: ſo that we can ſay, in truth and uprightneſs of heart, not we (as men) of our ſelves do things on truths account; but he on whoſe ſhoulders God hath laid the Government, rules and reigns among us; and things are ordered by his Counſel and wiſdom, to his praiſe. And the peace and comfort of God's Spirit, remaines with us, in the midſt of all the reproaches and oppoſitions we met with, from that Evil Spirit which envieth and oppoſeth us many wayes. This one word more is with me, as to this particular, God hath given believers, his Church, ſenſes exerciſed to diſcern both good and evil: and thoſe ſenſes are not without the true Life and Spirit, and every motion and action of them is in that Life, and in that Spirit.

And whereas he further ſaith, Whatſoever is written, declared, or given forth in the ſight, or in the ſenſe or from the ſenſible part, it is not to be owned: for the ſenſible part is that which hath been in the tranſgreſſion with the Woman, &c.

Rem, Herein he is greatly miſtaken: for friends in truth do not ſpeak, or write, or admoniſh, or reprove, or give warning from that part; but from the Sight and Senſe which God gives to his own Birth: and it is the Spirit of God that gives both the Sight and Senſe, and ſpeaks through them; and thoſe whoſe ears are Circumciſed and opened, know the voice, and give Glory to God, and are obedient to his Spirit, when it gives advice and warning through any; which thoſe that are in the comprehending part, and conſider and judg in that, cannot have the ſenſe of.

Sixthly,

Sixthly, He ſaith, Antichriſt will bring a Vail over the underſtanding of Men and Women, and yet they for the preſent cannot perceive it.

Rem. This is very true, I would he and others, who are Vailed by Antichriſt, did ſee it; for then he would not eſteem thoſe Vailed, whom the Lord hath unvailed, nor attribute theſe ſayings of his, and this his book, to the Light within, which thoſe whom the Lord hath unvailed and keepeth unvailed, in his pure Spirit and quickening Life, know to have come from the darkneſs within, and not from the true Light: but the true eye, in the truly Living, ſees through it, and hath no union with it; but returns it back thither, from whence it came. O how deeply doth Antichriſt blind and deceive men; that that which is their own ſtate, they cannot ſee to be ſo! but apply it to others, whoſe ſtate it is not, and ſo Juſtify themſelves in that wherein God Condemns them, and condemn others in that wherein God Juſtifieth them! This is ſad work, and will have a ſad Iſſue!

Seventhly, He ſaith, There is an inviſible Woman in every viſible man, and there is an inviſible man in every viſible Woman, and the man Chriſt Jeſus, who is the Light of the World, he is in them both, &c.

Rem. Is not he now in the Notional and comprehending part, mudling himſelf and others (whoſe ears are open to him) about a Woman in a man, and a man in a woman, and Chriſt in both? Whereas Truth is a plain thing; Which they that come to feel and abide in, feel and witneſs redemption, and preſervation out of the comprehending part, and the dead notional knowledg thereof.

Eightly, He ſaith, He doth not own the Judgment and Opinion of theſe miniſters, nor yet their ſuperiority, who ſay, He that is not juſtified by the witneſs of God in friends is condemned by it in himſelf.

Rem. I ſhall not now argue that there are true Miniſters, and that there is a true ſuperiority (ſome being greater and ſome leſs in the Covenant and Life of Truth) which every one that heareth and learneth of the Father, and ſo is taught of God, will own: but to the thing it ſelf. The witneſs of God is but one in all, and it condemns nothing, but what is not of God: and what his witneſs in another condemns in me, his witneſs in me (when ever it ariſeth and ſpeaketh in me, concerning that thing) cannot but condemn alſo.

It is true, as he ſaith, that Juſtification is by Chriſt alone, who is the head in every member, &c.

Rem. But Chriſt is in other members alſo, as well as in one: and his Life hath Power to judg and condemn: and it judgeth and condemneth no where, but that which is to be judged and condemned. So that wherever Chriſt's Life in any judgeth & condemneth any thing, that is judged & condemned by Chriſt. And the Saints have Power and Authority in Chriſt, not only to judg and condemn the World, but alſo to judg and condemn fallen Angels and Spirits. To what end are they bid to try the Spirits, if after they have tryed them, they may not judg and condemn, what they find Life and Truth judging and condemning?

Ninethly, He excepts againſt that paſſage in friends Paper (as he recites it) that none are to Miniſter, but thoſe that are reconciled to the Church, and have the Approbation of the Elders.

Rem. What is the end of Miniſtring, but to gather out of the World into the Church, or to build up the Church? and are they fit to do either, who are not reconciled to the Church? or whom the Spirit, Life and Power in the Church and Elders hath not unity with?

He

He further ſaith, that God was in Chriſt, Reconciling the World unto himſelf, and not to the Church (ſaith he) he remembers no ſuch Scripture.

Rem. God added to the Church ſuch as ſhould be ſaved, and were they not reconciled to it, before they were added? And Chriſt ſaid, concerning that Brother that would not hear the Church, that he ſhould be looked upon as an Heathen or a Publican: and are ſuch as will not be reconciled to the Church, nor hear it, allowed by God to Miniſter, either to gather into the Church, or to build up in it? and ſurely it cannot be. There can be no true Miniſtring out of the Life and Spirit of the Body, or Church that is in God. And all ſuch as have thus gone out from God in whom the Church is, have Miniſtred againſt the Life, Spirit and power, but not in it: but in Antichriſts Spirit and Power, and againſt the Truth.

Tenthly. He ſaith, Chriſt the Light within, will not give his Power and Authority out of his own hand to any man or men: for unto him alone is all judgment in Heaven and in Earth committed in matters of Conſcience.

Rem. Is Chriſts Power given out of his hands, when his Life and ſpirit in one judgeth concerning that which is evil and out of the Truth in another? Doth not the ſpiritual man judg all things? Doth not Chriſt teach and enable him ſo to do? Is there not ſuch a gift of his to diſcern ſpirits? Cannot the ear that is Circumciſed and kept open by the Lord, caſt ſpeeches and actions, and diſcern when they are out of the Life, and when in the Life? and doth he give the Power and Authority out of his own hands, in enabling them ſo to do? What dark expreſſions are theſe, and dead too; not ſo much as litterally true.

Eleventhly, He ſaith, Chriſt the Light within is able to break, and he is alſo able to bind up that which he hath broken, and to heal that which he hath wounded, &c.

Rem. And hath not Chriſt put a ſpiritual Rod and ſword into the hands of his Church and miniſtry, with which to ſmite and wound, as his ſpirit guides and leads them? Have they not Power both to bind and looſe as Chriſt ſaith? And is not this a wounding and healing virtue and Power; After Chriſt had ſaid, Tell the Church: but if he neglect to hear the Church, let him be unto thee as an Heathen man or a Publican; doth he not immediately add, verily I ſay unto you, whatſoever ye ſhall bind on Earth, ſhall be bound in Heaven: and whatſoever ſhall be looſed on Earth, ſhall be looſed in Heaven? Mat. 18. 17, 18. Is not this Power and Authority neceſſary to the true Church? what, a Church, and not have Power over her own members; but every one left, to the dictates of what they ſhall call the Light within, and not be ſubject to the judgment of the true Light, ſpirit and Power of Chriſt the head in the Living Body? What a Church were this? a meer Babel, an heap of confuſion, a Body that would never be at unity in it ſelf. But God is the God of the order of his own Spirit, Life and Power; and not of ſuch confuſion. This Doctrine may go for truth in Babylon, but can never be owned in Gods Jeruſalem, where his Spirit did build up and defends the Buildings, and judgeth out all ſuch ſandy and windy Doctrines, which are looſe and airy, and have not a ground or bottom in the Truth.

Twelfthly, He ſaith, There is fallibility attends all thoſe, who are Regenerated, and born of the Spirit of God, who is Light, and that it is poſſible for them to err from the Light again, &c.

Rem. He doth herein lay the ſtate of the truly regenerate and born of God, lower than the Scripture layes it. The Scripture ſaith, whoſoever is born of God, doth not commit Sin; for his ſeed remaineth in him, and he cannot ſin, becauſe he is born of God, 1 John. 3. 9. And again, We know that whoſoever is born of God ſinneth not, but he that is begotten of God keepeth himſelf, & that wicked one toucheth him not, c. 5. 18.

There

There is a gathering into the Seed, and an abiding in the Seed: and there the Soul is in the ſtrong Tower, and munition of Rocks, where the Enemy cannot reach. Adam in the fall was in a Fallible State: Is the renewed, the redeemed State as fallible? What State is that wherein Truth is ſo natural, and the Soul ſo one with it, that it can do nothing againſt the Truth, but for the Truth, as Paul ſpeaks? What State is that, wherein Men overcoming, ſhall become Pillars in the Houſe of God, and ſhall go no more out? Rev. 3. 12. But, let Men be never ſo fallible; the infallible Spirit and Power is given to the Church of God, to guide them in true Underſtanding and Judgment; eſpecially in all things that relate to, and concern them, as a Body: and they that are of the Truth, and in the Truth, love the Judgment of Chriſt the Head in her; but they that are of another Spirit, and would have liberty out of the Truth, to the transforming Nature and Spirit, cannot abide it. What were my Life in me, if it did not Judg in me? And, What were the Churches Life, if it did not Judg in her, and Condemn all that riſeth up from a contrary Spirit and Nature? What means that Promiſe, Iſa. 54. 17. No Weapon that is formed againſt thee ſhall proſper, and every Tongue that riſeth againſt thee in Judgment, ſhalt thou Condemn?

Yet he Confeſſeth, That God is infallible, and that no fallibility attends him; but denies The very Regenerate and Born of the Spirit to be infallible, and that it is poſſible for them to err from the Light; again, the Enemy which is the Power of Darkneſs, preſenting to them the Fruit of the Tree of Knowledge, &c.

Rem. If God be infallible, as he confeſſeth (though it is to be queſtioned, whether from any true Knowledge of Nature, or only from the Comprehenſion) and God beget Children: into what doth he beget them? whether into a fallible Nature and Spirit, or into his own Nature and Spirit, the leaſt Degree whereof is infallible? When Men are truly turned to God, there are great and precious Promiſes made to them, which through Faith, Obedience, and Diligence, they come to Enjoy, whereby they are made Partakers of the Divine Nature, 2 Pet. 1. 4. And when they partake of the Divine Nature, Do they partake of a Nature that is fallible, or infallible? He that is joyned to the Lord, is one Spirit, 1 Cor. 6. 17. and, Is that one Spirit a fallible, or infallible Spirit? There is one Baptiſm, wherewith the truly Living are Baptized: and, Doth that Baptiſm waſh away that which is fallible, or no? The Church of Chriſt, the Body of Chriſt, the Spouſe of Chriſt, the chaſt Virgin that is Married to Chriſt, is one with Chriſt: Is it one with him in fallibility or in infallibility? Bear with me, for I am conſtrained to ſpeak theſe things for Truths ſake, for the Churches ſake; yea, for Chriſt's ſake, and for the ſakes of them who cry up the Light within, in words, and yet are deceived about it, and know it not; but are erred from it, and have ſet up the darkneſs of Anti-Chriſt in their Minds, inſtead of it, which with them goes for the true Light: and in this they Judg that which is true, as if it were falſe, and Juſtify that which is falſe, as if it were true, both in themſelves and others; both which is an abomination to the Lord.

He ſaith, There is a Fallibility attends all thoſe that are Regenerate, and Born of the Spirit of God.

Rem. What all? Thoſe that come to the higheſt pitch, and greateſt growth, Can they not paſs fallibility, and arrive at infallibity in a meaſure, and abide in it? To be Regenerated and Born of God, is an high State: it is not for every Notioniſt, and Comprehender to be talking what is Experienced there. There is a Regenerating, and a being Regenerated. There is a following Chriſt in the Regeneration, and there is a conformity to him in his Death, and in his Life too. It is not good for him to be ſpeaking much concerning that State, but rather to wait, to be led into it, and to arrive at it in the true Travel. But how, he that is Regenerated is one with Chriſt (and is in meaſure as he is) is hard to be known, and harder to be uttered. But he that is in this State, hath Witneſſed the the holy Calling, and Faithfulness to him that Called, and the Election, and is one of the Chosen, or Elect of God; and Christ saith, such are beyond fallibility; for speaking of false Christs, he saith, If it were possible, they should deceive the very Elect, Mat. 24. 24. plainly signifying, that it is impossible.

Now their possibility of erring he lays upon the Enemies, presenting to them the Fruit of the Tree of Knowledge, whilst they are in Eden, p. 6.

Rem. The Enemies presenting Temptations, doth not imply a possibility of letting in the Temptation, and so of Erring in all, to whom he doth present things. For he presented things to Christ, and yet it was impossible for that Spirit and Nature, that Christ was of, to let in his Temptations.

But then, immediately in the next Words, he sheweth, How this possibility of falling is upon the Enemies, presenting to them the Fruit of the Tree of Knowledge, namely thus, Their Minds taking delight in it, and they feeding upon it, the Enemy hath power to draw their Minds out of Eden again.

Rem. The Regenerate and Born of God, are partakers of the Divine Nature, and wait on God for Living Food, and receive it of him, and live by it, and cannot abide dead, dry, notional food, nor feed upon it. Blessed be the Lord, there is that Birth known, which can feed on nothing but Life it self. And let the power of Darkness present the Fruit of the dead Tree never so often; the living Babe will not meddle with it, but Hungers, and Thirsts after Righteousness, and desires the sincere Milk of the pure living Word, that it may grow thereby. And if this holy Nature be put into the Babe; How much stronger is it in those that are grown in Truth, and who come to be Naturalized into it, the contrary Nature being Crucified, and Slain in them by the Cross of Christ, and the New and Holy Nature Ruling in them?

Thirteenthly, He saith, Wherefore, I do believe that I ought not to subject my self to what the Church imposeth.

Rem. The Church of God under the Law, walking in that outward Covenant, was a glorious Camp or Body; and had outward Power, according to the outward Law, appertaining to it. And the Church of God under the Gospel, walking with God according to the Covenant of the Gospel is a Glorious, Spiritual Body; and hath inward Power belonging to it: and though not the Church meerly as Men; yet that Spirit and Power in the Church, ought to be obeyed by every Member thereof, in things pertaining to God. So it was it the Apostles days; they that were not disorderly and unruly, were obedient to the Spirit and Power of God in the Apostles, and Churches then, 2 Cor. 7. 15. and ch. 29. who had power to Judg those that were within, 1 Cor. 5. 12. And those that are indeed of God, will be obedient and subject to his Spirit and Power in his Church now. And there is nothing else desired, but obedience to the Lord, as he moves, guides, leads, and orders, both in the particular, and in the general.

His Reasons why he doth not believe, That he ought to subject himself to what the Church imposeth, are these: For then, saith he, I must believe that it is God in them, which doth impose those Yokes of Bondage upon their Brethren.

Rem. The Church is called into the liberty of the Gospel, and her Children are Born of the word Immortal, and of the Truth which makes free: and it is not the Church its Natnre, either to receive or impose Yokes of Bondage; but to stand fast, and to exhort all her Members to stand fast, in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made them free. But where there is any thing unruly, or contrary to the Power, that is to be Yoked down by the Power.

And the particular waiting upon God in his holy Spirit, Light, and Power: the Spirit, Light, and Power, will diſcover what is diſorderly, and unruly, and not of God in the particular, and lay a Yoke upon it. The Church alſo waiting upon God, in their Meetings together in his Name; the Lord will diſcover what is hurtful to the Body, and contrary to the Life of the Body, and lay Yokes upon it: and he that refuſeth this Yoke, keeps alive that which is impure and fleſhly, and keeps down the Juſt in himſelf.

But indeed, he that doth not believe God in his Church, and that his Spirit, Life, and Power, ſits as King there; he is not in a capacity to obey aright, becauſe he doth not diſcern nor acknowledge that in the Church, which alone is to be Obeyed.

Another Reaſon he gives is, Becauſe (he ſaith) he muſt alſo then believe that the Church is Infallible, and cannot Err.

Rem. The Spirit of God is infallible, the Power whereby the Church was gathered and built up, is infallible. Chriſt is infallible, and hath given to his Church of his Infallible Spirit; without which, they cannot be preſerved or act aright; And, Is the Church in God fallible? And this Spirit will not fail them in their waiting upon him: and the Church which is one with Chriſt, Married to Chriſt, Joyned to Chriſt, partaketh of his holy, living, and infallible Nature.

Judge in the Truth, how it would ſuit: an holy Head, an unholy Body; a living Head, a dead Body; an infallible Head, an elect and choſen Head; but a body very lyable to be deceived and err. Hath not the Church that Spirit, that Life, that Power of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt her Head with her, that is able to keep her from erring? And Is it not her earneſt travel, and deſire to keep to it her ſelf, and to have all her Members kept to it? And, Will not that Power keep, and preſerve all that keep to it?

He addeth further to the foregoing Words, Which thing I cannot believe, for then I muſt believe theſe particulars following.

Firſt, I muſt believe that they are as infallible, as God is; and that it is as impoſſible for them to err, as it is for God to err.

Anſw. No, A Man may believe, That God hath given to his Church a glorious proportion of his Spirit, to dwell in them, and guide them, as his Sons, Spouſe, and Wife; and that they are Married to him that is infallible, and partake of a bleſſed proportion of his Nature; and yet not believe, that they are as infallible, as God is. The Lord is abſolutely infallible of himſelf: what infallibility the Church hath, is by Gift, by Union, and Communion with the Lord her Husband and Maker.

But, Doth he believe, or will he go about to maintain, that the Church hath nothing of the Infallible Spirit of her Husband? Or that ſhe is to act in a Fallible Spirit? Or that ſhe is to act nothing at all? But only direct Men to the Light and Spirit within, and let her Members alone, though ſhe infallibly (by the Infallible Spirit and Power) know that they are deceived and err, and ſee (with the Anointed Eye) that they are going from, and acting contrary to the Light in their own particulars? If ſhe ſhould do ſo, ſhe would ſhew little Care over her Children, and ſmall Regard or Faithfulneſs to him, who hath entruſted her with his own Spirit and Power, for Edification and Salvation, and not for Deſtruction.

Secondly, That no Man or Woman ſhall ever attain to any higher meaſure of the grace of God then they, and that they are come to the higheſt revelation that can be attainable by the Spirit of God.

Anſw. The higheſt meaſure of Life and of the Spirit, is not neceſſary for the Government of the Church: but a true meaſure. And a true meaſure the Lord hath ordained for his Church; and Chriſt the Head is not abſent from his Church, but preſent with it, to ſupply with what Wiſdom and Power he ſeeth needful And where is the attainment and growth in grace? Is it in the Church, or out of the Church? Doth not the Lord add to the Church ſuch as ſhall be ſaved? and is not their

their growth there? And if any member be bleſſed, and grow never ſo abundantly in grace, it is the growth of the Church, and the Church is glad of it. Now if it be a true growth, they would have Unity with the Church, and mind the Peace of the Church, and be ſubject to the Spirit and pure Power of Life in the Church: elſe their growth is in another Spirit, which the true Church can never own.

Thirdly, And that there is no more to be made known by the Spirit of God, in the Sons and Daughters of Men, but what aiready is made known to them.

Anſw. The particulars owning a meaſure of Life, of Truth, of the Spirit and Power doth not argue there is no more to be made known, or revealed in the particular. And the Churches owning a fuller meaſure dwelling in the body, than in any one particular (for the greateſt fulneſs in any particular doth but go to make up the largneſs or fulneſs in the body) doth not argue that the Church ſhall not grow, or be enlnrged and filled, as it grows. But if he intend the growth of any, departing from the Church, or out of the Spirit of Life of the Church, who hath her Life from the head, and is in unity with the Head: that growth we cannot but deny, finding it, by conſtant tryal and experience, to be a growth in Notion and Comprehenſion, out of the feeling life and power.

Now this kind of growth, I do not deſire ever to know; the Lord alſo preſerve others out of it, and open their Ears to hear the voice of Chriſt, and of his Church, that they may be preſerved out of it. For had this been hearkened and kept to, things had been better with many, as to their inward State, true Peace with the Lord, than they have been.

Fourthly, Or if there be any thing more to be revealed by the Spirit of God, that God will make it known to them, and to none elſe.

Anſw. The true Church doth not limit God, where he ſhall reveal, or not reveal, but owneth God in what ever it reveales in any man upon the Face of the Earth. For being in Unity with Gods Spirit, and born of the Immortal Life, they are in the ſealing ſenſe and knowledge of what came from the Life in ages paſt, or in this preſent age; and are in Unity with it: yet they know, the Lord revealeth the Myſtery of his Truth and Kingdom in the Churches, and the growth is in the Churches.

Now if any in Lucifers Nature, will hearken to that Spirit which deſpiſeth Gods Church, and rend from it, and think to grow above it; and expect this Growth in their high notions and comprehenſions about things, in that exalted mind, ſhould be be owned by the Church; they will be miſtaken: for the true Spirit, which knows all things, and guides the Church, will not guide the Church to own any ſuch Spirit or Growth; but to judge and condemn it in its greateſt ſpreading and exaltation.

There were thoſe in the Apoſtles dayes, who would ſeem to be grown high, and to be ſpiritual, far above the Apoſtles and ſuch as lay low in the Truth, and obeyed the holy Commandments; and yet were far ſhort of their Life; as may be ſeen Abundantly in his Epiſtles to the Church of Corinth. But what ſaith the Apoſtle concerning ſuch? If any man think himſelf a Phrophet or Spiritual, let him acknowledge the things that I write unto you, are the Commandments of the Lord, 1 Cor. 12. 37. And did not he give Commandments about thoſe that were unruly, and would not be ſubject to the Order, Power and Government of Gods Spirit in the Church? And did not the Apoſtle ſay of unruly Perſons, and vain Talkers and Deceivers, that their mouths muſt be ſtopped? Tit. 1. 10. 11. What, had the Church or Miniſters, in the firſt promulgation of the Goſpel Power to ſtop mouths? Yea, in the Spirit that was in them and with them, they knew which was the vain talkers, the unruly and deceivers, and what mouths were to be ſtopped, and what Power would ſtop them?

Fifthly, He ſaith, Friends, I would have you ſeriouſly take into your conſideration ſome of your Doctrines and Principles which are commonly preached among us, how they can ſtand with Gods Soveraignty, Dominion and Glory, that either the ſeed or God ſhould ariſe in Man.

Rem. Christ preached a Seed, even the Kingdom like a grain of mustard-seed, and this Seed sown in man. Now if it was sown in man, in his earthly heart, Nature and Spirit, then the earth was over it, and did cover it, and it was to spring up or arise over and above the Earth; and the pure Power, Wisdom, and Glory of the Father to appear to be manifested in it.

Is this such a strange Doctrine to him? where are his Spiritual senses? How was he convinced? was it without the feeling of the seed? If he truly felt it, where did he feel it? did he not feel it in the earth? was there not much over it?

I am sure, we who were truly convinced, felt it so; felt the pure seed under, suffering the pure Life under, the pure measure of truth under, and much of the Earth over it, the Lamb slain inwardly by sin and transgression, and blessed be the Lord, we felt also the Earth Judged, and removed out of its place; the Earth ploughed up, and the seed springing over all thats Earthly, and growing up in that which God made New, over that which was Old.

And did not God arise outwardly, in the manifestation of his Power outwardly, among the outward Jews? And, Doth not he arise inwardly, in the manifestation of his Power inwardly, among the inward Jews? Are the Enemies ever scattered inwardly, till Gods arising inwardly? What kind of Convincement or Growth, hath that Man been acquainted with, who never Experienced these things?

Now having proposed this, he asketh some Questions, which as the Lord shall open my Heart, I may return Answers to: not after a Notional way, but as the Lord hath given me the Knowledge, Feeling, and Experience of the thing.

His First Question is, Whether the Light or Spirit, Seed, and God, be not all one and the same thing?

Answ. God is the Fulness, the Seed is a measure, and manifestation of him, the infinite Fulness. And as he is Light, and Spirit: so the Seed that comes from him, or that the good Husband-man Sows, is Light and Spirit also.

His Second Question is, How came this Seed of God to be under, or beneath in Man?

Answ. Any Man that knows the Truth in the holy Experience, and hath been Tempted, and let in Sin upon him, may know what comes then under, and how it comes under. The Spirit by Sin is Grieved; yea, the holy Spirit may be quenched, and Man may Crucify to himself the Lord of Glory.

His Third and Fourth Questions are, What shall raise it up? And, By what?

Answ. to both, The Power of God, the Spirit of God, the Life of God, entring into its own in Man, entring into the Witness, raiseth it up, brings that under, which resisted, oppressed, and kept it down. The Power of the Almighty, by his out-stretched-Arm, crusheth Pharaoh inward, and brings his Spiritual Seed out of Spiritual Egypt, Sodom, and Babylon, in all which the Lord, in all Ages, hath Inwardly, and Spiritually been Crucified, by them that have resisted his holy Spirit, in the pure Manifestations thereof: for what is done to it, is done to him. Saul, Saul, Why Persecutest thou me?

Lastly, Whether the Appearance of God in Man, to Man by his Spirit, be not for the quickening and raising of Man, both Soul and Body, out of a State of Bondage and Captivity?

Answ. Yes, it is: But how doth God raise up Man? Is it not by joyning him to his Seed, and causing him to bow to his Seed; and suffer with his Seed, and deny that which is contrary to his Seed; so that the Seed, which hath been grieved, and burden'd with Sin and Iniquity, may rise up over it, and crush the Head of the Serpent in the Authority, Power, Dominion of the Fathers Life? Who of the Redeemed Ones, that have Witnessed true Redemption, have not Witnessed God, bringing that up which was down, low, deep in the Heart; and bringing that down which was high, and exalted over it?

But for the raising of God, that is but his misrepresentation of this found Doctrine, and holy experience: for Christ himself, who was God, and the Resurrection and the Life; yet the God-head was not raised in him, but the Resurrection, and the Life raiſed that Body. And that of him, which he ſoweth in us, and which differeth in the Soul, through the ſouls ſin; he raiſeth up in his own holy Dominion, in them that come to ſuffer with it, and to bear the Croſs with that which Crucifieth ſin.

on

This is ſound Doctrine and ſound Experience, Univerſally experienced by all that know the inward truth, and have ſubjected to it. They have felt what truth was, and where it was; and what it is, and where it is; and what they are in it, and by it; bleſſings and praiſes over all unto him, who by the working of his moſt Glorious Power, hath brought this about in a remnant, whom the Lord hath viſited and ſhewn Mercy to.

Let him wait for true underſtanding, from him who is able to give it, and anſwer me this one queſtion then, Doth not the Devil, the Enemy of Man-Kind, hunt after the Precious Life, even in thoſe that come to witneſs Redemption in meaſure from him? and if at any time they hearken to his temptations, and let him in, doth not the Life receive a wound? is not the ſpirit grieved? is not the tender, righteous, living Plant hurt?

O the tender Mercy of God to permit his truth, his ſeed, his ſon; not only to ſuffer for man, without the Gates of Jeruſalem, but alſo to ſuffer in Man, even in the ſtreets of Sodom, where our Lord was in Ages paſt Crucified, and is ſpiritually Crucified to this day! Rev. 11. 8.

He ſaith, The Kingdom of Heaven is within all men and women, and Heaven is above Hell, and the Light is above Darkneſs, p. 7.

Rem. If he mean that their Nature is ſo, I grant it: but if he mean that Heaven, or the Light which is Heavenly, is uppermoſt in men who are under the Kingdom and Power of Darkneſs, he is utterly miſtaken: for in the Kingdom where Satan and Antichriſt Reign, Antichriſt is there exalted (in that heart) above all that is called God; even above the Light, Spirit and Power, which ought to be Worſhiped and Obeyed there, but is not: and there is need of the Arm and Power of God to be awakened, and to put on ſtrength there, to cut Rahab, wound the Dragon, and bring him under, and to bring up the Seed into its heavenly Authority, Dominion and Power (which is due unto it) in that heart.

He ſaith, The Seed is to redeem, and not to be redeemed.

Rem. This is true, relating to the Seed, as it is in it ſelf: But as God hath beſtowed it on man, given it as a Gift in man, and it condeſcends to his Condition, deſcending into the lower parts of the Earth, and ſuffering with man, that it might bring man into its Death and ſufferings, and ſo raiſe it in and with it ſelf: ſo the mighty power of Life, from whence it came, is to be revealed in it, and bring it out of Egypt, and the darkneſs wherein it finds man, and in the tender Love of God to man, bears a ſhare with him. It is not the Jew outwardly that pierced Chriſt, but the Soul inwardly by Tranſgreſſion pierceth his Life and Spirit: and as it comes to true ſenſe and Faith, looks upon him whom it hath pierced by Sin, and mourns bitterly over him, and turns from and hates that Sin, whereby it pierced him.

He ſaith, The Seed in both Man and Woman, it is both God and Chriſt, and it is above the Seed of the Serpent in all, and he is in himſelf, &c. p. 7.

Rem. Who denies that God and Chriſt, and the Holy Seed, which are one in Nature, though not in Meaſure and Fulneſs, as he is in himſelf, is above the Seed of the Serpent?

He addeth further, Neither hath mans mind been ſo blinded, that he could not ſee his Sins by the Light, P. 8. L. 38. (as corrected by the Errata.)

Rem. There is an eye that the God of this World blinds, that it may not ſee the Glorious ſhinings of the Light, 2 Cor. 4, 3, 4. And the eye that is blind, cannot ſee, till God opens it. The outward eye cannot ſee the ſhining of the outward Sun, but as it is opened: nor can the inward Eye ſee inward things, but as the Lord opens it. Paul was ſent to the Gentiles, to open their Eyes, and to turn them from Darkneſs to Light, Act. 26. 18. So that Mans Eye is blinded, that though the Light ſhine in the Darkneſs, yet he cannot ſee, nor walk in the way of the Light, but as God anoints, and opens his Eye; Anoint thine Eyes with Eye-ſalve, that thou mayeſt See, Rev. 3. 18.

But

But I beſeech him, in the tender Bowels of Love, to conſider where his Standing is, and what it is in him, that brings forth theſe Things: For, I am ſure, it is not the true Light, where-with God hath ſhined in the Hearts of his People, and doth ſhine at this Day. He miſtakes the true Light in others, and calls it Darkneſs; and alſo miſtakes the Darkneſs in himſelf, and calls it Light: And, Whither, after this rate, may he wander in his uncertain Notions and Comprehenſions; and while he is thus talking of God, and Heaven, and the Light within, he be found among them who blaſpheme God, and his Tabernacle, and them that dwell in Heaven?

What I have hitherto took notice of, may ſufficiently manifeſt, even to himſelf, could he retire low enough, where the true Underſtanding and Knowledge is given) how he hath erred from the true Light, and but pretended to it, and not been led by it, in what he hath now writ.

As for the other Part of his Book, though I could ſay much to it, if the Lord did require me; yet finding it chiefly to be Matter of Notion and Criticiſm, my Heart is not engaged to meddle with it: For it is not in me, to bring People into ſuch Critical Diſputes, about an Inviſible Man, or Inviſible Woman, or who was the firſt Inviſible Man; which one while he ſeems to call God, or Chriſt; another while the Son of Perdition, or Power of Darkneſs, he calls the firſt Inviſible Man; as pag. 21. for which I am ſatisfied, he can produce no Scripture; which he requires of Friends, for what they aſſert.

I muſt confeſs, I ſee no Profit in his medling with ſuch things; but rather a drawing the Minds of the People into forbidden Knowledge, and airy Comprehenſion about the Heavenly Things, and feeding that Part in themſelves, which ſhould not thus be ſuffered to fly aloft, but be kept under.

And happy were it for him, if he could feel the Truth, Seed, and Life, (which is grieved in him) riſe above them, trample them down, and reign over them: But he muſt experience great Humility, and a long Travel, before he can come to witneſs this.

As for his denying himſelf to be of us; indeed he hath ſufficiently manifeſted by this Book, and by his ſtrange Notions and Comprehenſions therein, that he is not of Us; but a Stranger to that Life, Spirit and Power, which hath gathered, guideth, and preſerveth Us out of ſuch Paths as theſe.

And, O that he did not hug ſo many Notions, (and thoſe very ſtrange ones too, contrary to the Truth and Holy Experience, in the Hearts of God's Redeemed Ones, and the Holy Scriptures, as hath been already ſhewed) and get ſuch Comprehenſions into his Brain, concerning the ſaving Power; but wait to deſcend, and come down thither, where he may feel it in his Heart; and that will preſerve him, for the future, from ſuch Contradictions and Confuſions, which the other Part of his Book is alſo too full of; which, if the Lord pleaſe, he may draw forth ſome other to lay open, for the Vindication of Truth, and its true Teſtimony, from his Spirit, and falſe Teſtimony, uttered in very ſtrange and extravagant Expreſſions; not at all ſuitable to the Nature of Truth, but rather to the Nature of that dark Spirit, from whence it came; which the Lord of his tender Mercy manifeſt to him, and Redeem him from, into a tender, living, humble Senſe of the meek and lowly Principle of Life, in the Heart.

THE

THE POST-SCRIPT.

SInce the Writing of the Former, and my not intending to meddle with the Reſt, there hath ſomething lain upon me, as to ſome few Paſſages therein alſo, to write a few Words, by way of Teſtimony, to One or Two Particulars therein: But that which mainly lay upon me, was ſomewhat in Relation to his Poſt-ſcript; he looking upon it as ſo Unanſwerable, and yet ſo plain and clear an Anſwer ariſing to it in my Heart.

Firſt, As to his main Controverſy with Friends, about the Chriſt that Dyed at Jeruſalem, (he affirming, That neither Juſtification nor Condemnation is by Him; and reproaching Friends, as having gone back to the Profeſſour's Chriſt, and Saviour, who Dyed without the Gates of Jeruſalem, as pag. 17. p. 21. & p. 26.) this is in my Heart to ſay:

Rem. Is Chriſt divided? Is there One Chriſt that Dyed without the Gates of Jeruſalem, and Another that did not Dye? Or, Is it not the ſame Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who Died without the Gates of Jeruſalem, according to the Fleſh, and yet was then alive in the Spirit? Do we affirm, that the God-head died? (no, we do not ſo much as affirm, That his Soul dyed, as he doth, p. 19.) but according to the Fleſh he dyed; that is, he who was the Reſurrection, and the Life, laid down his Life, and took it up again, according to the Commandment of his Father.

Thus we have been taught of God to believe, and thus to hold it forth. And we have no other Juſtifier, Condemner, Saviour, or Interceſſor, than he that laid the Life of the Body, offering it up a Sacrifice to his Father, without the Gates of Jeruſalem. Who is he that Juſtifyeth? Is it not God, in and through him? And, Who is he that Condemneth? Is it not Chriſt that dyed? (And, Where did he dye? Was it not without the Gates of Jeruſalem? yea rather, that is Riſen again, &c. Rom. 8. 33, 34.

Secondly, The next thing that lyes upon me to take Notice of, is writing againſt Senſe, and diſowning the Exhortation to come to a Senſe, and to wait in a Senſe, and abide in a Senſe, &c. as p. 25.

Rem. Though I have given a touch at this already, in the fore-going Part; yet there is ſome-what more lies upon me. The Inward Man, the New Man, the Spiritual Man hath Inward and Spiritual Senſes. Chriſt's Sheep have Spiritual Ears to hear his Voice with, and a Spiritual Eye is given to the Spiritual Man, to ſee Him who otherwiſe is Inviſible.

There is alſo a Spiritual Taſt, to ſavour and diſtinguiſh between that which is Living, and that which is Dead; between that which is Corrupt and Unwholſom, and that which is Wholſom Food: and by the Exerciſe of theſe Senſes, the Children of God become more and more skilful in diſcerning between Good and Evil, Heb. 5. 14. And in this Living Senſe, the Elect cry unto God againſt their Enemies, and are heard and preſerved by him, and ſhall in due time be fully delivered, Luk. 18. 7, 8.

The truly living, are truly ſenſible. Indeed, if he could take away the Senſe of Life, and the Judgment of Life from God's People, it were an eaſy Matter to deceive them with ſuch kind of Notions and Comprehenſions, as he hath brought forth in this his Book. But the Lord hath given a living Senſe, or Senſes to his,

and

and pure Living Judgment therein: which their Minds being kept to, it is impoſſible for this Spirit, or any ſuch like, with all its Inchantments, to prevail upon them; becauſe the Sheeps Ear knows the Sound and Voice of Life, from the Sound and Voice of Death, let Anti-chriſt transform in any of his Miniſters never ſo myſteriouſly.

He ſaith, God is not a Senſe, nor is his Spirit a Senſe.

Rem. It is not for him, in his Notional Way, to ſay what God is: He that made the Eye, ſhall not he ſee? He that made the Ear, ſhall not he hear? Doth he beget his Children into a living Senſe, and beſtow living Senſes upon them? and, Hath not he the Thing in himſelf much more?

But let me ask him this Queſtion: Did God, the Holy Begetter of Life, ever beget him into a living Senſe? If not, he was never of Us: If the Lord did, let him wait to be begotten ſo again, and he ſhall ſoon be one of Us again, and judge in the true Spirit, Life, and Power, what he hath here Writ and Publiſhed abroad in the wrong; and he ſhall no longer believe, that this his Writing was written from the Teſtimony of Jeſus in him, (as he expreſſeth, pag. 21.) but ſhall experience the Life of Jeſus, condemning it in his own Heart; as I am ſure, it hath done, and doth in mine, and cannot but do in all that have been gathered to, and abide in that which keepeth livingly ſenſible.

Thirdly, The Third Thing, and that which moſt lies upon me, is that Charge of his upon Friends, That they do ſhew more Homage, Reverence, and Obedience to the Form outwardly, than to the Power of God inwardly; and that they Worſhip the Form beyond the Power, becauſe they keep their Hats on when they Wait and Worſhip in Silence; but in publick Prayer, both Men and Women either Stand up, or elſe Kneel down; and the Men all put off their Hats: Herein (he ſaith) they Worſhip, Reverence, and Adore the Form outwardly; and the Words, more than the Word of Life in their Hearts, &c. This Practiſe he would have them vindicate, if they can: Indeed, he hath ſufficiently Condemned it, and more than God hath allowed him to do, or will Juſtify him in.

Rem. The Thing is nakedly and plainly thus: The Great God, by the Arm of his Power, hath gathered a People to Himſelf, and taught them to Worſhip Him in his own Spirit and Truth: Yea, he hath taught us to be continually Retired, and upon our Watch, and in his Fear; eying, and regarding Him in all we do.

Beſides this, He hath appointed us ſolemn Times of Meeting together, to Worſhip Him; in which Times, we do, in a more ſolemn, and after a more eſpecial manner, retire to feel his Preſence with us, and holy Spirit and Power working in our Hearts, and miniſtring to us. And, bleſſed be the Lord, he is ſtill found, according to his Promiſe, in the Midſt of us; and doth give us pure Breathings after Him, and pure Senſe of Him, and pure Praiſes to him; even Praiſes from, and in that which is pure.

Yet, while we are ſitting thus waiting, or when Breathings or Praiſes ariſe, we are not taught or required of the Lord, to pull off our Huts, or kneel on our Knees.

But, when the Lord moveth and calleth any forth (for the Aſſembly, or in the Name, and on the Behalf of the Aſſembly) to offer Prayer or Praiſes to God; then, to ſignify our Unity in the Spirit, and our joint Reverence to our God, we are moved either to Kneel, or Stand, as the Lord ſhall incline our Hearts, and to uncover our Heads before Him. And in this we do not adore the Form, as our God knoweth, and beareth witneſs; but Him who hath taught us the Form, and who teacheth us to continue therein, and juſtifyeth us in the Uſe and Practice thereof.

And, What Spirit is this that Condemneth us, after this vaunting manner, as if if he had brought forth ſuch a manifeſt Evidence of our Adoring the Form, as could not be Anſwered?

The

The last thing, which lies on me to take Notice of, is those Words about the Close of his Post-script: I have yet another Book, that is written in and from the Spirit of God; the Tendency of which Book, is for the Overthrowing of all Anti-christ's Ministers in this Nation, &c.

Rem. This Testimony lyes on my Heart concerning him, that he is not in a Condition, or Capacity, to write or speak in or from God's Spirit. He may pretend to have Written this, or to Write another Book from God's Spirit, but he doth but take the Name of the Lord in vain, in so doing; and the Spirit of the Lord will without doubt through some of those that are in him that is true, give a sure and certain Sound, and Testimony against his false Pretences.

O! That he could indeed think, or write, or speak against Anti-christs Ministers, and against the Spirit of Anti-christ: which if ever he be able from God to do, he must first see how Anti-christ hath prevailed over him, and darkened him; and how he dwelleth and reigneth in his Heart, as if he were God, yea, he must deny his present Light and Spirit, and call it no more Christ; but feel that which is now little and low in him rise (through his Sense of it, and Subjection to it) over that which is now so high, and so exalted above the Measure of Truth in his own Heart: Which, if it were so, or might once be so, How glad would my Soul be for his sake, which is now grieved to see him so lifted up, and so mistaken, and so deeply to err, both concerning himself, and God's People, Church, and Ministers, and concerning God's Light and Spirit, denying, debasing, and casting down that, to exalt himself; that so he might set up the Wrong, instead of the Right, and be justifyed and owned by the one, seeing he cannot by the other!

The Lord, if it be his Will, in tender Mercy to him, bring him down from his high Seat, and exalt that Holy Blood of the Covenant, which is now trampled under foot by him, that his Soul may be saved, and not perish for ever, (in the Day that never shall have end) from the Presence of the Lord, and from the Glory of his Power. Amen.

THE END.

SOME

Mis-representations

Of Me concerning

Church-Government CLEARED.

AND

The Power and Authority of GOD's Spirit, in Governing His CHURCH, Testifyed to.

By One, whom it hath pleased the Lord to make a Member of the Church, which he hath Gathered, and Preserveth by his own Almighty Arm; who accounteth it his Duty and Honour in the Lord, to be Subject to the Government and Ordering of his Spirit and Power in his Church,

Isaac Penington.

That ye submit your selves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth, 1 Cor. 16. 16.

Obey them that have the Rule over you, and submit your selves; for they watch for your Souls, as they that must give Account, that they may do it with Joy, and not with Grief; for that is unprofitable for you, Heb. 13. 17.

Likewise, ye Younger, submit your selves unto the Elder; yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with Humility: For God resisteth the Proud, and giveth Grace to the Humble, 1 Pet. 5. 5.

And be not drunk with Wine, wherein is Excess: But be filled with the Spirit, and submitting your selves one to another in the Fear of God, Ephes. 5. 18, 21.

THE PREFACE.

Upon occasion of the Suffering of our dear Friends and Brethren in New-England, cruel Imprisonments, many hard Usages, and at last (some of them) Death it self, for their Obedience and Faithful Testimony to the Lord, and his precious Truth; and because of the undue Covering thereof, by the Grounds and Causes produc'd to justify their Proceedings; I was engaged to shew the Nakedness, and Unreasonableness thereof, in a Book, Entituled, An Examination of the Grounds or Causes, which are said to induce the Court of Boston in New-England, to make that Order, or Law

Law of Baniſhment upon pain of Death againſt the Quakers, &c. Whereunto ſomewhat was added (being very proper to the ſubject in hand) about the Authority and Government which Chriſt excluded out of his Church, which alſo occaſioned ſomewhat concerning the true Church-Government..

Now this latter part (about Church-Government) hath been ſo Miſrepreſented, as if, becauſe the wrong Church-Government was Excluded, the Excluſion of all Church-Government was intended by Me, there being no notice taken of my owning the true Church-Government, but only ſome paſſages of my diſowning the falſe produced, as if they intended to overturn and deny all Church-Government, which never was intended by Me: for in that very Book which is thus made uſe of, I did poſitively affirm the neceſſity and uſe of the true Church-Government, which may more fully appear in that which hereafter follows.

Some Miſrepreſentations of Me, concerning Church-Government.

FOr the Manifeſting that I am Miſ-repreſented, and the clearing of my Innocency from thoſe Miſrepreſentations, this is on my heart;

Firſt, to ſet down thoſe words which John Pennyman hath cited out of that part of my Book which ſpeaks of the Authority and Government which Chriſt excluded out of his Church.

Secondly, To add ſomewhat, in way of Confirmation of that Truth and Tender ſence, which was then upon my Heart.

Thirdly, To propoſe ſome Queſtions, as I ſhall find them ariſe in my Heart, further to open and manifeſt the intent of my Heart in this thing.

Fourthly, To annex ſomewhat, which is mentioned and immediately added in the very ſame part of the Book, concerning true Church-Government, which plainly manifeſteth that I was not againſt the true Church-Government, nor did mention or intend any of thoſe things to hinder, deny or oppoſe the true Church-Government, of which I do there infer an abſolute neceſſity.

Fifthly, It is on my heart to add a few Conſiderations further concerning the neceſſity, uſefulneſs and benefit of the true Church-Government.

The firſt words John Pennyman cites out of this part of my Book, concerning the Authority and Government which Chriſt excluded out of his Church, from Mat. 20. ver. 25, to 29. are theſe.

Here Chriſt cuts off that Power and Authority, which grows up in the corrupt nature of man, which was ever and anon ſpringing up even in the Diſciples; here he wholly excludes it out of his Church, and ſaith expreſſly, He would have no ſuch thing amongſt them, no ſuch kind of Greatneſs, no ſuch kind of Authority.

Confirm. It is the full belief of my Heart, that Chriſt hath cut off that Power and Authority, which grows up in the corrupt Nature of Man, and wholly excluded it out of his Church, even very expreſly in this forecited Scripture; plainly ſignifying therein, that he would have no ſuch kind of Greatneſs, no ſuch kind of Authority among his gathered and choſen People.

Queſt. But doth this ſignifie or imply, that he would have no authority at all? Doth this exclude the Authority and Government of his Spirit and Power in his Church? Doth not he notwithſtanding this ſay, Go tell the Church? And enjoyn the members of the Church, to hear the Church, upon the penalty of being accounted Heathens and Publicans? And did not the Holy Ghoſt make and appoint Overſeers over the Church? Act. 20. 28. And what is an Overſeer? Or in what were they to overſee? Were they not to overſee in the true Light, to which every Child of Light is to be ſubject? And they that did reſiſt the Light, Spirit and Power of the Holy Ghoſt in any of the Overſeers; were they not unruly, and departers from the Light in themſelves; though they might pretend they were ſtill for the Light, and that it was the Overſeers that were departed and erred from it?

The next words he Cites are theſe.

TWo things are here excluded by Chriſt, from whence all the miſchief ariſeth in the Church (all the Tyranny and Oppreſſion of men's Conſciences, and of their Perſons, Eſtates and Liberties for Conſcience-ſake) Firſt, Greatneſs; Secondly, the Exerciſing Dominion and Authority by thoſe that would be great therein.

Confirm. It is my Belief, that all the Miſchief in the Church, Tyranny, and Oppreſſion of Mens Conſciences, and of their Perſons, Eſtates, and Liberties for Conſcience-ſake, doth ariſe from a wrong Greatneſs, and from the Exerciſing of a wrong Dominion and Authority, by thoſe that would be great therein: and that theſe two things are here Excluded by Chriſt, in the forementioned Scripture.

Quæſt. But is there not a true Greatneſs? Thoſe that lye low before the Lord, and have humbled themſelves under his mighty Hand; Doth not the Lord Exalt them in due time, filling them with his Spirit, Life, Vertue, and Power? And, is not that great in them; and are they not highly Favoured, and Exalted in the Eye of the Lord therein? (Oh, none knows how great thoſe are in the Eye of the Lord, who are poor and low, and nothing in their own Eyes!) And, is there not a true Authority, and Dominion of Gods Spirit in the Church in general, as well as in the particular, over the Spirit and Power of Darkneſs? Becauſe of which Spirit, becauſe of which Power, becauſe of which holy Authority and Dominion, the Gates of Hell ſhall not be able to prevail againſt it.

His next Citation is this (which though ſomewhat long, I am willing to Recite punctually, that my Innocency may the more appear.)

This Spirit muſt be kept out from amongſt you, this aſpiring Spirit, this lofty, ruling Spirit, which Loves to be Great, which Loves to have Dominion, which would Exalt it ſelf becauſe of the Gifts it hath Received, and would bring others into Subjection; this Spirit muſt be Subdued amongſt Chriſt's Diſciples, or it will Ruin all. The Lord gives Grace and Knowledge for another end, than for Men to take upon them to be Great, and Rule over others becauſe of it. And he, that becauſe of this, thinks himſelf fit to Rule over other Mens Conſciences, and to make them bow to what he knows, or takes to be Truth, he looſeth his own Life thereby; and ſo far as he prevails upon others, he doth but Deſtroy their Life too. Therefore the Diſciples, or Church of Chriſt, are to Watch over every ſuch Spirit; to beat it down, to teſtify againſt it, to turn from it, to lay it flat, to put it in its proper Place, that is, beneath all, and ſo not to ſuffer it to ariſe.

Before I come to the Confirmation of this, I judge it meet to ſet down the foregoing Clauſe or Paragraph omitted by him, which will very much help to clear the naked drift, and true intent of theſe Words. The foregoing Paragraph runs thus;

Such a kind of greatneſs as is in the World, is the deſtruction of the Life of Chriſt; and ſuch a kind of Dominion and Authority as is among the Nations, is a direct overturning of the Kingdom of Chriſt. It ſets up another Power than Chriſts, another Great-

Greatneſs than Chriſts, another kind of Authority than Chriſts; and ſo eats out the Vertue and Life of his Kingdom, and makes it juſt like one of the Kingdoms of this World.

This (which immediately went before) being thus added, may ſufficiently open the thing of it ſelf. Yet for further Satisfaction, I ſhall add a Confirmation to the Truth of that which he hath cited; and that in ſeveral particulars, becauſe of the length of the Citation.

Confirm. Firſt, An aſpiring Spirit, a lofty, ruling Spirit, which Loves to be Great, which Loves to have Dominion, which would Exalt it ſelf, &c. muſt be kept out from among the Diſciples, and Church of Chriſt. There muſt not be ſuch a Spirit, or loving to be great, or ſuch a ruling among them, as is in the World. No, Life alone, the Spirit alone, the humble Seed alone, the Truth alone, the Grace alone muſt Rule among them: and God forbid the Authority and Government thereof, ſhould be ſtopt in any. It cannot be well with the Church, that it ſhould be ſo; that God's Spirit ſhould be grieved or quenched, or ſtopped in its Holy Way of Governing, and Ordering the Church of its own Building.

Secondly, That which would Exalt it ſelf becauſe of the Gifts it hath Received, and would bring others into Subjection; this Spirit muſt be Subdued among Chriſt's Diſciples, or it will ruin all. God alone, Chriſt alone, the Spirit alone, the Truth alone, the Seed alone is to be Exalted in the Church; not Fleſh, not Self, not the Aſpiring, Lofty, Ruling Spirit.

Thirdly, The Lord gives Grace and Knowledge for another end, than for Men to take upon them to be Great, and Rule over others, becauſe of it. Man, without Grace, and True Knowledge, is High and Exalted, and would be Ruling over, and Subjecting others: But True Grace and Knowledge brings Man down, and keeps him low, even out of every deſire of Aſpiring, and Ruling over others, in earneſt Breathings and Endeavours, that both the Grace and Spirit may Teach, and Rule both over himſelf, and others.

Fourthly, Becauſe God hath given a Man Knowledge; he muſt not take upon to Rule over others with his Knowledge. Chriſt did not Rule over his Diſciples with his Knowledge, nor require them to believe what he knew to be Truth. Nor may any Man at this Day, though never ſo full of Gods holy Spirit and Power, take upon him (above what his Lord and Maſter did) to Rule over other Mens Conſciences. If he do, he will do it out of the leadings of Life, and of Gods holy Spirit; and ſo will wound, and hurt his own Life thereby: and ſo far as herein he prevails on others, he will hurt their Life too.

Fifthly, Therefore this Spirit (which Chriſt never was of himſelf, nor encouraged in his Diſciples) the Church is to watch over, beat down, teſtify againſt, turn from, lay flat, and keep beneath all, and ſo not ſuffer it to ariſe.

Queſt. But doth all this hinder, deny, or oppoſe Chriſt's Spirit, Chriſt's Power, Chriſt's Truth, and Grace from ariſing in the Church, in a way of Spiritual, and Holy Government? Becauſe Man is not to Aſpire, nor take upon him to Reign or Rule, becauſe of Grace, Gifts, or Knowledge Received; Shall not therefore the Head Govern the Body? Shall not Life, and Truth, and the Wiſdom of God Spring in the Church, to Order, and Govern the Church? But muſt every Man be left to the Dictates of what he calls Light in him, and not be Reproved or Teſtified againſt, though the Spirit of God Manifeſt it (to them that are indeed in the Light, Life, Spirit, and Power) that it is not Light, as perſons may pretend and imagine, but real Darkneſs, groſs Darkneſs, Darkneſs that may be felt, even by the leaſt Babes that are in the true, Living Senſe?

The

The Next Citation.

IF this Rule of Chriſt had been kept to, Anti-chriſts power could never have got up, nor the poor innocent Lambs ſo often have been Worried by the Wolves.

Confirm. It is moſt certainly true, if the wrong Authority and Government had been kept down; if the Aſpiring, lofty Spirit, which exalts it ſelf, and loves to have the Preheminence, over that which it ſhould be ſubject to both in it ſelf and others, had been judged, beat down, denied, turned from, &c. how could the ſpirit of Antichriſt, which is the ſpirit that would be Exalting it ſelf above all that is indeed of God, have got up? This is the Wolf that worries the Lambs: and if this Power and Spirit be kept out of the Church, how can there be any Wolf found there, to Worry the innocent Lambs, and ſheep of Chriſt?

Queſt. But did ever Anti-Chriſt's Power get up by the exerciſe of the Power of Chriſt in his Church? Doth not that Power turn againſt Anti-Chriſt, and keep out Anti-Chriſt? Did that Power ever Worry the Lambs? Nay, rather, doth it not cheriſh, feed, build up and preſerve the Lambs? And is it poſſible but Anti-Chriſts Power ſhould get up, unleſs this Power be watched to, and obſerved in its Ordering, and Governing the Church, and diſcovering the ſubtle working of the Wolviſh Spirit of Anti-Chriſt; which appears in the Sheeps Cloathing, and may pretend to the Light within, that it might draw Men from that which is indeed the Light within, into that which is indeed Darkneſs in the Sight of the Lord, and in the Sight of all that are kept truly Living, and Senſible by Him?

The Next Citation.

THe great Work of the Miniſter of Chriſt, is to keep the Conſcience open to Chriſt, and to preſerve Men from Receiving any Truths as from them, further than the Spirit opens; or to imitate any of their Practices; further than the Spirit leads, guides, and perſwades them; for Perſons are exceeding prone to receive things as Truths, from thoſe they have an high Opinion of, and to imitate their Practices, and ſo hurt their own Growth, and endanger their Souls.

Confirm. When the Miniſter of Chriſt comes with the Goſpel of Chriſt, he finds men in darkneſs, with their Conſciences defiled, with the Door of the Heart ſhut againſt Chriſt. Now his great work is to turn them to the Light, Spirit and Power, whereby their Hearts may be opened, their Conſciences waſhed, and there may be a ready entrance for Chriſt's Spirit and Power into them. Then the Conſcience being opened to Chriſt, their great Endeavour, Labour and Work is to keep it open, and that that may not be let in again by them, which will ſhut it againſt Chriſt. For as there is one Spirit opens to Chriſt: ſo their is another will ſhut, even after the Heart and Conſcience is opened, if a man hearken to it.

And the way of receiving Truth, is in the Evidence and Demonſtration of God's Spirit in ones own particular: and this is for ever the aim and care of the Miniſters of Chriſt to keep men to, and not to allure men to receive Truths as from them, but from Chriſt; or to Imitate any of their practices, further than the Spirit leads, guides and perſwades them. For the Miniſters of Chriſt are ſenſible, how exceeding prone Perſons are to receive things as Truths, from thoſe they have an high Opinion of; and to imitate their practices, and ſo hurt their own growth, and endanger their Souls. Now it lies on my heart to teſtify, upon this Occaſion, that I have found the Miniſters of Chriſt, whom I have converſed with, in this Age, walk ſo towards me and others, ſtill turning me to that Light, Spirit and Truth in my own particular, wherein the knowledg of Truth was to be given given me by the Lord, and not impoſing upon me that which they knew to be Truth, before the Lord had prepared and fitted my Heart for the Knowledg thereof. And this is ſtill the Courſe and Practice of the Miniſters of Chriſt to this Day.

Queſt. But muſt not the Miniſter of Chriſt, who is ordained of God to watch for the Soul, watch againſt that, which (if hearkened to by any particular) will ſhut the Conſcience againſt Chriſt, and open it to another Spirit, who is often working in a Myſtery to deceive it? And if they ſee the workings of this other Spirit in any, ought they not, in Faithfulneſs to Chriſt, and to the Souls of ſuch, to warn them of it? And if any, having let in the wrong Spirit, turn from, and deny, the practices which the Lord once taught them (and wherein the teſtimony of Truth ſtands) into practices which are of the World, and anſwer the worlds Spirit, and tend to weaken the faithful Teſtimonies of others in the true Light and Spirit; ought the Miniſter of Chriſt to leave this Perſon to its openneſs to a wrong Spirit, and wrong practices, wherein they deny the Lord that bought them and enlightened them, and are ſhut up againſt the Viſitations and Teſtimonies of God's true Spirit and Power in his Children, who keep their Habitations in that Light, which theſe are departed from, though they make never ſo great pretences to it?

The Next Citation.

AH poor Hearts! how ſimply do they come thither where they once taſted refreſhment, to find wholſome advice, not ſuſpecting what is got up there ſince; and ſo give Dominion to a wrong thing, and take directions from a wrong Spirit, and betray their own ſimplicity? Therefore the main thing is to keep the Conſcience pure to the Lord, and not to take things for Truths becauſe others ſee them to be Truths, but to wait till the Spirit makes them manifeſt to me; nor to run into Worſhips, Duties, Performances, or Practices, becauſe others are led thither, but to wait till the Spirit lead me thither; he that makes haſte to be Rich (even in Religion, running into knowledg, and into Worſhips and Performances before he feel a true and clear evidence) ſhall not be innocent, nor the Lord will not hold him Guiltleſs, when he comes to viſit for Spiritual Adultery and Idolatry.

Confirm. This hath been experienced in this our day, more than once; when ſome, having departed from the Power whereby the innocent Lambs had taſted ſweet Nouriſhment and Refreſhment through them, and have come afterwards for that which is wholſome, not ſuſpecting what was got up in them ſince, and ſo gave Dominion to a wrong thing, and took directions from a wrong Spirit, and betrayed their own ſimplicity.

Queſt. But had theſe reſorted to the Church, and waited for judgment from the Church, to whom God has given eyes to ſee, in ſuch caſes as may paſs the Eye-Sight of the Particular, and a mouth to ſpeak; might not the Church have been Inſtrumental to have opened the true eye in them alſo, and ſo have preſerved them from being inſnared, by any that ran out from the Truth in their own Particulars, and loſt their Habitation therein? And mark, when the Church was in its great Glory, cloathed with the Sun, and the Moon under its feet, and Crowned with a Crown of twelve Stars; yet the Dragon, even then, might prevail upon ſome Stars, and with his tail ſweep them down from their place: but the Church he could not prevail upon. The gates of Hell, the Power of the Dragon, the mouth of the Dragon, nay the tail of the Dragon (which what if I ſhould ſay is the falſe prophet within) cannot.

Further Confirm. Indeed, the main thing is to keep the Conſcience pure to the Lord. To bring men to that which Purifies the Conſcience, and to keep them to it, this is the great work. Men muſt not take things for Truths, becauſe others ſee them to be Truths (that is not God's way, nor did his Miniſters ever ſo teach) but to wait till God's Spirit makes them manifeſt to the Particular.

No

Nor muſt men run into Worſhips, Duties, Performances or Practices, becauſe others are led thither, but wait till the ſpirit lead every one in his own Particular thither.

Queſt. Where is the Faithfull Miniſter that teacheth otherwiſe, or practiſeth otherwiſe at this day? I am ſure I never met with any thing of this Nature from any of them; but only one that ran out in his own Particular, who firſt endeavoured to draw me from eſteeming or taking directions from others, and then would have given me directions himſelf, and would ſpeak and undertake to propheſy great things of me, that he might have raiſed up that part in me, which could have anſwered him. And though he himſelf be dead, yet his ſpirit is alive in others at this day, which the Lord diſcover and preſerve his People from.

Further Confirm. It is not good to make haſt to be Rich (no not in Religion) He that rightly believeth, and abideth in the true and living Faith, makes not haſte to run into knowledge, worſhips and performances, before he feel his guide! but rather chuſeth to be as a weaned Child, lying low before the Lord, in brokenneſs of Spirit, and not medling with things too high for him; and ſo he is kept in Innocency, Poverty and Humility before the Lord, and preſerved out of the bed of the ſtranger (the ſtrange Spirit and Power) and ſo not judged or condemned by the Lord, for either ſpiritual Adultery or Idolatry.

Queſt. But he that lets in a wrong Spirit, that miſtakes about the Light in him, and judgeth that which is indeed darkneſs to be it, and errs from the true Church, and denies the Authority of God's Spirit and Power in it, and is not preſerved thereby, but entangled and bewitched with this wrong Spirit, and in it teſtifies againſt the true Church and true Spirit, and the Miniſtry and Miniſters of Chriſt; is not he joyned to the Spirit of whoredom in his own Particular? and hath not he ſet up an Idol in his own heart, inſtead of the true Light there? and doth not he worſhip and obey that Idol, that wrong Spirit, that wrong Power? and will not the Lord viſit and judg him for his Spiritual Adultery and Idolatry from the true?

The next Citation.

IN the Apoſtles dayes, Chriſtians were too apt to ſtrive after a wrong Unity and Uniformity in outward Practices and Obſervations, and to judg one another unrighteouſly in theſe things. And Mark, it is not the different Practice from one another that breaks the Peace and Unity, but the judging one another becauſe of differing Practices. He that keeps not a day, may Unite in the ſame ſpirit, in the ſame Life, in the ſame Love with him that keeps a day; and he who keeps a day, may Unite in Heart and Soul with the ſame Spirit and Life in him who keeps not a day; but he that judgeth the other becauſe of either of theſe, errs from the Spirit, from the Love, from the Life, and ſo breaks the bond of Unity. And he that draws another to any practice, before the Life in his own Particular lead him, doth as much as in him lies to deſtroy the Soul of that Perſon. This was the Apoſtles Rule, for every one to perform ſingly to the Lord what he did, and not for one to meddle with the Light or Conſcience of another, &c. but every one to keep cloſe to their own meaſure, &c. and here is the true Unity in the Spirit, in the inward Life, and not in an outward Uniformity; that was not neceſſary in the Apoſtles dayes, nor is it neceſſary now: and that eye, which ſo dotes upon it, overlooks the one thing which is neceſſary.

Confirm. This is ſo manifeſt from that Scripture quoted by me, which is here omitted, that he that ſhall read that Scripture, which is Rom. 14. may eaſily obſerve the Apoſtle affirming and teaching theſe things.

That even in the Apoſtles dayes, Chriſtians were too apt to ſtrive after a wrong Unity and Uniformity, in outward practices and obſervations, and to judg one another unrighteouſly in theſe things, is manifeſt from the ſeveral inſtructions and exhortations given to this Church, in this ch. as ver. 2, 3, 4. One believeth that he

he may eat all things: another who is weak, eateth herbs. Let not him that eateth, de'piſe him that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not, Judg him that eateth: for God hath received him. Who art thou that Judgeſt another mans ſervant? to his own Maſter he ſtandeth or falleth: yea he ſhall be holden up, for God is able to make him ſtand.

Yea in matters of Worſhip, (as keeping and obſerving a day to God or not keeping it) it is not the different practice from one another that breaks the peace, but the judging of one another, becauſe of differing practices. So the Apoſtle plainly holds forth, ver. 5, 6. One man eſteemeth one day above another: another eſteemeth every day. Let every man be fully perſwaded in his own mind. He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateh not, and giveth God thanks.

And he that draws another to any practice, before the Life in his own particular lead him, doth as much as in him lies to deſtroy the Soul of that Perſon. So the Apoſtle ſignifies ver. 5. (which was quoted in my book) in that he ſaith, Deſtroy not him with thy meat, for whom Chriſt Dyed. So that not an outward Uniformity in all things, but an Unity in the one Spirit and Life is the neceſſary thing. And there may be Unity, and Love, and Life, and Peace without an Uniformity in practice, further than the Spirit of God teacheth and leadeth His unto.

Queſt. But if the Lord hath taught a man, opened the ſame eye in him that he opened in others, and brought him into Unity and Uniformity with the Church in the practices which the Lord hath taught it; and he afterwards let in another Spirit, and fall from theſe practices, and Judg the very Church it ſelf for continuing in them; may not the Church teſtifiy to this Perſon, that he is erred from his guide, hath loſt the right Judg in himſelf, and ſo Judgeth amiſs, both concerning himſelf and concerning the Church of God? This hath been the State of ſome, who went out from among us formerly; and may alſo be the ſtate of ſome who go out from us now. For as there is one that gathers tothe true Church; ſo there is another that endeavours to draw and ſcatter from it, and then to cauſe men to turn head againſt it, as if it were not of God, but Apoſtatized from the Spirit and Principle of Truth, which indeed is their own ſtate and condition in God's ſight; but not the Churches which was gathered and is preſerved by him, Glory to the Lord, over all the accuſations of the accuſer, through what mouth ſoever he utter them forth.

The nex Citation.

O How ſweet and pleſant is it to the truly Spiritual eye, to ſee ſeveral ſorts of believers, ſeveral forms of Chriſtians in the School of Chriſt, every one learning their own Leſſon, performing their own peculiar ſervice, and knowing, owning, and loving one another in their ſeveral places, and different performances to their Maſter, to whom they are to give an account, and not to quarrel one with another about their different practices? This is the true ground of Love, and Unity, not that ſuch a man walks and does juſt as I do, but becauſe I feel the ſame Spirit of Life in him, and that he walks in his rank, in his own order, in his proper way and place of ſubjection to that. And this is far more pleaſing to me, than if he walked juſt in the track wherein I walk; (nay ſo far as I am ſpiritual) I cannot ſo much as deſire that he ſhould do ſo, untill he be particularly led thereto, by the ſame ſpirit that led me.

Confirm. The ſpiritual eye beholdeth things aright, beholdeth things in the Lord, and taſteth ſweetneſs in, and is pleaſed with that which is Spiritual. If every one did eye the Lord, ſubject to the Lord, anſwer the Light and Spirit of the Lord, in their own hearts? though the forms in the ſchool of Chriſt be higher or lower, the leſſons different, and the practices anſwerable; yet every one minding his own place and Leſſon, and performing his own peculiar ſervice, the Spiritual eye would be delighted therewith. And thoſe that are of the true Seed and Birth do know, own, and love one another in their ſeveral places, and different performances to their Maſter to whom they are to give an account; and do not quarrel with one another about their different performances. O how ſweetly is this practiſed and experienced among us at this day!

And Unity in the Life, is the ground of true Brotherly love, and fellowſhip. Not that another man walks juſt as I do: but though he be weaker or ſtronger, yet he walks by the ſame Principle of Light, and is felt in the ſame ſpirit of Life, which guideth both the weak and the ſtrong, in their ſeveral ranks, order, proper way and place of ſubjection, to that one Spirit of Life and Truth, which all are to be ſubject to.

Nay, he that is truly Spiritual and ſtrong in the Light and Spirit of the Lord, cannot deſire that the weak ſhould walk juſt as he does; but only as they are ſtrengthened, taught and led thereunto, by the ſame Spirit that ſtrengthened, taught and led him.

Queſt. This is true concerning every one that is in the Faith, that is in the true Light, that is in the true Spirit; and keeps his rank, order, place and ſubjection, though in a weak and low degree: but will this hold good concerning any that have erred from the Faith, have made ſhipwrack thereof, and have turned from the true Light and Spirit in themſelves, and left their rank, order and teſtimony againſt the World, and are again become one with the World, even in thoſe very practices which the Spirit of the World delights in, and which the Spirit of the Lord hath teſtified, and ſtill teſtifieth againſt, in all that are Faithful, and keep to their firſt Love and Light? Is the Church to bear with theſe in their practices, or own ſuch Spirits, or believe that they now walk according to the Light which firſt convinced them? Is not the Spirit of Judgment with the Church? Hath not God given her diſcerning? Hath ſhe not Power and Authority from God to try Spirits? yea and to judg falſe Spirits, that have loſt their habitation in the Light, though they may ſtill pretend to dwell there; Can ſhe not try thoſe which ſay they are Jews and are not, but have loſt the Light, Spirit and Power which Circumciſeth, and keepeth Circumciſed, and are run back into the uncircumciſed paths of the World again, which came from, and anſwer the uncircumciſed Spirit and Nature, both in themſelves and others?

The next Citation.

AND he, that knows what it is to receive any Truths from the Spirit, and to be led into the practices by the Spirit, and how prone the Fleſhly part is to make haſt, and how dangerous that haſt is, will not be forward to preſs his Knowledg or Practices upon others, but rather wait patiently till the Lord fit them for the receiveing thereof, and fear leſt they ſhould receive and practice too ſoon, even in that part which cannot ſerve the Lord

Confirm. I will ſend the Comforter, the Spirit of Truth, ſaith Chriſt to his Diſciples and he ſhall lead you into all Truth. Now the Diſciple of Chriſt is led into Truth, in the Croſs to that part, wherein others may receive the Notions of things, yea perhaps of Truth it ſelf. And the Diſciple muſt alſo abide in the Croſs, after that the Lord hath given him the true Knowledg, or he cannot be rightly led into the practice of what he knows. So that the Diſciple comes very hardly, both by his Knowledg, and by his Ability to practiſe, what the Spirit of God teacheth him and requireth of him. There is a fleſhly part, indeed Prone to make haſt: but that haſt is dangerous, and that fleſhly part, in all its haſty Deſires and Motions, is to be denyed, and kept down. And he that is diligent in denying, and keeping down that Fleſhly part in himſelf (with the forwardneſs and haſtineſs thereof) cannot eaſily be forward to preſs his knowledg and practices upon others; but will be patiently waiting on the Lord, for their kindly kindly and seasonable understanding of the Truth, and growth in it; and fear lest they should run before their guide, and be practising too soon even in that Part which cannot serve the Lord: for the Lord must be served and worshiped in his Spirit and Truth, and thither are all to be directed and brought, and there is every mind to be stayed and kept, or it cannot worship and serve aright.

Quest. But what if a man entertain a wrong Spirit, and let go the Truths he had received, and turn from the Practices which Gods Spirit taught him, into the Spirit and Practices of the world, which Gods Spirit hath testified and will for ever testify against? Is not the Church to deny this spirit, and these practices, and the person that hath hearkened to this spirit, and is found in these Practices? that he may turn from this spirit and practices, to the true spirit, and to the true testimony and practices which it once taught him, and still teacheth all that hearken to its voice and holy motions, and listen not to the voice and instigations of a stranger.

The next Citation.

THe great Error of the state of the Apostacy, hath been to set up an outward order and uniformity, and to make men's Consciences bend thereto, either by Arguments of wisdom, or by force; but the property of the true Church-Government is, to leave the Conscience to its full liberty in the Lord, to preserve it single and entire for the Lord to exercise, and to seek Unity in the Light, and in the Spirit, walking sweetly and harmoniously together in the midst of differing Practices.

Confirm. That there have been Ages of Apostacy, from the true Spirit and Power of the Apostles, is very manifest, both by the Doctrines, Discipline and cruel Practices of those, that would have themselves accounted the true Church, and true Believers and Christians. And that they have set up an outward Order and Conformity, and have used both Arguments of Wisdom and also Force, to make men's Consciences to bend thereto; this is as manifest as the former. Now that this hath been an Errour, and a great Errour, is very manifest also: because it is contrary to the Nature of Conscience, which is to be led by God's Spirit, not bent by mans wisdom and constraint; and contrary to Christ and his Apostles Doctrine and Practice, who would have every man fully perswaded of what he performs to God, from whom he must receive the reward and approbation, or the dislike and punishment, for his answering or disobeying the Light which God sets up, or causeth to shine in his own Conscience.

And the property of the true Church-Government, and the Practice and Path of the true-Church in these our dayes, is to leave the Conscience to its full liberty in the Lord: to preserve it single and entire for the Lord, and to seek Unity in the Light, and in the Spirit, walking sweetly and harmoniously together in the midst of differing practices. Nay, it is not the desire of the Church at this day, that any should come up into the Practice, or holy Order of the Gospel, according to what the Lord hath taught others; but only as the Lord teacheth and leadeth them.

Quest. Concerning what Conscience is this to be understood? is It to be understood of the tender and weak Conscience? or of the hard and seared Conscience. For the Conscience which God once made tender, may afterwards come to be seared and hardened: and is the Church of Christ, which is guided by the Spirit and Wisdom of God, taught and required by him so to act towards the hard and seared Conscience, as it is towards the tender and weak Conscience? Is the hard and seared Conscience, which hath forsaken the true Light, Spirit and Power, and turned against the Truth, and is in a wrong, stiff, wilful, hardened liberty and subtilty, to be left to its liberty, and to that spirit which draweth it out and hardeneth it in a wrong liberty? Can there be any Unity in the Light and in the Spirit had, with those who are erred from the Light and from the Spirit and are deceived in their own hearts concerning it, and do but only pretend to it? Can they walk sweetly and harmoniously together in differing practices, who differ also in the Ground, and are not one in the Foundation, even in the true Light and Spirit of the Lord? Ought not the Church to Judge this Spirit, with its liberty and evil conscience (for that Spirit will make the consciences of all that let it in, evil) as well as, to the utmost, to cherish the Liberty of the tender Consciences in and to the Lord? Read and Consider these Scriptures following, Tit. 1. 15. 1 Tim. 1. 19. and chap. 4. 2.

The next Citation.

And this I can truly say concerning my self, I never found my Spirit forward to draw any, either to any thing I believed to be true, or to any practice or way of Worship I observ'd or walked in; but desired that the Power and leadings of Life might go before them, and I was afraid lest Men should receive things from my hand, and not from the Lord's. He hath written in the Margent of the Book he sent me, Oh, what a tender Spirit was here! intimating as if it were not so with me now.

Confirm. Blessed be the Lord, it was so with me formerly, and is so with me daily more and more: For as I wait on the Lord in his Truth, which makes tender; so upon this occasion, being forced to it, I cannot but confess, that I Witness the Lord daily more and more Uniting my Spirit to him in his Truth; and as Truth increaseth, so the Tenderness which comes from it, still increaseth in me; and I do not (nay, I may say cannot, the contrary is so written on my Heart) so much as desire, to drive any to what practice or way of Worship I believe to be true, and am taught of God to observe; but this is the longing of my Soul, that the Power and Leadings of Life may go before them, and I daily behave my self as one that is afraid, lest men should receive things from my Hand, and not from the Lords.

Quest. Yet, where I find Persons manifestly Warp and turn aside from the Truth, and let in a wrong thing, and Testify against the Truth and Way of the Lord, and their Hearts hardened by the subtilty of him, who hath deceived them; may I not singly and faithfuly testify it to them, & breath to the Lord for them that they may return to the true Spirit, and to the Holy Testimony and Practices thereof, and not Condemn such, as Departers from the Light and Truth, who abide in it; nor justify themselves as abiding in it, when they are really departed from it?

His last Citation of Words of mine, is out of another Book, Entituled, An Answer to the Common Objection, &c. p. 8.

The Words are these.

That Power therefore in the Church which spares the Hypocrites, (who can easily comply with an outward Conformity in Worship without feeling an inward Life and Vertue) but lights heavy on that which was tender and shie in matters of Worship, that is not the true Church-Power; but at best, but a Counterfeit of the True.

Confirm. The Power which Christ hath given his Church is not to spare Hypocrites, who may easily comply with an outward Uniformity in Worship, without feeling an inward Life and Vertue. And such are not spared, but smote at by the Spirit and Power of God among us very often: And O that there were no Hypocrites and formal Spirits among us; but that all that profess the Truth were in the Truth, and subject to it, and did live the Life of it! Nor doth the true Church-Power light heavy on that which is tender and shy in matters of Worship; but the the Ministry of the true Church is to the Conscience, as in Gods Sight, and is very tender of it, as before him, to whom it is to give an Account of the spiritual Power it hath received from him, and of the exercise of it. That Power therefore which spares the Hypocrites, and lights heavy on that which is tender and shie in matters of Worship, to be sure is not the true Church-Power, but at best but a Counterfeit of the True.

Quest. But that Power in the Church which doth not spare Hypocrites, but is very gentle and tender to all tender Consciences, is not that the true Church-Power? And who is the Hypocrite? Is it not he that pretendeth to the Light, when he is departed from it, an Hipocrite? And he which setteth up that which he calls Light in himself, and denieth that which is indeed true Light, and which issueth forth from Gods Holy Spirit in his Church, is not he an Hypocrite? And hath not the Church Power to judg all his false pretences, and to try his Spirit, by the true Light and Spirit of the Lord Jesus, which is still present with the true Church? If the Spirit of Christ be indeed present with his Church; surely it cannot but have Power and Authority, to try, judg, and condemn every thing that is of a contrary Spirit and Nature, in all false Pretenders whatsoever; who by their pretences to the true Light, cannot shelter that which is indeed contrary to it, from the Holy and Righteous judgment of the Spirit, and Power of God in his Church.

Thus I have gone over these several Citations of John Pennymans, and punctually set them down as he hath Cited them, and spoken more words to the Confirmation of them, to Manifest to others, as I find it plainly with me before the Lord, that I am fully the same at this day, in the sense and belief of my Heart, as I was then, believing the same Truth, and as ready to hold it forth, if the Lord, at any time, shall call me unto it, as I was then. But I was not then against true Church-Government, nor did intend this to encourage any Man to shelter himself, by a pretence to the Light in himsef, against true Church-Government, assuredly knowing, that the Spirit of the Prophets is subject to the Prophets, and that he that is truly subject to the Light and Spirit of God in his own Heart, will be taught thereby to subject to it also in others. For the Life, Spirit and Power of God doth not rise in vain in any; and he that hath the true Ear open, will hear its Voice in whom soever it speaks, and he that doth not hear its Voice, when it speaks through any to him, doth not hear with the Circumcised Ear, nor understand with the Curcumcised Heart. So that John Pennyman, in Citing these my Words, as if in so writing, I was against true Church-Covernment, or for setting up the Judgment of any particular Man (upon any pretence whatsoever) above the Sense, Understanding, and Judgment of the true Church, doth me great wrong, even before the Lord, who knoweth that it was otherwise with me in that Day; and he greatly wrongeth my Words, which did not signify any such thing: For in the very same Book, and in some of the pages which he Quotes, there is expressed a Sense of, and a Testimony to the true Church-Government, which I am assured the Spirit of the Lord will give forth and lead His into, as the Necessities and Occasions of the Church require. For as the Lord is not wanting to the particular, so will he not be wanting to the general: But he is faithful, who hath promised to be with his Church and People, who wait upon him, and look up to him for the Light and Judgment of his Spirit in things, wherein he Engageth them, and which require their single discerning and judgment in.

To Manifest therefore, from this very Book what my Belief was, and how hearty I was to Church-Government, and sensible of the necessity and usefulness of it, I shall Recite some Passages out of it.

First, I shall mention the Title of that part of my Book, which had John Pennyman expressed fully, as it is in the Title-page, he had done me some Right, and manifested somewhat of my Sense concerning true Church-Government. The Title, in the Title Page, is thus, Whereunto somewhat is added about the Authority and Government, which Christ excluded out of his Church, which occasioneth somewhat concerning the true Church-Government.

This

This might have poiſed Peoples Spirits, in the Reading of his Citations, from judging me to direct men to the ſetting up of any thing in their Minds and Conſciences, which they may call Light in oppoſition to the Light and Spirit of God in his Church, or to ſet up a private judgment in themſelves, above the Light and judgment of Gods Spirit in the Church. For as the Church is to be tender of every Member, ſo every Member is to be tender and regardful towards the Church, and of the Power and Authority which God hath given it.

The next Paſſage that is on me to mention is p. 76.

There is nothing to hurt in the Mountain of Gods Holineſs; but there is a Righteous Scepter, a ſweet Scepter, a ſpiritual Scepter, which reacheth the Spirit in the Power of Life, but toucheth not the outward Man. To which I may add, The Power of the Church, is not to hurt the outward Man, Nay, nor the Soul neither: But is for the deſtruction of the Fleſh, that the Soul may be ſaved. And when the Church hath teſtified againſt their Practices, or, denied their Spirit, it leaves them to the Lord; yet ſtill praying to him, that Repentance may be given them, and Mercy ſhewed them by him, whoſe Mercy endures for ever.

Another Paſſage in p. 77.

Let the Life in every one Riſe over it, (ſpeaking of the Proud, Aſpiring Spirit) and trample upon it: And afterwards, that in thee may ariſe which is fit to Teach, yea, and to Rule in the Lord, &c.

p. 78. The Example of Chriſt is urged, who did not exerciſe a wrong Authority over his Diſciples, though he was their Lord and Maſter, which ſignified both Greatneſs above them, and Authority over them, ſee lin. 15. Yet Chriſt took not upon him this kind of Greatneſs, nor did Exercíſe this kind of Authority; But he was a Servant, &c. and did Miniſter.

So that there was one kind of Greatneſs and Authority which Chriſt did not exerciſe, and which his Church alſo is not to meddle with: But there was another kind of Authority which he had, and which he, who hath all Power in Heaven and Earth, giveth to his Church to partake with him in, and to Act in his Name.

But what ſhould I mention any ſuch ſmall touches at the thing, when it is directly ſpoken to in a Queſtion propounded, and the Anſwer thereto p. 79, 80. &c? I ſhall therefore ſet down the Queſtion, and part of the Anſwer thereto; the Whole being too long to be here Inſerted.

Queſt. But, is there to be no Greatneſs, no Authority among the Diſciples of Jeſus, or in the Church of Chriſt? Is every one to do what he will, to be ſubject to his own Fancies, and Imaginations, to the Inventions of his own corrupt Heart? What a confuſed Building will this be? ſurely this will not long remain a Zion, but ſoon become a Babylon, even a Heap of Diſorder and Confuſion.

Anſw. There is to be no ſuch kind of Greatneſs, no ſuch kind of Authority. Yet there is both a Greatneſs and Authority ſuitable to the State of Diſciples, ſuitable to that kind of Kingdom whereof they are. There are Laws, there are Governments, there are Governours, there is Ruling and there is Subjection; but all in the Spirit, all ſuitable to that which is to be Governed: but no Government of, or according to the Fleſh. As Chriſts Kingdom is not of this World, ſo the Government of His Church and People is not according to the World, but as that which gathers is his Spirit, and that which is gathered is Spiritual: ſo that which is governed is the Spirits of his People, and they are to be governed by his Spirit and ſpiritually, and not after a fleſhly manner. Thus Chriſt himſelf, though he Miniſtred to his Diſciples, yet he alſo was their Lord and Maſter, and in the Spirit and Life of the Father Ruled over them; and thus the Apoſtles, and other Miniſters of Chriſt had likewiſe in the Spirit, the Care of the Churches and Authority in the Lord, by his ſpirit to govern the ſpirits of his People:

ple: not to govern after a fleshly manner, by their own Wills, nor to prescribe them in a Lordly way, either what they should believe or practise, but in the Light, and in Power of the Spirit, to make their way into every ones Conscience in the sight of God, Ministring to every one in the spirit according to their capacity and growth, and waiting patiently for God to convey the Food and Nourishment, and to build their spirits up in the Faith thereby.

The Spirit of the Prophets is subject to the Prophets. Here is the Government, here is the Law of Rule, and Subjection in the Life. Every one feeling a Measure of the Spirit in himself, is thereby Taught to own, and subject to a greater Measure of the same Spirit in another. He that hath no Measure of the Spirit of God, he is not of God, he is none of Christs: and he that hath received a Measure of the Spirit in the same Spirit feeleth anothers Measure, and owneth it in its place and service, and knoweth its moving, and cannot quench it, but giveth way to it with joy and delight. When the Spirit moves in any one to speak, the same Spirit moves in the other, to be subject and give way: and so every one keeping to his own Measure in the Spirit, here can be no disorder, but true Subjection of every Spirit: and where this is wanting, it cannot be supplied by any outward Rule, or Order set up in the Church by common Consent; for that is Fleshly, and lets in the Flesh, and destroys the true Order, Rule, and Subjection.

And then to limit the Government aright, these two precious Cautions or Directions are added, pag. 85. which I am sure will answer the Truth, and Witness of God in every Conscience.

First, Care must be had, that nothing Govern in the Church of Christ, but the Spirit of Christ.

Secondly, That the Conscience be kept Tender, that nothing be received but according to the Light in the Conscience.

There is likewise an Objection answered about Uniformity, pag. 87, 88. which not being very large, and tending further to open the Sense of my Heart in this thing, I shall also here annex.

Object. But is not Uniformity lovely, and doth not the Apostle exhort Christians to be of one Mind, and were it not a sweet thing if we were all of one Heart, and one Way?

Answ. Yea, Uniformity is very lovely, and to be desired, and waited for, as the Spirit of the Lord which is one, leads and draws into one. But for the Fleshly part (the Wise reasoning part of Man) by Fleshly wayes and means, to strive to bring about a Fleshly Uniformity, which insnares, and overbears, the tender Conscience; this is not Lovely, nor Spiritual, nor Christian. And the Apostle who exhorts Christians to one Mind, yet doth not bid them force one another into one Mind, but walk together sweetly so far as they had attained, and wherein they were otherwise minded, God in his due time would reveal more to them, Phil. 3. 15, 16. He that hath, to him shall be given. And the Intent, and Work of the Ministry (with the several Ministrations of it) is to bring into the Unity (Ephes. 4. 13.) as persons are able to follow, and not to force all Men into one Practice or Way; that's the way to Destroy the Faith, and the True Unity, and at best can introduce but a Fleshly appearance of Unity in such a form of Worship and Godliness, as eats out the Power. And for being of one Heart, and one Way, Blessed be the Lord, this is in Measure Known, and Witnessed. The Way is one, Christ the Truth of God, and He that is in the Faith, and in the Obedience to that Light which shines from his Spirit into the Heart of every Believer, hath a Tast of the one Heart, and of the one Way; and knoweth, that no variety of Practices (which is of God) can make a breach in the True Unity. This is the one Way, for every one to be subject to that Light of Christ's Spirit, which he hath Received from Christ, and every one keeping here, there is also one Heart kept in themidst of all the variety, and diversity of Practices. And the Unity being thus kept, all will come into one Outwardly also at length, as the Light grows in every one,

one, and as every one grows into the Light: but this muſt be patiently waited for, from the Hand of God (who hath the right way of effecting it, and who alone can do it) and not harſhly, and cruelly Attempted by the rough Hand of Man.

Now I deſire all that would not Injure, and Wrong another (in taking part of ones Sence and Mind, and Concealing the other) to obſerve, how ſerious my Heart is in the Sight of the Lord, concerning Church-Government, and Unity, and Uniformity among the People of the Lord, in the Spirit and Power of the Lord, as the Lord ſhall pleaſe Rightly, and Orderly to bring it forth, and not otherwiſe. And my Words ſo plainly ſignifying, and holding forth this, O how will J. Pennyman Anſwer it to the Great God, for thus Miſ-repreſenting me, and ſtriving to make my Words ſignify that which they never did, and as a Proof how contrary our Doctrine was then, to what it hath been of late Years; whereas in that very Book he cites, my Words are full concerning Church-Government, the Authority of the Church, and the Duty of Subjection to it in the Life, as was before recited.

I have been in a great Travel of Spirit for J. Pennyman, the Lord having ſhewed me his Spirit and State (as he hath alſo done to many others, who abide in that pure, holy Light, which he hath forſaken, and is departed from) and this hath been the Cry of my Heart to the God, and Father of my Life for him, in great Brokenneſs, and Tears many times, Father forgive him, for he knows not what he does. He knows not what Spirit and Power he acts againſt, nor what Spirit and Power it is that leads him. O that he might ſee it, and turn from it, and Live! And O that all that Err, and are miſtaken in Judgment, might have a Senſe of that which is Truth indeed, and of that which is Darkneſs indeed in their own Hearts; and might not put Darkneſs for Light, and Light for Darkneſs, as too many now do, to the great hurt of their own Souls, and the hardening of others againſt God's precious Way and Truth, which will be Bitterneſs in the Latter End, unto all ſuch.

THREE or FOUR CONSIDERATIONS

Added, Concerning

Church-Government.

Firſt, THat it is the Holy Will, and Pleaſure of the Great God, that his Church ſhould be Governed by his Holy Spirit and Power Revealed in it. God is the God of Order, and not of Confuſion, and he would have every thing in the Right, and Holy Order every where, eſpecially in his Church. He hath given a Meaſure of his Good Spirit to every Man, and he would have every Man Governed thereby: And he hath given more of his Good Spirit, and Holy Power to his Church, than to any particular: and he would have his Church Governed thereby. Read the Epiſtles of Chriſt to the Churches in the Second and Third Chapters of the Revelations, and ſee how Government, and Care over their Members is expected from them. A Church is a gathering in the Name, Power, and Authority of the moſt High; and Chriſt, to whom God gave all Power in Heaven and Earth, is in them, and with them. God knows they can do nothing without his Power: and he is Faithful, who hath Appointed them to Meet together in his Name, and will not Fail them. How hath

this

this been Experienced in former Dayes! And, How is this Experienced in this our Day, Bleſſed be the Name of our God! The Life that Springs in the Church, the Light that Shines in the Church, the Power and Preſence of the Lord that is Revealed in his Church, O how Glorious is it! God hath not Gathered, nor Preſerved a People through ſo many Tryals, nor ſo Exerciſed, and Built them up in his Pure Fear, Holy Spirit, and Living Truth, to leave them ſo ſuddenly, and caſt them off, as ſome Men vainly imagine; but as the Lord hath thrown down that, which ſhall never be Built up more: ſo the Lord hath Built up that, which ſhall never be thrown down more, and brought many of his People to a ſettled State, in the unchangeable Truth and Power.

Secondly, It is the great work of Satan, and the great Intereſt of Satan to oppoſe the Holy Order and Government of the Spirit of Chriſt in his Church. It is that Power which threw down his Kingdom, and that Power will keep his Kingdom down; yea, the more that Authority and Power is eſtabliſhed in the Church, the more he is ſeen through, and his ſtrength and ſubtilty avail nothing before the Wiſdom and Power of God, Revealed in his Church. And this we have obſerved and may obſerve in this our day, the judgment of the Church, the Life in the Church, the Light that hath ſtayed with the Church and Holy Gathering, while particulars ſometimes have been miſtaken, and Erred about the Light in themſelves, hath been a ſtay to thoſe that have hearkened to her Voice, and a means to help to recover thoſe, who through the ſtrength of the Temptation, and their too confident leaning to that which they took for the Light within, and not conſulting with thoſe whom God had Ordained to be an help to the Weak, and had a clearer Eye-ſight, and Underſtanding in the Truth, than themſelves; I ſay, the Light that ſtayed hath with the Church, hath been a help to recover ſuch, who have miſtaken in judgment, and Erred from the Light in their own particulars.

Thirdly, There is great benefit and ſafety to every particular, in the Holy Order and Government, which God hath ordained in his Church. God knoweth it is not fit for Believers, or his gathered Ones to be alone; and therefore he hath appointed that by the ſame Power and Spirit which gathered them, they ſhould be added to the Church which he hath already gathered. And then they are in the place where God takes care of them; where the Lord God appears, where the Lord God dwells: For as he dwelt outwardly in the National Church of the Jews; ſo he dwells inwardly in the Spiritual Church, and gathering of Believers. There Life is in its Unity and Strength, there Light Shines as in its proper Place. There the Shepherd is, who keeps the Sheep from Erring. There the Leading Power, the Preſerving Power, the Ordering Power, is dayly Waited for, and Experienced in its Brightneſs and Clearneſs. Wo is to him that is alone: but Bleſſings are upon him who is in Unity with God's holy gathered People, and is in the Senſe of, and under the Guidance of that Spirit, which is continually preſent with them. And as we have Witneſſed Bleſſings in our Firſt Gathering, as we were gathered, and joyned to the Light, Spirit and Power of the Holy God in our own Particulars: ſo we have Witneſſed Bleſſings in our Unity with the Life in the Body. O how every Motion of Life is felt there! How the Wiſdom and Power of God is Revealed there! What help is Adminiſtred to every Member there! How the knitting in the Life, and the flowing of the Life, and holy Power from Veſſel to Veſſel is dayly Experienced there! So that every one is quickened with the pure Life, every one ſeaſoned with the pure Salt, every Virgin anointed with the holy Oyntment, every one leavened with the Leaven which unleavens to Sin and Satan, and Leavens to God. Indeed my Soul dayly Bleſſeth the Lord, not only that he hath Viſited me, but brought me into the holy living Society, and that dayly the Lord vouchſafeth to give me to partake of their Life and Spirit, in which Life and Spirit, I have Unity with them, and Love them, and Honour them, and not out of it. O Praiſes and Everlaſting Honour, and Renown to the Lord my God, who hath Remembred me with the Favour he bears to his People, and hath ſo Viſited me with his Salvation, that he hath given me to ſee the Good of his Choſen, and cauſed my poor, deſolate, mourning Soul to Rejoyce in the Gladneſs of his Nation, and to Glory in him with his Inheritance. Glorious things were ſpoken of the Church under the Law, a Glorious Power and Preſence was with that outward People, under that outward Covenant: but this was but a Shadow of the Glory, that was to be Revealed in the Church of the New-Covenant, and of the Preſence and Power of the Living God, that was to be Manifeſted, and Dwell there. And indeed it is Manifeſted, indeed it doth Dwell there, and thoſe that are the Begotten, and Born, and Preſerved by God's Holy Spirit and Power, of the immortal Word of Life, dayly Witneſs it.

Fourthly, The Glory and Beauty of the New-Teſtament-Church, doth in no ſmall degree conſiſt in the holy Order and Government of them as a ſpiritual living Body, by the bleſſed Spirit and Power of the Lord.

There were four things wherein the Glory of the Church of the Jews, under the firſt Covenant, did much conſiſt.

The firſt was in the Salvation, wherewith God viſited them, and which he beſtowed upon them. Happy art thou, O Iſrael: Who is like unto thee, O People! ſaved by the Lord, the Shield of thy help, and who is the Sword of thine Excellency: and thine Enemies ſhall be found liars unto thee, and thou ſhalt tread upon their High Places, Deut. 33. 29.

Secondly, In the gifts God beſtowed upon them; for God did adorn and beautify that People with the good things which he beſtowed upon them, Ezek. 16. 14.

Thirdly, In the preſence of the Lord their God in the midſt of them, the Ark of whoſe preſence was with them, and whoſe dwelling place was among them, and who was nigh unto them to enquired of by them, and to anſwer and ſupply them, with all that they wanted and called upon him for, Deut. 4. 7.

Fourthly, In the Holy Statutes and Righteous Judgments, which God gave them to be Ordered and Governed by, as his choſen People, ver. 5, 6, and 8.

Now all theſe are much more fulfilled in the New-Teſtament-Church; for firſt, There is the Salvation witneſſed, which this outward Salvation, of this outward People, was but a figure of. There the everlaſting Arm of Gods Power is revealed, in an Inward and Spiriritual Way and Manner, to deſtroy the Enemies of a Mans own Houſe; to redeem from Satan, to cut Rahab, to wound the Dragon inwardly, and to defend his gathered People from the Inroads of his ſtrength, and from the Subtilty of his Temptations.

Secondly, The Lord doth give great Gifts to his Churches, he bleſſeth them with all Spiritual bleſſings in heavenly things in Chriſt. Mark the Diverſity of gifts, and Diverſity of Manifeſtations, which God gave to his Churches in the Apoſtles Daies, 1 Cor. 12. 4, &c.

Thirdly, There was Gods preſence revealed, there Chriſt was in the midſt, when ever they were gathered together in his name. Every Church (as well as that of the Epheſians) was built up together an Habitation of God through the Spirit, Epheſ. 2. 22. Yea Chriſt was Head over all things to the Church, which is his Body, the fulneſs of him that filleth all in all, Chap. 1. 22, 23. Yea, they were and are the Temple of the living God, in which God would dwell and walk, and be their God, and they his People, 2 Cor. 6. 16.

Fourthly, The holy Order of his own Spirit and Life, God will not fail to reveal unto them, that they may walk in the Spirit of the Goſpel, in the Power of the Goſpel, in the Order of the Goſpel, and the Holy Government of Gods Spirit and Power may ſhine in the midſt of them, and that God may bleſs them as an Habitation of Juſtice and Mountain of Holineſs, Jer. 21. 23.

The Church is a Body, every particular ſoul that is renewed, quickened and kept alive is a member. Now every member needs the Preſence and Power of that Spirit which quickned it, to nouriſh, keep alive, and order it. And the Church hath much more need of the Spirit to be preſent with it, to guide and order it, and keep it in the holy Order, Power and Government of Life. And this Order and holy Government in the Spirit and Power of the Lord, was brought forth in the Apoſtles ſtles daies: for the Apoſtles did rejoyce in it concerning that Church of Coloſſe, who joyed beholding their Order, and the ſtedfaſtneſs of their Faith in Chriſt, Coloſ. 2. 5. For the Apoſtles and Miniſters of Chriſt did ſet things in order in that day, Tit. 1. 5. 1 Cor. 11. 34. and it was their Joy to ſee that Order obſerved, and their Grief when any were unruly, and would not be ſubject to the Holy Order and Government of the Church, 1 Theſ. 5. 14. Tit. 1. 10. And the Church of Corinth, though it fell ſhort in no gift, yet falling ſhort in order, it did not arrive at the Glory of ſome other Churches.

The ſpiritual Solomon, who is full of the Wiſdom of God; O the bleſſed Order and holy Government that he brings forth among his Church and People! How doth God eſtabliſh Jeruſalem, and make her a praiſe in the Earth; but by the holy Order and bleſſed Government of his Spirit, governing her as a Church, as a ſpiritual Body, by his own pure wiſdom, which no other Government or Order can come near? And truly my heart hath been often affected, and filled with raviſhing Joy, when I have beheld the Heavenly and Bleſſed Order and Government, which the Lord God of Wiſdom hath already brought forth among us, and guideth us in, to the comfort and refreſhment of many, and to the injury and hurt of none, neither without, nor within. And indeed, we do not deſire any Greatneſs or Authority of man; but only of the Lord our God in the midſt of us, and that all men may be but his Servants and Miniſters in the Church, and to the Church, for the good of the Church. No, no; this is the day of the Lord, of the ſetting up, and of exalting his Power in the Church, which the Church waiteth for, and knoweth the appearance of, and cannot bear the Exaltation of Man (of Mans Spirit, Wiſdom, Power and Authority) inſtead of the Lords. Yet, nothing that cometh from the Lord, from his pure Life and Spirit in any, muſt be rejected: and if the Lord pleaſe to make uſe of thoſe, whom he did make uſe of to gather home to himſelf; I ſay if he hath given them gifts, and pleaſe to make uſe of them alſo in building up, and manifeſting the holy Order of his holy Spirit and Power; the Lord muſt not be reſiſted or withſtood therein: but whatever comes from him, muſt be received with thankfulneſs, through what inſtrument ſoever he pleaſe to convey it.

Object. But have I not been taught to be ſubject to the Light in my own heart, and to make that my Judge; and is not this another, or new or different Doctrine from that, now to tell me I muſt ſubject to the Light of Gods Spirit in his Church? Suppoſe that which the Church requires or orders or holds forth, be different from my Light, or be not yet revealed to me, by the Light wherewith God hath Enlightned me: muſt I deny the Light wherewith God hath Enlightned me, and ſubject to the Churches Light? Or muſt I Practiſe as the Church Orders, before I have Light and Faith in my own particular?

Anſw. I ſhall Anſwer this Queſtion, according to the naked and plain ſenſe of Truth in my Heart.

Firſt, God gives Power to his Church, to perform all that he requires of her as a Church. Now the Church is a ſpiritual Body, and is to take care of her members to look after them that they mind the Truth, and walk according to Truth, and to admoniſh and reprove them, when they do otherwiſe. And every member of the Church, ought to hear the Church, in whatever ſhe ſpeaks unto it from God.

Secondly, Every member hath need of the Light, Spirit and Power which God gives his Church, and reveals in his Church for the good of the Body, and the benefit and advantage of each Member therein.

Thirdly, The Light, Spirit and Power in the Church, is never contrary to the Light, Spirit and Power in any Member; but alwaies one with it, and a Cheriſher and Preſerver of what God begets, and which anſwers his Witneſs in any. The new Jeruſalem, the Church of Gods building in his own Spirit and Power, is a City at Unity within it ſelf. The greateſt degree of Light owns, and is at Unity with the leaſt: and the leaſt degree of Light, hath a ſenſe of that which is in degree and meaſure above it.

Fourthly, The Light in the weakeſt, which they are at firſt to be turned, and afterward terwards to be kept to, though there is a ſufficiency in it for the particular, yet they are not ſo underſtanding and ſenſible of it, as thoſe whoſe ſenſes have been long exerciſed in the living Truth, and are grown in the holy Experience. Therefore as the Elders are to be tender of the Younger: ſo the Younger are to reverence the Elders in the Lord, and not to ſlight their Teſtimony, Experience or Judgment in the Truth When we were firſt convinced of the Truth, were we not in a great degree ignorant and doubtful concerning the riſings and motions of it in the heart? Which the eye being yet weak, could not clearly diſtinguiſh; and O how helpful to us was the tender care and advice of ſuch, whom God had made acquainted with thoſe things, and were able to give us true Judgment from him, in ſuch caſes as our weak minds were apt to be entangled about, and could not ſee through?

Fifthly, Great Sobriety is needful in ſuch caſes, wherein men are too prone to be judging others, eſpecially the Church of God. Every man is to take heed of thinking of himſelf more highly than he ought to think; but to think ſoberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the meaſure of Faith, Rom. 12. 3 And the young men (who have not the experience of the aged, and are moſt apt to confidence, and excurſions) are in a ſpecial manner to be Exhorted to be ſober-minded, Tit. 2. 6. Men may eaſily judge that others err; and that they themſelves keep to the Light and meaſure of Truth in their own particulars: but it is hard to do it. But they that indeed do it, abide in the Humility and Innocency, and Lamb-like Spirit, which would give no offence in any thing, neither to Jew nor Gentile, nor to the Church of God. If it will go ſo hard with him that offends one of Chriſt's Little Ones; how will it go with him that offends his Church, wherein his Glory and Power riſeth and is eſtabliſhed? The Church is not apt to be ſuch an erring Body from the Light, Spirit and Power of the Lord Jeſus, as many (who miſtake concerning the Light in their own Particulars) are too apt to ſuppoſe.

Laſtly, Ever ſince the fall of Man, Man hath been ſecretly or more manifeſtly directed by a Light, or the Principle within, to direct or guide his wayes. To Adam the Holy Seed was promiſed, which was not only to appear outwardly in a body of Fleſh, but alſo within in Mans Heart, to bruiſe the Serpents Head there. And the Holy Patriarchs had not the letter outwardly, but Gods Spirit inwardly to be their Guide and Teacher, which did alſo ſtrive with the wicked Old World before the Flood. The Jews alſo were directed to the Word nigh in the Mouth and Heart; And by this Word God ſhewed alſo to the Gentiles what was Good, and what the Lord required of them: and by this Word ſuch of the Gentiles as hearkened to it, felt ſomewhat of the new Creation and of the new Nature, by which Nature they did in meaſure Anſwer the Holy Law of God, and do the things contained in the Law, which by the old, corrupt Nature no Man can do. Alſo Chriſt Preached the Kingdom, or Seed of the Kingdom within. And the Apoſtles Preached the ſame word of Faith within, which Moſes had teſtified of.

Yet in none of theſe Diſpenſations, was any Teſtimony from God to be deſpiſed; but his Voice to be heard in the Prophets, in Chriſt and in the Apoſtles. And though Men are bleſſedly and glorioufly turned, and to be turned to the Light within, in theſe our Days; yet they are not thereby taught to neglect or deſpiſe the Voice of God, in any whom he ſends and ſpeaks by, and pretend it is contrary to their Light; but to lye low before the Lord, that in the true Humility and Holy Fear, they may know the Voice of the Shepherd, both in their own Hearts, and in whomſoever he pleaſeth to ſpeak. For the great, Almighty God is not limited, but he may ſpeak in and through whom he pleaſeth. He may ſpeak to me from the Anointing in my own Heart, and the holy Anointing may pleaſe to ſpeak to me through others: and ſo far as I am God, and ſenſible of his Appearance, I cannot deſpiſe the Voice of the Anointing in my own Heart, or through others. Yea, truth teacheth that modeſty, temperance, humility, tenderneſs and ſobriety, that I dare not deſpiſe the Voice that pretends to the Anointing in any, until I have made tryal of it. Yea, John Pennymans Voice and Teſtimony, I durſt not Condemn until the Lord my God, in the un-erring Light and pure ſpringing Life, manifeſted unto me, that it was not of him, but of the transforming Enemy, who had bewitched and deceived him by his ſtrong Deluſions (he forſaking the Rock, which which would have been his ſtrength) to receive and believe a Lie inſtead of the Truth.

O Bleſſed be the Lord for the building up ſuch a Church, and ſpeaking to us through his Church! And happy are they that hear her Voice, that ſo keep to their own, as to know the Voice of their own in the Church, and are not through Temptation prejudiced againſt it. For it is the Lords gathering, and the Lord is with it; and the People who have been gathered by the Lord, and are daily taught by him keep with him. And though ſome may depart from us, and through Errour of judgment teſtify againſt us, yet Truth abides, and the Lords People abide with the Truth, and his building goeth on, and the holy Government of his Son encreaſeth in it, and the Lord appears more and more inwardly in his Glory, as the hearts of his People are made capable to receive it from him. And in all the goings out of any, and Apoſtacies that have been in any, through hearkening to a wrong Spirit, they that have heard and reverenced the Voice and Teſtimony of the Church, and Gods Choſen and bleſſed Miniſtry, which he hath raiſed among us, have ſtill been preſerved; and they that have gone therefrom, been betrayed. And it is my Faith, this Church of Gods gathering ſhall ſtill be preſerved, and grow in the holy Dominion and Authority of Gods Bleſſed Spirit; and that all her Enemies ſhall be found Liars unto her, and ſhe ſhall tread upon their high Places, and ſhall grow and proſper the more, by all Oppoſition; the Everlaſting Arm, and Wiſdom of the Almighty being with Her to preſerve, proſper, and bleſs Her; ſo be it. Amen.

THE END.

THE

THE SEED OF GOD, AND OF His KINGDOM

Treated and Teſtified of according to the Scriptures of Truth, and according to True Experience felt in the Heart from the God of Truth:

By Iſaac Pennington.

The Kingdom of Heaven is like to a grain of Muſtard-Seed, which a man took and ſowed in his Field. Which indeed is the leaſt of all Seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greateſt among Herbs, &c. Matth. 13. 31, 32.

Being born again not of Corruptible Seed, but of Incorruptible, by the Word of God which Liveth and Abideth for ever. 1 Pet. 1. 23.

Whoſoever is born of God, doth not commit ſin; for his ſeed remaineth in him: and he cannot ſin, becauſe he is born of God, 1 Joh. 3. 9.

The PREFACE.

I Would fain have (and my Soul exceedingly breaths to the Lord for it) diſputing about Religion come to an end, and the right underſtanding, practiſing and experiencing the true Religion begun and go on in Mens Hearts. The Goſpel-Religion, in the Apoſtles Days, did begin in the Evidence and Demonſtration of Gods Spirit inwardly: and it cannot rightly begin any otherwiſe now. Nor can it rightly go on any other way, but according to its beginning: For they that begin in the Spirit, cannot poſſibly rightly go on, or be made perfect by the Fleſh. Did the Apoſtles in vain wait for the Spirit and Power from on High? Can the Goſpel-Miniſtry, or Goſpel-Work in any Heart, be carried on without it? Or did they in vain turn men from Satans Power to God? Can the leaſt, true change be wrought in the Heart, without the Operation of Gods Holy Spirit and Power there? And to be turned to wait for, and taught to know the riſings of the pure Power of the Lord inwardly, (which is ſo neceſſary to begin, preſerve and carry on the work) O what a precious Miniſtration of Life, and of the Goſpel, is this from the Lord? The thing that we wanted, and mourned after, all our Days, in our ſeveral ſtrains and waies of profeſſion, without the knowledge of this; is now met with; Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael, who hath caſt up, and prepared the way (according to his Promiſe) before the face of all People. Who ever hath an Ear to hear, what the Spirit ſaith to the Churches of his own Gathering, or from the Angel of his own ſending, may now hear the Bleſſed Tidings of the Reign of the King of Iſrael, and of Zion his holy Hill, and Jeruſalem his holy City; and how to wait for the Law going out of Sion, and the Word of the

Lord

Lord from Jeruſalem, and how he may receive the Sheeps Nature, and the Sheeps Ear, which hears the voice of the Shepherd, and is not deceived about it. O come out of the vain-diſputing mind, and thou comeſt out of deceit. Come into the true ſilence and ſtilling of the fleſhly part thither, where Gods voice is heard and underſtood; and thou comeſt into true certainty. There thou comeſt to hear the voice behind thee, calling thee from every falſe way (which is polluted, and where thy Souls reſt is not) and directing thee to the true Way, to the Way of Holineſs, livingly pointing out and ſaying to thee, This is the Way, walk in it. This is the Way of Life, this is the Way of Truth, this is the Way Peace, this is the Way of Holineſs; here all the true Travellers are to Walk, with their Faces Sion-wards, to obtain the Kingdom and Righteouſneſs of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt. Now; O every one that truly Thirſts, why do ye not come to the Waters? God hath opened the Way, He heartily invites you; yea the Spirit and the Bride ſaith Come, and take the waters of Life freely. O wait to know the inward Holy Power, and the inward Birth, and the inward Teaching, and the inward Covenant; and this Birth's overcoming by the inward Power, the inward Enemies: that ye being delivered from them, may come to enjoy the Well of Life, and to ſit down in the Heavenly Places in Chriſt Jeſus, where the true Reſt is; and in the Srength, Life and Vertue of his Spirit, may ſerve the Lord in Righteouſneſs and Holineſs without fear, of thoſe Enemies which the Lord hath delivered you from, and which his Love, Mercy, and Power, is as a Wing over you to preſerve you for ever from; I ſay, that ye may ſerve the Lord your God out of the fear of theſe, and feed on his Holy Mountain, out of the reach of thoſe, in the Majeſty of the Nam. of the Lord your God; and theſe may not be able to make you affraid, or diſturb your Reſt, or hinder your ſweet enjoyment and precious ſervice of your God any more. O ye that are afraid of being deceived, take heed ye be not deceived inwardly in your hearts, about theſe things; and by the Vail which the Enemy ſpreads there, hindred and deprived of your ſhare in the bleſſed adminiſtration of the Spirit, Life and Power of our Lord Jeſus: whom to know after the fleſh (or as man can comprehend concerning him in his carnal mind) is of little value: but to know him inwardly, and ſpiritually to live and reign, and to exerciſe his Dominion in the heart, over every temptation, and over all that is con rary to God (whenever any ſuch thing appears) is a pure, living excellent and ſatisfactory knowledge of him; which the Lord lead every truly-hungring and thirſting Soul, towards the obtaining and full enjoyment of! Amen.

Concerning the

SEED OF GOD,

OR, THE

Seed of the Kingdom:

What it is? Where it is to be found? Who ſowed it there? What is hid or wrapped up in it? What is its Nature? What its Effects? Of its Growth, and Hindrances thereof; Of its Bleſſedneſs, and how it makes Bleſſed? How Chriſt is Formed of this Seed; and, How the Soul is Born of this Immortal Seed.

Firſt, What the Seed is?

Anſw. THe Seed of God is the Word of God, the Seed of the Kingdom is the Word of the Kingdom. It is a meaſure of the Light and Life, of the Grace and Truth which is by Jeſus Chriſt, whereof in him is the fulneſs. It is an Heavenly Heavenly Talent, or Manifeſtation of his Spirit in the Heart, which is given to Man for him, in the Vertue and Strength of Chriſt, to improve for God. This which God hath placed in Man, to Witneſs for himſelf, and to Guide Man from Evil unto Good (in the pure Breathings, Quickenings, and Shinings of it) this is the Seed, which is freely beſtowed on Man, to ſpring up, and remain in him, and to gather him out of himſelf, into it ſelf.

Secondly, Who is the Sower of this Seed?

Anſw. God in, and through Chriſt. He is the good Husband-Man. He, by the Word which Created all in the Beginning, Creates anew in Chriſt Jeſus, renews his Workmanſhip in Man, and puts a Meaſure of this Word or Spirit of Life in Man's Heart, whereby he renews him: and they that are thus renewed by him, are his Workmanſhip, Created in Chriſt Jeſus unto good Works.

Thirdly, Where is this Seed to be Found?

Anſw. Where God Sows it, which is in the inward Earth. It is an inward Seed, and it is Sowed in inward Land or Earth; that is, in the Hearts of Men. There the Light of the Word ſhines, there the Light of the Word is felt, ſtirring ſecretly in, and Quickening thoſe that were Dead in Treſpaſſes and Sins. There the Voice and Call of the Word is heard, calling from Unrighteouſneſs and Sin, to Righteouſneſs and Holineſs.

Fourthly, In what ſorts of Earth is this Heavenly Seed ſown?

Anſw. In all ſorts: in thorny ground, ſtony ground, high-way ground and good ground. God's inward lightenings enlighten the inward World throughout: ſo that God hath not left any man without a witneſs in his Conſcience againſt Sin. So that, though mans Conſcience be corrupt, and his Light become Darkneſs; yet God's witneſs in his Conſcience can never be corrupted: but whenever it ſhines in the Heart, it gives true Light there: and whenever it witneſſeth there, it witneſſeth the truth for God, and againſt man, and the Corruption and ſearedneſs of his Heart and Conſcience.

Fifthly, In what ſort of earth it brings forth good fruit to Perfection.

Anſw. Only in the good ground. It brings forth fruit in other grounds, and the fruit it brings forth is good. The Convictions are good, the deſires begotten there by it, and that ariſe from it, are good. The leaving off of ſome bad things, and doing ſome good things, is good: but the thorns, the cares, the worldlineſs, the fear of Perſecution, that ſpring up from another root, and are of another Nature, choak the Good which the Seed brings forth in the thorny ground, and ſtifle and choak the Seed it ſelf alſo, in ſuch kind of grounds. But in the good ground which yields its whole nouriſhment to the good Seed, and will not yield nouriſhment to any bad; the good Seed not only ſprings up, but brings forth Fruit to perfection.

Sixthly, How may the ground that is bad, be made good? Was not the ground which is now good, once bad, and may not the ground which is now bad, be made good?

Anſw. God hath ſhut up all Men in unbelief, that he might have Mercy upon all. The Heart that is now ſoft, was once hard. The Heart that is now Believing, was once in the Unbelief. The Heart that now Loves God, was once in the Enmity. The Plough of God, put into the Thorny Ground, tearing it up, and Rooting out the Thorns thereof, will change its Nature, and make it become better.

Break up your Fallow Ground, Sow not among Thorns, ſaid God to his Iſrael of Old. And the Stony ground, if the Stones be picked out of it, will be leſs Stony: Yea, not at all Stony, if all the Stones be picked out. And the High-Way ground, being encloſed, and dreſſed by God's Spirit and Power, will be no longer Common, or High-Way ground. Doth not Man by Care, Art, and Induſtry, change the Nature of outward land or ground? Surely then the Lord, by the Word of his Power, by his inward deſtroying of Evil, and Creating good anew, can change the Nature of ground inwardly.

Now for the clearer, and plainer ſignifying of what yet remains on my Heart, concerning this precious Seed of Life, or Seed of the Kingdom of God; I ſhall Diſtri-

Distribute it under these Three Heads; under which, the things mentioned in the foregoing Title will be comprized.

1. What is hid or wrapped up in this Seed?
2. The Nature of it.
3. The Effects of it.

I.

What is hid or wrapped up in this Precious, Heavenly Seed.

Answ. Indeed there is so much wrapped up in it, as the Heart of Man cannot conceive, much less the Tongue utter: yet somewhat have I felt, and somewhat is upon my Heart, to say in Answer to this thing, under these Four Heads following.

First, The Glory of the Kingdom of Heaven, the Glory of the Everlasting Kingdom is hid and wrapped up in it, as in a Seed. Whatever Christ Appears, Reigns, and Shines in, is there as in a Seed. O the shootings forth, and spreadings abroad of it, is indeed Glorious and Excellent! How can a Man almost speak concerning it, the thing it self (being inwardly felt, known, and enjoyed) is so far beyond all words! What doth the Kingdom of God stand in? It stands not in Word, but in Power. The Power is hid, and wrapped up in this Seed. The pure Power of Life is in this Seed. The Sword that Pierceth Leviathan, that Woundeth the Serpents Head, that Cutteth Rahab, and the Dragon, is in this Seed. Doth the Kingdom of God consist in Righteousness, Peace, and Joy in God's Spirit? This is all in this Seed, and is partook of, and enjoyed, as this Seed springs up, and gains Authority, and Dominion in the Heart. Yea, the Horn of God's Anointed, the Righteous, and Peaceable Scepter of the Saviour, is known and exalted in this Seed, as it springs up, and spreads abroad in the Life, and Vertue of the Father.

Secondly, The Divine Nature of God Almighty is hid, and wrapped up in it. It is the Seed of God, and it is of the very Nature of God: And he in whom it springs, and who is gathered into it, born of it, and one with it, partakes of the Divine Nature. Peter speaks of the great and precious Promises, whereby the Saints are made partakers of the Divine Nature. All the Promises are to the Seed of Promise, to Christ the Son of God, to the Seed of God, to the Heirs of Life, and Salvation in Christ: and they are all Fulfilled to them, and Enjoyed by them, who are Ingrafted into, and One with Christ the Seed; which cannot be, but by the Grace, by the Truth, by the Light, Life, Spirit, and Power, which he Sows in the Heart; which are not many things, but all Contained, and Comprehended in the one Seed.

Thirdly, All the Graces, and Vertues of God's Holy Spirit are hid, and wrapped up in this one Seed. There is nothing God can require of the Soul, nor nothing the Soul can desire of God, but is hid, and wrapped up in this Seed. So that all that is needful, or all that can be desired, is the growing, and spreading of this Seed in the Soul, and the Souls Gathering into it, and its Living, Dwelling, Abiding, and Acting in it. And, O the great difference between the Souls selfish striving, and willing, and running to Joyn to God and Christ, and to Live in God and Christ; and God's Joyning it to himself, and his Son in this Seed, and its Living, Willing, and Acting in the springing Life of this Seed! To make this a little more Plain and Evident, to the Hearts of those that desire the true Understanding of this thing, I shall Instance in some Particulars.

First, The Pure, Living, Heavenly Knowledge of the Father, and of his Son Christ Jesus, is wrapped up in this Seed. God is Light; and this Seed, which comes from Him, is not Darkness, but Light: And in the springing Light of this Seed, God and Christ are Revealed. The Divine Nature of them springs up in the Seed (and if I know their Nature, I know them) yea here we (whom the Lord hath visited, and shewn Mercy to, though Men despise us) know the Righteous Spirit of Christ, the Righteous Nature of Christ, the Righteous Life of Chriſt, and feel him to be one with the Father, who begets of the ſame Spirit, Nature, and Life in us. And he that is Born of the Spirit, is Spirit, and he that is United to the Lord, is one Spirit: And he that is United to the Seed, to the Meaſure of Grace and Truth from Chriſt (wherein, and whereby the Soul is United) is United to God, and Ingrafted into Chriſt: And as the Seed is Formed in him, Chirſt is Formed in him, and as he is Formed, and New-Created in the Seed, He is the Workman-Ship of God, Formed, and New Created in Chriſt.

Secondly, Faith, the True Faith; the Lively, Effectual, Saving, Conquering Faith, which gives Victory over the World, and over the Devil, and his Temptations is contained or wrapped up in this Seed. Faith is the Gift of God, the precious Gift of God, which is not found in Man's Nature: But ſprings, and grows from the precious Seed of the Kingdom, which God Sows in Man's Heart. So that it is a Gift to be waited for, and Obtained from God. Therefore the Apoſtle Peter, Writing to the Saints in his time, directs his Epiſtle thus, To them who have Obtained like precious Faith with us, through the Righteouſneſs of God, and our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, 2 Pet. 1. 1. Faith is a Precious thing, a Righteous thing, an Holy thing, which God is the giver of, which Chriſt is the Author and Finiſher of: And it ſprings from the Holy Root, from the Holy Seed of Life and Righteouſneſs, which God Sows in the Heart. This Faith (I ſpeak not of Man's Ability of Believing, or the Faith which is Found in Man's Nature) is the Faith of God's Elect, Tit. 1. 1. The Faith which God gives to them that are Born of Him, Joh. 1. 12, 13. who are Born of the Seed incorruptible, by the Word of God which Liveth and Abideth for ever, 1 Pet. 1. 23. which Word being nigh in the Mouth and Heart, and begetting, preſerving, and increaſing Faith there (as is dayly experienced plentifully, Bleſſed be the Lord) is therefore called the Word of Faith, Rom. 10. 8.

Thirdly, The Pure Fear, the Holy Fear, the Heavenly Fear, which is of a Clean and Heavenly Nature, and endureth for ever; is alſo in this Seed. The Child-like Fear is in the Nature of the Child: and the more it grows in the true Child-like Nature, the more it grows in this kindly Fear; wherein there is no Torment, but the pure Pleaſure of Life, and of Holy Obedience to the Father of Life. The Child-like Fear is a promiſe of the New-Covenant, and given to the Children of the New-Covenant, by Vertue of the New-Covenant, God putting it into their Hearts from the Seed of Life ſpringing up in them, which preſerves them from departing from the Lord, Jer. 32. 40.

Fourthly, The Pure Divine Love is in it. As this ſprings, Love to God ſprings. As God is Love, ſo the Seed that is of him partakes of his Love. There is no Enmity in it, nor no Enmity or ill Will ſprings from it. This is it, that makes it ſo Natural to the Children of God to Love: becauſe they are Born of that Seed which came from the God of Love, whoſe Nature is Love. O how dayly is it found, by ſweet and certain Experience, that this Seed (ſpringing up) teacheth and enableth to Love! And they that have this Seed ſpringing up in them, need not to be Writ to, or outwardly Taught to Love, with the Brotherly Love: for in it, and by it, and through it, they are Taught of God to Love one another. So that, there needs nothing but the Circumciſing of the Heart, the Puriſying of the Heart, through the Obedience of the Truth, the Cutting off of that Fleſhly Mind, Nature, Will, and Wiſdom, which cannot Love aright: and the pure Love will ſpring up, fully towards the Lord, and towards the Brethren, Deut. 30. 6. 1 Pet. 1. 22. yea, it will be Natural to Love all: and that Command of Chriſts, will not be grievous, namely, to Love Enemies, even the greateſt Revilers, Curſers, and Perſecuters, Mat. 5. 44.

Fifthly, The Pure Hope, the Hope of the Upright, the Hope which makes not Aſhamed, the Hope which goes within the Vail, and is a ſure and ſtedfaſt Anchor there, ſtaying the Mind upon the Lord, who keeps ſuch in perfect Peace; this Hope is contained in, and ſpringeth from the Seed. For nothing but that which comes from God (from the Holy Seed of Truth and Righteouſneſs) can ſtay the Mind upon God. So that, he that feels the Seed, feels the Hope: and keeping keeping to the Seed (to the Holy Root, to the end) the Hope remains to the end. So the Mind being turned to the Light; being turned from Satan's Power to God, being turned to Christ, being turned to the Appearance, and Voice of the Word of Life within, being turned from the Seed of Wickedness, and Darkness, to the Holy and Righteous Seed of the Kingdom, it is turned to the Hope, it is turned to that which begets a true and right Hope in the Heart; which Hopes in God's Love, Hopes in God's Mercy, Hopes in God's Kind, Tender, and Faithful Nature; and hath no Confidence nor Hope in the Flesh, but in the Holy and Heavenly Seed, and Work of Righteousness, and of the Kingdom, which is God's Battle-Ax, and Weapon of War, whereby he brings down the Flesh. This Hope stayes the Mind in every Temptation, in every Distress, in every Tryal, in all the Winds, Storms, and Waves of Persecution that it can be Assaulted with. For in this Seed the Root of Jesse is felt, the Everlasting Rock and Foundation of Life is felt: and here the God of Hope fills His, that are gathered hither, and abide here, with all Joy, and Peace in Believing, that they may abound in Hope, through the Power of the Holy Ghost, Rom. 15. 12, 13.

Sixthly, The true Patience, which obtains the Crown, which makes Perfect and Entire; so that there is nothing wanting, where it hath its perfect Work; (Jam. 1. 4.) the Patience which enables quietly to suffer any Chastisement from God, or any Affliction, or hard Dealing from Men; it is contained in, and given with this Seed. As God is Patient, and Long-Suffering: so this Seed is also. It is Man that is of the brittle, fretful, impatient Nature. But he that Receiveth the Word of Faith, the Seed of Faith; in it he receiveth Faith and Patience also: so that to him it is not only given to Believe, but to Suffer also for the sake of Christ. And he that abides in the Seed, and feels the Seed remaining in him, and its Nature prevailing; can never be Impatient, whatsoever the Lord suffers to befal him.

Seventhly, The Lambs Meekness is in it. Where should the Lambs Meekness be found, but in his Fathers Seed, or in the Seed of his Fathers Kingdom? Here the meek and quiet Spirit is Received, Witnessed, and Enjoyed, which in the Sight of God, is of much Price. This Seed is Sowed or Begotten in the Womb of the Heavenly Wisdom, and the Meekness of Wisdom, the true Meekness of the true Wisdom is found in it. Here the still, soft, gentle, Lamb-like Nature grows up, wherein there is none of Esau's Roughness.

Eighthly, Here Poverty of Spirit, true Poverty of Spirit is Witnessed. He is Poor indeed, who hath sold all, and hath nothing left him but this Seed, and the appearance, and help of God in this Seed; which is not in his own hands neither, but in the Will, and Disposal of God.

Ninethly, Here Mercifulness towards others is Experienced. For he that is brought hither, Lives only by Mercy: and he that Lives by Mercy, and is dayly what he is by Mercy, cannot but be Merciful unto others.

Tenthly, Here the true Mourning, and Lamenting after the Lord, and his precious Life and Presence; and because of the Presence or Power of that which hinders the growth of the Seed, and the Souls Union with, and Enjoyment of the Lord in it, is Witnessed. For the true Mourning, to which the Blessedness belongs, is of God, from the Living Sence that ariseth from his pure Seed in the Heart: and Blessed indeed are they that thus Mourn, for they shall be Comforted.

Eleventhly, The true Hungring, and Thirsting after Righteousness ariseth from this Seed. It is the Seed of God, the Birth of God, that which hath the Sence of the Excellency of his Righteousness, that Hungers and Thirsts after his Righteousness.

Twelfthly, The true Sobriety, Moderation, and Temperance ariseth from this Seed: and they that are joyned to the Seed, and are, and act in the Seed, easily learn such Sobriety, Moderation, and Temperance, as they that are out of it, cannot possibly Learn.

Lastly, To name no more, The Cross which Mortifies, and Crucifies to the World and to Sin, can only be taken up in the Seed, or by Vertue of the Seed.

Indeed the Seed is a Croſs; yea, Enmity to the Serpents Nature, Spirit, and Courſe: and he that takes it up, its Will, its Nature, its Law of Life; takes up the Croſs to the other Nature, Will, and the Law of Sin and Death. So that ſly the Holy Seed, and thou haſt only a ſhadow or appearance of the Croſs: but in ſenſe of, and ſubjection to the Seed, the Croſs of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt is felt. Working Powerfully againſt Sin, and the whole Courſe of the Evil, and Sinful Nature, effectually Crucifying, and Subduing it.

Fourthly, The Fourth thing which is hid, or wrapped up in the precious Seed, which is the laſt that remains to be mentioned by me, at this time, is this, The New-Covenant, which God makes with the New-Iſrael, by which he makes the Heart New, and Writes his Law in it, and takes away the ſtony Heart, and Heals all their Back-ſlidings, and Loves them freely, and puts his Spirit within them, cauſing them to walk in his Wayes, and to keep his Statutes, and Judgments, and do them, even the holy Agreement of the Soul with God in Chriſt Jeſus, is in this Seed.

God gave Chriſt for a Covenant, and the Seed of Grace and Truth comes by Jeſus Chriſt: which is of his Nature, of him the Covenant: and all that receive this grace and truth from him, this holy Seed of the Kingdom, they receive the Covenant: and they that walk in it, walk in the Covenant.

Here, and here alone, the new Creation in Chriſt Jeſus is Known.

Here, and here alone, the coming to God by Chriſt is truly underſtood and witneſſed.

Here, and here alone, the Law of the Spirit of Life in Chriſt Jeſus is writ in the heart.

Keep here, thou never goeſt out of the holy Agreement with God and with Chriſt: for in this grace and truth, in this Seed of Life, there is nothing that diſagrees with them. Here thou liveſt in the Spirit, walkeſt in the Spirit, and doſt not, canſt not, fulfill the luſts of the Fleſh. There is nothing here, that will either diſpleaſe God, or lead thy Soul aſide from him: but here the Lord guides the Feet of his Saints, and teacheth all of them, (from the leaſt Babe of them, to the higheſt growth) and puts his Law of Life and new Obedience, and his holy Spirit into their hearts, that none of their ſteps may ſlide. Here the way of holineſs wherein God preſerves His from erring (Iſa. 35. 8.) is known and walked in. Yea here Chriſt is known, and felt to be the Way, the Truth and the Life. The Sheep that are gathered hither, and come hither, are returned to the Biſhop and ſhepherd of their Soul; who watcheth over them, and Powerfully preſerveth them, that they run aſtray no more. For whither ſhould they go, or whom ſhould they hear, when they have found him, and know his Voice, with whom are the Words of eternal Life?

I ſhall conclude this head with that precious Scripture, 1 Cor. 1. 30. But of him are ye in Chriſt Jeſus who of God is made unto us Wiſdom, and Righteouſneſs, and Sanctification, and Redemption. How are we of God in Chriſt Jeſus: but by this Seed of God, by being born of the Spirit of God, by being begotten out of the Spirit of the world into the Nature and Spirit of Chriſt, from this immortal and incorruptible Seed of Life, Truth, Grace and Spirit? And how do we put on Chriſt, but by puting on this Seed? and how do we grow up in Chriſt? but by the growing up in this Seed, and feeling this Seed grow up in us? And here, in Truth and Demonſtration of God's Spirit we are formed in Chriſt, and Chriſt formed in us, as this Seed groweth up into a form and ſhape in us, and we into a form and ſhape in it. Now we cannot receive this ſeed, but as we part with and deny our own wiſdom and fleſhly confidence: and denying that, and crying to God for Wiſdom; God brings up the wiſdom of the ſeed in us, and makes Chriſt become unto us wiſdom therein. And we cannot hunger after the true Righteouſneſs, the heavenly Righteouſneſs, the Righteouſneſs of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt; but as we ſee the loathſomneſs of, and put off our own righteouſneſs: and then becoming naked, we are taught of God to buy white raiment of him, which is the Righteouſneſs of the ſaints; and ſo he becomes our Righteouſneſs, made ſo of God to us.

And

And he is the purger and cleanſer of ſin and unholineſs out of our Hearts, and Lives, and the holy Leavener and Sanctifier of our hearts: ſo that we have nothing of holineſs, but what we have of him and in him. And he is our Redemption: our Redemption is by him and through him, our Redemption is wrought and preſerved by him, and enjoyed in him; yea he is made of God unto us Redemption. So that having him, we have Redemption through his Blood; yea he is our Redeemer, and Redemption for evermore. Alas, what is it to get notions of theſe things into the outward comprehenſion! but to feel them Livingly in the heart, is Life and Peace for evermore: and the Knowledg of this Seed of the Kingdom, and of God and Chriſt in this ſeed, is the moſt precious Knowledg that can be deſired, obtained or enjoyed.

II.

The Nature of this Seed.

WHat is the Nature of the Seed of God, or the Seed of the Kingdom?

Anſw. Though the Nature of it hath been largely ſignified already, under the fore-going head; (for the mentioning of what is wrapped up in it, abundantly ſheweth its Nature) yet I ſhall ſpeak a little more punctually and expreſly of it in ſeveral particulars, according to the Scriptures, that the Reader may have the more diſtinct ſenſe and inward apprehenſion of it, the Lord opening his heart in Reading theſe things.

Firſt, It is of an immortal, incorruptible Nature, 1 Pet. 1. 23. It is a Seed that can never dye in it ſelf, though it may be as it were Dead in man or unto man, not putting forth any of its hidden Life, or Virtue in the man that hath ſlain it as to himſelf: who having ſlain that whereby God gives Life, is dead in Treſpaſſes and in Sins; and cannot Live any more, till God breath upon and quicken this Seed in him, and him by this Seed. This is a great Myſtery. Doubtleſs the Seed of Life and Godlineſs, wherein the Life and Godlineſs of the Soul lies hid, muſt needs be a great Myſtery, and cannot be known but as God reveals it.

Secondly, Its of a gathering Nature. It is of the Nature of a Net, Mat. 13, 47. It gathers out of that which is contrary to God, unto God. It gathers out of the world, out of the Sea of wickedneſs, out of the Kingdom of Darkneſs, out of a man's own Nature and Spirit, into God's Nature and Spirit, and his Light and Kingdom, wherein the Soul ſhould dwell and walk, and be ſubject with God.

Thirdly, It is of a purging, cleanſing Nature. It is of the Nature of Fire, of the Nature of Water, inwardly and Spiritually. This Seed is Spirit and Life in a meaſure; and by it, or by God's Spirit which dwells and is revealed in it, he waſheth and purgeth away the filth of the Daughter of Sion, and the Blood of Jeruſalem from the midſt thereof. There is ſtrength in this Seed, and Virtue in this Seed, againſt all the ſtrength of deceit and wickedneſs in the other Seed: and as it ſprings up, and is received and joyned to, in the holy fear of the Lord; it prevailes over it, and caſteth away its darkneſs, and purgeth away and burneth up its filth, chaff and corruption.

Fourthly, It is of a Seaſoning, Leavening, Sanctifying Nature. Its like Salt, its like Leaven. It ſeaſons and Leavens with Life. It Seaſons and Leavens with Righteouſneſs. It Seaſons and Leavens with the Image of God. So ſoon as ever it ſprings in the Heart, it begins to Leaven it: and if it be not ſnibbed, or grieved, or hurt, or quenched (for it is of a moſt ſenſible tender Nature) it will go on Leavening more and more with the Nature of Truth, into the likeneſs of the God of Truth. Mark. 9. 50. Luke. 13. 21. Col. 4. 6.

Fifthly, It is of an inriching Nature. It is a hidden Treaſure or Pearl of great price. It makes the wiſe Merchant very Rich, who ſells all for it and buyes the field and it. He that buyes the Truth, and will by no means ſell or part with it, but gives up to it, and makes it his Treaſure; Oh how doth it enrich his Heart with that which is Holy and Heavenly! How rich doth it make him towards God! Mat. 13. 44, 46.

Sixthly, It is of an Improving, growing Nature, of a Nature that will grow and may be be Improved. The one Ta'ent may be increaſed into more. The little Seed, like a grain of Muſtard-Seed, will grow in the good ground beyond all herbs, and become a tree; a Tree of Righteouſneſs of the Lords planting, that he may be Gloryfied Matt. 13. 31, 32, and Ch. 25. 16. and Ch. 8. 23.

III.

Of the Effects.

What are the Effects of this Seed?

Anſw. THe Effects of the pure ſeed in the Heart are very many, very great, very ſweet, pretious and bleſſed; which every one comes to experience, that experienceth the growth and ſpreading of it. I ſhall inſtance only in ſome few, to give a taſte thereof.

The firſt I ſhall mention is, Union and Communion with God the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and the Father of this ſeed, and of all that are united to it. Union and Communion with God is ſtill in this ſeed, and never out of it. For as in the ſeed of the Serpent a man is ſeparated from God, alienated from his Life, and can never come near him, nor have fellowſhip with him: ſo in the holy Seed, in the Seed of Life and in the Seed of Righteouſneſs, in the Seed of Faith, the Soul is United to God, hath acceſs to him, the living Fountain, and hath fellowſhip with him in that which is Living and holy of him. Men may Imagine an Union and Communion with God out of this; but none can truly Unite to God, or have fellowſhip with him, but in the gift, in the grace, in the light, in the ſpirit which is of God.

Secondly, This Seed felt ſpringing in the Heart and joyned to, brings down and keeps down all that is contrary to God. This Honour and Power God hath given to the ſeed of the Woman (even to the leaſt meaſure of it) that it ſhould bruiſe the ſerpents head, and free the ſoul from Captivity and ſlavery, to the wicked one. So that the ſoul, in the Living ſenſe, Authority and Vertue of this, may refuſe yielding its Members, its Faculties, its Will, its Mind, its Underſtanding its Affections to ſin and unrighteouſneſs. Yea the Devil, the great red Dragon, the God of the world, the mighty ſpirit and power of darkneſs, being reſiſted in this, is ſtill overcome. When any reſiſt the Devil in their own ſtrength (in the ſtrength of their own deſires, abilities and reſolutions) he ſtill overcomes them: but they that reſiſt the Devil in the Faith that ſprings from this ſeed, ſtill overcome him. So that ſin is brought down, and temptations kept out of, by the Virtue and Power of the Life and Authority of the Saviour, that ſprings up in this ſeed of God, which the ſoul that is joyned to (Leavened with, and Tranſplanted into) partakes of.

Thirdly, As it ſprings, and its Operations are felt and received, it brings into the Image and Nature of God. It blots out the Devils Image in the mind, and makes like God, and like Chriſt. Yea here we have the very mind of Chriſt, and are one with the mind of Chriſt. As in the Serpents Seed, the ſerpents Image and Nature is put on: ſo in this ſeed, the Image of God and Chriſt is put on. Yea the ſerpent, the dark ſpirit, the wicked ſpirit, the deceitful ſpirit is here put off, and Chriſt is put on: and whoever would know the real putting off of the Old man, and the putting on of the New man, which is Created in the Righteouſneſs and Holineſs of Truth, muſt know it in this Seed. Here the Truth is known as it is in Jeſus, in its effectual Power and Virtue, putting off the Old Image and Nature, and putting on the New, even the Heavenly, Divine Image and Nature.

Fourthly, It brings the mind, the Heart, the Soul, the Spirit into the New Obedience (into its own Obedient Nature) even to do the Will of God with great delight and pleaſure. I delight to do thy Will, ſaid Chriſt. This Seed is of his Nature. It is a meaſure, a Proportion, an Heavenly Talent of his Grace and Truth; a gift of Light and Life from him, the fulneſs, given to make willing (like him) to do the Fathers Will; And it really doth ſo; inſomuch as the Soul, that is through throughly Leavened and one with it, can alſo ſay, I likewiſe delight to do thy Will, O God; it is become my meat and drink: For I am nouriſhed, refreſhed, and delighted with the Virtue, that I feel ſpring in me; in doing thy Will. Indeed, it is not ſo at Firſt; while there is a Nature, a Will, a Wiſdom contrary to the Nature, Will and Wiſdom of God: Obedience is then hard, the Croſs is then a ſore Yoke upon my neck. But that Nature being ſubdued, and the Nature of the Seed coming up and prevailing, what can be more delightfull to this New Nature, than to do the Will of its Heavenly Father, and to find the Heart of the Father pleaſed with the Child; which it alwayes is, while the Child is in tenderneſs of Spirit, in the Holy Faith, and in the holy Obedience to him!

Fifthly, It brings into the underſtanding, ſenſe and enjoyment of all the precious promiſes, and to the partaking of all the Spiritual Bleſſings in Chriſt Jeſus our Lord. All the promiſes are to the Seed, and are Yea and Amen in Chriſt: and the leaſt meaſure of his Life hath a ſhare therein. The ſeed, the everlaſting ſeed is the Heir: and we joyned to the ſeed, Born of the ſeed, growing up in the ſeed are Joynt-Heirs; Heirs of God & Joynt-Heirs with Chriſt. So that every promiſe comes to be underſtood here, taſted of here, enjoyed here. How full are the Scriptures of ſweet and precious promiſes! Alas, what is it for men to apply them to themſelves, when they have no right to them; nor indeed rightly underſtand them, nor were they intended by the Lord to their preſent ſtates and conditions. But to come to the true underſtanding of the Promiſes, to be led by the Lord into that Conditton, and preſerved by him in that Condition, to which the promiſes belong; and to have him bring home the Promiſes to the heart, and drop in the ſweet, healing, delighting, refreſhing Virtue of them; O how ſweet, comforting and gladding is this! Indeed in this ſeed all the curſes of the Book paſs away, and all the Bleſſings flow in, and multiply on the ſoul day by day. So that this may well be called the Bleſſed ſeed: for in it the ſoul is Bleſſed, and filled with Bleſſings by him who is able to multiply them upon the Soul, and to guide the ſoul in the ſafe and right uſe and enjoyment of them.

But what need I mention any more? Here's Light, here's Life, here's Righteouſneſs, here's Peace, here's heavenly Joy, here's the holy Power, ſpringing and bringing forth their fruits, and precious Operations and Effects in the heart: and here's aſſurance of the Love of God in Chriſt for ever, and that God will never leave nor forſake that ſoul which is joyned to him, and abides with him in this ſeed; but it ſhall be kept by the Power of God, through the Faith that ſprings from this ſeed, unto perfect Redemption and Salvation, Amen.

SOME

QUERIES

CONCERNING

God's Kingdom;

Whereby the SEED thereof may be the better Illuſtrated and Underſtood.

Quer. 1. WHat is the Kingdom of God, which Chriſt ſaid he muſt Preach to other Cities alſo? For therefore was He ſent, Luk. 4. 43.

Quer. 2. What is the Kingdom of Heaven, which firſt John the forerunner, and then then Jeſus himſelf, when he began to Preach, bid men repent, becauſe it was at hand? Matth. 3. 2. and Chap. 4. 13. What would Repentance Advantage men? Would it fit men for entrance thereinto? Did thoſe that truly repented and believed, come out of the Kingdom of Darkneſs and Satan, and enter into the Kingdom of the dear Son? 2 Pet. 1. 10, 11.

Quer. 3. What is the Kingdom of God, and the Righteouſneſs of God, which Chriſt (the Everlaſting, Wiſe and Holy Councellour) adviſeth men firſt to ſeek? Luk. 6. 33. Where is this Kingdom to be found? Where is this Righteouſneſs to be found? What is it hid and wrapped up in? Can it be found in any thing, but what it is hid by God and Wrapped up in?

Quer. 4. What kind of Poverty of Spirit is it, and who are thoſe Poor in Spirit, to whom the Kingdom of Heaven belongs? Matth. 5. 3.

Quer. 5. How may men know, when the Kingdom of God is come unto them? Is it not then manifeſt, when theſe ſtronger than the ſtrong man, not only knocks at the Door of the heart, but caſts out Satan thence, and maketh ſpoil of his goods? Matth. 12. 28, 29.

Quer. 6. Who are they that ſhall enter into the Kingdom of God? Are they not they who are born of Water and of the Spirit? Joh. 3. 5. (of what Water? and how muſt they be born of the Spirit? Were not this worth the knowing!) and they that become as little Children; Simple, Innocent (not wiſe or knowing after the fleſh) that know the breaſt that is natural and proper for them, and thirſt after and drink in the ſincere Milk of the Word of Life, from the breaſt of the Heavenly Wiſdom? Luk. 18. 17. 1 Pet. 2. 2.

Quer. 7. Who ſhall in no wiſe enter into the Kingdom of Heaven? Shall not all they be excluded, who want the Wedding Garment who want the true Righteouſneſs? Matth. 5. 20.

Quer. 8. What are the glad tidings of the Kingdom of God? Is it not that the Kingdom of God is come, and that his reign is ſet up, and ſetting up therein? Luk. 8. 1. Iſa. 52. 7.

Quer. 9. Who are they, before whom Publicans and Harlots ſhall enter into the Kingdom of God? Mat. 21. 31. Who were they in that Age? and who are they in this Age? O that men had hearts rightly to conſider and underſtand!

Quer. 10. Who are they that the Kingdom of God ſhall be taken from, and given to a Nation bringing forth the fruits thereof? Are they not the wrong Builders in every age, and ſuch as are taught, by the wrong Builders, to reject the liveing ſtone? ver. 42, 43.

Quer. 11. Who are the Children of the Kingdom that ſhall be caſt out into utter-darkneſs, where ſhall be weeping and gnaſhing of teeth? Matth. 8. 12.

Quer. 12. Who are thoſe God Reveals the Myſteries of the Kingdom to in every age? (Are they not his begotten Ones, his Babes in the Spirit?) and who are thoſe that he hides the Myſtery of the Kingdom of Life and Salvation, and the way thereof from in every age? (Are they not the wiſe and prudent in their own apprehenſions of the Letter, without the Spirit?) Matth. 13. 11. and Chap. 11. 15.

Quer. 13. Who are thoſe that are nigh the Kingdom of God! Are they not thoſe who know that Love is the fulfilling of the Law, and that the ſubſtance is beyond ſhadows? Mark. 12. 33, 34.

Quer. 14. Who are thoſe that ſhut up the Kingdom of Heaven againſt men? Are they not thoſe who take upon them to expound the Letter to men, and do not turn men to the Spirit, but quench it both in themſelves and others? Mat. 23. 13. Luk 11. 52. Iſa. 22. 22.

Quer. 15. What a Kingdom is that, wherein he that is leaſt, is greater than the greateſt Prophet? wherein he that is feeble ſhall be as David, and the houſe of David as God, as the Angel of the Lord before the Inhabitants of Jeruſalem? Mat. 11. 11. Zac. 12, 8.

Quer. 16. Who were they in the Apoſtles Age (and are there any ſuch in this Age?) who ſhall not taſt of Death outwardly, till they have ſeen the Kingdom of God come with Power inwardly? Mark. 9. 1, Quer. 17.

Quer. 17. What kind of Looking back is that, which makes a man unfit for the Kingdom of God? Is it not a looking back from the Plough, and not forward to the Plough? And what Plough is it a man muſt put his hand to, and not look back, that he may be fit for the Kingdom of God? Luk. 9. 62.

Quer. 18. What Hand, what Foot, what Eye is it, which a man may enter into the Kingdom of God with? and what Hand, what Foot, what Eye is it, which a man cannot enter into the Kingdom of God withall? Mar. 9. 47.

Quer. 19. What is it to eat Bread in the Kingdom of God? Is not there the feaſt of fat things, and of wines well refined, made to the Soul; and doth it not there ſup with Chriſt, and Chriſt with it? And is not the wine of the Kingdom there drunk new and freſh with Chriſt? Luke. 14. 15. Iſa. 25. 6. Rev. 3. 20 Mark. 14. 25. Luke. 22. 16, 18. Shall not the Mountains there drop down new wine, and the Hills flow with Milk, and all the Rivers of Judah flow with Water? and ſhall not a Fountain come forth out of the houſe of the Lord, and water the valley of Shittim? Joel, 3. 18.

Quer. 20. How may one become as a little Child, that he may receive the Kingdom? Muſt not that man be born anew? Muſt he not be unborn after the fleſh, & born after the Spirit? (And not only ſo, but he muſt receive, & enter into & abide in the Kingdom in that Childlike ſimplicity, and Innocent wiſdom, whereof he is born.) Luke. 18. 7. John. 3. 3.

Quer. 21. What is that Fleſh and Blood, which cannot inherit the Kingdom of God; and that Corruption which cannot put on Incorruption? 1 Cor. 15. 50. (let him that readeth underſtand the thing, both in the Letter and in the Spirit.)

Quer. 22. Who are the Unrighteous, that ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God? Are they not both the manifeſtly unrighteous, and alſo the ſecretly unrighteous; who though they may Preach Faith in Chriſt, and the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt, and may think themſelves believers in him, and cloathed with his Righteouſneſs; yet have not received Power to become the ſons of God, nor through the ſpirit have mortified the deeds of the Body; but, at laſt, notwithſtanding all their profeſſion and pretence to Chriſt's Righteouſneſs, (out of the Faith that works by love, and out of the fine linnen in their own filthy raggs:) are found by him Workers of Iniquity; 1 Cor. 6. 6. Luke. 13. 26. Rom. 8. 13. 1 John. 3. 7.

Quer. 23. Shall any enter in the Kingdom of Heaven, but they that do the Will of Chriſt's Father which is in Heaven? Is it enough to Pray, Thy Will be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven? Is it not neceſſary alſo to receive that Power which makes willing, and that Nature and ſpirit whoſe delight it is to do the Will of the Father? Mat. 7. 21.

Quer. 24. Who ſhall be counted worthy of the Kingdom of God? ſhall not they who ſuffer for it in the holy Faith and Patience, and ſo are willing through the much Tribulation (whether outward or inward, or both) to enter into it? Theſſ. 1. 4, 5. Acts. 14. 22.

Quer. 25. What are the Keyes of the Kingdom of Heaven? who hath need of them, and whom are they given unto? Were they given only to the Apoſtles? or only to the Miniſters of the Church? Are they not given to every one that hath need of them, to whom God giveth underſtanding to open the Myſteries of the Kingdom with them? Mat. 16. 19. The Lawyers were blamed for taking away the Key of Knowledg, Luk. 11. 52. Then they from whom they took it, ſhould have had it; that they might have entred into the Kingdom of heaven by it, and not have been hindred from entring for want of it, and they taking it away from others, loſt it themſelves: for when Chriſt came and preached the Kingdom, they could not ſee to enter into it, but were blind and oppoſed it, Mat. 23.13. And now, under the goſpel, if any man have not the ſpirit of Chriſt, he is none of his (he is not the Fathers Child, who hath not the Fathers ſpirit to lead him, Rom. 8. 4) and he that hath the ſpirit of Chriſt, hath he not the Key of Knowledg? 1 Cor. 2. 10, 11.

Quer. 26. What is the joyfull ſound, which they that know are Bleſſed. Is it not the Teſtimony of the Kingdom? Is it not the preaching of the Goſpel of the Kingdom; which they that Repent and become little Children, being begotten and born of the ſpirit, believing in the ſpirit and power of the Lord Jeſus, enter into, and walk in the Light of God's countenance there. Pſal. 89. 15. Gal. 4. 15.

Quer. 27. Which is the joyful Sound of the Everlaſting Goſpel to every Nation, Kindred, Tongue, and People, after the Ages of the great Apoſtacy from the Spirit and Power of the Apoſtles? Is it not this, Fear God, and give Glory to Him, for the Hour of his Judgment is come, and Worſhip the great Creator in Spirit, and in Truth? He that heareth this Sound, in the Evidence, and Demonſtration of God's Spirit; Doth he not hear the Goſpel? He that indeed knoweth this Sound, Doth he not know the joyful Goſpel-Sound? And he that Believeth, and Obeyeth it; Doth he not Believe, and Obey the Goſpel, even as God hath appointed it to be Preached, and Obeyed by all Nations, Kindreds, Tongues, and People? Rev. 14. 6, 7.

Quer. 28. What is that Kingdom, that cometh not with Obſervation, but is inward, and to be found within? Where Men need not ſay, Lo here, or Lo there, but may find the Meſſiah, and His Light ſhining in upon them? Luk. 17. 20, 21. 2 Cor. 4. 6.

Quer. 29. What is that Kingdom, which ſtands not in Word, but in Power; nor is Meat and Drink, but Righteous, and Peace, and Joy, in the Holy Ghoſt? 1 Cor. 4. 20. Rom 14. 17.

Quer. 30. What is it to come unto, and viſit the Churches of Chriſt, in the fulneſs of the Bleſſing of the Goſpel of Chriſt? Is it not to come in the fulneſs of God's Spirit and Power, to Feed them with the Bread of Life, to fill their Hearts with the ſtrength and vertue of Life from God, as the Lord ſhall pleaſe to drop it into their Spirits through them, and to build them up in the Holy Faith, that at length they may be filled with all the fulneſs of God? Joh. 21. 15, 16, 17. Rom. 15. 29. Eph. 3. 19.

Quer. 31. Whom will the Lord aſſemble? and whom will He gather to make up his Kingdom of, in the Dayes of the Goſpel? Will not the Lord aſſemble her that halteth, and gather her that is driven out, and her that He hath afflicted? and will not He make her that halted, a Remnant, and her that was caſt off, a ſtrong Nation? and ſhall not the Lord Reign over them in Mount Sion, from hence-forth, even for ever? (For when Chriſt, the inward and ſpiritual King comes to ſit on the Throne of his Father David, inwardly and ſpiritually, He ſhall Reign over the Houſe of Jacob for ever, and of his Kingdom, there ſhall be no end, Luk. 1. 32, 33.) Mic. 4. 6, 7. Ezek. 34. 16.

Quer. 32. What are the places wherein the Sheep of God have been ſcattered, in the cloudy and dark Day, which the Lord promiſed to deliver them out of? And what is the good Paſture he will feed them in, after he hath delivered them? And what are the High Mountains of Iſrael, where their fold, and fat Paſtures ſhall be? Are not thoſe things to be fulfilled to the ſpiritual People, in the inward and ſpiritual Kingdom of the Meſſiah? Ezek. 34. 12, 14. Joh. 10. 3, 4. and ver. 9. and ver. 27, 28.

THE END.

AN EPISTLE TO ALL Serious Profeſſors OF THE Chriſtian Religion;

WHEREIN

A Brief Touch of my Knowledge, Senſe, Belief and Experience concerning the God-Head, the Offering up of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt in his Body on the Tree, as a Propitiatory Sacrifice to the Father, and the Imputation of his Righteouſneſs to thoſe who believe in his Name and Power, is Nakedly laid before them, wherin I am not alone, but one with thoſe who have ſo Learned and Experienced the ſame in the Leadings and Light of his Holy Spirit.

Written in Love to them (that they might have the better underſtanding of us, as to theſe things, and might not think otherwiſe either of us, or of the Truth of our God which we bear witneſs to, than there is cauſe, to their own Hurt and Prejudice,) Iſaac Penington.

Friends,

AFter it pleaſed the Lord to touch my heart with the ſenſe of his truth, and to manifeſt unto me the Principle of his Life, in the Demonſtration and Power of his own ſpirit, inſomuch as I could Reaſon, Diſpute, Conſider about it no longer, but was fully ſatisfied concerning it; I ſay, after this, the love of God ſprang in me towards you, and pure deſires and breathings unto him, that ye alſo might have the way caſt up before you, and might ſo walk therein, as to come to partake of the ſame Mercy and Salvation. How I have mourned before the Lord for you, and deſired that the Stumbling-Blocks might be removed from you, and that ye might ſo ſeek as to obtain (not in that Wiſdom and Diſputing mind, which ſtill is ſhut out; but in that meekneſs, humility and fear which gives entrance) the Lord God knoweth. Yea the deſires in me after you are ſtill Living: who knoweth, but the Lord may at length hear, and with his key ſo open your hearts, and ſo Anoint your eyes, with his eye-Salve, that ye may ſee, acknowledg, believe in and receive the beloved of your ſouls, even as he now appears (after the long night of darkneſs) a comforter of the drooping ſpirits of his People with the pure Light of Life, wherein the redeemed Houſe of Jacob (who ſate in darkneſs and in the valley of the ſhadow of Death mourning after him) now in holy rejoycing and pure joy of ſpirit walk before him? O the Lord God viſit you and Break in upon you, as he hath done upon us, and cauſe you to ſet to your ſeals alſo, as we could not but do, that this is he whom all our dayes we waited for, and longed after. And now there are two or three things in my heart to open to you, how it is with me in reference to them: for indeed I have not been taught to deny any Teſtimony the ſcriptures hold forth, concerning the Lord Jeſus, or any of his appearances, but am taught by the Lord more certainly and fully to own and acknowledg them.

The Firſt is concerning the God-Head, which we own as the Scriptures expreſs it, and as we have the ſenſible, experimental Knowledge of it. In which, There are Three that bear record in Heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit: and theſe Three are One, 1 John. 5. 7. This I believe from my Heart, and have Infallible Demonſtrations of: for I know three and feel three in Spirit, even an eternal Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, which are but one eternal God. And I feel them alſo one, and have fellowſhip with them (through the tender mercy of the Lord) in their Life, and in their Redeeming Power. And here I lye low before the Lord in the ſenſible Life, not deſiring to know and comprehend notionally, but to feel the thing inwardly, truly, ſenſibly and effectually: yea indeed this is to me far beyond what I formerly knew Notionally concerning them, and I cannot but invite others hither.

Now conſider ſeriouſly, if a man from his heart believe thus concerning the eternal power and God-Head; that the Father is God, the Word God, the Holy-Spirit God, and that theſe are one Eternal God, waiting ſo to know God, and to be ſubject to him accordingly: is not this man in a Right frame of heart towards the Lord in this reſpect? Indeed friends, we do know God ſenſibly and experimentally to be a Father, Word and Spirit, and we worſhip the Father in the Son by his own Spirit, and here meet with the Seal of acceptance with him. Nor would we contend with you about your Crimes in this reſpect, but that ye provoke us thereunto, in laying to our Charge, as if we denyed the thing; whereas, we do not, nor can deny the expreſſions which the Scripture uſeth, nor our own ſenſe and experience concerning the thing. I Pray, let this ſuffice, and let us all ſtrive to know God (and his Son Jeſus Chriſt) in his Life, Spirit and Power, wherein is Unity and true Demonſtration; and not contend about ſuch expreſſions concerning things, as are beſides the ſcriptures. For would not ye your ſelves think it hard (I mean ſuch of you as read the ſcriptures ſeriouſly, deſiring to underſtand and obſerve what is written therein) to have a belief of things Impoſed on you otherwiſe than is there written, and otherwiſe than ye have the Senſe, Knowledg and Experience of them from the Lord?

The Second is concerning the offering of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, without the gates of Jeruſalem. I do exceedingly honour and eſteeem that offering; believing it had relation to the Sins of the whole World, and was a propitiatory Sacrifice to the Father therefore. And ſurely he that is Redeemed out of the World up to God by Chriſt, cannot deny that Chriſt was his Ranſom, and that he was bought with a price, and therefore is to Glorify God, with his Body and Spirit, which are Gods. 1 Cor. 6. 20. And, ſaith the Apoſtle Peter, ye know that ye were not Redeemed with corruptible things, as Silver and Gold, from your vain Converſation, &c. but with the precious Blood of Chriſt, as of a Lamb without Blemiſh and without ſpot, 1 Pet. 1. 18, 19. who ſo offered himſelf up to God through the Eternal ſpirit, Heb. 9. 14. This we do own ſingly and nakedly as in the ſight of the Lord, though I muſt confeſs we do not lay the ſole ſtreſs upon that that which is outward and viſible (though we truly and fully acknowledg it in it's place) but upon that which is inward and invisible: upon the inward Life, the inward Power, the ſpirit within knowing and experiencing dayly, that that is it which doth the work. The outward Fleſh is not the meat indeed, nor the outward Blood the drink indeed: but it is the ſpirit, the Life, the ſubſtance; which the Birth that is born of the ſpirit feeds upon and lives by. O conſider ſeriouſly, and wait on the Lord, rightly to underſtand that ſcripture, Joh. 6 63. It is the Spirit that quickeneth, the Fleſh profiteth nothing: the words that I ſpeak unto you, they are Spirit and they are Life. What doth this Scripture lay the ſtreſs upon? Is it not upon the quickening Spirit, and the words which the quickening Spirit ſpeaketh to the Soul, which are Living and give Life to thoſe that hear them? Hear and your Soul ſhall Live. Hear his voice who giveth Life, and your Souls ſhall live by him: but can any one Live without hearing the Voice of him, who alone is able to quicken and raiſe the Soul from Death, and out of the grave of Sin.

The third thing is concerning the Imputation of Chriſt's Righteouſneſs to ſuch, as believe in his Name and Power, which we have felt, witneſſed, and own to be thus

God viſits men by the Light and Power of his holy Spirit in their dead and dark eſtate, even while they are ungodly. Now, they that feel Life, and in the quickenings of Life, by the Faith which comes from Life; turn to the Light and Power which viſits them; by this Faith in the Power, they are in meaſure tranſplanted out of the unholy-Root into the holy Root, where they partake of the Nature and Virtue of the true Olive Tree: and the Mercy of the Lord in and through his Son Jeſus Chriſt, is ſpread over them, and their iniquities are pardoned and their tranſgreſſions done away for his Name ſake, and they are reckoned by God, not as in the old Root and unholy Nature, but that whereon they lay hold by Faith and are in Union with, they are reckoned by in the eye of the Lord, and they are accepted and beloved in him in whom they are found, by him who tranſplanted them there and ingrafted them thereinto. So that Chriſt is really theirs, and they his: and what he did for them in his Body of Fleſh is become theirs, and they have the Benefit and reap the ſweet fruits of it. And if they Sin afterwards, they have an Advocate, who pleads their cauſe with the father, and who breaths livingly upon them again, and quickens faith in them, and gives them to turn from that which ran after them, and overtook them and defiled them. So that in this ſtate of true faith in and union with the Son, the fountain is felt ſet open for Sin and for Uncleanneſs, which daily waſheth away the pollutions and ſtains of the mind, which it is liable to in the travelling ſtate.

But now, to every faith this doth not belong, but to the faith only which flows from the Power of the endleſs Life, and which ſtands in the Power The faith which is from the Power is precious, having a precious Nature and Virtue in it, and very precious effects flow from it. For it is the ſubſtance of things hoped for: it is of a pure Nature, which hath dominion and giveth dominion over the wicked one. There is no overcoming of the Saints here: for as it came from the Power, ſo it ſtands near the Power, and engages the Power of Life againſt the Enemy, and ſo is ſtill too hard for him. For he that reſiſteth the Enemy in the true Faith, ſtill overcomes him and makes him fly; (Jam. 4. 7.) But that belief on Chriſt and applying his Righteouſneſs, which is not of this Faith, nor in the true light of Life, but according to the Creatures apprehenſions concerning things, that is not of the ſame Nature with this, nor hath the ſame Virtue, nor produceth the ſame effects; but notwithſtanding ſuch a believing and hoping, men are ſtill in their Sins, and they are not waſhed away from them by the Blood of Chriſt, nor remitted or covered by the Spirit of the Lord. And, O that men were wary, and did take heed in this matter; that they might not miſs of true pardon from the Lord, and ſo find their Sins bound by him, in the dayes of his refreſhing others!

For there is a ſtate, wherein there is an imputation of Chriſt's Righteouſneſs to perſons reached to by the Power of the Lord, and coming up out of the ungodly ſtate; and ſo a real bringing into the Righteouſneſs. For in the true growth, the Soul daily grows more and more out of its own unrighteouſneſs, out of the dark, dark, corrupt Image, into the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt, and into his pure Image. Thus Chriſt is formed in the hearts of them that truly believe, daily more and more: they receiving him as an Heavenly Leaven, and given up to be leavened by him, are changed daily more and more into the newneſs of Spirit, even untill they become a new Lump, even a Lump wholly Leavened; ſo that Old things paſſed away, and all things become New; that is, not of Old Adam any more, but all of God in Chriſt, all of the new Nature and Spirit, which is all of it Righteous in the Sight of God. Now this is it all ſhould labour for and ſeek after, even the Kingdom of God and his Righteouſneſs, to find an entrance Miniſtred to them into the everlaſting Kingdom and the Righteouſneſs thereof, that they might really put off the Old man with his Affections and Luſts, and put on the New man; the new man's Nature, the new man's Image, the new man's Spirit, the new man's Righteouſneſs, the new man's Holyneſs; that they might have the Wedding Garment on to be married to Chriſt in, and might be as a Bride prepared for the Bride-Groom. O it is precious for any one to feel his Soul in this State! And who would not Travel and Wreſtle, and ſtrive and watch, and pray, and wait that he might be thus fitted by the Spirit of the Lord for his Son Jeſus Chriſt? For, Friends, there is a coming under Grace, under Graces Wing, and out of ſhame and confuſion becauſe of Sin, into the Glory which is in the pure Image: and there is a being changed from Grace to Grace, and from Glory to Glory, by the *S*pirit and Power of the Lord. O that ſuch as take upon them the Profeſſion of Chriſtianity, might feel the power, and wait upon the Power, and know what it is to believe in the Power and Live in the Power: for without this, the oppreſſed State of Chriſtianity is but dead, and dry and cold, not having the true living Sap and warmth in it. There are great deceits in the World about theſe things, but he that knoweth the Truth as it in Jeſus, who was viſited by the Power, gathered to the Power, and abides in the power, he hath that with him which anoints his eye and heart, and ſtrengthens them againſt the moſt ſubtle Devices and Deceits of the transforming Spirit. But whoever he be, that profeſſeth Chriſtianity, and is not here, he is not ſafe; but the Enemy hath wayes of bewitching and deluding him, which he hath not wherewith effectually to withſtand, and avoid.

Now having nakedly expreſſed theſe things unto you, as they are in my heart; there is a queſtion lies before me to propound to you, which deſerves your ſerious Conſideration of, and Ability to anſwer in the Sight of the Lord, which is this;

Queſt. Do ye rightly, truly and fully (as the Lord requireth of you,) know, eſteem and honour the Son? Do ye own him as God hath revealed him in the Spirits of his Children, ſince the Apoſtacy? Do ye feel him as an Horn of Salvation lifted up there? Do ye find and experience him revealed within, by the Father, as the Seed of the Woman, bruiſing the head of the Serpent? O this is precious Knowledg, and the right way of truly knowing him as he came from the Father, Lived in Obedience to him, ſuffered for the Sins of the whole World, aſcended again to the Father, and now ſits with him in Glory. For Indeed, it is the Chief thing, and that whereon the Souls Reſt depends, to know and feel him near. O that we were one here (I mean in the inward ſenſe and acknowledgment of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt) and we ſhould ſoon be one in the other alſo!

*F*or we, who are reproachfully by many called Quakers, are (for the moſt part) a people who have much and long ſought after the Lord, and after the experimental knowledge of thoſe truths, which are teſtified of, and related in the holy Scriptures. VVe ſought not after a new Chriſt, or a new *S*pirit, or new Doctrines concerning Chriſt or his Spirit: but to know Chriſt ſo, as to receive l fe from him, and to live to him in the life and ſpirit received from him; this hath been the ſingle aim and deſire of our ſouls. And if men could with patience conſider what we hold forth, and wait till God open their underſtandings, they would not lay ſuch blame upon us as they do, in many reſpects, but find that we reverence the Scriptures, believing and holding concerning the things of God, according as is there expreſſed expreſſed, from a true underſtanding received from the Lord, and in the true light and guidance of his ſpirit. There is another Queſtion ſprings in my heart unto you; I beſeech you conſider of it ſeriouſly, perhaps there may be a bleſſing to you in it.

Queſt. Do ye rightly and weightily conſider and embrace that counſel of Chriſt, Mat. 6. 33. Seek ye firſt the Kingdom of God, and his Righteouſneſs. Do ye mind what Chriſt likens the Kingdom to? even a Grain of Muſtard-Seed, a Pearl hid in a Field, a little Leaven, a loſt peice of ſilver, &c. Do ye know and are ye acquainted with that little thing which is like unto theſe? and do ye really and rightly ſeek after it? Do ye ſeek it where it is to be found? Do ye know the place where it is hid? And do ye take the right way to buy and purchaſe it? How is that? VVhy, not by outward obſervation, ſaith Chriſt, but by inward ſweeping the Houſe: By keeping the eye upon it, and ſweeping out of the Rubbiſh that covers it, this is the way to find it, purchaſe and poſſeſs it. O that ye could all learn thus, and be thus exerciſed by the Spirit of the Lord daily. Surely they that thus ſeek, ſhall find; and they that thus ask, ſhall have; and they that thus knock, to them the Everlaſting Kingdom ſhall be opened.

For, Mark the difference between the State of the Law and Goſpel. The Law was a ſhadow of Good things to come. The Goſpel is a State of enjoyment of the good things ſhadowed out under the Law. The Law was a Type of the Kingdom, of the ſpiritual Kingdom of Chriſt, which is ſet up under the Goſpel. In Johns day the Kingdom was at hand: but in the day of Chriſt's Power the Kingdom is come. Under the Law there was a Tabernacle pitched by man: but under the Goſpel the true Tabernacle and Temple is witneſſed, which God pitcheth and not man; and the Holy, ſpiritual, Heavenly Sacrifices, and the Living Covenant, whereof Chriſt is the Mediatour, and the Law written in the Heart, and the ſpirit of the Lord put within; ſo that his preſence is as really witneſſed inwardly, in that which is truly his Tabernacle and Temple now, as ever it was witneſſed outwardly, in his outward Tabernacle and Temple under the Law. O that Chriſtians might not have the Name only, but might be in the life and in the Power, wherein theſe things are felt and experienced: for indeed the wonders of the Lord are ſeen in his Temple, and his Name is praiſed there, Selah. There he breaks the Shield and the Bow, the Spear and the Battle, Selah. There the Enemy is overcome: the holy victory that bringeth him under, iſſueth out thence, Selah. There the Well is opened, and the Philiſtine-Nature hath Power to ſtop it no more, Selah. There the Treaſury of life and Wiſdom, and the Riches of God's goodneſs are made manifeſt for ever.

Truly Friends, I have not loſt any thing that ever I had, or acknowledged of God in the dayes of my former profeſſion, by believing in the Light which God hath now revealed in me; but have it ſtill with me, and in greater clearneſs and plainneſs and fuller Demonſtration, than I then had it: but that of the Fleſh which mixed with it, and hindred it from being rightly ſervicable to the Lord, and fully comfortable to me, that the Lord hath been removing by his ſearching Light, and by the Demonſtration of his Spirit and Power. And if at length, after all my deep and long miſery, the Lord hath given me to meet with and enjoy that which is truly excellent, (among thoſe whom men deſpiſe) I could heartily wiſh for you, that ye alſo might meet with and enjoy the ſame, without paſſing through that miſery and bitter anguiſh, and diſtreſs of ſpirit, through which the Lord led me thereto. The Lord preſerve his People, by the Arm of his mighty Power, which he hath ſtretched out for them, and whereby he hath gathered them to himſelf. And thoſe which are not yet of this fold, O that it would pleaſe him to ſeek them out, and bring them home alſo; that the Lord may be one and his name one amongſt us, and that that which divideth, and ſcattereth from the Living truth, might be ſcattered and brought to nought every where, in all who would be one and deſire to ſerve God (with one Conſent) in that which is true and pure, Amen.

A REPLY TO AN ANSWER OF Some Queries,

(Given Forth by Me, J. P.)

Concerning the Gospel-Baptism,

WITH

ANSWERS to some other QUERIES Return'd, in a Paper Subscribed, N. B.

Quer. 1. Which is the Gospel-Baptism, or of what kind is the Baptism in the Gospel-State? Is it outward or inward? Is it the Figure of the inward Baptism, or the inward Baptism it self?

N. B's. Answer is, It's a stooping to God's Law.

Reply, This is a very improper Answer, and not at all to the thing in Hand, for the Query was not concerning the stooping or subjecting to Baptism, but what the Baptism is, which is to be stooped, and subjected to; whether that be an inward or outward Baptism? Whether it be a Figure of the Holy and Heavenly Baptism of the Gospel, or the Holy and Heavenly Baptism it self? So that, in these Words, there is no Answer at all returned to the Query, but rather the asserting of another thing, which the Query did not mention, altogether improper in this place: For the Query tends to determine what the Baptism it self is: and when that is once determined, about the stooping, and subjecting to it; there will be no Question, I hope between us.

Now to explain what this Law of God is, which is to be stooped to, he saith, It is the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ, quoting to prove it, Rom. 8. 2. Mat. 28. 18, 19. Mark 16. 16.

Reply, That Baptism, Water-Baptism (as he afterwards expresseth it in his Answer to this Query) is the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, I never Read in Scripture. Nor doth it effect in the Heart, what the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus doth, which the Apostle saith, made him free from the Law of Sin and Death: and it hath Vertue and Power in its Nature, over the Law of Sin and Death, which Water-Baptism hath not. The Law of Sin and Death, is of an inward and spiritual Nature, and the Law of the Spirit of Life also, is of an inward and spiritual Nature, stronger than the Law of Sin and Death, and is able to make free from the Law of Sin and Death inwardly. But Water-Baptism tism is an outward thing, an elementary thing, not able to reach the Law of Sin and Death, nor to make free from it. I beseech you consider, ye who look upon this to be a Command and Ordinance of our Lord Christ; Are ye, or are they, who are outwardly Baptized with Water, made free from the Law of Sin and Death thereby? Nay, Paul himself, who was by the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, made free from the Law of Sin and Death; yet was not made free so by outward Baptism. For if he was outwardly Baptized (as I am ready to believe he was, it being usual at that time) it was when Ananias came to him, and when the Scales fell from his Eyes, and he received Sight, Act. 9. 18. But he was not then made free from the Law of Sin and Death: for afterward, in his inward and spiritual Exercise, and Holy Travel, he found and complained of a Law in his Members, warring against the Law of his Mind, and bringing him into Captivity to the Law of Sin in his Members, Rom. 7. 23. This was not a State of Freedom from the Law of Sin: for with his Flesh, he still served it, while in this State. But when by the Spirit the Flesh was Crucified, when the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, prevailed over the Law of Sin and Death in his Members; then he was no longer under Satans Captivity by Sin, but a delivered Man, made free therefrom, by the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus. Then he knew the Truth, and the Power, and Vertue of the Truth Manifested it self in him, and made him free; and he was free indeed, and said no more, he could not do the good he would, nor forbear doing the evil he would not: but he was more than a Conquerour over the Evil, and set at Liberty to Work Righteousness, and could do all things through Christ that strengthened him. O that ye that plead so much for outward Water, knew this Law writ in your Hearts, and the effectual Power and Vertue thereof, freeing you from the Law of Sin and Death; and then ye would no more attribute that to an outward thing (or to your Obedience as to such an outward thing) which belongs to the Spirit and Power of the Lord Jesus, and to the Law of his Life inwardly written in the Heart.

Another Scripture he brings to prove Water-Baptism to be the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, is Mat. 28. 19.

Reply, If it were Granted, that Christ did in that place command Water-Baptism; yet that would not prove it to be the Law of the Spirit of Life in him. The Law of the Spirit of Life in him, is a deep thing (I beseech you do not mistake it) and hath mighty effects in the Soul, which Water-Baptism never had, nor can have upon any. The Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, hath that Vertue, and Power from God in its Nature, which Water-Baptism is not capable of. The Figures, the outward Representations, have not a capacity to receive that from God, which the inward law and substance hath.

But, that outward Baptizing with Water is there Commanded by Christ, is not at all manifest from that Scripture, but rather the contrary, if it be well minded. For Christ saith, all Power was given Him in Heaven and Earth, and bids them go, and Baptize. Doth He say, with Water? Nay, doth he not say into the Name of the Father, Son, and Spirit? So that now, when the Gospel is Preached in the Spirit and Power of God, and his Spirit and Power reacheth to our Hearts, we are by that Spirit and Power, both Taught, and Baptized inwardly, gathered into the Name of the Father, Son, and Spirit, and Baptized into their Name. And he that doth this in the Heart, Teacheth the Heart to call this the Gospel-Baptism: and to call that which came forth in the Hands of the fore-runner, the Type or Figure of this, the Representation of this, the Shadow of the Gospel-Baptism; but not the Gospel-Baptism it self. Indeed, we dare not call John's Baptism, or Water-Baptism, the Gospel-Baptism, or Christ's Baptism; the Lord who hath Manifested things to us, and Taught us to put a difference between things that really differ, would Judg, and Condemn us for so doing.

Mark further, Christ who saith, All Power in Heaven and Earth is given Me, and therefore bid them go Teach, and Baptize; yet withal bid them wait for the same Spirit, and Power which was given Him, Act. 1. ver. 4. and ver. 8. And then having his Spirit and Power, wherewith he inwardly Taught and Baptized; might they not be able therewith to reach the Heart and Conscience, and Spiritually both to Teach and Baptize, as Instruments in God's Hand, in the springings of his Life and Power in them?

Now to Manifest this further: For I feel the Lord opening my Heart in this thing, and I hope it is for your Sakes (O ye mistaken Ones in this weighty Business) that the Lord may explain things of this Nature to you, and do you good thereby. To whom was this Commission, or Command, in the Authority, & Power of God's Spirit given, to go and teach all Nations, Baptizing them into the Name, &c? Was it not especially given to the Apostles, who were especially Gifted thereunto? And was not Paul one; yea, one of the Chief, made so by God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ? And he being in a special manner sent to the Gentiles, or Heathen Nations (for the Jews were but one Nation) Did not this Commission extend to him, and this Command lye upon him? Now if this Command did extend to Inward, Spiritual, Gospel-Baptizing with the Spirit and Power of the Lord Jesus, he had it as full as any of them: but if it be understood of Water-Baptism, we do not find that he had any such Commission, but rather otherwise. Read his Commission, Act. 26. 18. Is there any thing of Water-Baptism in it? There's Remission of Sins, which depends upon believing, and turning to God, in his Illuminating Spirit and Power; but nothing of Water-Baptism. And Mark, it is God that opens Mens Eyes, and it is God that opens their Hearts, and inwardly turns them from Darkness to Light, and Satan's Power to God: yet, Paul is sent by the Lord to do this. And is it an harder matter inwardly to Baptize, than to do this? So that it is not Paul, but the Lord that opens the Eyes, and turns Men: Yet the Lord sent Paul to do it; and surely the Lord enabled him, by his Spirit and Power, to do what He sent him to do.

Obj. But though it is not here particularly Expressed, yet it may be implyed or intended. Or if this Commission did not reach to him, the former Apostolick Commission would, he being made so extraordinary an Apostle. Or at least it would reach him, as a Teaching Disciple: For he that hath Authority to Teach the Nations, hath also Authority to Baptize them.

Answ. No, Paul neither by this Commission, nor by the Apostolick Commission, nor by his Discipleship, had any Authority or Mission from God to Baptize, if ye take Baptism in this Sence, for Baptizing with outward Water, as he himself expressly saith, Christ sent me not to Baptize (speaking of Water-Baptism) but to Preach the Gospel, 1 Cor. 1. 17. Nay, he thanks God that he Baptized none of them, to his Remembrance, but Crispus, Gaius, and the Houshold of Stephanus, ver. 14, 16. Now if he had looked upon Water-Baptism, as Christ's Ordinance, and as the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, would he thank God he had Obeyed it no more?

Obj. But he gives the Reason of that, lest any should say, he had Baptized in his own Name.

Answ. Why? Persons might say, he Preached in his own Name, yet that would not have excused him from Preaching. No more would Mens saying, he Baptized in his own Name, excuse him from Baptizing, if Water-Baptism had been Christ's Command and Ordinance.

The last Place he brings, to prove Water-Baptism to be the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, is Mar. 16. 16. He that Believeth, and is Baptized, shall be Saved; but he that Believeth not, shall be Damned.

Reply, This sheweth the necessity of the Gospel-Baptism; but this doth not express which the Gospel-Baptism is, whether an inward, or outward Washing. We know, having been taught by the Lord, that there is no Salvation without inward Washing, which is also very demonstrable to others: but God forbid that all should be Damned, that are not Baptized with outward Water.

He saith, This Law was Confirmed by them that had the Spirit-Baptism, being Commanded to be Obeyed by them that had the Spirit, Act. 10. 47, 48.

Reply, That Peter did command Persons to be Baptized with Water, and that John's Baptism, or Water-Baptism was made use of in those Dayes, and that John had it from God, and that it was done in God's Name; this is not denyed: but that Water-Baptism, was Christ's Baptism, or the Gospel-Baptism; this Place doth not prove.

He

He saith further, The Kind of this Baptism, is Water-Baptism, bringing Mat. 3. 16. and Act. 8. 38, 39. to prove it.

Reply, Mat. 3. 16. Only proves that Christ was Baptized with Water, but doth not prove that Water-Baptism is the Gospel-Baptism. If I could prove by Scripture expresly, that Christ was Circumcised; yet that would not prove, that therefore that was to be the Gospel-Circumcision. So though it be Manifest, that Christ was Baptized by John, with his Water-Baptism; yet that doth not at all prove, that John's Water-Baptism is Christ's Gospel-Baptism. The end of John's Baptizing with Water was, that Christ might be made Manifest, Joh. 1. 31. And when he is made Manifest (when He who is the Word, who is the Life, is made Manifest, 1 Joh. 1. 1, 2.) then Men must come to him, to be Baptized by him with his Baptism, which is with the Holy-Ghost, and with Fire, Mat. 3. 11. or with the Spirit of Judgment, and Burning, Isa. 4. 4.

That other place of Act. 8. 38, 39. Doth not at all prove, that Water-Baptism is the Gospel-Baptism; but only, that Philip did Baptize the Eunuch with Water, which is not a thing Denyed by us. Yea, What if I should grant, that the Lord did Honour it, as much as any Shadow, or more than other Shadows, by letting it have a longer time, and otherwise? Yet that will not prove it to be Christ's Baptism, or a Gospel-Ordinance. And if Men do take it up in tenderness of Spirit, bowing to the Lord, it is so much the better; yet it is not easy to believe that all do so: and those that do so, may err in their Judgments, notwithstanding; though I am perswaded, the Lord is tender to Persons that do things in tenderness of Heart to him, notwithstanding some errour or mistake in their Judgments.

Quer. 2. What is it that is to be Washed in the Gospel-State? Is it the outward or inward Man? And what is the inward Man to be Washed with?

Answ. His Answer is, 'tis the Body, the whole Man or Woman to go into the Water, in the Name of the Father, Son, and Spirit; so that the Soul comes to be Sanctified by the Word and Spirit. For the proof of which he quotes, Joh. 8. 32. and chap. 15. 3.

Reply, That the whole Body was to go into the Water, according to John's Baptism, it is granted: but that this is the Gospel-Baptism, or Christ's Baptism, is denyed by us. It is the inward Jew, that is to be Washed in the Gospel-State; and it is inward Water, spiritual Water, that he is to be Washed with. I pray consider that Scripture seriously, (and the Lord give you the true Understanding thereof) Zech. 13. 1. Doth not that Scripture speak of the Gospel-State? What Fountain is it, that is opened in the Gospel-State? Is it an outward Fountain of outward Waters, which is opened for Sin and for Uncleanness, to wash it away? The Lord knoweth of what Nature Sin is, and with what Water it is to be washed away; and therefore openeth that Fountain in the House of David in the Gospel-State, which is proper to wash it away with. What is the House of David? Who is the Jew in the Gospel-State? What is the Tabernacle or House of David, that is raised up then? What is the Fountain that is opened there for Sin, and for Uncleanness? Can Sin be washed away from any Heart and Conscience, but by the Water of this Fountain? And is not the Gospel-Baptism with this Water? Do not those that are washed with this Water, feel the true washing, and know it certainly, evidently, infallibly, in the demonstration of God's Spirit, to be the true Baptism; not the figurative, outward washing of the Body, but the real, inward washing of the Soul? There is the washing of Regeneration, Tit. 3. 5. which is with that which Regenerates, which the Water of the Fountain of Life, and Holiness doth, which God opens in the Heart, and washeth the Soul with, and causeth the Soul to wash in: but the outward Water, which washeth the outward Body, hath no such Nature, or Vertue in it, nor ever was Appointed by God, to produce any such effect. That the Soul is Sanctified by the Word and Spirit, is granted: but that the Soul is not Sanctified by the Word and Spirit, unless the Body is washed with outward Water, that is denyed, and the Scriptures forementioned by him, of Joh. 8. 32. and chap. 15. 3. do not at all prove any such thing. Now the Gospel-Obedience is to Christ's Baptism, not to John's Baptism. And the Soul that is subject to Christ's Baptism, doth not Live in Disobedience, for not taking up John's Baptism, which God doth not allow him to do: but in the Gospel-State, every one is to hear the Son, the Shepherd of the Soul, and follow him the Substance, and not Moses's Circumcision or John's Baptism.

Quer. 3. What is washed away by the Gospel-Baptism? Is it the filth of the outward Body or Flesh? Or the filth of the Soul? And with what Water is the filth of the Soul to be washed away?

Answ. Sin is washed away by the Gospel-Baptism; for the proof whereof he quotes, Act. 22. 16. Rom. 6. 17, 18.

Reply, Thus far we agree, that Sin is washed away by the Gospel-Baptism: but what that Baptism is, which washeth away Sin, herein we greatly differ. He affirmeth it to be outward Water, and the washing of the outward Man therewith. I affirm it to be inward Water, from the inward Holy Fountain which God opens in the House of David, whereby the Soul and Conscience is washed from Sin, and from Uncleanness. That place of Act. 22. 16. speaks of Paul's being Baptized, and washing away his Sins: but doth not say, that outward washing the Body with outward Water, is the washing away of Sins; but bids him wash away his Sins, calling on the Name of the Lord. And thus the washing away of Sins is at this Day Experienced. The Lord manifests Sin, turns the Mind against it, and causeth a Cry to the Lord; and then the Lord opens the Fountain, causeth the pure Water to flow, which the Soul is washed with: and so far as it is washed therewith, is clean in the Sight of God, and hath the inward Sence of its Cleanness from the Lord. Yet that there was a figurative washing away of Sins by John's Baptism, I do not deny: for it was unto Repentance, and they thereby professed Repentance, and were to Bring forth Fruits meet for Repentance, Mat. 3. 8. Nor doth that other place (Rom. 6. 17, 18.) prove, that washing the Body with outward Water, washeth away Sin, or maketh free from Sin: but that which makes free from Sin, is the Power, Vertue, and Life of Truth felt in the Heart, washing and cleansing it. It is receiving the Truth in the Love of it, and being moulded into the Nature of it, believing it in the Evidence and Demonstration of God's Spirit, and Obeying it in the Obedience of the New Nature, Mind, and Spirit. And the Answer of a good Conscience comes from the inward Baptism, from the washing, which the Apostle calls ἀντίτυπον the Anti-type, 1 Pet. 3. 21. which Baptism is not the washing away the filth of the Flesh, or Body; but an inward Baptism, which so washeth inwardly, that the Answer of a good Conscience is presently felt, in the Sight and Presence of God. And then the Soul knows what Water it was washed with, which was able to produce, and did produce this Effect.

He saith, And thus it appears, First it takes off Disobedience.

Reply, What is it takes off Disobedience? The Truth as it is in Jesus, the Life and Power of Truth, felt, and working in the Heart, destroys the disobedient Nature, and takes away the Disobedience thereof: but outward washing of the Body doth not, though Men may apprehend there is an outward Command for it, and judg they do it in Obedience to that outward Command. But Obedience is from true Understanding of the Mind, and Will of God, and from that holy Light of his Spirit wherein the holy Understanding is given. And in this Obedience, the Lord's Justification is Witnessed, which is not Witnessed in the other, I mean in that which Men call Obedience, to that which they account a litteral Command, according to their Conceivings and Apprehensions.

Secondly, As it leads Persons into Christ, for which he quotes, Rom. 6. 2, 3. Gal. 3. 27.

Reply, That which leads unto Christ, and into the Truth as it is in him; the Children of the new Covenant know, who are drawn by the Father, and are taught and learn of him to come to the Son, Joh. 6. 44, 45. And how can we give.

give that Honour to Johns Baptism, or outward washing the Body, which belongs to the Father and his powerful Spirit? To be Baptised into Christ is a great thing. To be buried with Christ by Baptism into Death, is a precious State, and effected by the inward work of the Spirit in the heart, working against Sin, working the mind out of Sin into the Nature, Spirit and Life of Christ. And the being Baptised into Christ, is the real putting on Christ. It is the effect of knowing the Truth as it is in Jesus, which causeth the putting off of the Old man, and the renewing in the Spirit of the mind, and putting on the new, Eph. 4. 22, 23, 24. But Johns Baptism, or the washing the Body with outward Water, doth none of these things; but is only a Type, or Representation of what is done in and by the inward Baptism.

He adds further, And so the Soul receives Christ in his Prophetical and Priestly-Office, so by Christ wee are delivered from all filthyness of Flesh and Spirit, that we may perfect holiness in the fear of God

Rep. The Kingdom of Christ is Spiritual, the Kingdom of Christ is within; and he that would truly know him as he is King, Prophet, and Priest, must hear his knocks, know his Voice, open to him and let him in; and then he will manifest himself there, and the Soul shall know what he is, even his King, Priest and Prophet, and feel him exercising all these holy Offices, in the Authority and Power of his Father, in the Heart. This is Precious Knowledg indeed. Yea he shall know him with his Fan in his hand, throughly purging his floor from all unbelief, from all disobedience, from all chaffiness and earthliness; yea from all filthyness of Flesh and Spirit: for his fan turns against them all, and his Spirit of judgment and burning flames inwardly against them all; and as they are consumed and burnt up, the pure fear of the Lord is increased in the heart, wherein holiness is begun, and at length perfected, by the through Circumcision and Baptism of the Spirit. But the Corinthians were not cleansed from all filthyness of flesh and spirit by Water-Baptism, but were afterwards exalted by Paul to do it.

Quer. 4. What water is it, that the inward Israel shall be sprinkled with, that they may be clean? Is it not inward water, Spiritual water? And can any be clean or Baptised in the sight of God, that are not Baptised with this water, wherewith God sprinkleth and washeth his Spiritual and inward Israel?

Answ. Baptism is not sprinkling, nor so rendred by the Spirit, but Baptise: Baptise is to dip or put into the water.

Rep. When God sprinkleth his inward Israel, with the water which he hath promised to sprinkle with, he doth sufficiently cleanse them; for whom the Lord sprinkleth with this water, they are cleansed thereby, Ezek. 36. 25. And this relates to the Gospel-State: for a new heart is immediately promised v. 26. which is the promise of the Gospel-Covenant. And the Blood of sprinkling in the New-Covenant, doth sufficiently wash and cleanse, Heb. 12. 24. Rev. 1. 5. sprinkling and dipping are but figures, but they are both comprehended in the substance, which we should wait inwardly to feel and experience. The water which Christ speaks of, John 3. 5. (which place he quotes) is not outward, but of the same Nature with the Spirit, whereof the Soul is washed and born again, and riseth up in the new Life with Christ.

He saith, the inward fits for the outward.

Rep. It is true, Johns Baptism did require inward qualifications (in which respect it went beyond Circumcision) and so where those qualifications were found, who could forbid water? But Christs Baptism, the Baptism with Spirit and Fire to purify the mind and burn up the Dross, is of an higher Ministration, and a far more Glorious Baptism than that, Matt. 3. 11. He shall Baptise you: you, what you? You whom I have Baptised with Water. So that those whom he had Baptised to Repentance, he tells of another Baptism, a more Glorious Baptism than his, which happy are they that wait for, and feel accomplished in them.

Quer. 5. What is the Gospel-Circumcision? Is it not an inward and Spiritual tual Circumcision? and is not the Circumcising knife, wherewith the inward Israel is Circumcised, inward and Spiritual? and is not the Gospel-Baptism wherewith the inward Israel is washed, as inward and Spiritual, as the Gospel-Circumcision? Is not this Circumcision and washing of the same Nature, and effected without outward hands?

Answ. Tis inward, Spiritual, Heavenly, that which God works by the knife of his Word, Heb. 4. 12. Hos. 6. 5.

Rep. This is true, we whom God hath called, quickened, enlightened, Circumcised, and Baptised, experience it so: and happy is he, if he experience it so also. For the Word is Living and makes alive, the Word is quick and Powerfull, sharper than any two-edged Sword, and it doth inwardly pierce to the dividing asunder of the Soul and Spirit (Oh this is a Blessed experience inwardly, where ever it is felt!) and of the Joynts and Marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. And this Word came to the Prophets, and did hew through the Prophets, and God's Judgments by this Word were as a Light that went forth. This Word is the Word of Life, and the Life is manifested in it, as the Apostles knew in their day (1 John 1. 2.) and as God's gathered ones know in this day.

But let him take heed, lest he put the Letter, or outward descriptions of Heavenly things for the Word: for the Kingdom or Gospel-State stands not in such kind of Words, but in Power, 1 Cor. 4. 20. and the Apostles were made able Ministers of the New-Testament, not of the Letter, but of the Spirit: for the Letter killeth, but the Spirit ministreth Life, 2 Cor. 3. 6. So we distinguish the Word of Life (the quick, piercing Word that giveth Life) from the Words which came from it, Act. 5. 20. which Words are also Living, as they come from the Life, and are livingly spoken to the Heart by Him, who is the Life: Otherwise, in the Mouth, Understanding, or Comprehension of Him, who is not living (nor in a true Sense, and Understanding of them) they are not Life. So Men should not strive to Comprehend things with that outward Understanding, which can never Attain thereto; but wait to receive the Understanding from God, whereby they may know Him that is True, and His Gospel-Ordinance, and the Holy Laws of His Kingdom, and be found in the Obedience thereof, to Him in the Spirit.

Now, granting the Gospel-Circumcision to be inward and spiritual, How can he make the Gospel-Baptism, to be of a Nature inferiour to it, even outward and carnal, viz. a washing with the Elementary Water of this Creation, and not with the inwardly sanctifying, and cleansing Water of Life, which God sprinkleth upon His spiritual Israel, and also plunges their Souls into? And consider seriously, whether the Apostle, speaking both of Circumcision and Baptism, Col. 2. 11, 12. did intend either of them, as to the outward, and not rather both of them, as to the inward, wherein the true inward spiritual Circumcising, and also the true inward Baptizing is Witnessed, and both without Hands: for neither Circumcision, nor Uncircumcision avails (no more doth outward washing the Body, or not washing it avail) but a New Creature; the putting off of the Body of the Sins of the Flesh, by the Circumcision, and Baptism of Christ; this avails, and is of great Esteem with God.

Quer. 6. What is the one Baptism of the spiritual Israel, without which, there is no Salvation? Can there be any Salvation without the inward washing of the Soul? May there not be Salvation without the outward washing of the Body?

Answ. That which Christ Jesus Commanded: for there is but one Baptism Commanded, and that leads Us to Christ and God.

Rep. Was not John's Baptism Commanded, which was an outward washing? And is not the inward washing Commanded also? Was not Israel Commanded to Circumcise their Hearts, and was not that an inward Circumcision? And were they not also Commanded to wash their Hearts from Wickedness, and was not that an inward Washing or Baptism? How could they do either of these? Why, did not Moſes direct them to the Word nigh in their Mouth and Heart whereby both theſe might be done? And can either of theſe be done in any Heart, but by the Operation of this Word of Life inwardly in the Heart? We know, There is no other Name under Heaven, nor way to be Saved, but Chriſt the Word of Life, and Light of Men. But they that are Saved by Him, muſt know Him as a Living Stone within, and come from all elſe in their Hearts to Him (as to a precious Foundation-Stone of Life) and be New Created by Him, Circumciſed, and Baptized into Him, and ſo walk in Him, the new and living Way, and ſerve God His Father, in the newneſs of the Spirit, and not in the oldneſs of the Letter; which happy are they that Underſtand what it is, and are found in this Obedience to the Lord; and in thus Worſhipping Him, in His Spirit and Truth, which is the Goſpel-ſervice and Worſhip. For Men may eaſily miſtake about the Letter: but the New Birth doth not miſtake concerning the Spirit; nor the true Sheep concerning the Voice of Chriſt.

did

Quer. 7. How are Men Buried with Chriſt, by Baptiſm into Death? Is it not an inward ſpiritual Death, that Men are thus Buried with Chriſt into? And is it not effected by an inward ſpiritual Baptiſm?

Anſw. By Water-Baptiſm: for Chriſt was Buried, ſo are We. Chriſt was Buried by Baptiſm in the Water, ſo are We.

Rep. Chriſt was outwardly Circumciſed; ſo are We alſo Circumciſed, not outwardly, as Chriſt was. Chriſt was not Circumciſed to effect any thing upon him (for he needeth it not) but for our ſakes. And he was Baptized for our ſakes alſo, that we alſo might be Circumciſed, and Baptized with the Circumciſion, and Baptiſm which we need, which is the Circumciſing, and Baptizing of our Souls, and not the Circumciſing, or Waſhing of our Bodyes.

He adds, Chriſt did to fulfil all Righteouſneſs: We to fulfil the Righteous Law, and Will of God; We thereby entring into Covenant with God, whereby We ſet to his Seal (I ſuppoſe he means, Our Seal) that He is true.

Rep. It remains yet to be proved, that baptizing with VVater is Gods Law and Will in the Goſpel-State. I am ſure there are thoſe that are taught otherwiſe, by him that teacheth all his Children, from the leaſt to the greateſt, in the New Covenant? And the New Covenant is an Inward Covenant, which they that hear Gods voice therein, and have his Law written in their hearts and obey it, are led by him more and more into. Now the New Covenant is not made with every thirſty one after the living VVaters, but only ſuch as come to Chriſt in the drawings and teachings of his Father: and when they are come to Chriſt, encline their ears and hearken diligently to him, Iſa. 55. 1, 2, 3. Such aſſuredly know and enjoy the ſure Mercyes of David, having God to be their Shepherd to ſpread their Table for them: and they eat that which is good, and are ſatisfied with the fat things of his Houſe, and ſo can ſet to their ſeal that God is true and faithful; who hath not only promiſed ſuch things, but is daily fulfilling and making them good in and to their ſouls.

Quer. 8. What is that Baptiſm, from whence there certainly and conſtantly ariſeth the Anſwer of a good Conſcience towards God? Doth not this always ariſe from the inward baptiſm, from the waſhing away of that which defileth the Conſcience? Is not then the Conſcience thereby made Good and Holy in the ſight of God? And doth it not then Anſwer the Holy Will, Law and Spirit of the holy and good God?

Anſw. The Baptiſm of Water, being that which Chriſt commanded.

Rep. VVater Baptiſm, or outward waſhing of the Body, cannot make the Conſcience good: for a man may do that upon a miſtake, through error of Judgment, and go unchanged into it, and come unchanged out of it. But the inward Circumciſion and inward Baptiſm, doth really cut off and waſh away the ſin and filth of the Conſcience, and ſo make it good, and then the good Conſcience doth anſwer to God, in what he teacheth and requireth. But that water-baptiſm was commanded by Chriſt, is ſtill denied on our part, and unproved on his.

He

He saith, A clear Conscience ariseth from a true Conformity to the Law of God.

Rep. This is very true. But what is the Law of God in the new Covenant, but what he writes in the heart? God is the Teacher of his People in the new Covenant, and what he teacheth and requireth of them by his Spirit, is their Law. Christ is their Law-giver, and he gives forth his Law of Life, from his Spirit of Life, to those that wait for it; Isa. 42. 2. And he likewise opens the Scriptures, and shews what God taught and required of former Ages, and of this present Age. He shews what the shadows of the Law were, and what the Ministration of the Prophets and John was, and what the Ministration of the Son is; who is Faithfull in all his House, to every one there, as a Son, to give the Law of the Spirit of Life to them, even as Moses the servant was to give the outward Law to those of his house. So that it is not sufficient to read a Scripture, or Scriptures, and say this was Commanded and this was Practised of Old; but to wait to know how it was Commanded, and how Practised, and of what Nature it was, whether of the everlasting Nature of the Kingdom, which is to remain, or of an outward, Elementary Nature, which might be shaken and pass away. For it was the Will of God, that all such things should be shaken and pass away that the Kingdom it self alone, which cannot be shaken, might remain; Heb. 12. 27.

Conclusion. O that People knew and experienced the Baptism which is the substance, and then they would not Idolize that Baptism or outward washing, which in its Nature can be no more than a Sign, Signification or Representation of that which is the substance!

Answ. Our Baptism which is the Gospel-Baptism, being Baptised into Christ, is that which brings us to the substance Christ Jesus our Lord the substance of all things. So that signs or significations are nothing to us, but Christ is all to our souls.

Rep. That Water-Baptism is the Gospel-Baptism, can never be proved by you, it being neither of the Nature of the Gospel, nor commanded by Christ the Law-giver in the Gospel. And that this washing with outward Water is the Baptising into Christ, is a very low and dark Apprehension, far from Truth and the right understanding of the Scriptures, and the experience of those, who are Baptised with Christ's Baptism. And that which brings to Christ, is the Father by his drawings, not outward Baptising, or washing the outward man, with outward Water: that is but a bodily exercise, and bodily exercises profit little; so far are they from bringing to Christ the substance. And as for what he saith concerning Signs and Significations; O that it were so indeed, that they were nothing to you, but Christ were all to your souls! For if it were so indeed, could ye thus cry up a figure or shadow of the Gospel-Baptism; and be so ignorant of the substance; Do the Jews know the inward Circumcision? or do ye know the inward Baptism, any more than the Jews knew the inward Circumcision? Read that Scripture, Rom. 2. 28, 29. and the Lord apply it home to your Souls; He is not a Jew which is one outwardly, neither is that Circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew which is one inwardly, and Circumcision is that of the Heart in the spirit and not in the Letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God. Now may not the Spirit of God say in these our dayes, (yea of a truth the spirit of our God doth say so, and many have heard his Voice so speaking) He is not a Christian, which is one outwardly, neither is that Gospel-Baptism, which is outward on the flesh: but he is a Christian which is one inwardly, and the Gospel Baptism is that of the heart, in the spirit, not in the Letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God. The Jews praised the outwardly Circumcised, and ye praise the outwardly Baptised: but God praiseth the inwardly Circumcised and Washed. So that their Justification and Praise is of him, and they matter not the Justification or Praise of man.

He adds further, Neither do we these things but to obey him and follow his footsteps, that he went before us in, and so he is our leader and Commander.

Rep. Every practice of his he doth not Lead or Command his Disciples to follow him in. He was Circumcised outwardly: are we to take it up because it was his footstep? No more are we to take up the outward washing, because it was his footstep. But we are to take up that Circumcision, which cutteth off that which is Evil from us, and Crucifieth to the World: and we are also to take up that Baptism, which inwardly Baptiseth and Effectually cleanseth from Sin. O how plain are these things, where the Eye is single, and the mind not blinded or prejudiced, with its own Conceivings and Misapprehensions!

that

He adds yet, So that we are not Idolizing any thing, but following Christ in the way he went before us in.

Rep. I wish from my Heart, ye were not Idolizing Johns Baptism, or Water-Baptism, by setting it in the place of Christ's Baptism, and attributing that to it, which belongs to Christ's Baptism, and not to it. To affirm the water-Baptism is the Law of the spirit of Life in Christ, and that stooping to it, is stooping to the Law of the spirit of Life in Christ, and that the soul cannot be sanctified without going into the outward Water: for till then 'tis in disobedience, and charged as a transgressour, and the inward man cannot be washed while living in disobedience; and that sin is washed away by this outward water-Baptism, and that this takes off Disobedience, and so is the answer of a good Conscience in obedience to God, and that it leads persons into Christ; with more of this Nature; what is this, but the Idolizing of an outward Elementary Creature and Creaturely action; and an undervaluing of that Water and Blood, which alone can do this? Now to term this Idolizing is no reflecting on Christ, but on mens error of judgment, and their erroneous Practices which insue thereupon: Much less is it Blasphemy, although Christ himself was accounted a Blasphemer for testifying the truth, by the professors of that Age; and such a judgment may his followers meet with now, from the professours of this Age.

He saith further, I know that the pretence of all this, is the Baptism of the Spirit, Rep. He is greatly mistaken. It is not a pretence, but a feeling of the Baptism of the Spirit, by the Water of the fountain of Life, which God opens in the heart and the being born of this water and of the Spirit. By this means we came to know the Baptism which saves, and the Spirits washing and Regenerating us therewith: and if we should give the honour of this Baptism, to the washing of the Body with outward water, we should Sin against the Lord, and be Unfaithful in the Testimony he hath given us to bear.

He saith; Take notice that the Baptism of the Spirit, is a Promise, not a Duty.

Rep. That it is a Promise, is granted: but it is also a Duty to receive the Promise, and to give up to be baptized by him. Now to open this a little: for I write in Love and Tender Good-Will, and in that which opens my heart. The Spirit of the Lord did strive with the Old World. What did he strive for? Did he not strive to reclaim them from sin? To Circumcise them? To Wash them? God gave his good Spirit to the Jews to instruct them. To what end to instruct them, but that they might circumcise the foreskin of their hearts, and be no more stiff-necked: and that they might be inwardly washed in heart from their wickedness, and their vain thoughts might no longer lodge within them. So that the inward Circumcision and the inward Baptism of the Soul and Conscience (from whence is the answer of a good Conscience) was before either the outward Circumcision or outward Baptism, and is the substance, whereof the other were but figures. The spirit was not only promised in the time of the Gospel, but was also promised in the time of the Law (though more abundantly promised to be poured forth in the Gospel-dayes) Prov. 1. 23. Now what doth it do, when poured forth? Doth it not enlighten, quicken, lead, touch, wash or sanctify; purge out the Old Leaven, and Leaven with the New Leaven of the Kingdom? Here's true Understanding and true Experience. O that ye might come to witness and partake of it? Do ye desire to obey? O that ye were taught of God to know Christ, as the Father reveals him inwardly, and to deny and put off all that is contrary unto him, that ye may be baptised into him, and be found in him, Filled and Clothed with his Righteous Spirit, Life and Nature; in which Righteous Spirit, Life and Nature the true Circumcision and the true Baptism is witnessed.

He saith; The Promise of the Spirit, John calls the Baptism of the Spirit, Mat. 3. 11.

Rep. Though the spirit, when poured out according to the promise of the Father, did baptise several wayes: Yet that is not it which John there calls the Baptism of the Spirit: but the Baptism of the Spirit is the inward purging away of Sin and Filth, by the spirit and its Fire, or by the spirit of Judgment and Burning, which those that were Baptised by John, were afterwards to expect and wait for, that with his fan their Floor might be purged, their Chaff burnt up, and the Wheat gathered into the garner, v. 12.

He saith again; Take Notice, that the being baptized with the Spirit, or having the Spirit, does not excuse us of our being baptised in Water, but rather fits us for it.

Rep. If Baptism with VVater were a Command of Christ; being baptized with the spirit, or having the spirit, would not excuse from it. But if baptizing with the spirit be the Gospel-Baptism, and that which was figured out or represented by Johns Baptism; then we are not to turn back, from the substance, to the figure; or from Christs command to his Disciples, to Gods command by John to his Disciples.

He quotes Act. 8. 29. compared with ver. 38, 39. Where (saith he) We may see, that the Spirit was in the work of the Administration of VVater-Baptism, as it leads Men to the Truth of the Gospel; and therefore 'tis that the Apostle saith, that by One Spirit, we are baptized into One Body, 1 Cor. 12. 13.

Rep. God, from whom the Law was, and the Prophets, and Johns Preaching and Baptism, did work in them all by his Spirit; and Johns Ministration being the highest, God might please to work most therein. But that this is Christ's Baptism, commanded by him in the Gospel; or the VVater thereof, the VVater wherewith Christ washeth the Soul, or the VVater of Regeneration, whereby God Regenerates; that we cannot but deny, being taught of God and having experience of the contrary. Yea it is manifestly but a shadow of Christs Baptism, and not the Baptism it self; not the Baptism of his spirit and fire, wherewith alone the soul can be inwardly purged, Mat. 3. 11. compared with Isa. 4. 4.

But that VVater-Baptism leads Men into the Truth of the Gospel, is his great mistake. He had said but a few lines before, that it is the Office and VVork of the spirit of God to lead us into all Truths of the Gospel: Let him stick to that, and wait to experience that; and not attribute, that to a dead thing, which belongs to the Living spirit.

And whereas he interpreteth that scripture 1 Cor 12. 13. of outward visible Baptism with outward Water, that is a very manifest Misapprehension. (I wish he did not so misunderstand and misinterpret scriptures, for want of the right Key which opens them) For all that are Baptised with outward-Water (whether Jews or Gentiles, bond or free) are not Baptised into one Body: but all that are inwardly Baptised by the one spirit, are Baptised into the one Body, whereof Christ is head; and they all drink into one spirit: in which spirit they all have Life to act in the Body, and have a living sense of their place and service in the Body, which they, who only are Baptised with Water, have not.

THus far in way of Reply to his Answers to those Queries, which did flow from me, as Life and the Love of God sprang up in me, without any premeditation at all; which retain their truth, evidence and strength, notwithstanding all that he hath said to invalidate or weaken them. Now follow his Queries returned to Consideration, which it is on my heart to return an Answer to, in the nakedness and plainness of truth, as the Lord hath pleased to open and give me the Knowledg and Experience of the things queried of.

Quer. 1. Whether the Baptism of the Spirit be not a promise, and the Work of God to give it to his Creatures, and the Baptism of Afflictions an imputation of wicked men: and but one Baptism Commanded by Christ as a Duty to submit unto, if not Water-Baptism, what is it then?

Answ. The Baptism Christ Commands his Disciples to submit to, is his own Baptism, the Baptism of his Spirit. The true Disciples of Christ are inward Jews, and and inward Christians; and they are to submit to the inward Circumcision and Baptism of Christ their Lord. They are to be washed inwardly with the Water of that Fountain, which God opens to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for Sin and for Uncleanness, Zech. 13. 1. Doth God set this open for the Inward and Spiritual Jews, or Christians; and is it not their Duty to be washed or Baptised inwardly with it? They are to be Baptised with the Holy-Ghost and with fire, Matt. 3. 11. Every Disciple ought to wait for, receive and experience this Baptism. They are to be washed with the Spirit of Judgment and burning, and to have their Corrupt blood purged away thereby, Isa. 4. 4. They are inwardly to be Baptised into the Name of the Father, Son and Spirit, that they may inwardly rise up in the newness of the Life and of that Living Name, Matt. 28. 19. They are to be Baptised into the one Body, which is the Spiritual Body, and by Spiritual Baptism is the soul Baptised into it (and not by that which is Carnal) and so to come to mount Sion, and the Heavenly Jerusalem, and enter into it, which the Uncircumcised and unclean cannot enter into; but they alone that know the Truth, as it is in Jesus, and keep it, Heb. 12. 22. Isa. 52. 1. and Chap. 26. 2.

Quer. 2. If but One Baptism commanded, and Men cannot Baptize one another with the Spirit, and 'tis sinful to Afflict one another, What Baptism is this One Baptism?

Answ. God made his Apostles (and makes those whom he makes Ministers in the Gospel) able Ministers of the New-Testament; not of the Letter, but of the Spirit. And if the Lord make them able Ministers in his Spirit, What should hinder them from Ministring the Spiritual Baptism? The same Spirit that teacheth through them, Is it not able to Baptize through them? Who is sufficient for these Things, saith the Apostle, 2 Cor. 2. 16? Were they sufficient to Teach, but as God taught through them? And, Are they not sufficient to Baptize, as God baptizeth through them? How often have we found our Souls taught and baptized, by the Water of Life, flowing from the Spring of Life, through the Holy Ministry, which God hath mercifully raised up, and maketh use of, in these our Dayes?

Quer. 3. Whether it be not the Work of God on the inner Man, that brings the outward Man to be Baptized, and Obey the Commands of God?

Answ. It was the Work of God on the inner Man, when John's Baptism was commanded by God, to bring Men to John's Baptism; and it is the Work of God's Spirit in the Heart, which brings Men to discern and subject to Christ's Baptism: For the Baptism of Christ is not discerned by Man's Wisdom, or by the Reasoning Mind, but by the Sense of Life in the Heart.

Quer. 4. Whether Men can be truly sanctifyed by Faith, and the Spirit, that are disobedient to God, and live so?

Answ. No, they cannot. But true Obedience requires true Light and true Understanding: For all are not Obedient, who judge Themselves so; but those whom God judgeth so. The inward Jew is obedient to the inward Baptism, which Christ hath appointed, and dareth not set up John's Outward in its place.

Quer. 5. Whether the Spirit of God doth not distinguish between Sprinkling of the Spirit and Baptism?

Answ. They are both Figurative Expressions; but they tend to, and end in one and the same thing in Substance, which is Inward Cleansing. Sprinkling clean Water upon the Soul doth cleanse it, Ezek. 36. 25. And dipping into, or being over-whelmed with the Water of Life, in the pourings out of the Spirit upon the Soul, doth cleanse also. For there is a River, the Streams whereof do not only Refresh, but also Cleanse and carry away Sin and Filth from the Soul, as with a Flood.

I pray consider that Place, Isa. 44. 3, 4, 5. When God, from the Fountain of Life, pours out Water and Floods upon him that is a Thirst; Do not these Floods and Water wash him and nourish him also? Do not they wash away that, which hinders his Springing up, and Growth in the Truth? And, Is not he hereby Baptized into the Name of the Lord? God is the God of Jacob, the Holy One of Israel. And, Doth not one that is washed, feeling that carryed away by the Floods, and Over-flowings of the Spirit, inwardly feel, and presently say in his Heart, I am the Lord's, and another surname himself by the Name of Israel? Now, I am one of the Seed of Ja- cob indeed, and of God's Israel; and that Name belongs to me. I am inwardly washed from my former Wicked and Deceitful Heart: That is gone, and a New Heart and Spirit of God's Creating and Forming, is witnessed by me; and God's Spirit testifyes in me, and to me, That I am an Israelite indeed, in whom is no Guile.

Quer. 6. Whether the Circumcising Knife be not the Word of God; and the Soul obeying of it, be not a Sign the Knife hath entred, and taken place on the Soul of Man?

Answ. It is true: The Word of God, the quick, powerful, piercing Word of Life, the Word which lives and abides for ever, and is a Commandment of Life in the Heart, (Deut. 30. 11, to 15. which is the Commandment, Law, or Word of the New-Covenant, Chap. 29. 1.) which is the Word of Faith, which the Apostles preached, Rom. 10. 8. This Word of God is the Circumcising Knife; and the Soul Obeying of it, cannot but be Circumcised by it.

But I am jealous, with a Godly Jealousie, lest he mistake, and call somewhat else the Word, and reckon his Obedience to what he apprehends from the Letter, to be Obedience to the Word; and if so, he greatly deceives his own Soul. And I have good Reason thus to be Jealous concerning him, because I find him, in his Answer to my First Query, terming Water-Baptism the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ; which cannot but be strange Language, to all that know the Nature, Vertue, Life, and Power of the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus.

Quer. 7. Whether Baptism doth not lead Men into Christ, as Obedience to the Mind of God in Noah's Time, led him into the Ark, that we may be saved by Christ, as Noah was by the Ark?

Answ. It is the Father, by his Drawings, that leads Men to Christ; and Christ, by his Spirit, Baptizeth them into Himself. He Conforms those to Himself, that come to Him, both in his Death and Resurrection, by the Spirit and Power of the Father.

Now, it is this Baptism, or the Inward Washing, which removeth that which destroyes: and the Soul that is subject to the Ministration of Christ's Spirit, and gives up to be washed by him, is washed and made clean, and comes into the Number of the Saved: For feeling the Power which saves, and experiencing the Vertue and Operation of it, he must needs be saved thereby.

Nor was it Obedience in Noah's Time, which led him into the Ark; but God's Voice or special Command to him, which he received in the Faith, (By Faith he prepared the Ark, Heb. 11. 7.) which Faith produced Obedience: So that, 'tis Faith in the mighty Power of God, which saves; which Power works mightily in them that truly believe, mightily Circumcising, mightily Baptizing, mightily Burying with Christ, Burying the Soul into his Death, and Raising it up again in the Newness of his Life. So that, here is a real inward Work of Faith, a real inward Appearing and Working of the Power, and a real Obedience to, and a going along with the Power in its Work, in the holy Fear and Trembling: And so the Soul works out its Salvation, by the Power which works in it both to Will and to Do, according to God's good Pleasure, Phil. 2. 12, 13. Eph. 1. 19, 20.

Quer. 8. Whether Christ was not Buryed in the Water in Baptism, (We then being Baptized) We then be not Buryed with Christ by Baptism?

Answ. Christ was Circumcised with Moses's Circumcision, and was also Baptized with John's Baptism, which was a dipping into, or burying in the Water: Yet notwithstanding this, he hath his own Spiritual Circumcision, and Spiritual Baptism, to be administred in the Gospel-Dispensation unto His. And, as all Moses's Disciples were to be Circumcised with his Circumcision, and all John's Disciples to be Baptized with his Baptism unto Repentance; so all Christ's Disciples are to be inwardly Circumcised and Baptized with his inward Circumcision and Baptism; which is the Substance of both the other Figures.

Now, those only that are thus Circumcised, are Circumcised by Christ; and those only that are thus Baptized, are buryed with him by Baptism into his Death; which must be, before they can truly know a Rising with Him in his Life. May not a Man or Woman easily, from an Apprehension in their Understanding, go into the outward Water, Water, and riſe up again out of the Water; and yet not know what it is to Dye with Chriſt, or Riſe with Chriſt? But he that knoweth the inward Baptiſm, witneſſeth and experienceth theſe Things, being made a Partaker with Chriſt, both in his Death and Reſurrection.

Quer. 9. Whether Obedience to the Law of God doth not give a Soul a Good Conſcience in the ſight of God, and Diſobedience make the Conſcience guilty? and, Whether ever the Soul can be clear of Sin, while living in Diſobedience to the Law of God?

Anſw. It is God's ſprinkling the Soul, whether with the Water of his Holy Fountain, or with the Blood of the Covenant, and his waſhing them there-with, which makes the Conſcience good, Ezek. 36. 25. Zech. 13. 1. Heb. 12. 22. (Let it be conſidered ſeriouſly, whether Outward Water, or Inward, be intended in that Place, Heb. 12. 22? and when David ſaid, He waſhed his Hands in Innocency, Pſal. 26. 6. whether he did it with Outward Water?) This Water, this Blood, this Sprinkling, this Waſhing, is received in Obedience, and not in Diſobedience. But, What Obedience is it received in? Is it received in Obedience to Moſes's Circumciſion, or John's Baptiſm? or in Obedience to Chriſt's Circumciſion and Baptiſm? And let him, and all of his Perſwaſion ſeriouſly weigh, VVhether ever the Soul can be clear of Sin, while living in Ignorance of, or Diſobedience to Chriſt's Circumciſion and Baptiſm, whereby alone Sin can be cut off from the Heart, and waſhed away from the Conſcience?

Quer. 10. Whether to Obey God, be not the Way to meet with God, and to be Baptized of God?

Anſw. Obedience is better than Sacrifice; and to hearken, than the Fat of Rams. And to obey Chriſt's Spirit in the Goſpel-Diſpenſation, being inwardly Circumciſed and Waſhed by him, is far better, than to be Circumciſed with Moſes's Circumciſion, or Baptized with John's Baptiſm. The Day is dawned, and the Shadows are fled away; and the Obedience is not now to the ſhadowy Ordinances of Moſes, or John the Baptiſt; but to the Light of the Day, which ſhines in the Hearts of the Children of the New-Covenant. And they only have the true Knowledge of Chriſt, and the true Obedience, who know the Shinings of this Light, and walk with God in the Shinings thereof, 2 Cor. 4. 6. 1 Joh. 1. 7.

Quer. 11. Whether Men can idolize God's Ordinances, in keeping, doing, loving, and living up to them?

Anſw. They that ſet up Moſes's Circumciſion, or John's Baptiſm, for Chriſt's (which are not outward, as Moſes's and John's were, but Inward and Spiritual) they idolize them, and are found Guilty of ſo doing, in the ſight of Him who judgeth Righteouſly. Is it not Idolizing the Shadow or Figure, to ſet it up in the Place of the Subſtance?

Quer. 12. Whether Men's calling the keeping, doing, loving, and pleading for God's Ordinances, Idolatry, be not ſome of thoſe hard Speeches Jude ſpeaks of, 15 Jude?

Anſw. He ſtill all along takes the Thing in Queſtion for granted. We grant, that Moſes's Circumciſion was God's Ordinance, and that John's Baptiſm was God's Ordinance: but that either of theſe is a Goſpel-Ordinance, that Moſes's Circumciſion is the Circumciſion of Chriſt, or John's Water-baptiſm is the Baptiſm of Chriſt; that we Conſcientiouſly and Groundedly deny; God's Spirit in the Scriptures, putting a Difference between them; as particularly, between John's Baptiſm and Chriſt's, Matth. 3. 11. So that, as he greatly miſtakes the thing, ſo (through his Miſtake) he lamentably wreſts and miſ-applyes that Scripture, Jude 15. And let him ſeriouſly conſider, VVhether that Scripture may not juſtly be applyed to them? and, VVhether they can poſſibly avoyd the Laſh of it, without Repentance, who deny and revile the Inward Appearance of Chriſt, by the Light of his Spirit, in the Hearts of His, in this our Day, and deny his inward Circumciſion and Baptiſm, to be the Goſpel-Ordinance of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, ſetting up John's Water-Baptiſm in the ſtead thereof.

Quer. laſt: Whether it be not invading, and labouring to make void God's Law and Commands, when Men ſo ſlight, contemn, deſpiſe, write, and do all they can to keep People from cloſing in with them, and make them afraid of them by their Writing and Preaching, as ſome do?

Anſw. This Query implyes a very deep, wrong Charge againſt the Children and Servants of God, for their Obedience to God's Spirit. O, How will he anſwer this

to

to God! Becauſe we own Chriſt's Baptiſm, with the Holy Ghoſt and Fire, and into the Name of the Father, Son, and Spirit, with the Water of the Fountain which God opens for Sin, and for Uncleanneſs, and give Teſtimony thereto in the Requirings in God's Spirit, having learnt it of him, and experienced it from him, and having a Neceſſity upon us in his Name and Authority (many times) to teſtify, That this is the Goſpel-Baptiſm of Chriſt our Lord, and that John's Water-baptiſm is not the Goſpel-Baptiſm; but only a Figure, Repreſentation, or Shadow thereof: Therefore, this Man chargeth us with Invading and Labouring to make voyd God's Law and Commands, with ſlighting, contemning, deſpiſing, &c. Are not theſe hard words, and a very unjuſt Accuſation againſt God's Choſen Meſſengers and Servants, and any whom he pleaſeth to make uſe of in this Teſtimony? But the Truth is, Theſe hard words are not ſo much againſt Us, as againſt Him that ſends Us with this Teſtimony; and is no leſs than a fighting againſt Him, who will be too hard for you All, and will gather People more and more from the outward Water-Baptiſm of John, to the inward Baptiſm, by his holy Spirit and Fire; which, happy are they, that know and are baptized with.

He ſaith at the Cloſe; I have no End in this, but God's Glory.

Anſw. But he greatly miſtakes the way to glorify God: For to ſet up the Shadow of a Thing, inſtead of the Thing it ſelf, is not the way to glorify Chriſt, or the Goſpel-Diſpenſation. For Chriſt is the Son, who doth not come forth with Moſes's Circumciſion, or John's Baptiſm, (who were both Servants) but with the Spirit and Power of his Father, where-with he Circumciſeth and Baptizeth inwardly and ſpiritually. And to ſet up that which is Outward in the ſtead of This, is both to diſhonour the Father, and the Son.

THE CONCLUSION.

NOw, for a Cloſe, I ſhall open a little of the Myſtery of CHRIST, and of his Enlightning, Quickening, Circumciſing, and Baptizing; from ſome Scriptures, as the Lord hath pleaſed to open them in Me, and to Me, and give Me the Inward Senſe and Experience of them.

Joh. 1. 1. & Verſ. 3. The Word was in the Beginning, which Created all Things: and this Word is alſo the Beginning of the Creation of God in the Heart. In this Word was Life, and the Life was the Light of Men; and this Light, which is Life in the Word, ſhineth in Mens Darkneſs; which enlightneth them that believe in it, and the Life thereof quickneth, and giveth Life to them that hear its Voice, and believe in it; and both the Light and Life, or the Word by its Light and Life, Circumciſeth and Baptizeth. Doth not the pure Light cut off, chaſe away, waſh away Darkneſs (wherein all Sin and Uncleanneſs is Comprehended) from the Heart? Doth not the pure Word of Life, received in the Faith, purify the Heart?

Queſt. But, Where is this Word? or, How ſhall a Man come at this Word, or hear its Voice or Commandment, in the Obedience whereof it is enlightned, quickned, circumciſed, and baptized?

Anſw. It is not far off: It is nigh thee, ſaith Moſes. Thou needs not go up to Heaven for it, or down to the Deep, &c. For God, in his Love to Man, hath placed it nigher, even in Man's Mouth and Heart, that he might hear it, and do it, Deut. 30. and Rom. 10. And he that enclines his Ear to this Word, hears and obeys it, lives. And as

as it is the Word of the New-Covenant, (in which is the Light and Life of the New-Covenant) ſo it brings him into the New-Covenant, or makes an Everlaſting Covenant with him, even the ſure Mercies of David, Iſa. 55. 3.

Another Scripture is, 1 Joh. 1. 1. where he ſpeaks of the ſame Word, of the ſame Life, and of the ſame Light, where-with Men are Enlightned, and wherein they are to walk; Verſ. 7. That which is declared of, that which is to be teſtifyed of by the Goſpel-Miniſters, is the Word, the Life, the Light. This is the Meſſage Chriſt gave his Apoſtles to Preach, That God is Light, Verſ. 5. What is the Intent of this Meſſage, but That Men might be turned from Darkneſs to this Light, Act. 26. 18. And then the Light enlightens them, and they ſoon come to feel Life, and the Word from which the Life comes. And ſo they that truly Receive the Teſtimony of the Light, (which is the Goſpel-Meſſage, Verſ. 5) they ſoon come to the Manifeſtation of the Life (or of him who is the Life) in their own Hearts; and ſo into fellowſhip with them that are in the Light, and with the Father, and his Son Jeſus Chriſt alſo.

A Third Scripture is, 2 Cor. 4. 6. which ſhews the way of Enlightning the mind, which is by God's cauſing the Light of Life to ſhine in the Heart; which being believed in, gives the Knowledge of the Glory of God in the Face of Jeſus Chriſt. God is a Spirit, the Knowledge of Him is Spiritual, given and received in the Shinings of his Light in the Heart.

Thus we receive the Beginnings of our Spiritual Knowledge, and thus we receive the Increaſe thereof day by day. In his Light (in the Shinings of his Light in our Hearts) we ſee Light at firſt, and in the further Shinings thereof, we ſee more and more Light.

The Laſt Place I ſhall mention, is Matth. 13. 31. The Kingdom of God was that which Chriſt much Preached, and here he preacheth it as a Seed ſown in the Heart, and that a very little One. Now conſider, if this be not the Word of God in a Seed, Chriſt in a Seed, Life in a Seed, Light in a Seed, (God's Seed, his Seed remaineth in him, 1 Joh. 3. 9.) Now this Seed, as it grows in the Heart, grows in its own Life, Light, Nature, Spirit, Power, &c. and puts all theſe forth in the Heart in which it grows, againſt Sin, and towards Righteouſneſs. Yea, the Judgment of God is Revealed in the Spiritual Light, Life, and Power of this Word againſt Sin, and for Righteouſneſs; and God's Zion, God's inward, ſpiritual Zion, (or his People and Children) is Redeemed by the Judgment and Righteouſneſs, which is Revealed from, and in this Word in the Heart. And this Word is ſo Powerful againſt Sin, that it doth not only cut it off, and waſh it away from the Mind and Conſcience, and ſo make them Clean; but it alſo keeps the Mind, in whom it remains (as it is regarded and hearkned to) from joining to Sin any more: And if Sin cannot be joined to, it can neither be Conceived, nor brought Forth, 1 Joh. 3. 9. Jam. 3. 15.

Object. But by this Doctrine, or Experience, (as thou call'ſt it) Chriſt in his Outward Appearance, his Sacrifice and Blood, as alſo the Scriptures, with the Exhortations and Commands thereof, are all laid waſt, and made voyd, and of no uſe or effect; all being attributed to this Word, Life, and Light within.

Anſw. No, in no wiſe. This Word within, with the Life and Light thereof, doth not make voyd any former Appearance or Miniſtration of God; but rather Eſtabliſh them, by owning them in their proper Place, Uſe, and Service. For he that truly owns this Word, Light, Life, Spirit, Power, &c. in his own Heart, muſt alſo own it in the Hearts of others, in Moſes, in the Prophets, in John, and in its Fulneſs in Chriſt in Fleſh: and the Vertue of all it did in Chriſt, and by Chriſt in the Fleſh, towards the Salvation of Mankind, which his Obedience, and the ſhedding of his Blood, was by the Father made abſolutely Requiſite unto. And the Scriptures, the Inſtructions, Reproofs, Exhortations, Commands thereof, &c. in the Hand of the Spirit, are very uſeful to this Day: and the Shinings of Chriſt, and Quicknings of his Life are felt in them, when the Lord manageth them unto the Soul for good. Yea, the Words that Chriſt ſpoke in the Dayes of his Fleſh, are Spirit and Life to this Day, when he ſpeaks them in the Heart. But they are not Life, as Men apprehend, underſtand, or ſpeak them of themſelves; but rather Death, as ſo made uſe of.

And